Happy New Year

If all our wishes for you come true, you'll rate 1961 as the most satisfying year of your life. May you enjoy the best of health and much happiness . . . make solid progress in the direction of achieving your most cherished ambitions, from one end of the year to the other.

COURAGE FOR THE NEW YEAR

Does the challenge of the New Year perplex you? The contemplative mind may find inspiration and courage here.

Think on the great company of men who have made up the Fraternity that dates back to time immemorial. Artists have revealed their impressions of Masonry's moral teachings and its promptings for character stability; from Masonry poets and musicians have caught inspiration for heart-lifting story and song; philosophers, old and new, have colored their meditations with Masonry's pleadings; historians, ritualists, and jurists have labored long and diligently to enlarge the Masonic perspective; men from the bumble walks of life have bowed at her Altar and have arisen with new strength and determination.

Then let your mind run into the coming centuries and anticipate the throng of men who will yet knock at Masonry's door, men who will yet seek the inspiration of the mystic tie for a broader vision of man's duty toward his fellowman.

Table and attendance prizes will be given as well as refreshments which will be served. It is a table take choice party, fill your own tables and choose anything you like to play.

There will be a short stated meeting for members of the Court before the party.

The party has been arranged by the ways and means committee, Florence Geiger chairwoman. Other assisting were, H.L. Nellie Moore, Co-Chairwoman, and committee members H.L.'s Velma Sebanc, Mary Stocks, Lucy Shedron, Margaret Hall and Mary Beaman.

YOU ARE THE ANSWER

You may be a member of a large Lodge, or a small Lodge. You may be an officer, serve on a committee, or in some other capacity, or you may find that your usual vocation prevents you from taking part in the activities of the Lodge. But, regardless of the work that you do in the Lodge, or perhaps you do not do, you are the answer to important questions: "How strong is America?"

The Mason today must stand as the strong defense against the wild radicalism which threatens the welfare of America.

Whether one attends Lodge regularly or not at all, he cannot treat lightly the obligation that he owes to Masons of yesterday, and to the future of Our Country.

Organizations are fighting the battle for the preservation of the principle of Separation of Church and State. But, as individuals, you and I cannot be content to sit idly by in this grave and serious conflict between the ideals of America and the selfish desires of those who seek to inflict their own particular form of enslavement upon the people of America.

The distortion of words, the pressure that is brought to bear by any group which seeks advantages for themselves at the cost of hurting others, must be the concern of every Mason.

You are the answer. The well-informed, enthusiastic, and courageous Mason will determine the strength of Masonry, but more he will determine the strength of and welfare of America.—Masonic Messenger.

TWELVE THINGS TO REMEMBER

1. The value of time.
2. The success of perseverance.
3. The pleasure of working.
4. The dignity of simplicity.
5. The worth of character.
6. The influence of example.
7. The power of kindness.
8. The obligation of duty.
9. The wisdom of economy.
10. The virtue of patience.
11. The improvement of talent.
12. The joy of originating.

WAYNE LODGE
No. 25 F. & A. M.Stated Meeting
First ThursdayCharles Bandy ----- W.M.
3307 Northrop St. ----- T-1990
Darrell N. Good ----- Secretary
3318 Bowser Ave. ----- K-8317

By the time you receive this issue of the Square and Compass the holiday season will have passed. I hope you had a Merry Christmas and that you are looking forward to a prosperous year in 1961. On December 1, 1960 at our annual stated meeting I had the pleasure of being elected to serve as master of Wayne lodge for 1961. It is with much pride that I accept this big responsibility.

It has been a very enjoyable journey traveling toward the masters chair. A man can receive all the degrees of masonry and still never become a true Mason. There has to be a definite change in the individual to the better if he is to be an asset to his lodge. He may be escorted in the altar again and again; but, if he goes there with a closed heart and mind, no one will be the better. Becoming a Mason isn't the important thing. It is what the individual does with that knowledge that counts. The degree and craft work is beautiful and must be taken seriously, with keen observation. After becoming a Mason he must delve into the full meaning of all the beauties and mysteries of the historical background to understand the true meaning. It is all applicable to everyday living. If the individual continues to nurture this information and build with it, then he can call himself a true Mason. He will likely stay in the lodge and continue to ever work for its growth and prosperity. It is with this thought and hope that I enthusiastically start this year as master of your Lodge.

Also elected to office were Fred Goshorn, senior warden; Simon Harting, junior warden; Nile Hake, treasurer; Darrell Good, secretary; and Joseph McDowell to serve as trustee for three years. The appointed officers are Forrest Finnell, senior deacon; Daniel Dale, junior deacon; Robert Bogenschuetz, senior steward; Robert Witchey, junior steward; Luther Boyer, chaplain; and James Polles, tyler.

There is to be a public installation of officers on January 5, 1961 at 6:30 p.m. Immediately following will be our first stated meeting, opening at 7:30. Although we have no new petitions to vote on, there will be held over work for the 2nd and 3rd degrees.

Brethren, don't forget Wayne Lodge held visitation at the Veterans Hospital, January 9 at 7:30 p.m. Those of you who have never made this visit cannot realize how much this means to the patients and the good it does for yourself.

In our sick brothers we wish the best of luck and a speedy recovery. Please report any illness or distress to myself at T-1990 or any other lodge officer as soon as possible.

1217 W. Packard Ave. ----- H-3623

Brethren: This being my first article for Square and Compass, I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for having elected me your Worshipful Master for year 1961. I am deeply grateful for this privilege and will endeavor to do my utmost to serve you with the same honor and distinction, and in the true traditions of Summit City Lodge, as has been set by my predecessors. With the help of a fine staff of officers, past masters and craft, I feel confident that the year 1961 will be fruitful as well as a pleasant one.

Also, I desire to express the thanks and gratitude of the other elected officers; Brothers H. Murray Petty, Senior Warden; Robert H. Miller, Junior Warden; Albert R. Spencer, P.M., Treasurer; Dwight M. Myers, P.M., Secretary; and Leon B. Williams, P.M., Trustee.

The two holdover trustees are George N. Winchell, P.M., and Samuel E. Evans.

Appointments to the line offices are as follows: Donald R. Johnson, Senior Deacon; Robert J. Stone, Junior Deacon; Lee J. Harter, Senior Steward; Thomas W. Yoder, Junior Steward; Lawrence A. Baker, Chaplain; Arthur C. Walda, Tyler.

Installation of officers has been set for Thursday, Jan. 5, 1961, at 7:30 p.m. in the Corinthian Room at the Masonic Temple and will be open to the public. Installation ceremonies will be conducted by three of our Past Masters, Albert R. Spencer, George N. Winchell and Ahner R. Wolverton. These three brothers perform this ceremony in a most impressive manner, so make your arrangements now to attend.

The following brothers have been called to join that celestial lodge above where the Supreme Architect of the Universe presides:

William Bert Ryan, Nov. 5, 1960. Albert Galloway Williams, Nov. 20, 1960. Dale Roger Engle, Nov. 23, 1960. John Clarence Hoffman, Nov. 26, 1960. Otto Brinkman, Dec. 3, 1960. To their families and friends we extend our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy.

We welcome into Summit City Lodge Otto William Gallmeier and Russell Carl Hall, who have received their degrees last November.

Our annual Ladies' Night Banquet has been set for March 24, 1961, so place this date on your calendar.

Inasmuch as we are not conferring degrees during the month of December, I will not have the opportunity to personally extend to you the seasons greetings, so to all my brethren and their loved ones wherever dispersed, I wish you a Very Merry Christmas, and a most Happy and Joyous New Year.

I will be looking forward to seeing you in January.

Welcome Brother South Gaters to the new year. A year in which we can apply the principles of Masonry to our daily lives and in our dealings with mankind.

I wish to thank the members of South Gate Lodge for extending to me this high honor. The honor of being Master of a Lodge is accorded few men. South Gate has had Masters who have set a high standard of excellence and to follow these men is no small task. With your help and with a sense of humility and a knowledge of what this office demands, I will do my utmost to fulfill the duties of Worshipful Master of South Gate Lodge. Thank you.

I will have the help and cooperation of some very capable men in our officers. The new officers of South Gate Lodge are: Senior Warden, Douglas S. Baugh; Junior Warden, Guy Mausteller; Senior Deacon, John Whitney; Junior Deacon, Robert Gadenour; Senior Steward, Charles S. Scott, Jr.; Junior Steward, Everett C. Karkick; and Tyler, Henry W. Haessert. My new appointment to the post of Chaplain was Dale E. Shupe. These are all good and hard-working men who do an excellent job for South Gate.

We wish to thank all of the Brothers who have attended Lodge and who have helped us in our work. We hope that this year many more of you will join us in this great and good work. Especially do we want to thank Brother Paul Mueller and all of the Brethren who have contributed so much of their time and effort in visitation work at the Veterans Hospital. These visitations are once every six weeks and these Brethren have set a record to be proud of. Brothers we ask you to join in these visitations as the experiences you will receive will give you a reward far beyond your expectations and will give you a truer meaning of the work of Masonry.

As I write this article we are approaching the day of Christmas. As you read this, Christmas of course is past. I hope that all of you have a good Christmas. I hope that in the joys and excitements which attend this Day that you reflected upon the true meaning of Christmas. We know it today? I doubt it. I should be extremely thankful to God, for everything that we have, everything that we are and for everything that we hope to be, for the all are the result of his great gift to us, a Son, Jesus Christ. He walked among us and died for us that sins might be forgiven and that we might have everlasting life. A where men meet today in his name. He is with us.

To all you brethren of Maumee your officers hope that you had wonderful and happy holiday season. With the new election of Lodge officers, your new W.M. is Herman Wadlington and his wardens are J. McLaughlin and Jim Bolyard. Los appointments were: Paul Staught, S. Barton Pontoni, J.D., Philip Gutm, S.S., Arthur Graue, J.S., Bill Meyer, chaplain and Bill Lower, tyler. Of your officers hope that you make 1961 a good Maumee year, your continued interest and visits. Next issue of the Square and Compass will list the committee appointments for the new year—we hope that of you who wish to serve on a particular committee will let your wants known. All of the usual Maumee functions will be continued and will interest in them along with hard work on the part of your officers will make this an eventful Maumee year. We will have work to do—so come on up. And now a few thoughts on the first gift you received in Lodge for your apron.

The Apron—There is no one of the symbols of Speculative Masonry more important in its teachings and more interesting in its history, the lambskin, or white leather apron. Commencing its lessons at any time in the Mason's progress, the apron impressed upon his memory as the first gift which he receives, the symbol which is explained in the first and the first tangible evidence which he possesses of his admission into the Fraternity. devotion to the mystic Institution or his thirst for knowledge may subsequently lead him, by the lamb-skin apron—his first investiture—the seven parts. Changing, perhaps, its form and its decorations, and conveying, at each step, some new but still beautiful allusion, its substance is laid there, and it continues to claim the honored title by which it was first made known to him, on the night of his initiation, as "the badge of a Mason."

As to its color. The color of a Mason's apron should be pure unspotted white. This color has, in all ages and countries, been esteemed an emblem of innocence and purity. It is with this reference that a portion of the vestments of the Jewish priesthood was directed to be white. In the Ancient Mysteries the candidate was always clothed in white. In the early ages of the Christian church the white garment was always placed and was thenceforth to lead a life newly baptized, to denote that he had been cleansed from his former sins, and was then forth to lead a life of purity. Hence it was presented to him with this solemn command: "Receive the white and undefiled garment, and produce it unspotted before the tribunal of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you may obtain eternal life."

As to its material. A Mason's apron must be made of lambskin. No other substance such as linen, silk or satin could be substituted without destroying the emblematic character of the apron for the material of the Mason's apron constitutes one of the most important symbols of his profession. The lamb has always been considered as an appropriate emblem of innocence. And hence we are taught, in the ritual of the First Degree, that, by the lambskin, the Mason is reminded of the purity of life and rectitude of conduct which is so essentially necessary to his gaining admission into the Celestial Lodge above, where the Supreme Architect of the Universe presides."

I am happy to have this opportunity to greet each of you as your Worshipful Master for 1961. Special greetings are extended to our members living out of state and to my good friend Howard Kroesch in San Diego. This year I plan to devote this column to news of the happenings of our lodge, and announcements of coming events, that all may be well informed. Officers elected for this year are Albert J. Fisher Senior Warden, Thomas M. Franklin Junior Warden, Hoyt Q. Campbell Treasurer, and Curtis K. Heston Secretary. I have appointed the following: Lewis E. Howard Senior Deacon, Simon L. Smith Junior Deacon, LeRoy M. Roberts Chaplain, Charles E. Farmer Jr. Senior Steward, Lawrence E. Huffman Junior Steward, and Sherman L. Senger Tyler. These officers will all be on hand to greet you at our regular meetings.

Our stated meetings will be of an unusual nature due to the unique programs being planned by the Masonic education committee headed by the Senior Warden Albert J. Fisher. We have received petitions and as far as we can plan in the future there will be degree work each Tuesday. On degree nights lodge will open at 7:00 p.m. or earlier depending on the amount of work to be done. Our schedule for January and February is as follows. Jan. 3 installation of officers. Jan. 10 stated meeting. Jan. 17, E.A. degree. Jan. 24, E.A. degree. Jan. 31, Fellowcraft degree. Feb. 7, M.M. degree. On Feb. 7 lodge will open at 5:45 and a dinner will be served at 6:30. On that occasion Anny lodge No. 483 of Huntington will confer the M.M. degree. Feb. 21 will be E.A. degree again and degree work is anticipated each Tuesday thereafter. Feb. 15 will be our first social event of the year, it being our Past Masters banquet, at 6:30 p.m. followed by a very amusing program furnished by a group of brethren from Defiance, Ohio. They will present a mock degree entitled (The Royal Arc Widows Degree) the ladies are invited to attend this event. Tickets are now available and admission will be by advance ticket sales or reservations. No tickets will be available at the door, so make your reservations early by calling one of the officers of the lodge, as we are expecting a sell out for this interesting evening.

March 11 has been reserved for our annual spring smorgasboard and square dance, at which time we will be host to the Corinthian Club.
On each of our M.M. nights this year we will again enjoy a dinner, Lee Garrison will head the food committee. Our calling committee will contact a number of you preceding these dinners, please give them an accurate account if you plan to attend, so we can prepare refreshments accordingly.

If you would like to be called and reminded of these dates contact your Worshipful Master. Our sick members will receive immediate attention if you will notify Bro. Lawrence Huffman when anyone becomes ill or distressed. His phone number is A-65373. I am especially interested in the Veterans Hospital visitation program and urge you to become interested too, may we lead Fort Wayne in this worthy cause. This committee consists of Kenneth Witte, Charles E. Farmer Jr. and Glenn Swallow.

SOL D. BAYLESS

Stated Meeting
First Monday

Vernon D. Frazee ----- W.M.
8315 Waterswold Lane ----- T-7838
Arthur C. Slane ----- Secretary
3205 Reed St. ----- H-60453

It is said to be possible for a man to be a good Christian without attending church. It is almost a certainty, however, that church attendance will make even a good man a better one. Surely it is equally certain that participation in lodge activities will enable even a good Mason to be a better one. As a spring rain refreshes the earth and brings forth the beauties of nature, just as surely will participation in your lodge give refreshment of spirit and impart again and again the beauties of Masonry.

Election to the office of Worshipful Master of Sol D. Bayless Lodge will always remain as one of the most important events in my life. It is with sincere and extreme regret that I must report that I cannot serve the Lodge in that capacity through this year. As a result of a change in work, I have been transferred to Cleveland, Ohio. At the January stated meeting there is planned the usual installation of officers after which I expect to submit my resignation and will then conduct a new election to fill the offices of Worshipful Master, Senior Warden, and Junior Warden. This new election, however, can be held in January only if approval is granted by the Grand Lodge.

Other than myself, the officers scheduled for January installation are Delmar Proctor, Senior Warden; Kenneth Redding, Junior Warden; Max Poorman, Senior Deacon; James Timmons, Junior Deacon; Harold Houser, Senior Steward; Robert Stute, Junior Steward; and Donald L. Anderson, Chaplain. Also to be installed are the following brothers of whom the Lodge is proud and to whom it is deeply indebted: Past Master Melvin Ehrman, Treasurer; Past Master Arthur Slane, Secretary; and Past Master Oliver Linn, Tyler. Past Master Kenneth McCraw was re-elected to serve as a Trustee.

Brother Donald Anderson, who has accepted appointment as chaplain, is no doubt well known to many of you brothers through his many years of active work in our Fellow Craft Club. I feel sure that he will be a strong addition to the officer line and will help to maintain the high standards set by illustrious brothers who have gone this way before him.

To Past Master William Butz, on behalf of all the lodge brothers, I wish to extend heartfelt congratulations for his conduct of the duties of Worshipful Master this past year. Our lodge has been greatly strengthened by his earnest and capable leadership.

"To relieve the distressed . . . to sympathize . . . to compassionate . . . is the grand aim we have in view." In this area of our Masonic duties I would ask that all brothers assist the Worshipful Master by advising him of illnesses or misfortunes befalling our members. Obviously, appropriate action cannot be taken unless the situation is known.

As mentioned earlier, an out of town transfer necessarily makes this my first and last communication to you. I wish to express my sincerest gratitude to all who have helped me and extended to me the hand of fellowship in my travels Eastward. May God bless you and keep you and make His face to shine upon you in all your laudable endeavors.

A THOUGHT ON MASONRY

Masonry is in a sense but a form in which truth is presented. Those things which Masonic representation, symbolism and drama are designed to teach, are as old as man; the initial thought, the fundamental idea of Masonry, that without which Masonry would be as sounding brass up or tinkling cymbal, is coexistent with every force, whether material or moral.

Masonic drama and symbolism are but the machinery through which these forces are generated and operated. All along the pathway of time, in history, in tradition, we find traces of Masonic thought, traces of endeavor to formulate this thought.

The question of the hour is, not so much whether Masonry has claims to antiquity; not so much whether it had its origin in the days of Rameses the Great, or during the reign of Solomon, King of Israel, but rather, What is Masonry? What are its functions, its practices, its missions, its ministrations, its attitude toward the relations of life; what part is it taking in the great work of life?

There are no dogmas in Masonry. Its secrecy is confined to the means of communications. Its tenets are universally approved. What it condemns no man upholds. The essence of Masonry is character. Character is Masonry, and Character is destiny.

Nor does our organization assume a position of antagonism to any faith, creed, sect or belief. Masonry teaches not only the Brotherhood of Masons, but the Brotherhood of man as well. It believes with Humboldt, that, "The finest fruit earth holds up to its maker is man," and that commerce, law, learning, science and religion are but the scaffolding whereby to build up manhood. It bids every agency God-speed.

A Mason's prayer should be that of George Eliot: "Give me no light, great Heaven, but such as turns to energy of human fellowship."—The Masonic World.

LODGE COURTESIES

Masonry, like society, has its conventions and its formalities. A proper deference to these conventionalities, whether in social circles or in Masonic relationships marks one as possessing the traits of good breeding. Of course no penalties are inflicted upon Brethren who may, through ignorance or thoughtlessness, be guilty of violating Lodge courtesies, but by the observance of that decorum which has long been recognized as "good form" in well regulated Lodges as atmosphere of dignity will pervade the Lodge and a favorable impression will be created upon visitors.

Fundamentally, courtesy and decorum are experiences of the heart and mind which naturally give due consideration to the rights and privileges of others. They are close akin to Brotherly Love and are expressed in outward forms, which we call good manners.

Our happy holidays have come and gone which, we hope, everyone enjoyed to the utmost. Now we enter into a bright new year with its problems, its joys and sorrows, its health and happiness, all of which is a process of growth as this poem depicts:

What are these things called years of which we mortals pray?
The changes which they bring, too critical we rate.

The changes are but growth; growth to a wiser state.
To live, to change, to grow, this is our only fate.

Time is a kindly friend who measures out our tasks,
Some bitter and some sweet but each a lesson marks.

'Til led by kindly Time we view
the present, past,
As being lessons all leading to Truth at last.

Lillian A. Peabody

So lets make the most of this new year starting with good resolutions and keeping them.

One of the most outstanding events of the past year and one which will be long remembered by all who attended, was on November 19. The afternoon reception for Sister Helen Herrick, Deputy of District No. 14, was such a lovely affair and then the banquet and inspection afterwards, climaxed a wonderful day and evening. The lovely decorations, carrying out the Cinderella theme, both in the Commandery Room and in the banquet hall, were very unusual and beautiful.

The meeting of December 1, was Star Pal night; the officers honored all Star Pals for standing by them through the year and the officers served lunch on the Mezzanine after chapter.

An interesting Christmas program was the main feature of the meeting of December 15, with charming Christmas decorations adding much interest to the holiday atmosphere.

Our twenty-five year members will be honored on January 5 in a special ceremony which the Worthy Matron, Sister Gladys Gifford has prepared.

Don't forget the date of January 19! That is the night we all enjoy because the Master Masons will entertain chapter that night! The men always have a wonderful program prepared for us to enjoy, so be sure to mark that date on your calendar.

Social Calendar:

dinner at the home of Erma White, Queen and her Attendants had their celebration at the Colonial Restaurant and the Officers had a gala time at the home of the Biddles in Leo. All were Christmas exchanges, with beautifully decorated dining tables.
Several of our sojourners have been having a difficult time during December. PWOS Glenn Myers hurt his back when he had a bad fall. Soj. Clara South is in Lutheran Hospital after undergoing surgery following a lengthy illness. PWHP Mildred Igney's Mother is still on the critical list at Parkview Hospital. Gertrude Chalfant has been confined to her home. Many of our members have had the flu, but are on the mend. We hope all of our members and their loved ones will be much better by the beginning of this new year.

We are happy to welcome new members taken in at our Christmas ceremonial and hope you will be able to come regularly.
See you January 13th at Shrine.

Echoes from the old year are fading away and blazed across the horizon are greetings of a new year. We hold in our hands a new record book. As we write the history of our daily living, may it be filled with kindness and brotherly love.

The past month has been filled with many activities. At Court, we were wonderfully entertained on December 14th by our Master Masons. They served us a wonderful chili supper, and inspired us with their Christmas poems, both original and otherwise. On December we had a short stated meeting followed by a social hour Holiday Party. Also Committees and Officers all had their various Christmas parties with Christmas exchanges and wonderful sociability. We also remembered our Ladies at the Nursing Home with a Christmas Party for our Philanthropic project.

On January 11th after our regular stated meeting we will have a card party on the third floor. Those not attending the meeting may fill their tables from 7:30 on. There will be table prizes, attendance, prizes, and refreshments. Tickets may be secured from H.L. Florence Geiger, H.L. Nellie Moore, or your Royal Matron, H.L. Geraldine Boldt.

January 25th, Truth Court will observe Friends Night. Guests will be present from many other Courts throughout the State, and there will be an exemplification of the initiatory work by them. This is one of the high lights of the year.

Ways and Means Committee will meet at home of H.L. Mary Beaman on January 9th. Officers on January 5th, place to be announced.

We have had no serious illness in our Court, but quite a few attacks of colds and flu. We wish them all a speedy recovery, and we congratulate S.K. Don Reinhold and H.L. Dorothy on the birth of their son.

This is the time of endings, but of new beginnings, too.

God sends us another year and maketh all things new,
Another hope, another chance, another road to take.

Another star to follow and another start to make.

New beginnings, new adventures, new heights to attain.

Golden opportunities in work and build again.

New and higher aspirations for the future days.

Seeking, dreaming, moving on down bright and better ways.

May the Royal Patron and Royal Matron of Truth Court wish for all of you, a most Happy and Prosperous New Year, with the most opportunity for each to show Love, Friendship, and Service that he has ever known.

Masonry has greatly enriched my life. It has given me friendships that I cherish dearly. It has, I think, whispered subconsciously to me in silent hour of caution and encouragement. I like going back to my lodge. I have found it refreshing and good to step aside out of the path of my busy life and sit again with my Masons who have carried on in my absence.
—Edgar A. Guest

The Holiday parties which were held last month were very much in keeping with the Season and will long remain Sweet in our Memory. Time marches on and let us welcome 1961 by a few resolutions. Let one be "I resolve to attend as many of the activities of the court as possible."

Several Christmas parties of importance were held at different cities over the state. The "Lamp Lighters" met at Indianapolis, the "White Rose Club" at Anderson, the "Morning Glories" at the Ben Hur Motel at Logansport and the "May-Do's" in Fort Wayne at the home of the Vernon Reeds with H.L. Ahleen Oliver assisting. Snow or sleet can't keep Amaranth flunk at home.

Our "Sbut-ins" were all remembered at the Holiday Season with gifts by the cheer committee.

On Jan. 4th the Past Royal Matrons and past Royal Patrons will be honored at the stated meeting. he ritualistic degree will be exemplified by the Past Matrons and Patrons.

Sickness and Distress:
S.K. Joseph Anderson is a patient at Parkview Hospital where he has been quite ill. H.L. Cleora Kniss is at home in bed in a cast until about March at which time she will return to the University Hospital at Ann Arbor, Mich. S.K. James Grove is ill at home. Husband of H.L. Mildred Walden is a surgical patient at Parkview Hospital. Son of H.L. Frances Adams was in an automobile accident. Husband of G.A.M. Waneta Newby had a stroke.

Deaths:
Sister of H.L. Mabel Metzner and H.L. Myrtle Kinsey. Nephew of H.L. Mary Ellen Sible in Phoenix, Ariz.

Calendar of Events:

With Santa out of sight, January, the month of the R's comes in. The month of Reminiscing and Resolutions.

In the way of Reminiscing we think of what a wonderful year 1960 has been for Faith Shrine. Of the Friendships, the Special Keys have opened, and of the many Good Times that were shared. Of the Successful year in the State Shrine with Harriet Treace as its President, of the Outstanding work of the Officers in portraying the work and of the honored visit of the Supreme Queen, Leanne Wolf.

We can think back of the night we were pleasantly entertained by the South Side Mother's Chrurus and of the Past Officers meeting with fine Program that was presented by the First National Bank Chrursters under the direction of Melvin Honeck.

Of the Card Party with all the "loot" and many attendance prizes. Of the Veterans Day Smorgasbord (especially the mouth watering Beef Rump Roast catered by Elsie Turpauer) and of the December Turkey Banquet.

And in the way of Resolutions there isn't much to write about as the only one mentioned had to do with Dieting and this will go on for such a short time it is hardly worth while.

On our first December meeting we initiated a large group—29 girls. We would like to welcome them to come back often.

Our second meeting in December was our Christmas Party. Following the meeting, we had entertainment, under the direction of Carol Botteron. I would like to thank Carol, her committee, and those who participated. The program was really enjoyable.

The White Christmas Formal, which is a very special event of the year, had a wonderful attendance as usual. The theme of the dance was Mistletoe Magic. The decorations were beautiful and we all danced to the delightful music of Woody Neff's Band. The dance will be one that we will long remember.

The next Mother's Club meeting will be at the Leisure Electric Kitchen, on East Wayne Street. Mrs. Basil McCoy, will be the hostess, and her assistants will be Mrs. Edmund Kamm, Mrs. Elwood Stanbery, and Mrs. Charles Long. Everyone is cordially invited.

My term is over now and I would like to thank everyone for all the help they have given me. My term has been so wonderful and enjoyable. It really has been an honor to serve as your Honored Queen. The memories I have received from Job's Daughters will always be with me.

I would like to thank my council and other committees for the wonderful work they have done. I couldn't have gotten along without them. I would especially like to thank Mrs. Burchard for all the things she has done. I would also like to thank my officers and choir for the wonderful and beautiful work they have done the last six months. I'm so proud of them. I would like to express my sincere thank-you to our Guardians, Mrs. Simmers and Mr. Botteron, for the wonderful leadership and guidance they have given me. It was really a wonderful six months.

I would also like to give a great big Thank You to my parents. Their help was so appreciated.

By the time you read this article, a new queen and her officers will be in office. I would like to wish them all the luck and happiness in the world.

Again I would like to express my sincere thanks to everyone for all the wonderful help they gave me. I would like to wish everyone a very, very Happy New Year.

Reputation is character minus what you been caught doing.

The annual election of officers for 1960 was held December 6th with the following elected: Mrs. Myron Millhorn, Worthy President; Mrs. Chas. Masel, First Vice President; Mrs. George Adams, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Don Marvel, Preceptress; Mrs. Robert Brecont, Recorder; and Mrs. Earl Lyman, Treasurer.

We wish a speedy recovery to Sisters Mary Planck and Isabel Masel, who have been hospitalized, also to Sister Eva Mosier, who is still in the hospital and to the Sister and Niece of Sister Lenz Thrasher.

Our Inerth President, Mrs. Roy Ratican and Preceptress, Mrs. George Adams, thank all who helped make the Rummage Sale November 19th such a success.

There will be no sewing in December but the evening group will meet on January 30, 1961 with Sister Thelma Ratican.

Our annual inspection was held December 10, 1960 and was preceded by a potluck dinner. We thank the Drill Team from Star of the East, Order of the Eastern Star, for the nice exhibition of their work prior to Assembly.

We are indeed most happy to welcome Sister Dorothy White as a new member.

Officers and members enjoyed a Christmas Party on December 20th. The Childrens Choir from St. Joseph Methodist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Stanley Putman, gave us an enjoyable Christmas program.

It has been a pleasure to serve you as Publicity Chairman in 1960.

BAD TOOLS

A dull chisel, used on fine marble, leaves a disfiguring mark. The artist knows it, and he is careful that his tools shall be of the best temper possible, for marble is too costly to be spoiled needlessly.

Thoughts are the chisels used in the making of the soul. A bad thought mars and disfigures the texture of the spirit just as surely as a dull tool scratches and spoils the marble. Used long enough, that chisel, wrong thinking, will mar the charitlfe forever. But how a good thought does beautify the soul. Right thinking day after day chips away the crude and the unlovely, and brings out the best and the truest and the most beautiful.

—The Victorian Craftsman.

BE SLOW TO CRITICIZE

Far too many person are prone to jump at conclusions. A good percentage of lifes tragedies are due to hasty judgment and unconsidered criticism. It is too easy to murder a reputation and inflict an irrepairable injury.

Here is where Masonry enters into the picture. Members of our ancient and honorable Craft, of all men, should be deliberate in judgement, candid in consideration charitable in construction, and moderate in condemnation.

In this connection Masonry teaches a most important lesson: If you feel inclined to criticize a brother, suppose you go to him in a friendly way, talk over the matter in question, and discover his point of view. It may be a different angle from that which presented itself to you. After all, it may be the right angle, and by listening to it you may be spared the ignominy of doing him a rank injustice. Perhaps he can tell you things you did not know. On the other hand, perhaps you may be able to enlighten him and lead him to see the error of his way.

Therefore, my brethren, let us guard against hasty judgment. Let's give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt. There is nothing to be lost by being sure we are right before going ahead.—Wisconsin Freemason.

Congratulations to the newly elected councilors:
James Carter, Jr., Master Councilor; Tom DeWesse, Senior Councilor; and Bill Branstrator, Junior Councilor.

The election was held December 14, with 188 members present. We were so happy to have so many present and we invite all of you to be present for the installation which will take place at 6:30 p.m., January 7, 1961 in the Egyptian Room, Masonic Temple. The appointed officers could not be selected in time for the deadline of this issue which is the 15th of each month, so we will report their names in the next issue.

"Buddy" Faulkner, Executive Secretary of the Indiana DeMolay Foundation.

tion, "Bad" Ballard of Vincennes Chapter and State Advisor and Larry Ulrick State Master Councilor will be present for our installation, so I know many of you will want to be present to meet and greet them.

Our first regular meeting will be on January 11, 1961 so plan now to bring in those new petitions at that time. We want and need at least forty new candidates for our first class in February.

May I take this opportunity to thank all the officers and members you have served their chapter in any way this past term. We have made progress, and it was by your efforts that we did so. May I also ask that the new officers place themselves to serve their chapter well and that all the members stand with them for the good of the chapter.

May I thank all the members of the mother's circle for their fine work during this past term. You are all such good people to know and do so much for the good of the chapter. Thank You.

To all Members: Keep in mind that Fort Wayne Chapter will host the 1961 State Conclave to be held on June 30, July 1 and 2, 1961. We will need lots of help and we know that you will want to start savings to register and attend the entire conclave.

"Dad" Herrick

Next month your new Master Councilor will bring you this message.

We Give Thanks

THANKSGIVING will never be as commercialized as Christmas," some one remarked, "because no presents are given at Thanksgiving. Stores can sell Christmas gifts, but they can't sell gratitude!"

Well...is this true? No presents at Thanksgiving? On the contrary, when this holiday is truly celebrated, it is precisely because of the avalanche of gifts. Only these are not gifts that can be bought in a store, they are not gifts to which any price tag can be attached. They are God's gifts, and Thanksgiving is the day when we stop to think about him and thank him. Or do we?

Who Give Thanks

You don't always feel very deeply grateful for something you have earned by hard work. You may be very glad you got whatever it was. You may be highly satisfied by getting it. But if thanks are due, they may be more in the way of self-congratulations than anything else. You are most in the mood for thanks when you know very well that you did not and perhaps could not have produced whatever it is for which you are thankful. We who give thanks to God—whether every morning or every Sunday or on such special occasions as our national Thanksgiving holiday—are his beneficiaries. There is no possible way of repaying God for his blessings.

It is quite true that there are some blessings in life which we do not have unless we work for them. For example, the respect of the community where we live is a real blessing; but without genuine effort on a man's part, other people will never respect him. Health is an incalculable asset; but health never perches over a man's door if

Whom Do We Thank?

There are other blessings which more evidently come from God. They were, so to speak, woven in with the world at creation. The succession of the seasons, the beauty of the skies, the marvel of life itself, this body so cramped with miracles, this spirit that can soar out of time and space; for all these we thank God because there is no other Creator. Yet there are also blessings that come to us through friends, parents, brothers and sisters—yes, even through our enemies. Here we can give double thanks. First we can thank those who brought these blessings to us—friends, relatives, strangers—and also we can thank God. For if you sit down at a quiet time and ask yourself about any particular blessing, let us say the trust of a little child whom you know—ask yourself, where did this come from, in the long run?

For What Are We Thankful?

We give thanks to God for the great mercies, for sparing our lives from destruction, for the forgiveness of sins (the greatest single blessing we can have) and for the "hope of glory." But in the brightness of these great mercies we may overlook the smaller gifts from his hands, those lesser mercies without which the greater could not be. Easiest of all to overlook are those blessings which come disguised. In a time of deep suffering one may not see what God has in mind—one may be tempted even to feel that God has forgotten and does not care. But in time—in God's time—we can look back and see our pain in perspective. And then we may gratefully see that not only did God permit it, he sent it, for reasons even we shall see.

Companions: I am sure that all who attended Ladies Night and the presentation of the Royal Arch Widow Degree had an enjoyable evening. We were both surprised and happy to greet some members whom we had not seen for years. My appreciation goes out to all those who helped make this a successful event starting with the preparation of the dinner down through the closing of the degree and the refreshments that followed.

In January again we will have our dinner prepared by the Veils before our stated meeting on January 20th. Supper is usually ready for serving by 6:15. Be sure to attend and bring a healthy appetite.

Let us all resolve that in 1961 we will talk up York Rite to our Master Mason friends and encourage them to continue with their Masonic education and knowledge.

FORT WAYNE COMMANDERY No. 4 K.T.

Stated Conclave
Third Thursday

Maynard R. Cope, Jr. E.C.
4751 Bowser K-3830
George P. Gable Recorder
442 W. Wildwood Ave. - H-4727

Your newly elected commander wishes to thank the Sir Knights for the confidence they have placed in him.

It is not easy to try to fill the shoes of somebody like Eminent Past Commander Schuble Boggs. Sir Knight Boggs has now served as head of his Blue Lodge and all three York Rite Bodies. He has memorized more Masonic ritual work than anybody we have ever known. His presentation of ritualistic work has brought him the favorable attention of the Grand Commandery of Indiana and more than state-wide acclaim. Every project he has pressed to the utmost leaving no stone unturned to make each event a success. We must truly say, Well done, Eminent Sir Knight Boggs.

Our primary goal this year is to accelerate activity in the acts of charity and pure beneficence for which the Knight Templar has become widely known. We are especially concerned with reorganizing and revitalizing the activity of the Eye Foundation, the Educational Loan Fund as well as General Welfare under strong functioning committees. For this cause every Knight Templar is reminded of his solemn vows and his obligations of knighthood. Knight Templar must not stand accused of apathy and indifference to the needs and suffering of others.

We must also enlist through new membership the assistance of those whose consciences move them to enlist under our banner and thus become associated with our work.

Responsibility for the casting and expedition of the degree work has been established.

Necessary committees have been appointed and are functioning.

Once again we look forward to the annual and traditional York Rite Commandery Ball. Plans are already under way for this gala affair which will again be held in the first floor hallroom and mezzanine floor of the Temple on Saturday evening, February 11.

Members of the York Rite Commandery Drill Corps are reminded of the election of officers at the regular stated meeting Tuesday, January 11.

There will be a York Rite Association dinner at the Shrine Club Room on the evening of January 21, at 7:00 p.m. for all past and present York Rite officers and their ladies. For reservations call James P. Johnston at T-39113, and T-394 and Myron A. Millhorn at T-39810.

In behalf of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 we wish to extend our congratulations to Mrs. Myron Millhorn on her election as president of the Beauceant. We wish "Janie" and her staff a very happy and prosperous year.

YOUR MASONIC MEMBERSHIP

Have you ever paused to consider what your Masonic membership is worth to you—not in dollars, but in the things that dollars cannot buy?

Was there ever a passport into more wonderful friendships than that represented by your membership in Masonry? Has the thought occurred to you that you extend your hand in fellowship and understanding, and it is received not by a limited group, but by millions?

Do we give thought to the strength and inspiration that we receive from the lessons of Masonry, and how those lessons enrich our lives, and broaden our vision? Yes, they even make possible an education, the like of which is not possible through any other course of instruction.

Have you ever thought how Masonry makes you tolerant of the other fellow's faults and weaknesses because Love has brought Wisdom from the Great Light of Freemasonry?

Have you ever thought of the privileges of service that Masonry offers—the happiness derived from such service and sacrifice?

When we enter the portals of Masonry we had certain qualifications necessary to become a Mason, but do we take stock of ourselves and find that we have grown spiritually and mentally over years that we have worked in Masonry?

Have you ever looked upon the face of a brother who is about to receive a button for 50 years of service to Masonry? What do you suppose Masonry has meant to those Masons?

Let us take our Masonic membership to our heart. Let us thank God for the privilege of our Masonic Membership.—Masonic Messenger.

GOETHE SAID IT

Goethe, a great Mason said that talent may develop in solitude, but character is created in society. It is the fruit of fellowship. Genius may shine aloof and alone, like a star, but goodness is social, and it takes two men and God to make a Brother. We are tied together, seeking that truth which none may learn for another, and none may learn alone. If evil men can drag us down, good men can lift us up. No one of us is strong enough not to need the companionship of good men and consociations of great ideals. Here lies, perhaps, the deepest meaning and value of Masonry; it is a fellowship of men seeking goodness, and to yield ourselves to its influence, to be drawn into its spirit and quest, is to be made better than ourselves.

FRATERNITY AND EQUALITY

Masonry, marching under the leadership of God and the banner that bears the motto, "Love thy neighbor as thyself," with the peasant and the prince, the mechanic and the merchant, the workingman and the millionaire, the learned and the unlearned, following in equal rank and common step, knows neither race nor nationality, neither caste nor conditions, as it proudly and beneficently moves down the centuries—Chauncy M. Depew.

EACH MAN'S WISH

There is one wish ruling over all mankind, and it is a wish which is never in any single instance granted—each man wishes to be his own master. It is a boy's beatific vision, and it remains the grown-up man's ruling passion to the last. But the fact is, life is a service; the only question is, whom will we serve?—F. W. Faber.

MOSAIC PAVEMENT

The word Mosaic has nothing whatever to do with Moses. The Greek root from which it is derived is "moussa," a muse, suggesting something artistic. We find the root appearing in our word "museum," meaning a building in which artistic works are exhibited.

In the course of time, through the Latin, it came into the modern languages and during the Middle Ages it gradually became narrowed down to mean a pattern formed by small pieces of tile or inlay—a form of decorative work very much in vogue among the Operative Masons.

Remember that our "mosaic pavement" is so called because it consists of an inlay pattern made up of small black and white squares alternating to suggest day and night.—The Philalethes.

DENOTING PLENTY

One of the words known to us in Masonry is said to denote "plenty" and is usually depicted in our lodges by "an ear of corn next to a fall of water." No further explanation is offered in the Ritual. This fall of water does not mean a waterfall, a picture of which can sometimes be seen on the reproduction of the Tracing Board. The fall referred to is that of the periodical lowering of the level of the flood waters of the Nile, leaving behind the rich alluvial deposit to fertilize its otherwise arid land, and which enables the growing of the annual corn harvest. Upon this natural phenomenon depended each year the "plenty" of the cultivated land. Hence we see the connection. Sometimes heard is "By the fall of water," which loses the intended meaning of harvest and flood.—Bulletin of Hope Lodge, Meert, India.

MASONIC FALLACIES

That Masonic lodges, like many other organizations, hold "membership campaigns," for the purpose of securing an increase in numbers.

Not only is this untrue, but it is contrary to the ethics of Freemasonry for any member to solicit an application from a non-Mason. Each must seek membership (in a symbolic lodge) of his own free will and accord.

That to receive certain other degrees, Masons of the United States must go to Scotland, or to the "old country."

That is not true. Only one small appendant organization, the Royal Order of Scotland, has bodies in this country which are under a foreign jurisdiction, and that order has no degrees which are not conferred in the United States.

That the Order of the Mystic Shrine is the highest body in Masonry.

Although membership in the Order of the Mystic Shrine is confined to those who are Knights Templar or Thirty-second degree Scottish Rite Masons, the Shrine is not itself a Masonic organization.—The Ohio Mason.

LEARNING

Learn to live; a good life is better than medicine.

Learn to tend strictly to your own business.

Learn the art of doing kind and encouraging things.

Learn to keep your troubles to yourself; the world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows.

Learn to greet your friends with a smile; they carry too many frowns in their hearts to be burdened with yours.

Learn to tell a story; a well-told story is as welcome as sunshine in a sickroom.

Learn to be tolerant; understanding your friends' faults sincerely will do much to lessen yours.

THINK IT OVER

Brother, take time to sit down with yourself in some quiet corner. Conduct a real examination into the quality of your Masonry. Go over your acts of the past 24 hours, the past week, the past year. Think of yourself again as a candidate seeking admission into our Fraternity.

Would you let yourself in? You knocked at the door uninvited, and in turn, for the privilege of being a Mason, you promised to be a just and upright man. How well have you kept that promise?

There is just one man who is really vitally interested in your reply to that question—that man is YOURSELF!—Exchange.

THE BLEEDING HART

The November, 1959, Columbus, official Knights of Columbus magazine contains another "protest" by Luke E. Hart, Supreme Knight, against the laying of the cornerstone of the East Front of the National Capitol with Masonic ceremonies last July.

Mr. Hart's objections are based on the age-old misconception that Freemasonry is "a distinctly Protestant body." That its membership contains so many men whose religious affiliations are with Protestant churches is not Freemasonry's doing. The Popes of Rome have created that condition by prohibiting docile Catholics from joining the Fraternity, which welcomes into its ranks good men of any sect or religion, including Catholics. Freemasonry is not a religion, nor like the Knights of Columbus, a fraternal order which represents and espouses one particular sect.

As long as Mr. Hart's church insists that other religious sects and denominations are not entitled to the same status and privileges which that church claims for itself, (as so painfully demonstrated in Spain and other predominantly Catholic countries) Mr. Hart's appeals to "the Charters of our liberties" seem rather illogical. The majority of the men who wrote those charters were Freemasons, as was the author of the Impassioned lines which Mr. Hart quoted in the preamble to the Resolution of disapproval which he authored.

This is the final month of my term as Master, it seems only a few weeks that I was installed. In the December stated meeting new officers were elected for the year of 1961. Norman Bushee was elected Master, Joe Roman as Senior Warden, and Minor Stoll to the office of Junior Warden. These brothers along with the appointed officers will be installed on the first Monday night of January, or January 2nd, 1961. There will be an Oyster supper after the installation meeting.

On December 5th, 1960, we had a party for the children and Scouts. The turnout was very good, there were one hundred and seventy five children and about twenty adults. After showing a couple of films the children were all given a treat of candy.

Brother Earl Young is now home from the hospital and is improving.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Ossian Lodge for the privilege of serving as Master during this last year, also the Brothers and officers who helped me so generously, and our Secretary Brother Harvey Ault, who could always come up with the answer anytime I needed advice.

In the December Stated meeting there were two petitions read to the Lodge, so it looks like Brother Bushee will start off with degree work. I wish him a lot of success for the coming year.

By the time this article is read we will have installed our new officers which are as follows: Edward Sherk, Worshipful Master; Maynard Campbell, Senior Warden; Jesse Jeffries, Junior Warden; Floyd Gause, treasurer; John Lare, secretary; Russell Ramer, senior deacon; Eugene Martin, junior deacon; Melvin Kuhn, Chaplain; Rodney Lansaw, senior steward; Gerald Runion, junior steward; and Keith Strater, Tyler.

It is the wish of all the officers that they may be able to serve the lodge well through the coming year. It is my wish and that of all the officers, God willing, that we may have a harmonious year, since harmony is the strength and support of all societies particularly ours.

We are saddened by the loss of Brother Kenneth Simon, who has gone to stand before the Great White Throne. Our heartfelt sympathy goes to his family. Past Master John Lare conducted twilight services on the evening of Dec. 6th at McKees Funeral Home in Garrett.

We welcome the fine turnout at our E.A. degree work on Dec. 8th and hope you will all return along with many more, for the more you come to visit your lodge the more it will mean to each of you. We are pleased with the fine candidate we have here and hope to have many more in the ensuing year.

I wish to thank each of you for electing me worshipful master for the year to come and hope that I may serve you well.

It was certainly a pleasure to see the increased attendance at the last meeting and we want to thank Brother Gayl Sheets for showing his slides of Naples and Venice, Italy. It was very interesting and also very educational.

As you know, at the last meeting we had election of officers and we have a good slate of workers for the coming year. Our new officers are: William North, Worshipful Master; William Jesse, Senior Warden; Earl Hamrick, Junior Warden; Russell Neireiter, Treasurer; Herbert Jesse, Secretary; Lloyd Yousse, Howard Morton and Cecil Grottschalk, Trustees; Gayl Sheets, Senior Deacon; Lloyd Yousse, Junior Deacon; Cecil Grottschalk, Tyler; Jack Lybarger, Senior Steward; Brice Counterman, Junior Steward; Donald Chaffin, Chaplain.

We hope to have a large number of the brethren at our next meeting when the new officers are installed and we can get the new year off to a good start. See you then.

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce Brother M.M.'s Ned Biddle and Joe Crisenberry, who have been transferred to this lodge. I trust you will all become acquainted with these brothers and welcome them into our lodge.

I regret to report that Brother Clarence Hosler was stricken with a stroke and is hospitalized at the Souder Hospital in Auburn.

Plans are being formulated to present Brother Ora Hoffman a fifty-year award at the Feb. 2, 1961 regular meeting. Let's all make an effort to attend this important event.

We had an overwhelming turnout of membership for election at the Dec. 5 meeting. It certainly gives me a lot of personal satisfaction to see such enthusiasm among our brethren.

The election results are as follows: Richard Worman, W.M.; Jack Bridges, S.W.; Clair Reed, J.W.; Harold Rediger, Treas.; Alvan Tharp, Secy.; Wayne Rossetol, Trustee.

I will leave the announcement of the appointed officers notification to your newly elected Worshipful Master.

Again, allow me to say "Thank

TURN BACK THE PAGES

Watch once more, my Brethren, the first contact of a candidate with our Craft, his entrance into Masonry. Apply for yourselves his lessons of faith. Turn back the pages of your career and see yourselves again in him as when you first entered the Lodge. Renew with him your pledges, replenish your trust, recall the old thrill of your Entered Apprenticeship. It shall not be in vain. There is not in all the affairs of life a solitary foothold for you where that knowledge will not serve you well. Yes, watch, and pray.

JUST PLOWING HIS FURROW

Here's a salute to the kind of man who does a thing because he knows it needs doing—and not because he'll get his name in the paper.

Here's to the fellow who doesn't need to be led on by rewards, prizes, citations and honors—the fellow who knows these things exist, but is too busy getting on with the job he's cut out for himself to worry about his chances of being named Man of the Year.

Here's to the sort of man who made this a good country, and who makes up its backbone today; the man who puts his family first, who has figured out for himself what's right and what's wrong, and who isn't forever reaching for the brass ring and hoping for the free extra rides.

He gets tired and worn down sometimes—and usually keeps right on going, without looking around to see if anyone notices his determination. Sometimes he runs into a stone wall—and smiles at himself, and tries another way.

There are plenty of people talking about the world's problems, and grouching about the mediocre luck the world has handed them; but this fellow isn't one of the talky crowd. His troubles are as serious as anyone else's but he isn't making a speech about them; he's off plowing his furrow.

We see him every day, in lots of places, and we sure like his looks and his plain manner of going.

We seldom make any sign to him, because like most people we're a little quiet and even a little shy. But good friend, keep going. You are the strength and the quality and the heart of this world, and we throw our hat into the air for you.

MAN, 75 TO GET MASONIC HONOR

A Fort Wayne man will receive special commendation at a meeting of Lodge 224 F&AM, Leo. The 103-year old lodge will present a 50-year man to Ora Huffman, Jones Hotel, at a meeting of the lodge Thursday.

Hoffman was born in Perry Township, November 2, 1885, and became a Mason in 1911. He is a former employe of the General Electric Company here and a retired farmer.

The presentation will be made by Alvin Tharp.

LIGHT OF FREEMASONRY

What, then, is the light of Freemasonry? It is composed of many beams, which, like the colors of the rainbow, united give the pure white beams the three primary colors, as we may call them—Are Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

Truth is of great importance, for every brother should be a true man, square in his conduct, upright in all his actions. He who regulates his life according to the Masonic line and rule will walk justly and uprightly before God and man, neither turning to the right nor left from the paths of virtue. The essence of truth is to be true to one's self, true to one's neighbor, and to our God. And if a man is said to be a Freemason the world should know that he is one whose tongue is kept from evil, and his life speaks no guile.

Brethren it is our proud boast that this ray shines forth bright and clear from all lodges, and that to be a Freemason is, as it were, a half-mark of integrity. May it ever continue to be so as long as the Fraternity exists.

HARMONY

Harmony is the cornerstone of the Craft. From it springs the eternal fountain that pulses life to the whole fabric. The manner of devotion to this principle determines the life of Masonry or any particular lodge.

Harmony is more than a mere individual peace of mind. Men are so constructed that they cannot live fully except with their fellow men. To Masons, the Masonic lodge is one of the happiest places on earth, and, indeed, it is the charmed circle. Whatever faults it possesses, it has much that is good. As a rule Masonic brethren dwell in a pleasant unity. Sometimes, it is true, discord and disruptions may break out within the circle. But these storms frequently serve to clear the atmosphere, as a shower refreshes day.

Only when harmony is broken do we fully appreciate its value. The effort to heal the breach, the forgiving spirit, all bring to the surface the Masonic virtues, and leave them stronger than they were before.

—Scottish Rite Herald

MASONIC PASTMASTERS NAME JOHN S. LARE

John S. Lare has been elected president of the Northeastern Indiana Pastmasters Association, F&AM. Lare had been worshipful master of Huot-crown Lodge 689.

Other new officers of the association include Lester E. Smith, Harlan Lodge 296, senior vice president, and Robert R. Marshall, Southgate Lodge 731, junior vice president.

Re-elected were W. Arthur Rodemeyer, Fort Wayne, secretary, and Orvis A. Dellinger, Fort Wayne, treasurer.

Members named to the executive committee were James Farrar, Thomas Cannon, Berton J. Sterling Jr., Clarence McIntoch, all of Fort Wayne; Harry Wann, Harlan; Glenn Meyers, Leo; Ernest T. Earhart, Ossian, and Rolle Durbin, Ne Haven.

JOHN A. RHUE HONORED

Veteran Companion John A. Rhue had the unique experience of receiving three gold awards during the inspection banquet held on December 3 by Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4. John D. Lombard, Grand King of the Grand Chapter, presented the 50-year awards for the Grand Chapter and Grand Council, and the Grand Commandery award was presented by Harold Hoolihan, Grand Standard Bearer of the Grand Commandery.

DAD REITHMILLER HONORED

Dad Harry F. Reithmiller, former, Chapter Advisor of Fort Wayne Chapter, and former Governor of DeMolay District number 4, was honored recently when the world's largest Chapter named a class in his honor, to pay special tribute to him as he retired from active DeMolay, the most tender-hearted, the most service. Seventy-seven members were in the class. Dad Reithmiller had been active in DeMolay for nearly 15 years, as Dad of Fort Wayne Chapter, and District Governor in District 4.

Dad and Mrs. Reithmiller were also honored on January 7 during the Chapter's installation of officers, and were jointly presented a plaque commemorating many years of devoted service to DeMolay.

BE WIDE IN YOUR SYMPATHIES

Be wide in your sympathies! If people have faults, failings and weaknesses try and overlook them. A good deal of self-righteousness gets in at times between us and our opinion of others. If half the world would see them, there would be a universal compromise on the basis of common faults, and everybody would be shaking hands with everybody else.

We should cherish sentiments of charity toward all men. The Author of all good nourishes much piety and virtue in hearts that are unknown to us; and beholds repentance ready to spring up among many, whom we consider as unworthy.

That every day has its pains and sorrows is universally confessed. But let us not attend only to be mournful truths; if we look impartially about us we shall find that every day has likewise its pleasures and its joys.

—Chicago Scottish Rite Magazine.

A MAN'S WORTH

A man's worth depends on what he contributes, not on what he obtains; it depends on what he does with his life—on how much he adds to the peace, happiness, and beauty of the world. Think of the people you know. Which of them would be most missed, most regretted. Is it not those who are the kindest, the most generous, the most just? Would it not be far easier to spare the wealthy and the famous than the gentle and the sympathetic? When you assess yourself, your position, your character, your achievements, do it in this light. Judge yourself, not from the standpoint of the world, nor of your friends, nor even of yourself, but try to see yourself in the light of Eternity.

IDEALS

Each individual has his ideals, things that he desires to accomplish in his life. He is actuated to work for the accomplishment of his ideal in his chosen field of thought and he is successful to the degree of energy which he applies. Early in life a man should be possessed with a high ideal to accomplish some good for himself and his fellowmen, and work for its attainment. This is the worthiest ideal of the human mind.

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.

—Thomas Henry Huxley.

Nothing on earth can smile but man, said Henry Ward Beecher in one of his books. Gems may flash reflected light but what is a diamond flash compared to an eye flash and a mirth flash? Flowers cannot smile; this is a charm that even they cannot claim. It is the prerogative of man; it is the color which love wears, and the windows of the face, by which the heart signifies it is at home and waiting. A face that cannot smile is like a bud which cannot blossom. Laughter is day and sobriety night, and a smile is the twilight that hovers gently between both more bewitchingly than either.

It has been said that Masonry is "a way of life rather than a series of rituals." Yet those rituals are the devices through which the tenets of the craft can be taught and by regular attendance constantly reviewed. They serve as a constant reminder that we are to "obey the moral law" and that we should strive to improve and strengthen our individual characters so that uprightness will tend to become a constant and natural act.

The precepts taught in Masonic rituals should hasten us toward that time when it will be less necessary to think about the rightness or wrongness or the truth or falsity of an individual act or statement. Thus we will tend, without hesitation to speak and act in an upright manner. Following those precepts will also help us to form habits that will command the respect of others and serve as examples of what masonry will do for those who follow its ideals.

Our installation service was in charge of Bros. Earnest Earhart and John Osborn of Ossian No. 279. They have served as installing officers throughout our lodge history, except at the time of the granting of our charter.

We are conferring degrees on Carl Ray, Thomas Jesse and Robert Epley during January. We will halloo on 4 petitions to transfer to our lodge at the February stated meeting.

How swiftly the time does fly. As you read this issue, one month has already gone by. Those of you who were unable to attend in January try and make it in February, as we will have work each Tuesday night. The larger attendance is encouraging to all the Officers and the candidates. Our first Hospital visitation is in February, let's see if we can improve our attendance this year as it will be an evening well spent. In the next issue we will have the date on which we will return the visit to Garrett Wykoff Lodge at Lima, Ohio. We also have the Award of Obedience for February and March. Through the Year of 1961, we will have twelve such Awards, providing everything is a success.

Our special events thus far planned for the year include Guest Night on April 25th; the Tri-state Meeting, which will be held in Chicago on September 30th and October 1st; a Banquet Honoring our Fifty Year Members and the presentation of Silver Awards to eligible Twenty-five Year Members to be held sometime in October; and Family Night will be on November 11th.

Any one of our Brethren who are taken ill at home or have to go to the hospital, please try to notify the Lodge as that is the only way we have of finding it out. We will make every effort to pay them a visit. To all of those who are ill, I wish them a speedy recovery.

Our Lodge has started the new year with new officers as follows: Herman Wadlington, W.M.; John McNaughton, S.W.; Jim Bolyard, J.W.; J.D. Staigh, S.D.; Berton Pontoni, J.D.; Phillip Gutman, S.S.; Art Graue, J.S.; Bill Meyers, Chaplain and Bill Lower, Tyler.

We are also glad to introduce to you 4 fine new Entered Apprentices as follows: Robert Mathies, Earl Jaobs, William Hanes and George Miller. A large and fine working crowd turned out to help these new Entered Apprentices. Our JW satisfied all with a fine Maumee dinner of cornbread, ham and beans. We are much appreciative of the fine help received from all the brothers and especially from Past Masters Eugene Gilchrist, Bud Jornd and Clarence Jacobs.

Have 3 appointments to announce: Brother Roy Welty heads the historical research affairs. Brother Doc Delp will arrange for our gold stag and dinner for the ladies and Brother Darwin Richards will continue to arrange the Veterans visitation committee.

With regret I must inform you of the passing of another charter member, Brother Kent Sweet.

With the annual payment of dues we notice the large number of Maumee members who live away from Fort Wayne and the Lodge wishes to send our New Year greetings to them and an ever present invitation to come back and visit with us on your return trips — be glad to see you all.

Our Lodge is a fine Lodge, come on down and see your new officers, we need your help and good will. A good opportunity to do so will be on the 25th when we will be at work on the M.M. degree. We will have a nice dinner for your added time spent with us.

Brethren, the second month of the year is under way by now and we wonder what happened to January. Here is hoping spring cannot be too far behind.

We had a very nice installation on January 5, and we want to thank again the officers who installed us. They were brother past masters Albert Spener, Abner Wolverton, and George Winchell. These brothers always do a splendid job. I had the surprising pleasure of having my Father and a brother here to see the installation. My father is a past master of Edinburg, Illinois, and my brother is lodge member in Kansas City, Missouri.

The officers of the lodge had a dinner meeting on January 6 to plan their annual events. We have several items in the planning process. Our first social gathering will be our past masters night on March 30. The rest will be listed later so watch for your Square and Compass for later events.

At our first veterans hospital visitation in January we had a goodly number there. However, I think more of us should try especially hard to make this visitation for the good it does the patients and yourself.

During the month of January our work was very light, but we have four petitions for work in February. Hope to see all of you there to see and help your officers confer the degree work.

Our lodge committees for 1961 are as follows: Masonic Home, Eugene Roush, Edward Kronmiller and Harold Garrison; Masonic Education, William Karbach, Ronald Meeks, and Kenneth Clark; Veterans Hospital, Kenneth Ray; Auditing, Donald Treba, Eugene Walburn and Donald Keppeler; Ritualistic Advisor, Harold Garrison; Sickness, Walter Kauffman; Charles Bandy, Fred Goshorn and Simon Hartung.

I hope by this time everyone has paid his dues for 1961. If you haven't send it; instead, bring it to lodge and stay for the meeting.

Your officers and myself were well pleased with the installation ceremony afforded us by the Past Master. Thanks to all who assisted. The program was very well attended. We wish to welcome Bro. Loyce E. Hall Senior Steward to our official family.

Our Lodge has been hard hit by the beginning of the new year by sickness and sorrow. Bro. War Bundy underwent surgery in January and is somewhat improved at the writing. Bro. Charles Weaver was hospitalized with pneumonia. Our sympathy is extended to Bro. Roscoe Bowersock who lost his Brother in an auto accident early in January.

We have had degree work in January and work is tentatively planned through February and March. February 7 is master mason night we will have Past Masters Banquet remember a dinner at 6:30 p.m. after while the degree will be conferred by our guests.

I hope that many of you are planning to attend our visitation at Veterans hospital on Feb. 6. Brother Kenneth Witte chairman is working hard on this program. Each man has in him some magic. In his fingertips, perhaps, as they sense precisely how a motor wants to be turned, or in his sight, or (his) judgement, or his memory, or maybe in his ability to perform some service to mankind.

What happens to these precious qualities, that we see them only rarely? Sometimes they are pushed aside by the necessities of the day, but far more often they are neglected through plain indifference. A man assumes that no one much cares about his particular talent, and he just doesn't make the effort.

What is your talent? Your lodge needs you to be using it. A successful, progressive lodge needs many and varied talents for success. Are you giving of your talents? We need each brother's magic to uphold the tenets of our order in these troubled days.

It is the purpose, the hope and the desire of your officers to rejuvenate and use all the talents at our command to further the principles of free masonry and we need the help of the membership to accomplish our goal.

As a result of the transfer of Brother Frazee from Fort Wayne to Cleveland, Ohio, Sol D. Bayless held an election of officers at the January stated meeting.

My heart is filled to overflowing with gratitude that the brothers have advanced me, step by step, until this year when you have conferred upon me the honor of Worshipful Master.

Fully realizing my limitations, I bring to you a firm faith in God, devotion to our lodge, and zeal and determination to do my life's best in carrying on the work in the spirit of our founders and my predecessors.

Life is made up, not always of great sacrifices or tasks, but of the little things, in which smiles and kindly thought, with small obligations fulfilled habitually, make up the important whole.

With fraternal love as my guiding thought, my heart is filled with appreciation of the honor you have bestowed upon me, and to one and all I extend sincere thanks. You have my earnest pledge to give my best efforts to the welfare of our lodge and I shall consecrate my time and my strength to its service.

In addition to myself, the following brothers were duly installed on January 14th at a public installation held at the Masonic Temple. Kenneth Redding as Senior Warden; Max L. Poorman as Junior Warden; James Timmons as Senior Deacon; Harold Houser as Junior Deacon; Robert Stute as Senior Steward; Donald Anderson as Junior Steward, and Gerald Botteron as Chaplain.

Brother Gerald Botteron, who has accepted appointment as Chaplain has had several years of experience as advisor for Job's Daughters and we hope to utilize his abilities in masonry.

We deeply regret the hasty departure of Brother Frazee but our loss we know will be someone else's gain. We extend our best to him and his family and hope we can welcome him back at some future date.

Brother Wm. Mennewich was called to join that celestial lodge above where the Supreme Architect of the Universe presides. To his family and friends we extend our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy.

Our social program has not been formulated at this writing, but we have had a number of ideas presented and will advise the brethren on these items in the next issue.

I sincerely hope that everyone has enjoyed the holidays, and now that it is all over, we can relax and get back to our normal routines.

On January 5th, Summit City Lodge held its annual installation of officers. Our installation ceremony was conducted by three of our Past Masters, Bro. Albert Spencer acting as Worshipful Master, Bro. George N. Winchell as Chaplain, and Bro. Abner R. Wolverton as Marshall. These brothers performed this ceremony in a most impressive manner, and the officers of Summit City wish to extend to them their sincere thanks and appreciation for a beautiful performance.

Also, our thanks and commendation to the brethren who sang in the choir. Brethren, it was greatly appreciated.

The following officers were installed:

Bruno Belbutoski, Worshipful Master; H. Murray Petty, Senior Warden; Robert H. Miller, Junior Warden; Lawrence A. Bager, Chaplain; Donald R. Johnson, Senior Deacon; Robert J. Stone, Junior Deacon; Lee J. Harter, Senior Steward; Thos. W. Yoder, Junior Steward; Arthur C. Walda, Tyler.

The trustees are Geo. N. Winchell, P.M., Leon B. Williams, P.M., and Samuel E. Evans. We enjoyed a very good attendance, and after the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room.

The flowers were delivered to our sick brothers in the various hospitals by the Chairman of our sick committee, Bro. Carl G. Schlenker. Thank you, Carl. I know that our sick brethren appreciated this, as when I called on them, they expressed their thanks for your kindness and thoughtfulness. We wish all of them a speedy recovery.

Summit City has purchased a new projector, slides and screen. This equipment is fully automatic, and the new slides for each lecture are in separate containers, which makes it unnecessary to remove them. Each container is marked for a specific lecture. All you need to do is insert the tray containing the slides for that lecture into the projector, then press a button to change the slide and the projector does the rest automatically.

We plan to use this new equipment in February, so make arrangements now to attend.

I should like to take this opportunity to remind all that one of the most important functions of the Masonic Fraternity is to conduct funeral services for our deceased, to pay to them the last tribute of brotherly love and esteem. This service can be made much more impressive by having a good attendance at these services. In order that as many as possible receive notice quickly, I have formed a calling list, and designated certain key men to call those brothers listed in my letter. Please do not misconstrue that the above is meant only for those called. All members of Summit City should make every effort to attend whenever possible. The services conducted by our Masonic Fraternity for our deceased brethren, is one of the few instances that the public is privileged to observe our work, and a good representation makes a most favorable and lasting impression, as well as giving a great measure of comfort to the family and friends of our departed brethren. Let us all discharge this duty faithfully.

This same list will be used to remind our brethren of our Veterans' Hospital Visitation. This is another very important duty, and we are very proud that Summit City has again won the citation for the most number of hours spent visiting these sick veterans. If you have never attended one of these visitations, you should by all means endeavor to do so. I know that when you leave there, you will enjoy a certain warmth of well being, for having spent a small portion of your time to encourage and cheer up these unfortunate veterans. We are told how much our visits are appreciated, as most of the patients are from other cities, and their families and friends cannot too often visit them. Plan to attend our next visitation which will be Jan. 16th. Other dates assigned to Summit City are March 6th, April 24th, and June 12. Mark these dates on your calendar and be with us when we visit these sick veterans. We know you will feel that you are a better Mason for having done so.

On February 22, 1732 was born a child who was destined to become the first president of the United States, George Washington. Many books have been written about this great man. His honesty, integrity and inflexible fidelity to his beliefs have made history in these United States. Also, he was just as great a Mason. Many records are in the archives of masonic lodges recording his achievements in the masonic fraternity. I could go into great length writing about this great Mason, but I do not have the space. There is hanging on the wall in our record room in the southwest corner of our social room in the temple, a facsimile of masonic records of Fredericksburg Lodge, Fredericksburg, Va., showing the initiation, passing and raising of George Washington. It is worth your time to look at it.

Will close with sincere fraternal greetings to all.

Here it is another month already. We had a very nice installation. Brothers Albert Spencer and Abner Wolverton of Summit City and Gail Davidson of Three Rivers did an excellent job as installing officers. Bob Cocherille thrilled us with his singing.

In announcing the election of officers in the January Square and Compass, I inadvertently omitted the name of P.M. Clarence E. Carlson, Jr., who was re-elected to the office of Trustee for three years. Brother Carlson will serve along with P.M. William E. Turner and P.M. Edward Fleck as Trustees.

Appointed to the Masonic Home Committee are: P.M. Robert R. Marshall; P.M. Clarence O. McIntosh and Brother Dale E. Shupe.

The Lodge has been busy this past month and we want to thank the Brothers who have been present to help us in our work. We hope many of our Brothers will make an effort to get down on Monday nights. By the way, if any Brother can play the piano we would like his help in our degree work.

Anyone knowing of any Brother ill or in the hospital, please call either Frank Bryan or myself. If at any time a Brother knows that he is going to the hospital we would appreciate his calling us or having some member of his family do so.

Brethren—if you have not read the first of the articles by the Rev. Dr. James Armstrong, Senior Minister of the Broadway Methodist Church in Indianapolis, entitled "Marx Against Man" appearing in the January Issue of "The Indiana Freeman," I suggest that you do so at your earliest opportunity. Only a clear understanding of what "Communism" really is, its growth and its terrible aims against everything we hold dear, will enable us to be vigilant against this threat.

You have heard the words "The ruthless hand of ignorance, the lapse of time, and the devastations of war have wasted and destroyed valuable monuments of antiquity" . . . Also "If from our sacred altar the atheist, the infidel, the irreligious man, or the libertine, should ever be able to wrest this Book of Sacred Law, and thus remove, or even obscure the Greatest Light in Masonry, that Light which has for centuries been the rule and guide of Freemasonry, then could we no longer claim for ourselves the high rank and title of Free and Accepted Masons."

We must not be in ignorance about this terrible and menacing doctrine. The word "Communism" is used so often that we tend to let down our guard. But we must remember that treaties, peace talks, and assurances of any kind given to the followers of this doctrine are only a means to gaining their objective. Communism is like a cancer, not always seen but always doing its deadly work. It is the opposite of everything we believe under God.

A good sear is worth more to a man than good advice.—E. W. Howe.

I never could find any man who could think for two minutes together.—Sydney Smith.

Once again we are opening the door to a new year.

Once more the happy bells ring out,

Again the earth revolves;
The hour is come, the time is now,
For making high resolves.

With these words our W.M. Edith McIntosh opened the Dec. 27th meeting. The lovely decorations carrying out the Christmas theme was very impressive.

There were four new members taken into our order. Sister's Esther Muller, Dorothy Alexander, Esther Kloven and Marie Girardot.

The January 10th meeting was opened by our W.M. Edith McIntosh reading, "A prayer for the New Year." Forgive us, Lord, for broken vows, Wash clean the soiled slate

Of ugly thoughts and bitter words,

Of prejudice and hate.

Help us to build a better world,
Free from war's grim fear;
And sound the call to brotherhood,
Within the glad new year.

The meeting was honoring Master Masons with the decorating theme gave brief talks on "Who was Rob East."

W.P. Herbert Fuhrman was master of ceremonies, several of the brothers gave brief talks on "Who was Rob Morris?" (The founder of Eastern Star.) after which all brothers were escorted West and introduced. They told what offices they now hold or had held before. After which all were escorted to Mezzanine for delicious refreshments served by the men. The tables were decorated with snow-men.

Election of officers will be our First meeting in February with the Birthday Party second meeting in February.

The month of February gives us several famous birthdays to celebrate and also Valentine's Day which concerns affairs of the heart and abiding friendship.

Speaking of friendship brings into focus our worthy matron's theme,

"The Friendship Garden," which is a thought that every one should have kept in mind all through the year and, of course, every year.

The following poem by Elizabeth B. Wadell seems very appropriate.

Your Mind's Garden
What seeds have you sown in your garden of mind?
What seeds have you sent into space?

Remember they yield you a harvest in kind;
A life that henceforth you must face.

For you are the sower, you choose your own seed;
You fashion your future each day.
Your garden is fertile, producing with speed.

The fruit of each thought tucked away.
So if you wish happiness, health, success, peace,
Then choose well each "seed" as you sow;

Your future is shaped by the thoughts you release
Each hour, each day as you go.

We hope there will be a good attendance on our first meeting night of the month, February 2, which is Election night. Now here is your chance to voice your opinion by voting for our officers for the coming year.

On February 16, the worthy matron has planned a special program to honor past Esther and past Electa points, since Sister Gladys has filled both of these stations.

Social Calendar:
Satellites will meet at the home of Sister Marvel Munroe 2814 Sherborne, on February 3 with Sister Anne Folk as assistant hostess.

Sisters Evelyn Elliott, Lucille Johnson and Bethel Stickler will assist Sister Clara Bradley, 1301 Spring St. at the meeting of the Decorating committee on February 8. This is their white elephant auction so be sure and bring a package to sell and join in the fun.

February is the Heart month. Today it is used for Humanitarian Purposes for raising the Heart Fund.

It used to be patiently waited for as the Month containing a special day to convey a message to your Best Girl or Boy Friend that was loaded with love sentiments. Sentiments of the "Roses are Red" variety or a box of Whitmans Chocolates.

Some took advantage of it in order to send the humorous big caricatures depicting various things or people just to be nasty, to get even or just for the fun of it.

Then there was the Valentine Box draped with Red Ribbons and Hearts in the School Room. It had a lot of the "I Luv You" valentines in it and served as sort of a popularity contest. There always was one from each pupil for the teacher more for self preservation than devotion.

February is also noted for the Birthdays of two of America's Greatest Patriots—George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. George Washington was known to be first in the Hearts of his countrymen and Abraham Lincoln lived in the hearts of the Colored folks.

Congratulations are extended to Dick and Elaine McKeever in the arrival of their new daughter. Miss Leathin, Faith Shrine wishes many days of Happiness for you with your 4 brothers and sisters.

Walter Craig is in the Manatee Veterans Hospital, Bradenton, Florida, suffering a broken pelvis bone as the result of an automobile accident. Russel Sipes (husband of Sojourner Barbara Sipes) received several broken ribs in the same accident.

Other illness reported by the Cheer Committee is as follows—Ann Donite, Laura Camplin, Ruth Spurrier, Evelyn Haynes and Doris Leiter.

Hilda Fupy has a broken arm, Nellie Emmerson had a bad fall. Blanche Rasmus in room 249 at the Lutheran Hospital with a broken hip. Muriel Winifer and Fern Elison are recuperating from surgery at Parkview Hospital.

Calendar for February:

Feb. 2nd. Decorating Committee, Evelyn Haynes.

Feb. 7th. Ways and Means Committee, Doris Leiter.

Feb. 10th. Ceremonial, I.O.O.F. Hall.

Feb. 14th. Cheer Committee, Gladys Coolidge.

Feb. 20th. Past High Priestess Club, Evelyn Hinton.

Feb. 24th. Recognition Night I.O.O.F. Hall.

Feb. 27th. Evening Social Committee, Lavon Foreman.

Feb. 28th. Afternoon Social Committee, Hilda Hight.

at the home of PWHP Hazel Dehler on January 23rd. There was a fine turnout and a wonderful evening.

February 24 will be a stated meeting and memorial service for those who have joined the Great White Shrine Above in the past year. We are greatly saddened by the death of our Soj. Clara Emrich South, a charter member and loyal sojourner who has worked hard for Miriam Shrine over the years. She will be greatly missed by her many friends, and our sympathy is extended to her loved ones.

Illness reported is as follows: Gertrude Chalfant had a fall, Emma McDaniels has been ill, and is scheduled to go to the hospital quite soon. Francis Adams is at Parkview Hospital and Ruth Hickman is recovering at home. The mother of PWHP Mildred Igney is still critical at Parkview and the brother of Lillian Goeke is convalescing slowly. We wish a speedy recovery to those who are ill, and extend our sympathy to PWOS Glenn Myers whose mother died recently.

Don't forget that Miriam Shrine sells cookies all year, so if you don't want to buy candy for that Valentine gift, call Soj. Mable Scheid, A-3201 and ask about her fancy cookies. The Queen and her attendants are selling ball point pens, too, for 50¢ so keep it in mind. They have all colors.

See you at the Birthday party!

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to each and every person who attended my installation on December 23. I realize how difficult it was to come since it was so close to Christmas which makes me appreciate the attendance even more.

The newly installed officers are as follows: Judy English, Honored Queen; Roxanne Smith, Senior Princess; Diane Simmers, Junior Princess; Joyce Richhart, Guide; Ellen Stansberry, Marshall; Bonita Karels, Chaplain; Jean Morris, Treasurer; Karen Johnson, Recorder; Connie Miser, Musician; Nancy Frentz, Librarian; Sharon Erler, Senior Custodian; Kathy Misegades, Junior Custodian; Carol Botteron, First Messenger; Annell Hoover, Second Messenger; Laurie Karels, Third Messenger; Susan Lawry, Fourth Messenger; Pam Buzzard, Fifth Messenger; Sandy Means, Inner Guard; and Sandy Roberts, Outer Guard.

I would also like to thank the Past Honored Queens who acted as my Installing Officers and our Associate Guardian, Mr. Gerald Botteron, who acted as Acting Marshal. Thanks to all those who worked to make the installation the most wonderful night of my life.

Our first meeting, January 4, consisted of an officers', choir, and parents' potluck; an officers' and choir practice; and the regular meeting. We also installed our Librarian, Nancy Frentz. Miss Patty McCoy, Junior Past Honored Queen of Bethel No. 8 and Grand Bethel Representative to the state of Illinois, acted as the Installing Officer.

Thanks to all the girls who gave so willingly of their time to make our Job's Daughter-De Molay White Christmas Formal a success. For all of those who didn't attend, the theme of the dance was "Mistletoe Magic." The decorations were highlighted by a span of three pine-covered arches in which two mannequins were kissing under a sprig of mistletoe. The table decorations were miniature arches. Woody Neff and his band provided the music.

Our sick committee chairman is Rosalie Curtis. Her address is 4104 Mound Pass, Fort Wayne. Her telephone number is H-03701. If you girls hear of anyone who is ill, I would appreciate if you would let Rosalie know so that the members might send cards to those who are ill.

The February 13 meeting of the Mother's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Harriet Cole, 7511 Rose Ann Parkway, Briarwood Hills. Assistants will be Mrs. Richard English and Mrs. Hamilton McCoy. The program will consist of a food demonstration.

The meetings and events to come are as follows:

Jan. 18, Meeting.
Feb. 1, Initiation.
Feb. 15, Moms' and Dads' Night.
March 1, Meeting.
March 15, Initiation.
April 5, Rummage Sale.
April 5, Past Queens', Guardians' and Associate Guardians Night.
April 8, Smorgasboard and Dance.
April 19, Friend's Night.
April 23, Church Sunday at West Creighton Avenue Christian Church.
May 3, Banquet and Inspection.
May 17, Election.
May 31, Initiation.
June 21, Installation.

Hope to see many girls and parents on the sidelines at the meetings this term. Happy new year to you all.

February is now with us. The month of few days and many holidays. The month of patriotic programs and ground hog day, the month of broken resolutions, and spring planning. A month of contrast. What will we do with it? Let us fill it to the brim, overflowing with happiness, service, and friendship, for only so, can we look for the harvest in the rest of the year.

Truth Court continues to overflow with activities. Our January meeting with the Snowball Card Party was well attended. Those present certainly had an enjoyable evening, and our Ways and Means Committee is proud of the result. Our January 25 meeting was Friend's Night, and although the date conflicted with Friends Night in another Court, we were happy for those who came. It is an inspiration to see members from all over put on the work in such a unified manner, and we learn so much from watching them. The friendships made on such evenings will linger with us over the years, and we will always be the better for them.

For February, we are planning a Fish Fry on February 8th. We are inviting the members of Anthony Wayne Court to attend our supper and stay for Court afterwards. There will be no charge for the supper, but an offering will be taken. We are much indebted to the fishermen in our Court for making such a supper possible. On the same night, we will be entertained by the Drill Team of the Royal Neighbors. Our second meeting in February, on February 22 will be Advance Officers Night. We are proud of our line officers and will enjoy watching their proficiency in our work.

A number of our members have been missed lately, most of them with colds and flu, but they are all back with us now with the exception of H.L. Myrna Binkley, who is still confined to her home. She has been shut in now since last August, and I know would enjoy cards and calls from any of her friends.

Coming Events: Officers Meeting, February 2 at the home of H.L. Nellie Moore; Ways and Means Committee, February 13 at the home of H.L.

The Royal Matron, H.L. Geraldine Boldt had the flag presented at the Altar and fittingly dedicated on the night of January 11, 1961.

The Annual Installation of Officers of Fort Wayne Assembly No. 139 Social Order of the Beauceant was held in the Egyptian Room of the Masonic Temple Friday, December 30 at 7:30 p.m. The Installing Officer was Mrs. Stanley R. Putman, who was assisted by Mrs. James Todd, Marshal; Mrs. Don Thrasher, Assistant Marshal; Mrs. Orey L. Wagner, Standard Bearer; Mrs. Harold Martin, Color Bearer; Mrs. Clara Vance, Chaplain; and Mrs. W. F. Utterback, Director of Music. The following officers were installed; Mrs. Myron Millhorn, President; Mrs. Roy Ratican, Oracle; Mrs. Charles Masel, First Vice-President; Mrs. George Adams, Second Vice-President; Mrs. Donald Marvel, Preceptress; Mrs. Robert Brecount, Recorder; Mrs. Earl Lyman, Treasurer; Mrs. Homer Stevenson, Marshal; Mrs. William Hood, Assistant Marshal; Mrs. Jerry Fort, Chaplain; Mrs. Ann Kurtz, Director of Music; Mrs. Albert White, Color Bearer; Mrs. Maynard Cope, Mistress of Wardrobe; Mrs. Carter Palmer, Daughter of the Household; Mrs. Roger Shafer, Inner Guard; and Mrs. Claude Warner, Outer Guard. After the Installation, a reception for the new officers was held on the Mezzanine.

The first meeting of the New Year was January 3, at which time Mrs. Millhorn announced the following committees; Ways and Means, Mrs. Masel and Mrs. Albert Carey; Telephone, Mrs. Everett Miles and Mrs. Homer Hartman; By-laws, Mrs. Clara Vance, Mrs. Harry Haller, and Mrs. Brecount; Decorating, Mrs. Ivan Planck and Mrs. Phil McCague; Program, Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Wood; Publicity, Mrs. Louis J. Koch; Social, Mrs. Brecount, Mrs. Ed Ashton, Mrs. Becky Joseph, and Mrs. Edward Klomp; Jewel, Mrs. Brecount, Mrs. Lyman, and Mrs. Ratican; Eye Foundation, Mrs. Koch and Mrs. Fred Ackerman; Card Party, Mrs. Marvel and Mrs. Richard Jones; Executive, Mrs. Putman, Mrs. Kurtz, and Mrs. Todd; Examining, Mrs. Ratican, Mrs. Jack Walker, and Mrs. Berton Pontoni; Reception, all officers; Benevolent, Mrs. Lyman and Mrs. Thomas Houser; Cheer, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Klomp; Necrology and Flower, Mrs. Thrasher and Mrs. Ray Swinford; and Paraphernalia, Mrs. Marvel, Mrs. Cope, and Mrs. Shafer.

During the January 17 meeting a Memorial Service was conducted. Allso plans were started for a "Buffalo Hunt."

The Day Sewing was held January 16 at the home of Mrs. Thrasher and the Night Sewing group met with Mrs. Ratican on January 23. The dates and places for the February Meetings will be announced.

The Assembly's Second Annual Steak Supper will be February 8 in the Masonic Temple Dining Room from 5:00 to 7:30. Be sure to come and bring your friends.

We are happy to say that Mrs. Planck and Mrs. William Mosier are home from the hospital. Congratulations to Mrs. Todd, who has a new granddaughter. We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Russell Sloan on the death of her father.

Heartiest congratulations to Sister Helma and her corps of officers on having a very successful year, and Best Wishes to Sister Janie and her officers for a happy and prosperous year.

DO SOMETHING

It is the duty of every brother to take some active part in the affairs of his lodge and in Masonry in general. Masonry has ever been known as a Craft, clearly indicating that all who belong to it are supposed to work at it. Every lodge I know is full of willing brothers. Some willing to work and others willing to let them. This is not as it should be. Every Mason should be willing to work for Masonry.

Man wasn't made to sit around idle and rust out and you were not made a Mason with the expectation that you would idle away your time. It was expected of you, and it is now expected of you, that you do something for the good of Freemasonry. You have a duty to perform, there is work for you to do.

Our duty, our principles, our teachings, all demand some return for the honor the lodge did you in making you a Master Mason, in accepting you into her membership, which does not fulfill his obligations, which he voluntarily took upon himself, who stands idly by and does nothing towards the good of our Order. There are certain duties for each to perform—every man can do something for the good of all and for the benefit of the whole.

Have you forgotten the very beautiful symbolism of the Bee Hive? How it is an emblem of industry and recommended the practice of the virtue to you, ending with these words:

"and be that will so demean himself as not to be endeavoring to add to the common stock of knowledge and practical philanthropy, who is deemed a Drone in the Hive of Nature, a useless member of society and unworthy of our protection and respect as Masons."

Do something, don't be a drone. Pursue that course in the lodge from which you are by nature, or inclination, best fitted; take part in the ritual, or serve on this or that committee.

Help along the good work, do it and faithfully the tasks you volunteer for or those assigned you, strive earnestly to serve the Craft, and you will earn (as you reserve) and you will hold the esteem of your brethren and the world at large.

RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGE

By Robert C. Hill, P.M.

Masonry is not a one-way street. It gives to its members certain rights but in turn it exacts payment. The rights and privileges must be paid for by the duties and obligations imposed upon those who enter its portals.

On this subject, Alfred L. Breslau recently installed as grand master of California, composed of 700 constituent lodges in that state and Hawaii has made pertinent comment in his message. He has termed this "year of the Master Mason." In part he says:

"There is a principle in law which states that for every right there is corresponding duty. A Master Mason enjoys many rights and privileges material and spiritual. Spiritual Masonry can be a way of life for him. He is entitled to material aid and assistance in time of need and distress. In return, each Master Mason has the duty of performing his obligations—to live his Masonry really and objectively, in a creditable manner, to act honorably and fairly with all men, and to support Masonic Lodge with sincere and active participation. Granted Masonry is our way of life—then attendance is an integral part of the pattern of our day-to-day activities."

These are words of wisdom from a leading member of the Fraternity who is setting an example for Brethren. It is good counsel to should emphasize the duties and obligations of the Craft before the compensation of the sights and privileges is earned.

"The labourer is worthy of his hire." Luke 10:7.

Much attention was given to the annual and traditional York Rite Commandery Ball which this year will be known as the "Sweetheart Ball" and will be centered around a St. Valentine's Day theme.

The Sweetheart Ball will be held in the first floor ballroom of the Masonic Temple Saturday evening, February 18th. A buffet dinner will be served on the mezzanine floor beginning at 8:00 p.m. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. to the music of the Tech Men Orchestra from Indiana Technical College. Attire, semi-formal.

Because this annual Commandery Ball has never been intended as a money-making project the price is $3.00 per couple.

Come and enjoy an unforgettable evening of good fellowship with old acquaintances and new in a friendly and colorful atmosphere. Members of all Masonic bodies and their guests are welcome.

Your Commander is General Chairman of the ball. Em. S.K. Harry Haller is Chairman of the Food Committee; S.K. Tom Houser, Decorations; Em. S.K. Shubbe Boggs, Reception; S.K. Roger Shafer, Entertainment; S.K. Ivan A. Planck, Publicity; S.K. Harold Hamrick, Tickets. Assisting the regular committee in various capacities will be members of the York Rite Commandery Band and the ladies of the S.O.O.B.

For tickets or information call K-3830, E-68562, or E-5751.

In the event of serious illness, hospitalization, confinement or death of a Sir Knight we urge the family or friends to notify your Commander at once. If there is any way we can be of assistance please let us know. If we sometimes appear to neglect or "desert" one of our members in his time of need it is simply because we have not been informed of the situation.

REMEMBER

Stretch forth your hands whenever necessary to assist a brother with counsel and advice.

Soothe the anguish of his soul and, betray no confidence he imposes in you. Support him with your authority—use your utmost endeavors to prevent him from falling.

Relieve his wants as far as you are able without injuring yourself or your families.

You are connected by solemn promises—let those always be so remembered as to direct your actions—for then, and then only, will you preserve your conscience void of offense, and prepare that firm cement of utility and affection which time will have no power to destroy.

KNOWLEDGE

Knowledge is the mind's awareness of a fact, while truth is the mind's understanding of that fact. Facts may heap themselves up like grains in a pile of sand; they may have little or no apparent relations with each other; and the man who is said to have knowledge of them may know little more than their number and names. But when he has learned the hidden connections of those facts, how they bear upon each other, and what import they have for human life, he has learned the truth.

TRUE PURPOSE OF MASONRY

It is a well-known fact that we are living today in a greatly troubled and unsettled world. Intense feelings of hatred and bitterness are prevalent among men and nations, the result of which at the moment are unpredictable. Civilization is at the crossroad simply because men have not learned to live together in peace and harmony. It is certain that these conditions must not be permitted to continue to exist. A remedy must be found, or civilization is doomed.

In our humble opinion here is an opportunity for Masonry to render a great service to a sorely troubled world. This, of course, will not be an easy task to be accomplished by mankind alone; there must be unlimited faith in the Supreme Architect of the Universe. Without His power to aid mankind in this great effort, the result can be nothing but failure.

In considering the part Masonry may be able to play in such a tremendously important assignment, there is much to be done. First of all, the millions of members of our ancient and honorable Craft must learn what masonry really is, and reach a fuller realization of the true meaning of the wonderful lessons taught within the tiled recesses of the lodge.

Many of our readers today are stressing only the importance of learning the ritualistic work and to be thereby enabled to render a letter-perfect recital of same as the degrees are being conferred. That is all well and good, but our efforts must not stop there. We need to give the candidate something whereby he may get the true picture of what Masonry is, what relation the work has to it.

With all respect to our lecturers and teachers, the idea is far too prevalent that the work is the main thing in Masonry. The Craft must be disabused of this idea. They must be taught that the work is not an object but only a means of teaching the true principles of Masonry. If the degrees are not conferred so that the candidate and those who are looking on will not give thought to the manner in which it is done, but rather look beyond to what work teaches, the ceremony is an utter failure.

In looking beyond the floor work and getting the true vision as to what Masonry is striving to teach, our beloved Craft can become a far greater power for good in the world than ever before.

At the moment, the world is in need of what we strive to teach. When these lessons are learned, and the lives of all members of the Craft are charted by the desire that all men shall dwell together as brothers, the world will note the great changes in those lives. It is then they may fully realize the utility of forcing their fellowmen to do their bidding in an ungodly thirst for power. Hatred may then be replaced by love, and men of all races and creeds may come to know the beauty of living together in a peaceful world.

—Masonic Tribune

LOOKING UPWARD

In the Old Testament there are no less than four references to the fact that the iniquity of the fathers is visited upon the children even to the third and fourth generation (Exodus 20:5; 34:7; Numbers 14:18; Deuteronomy 5:9). With this truth would argue. Too often we see a child suffer for milk because the parent is intemperate. Unsubdued passions and lust break a home and the children suffer. A man's lack of ambition is reflected in the lower standards of his family income. Like begets like, and children follow in the footsteps of a wayward parent.

This, however, is but a negative statement of a greater truth. The goodness of the parents follows children even to the third and fourth generation. So consistent are family characteristics that we have come to say that blood will tell. A good name and a good heritage are worth more than great fortunes. The tides of fortune may change a family's wealth, but cannot rob a son of his good reputation represented by a good name.

So men and Masons everywhere have two reasons for moral rectitude in life. Sins harm not us alone, but those who follow us. We are blessed not for our goodness, but by our goodness, and more than that, so too are all blessed whose lives touch ours when we are strong to do right. What visitation will you leave to the generations yet to come?

Texas Grand Lodge Magazine

GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

No man can consciously assume the office of worshipful master of a Masonic lodge without a deep sense of humility and pride. He cannot fail to realize that in tendering him this honor, his brethren have also placed upon him a grave responsibility.

To direct his lodge with success, the worshipful master must first be dedicated to the principles of the Craft. He must have rare ability to lead and to set an example of devotion and industry to the business of the lodge. He must be well versed in the ritual, thoroughly familiar with Masonic law and procedure. He must have the ability to plan a constructive program and above all he must have the tact and diplomacy to act as presiding master with justice to all yet with dignity and firmness. He must be a man of unusual talent, agreeable personality and exceptional qualities of leadership.

These high attainments are not easily arrived at. In most cases the honors of the East are achieved only after years of exacting labor and service. From his first appointment until he reaches the highest honor in Masonry involves from five to seven years of hard work.

The worshipful masters who will serve in 1961 have been well coached for their arduous task.

Altogether these devoted Masons have made thorough preparation for their year as leaders of their respective groups. They have received a liberal education that will stand them in good stead in the months to come. Masonry salutes these Pilots of the Craft!

LIVING BY ONE'S PRINCIPLES

Masons are taught to apply the principles and teaching of the Craft to the problems of daily life. When this is done sincerely and consistently it cannot but be an important influence in moral and spiritual uplift and when made a part of business ethics it is certain to be of material advantage.

Consequently it is refreshing to cite the example of a leading merchant who attributes much of his success to the fundamentals taught him in church and lodge. He is no other than J. C. Penney, a 33rd degree Mason, whose rise in the business world has been typically American.

"I believe," he writes, "much of the difficulty in the world of business is due to the fact that too many people are trying to get material gain without giving their best, or are foisting unfair values upon the public. When we discuss honesty in the abstract there is no difference of opinion. It is only when the principle is applied to our own activities, particularly our commercial enterprises, that we may contradict one another."

For his life programs, Brother Penney adds that he adopted six principles which he believes contain the essentials of success. He outlines them as follows:

"I believe in preparation; I believe in hard work, in honesty, in having confidence in men, in appealing to the spirit of men, in a practical application of the Golden Rule.

"The only kind of luck any man is justified in counting on is hard work, this means sacrifice, persistent effort and dogged determination. Growth is never by chance; it is the result of a combination of forces."

This is the testimony of a successful man who lives his Masonry.

HOW DO YOU KNOW

No one completes the degrees of Freemasonry without being required to ponder on how he or any brother knows himself to be a Mason. Possibly it would be better if no answer were put into his mouth. Possibly in many instances we might get a better answer if the candidate were left to his own resources—if he were required to form his own answer. Certainly we should not get the answer we do get, as proper as that answer may be.

The one being questioned might answer: "Because I have been obligated as a Freemason and have been accepted as such by those whom I know to be Freemasons." However, that might not be a satisfactory response. There are those who seem to have a point when they contend that receiving Masonic obligations and being accepted as a Freemason does not make one a Freemason.

Another might answer: "Because my attitude toward others has been changed by the lessons I have received; because I now know the real meaning of charity because I now know that charity, as taught by Freemasonry, goes far beyond material aid and comfort; because I know the real meaning of brotherly love; because I have been strengthened in my belief in a Grand Architect of the Universe and in some form of immortality; because I have been given strength to support me in many endeavors which I formerly attacked only feebly; because of the glorious feeling that comes from being associated with men dedicated to the same things to which, thank God, I also am dedicated; because I have been brought to light in many ways."

BUILD FOREVER

When we build, let us think that we build forever. Let it not be for present delight or for present use alone. Let it be such work as our descendants will thank us for, and let us think, as we lay stone on stone, that a time will come when these stones will be held sacred because our hands have fashioned them, and that men will say as they look upon the labor and wrought substance of them: "See, this our fathers did for us."

If people are made to do what they dislike, you must allow for a little ill-humor.—Lord Melbourne.

We are now officially into the new year and we can start getting the ball rolling for the coming months. As we all know, to get any benefits from any organization we must participate and be a part of the group. Maybe some of us are reluctant to tie ourselves down with an office but there are other ways of helping out. We need volunteers to learn the 2nd and 3rd section lectures. This load is usually shouldered by two or three already overworked brethren. So get in the swing of things and let me know which lecture you would care to give.

We talk of brotherly love and friendship, but how can we accomplish this when we don't come to the meetings to cultivate the brotherhood of our fraternity. Come up and get acquainted with the new brothers who have come in since the last time you have attended lodge. We are trying to start the meetings promptly at 7:30 for the benefit of the brothers who would like to get home early and still enjoy the whole meeting. For those who like to catch up on all the latest news we have a refreshment period following the meeting. Come up and join us—maybe as soon as the next meeting?

On Monday, January 2nd, Ossian Lodge installed their officers for the year 1961. The following officers were installed:

Norman Bushee, Worshipful Master; Joseph Roman, Senior Warden; Minor Storer, Junior Warden; Max Kiog, Treasurer; Harvey Ault, Secretary; Earl Smith, Senior Deacon; Joseph Clark, Junior Deacon; Edward Hostetter, Chaplain; Buddy Johnson, Senior Steward; Dorsey Wendell, Junior Steward. The installing officers were Past Master Earnest Earhart, Past Master John Osborne as Marshall and Rev. George Brunner as Chaplain.

Culminating an inspiring evening was the oyster supper prepared by chef extraordinary, Past Master Ray Frybeck. Ray has converted more oyster haters into "Er-stor Addicts" than any ten men in the county—your reporter included!

Worshipful Master Norman Bushee has inaugurated a new innovation in the formation of a Masonic Educational Committee which is to be headed by Past Master Lawrence Mulvane. The brothers are in accord that this will add immeasurably to their understanding of the significance of a lot of our Masonic work.

Since last issue it has been my good fortune and pleasure to be installed, along with a very fine group of officers. It is our sincere hope that we will uphold the fine tradition which our lodge has always held in the past.

We welcome our new candidates and invite our old brethren to visit us. If each member will visit once this year, added to the regulars, it would make an impressive showing. Let me forget what our lodge means to us, attend lodge as much as possible, for only by attending its meetings and living by its beliefs can it become a part of you.

On Jan. 10th the local Eastern Stars Chapter honored us by Master Mason night. I would like at this time to thank them in behalf of myself and the rest of the Master Masons of Huntertown Lodge. We who attended enjoyed a very fine evening.

It is with great pleasure that we call to the attention of the area lodges that our very excellent secretary, Brother John Lare, is President of the Association of Past Masters, F. & A.M. of Northeastern Indiana for the coming year. Our very best to you, John.

Brothers, we have started another year which we hope will prove to be as fruitful as have the years gone by. We are in the midst of organizing our forces, getting our fellowcraft team in operation under the able direction of P.M. Ray Girardot, and assistance of P.M. LaMar Girardot. Brothers Girardot have stated that they would like to have a good turnout of helpers to put on the work and they are especially anxious to have some of the brothers who have not been too faithful in their attendance at Lodge to turn out and take an active part. It gives a candidate a good feeling to see the Lodge well represented on the sidelines and in the degree work. We have one candidate for the Master Mason degree for February 22nd.

Starting February 1 and continuing thru the months of March and April, we will meet each of the first four Wednesday evenings and hold practice sessions if we do not have candidates.

At this writing we had Brothers Harold Eddy and Lee Pettyjohn at Parkview Hospital and Brother Rudy Pashek convalescing at home after a siege of pneumonia. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the brothers who have visited the sick and ailing. We just don't realize what a good feeling it is to have our brothers visit us and pass the time when we are in the hospital or confined to our home for a period of time.

I wish to thank all of the brothers who have already paid their dues and made an additional contribution to the Masonic Home at Franklin. As you well know, New Haven Lodge No. 740 has always been 100% in our Masonic Home contributions and it is really a lift to receive praise from the Grand Lodge and Grand Master to the youngest chartered Lodge for having this distinction directed to us. Keep up all of the good work that we have started and I will look forward to seeing all of the brothers in Lodge.

As we begin a new term with a new corps of officers, I think it is a good idea to list these boys so that all the members will have more opportunity to know who their officers are. They are: Carl E. Jacobs, South, senior deacon; Douglas Dayton, North, junior deacon; Henry Tennant, North, senior steward; Jim David Foreman, Elmhurst, orator; Kenneth Lowden, South, scribe; Henry Altschul, North, treasurer; Al Hancey, North, marshal; Sam Carter, South, chaplain; Roger Bryan, North, stander; Danley "Tuck" Scheibel, South, almoner; Lyman Wibel, Lakeside, scintel.

Ron Ehrman, South; John Roscoe, Central; Al Garner, North; Mike Shirk, New Haven; Larry Lee, South; Tom Erb, South; and Ray Hanson, North, preceptors. From all appearances so far, it appears that we will have one of the finest lines of officers in recent terms.

The installation of these officers was conducted in exemplary manner by the installing officers on January 7, and the ceremonies were witnessed by guests "Buddy" Faulkner, Executive Secretary of the Indiana DeMolay Foundation, "Dad" Ballard of Vincennes, Chairman of the State Advisory Council, and Larry Ulrich, Indiana State Master Councilor.

The meeting of January 11 was obligation night, and the January 25 meeting featured entertainment in the person of a judo expert. We hope to be able to bring you more entertainment this term, and I would appreciate any suggestions about what you would like to see.

Our first initiatory degree will be presented on February 8, and we still need many more petitions to reach our goal of at least 200 new members for this year.

While we have the normally difficult task of maintaining our chapter's position as first in the world and improving, if possible, the quality of the fine social events for which it is known, we have before us the still greater job of preparing for our state convocation in June. This will require work on the part of every member in making preparations and backing Molly Dixon, our chapter sweetheart, for state sweetheart. Plans are already being made, and more information about how each of you can help will be forthcoming soon.

James Carter, Master Councilor

News from "Dad" Herrick.

Congratulations to all the new officers. I am really looking forward to a very fine term. Yes, we will have much work to do, but with your help we can do the best ever for Fort Wayne Chapter.

I have two things of primary importance on my mind at this time. The first and most important for the moment is "Membership." Have you asked that boy who lives next door, the one you walk to school with, the one you see in church, or the ones you see at school every day. Nearly every week we hear of a boy who would like to be a DeMolay, but no one has ever asked him. Don't let that happen to your friends. We have set our goal for 200 new members this year and have done fine so far, but we must put forth that extra effort. If we are to reach that goal. During 1959 we initiated 193 new members. During 1960 we initiated 182 new members, so with that little extra push, I know we can reach the Two Hundred figure. Our year in DeMolay starts on October 1st and so far we have initiated 74 new members. At our first meeting in January we received 25 petitions and we have one holdover, so we have a possibility of 26 boys for our next class on February 8th. That will make an even one hundred. Will you help us to reach the next one hundred. If each boy asks at least three other boys that they would like to see in DeMolay, the rest will be easy. Come on, do your part NOW. The boys that bring in the most petitions this term will have their registration fee paid for the Conclave.

My second item of importance is the State Conclave. The ground work has been laid and we will be holding committee meetings soon. Many of you will want to take part in this work, it will be loads of fun. Announcements and literature will be given out very shortly. Start saving your dimes now, so that you can register and attend the entire convocation. Fort Wayne Chapter wants to make it the best convocation that Indiana DeMolay has ever seen. Thank you all. See you in Chapter.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

We all know that publicity is a "Tonic" to any organization and by the same token advertising is just as essential to the success of any publication.

Advertisers are always anxious to serve their public in the best manner and to everyone's advantage.

You as a reader if interested could read our ads carefully and then patronize the advertiser. When you do tell the advertiser where you saw the ad and also tell him about his merchandise if it pleases you.

If you are not familiar with our advertisers become so at once. You will find many opportunities for service for good products and for your every wish.

We accept only the choicest advertisers. Keeping in mind the welfare and satisfaction of our readers. We Can Do No More Than That.

If we are interested in local events, reports of happenings and the work in civic enterprise, we look to the Newspapers to supply that information.

The same holds true for advertising. The oftener you see an ad the more it will impress you. Have you ever leafed through the pages of This Publication and noticed all of the fine ads listed within it? There are ads of all kinds and for every line of work, entertainment, etc.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE. IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE SQUARE AND COMPASS.

THE FIRST CONSIDERATION

Are we not prone as Masons to be critical of ourselves, and perhaps of our brothers?

It is well for all Masons to study, to improve, to advance, but it is also well to realize that patience is required.

The Temple of Life cannot be rushed to completion. The victory is in how we work, as well as what we

REDISCOVERY

Discovery is always important, but more important in Masonry is rediscovery. That form of wisdom, that research into eternal truths is needed more in our world of today than even the discovery of the new. Remember always that we are dealing with a moral science. There is change in the application of moral truths to present situations, but there is no change in truth itself.

Let us re-examine, or rediscover Masonry in the Light of the Law, the law of Balance, of Harmony, of Self Discipline, not the law which confuses, but the law which enlightens.

Let us rediscover Masonic Charity. The opportunity for the application of this principle is limitless. We gain so much for what we give; a word of encouragement, a sincere expression of sympathy in time of another's sorrow and we have rediscovered our own beings, our own potentialities.

Let us rediscover Masonry in the Light of Values. Let us understand that the study of the Liberal Arts and Science is not itself the goal of Masonic teachings, but that we must always keep in mind the M.C.

Let us rediscover Masonry in the Light of that much used phrase "Old Time Masonry" is not a time. It is a condition. It means that the Mason doing the work of Masonry, treating all obligations as sacred, and having a just concern for the welfare of his brothers.

Let us rediscover Masonry—The teacher, the teacher of Love, who takes us by the hand, and who is ever patient with our faults and shortcomings. She wisely tells us that Light will be added to Light as our deeds give substance to our thoughts.

Let us rediscover Masonry—The teacher who tells us, "We will march in Light and Darkness and without fear."—Masonic Messenger.

POT LUCK SUPPER TO BE HELD

The Friendship Club of Shiloh Chapter, O.E.S., will hold a pot luck supper and meeting on Saturday, March 25, at Sears Pavilion on the Bluffton Road.

Special entertainment has been arranged and all members are urged to attend. Each one is requested to bring a covered dish of food, plus, their own table service and china.

My Brothers: By the time this article appears in the Square and Compass, we will be thinking of spring. I know that you will be looking forward to that time with as keen anticipation as I am. Let us hope that it is just around the corner.

In my last article I stressed the importance of attendance at our Masonic funerals. Your response to this has made me very happy. I regret that I was unable to express my appreciation and thanks to each of you personally, therefore, I desire to take this medium of expressing my appreciation and sincere thanks to each and every one of you, and hope that you will continue to faithfully discharge this most important duty.

On March 24th we will have our Ladies' Night Banquet. Every effort is being put forth to make this an enjoyable occasion. The price of our tickets will be $1.25 per person as heretofore. Larry Baker, Chaplain, is in charge of our ticket sales, and the tickets are now available. Contact any officer or member of our Fellowship Club. As on previous occasions, it will be necessary to limit our ticket sales to approximately 450 people, as our dining room will not comfortably accommodate more than that number, so arrange for your tickets as quickly as possible.

Also, I wish to remind you that our next visitation to the Veterans' Hospital will be on Monday, March 6th. This is a Masonic service, and I know that you will be richly rewarded for giving a small portion of your time in encouragement and cheer to these unfortunate veterans. We meet in the lobby by 7:30 p.m., and spend only 1 hour. We are usually out by 8:30 p.m. Make it a point to be with us. Remember the date, March 6th.

I have been informed that our Fellowcraft Club, which is under the direction of P.M. Abner R. Wolverton has elected the following officers for 1961. President, Geo. Wager, Vice President, Robert Leiter, Treasurer, Bill Jones, and Secretary, Jack Stilling. Congratulations to each of you.

We welcome into Summit City Lodge, Erwin Carl Meissner and Ralph Reece Griffith, who have been raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on January 27, 1961. We hope that you will be with us often to enjoy the work and fellowship that the Masonic fraternity offers. We also wish to extend the hand of fellowship to Billy Edward Mix, who has transferred to Summit City.

On Jan. 16, 1961, Brother Ora Vaughn Martin was called by the Supreme Architect of the universe to join that Celestial Lodge above. To his family and to his friends we extend our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy.

We have sick brethren as follows: Jim McClain, Lutheran Hospital; W. W. Spalding, St. Joseph's Hospital; William Wilkerson, Parkview Memorial Hospital; Chas. Becker, 1415 Swinney Ave. We wish to them a speedy recovery.

Please report any sickness of our brethren to Carl G. Schlenker, Chairman of our sick committee.

See you at lodge.

At our February Stated Meeting we received one petition and also elected one candidate so Home Lodge will be busy right along. At our Past Master's Night we had a very good crowd. Home Lodge has 28 living Past Masters of which we are very proud. One of our members, Arthur M. Paulison, was our speaker for the evening and gave a very interesting talk on Masonic history here in our city. Our Brother who was to receive a 50-Year Award of Gold was unable to be present that night but it was presented to him later at his home by Past Grand Master and Past Master of Home Lodge, Orvis A. Dellinger. Richard A. Morton was the Brother who received it and he was very proud of it. He lives at 3015 Fiqua Avenue.

In the month of January, Olan L. Rice and Howard E. Smith were raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason by Home Lodge.

At our Fellowcraft practice last month we were short on some places. Anyone who wishes to work on the Craft come to the Temple and we will have a spot for you. We will have two practice sessions in March so we will be ready to go to Garrett Wyckoff Lodge in Lima, Ohio, April 8th.

Our next event will be April the 20th, which will be Guest Night so be sure and buy a ticket for yourself and a friend so that he may visit our Temple and meet new friends.

The Grim Reaper has seen fit to call two of our Brothers, Noah S. Patton and James H. Gay. We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to these families.

At this writing Brother Edward S. Miller is at Lutheran Hospital for surgery. For him and any others who are ill, we wish them a speedy recovery.

A father called his seven quarrelsome sons to him and said, "I'll give all my wealth to the one of you who can break this bundle of seven sticks I have tied together." Each son tried in turn but could not break the seven sticks. "It is easy," said the father as he untied the sticks and broke them one by one. "Then he continued, 'And so with you my sons. Each of you can easily be broken when brotherly bonds are severed but so long as each of you hold fast together and aid each other none can injure you.'"

Here is briefly expressed the outline of Masonry—Union, the spirit of brotherhood. The greatest single activity of Masonry is the development of brotherhood among men of the craft. Through dissipation; tolerance and comradeship prevails.

Masonry brings together men with kindred ideals of fraternalism, men who understand and like each and these ideals are expressed not only in words but in action necessity demands it. Fraternalism cannot function by itself—man does prefer to walk alone.

A committee of the lodge is now in the process of selecting equipment for our recreation room and it is expected members will begin to gather there more frequently for social times. The craft will be strengthened thereby.

We are raising Robert Wayne Sipe this month and are welcoming 4 new brothers who were voted into our fellowship by demit at our last stated meeting.

The strength of an organization lies not only in the continual flow of new members with their enthusiasm and vigor but also in the continual interest, wisdom and experience of older members and past officers. Recently 5 of our 6 Past Masters were present. They were: Elmer Spahr, Dan Neibel, Wm. Herman, Robert Capin and Wayne Mitchell. The 6th, Phil Carsten now resides in Florida.

Dinner will be served in the "rec" room at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 22 after which the MM degree will be conferred. All members should make a special effort to be present.

On Feb. 7 Norman L. Riley and Donald E. Morris were made Master Masons in our Lodge. Eighty five (85) members and visitors enjoyed the fellowship on that occasion. We as your officers are deeply grateful for that splendid attendance and support. It is a challenge to us to put forth our best efforts, and as long as you continue this vast interest, we pledge to strive even harder to serve you and to make Three Rivers a lodge that you may be justly proud of. I wish to express my appreciation to Junior Ward and Mrs. Franklin, Lee and Mrs. Garrison and all who worked so diligently to prepare the fine dinner we enjoyed at the Master Mason Night. On Feb. 15 we paid a tribute to our Past Masters. A fine dinner was prepared by Mrs. Brennan and after dinner we were entertained by a group from Defiance, Ohio who presented "The Royal Arch Widows Degree." Our next social event will be held on March 11 The Corinthian Club being our guests, at a smorgasbord and square dance. Chuck Wright will be here with his band to play and call for us. The degree work is back on our usual schedule. Master Mason degree will be on March 7, with E.A. on March 21 and F.C. degree on March 28. Dinner will be ready on March 7 at 6:30.

Bro. Kenneth Witte, chairman of the Veterans Hospital visitation, has asked me to thank all of our members who attended the visitation on Feb. 6. The next date for us to remember for this worthy cause is March 27. I have asked Lee to prepare a snack for us at the Temple following our visit. Our Play Rose Upon The Altar, under the direction of Past Master Cyrus Senger will go to Sherwood, Ohio on March 17th. Bro. Senger has asked that all members of the cast be present for practice on March 2nd and March 9th at 7:30 at the Temple. We wish to send greetings to Bro. Dick Baker who spent a week in the hospital recently, also Bro. Bundy who is convalescing at home.

The sands of time seem to be running faster this year than ever before. The days, weeks and months fly swiftly by. This results from being busy every day. Perhaps we might all stop occasionally and reflect backwards somewhat. Are we wasting many of these precious hours flying by or are we attempting to make our time worthwhile and accountable for the good? Week-days find most of us working at our daily labors. But what happens come Saturday and Sunday? It is always tempting to stay in bed and loaf a little extra, especially on Sunday, instead of getting up to go to church. This brings to mind a poem which I would like to share with all of you:

WHEN SUNDAY ISN'T SUNDAY
I know a thousand things to do
When Sunday rolls around,
But most of them will interfere
With worship, I have found;
If I use the day for pleasure,
I have a conscience in the lurch,
For Sunday isn't Sunday,
Unless I go to church!
A man may tinker with his car or take his shotgun out,
Or he may grab a rod and reel
And try to catch some trout;
A woman has her household tasks,
Like mending socks and shirts,
But Sunday isn't Sunday
To those neglecting church!
We can follow inclination
And just loaf around all day;
We can eat and sleep and eat some more
But not take time to pray
The habit of indifference
Will any soul besmirch,
And Sunday's never Sunday unless we go to church.

—author unknown
We can all think seriously about the above. I'm sure the trials and tribulations of the following week will be much easier to accept when we have attended church services each Sunday.

Brothers, we will soon be into March activities. There will be one petition to vote and will continue work on a candidate held over from February. Our only social function given this month will be the Past Masters banquet when their ladies are to be honored too. We have an interesting program in the planning which we hope will be enjoyed by all present. Brothers, please mark this date on your calendar. These past masters deserve all the recognition and honor we can give to them because they have made our lodge what it is. Each member will get a card with a return envelope for your reservations. Please return with an affirmative answer as soon as possible so we can plan for a large attendance.

We ask you to watch your newspaper Masonic calendar for the latest news and plans. Our plans are to serve a meal on each 3rd degree night which is the 4th Thursday of each month. Why not plan on spending your Thursday evenings with us? It can become a habit easier and quicker than you might think. We have several members working on our fellow craft team but can always use more.

May God bless each of our brothers who are ill and return them to health as soon as possible.

After a very busy January our Lodge during February is dark. We are going to be back to work in March with several candidates. From information that has been received, we are also going to be very busy with new candidates during April and May.

We are very interested in reorganizing our Fellowcraft Club—unless better interest is shown—we may have to resort to a short form degree team. We invite your thoughts—we invite your help and interest. Please come to Lodge on the March Stated Meeting and let us know of your interest in keeping a full form degree team going.

We have recently lost 2 more brothers this year. During the latter part of January we lost brothers Scudder Welty and Robert Witaker. The 4th Wednesday of May has been set aside for our annual Charter Member night celebration. This date is May the 24th. Set this date aside and make plans to visit your Lodge, enjoy a good program and dinner. You can renew many good acquaintances.

Recently during balloting on several candidates some of us may have seemed a little lost on how serious a ballot on a candidate is in Masonry—here are some pertinent thoughts on the ballot; In the election of candidates, Lodges have recourse to a ballot of white or black balls. Unanimity of choice, is required; one black ball only being enough to reject a candidate, because "The members of a Lodge are the best judges of it; and because, if a turbulent member should be imposed on them, it might spoil their harmony or binder the freedom of their communication, or even break up and disperse the Lodge, which ought to be avoided by all true and faithful."

In balloting for a candidate for initiation, every member is expected to vote. No one can be excused from sharing the responsibility of admission or rejection, except by unanimous consent of the Lodge. Where a member has himself no personal knowledge of the qualifications of the candidate, he is bound to give his faith to the recommendation of his brethren of the reporting committee, who, be it to presume, would not make a favorable report on the petition of an unworthy applicant. The secrecy of the ballot is as essential to its perfection as is its unanimity or its independence. If the vote were to be given via voice, it is impossible that the improper influences of fear or interest should not sometime be exerted, and timid members be thus induced to vote contrary to the dictates of their reason and conscience. Hence, to secure this secrecy and protect the purity of choice, it has been wisely established as a usage, not only that the vote shall in these cases be taken by ballot, but that there shall be no subsequent discussion of the subject. Not only has no member a right to inquire how his fellows have voted, but it is wholly out of order for him to explain his vote.

There is never a time when you come to Lodge that is ill-spent, you are bound to make faster friendships and reap the truths of Masonry. All of you have a fine Lodge—so come on down and be a close part of it.

Jeanice Kemp, W.M.
Brother Tom and I shall ever be grateful for the honor Trinity Chapter bestowed upon us in giving us the opportunity and privilege of serving as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron. We want to extend our thanks to each of you who made our year such a pleasant one. Whether you took part in the choir, past matrons and patrons, committee chairman or member, sideline, officer or visitor, we thank you for the marvelous spirit and cooperation. We hope you have enjoyed it too, and have been making friends while serving, for in serving together, we learn to love one another and in so doing, we learn the full meaning of sister and brotherhood. May we say "thank you," and with these words go a prayer, that the joys and pleasures you have scattered along our way be reflected in you and richly bless your lives always.

To Sister Lillian and Brother Cyril Poiry. We wish for you the same loyalty, love and devotion that was bestowed upon us. May your year be crowned with blessings, rich, abounding and eternal.

In leaving the East, Tom joins me in sharing this thought with you: We wish we knew some special way that we could just begin
To say how we appreciate
How nice you all have been.
But since you know us pretty well
And know our feelings too,
You know how happy are the thoughts
That prompts this wish for you.
May God bless each and all of you.
Fraternally, Jeanice and Tom Kemp.

February 3rd was election night at Trinity Chapter. Those elected were: Worthy Matron, Lillian Poiry; Worthy Patron, Cyril Poiry; Assoc. Matron, Louise Wilkerson; Assoc. Patron, Donald Niles; Secretary, Eugenia Wood; Treasurer, Doris Thielholt; Conductress, Doretta Baker; Assoc. Conductress, Mae Ernst.

Installation ceremonies will be March 24th at 8:00 p.m. in the Commandery Room in the Masonic Temple.

March 3rd we will hold our annual memorial service. We are having something special on this night. Job's Daughters are going to do their closing for us. I know this is a ceremony that you will all enjoy, so let's all try and come and fill up the sidelines. March 17th will be our farewell.

How quickly a year can pass! I wish you could know what is within my heart, but words cannot always express our deepest emotions. They are but the spoken symbols of our thoughts and mine are indeed insufficient to express my gratitude for your love, loyalty, kindness and devoted co-operation throughout this past year.

"The sweetest flower that grows, We give you as we part,
To you it is a rose, To us it is our heart."

If I've brought a little sunshine, If I've helped to lift a care,
Made the way a little brighter, or a burden helped to share.

Then I feel that God has blessed me, and He surely heard my prayer,
When I asked that He would lead me, all through out this year.

Gladys Gifford, W.M.
We extend our heartiest congratulations to all who were elected at our February 2nd meeting to serve our Chapter during 1961 and 1962.

The Worthy Matrons Party, "Ecstasy in Pink," was held in the Masonic temple dining hall Jan. 18 and was attended by approximately two-hundred members.

As we entered the dining area, we were pleasantly impressed by the beautiful pink decorations. The back of pink and white draperies with the Worthy Matrons watchwords shining in silver glitter, and nosegays of pink carnations were reminiscent of the night of her installation. The table layed in white linen with a gold flounce was decorated with an arrangement of pink carnations, and tapers with tiny pink spirea trees standing in ruffles of pink netting all around the member was a tiny pink capri table. They were all lighted after a welcome and invocation.

The Program—Welcome by Gladys and presentation of gift to Worthy Matron. Song to Worthy Matron by choir. Presentation of gift to Worthy Patron by Herdis Helmuth, song by choir. Remarks by Worthy Matron, Edith McIntosh and Worthy Patron, Herb Fuhrman. Greetings from Committee Chairman, Co-chairman and Secretaries. Greetings from members of Social Groups. Skit "School Days" by officers. Song "Our Days"—officers and choir.

Star of the East, No. 514 Fort Wayne, met for the regular meeting on Jan. 24 with Allah Signet entertainers Sister Edith McIntosh and Brother Hubert Fuhrman Worthy Patron, presiding.

The chapter room was appropriately decorated in the Allah Signet colors. In the East palms were arranged with the words Allah Signet blue and silver on a background of white satin.

The evening was a most enjoyable listening to Miss Rich's class of boys from North Side School "The Triple Trio." They were commended through several numbers as group and then singing duets and solos. It was a pleasure having them in our. They were then escorted to mezzanine for refreshments.

The serving table with a lace cloth, pretty with an arrangement of blue and white flowers and tall blue vases in crystal. The long dining table was decorated with hurricane lamps with blue candles, each setting a circle of silver leaves. Delicious sandwiches and coffee were served in the Allah Signet Club.

Sisters and Brothers, at the close of this month another year of Star of the East Chapter will be past, and officers will be guiding you through the beautiful order of the Star. We, your Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, want to bid to each and every member of this chapter our sincere thanks in closing this year what we feel has been most happy and successful and will long be remembered in our hearts.

At the end of a pleasant journey, at the end of the old year ends; days and the ways made easy the help of our faithful friends. With thanks, Dear Friends, for the help you've been and many a way, wish is for everything good for all.

With many and many a day.

Our Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, Edith McIntosh and Herb Fuhrman.

Florence Obetz ----- Secretary

A year has passed and during that year, you—the members of Shiloh Chapter, have done all within your ability to assist me in Chapter projects, its meetings and in general, its existence, and because of your assistance and cooperation, may I say with all sincerity, "Thank you!"

As another Chapter year closes its pages and passes into history, let us write in our own history what we have learned. I sincerely hope that the trust which you placed in me a year ago has not been misled or wrongly transmitted.

Each of the members, and more especially, each respective committee, has contributed much time and effort to the projects of the year. You have supported new and old ideas alike, and you have made it known to me that a genuine interest in the welfare and future of this Chapter lies within your hearts. Even though the words seem so inadequate at times, I do mean it warmly and sincerely, "Thank you!"

To our officers . . . you have done well. You have portrayed the beautiful heroes of our order in living example. Your enthusiasm, your ability and your constant devotion in this year has meant so much to both Dale and me, and our wish for you is that in some way, sometime, you may have in return, at least a portion of that which you have given this year.

Again, may I say "Thank You" for everything . . . in the time of need, in the time of health and happiness, in the time when friends were needed most. Thank you for being our friends and for all that you have done. May I leave with you this thought, "Walk with faith in your heart, and you will never walk alone."

Janet Fruechte, Worthy Matron.

In looking back over the last year in Chapter, I find there were times to be mad, times to be glad and times to be sad. Fate served up in all of us just about the usual amounts of frustrations, joys and sorrows. We all accepted our lot with patience, thankfulness and faith in the promise of the future.

It has been a distinct pleasure to serve the Chapter as Worthy Patron. I extend to you all my good wishes for the continued welfare and prosperity of the Chapter.

Dale Shupe, Worthy Patron.

At our Feb. 9th Stated Meeting an election of officers was held and the following were elected: Worthy Matron, Helen Hutchison; Worthy Patron, Edgar DeForest; Associate Matron, Ethel Miller; Associate Patron, Danley Schiebel; Secretary, Florence Oetz; Treasurer, Leona Shady; Conductress, Lucille Thompson, and Associate Conductress, Betty Scott.

"Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar, Food for consuming rust,
But the temple the Master builded,
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is your immortal soul."

Fraternal Greetings to each of you.
Did you miss that big treat? Well — If you like fish and didn't attend the fry — you did. Thanks to our fisherman and the Ways and Means Committee for this supper. Following the regular stated meeting, too, the Drill Team of the Royal Neighbors drilled for us. Most of the members on the team are traveling down the twilight of life, but they were young at heart — yes indeed — and in footwork also. Light refreshments were served in dining room afterwards.

February 22nd was Advanced Officers Night and Initiation, Opening and Closing Ceremony and Escorting was ably performed by Associate Matron, H.L. Bertha Clear and S.K.
Oliver Boldt, serving as Royal Matron and Royal Patron. Also the Condoctresses, H.L. Bessie Myers and H.L. Velma Schane were most proficient in the work of their advanced stations.

A little chatting here and a little chatting there. It's all about year-end reports, parties and election in our Court, March 8th. Let's really do some good hard thinking about the candidates. Then come out and vote for those you think are best qualified to serve for the good of the order.

March 22nd, will be our last initiation for the year. Let's finish up with a big class for our farewell.
Here's some real good news. H.L.
Myona Binkley, who is known to Amaranth folk over Indiana as "The Grand Old Lady" paid us a visit and dropped her coins in the birthday box — 82 years old. She's our Warder and gave her charge, Loud and clear, and word perfect. Will you or I do as good at 82? I wonder! Our Sentinel, S.K. William Wilkerson is confined to the Parkview Methodist with orders to completely rest that heart of his, but he loves company and cards. Also the husband of our Musician, H.L. Beth Smith, is in Lutheran Hospital. We hope he will be improving shortly, and we send our best wishes.

H.L. Marie Harrison has been bitten by the "flu" bug, but is improving.
S.K. Paul and H.L. Bertha Clear are vacationing in Florida. Mrs. May Webster, one of the ladies in the Nursing Home which is our project for this year had a birthday, and received a shower of cards.

Officers met at the home of H.L.
Nellie Moore, and Ways and Means at the home of H.L. Mabel Travis.
March 22nd will be the Year-End party for Officers, all committee members, their wives or husbands. The party will be at the Hobby Ranch House on North Anthony. Make reservations with the Secretary or H.L. Florence Geiger. This is a combined party of all groups assisting the Court this year and should attract your attention and attendance.

"Give of your best to your Court, and in return the best will come back to you."

February was a very busy month for the H.L. and S.K. of Anthony Wayne Court. Charter members were entertained with a party on the first meeting, which was arranged by the Program Chairman, H.L. Norma
Jean Miller. P.G.R.M. H.L. Mary Ellen Sible gave the history of the Court. "A Special Session of the Supreme Council, Order of the Amaranth was held in the Odd Fellows Hall, 825 Calhoun St. on March 22, 1941. Under the direction of S.R.M. H.L. Florence Booker, Anthony Wayne Court was organized in accordance with the ritual of the order and the Constitution of the Supreme Council. This Court has continued to grow and prosper and is the largest in the State."

Thank you, Truth Court for the Fish Fry invitations and to attend court with you. May our friendship between the courts remain true.

The Lamplighters met at the home of P.G.R.M. Wilma Binns and P.G.R.P. Arlie Binns at Lafayette, Ind. on Feb. 19, 1941.

The Wanamac's (G.A.M. Waneta zie's group) met at Sheridan, Ind. on February 12th.

March is the month for whirlwind of the year parties and work.

March 1, Stated meeting and committee chairman will give their reports of the proceedings and activities of the past year which is followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year.

March 12, Officers (Kay-Eds) and their husbands and wives will enjoy a nice dinner at the Lookout Room at 6:30 p.m.

March 13, The cheer committee will honor H.L. Mary Wilson at a luncheon at the Shrine Club House
at 12:30 p.m.

March 15, Stated Meeting and work.

March 21, Past Matrons will be entertained at the home of H.L.
Emma Schell, 3010 S. Lafayette St.

March 28, H.L. Emma Schell and H.L. Georgia Garrett will be the honored guests of the ways and means committee for their year-end party.
Place to be announced later.

Just a reminder — April 5th will be the last meeting of the court for this group of officers. Try to come to this meeting and bid them a kind farewell. April 8th is the date for the installation of the new officers. Invite your friends to witness this impressive ceremony.

Illness in the Court: S.K. Clyde Goshorn is confined to his home. H.L.
Elsie Ashton has been a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital but is home now.
H.L. Blanche Gebert had surgery but is improving. H.L. Elizabeth Hinklin is ill at home. S.K. Vance Knight is a patient at Lutheran Hospital. H.L.

Ruth Hickman is ill at home. H.L.
Bee Koch was ill at home. H.L. Opal Perkins has a broken arm but is at home. G.R.P. Carl Drmkut is ill at home.

Deaths: Husband of H.L. Ann Forst. Brother of H.L. Dessie Fritz.
A little act of kindness at a crossroads today.

Will help to cheer a brother as he passes on his way.

A little act of kindness somewhere along the way.

Will even cause a stranger to lift his head and say,

"Thanks for the kindly favor. It helped a great amount."

Although great deeds are noble,
"It's the little things that count."

Mrs. Marjorie Simmers ----- Guardian
2913 S. Hanna St. ----- H-67475

Thanks to all of the parents who attended our "Moms' and Dads' Night" meeting on Feb. 15 and special thanks to our decorating committee which was made up by the following members: Louise Misegades, chairman; Roxanne Smith, Cheryl George, and Sue Porit. The decorations were highlighted by a huge red heart which bore the words "Welcome Moms and Dads." The valentine theme was carried out since the meeting fell on the day after St.
Valentine's Day.

Keep in mind the two meetings coming up in March. On March 1 we will have a regularly scheduled meeting and on March 15 we will have initiation.

All you parents and girls, remember, our Job's Daughters' rummage sale is going to be on April 5. So save all the old clothes, jewelry, toys, etc. that you were planning to dispose of. Any rummage may be delivered to my home at 4501 Bowser or the home of our Guardian Mrs.
Marjorie Simmers at 2913 South Hanna Street.

Our Job's Daughters Mothers' Club would like to extend an invitation to ALL mothers to attend the next meeting which will be held in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Woltz at 449
Penn Street, on March 13. Job's Daughters will mean more to your daughter if she knows that she is supported by her parents and mothers, this is your way to show your daughter that you are supporting her.

Our sick committee chairman is Rosalie Curtis, who lives at 4104
Mound Pass. Her telephone number is H-03071. I would appreciate it if you hear of any member who is ill, you would contact Rosalie so that she can pass the information on to the other members.

Attend the meetings regularly, girls. And as the saying goes, "You only get out of an organization what you are willing to put into it."

April 8 is the date for our Dinner and Dance. More details will be announced later, but be sure to save that night for a lot of fun. Tell your parents to keep that date open, too, because they will be invited also.

MATTER OF SYMPATHY

Freemasonry has no place for the little, selfish side of man. Its secrets are dead to the man who looks at life that way. It looks for one with a bigger soul, with the more universal spirit; it stops and stays with him only who sees man's mission in the betterment of the human race; he who can take by the hand the fellow who is down and out and put him on his way a better man. Its teachings are wonderfully practical and God-like when once we recognize them.

TEACHING BY EXAMPLE

The often mentioned McGuffey Readers are a notable case of teaching by example, in which the child is shown familiar and everyday objects, and in one way or another associates the object with what about which he wants to know more.
This could be a valuable method of Freemasonry.

Too often modern Freemasonry soars too high into unknown symbolism, emphasizing little-known and questionable facts, whereas the real Mason is anxious to find out the and practical information about the of the ceremonies, history and work of the Craft into which he is coming as an active Mason.

SALT

Masons are well acquainted with the wages of a Fellow Craft Master, and that these same elements are as elements of consecration at Masonic dedications; but they may not that salt is also used as an element of consecration.

The custom of using salt as an element of consecration is not new.
Masons in the United States, at least, not in most jurisdictions. It is, however, used in the English ceremony of dedication.

Salt is an emblem of purity and incorruptibility.

At the building of the second temple by Zerubbabel, Artaxerxes, King of Babylon, made a decree — that whosoever Ezra the priest should quire of you, it be done speedily — an hundred measures of wheat, an an hundred baths of wine, and an hundred baths of oil, and salt" — out prescribing how much.

Salt is mentioned often in the Testament in connection with ritual and religious ceremonies in connection with corn, wine and oil.
Christ told his disciples and followers: "Ye are the salt of the earth; meaning that they were those who influence tended to purify and develop the moral standards of the world."

Salt is also the emblem of purity it purifies and sweetens without presence being evident. It is not specifically in most foods, but it presence renders the food flat and less. So a Mason's life and conduct should tend to enrich without offensive in actions or conduct.

Properly used salt is sweet, sant and useful; but the opposite true if employed improperly. The superstition about salt was that properly used it was a potent good, but when spilled on the floor was an omen of evil. An illustration of this is seen in Leonardo da Vinci's painting "The Last Supper" — shows Judas spilling salt on the table.

ATTENDANCE AND ATTITUDE

The Mason should attend meetings because he is a Mason cause he is interested in learning more about Masonry; because present he can be of help to those who are working diligently to warrant the welfare of the Lodge and Masonry.

Every Mason should look back the time when he was made a and reflect upon the interest and operation of the officers and members who were there when he received degrees. Suppose you had put yourself for one of the degrees to find that all the officers were absent?

In addition, to attending Lodge Mason must bring with him to the meeting the ingredients that make a successful meeting.

The habit of attending Lodge maintaining a receptive attitude ward the beauty of Masonic principles, and the determination to something of value at each meeting that always can be a worthy contribution that each can make to his Lodge and Masonry.

The spirit of brotherly love, kindness, and of harmony will bring with us to Lodge will add up to a successful meeting an evening that is both profitable and pleasant.

This issue is more or less the "Auld Syne" of the 1960-1961 year and it seems fitting that appreciation should be expressed by Faith Shrine the Sojourners who have done so much to make it a successful as well as memorable year.

Many hours are always spent in planning, dreaming and working to reach this goal and should be rewarded with only happiness. Too often the reward is in the form of disappointment, criticism, and sarcasms, so let's ring this year out a little different. With thank you on the side lines for being served as well as the usual Thank You for being had the privilege of serving. So to you Elizabeth and Emmitt, first Sweethearts to share the year, for this wonderful year; To you Mrs. Blanche and your committee your hard work in helping to make it; To you Irene, Verna and your committee for the lovely decorations and vouchers; To you Delta your committee for the cheering comfort you gave the sick; To you Florence, Lavon, Mildred and your committee for the sociability and good things to eat; To you Mary Bender and your committee for cheerfulness at the registration; To the Officers for their splendid work; To the Many Others who tried to make Faith Shrine outstanding, all we can say is "Thank you" but this is said from the bottom of our hearts.

is with regrets that we tell of Swindler withdrawing her name election as Worthy Scribe. She served in this office since the institution of Faith Shrine with a record of not having missed a meeting. Our 39th Birthday party is now in the past, but the memory lingers on. Four of our charter members were able to be with us that night. Sojourners Mahle Scheid, Emma Golden, Shirley Bly and PWHP Hazel Dehler were present. 25 year members also were honored and all were presented with lovely 25-year Shrine pins as a memento of the occasion. The affair was preceded by a lovely banquet with valentine decorations prevailing. Charter members sat at the speaker's table, while past officers and sojourners sat at the other tables. After the meeting sojourners had cake and coffee. Charter members presided at the serving table.

The last meeting in February memorial services were held for sojourners who were called to the Great White Shrine above in the past year.

PWHP Florence Nahrwald entertained the Past Officers at her home Feb. 27th. A wonderful time was had by all. The next meeting of the group will be March 27th.

Now as this copy reaches you, we urge you to mark on your calendar, March 10th—annual meeting and Miriam Shrine's election of officers. Plan to come and hear the reports of these fine committees that served so faithfully this past year, and exercise your privilege as a sojourner to vote for officers for the ensuing year.

March 24 will be a regular meeting and a practice for installation which will be Wednesday, March 29th.

The Cheer Committee will hold their end of the year party at the home of PWHP Mary Catherine Brosius on March 3rd. Assisting hostesses will be Mary Wilson and Reuab Bixler.

The Honorary Officers will have their last party on March 7th with the place to be announced. Graco Hoon is chairman of the affair.

The following illness has been reported: Sojourners Emma Golden, Emma McDaniels, Ruth Hickman, Blanche Gebert, Mildred Igney, Iva Schieber, Catherine Schell, Myrtle Glass, Lulu DeDolph, and William Wilkerson have been ill. Soj. Wilkerson is confined with a coronary at Parkview Memorial Hospital. Soj. Hattie Perry is in the North Wayne Convalescent Home and would be happy to hear from old friends. The mother of Myrtle Glass has been sick, but is better. The husband of Virginia Laux is going into the hospital for tests. Reed Brosius, son of Soj. Mary Catherine, is back in school after being seriously ill. Daughter of Jessie Walker had surgery. The mother of Mildred Igney remains critical at Parkview. Our sojourner Elma Koehlinger passed away after a lengthy illness, and our sympathy is extended to her sister, Soj. Edna Grodrian. Our hearts were also saddened to hear of the death of the brother of Sojourners Lillian Gocke and Mahel Milbern, and the mother of Sojourner Mary Girardot, and the grandson of Soj. Hilda Dietz.

The "Sweetheart Ball" on Saturday, February 18th was well attended, and everybody had an enjoyable evening. We wish to thank all of the committees who worked so hard to make this annual ball a success. Deserving special mention is Sir Knight and Mrs. Tom Houser for planning the decorations that received such favorable comment, and the members of the committee who worked so hard to make and put up the decorations.

Easter Sunrise Service will be held in the Scottish Rite Auditorium at 7:00 a.m., April 2nd, followed by a ham and egg breakfast. Breakfast $1.00, Children 50¢. Please get your reservations in early for the breakfast.

We have already received a number of contributions towards sending qualified sons of Masons, ages 10-14 inclusive, to Camp Crosey at Lake Tippicanoe in August. While some boys pay their own way, many cannot. Each year, therefore, the York Rite Commandery sends a number of qualified boys to this summer camp for one week. Limited funds prohibit sending as many boys as we would like. Consequently, many of our Sir Knights and other Masons make personal contributions to this worthy cause. Perhaps two or more members get together and raise the $22.00 needed to send a boy to Camp Crosey.

Camp Crosey is a Grand Commandery project. Sir Knight Harold O. Martin is in charge for Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4.

The date and details of the summer camp this year will be made known in this column as soon as we

Petitions to receive the Degrees of the York Rite are now being accepted. In the conferring of the York Rite Degrees the candidate actually participates in the work and receives some of it individually. We will therefore be able to confer the degrees upon only the first hundred approved candidates before May. Get your petitions in early and avoid unnecessary delay. The fee is still $80.00 this year. Annual dues to the Chapter, Council and Commandery total $14.50. Upon being created a Knight Templar you are equal to at least 32° and eligible to apply for membership in the Shrine. A Knights Templar uniform, while desirable, is no longer necessary for membership.

The degrees of the York Rite are most impressive. The Order of the Temple is said to be the most solemn in all Masonry. It is based upon the Christian religion and the practice of Christian virtues. The usual comment by the newly created Knights Templar is to express his regret for not having petitioned for the York Rite Degrees soon after being raised a Master Mason.

We prefer to keep working all of the time—to confer the degrees upon smaller groups of ten or twelve candidates as their petitions are approved. However, if a number of candidates prefer to receive the work in convocation form arrangements will be made accordingly.

The Order of the Red Cross will be conferred March 23rd at 7:30 p.m.; the Order of Malta March 28th at 7:30 p.m. and the Order of the Temple March 30th at 7:00 p.m.

We extend our sympathy to Anna Forst whose husband Sir Knight Jerry Forst, was called by the Supreme Commander February 11th.

S.K. Art Nickerson has been hospitalized. He expects to be home at 1315 Sheridan Court by the time you read this. Art would like to have visitors.

S.K. Vance Knight has undergone surgery and at this writing (Feb. 14) is unable to have visitors.

IDEALS

Each individual has his ideals, things that he desires to accomplish in this life. He is actuated to work for the accomplishment of his ideal in his chosen field of thought and he is successful to the degree of energy which he applies. Early in life a man should be possessed with a high ideal to accomplish some good for himself and his fellowmen, and work for its attainment. This is the worthiest ideal of the human mind.

Well, we have another month rolled around. It seems only last week that we met through the column. Time goes fast when busy, and busy we have been.

We welcome our two new Master Masons, Bros. Kenny Fritz and Ernest Schaub. Fine men, both of them. May they and Masonry both be strengthened by each other.

At the raising of the aforementioned Bros., we had visitors from several Fort Wayne bodies, Roanoke, Huntington, Ossian and Avilla. We are gratified to have such interested visitors and welcome them back. Sorry they did not get here in time for the ham and bean supper.

The deadline set by Grand Lodge for dues payment is fast approaching. (Payment is actually due on January 1st). Please don't embarrass yourselves or the lodge by neglecting this.

Bro. P.M. Sylvester Warner has been very ill. We wish him a speedy recovery.

We have started off the year in high gear, judging from the number of petitions for membership that have been submitted. Though this means a lot of hard work for us all, we look forward to it. Through past experience we have found that an active lodge stimulates interest in the membership and encourages further growth.

We urge those who would like to participate in the work but can't seem to get started to contact Past Master Lawrence Mulvane who is our 1961 Masonic Education Chairman. Lawrence is well known in Masonic Circles for his adherence to ritualistic work. So we say "Come on, fellas—the water's fine." Those that participate know what a satisfying experience it is to be a part of this quest for knowledge.

Last week several brothers from Ossian lodge visited the Three Rivers Lodge to see the Huntington-Three Rivers combination put on their degree work. It was a very inspiring experience for those present and they certainly are to be complimented on the excellence of their work.

Past Masters Ernie Earheart and John Osborn are due a pat on the back for their visitations to other lodges to help with installations and other work. They bring credit to our Ossian Lodge. Good work men!

Brothers, we are now a functioning lodge, for the year 1961. All of our officers have been installed. Ray Girardot, Treasurer, and Lee Pettijohn, Tyler, have been installed at our February Stated meeting caused by sickness during January. Our work has been going on and by the time this article hits print, we should have another Master Mason in our midst and another one well on his way as we have a petition to vote on in our March Stated meeting. This means that we will have work on March 8th, 15th and 22nd. Also, have heard a rumor that we have another petition to be presented at our March meeting and to be voted on in the April meeting.

It certainly seems good to have petitions presented at Lodge and see these fellows step forward to receive the degrees of Masonry by initiation. All of this work keeps your officers on their toes and gives Brothers Ray and Lamarr Girardot an incentive to build up the Fellowcraft team. As you well know from past experience, a person or team can practice and learn and practice some more but if they do not get the chance to get out and perform or display what they have learned and practiced, then we have lost part of what we have strived and sacrificed for. Namely, we have lost a chance to show brotherly love, friendship and perfection. Brothers, we can use all the help we can get on our Fellowcraft team and if more than enough show up at each meeting to fill out the craft, then we can duplicate parts to allow for vacations, sickness and other absence.

At this writing, I am glad to report that we do not have a sick-list, all of the ailing Brothers have recuperated, and I hope that we can continue in like manner. Our secretary Russell Smith reports that the 1961 dues payments, together with Masonic Home contributions continue to roll in and that we will soon be 100 percent. It gives me great pleasure to congratulate all of the Brothers of New Haven Lodge for making this possible at such an early date.

Brothers, we have started off on a profitable year. It is profitable to our minds and hearts as we enrich them with the food of our ancient fraternity. We have had the pleasure of presenting a 50-year pin to Ora Hoffman. We had a fine attendance, and the fellowship we had after made the evening complete. The ceremony reminded us of the teachings in masonry of the 3 stages of life and the fullness and joy that can arrive with age by keeping our life upright before God and man.

We have started 2 candidates through the degrees of masonry. We do so with the hope and anticipation of presenting the principals of masonry to them and reminding us of the fact that it is a society that is charitable, benevolent, educational and religious. It has principals that can be proclaimed proudly and as widely as man may hear. Its only secrets are in its method of recognition and of symbolic instruction.

Think about what is mentioned above, what masonry can do for you, or should I say what you can do for masonry and the world by proclaiming its principals in our daily life.

We are sorry to hear about the illnesses and wishing get-well to brothers' Earl Jones and Charles Fletcher. Let your officers know when any of our brethren are ill.

See you at lodge.

As we enter another month, there are several items of importance on the DeMolay calendar. First, our annual Tournament Trot dance will be Friday, March 3, on the weekend between the Sectional and the Regional, at the Masonic Temple from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. All members are invited to attend free of charge, and tickets may be secured for non-members for $1.00 per couple. As in the past, this will be an informal dance; and type of dress will be optional.

Also, our annual DeMolay Church Sunday will be March 19. This year we will attend the First Presbyterian Church together. We will attend the 11 a.m. service, and all members will meet in the Youth Lounge at 10:30 a.m. This Church Sunday is one of the few times in the year that we are on more or less public display as a group before the community, and the impression we make goes a long way toward enhancing our reputation as the finest youth organization in the city. A large attendance will be appreciated; and in view of the number that have attended in the past few years, it is well worth the small amount of time and effort required.

We initiated the first class of the spring term, a group of 23 boys, at our February 8 meeting. The ceremony was followed by a memorial service for the late William Pifer, a DeMolay, and by the Flower Talk. The officers did a commendable job for their first initiation, and the entire program was concluded in somewhat record time. Our other meeting of last month, February 25, was a stated business meeting.

The March 8 meeting, at which your Senior Counselor Tom DeWeese will preside because of my absence from town, will be a regular meeting featuring more special entertainment. We will initiate the second class on March 22.

Unfortunately, petitions for this class have been trickling in very slowly. The older members know that we have had problems such as this in the past, but so far we have managed to reach our quota of new members each year. For a number of years, our charter has grown until it has become the largest in the world. At no time has it slid backward in membership; but unless you, the members, go out and each bring in a petition or two, we will be faced with that dismal prospect this year.

In the past, a few boys have carried most of the load. Now no one has stepped in to fill their places, and the rest of the membership isn't doing its part. The prospective members are there, particularly among the younger boys. All you have to do is invite a few to join.

I know you get tired of hearing about the subject of membership, so let's get going and bring in enough petitions this month to meet our quota and get it out of the way. There are two kinds of people in the world; those who lift and those who lean. Which are you? James Carter, Master Counselor.

"Dad" Herrick says congratulations to all the officers for the fine job they did in presenting the initiatory degree on February 8th. May I also take this opportunity to welcome all the new members to Fort Wayne Chapter.

Easter

Greetings and Good Wishes

As we celebrate a glorious Easter, we take this opportunity to greet you and your family with every good wish for your happiness at this Holy season. Our earnest hope is that the glad tidings of Easter may guide and strengthen all of us, helping us to envision deep spiritual goals and to recognize the greater truths that go beyond our everyday life.

To know the true joy of Easter . . . to experience all the glory of its message . . . attend Easter services in the church of your choice. Bring your family . . . join your friends.

HOME LODGE TO HOLD GUEST NIGHT BANQUET

On Tuesday night, April 25, in the banquet room of the Temple, Home Lodge will hold a guest night banquet for master masons and their guests.

The speaker for the event will be Bro. Clyde E. Flowers, Senior Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge of Indiana.

The dinner will open at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $1.25 per plate and may be obtained from any Home Lodge officer and Henry at the cigar stand.

A LIVING LABOR

I believe that Masonry is a movement, and that as a movement it will never outlive its usefulness though its methods and manpower may change, because Masonry begins by calling men together on the level.

This is where we meet. We have many differences, we don't look alike, we don't all think alike. We believe that this is the way God must mean it to be. Yet in spite of our differences we are united not by command, nor by fear, nor by subservience, nor the weight of traditions. We experience a unity of purpose and oneness with free men everywhere as we participate in the eternal process of freedom, a task that is never completed, a living labor that will never be obsolete.

SOL D. BAYLESS TO HOLD SMORGASBORD AND SQUARE DANCE

On April 29 Sol D. Bayless will hold a Smorgasbord and Square Dance at the Temple. Dinner to start at 6:30 p.m. with dancing from 8 to 11 p.m. Music by the Midwesterners.

All Masons and their friends are invited to attend this event. Tickets may be obtained from lodge officers or Henry Hoffman.

Notice To All Worshipful Masters Grand Master Issues General Regulations Concerning Publication of Candidates Names

Recently in their newstories in the Square and Compass, some Worshipful Masters have been publicizing the names of their candidates taking the degrees, prior to being raised Master Masons.

We have now been informed that this is not permissible under the general regulations of the Grand Lodge of the State of Indiana.

Recently we received a letter from John H. Jefferson, Grand Master of Indiana concerning this publication of candidates names prior to receiving the Master Mason degree. His letter states in part, quote:

"This is a violation of General Regulation 34.020 (b) which relates to publication of names of candidates: 'Notices giving the names of candi-

FORT WAYNE COMMANDERY TO GIVE EASTER SERVICE

On Easter Sunday Morning at 7:00 a.m., at the Fort Wayne Scottish Rite Auditorium, the Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4, will give an Easter Service with a breakfast following.

All Master Masons, their families and friends are invited to attend. Sir Knights are requested to attend in uniform, less arms.

The program for the service is as follows: An organ prelude, by Sir Knight, James W. Allen; Responsive reading led by Excellent Prelate, Harold O. Martin; Prayer, Rev. Kenneth Tousley, Pastor, Robison and Westly Methodist Church; Scripture lesson, Sir Knight, Maynard R. Cope, Jr.; Song, Onward Christian Soldiers, Mizpah Shrine Chanters under the direction of William L. Wetzel, with Robert J. Mills, accompanist; Benediction, Excellent Prelate, Harold O. Martin; Lutkin Benedictious, Mizpah Shrine Chanters.

The Easter Service is being jointly sponsored by the Fort Wayne Commandery, No. 4, Fort Wayne Scottish Rite and the Mizpah Shrine.

After the services, breakfast will be served, at a small charge, in the dining room. Breakfast tickets will be on sale in the lobby.

CARD PARTY AND BAZAAR TO BE HELD AT TEMPLE

The Fort Wayne Assembly No. 139, Social Order of Beauceant, will hold a card party and bazaar on Friday, April 14 at the Temple, starting at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Tickets are 50¢ each and may be obtained from any member of the Assembly.

Chairman and Co-Chairman of the event are Mrs. Donald Marvel and Mrs. Richard Jones.

FISH FRY TO BE HELD BY SHILOH CHAPTER

On Friday, May 5, Shiloh Chapter will stage a fish fry dinner at the temple. The fry will be held from 4:30 p.m. thru 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for children.

The dinner is being arranged by the chairman, co-chairman and members of the day and night ways and means committee.

dates to be voted upon or to receive the degrees shall not be sent in any manner whatever to the Lodge membership."

"Since you may not be familiar with this Regulation I am calling it to your attention as I am sure you want to comply with the Grand Lodge Regulations.

"Masonic publications such as yours can be of great service to our membership in providing news and information of interest to the members of our Fraternity. While favorable publicity of Masonic events is desirable and quite proper it should not contain the names of candidates.

With every good wish for continuing success for the Square and Compass, I am, Fraternally and sincerely yours, John H. Jefferson, Grand Master."

Can a man call himself a good Mason who is not a good neighbor? Can he call himself a good Mason if he is not concerned with the problems of his community? Can he call himself a good Mason if he is interested in earning that he ceases to be human? Sum up these remarks this way — Doesn't Masonry demand that we be good citizens.

"A Rose Upon the Altar," Carl H. Claudy's popular Masonic play was presented by the Brethren of Three Rivers Lodge in our recreation room Wednesday, March 22. A fellowship hour followed the presentation of the play. Supper was prepared and served under the direction of John Womack, J.W.

Our recreation room continues to be improved thru the efforts of our trustees, John R. Capin, William Herman and Wayne Mitchell. They have now added pictures, a TV, card tables, a projector stand and end tables. They have not only added to the recreational value of the hall but also to its appearance.

May 11 has been set as the date for our Ladies and Guest night banquet. While the location has not been chosen members should reserve this date and plan to attend. Our next stated meeting will be Wednesday, April 5 at 8 p.m.

At our stated meeting in March we were presented with 5 petitions if each and every one who signs these petitions and those who investigate would follow the petition through the degree work our attendance would be better and would make a better impression on the candidate as you will remember when you were first brought to life what a pleasure it was for you to see some of your friends.

On April the 8th which is on a Saturday we will travel to Lima, Ohio to confer the Master Mason Degree on our candidate this is a return visit to Garrett Wycoff Lodge. We will open Lodge at 3 p.m. so we will have to leave here right after our noon hour let us make this a large crowd as they were over here with about 35 Craftsmen. April the 25th and bring a friend. Dinner will be will be our Guest nite if you have not yet purchased 2 tickets do so served at 6:30 p.m. and our guest speaker will follow.

Our fellowcraft club has been practicing very faithful but we still need more craftsmen so try and make a little more effort to help us along. We have refreshments after each practice.

After a quiet February our Lodge is busy with 3 fine candidates. At our stated meeting our Lodge received 8 petitions and these are now being investigated for future voting. You can readily see that Maumee is an active Lodge—we will need the support of all who are able to come to Lodge during April and May.

We have recently received notice of the passing of a Maumee Brother in Chicago — Brother Steve Roth passed away July 24th, 1959. We are sorry that we did not know of the loss of this Brother at the time — we do know that Brother Roth was active in Fort Wayne some years ago and that this notice may be of interest to some of those who were associated with Brother Roth. Maumee during February lost 2 more Charter Members — we are sorry to have to report to you of the loss of Brothers Harry Wyson and James L. Wyatt.

Those of you who have attended some of those fine Maumee dinners will be pleased to know that the fine lady who is in charge of the meals is well recovering from her car accident—Mrs. Faye Brennan, we are glad that you will soon be back helping us out. We are also very pleased that Brother Darwin Richards is doing well after his operation. Brother

Richards has done much good work for Maumee with his visitations to the Veterans Hospital.

Don't forget our Charter Member night dinner on May 24th. We will be happy to see you all—we will also have an excellent dinner and good entertainment.

Now a few thoughts on the Compass—a Masoic working tool. As in Operative Masonry, the compasses are used for the admeasurement of the architect's plans, and to enable him to give those just proportions which will ensure beauty as well as stability to his work; so, in Speculative Masonry, this important implement symbolic of that even tenor of deportment, that true standard of rectitude which alone can bestow happiness here and felicity hereafter. Hence are the compasses the most prominent emblem of virtue, the true and only measure of a Mason's life and conduct. As the Bible gives us light on our duties to God, and the square illustrates our duties to our neighborhood and brother, so the compasses give that additional light which is to instruct us in the duty we owe to ourselves—the great, imperative duty of circumscribing our passions, and keeping our desires within due bounds.

See you in Lodge—Maumee that is.

The Easter season comes upon us as flowers begin to bloom.

They fill the earth with gladness As they drive away winter's gloom. On trees which have lain dormant, Leaves burst forth once more—

Dressing each tree in a garment As soft as green velour.

And I get a feeling deep inside, God's opening up a door

To show me why His Son had died— And to renew my faith once more.

The message of Easter cannot be written in the past tense. It is a message for today and the days to come. It is God's message which must re-echo through your lives.

In this day of so-called cold war, political intrigue and selfishness; Freemasonry can become a tremendous force for mutual understanding and world peace.

The unrest and uncertainty which prevails in the world today, demands intelligent thinking, sincerity of conviction, loyal allegiance to true aims and purposes, and honesty in our words and deeds.

We need to realize that we are provided with doctrines, policy and principles that have survived the ages of history. If this great ostion of ours is to endure we Masons need to stand squarely, without evasion or modification for the principles of Brotherly Love, and Truth to all our thoughts, words and actions.

The Easter season is surely one that accelerates our christian thinking, brings us into a closer relationship with the Supreme Architect and thus inspires us to keep our vigil, and measure up to our responsibilities.

The world will mature and grow whatever kind of seed we sow. So onward as through life we go, let us watch the seed we sow.

We are pleased to welcome Irvin Whitman into Sol D. Bayless. He was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason during the month of February.

Our thanks to Brother Max Poorman and James Timmons for our Family Night held Saturday, March 6th. We planned on 200 and served 206. The program consisting of musical numbers by the Chansonettes of North Side High and the chalk talk by Mrs. Ruth Lowdermilk were enjoyed by all in attendance.

Plans are now in motion for a Smorgasbord Square Dance to be held on Saturday, April 29th in the Ball Room of the Masonic Temple. Mark up your social calendar, lice up your friends, and join us in this next social event.

Plan on attending our Friendship Night and meeting with brothers from as many as eighteen different lodges and enjoy a full evening of fraternal companionship.

Don't miss this special meeting on Monday, April 17th in the Corinthian Room. We have invited guest officers from the surrounding Blue Lodges to join with our officers in the conferring of the Fellowcraft Degree.

We have planned a short program of entertainment which will be one of the highlights of this evening.

There will be a social hour complete with refreshments to round out this very special night. When this meeting is discussed you will be proud to say—I was there!

Report on Sickness and Distress: Brother Roy Jahn in Veterans Hospital.

Brother Jack Zundell in St. Joseph Hospital.

We regret the passing of Bro. Gratten Buchan, Bro. Charles D. Locke and Bro. Jay C. Link who were called to their eternal homes and we extend our sympathy to family and friends.

Brethren, with spring here oow we can get out and go to lodge more regular. The only excuse now might be lawo work, hut that can always wait another day. Remember we do meet every Thursday and like to see a goodly number on the sidelines. The officers do a better job with filled seats rather than to hear empty voices echoing back from empty spaces. We had three candidates in February and two in March. The month of April will be dark except for our stated meeting. Don't forget we will be eating every night there is work on the 3rd degree prepared by our faithful cook, "Scotty," or Mr. Scott.

We had a nice attendance at our Past Masters Recognition Dinner on March 30. We sincerely hope all who attended enjoyed the evening as much as we officers did in planning and preparing for our humble homage to all past masters. Too bad we couldn't have had every one of you present.

Before I became a line officer, there were times when I criticized the manner in which things were handled. I probably complained many times when I had no just cause purely because I did not completely understand the issue at hand. It is easy to sit on the sidelines and find fault. Now that I have worked my way up and find myself in the "driver's seat," I see many things quite differently. No one of us is perfect; each can only do his best in the manner he thinks is right. Anyone who has found himself in this situation may thoughtfully read the following:

Before Yoo Judge
Let not your heart be guided
By the rumors that you hear,
But give the victim every chance
To prove he is sincere.
Let not your mind be poisoned
By the darts some people throw, Investigate and try to find
The facts you ought to know.
It is easy to condemn
And play a dirty game,
To manufacture lies
And to besmirch a worthy name.
Be careful when you read reports
Or hear them on the air,
Some words escape the censors
And they could be quite unfair.
Be careful in your judgement
Of the rumors you receive.
And take your time before you choose
The things that you believe.

—By James Metcalfe
Any of us can surely benefit from constructive criticism which makes for a more smooth running democratic society.
Our thanks go out to Bernard Smith for having our stag party on February 24. It is a shame so many of you missed it. We had a very enjoyable evening as usual and more than plenty to eat.

We have a committee working on acquiring a new American flag for our Ionic room. Watch for your Masonic calendar in each Sunday paper for the date of its dedication.

There was a large group attended our last Veterans' Hospital visitation, and we had an enjoyable evening visiting all the patients there. Our next visit will be April 17. Put that date on your calendar now to join us there at 7:30 p.m.

To our sick brethren we wish God's luck and a speedy recovery. Please remember if you know of anyone ill, contact me or any other officer. It is better for one case to be reported several times than not at all. You know it is physically impossible to pay our respects to those which are not brought to our attention.

Last, but surely not least, I want to congratulate all the newly elected and installed Worthy Matrons of our Eastern Stars. Here is wishing you luck and success for your year ahead.

This time of the year always recalls to my memory an extremely thought provoking article that appeared in the May 1953 issue of the Square & Compass. This message was written by Bro. Robert E. Lee, then Worshipful Master of Summit City Lodge, and who has graciously consented to using it in my article. Bro. Lee wrote as follows:

"I should like to relate to you an experience which, although it happened some time ago, has remained fresh in my memory. It was during a business trip to one of our large west coast cities, while taking an afterdinner walk, that I chanced to pass a very large book store. There were many items displayed in the window. Among other things, the store apparently sold religious material. Prominently displayed in this show-case was a very large and very beautiful Crucifix. It was the sign below it that made me stop. It very plainly said: "This beautiful Crucifix for sale on easy terms."

I have often wondered if that shopkeeper had any idea of the incongruity—almost the sacrilege—of the phrase he used. That a Cross—any kind of a Cross—could be purchased on easy terms, for that is exactly the opposite of the meaning of the Cross. We all know it as we worship in our churches and ponder on the meaning of a Christ who died on a Cross.

Yet, how symbolic is that phrase of the shallow faith of so many who try to buy the salvation of their soul on easy terms. And, many times, if it can't be bought on those terms, they are not interested in making the purchase. There are those who seem to feel that even regular attendance at a church is too great a price to pay, let alone make any appreciable contribution of their time or substance to further the cause which the church represents. They fail to remember that a man died that they might live. Every ounce of energy or fruit of that energy they could possibly offer would not pay the interest on that debt, let alone reduce the principle.

You do not take up a Cross of any kind on easy terms. Those are the hardest terms that a human being takes upon himself. The terms of the Cross are suffering, sacrifice, pain, anguish and death. No one could ever take up any kind of a Cross on "easy terms." Nor does one ever win anything worth winning on "easy terms." The worthwhile things in life just do not come on easy terms. The closest we can hope to come to it is in giving a portion of our time "to the service of God and a distressed worthy brother." Yes, and even here, if we do not feel a little pain, we will not enjoy the true happiness of giving. Such pains should be attributed to growing pains, namely, our growth to full Christian and Masonic stature.

The equivalent of one hour a day to the service of God and a distressed worthy brother is but 4% of your time. A mighty low interest rate on the debt we owe to Christ. Let every member truly search his heart and "pledge" each according to his means.

In the Spring of the year when it is such a pleasure to behold the handiwork of God, we ought to feel a new kinship with a Christ who died on Calvary for something in which he profoundly believed — that a world of humanity—you and I—was worth dying for. Can we justify that faith? Is our faith strong enough to take up his Cross and carry it onward?"

We wish to extend a warm welcome into Summit City to Charles Arthur Tipton, and Frank Erwin Elder, Jr., who were raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on Feb. 24th. Also to Bobby E. Hood, who affiliated by transfer.
We have Bro. Dallas Girardot in the Lutheran Hospital. I am happy to report that Bro. Preston Somers, P.M., continues to show improvement, and when I visited with him on Feb. 28th, he expressed the hope that he would be walking again soon. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

There have been no petitions presented for the degrees of Masonry for April, so it appears that Summit City will be dark in April.
I wish to extend "Happy Easter" greetings to all my brethren wherever dispersed.

Our membership has been increased by two more in March as Eugene Troyer and Carl Rickner became Master Masons. Welcome to both of you Brothers. The degrees will continue to be conferred for some time to come, we have candidates to be raised on April 4th. The E.A. degree will be conferred on April 18 with F.C. April 25 and M.M. on May 2nd. I want to urge all of you to be present at the M.M. dinner on April 4th and May 2nd. You are missing some wonderful meals prepared by Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Garrison when you do not attend. Mark your calendars for May 15, that evening we will again visit with the veterans at the hospital on Randalia Drive. Kenneth Witte our chairman is devoting much time to this project and is certainly doing a good job.

The Smorgasbord and square dance sponsored by our Lodge on March 11th, was a huge success socially and also financially. Bro. LaVerne Amstutz represented the Corinthian club and expressed the thanks of that group for a nice meal and entertainment. I personally cannot find words to express our appreciation to Jr. Warden and Mrs. Franklin who worked so very hard to make this event possible. I also wish to thank Lee and Mrs. Garrison for their major part in the evening. Many others assisted in the work of this event and we say thanks to all of you, including Albert Fisher, Lawrence Huffman, Lewis Howard, Doyle Carner, Glen Rosevear, and Kenneth Witte.

On March 22nd the cast of the play enjoyed an evening of fellowship with Waynedale Lodge No. 739. Thank you Waynedale. The next date for the play to be presented in this area is April 13th at Poe. We are looking forward to seeing many of our friends on that evening.

Interest is steadily increasing as many of the brethren are taking part in the degree work and activities of our group. New craftsmen and lecturers are appearing on the scene and they are doing a tremendous job. Most recent of these is Brother T. C. Mohr who did an outstanding job on the M.M. explanatory lecture, thanks Tom.

All members who have not sent in their dues are now delinquent may this be a reminder to take care of this matter.

The sick list is at a minimum at this time. Bro. Charles Weaver who was recently hospitalized, for the second time this year, is back on the job again. Remember to notify Bro. Huffman of any sickness.

April is the month which usually means showers and days of Spring. Green grass and the early flowers are signs of things to come. Also about this time we are subject to something commonly known as Spring Fever. We begin to discard the thoughts and traces of winter, although in this vicinity, we have been more fortunate than other parts as to the rigors or the elements.

We have had very good attendance at our meetings and we are hoping that many more of the Brothers will find the time to get down on Monday nights. Particularly are we gratified to have had the sponsors of our candidates present as we put on the degree work. Too many times Masons sponsor candidates for the degrees of Masonry and then fail to show up when the work is put on. We realize that in some cases work schedules prevent their attendance and they generally let us know that they can't be present. As Masons, we have an obligation to be present at their entrance into the Fraternity. Remember that first impressions are the ones that count and unless we impress upon the candidate our interest in him we can't expect him to form a very favorable opinion of our Institution.

The Kemp brothers, Bill and Tom, who have headed up our Fellowcraft Team in such excellent style, will welcome the help of any of the Brothers who can fill any of the parts. Also any of the Brothers who have not as yet taken part and who desire to do so will be given an opportunity to learn any of the parts.

We were pleased to learn that Brother Hubert Lyst, of Tipton, who has been ill in the hospital, is now home and much improved. We are also glad to hear that Fay Brennen, who has handled our Lodge dinners for these many years, is getting around again after her accident.

I attended a film presentation on Persia, now known as Iran. Scenes were shown of the ruins of a huge palace in Esfahan (Isfahan) the ancient capital. This palace had been built in the time of Darius, which was some time after the time of Solomon. As the Persians were the rulers of the then known world they brought materials from all parts of their empire to build their temple. One of the features of their temple was the tall wooden pillars and which were of cedar from the forests of Lebanon. These timbers were transported long distances both on water and on land. The temple was later destroyed by Alexander the Great and only the stone bases of the pillars remain.

In scriptural symbology, the cedar tree, was the symbol of eternity, because its substance never decays or rots. The Ark of the Covenant was made of cedar. The Cedars of Lebanon are frequently referred to in the legends of Masonry; now however, on account of any symbolical signification, but rather because of the use made of them by Solomon and Zerubbabel in the construction of their respective Temples.

Hiram, King of Tyre, in whose domain Mount Lebanon was situated, furnished these trees for the building of King Solomon's Temple. The great trees were from fifty to one hundred feet in height, and cover with their branches a space of ground the diameter of which is still greater. Mr. Phillott (Smith's Dict. Bible) thus describes the grove so celebrated in scriptural and Masonic history.

The grove of trees known as the Cedars of Lebanon consists of about four hundred trees standing quite alone in a depression of the mountains with no trees near, about six thousand four hundred feet above the sea, and three thousand below the summit. About eleven or twelve are very large and old, twenty-five large, fifty of middle size, and more than three hundred younger and smaller ones. The older trees have each several trunks and spread themselves widely round, but most of the others are of conelike form, and do not send out wide lateral branches. In 1550, there were twenty-eight old trees; in 1739, Pococke counted fifteen, but the number of the trunks makes the operation of counting uncertain.

The range of this species of cedar is Asia Minor and Syria, and the wood from this tree was probably the main industry of the peoples of these regions for many hundreds of years. The Phoenicians were particularly adept at obtaining these large timbers.

To those ill we wish a speedy recovery, to those in sorrow we extend our sympathy and to the new grandparents our heartiest congratulations.

In closing I would like to leave with you my Daily Prayer for the coming year: This coming year I'd like to be a Friend to everyone. I'd like to feel each day well spent at the setting of the sun: I'd like to be the kind of person Everyone would love. And make this world seem just a little more like Heaven above: I'd like all of my dealings to be True and just and fair, That God will help me do these things Shall be My Daily Prayer.

Let us believe neither half of the good that people tell us of ourselves, nor half of the evil they say of others. —Pettit.

I would rather be criticized for good work than applauded for poor work. —Espinoza.

It is with a deep feeling of responsibility and humility that I accept the honor bestowed upon me as I assume the station of Worthy Matron of our chapter. My hope and my prayer is that I will prove worthy of this trust and that I will be able to lead our order through a happy, prosperous and useful year, each of us making new friendships and improving the old, and throughout it all carrying out our theme of "Hospitality" and our motto "Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself."

Our watchwords of "Love and Understanding" should help us reach that goal for I am sure if we understand each other we will love each other.

Give me an understanding heart
Show me the way
Help me to do my part
From day to day,
Let kindness ever start
The words my lips would say Oive me an understanding heart,
Oh, Lord I pray.

—Tessie Wise

What shall we wish thee,
What can be found Bringing thee sunshine
All the year round?
Faith that increaseth
Walking in light
Hope that abounds
Happy and bright,
Love that is perfect Casting out fear
These shall insure thee
A happy year.

The chapter's Birthday Party was held Feb. 28th at the Temple. The East was decorated with a big cake

Trinity Chapter No. 576 O.E.S. held its installation of officers on March 24th at 8:00 p.m. in the Commandery room of the Masonic Temple. The east was beautifully decorated with palms and beauty vases filled with blue and white carnations and ferns.

Sister Jeanice Kemp, Worthy Matron and Brother Tom Kemp, Worthy Patron each gave an inspiring closing address and wished much happiness and a wonderful year for the incoming officers.

A beautiful shadow box with a sword and veil surrounded by blue delphiniums with the motto, "Count Your Blessings" was placed in front of the pedestal in the east.

When all was in readiness, the In-

The year has come to a glorious close, with many lovely parties honoring our Worthy High Priestess, Dorothy. The Cheer Committee had its final party at the home of PWHP Mary Catherine Brosius with Soj. Mary Wilson and PWHP Reuab Bixler assisting. Green and white appointments were used and a lovely gift presented to Dorothy and her co-chairmen PWHP Florence Nahrwood and Soj. Erna White received identical gifts from the committee. The committee has worked hard and made many calls and sent many cards. Thanks to one and all for work well done!

The Queen and Her attendants had a lovely end-of-the-year party at the Hobby Ranch House to honor Dorothy. The committee went all out to make it a lovely party to be remembered, and unusual gifts were given to the WHP and Queen. All the girls were faithful in coming to the meetings and were given remembrances by Dorothy and Ann.

The Ways and Means Committee held their final affair at the Ranch House and everyone had a grand time. The tables were beautifully decorated and the WHP was so pleased with the lamp she received from the girls. It seemed like Christmas, except for the decorations, and everyone hated to see the year end. They all worked hard, and have a record to be proud of.

The Social Committee was entertained at Manochi's and later met at the home of Soj. Marguerite Harkless for cards. The WHP thanked all for their efforts this past year. Refreshments have been served at nearly every meeting, and I'm sure all the members say "Thank You."

At the first meeting in March the annual election was held, and the following officers were elected.

Worthy High Priestess, Edna Biddle; Watchman of Shepherds, Ned Biddle; Noble Prophetess, Erna

White; Associate Watchman of Shepherds, Alton White; Worthy Scribe, Marje Brattain; Worthy Treasurer, Glenn Myers; Worthy Chaplain, Myrtle Glass; Worthy Shepherdess, Mary Wise; Worthy Guide, Helen Gorrell; 1 year trustee, Dorothy Myers; 2 year trustee, Mary Catherine Brosius; 3 year trustee, Reuab Bixler.

Announcements will be in the mail soon regarding the installation March 29th. Hope to see you there.

The following illness has been reported: Emma Golden, Addie Hite (auto accident), Mary Wilson, Ruth Hickman, Mary Duncan. Hope all of you will soon be fine and dandy and out in the Easter Parade.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to WHP Mildred Igney whose mother died after a long illness, and to Soj. Sue Bryant whose nephew died.

This is my last copy for the Square and Compass and I do want to thank Mr. Lee for the publicity and his efficient help. Your next issue will have under the by-line of Dorothy Myers, and I shall look forward to reading her column. Au revoir, good friends. See you at the meetings.

By way of explanation; About the first of each month a post card from Mr. Lee, the publisher of the Square and Compass, arrives in the mail stating that the "Deadline" for Publicity is the 15th of the month. Therefore the article must go to press so far ahead of time that the report on sickness is often no longer news and the happenings of the meetings some what antiquated.

So at this writing while Elizabeth is still the Worthy High Priestess by the time the paper reaches you Velma will have been installed and will be presiding.

The election has taken place and the 1961-1962 officers are awaiting installation. Since this will be the official family to administer the affairs of Faith Shrine for the ensuing year you should know who they are and what they have done to merit the office they hold.

Neither the Eastern Star nor the White Shrine have a higher degree to confer on their workers such as the Masonic organization has. The only reward that can be given for hard work and achievement is the confidence and appreciation that can be shown by the election. And this should be evidenced by the individual vote rather than politics. Politics in our order as in every Order in the land is contrary to Supreme Laws.

The Worthy High Priestess, Mrs. C. W. Freeze or Velma as we better know her is the wife of Charles and their pride and joy is Nannette, their 9 year old daughter. Velma is a Charter Member of Faith Shrine and has worked hard for its interest.

The Associate Watchman of Shepherds Richard McKeever, Dick as we know him, is the husband of Elaine. He has served as a Wise Man in the Shrine. Their little family of 5 should be known by all of us. There is Tommie, Beverly, Beth, Brenda and the new comer Lisa.

The Noble Prophetess Mrs. Arnett Bickel, Fanny to us, also a Charter Member has well earned her office. She has been dependable in every field. If the title were more complimentary sounding she should be called "Miss Rummage Sale" after her first love.

The Associate Watchman of Shepherds, Arnett Bickel or Arnett will be serving for first time in the West of the Shrine. He is a Past Watchman of Shepherds having filled this office 3 different times and was the Interim Watchman of Shepherds while Faith Shrine was waiting recognition from the Supreme Shrine. He was the originator of the idea for the mens make up used in the ceremonials.

The Worthy Scribe, Miss Evelyn Hinton, or Evelyn is a Past Worthy High Priestess and the Interim Worthy High Priestess of the Shrine before Faith Shrine was Instituted. She has served in many capacities and is no stranger in the order. She has been Worthy Treasurer, Chairman of Ways and Means, The Mental Health Program and Publicity.

The Worthy Treasurer Mrs. Robert Cherrington or Maxine has served as a flag bearer and faithfully each year on the Decorating Committee.

The Worthy Chaplain, Mrs. Roy Weick, or Marjorie, served the Shrine as an Honorary Officer. Besides her husband Roy she has a son, Robert.

The Worthy Shepherdess Mrs. Merle Husted, or Mae, served the Shrine 2 years as general Social Chairman and has Chaired Card Parties for the Shrine for other Chairmen.

The Worthy Guide, Mrs. Arthur Hanes or Evelyn has given her services to the Shrine through her decorating Talents. She has not only served this committee as Chairman but this past year has been one of the Hand Maids. During Harriets year as President of the State Shrine she not only did the decorating for the State Meets but also had charge of the tables for the Indiana Breakfast at Supreme Shrine in Cleveland.

The Three Year Trustee Mrs. Eugene Reim or Lavon, is a Past Worthy High Priestess of Faith Shrine, the District Chairman of the Supreme Objective Committee, one of the Flag Escorts at State Shrine and President of the Past Worthy High Priestess Club. She and Gene are the proud parents of Nancy who was "Miss Student Nurse" of Indiana University for 1960 by the popular vote of the campus.

Illness reported among the Shrine Members: Florence Gibbs, Gene Day and Cornelia Betz in Parkview Hospital. Ruby Williams in Lutheran Hospital. Blanche Rasmus recuperating at home from a Broken Hip.

Velma Shane and Mary Stocks in an Automobile accident. Mrs. Leila Smith hurt her foot.

Illness in the families: Sister of Bess Lucas in Lutheran Hospital with Broken Hip, Mother of Art Gardi in Lawton Nursing Home, Brother of Mary Ann Bender still in critical condition in Veterans Hospital near Jackson, Michigan.

April 17th is the date for the dinner party given by the Past Worthy High Priestess Club for the Line Officers. This year the party will be at the Gerber House.

Mr. William Bliss, one of our new candidates, was sent to Liberia, Africa, for 2 weeks on special duty for the International Harvester Company.

As the month of April rolls around, Bethel No. 8 rolls into a month "jammed" with activities. First on our agenda is the Job's Daughters' rummage sale on April 5. Any rummage may be delivered to my home at 4501 Bowser Ave., or to the home of Guardian Mrs. Marjorie Simmers at 2913 South Hanna St. Please do save rummage for us as the rummage sale is one of our two money-making projects for this term.

The evening of April 5 will be Past Queens', Guardians', and Acolytes' Night. We will like to extend an invitation to our Past Queens, Past Guardians, Past Associate Guardians. Since meeting will fall on the week spring vacation for many schools, hope to have an especially large attendance of members. There will be special entertainment following meeting. Girls, bring your parents along, too, because this is a meeting we're sure everyone will enjoy.

April 8 is the date for our Daughter's Record Hop and Luncheon. On your calendar it is that we will have a smorgasbord 6:30 p.m. This has been changed to a buffet luncheon which will be held with our record hop. The Jockey for the hop will be Powell of WANE-TV. The tickets for the dance will cost $1 per person and can be obtained from any member of Job's Daughters. The Chairmen for the various schools are as follows:

North Side: Judy Barnard, E. and Sharon Erler, A-87425.
South Side: Roxanne Smith, 92093, Annell Hoover, K-6030.
Martí Morrell, H-28863.

Elmhurst: Janice Morton, Poe and Sandy Means, H-5669.

New Haven: Laurie Karel, 55683 and Judy McClintock, E-3 Ben Geyer: Candy Clevenger, 68252.

Lakeside: Connie Miser, T-3 Central: Sandy Roberts, H-5888.
Northwood: Marsha Kemp, T. and Judy Hutchinson, T-0403.

Portage: Carol Weesner, H-2 Franklin: Sandy Burellson, 19555.

Smart: Susan Poiry, K-1919.
Deloris Reinhold, H-57873.

Call any of the above girls for tickets or information. The dance begins at 8:30 p.m. and ends at 11 p.m. If you have any questions me at H-0901.

Our April 19 meeting was Friend's Night. The officers of our Bethel No. 60 have been invited to be our guests.

Our final activity for the month of April will be our Job's Daughters Church Sunday on April 23. It will be held in the sanctuary of the Creighton Christian Church which is located at the corner of West Clinton and Miner St. The service begins at 10:10 a.m. I'm afraid many members are under the impression that Church Sunday is only for the officers. Contrary to impression, Church Sunday is especially for members of Daughters and their parents please bring your parents and one of the most impressive are we have.

The home of Mrs. Silby, 3511 ings Rd. will be the meeting for the Mothers' Club meeting April.

Don't forget our formal and banquet are coming up on 3. So get your reservation in for the banquet.

Hope to see you all at the meeting.

A REAL FREEMASON

The real Freemason is distinct from the rest of mankind by his form unrestrained rectitude. Other men are honest; he is honest; they are religious; he is religious; they are expectant of being rewarded; he is expectant of being rewarded; they are afraid of the devil in the next life; he is afraid of the devil in the next life. A true Freemason would be there were no laws, human or divine, except those which are written in the finger of God. In every climate under every form of religion, he is the same. He before the universal throne of God in gratitude for the blessings received, and in humble solicitude for his future protection. He hates the good men of all religions. He disturbs not the religion of any man. —Texas Grand Lodge Magazine

The April calendar for DeMolay involves two meetings, the 12th and the 26th. Both of these will be stated meetings, and special entertainment will be provided for at least one of them. Both meetings will afford opportunity to transact business and bring in new petitions, many more of which still are needed to prevent a loss in membership this term.
Also, plans have been moving ahead steadily for the Indiana De-Molay State Conclave, to be in Port Wayne June 30 to July 2, 1961. Chir-men have been selected for a number of committees, and they will be selecting members to help them very shortly.
For most of the major committees, member and adult chairmen have been chosen. The housing committee is headed by Junior Past Master Counselor Jim King and Mr. Robert Lee. The committee responsible for the publication of the conclave program book is under the leadership of Stan Redding and Bill Branstator, co-chairmen and Mr. Dormao Walker.
Registration is being supervised by former Counselor John Kepler and Tom DeWeese, co-chairmen and Mr.
Thomas Compton; and the publicity committee is headed by Dale Terry, Bill Stellhorn and Mr. Walter Mc-Call. The two dances are under the direction of Ken Lowden and Mr.
Mel Ehrman.
The church service is being arranged by Sam Carter and Mr. Emery Tucker, and the parade committee will be headed by Larry Lee, Dr.
Wallace Brown, and Mr. Al Salk.
State Sweetheart candidate housing will be directed by Chris Parrott; and the degree competition will be under the supervision of Mr. Dwight Myers, who also is serving as treasurer for the conclave. Meals will be served by the Mothers' Circle.
Other conclave events which have not been assigned are the individual competitive events, the Flower Talk, oratorical contest, essay contest, talent contest and bowling, golf, tennis and swimming competition. The group events are Initiatory Degree Team, DeMolay Degree Team, and Installing Team.
For all of you members who have a particular interest in any of the areas listed above or who would like to pitch in and lend a hand anywhere, now is the time to make yourself known. Contact any of the chairmen listed or me as general chairman or Dad Herrick. You also can leave your name at any meeting.
This conclave is a huge responsibility for Port Wayne Chapter. It will involve plenty of work; but there will be much enjoyment in preparing for it too. The entire state will be looking to us this summer, so let's present the best conclave Indiana has ever seen. It is a job requiring the assistance of every member. On which committee would you like to help?

Preview of May events:
Make a date with your Mother,
your best girl, for our annual Mother-Son banquet on May 11, 1961 at the Masonic Temple.
May 10, Initiatory degree.
May 24, Election of officers.
May 31, DeMolay Degree.
James Carter, Master Counselor.
Please get your petitions in on our first meeting in April for the May 10th class. Petitions received after that time will have to wait for the Initiatory degree given at the State Conclave—let's make it a big class too. "Dad" Herrick.

MEASURING
... The cubic of ancient times was the length of a man's forearm from his elbow to the tip of his middle finger.
We no longer use the cubit as a unit of length, but we have other units of measure which originated in much the same way. A foot started out as the length of a man's foot; in early times the foot varied from eleven to fifteen inches. When early man began to use his arms and feet for measuring lengths, it was only natural that he thought of using legs, hands, and fingers. Horse's heights are still measured by "hands," the breadth of a man's hand, or approximately four inches.
What we call an inch originally was the width of a man's thumb and also the length of his forefinger from the first joint. In 1324 King Edward of England standardized the inch as "three barley-corns, round and dry, laid end to end." Twelve times this inch became the foot. Three times the length of a foot was the distance from the average man's nose to the tip of his outstretched arm, which distance became the yard. Two yards became the fathom, which several centuries ago was the distance across a man's outstretched arms. One half a yard became a cubit and half a cubit became the span, which was also the distance between a man's little finger and his thumb when his hand was stretched as far as possible.
A hand was half a span and was also the width across a man's hand at the base of the fingers.

I would like to express the appreciation of Brother Jesse and myself to the Scottish Rite for their very fine banquet they served to the Masters and Secretaries last February 13. We certainly enjoyed ourselves.

At this time a note of thanks is extended to the St. Marys Chapter O.E.S. and all the brethren concerned who made our new kitchen cabinets and sink possible. These new conveniences certainly add to the after meeting social time.

By this time Brother Russell Stritmatter should be well on the road to recovery from his recent operation. Please contact Bro. Jesse or me if any of you know of any ailing brother or of one in distress. It is still one of the primary duties of masonry to be concerned about the welfare of a brother.

Attention:

This month, April 13th, The Three Rivers Lodge will present their play "A Rose Upon the Altar." We would be gratified at seeing a full house there that night to take advantage of this opportunity to see this group display their talents.
See you then.

It is springtime once again and everyone's step is a little lighter. The winter storms are past and everyone is getting out more. We have some candidate work coming soon, dates to be announced later. We hope to see the Lodge hall filled.

O.E.S. has a public installation Saturday night, April 1st as follows: Worthy Matron, Lalia Hand; Worthy Patron, Kenneth Hand; Assoc. Matron, Betty Surfus; Assoc. Patron, Gene Martin; Secretary, Helen Warner; Treas., Virginia Tilden; Conductress, Wanda Dickes; Assoc. Conductress, Ester Clifton; Chaplain, Lowell Dickes; Marshal, Patricia Lare; Ada, Genivieve Martin; Ruth, Sharlene Kuhn; Esther, Barbara Fritz; Martha, Delores Runyan; Electa, Donna Ramer; Warder, Sara Miller; Sentinel, Melvin Kuhn; Prompter, Velma Shank.

Let us all remember, while we are appreciating more sunshine and springtime, that only through God's will are we able to have all these things. Also, let us remember what a great privilege it is to be a Mason, and be able to serve him through Masonry.

Hope to see you in Lodge. May we ever meet, act, and part.

We are planning a Master Mason degree for April 8. We will open lodge at 5:45 p.m. and go for refreshments of a chicken dinner at 6:00 p.m. We are looking forward to a big turn-out. I am happy to report that enthusiasm among our officers and members is excellent. From this enthusiasm we can have a tremendous amount of satisfaction for performing a job well done. See you Saturday Night, April 8th.

Our Stars are very busy planning for installation on March 25th. The elective officers to be installed are W.M., Mary Lou Masters; W.P., Bruce Masters; A.M., Kathleen Hedges; A.P., Robert Hedges; Secy., Helen Tweedy; Treas., Althea Pontus; Cond., Flo Cain; and Asso. Cond., Marge Reed.

On Wednesday, March 22, we will honor our Secretary, Sister Elsie Tharp who will be retiring at the close of this year after 20 years of faithful service. At this time we will also honor our out-going Worthy Matron and Patron.

April 6th the Ways and Means Committee will meet with the Worthy Matron at her home at 7:30 p.m.

Brothers, by the time this article reaches your hands, we will have another member in our Lodge due to Brother Paul Claxson having been raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on March 22nd. We will have work on the second, third and fourth Wednesdays of April as we have two petitions for degrees to vote on in our Stated meeting in April. We would like to have a great turn-out again to show these new brothers that our members take an active part in their lodge. The members of New Haven Lodge can be proud of the number of members that have been turning out for all our meetings. Our attendance has been very good, in fact, above average when comparing the size of membership to our total attendance.

We were very greatly shocked and grieved when we received word that Brother Herb Ort had been called up to receive his reward from the Grand Architect of the Universe. I would like to call attention of the members that Herb was our first petitioner and candidate when we began operation of our newly founded Lodge under Dispensation. Herb will be sorely missed at our meetings as he could always be depended upon for a helping hand and had just begun to take an active part on our fellowcraft team, doing a very good job just a week before passing on. Masonic funeral service was held on Friday evening, March 3rd and the Lodge was also requested to furnish pallbearers.

At this writing, word has just been received that our good Brother and Past Master Rolla Durbin has been taken ill and is in Parkview Hospital. I do not know his exact condition but have heard that the No Visitor sign is out for the present. We certainly do wish Rolla all of our best for a quick and complete recovery.

I also wish to take this opportunity to thank the Worthy Matron, Delores Stark, and her committee from New Haven Eastern Star for all the help and work that they have put in to provide lunches and refreshments whenever called upon by Junior Warden Harold Howsley. This help takes quite a load off the mind of the Junior Warden. Thanks, again, girls.

I will close for now, expecting to see all of you in Lodge and calling your attention to the fact that we will have refreshments after Master Mason degree April 26th.

Companions, it is with great pleasure that I state that we are planning to exemplify the Chapter degrees to some candidates in the near future. This will give all of us an opportunity to put into practice the effort we have been making towards better degree portrayal. Remember that we depend very much on our whole membership to keep sending us the applications and trust that we all realize our responsibility in the matter. Why not come out some Friday night and witness the work or better yet lend a hand in some of the work. I know that you will be proud of the caliber of the work put on by the officers. We also meet at about 6:00 p.m. on the third Friday of every month for supper. The supper precedes our regular business meeting. The tasty dinner is prepared by our Veils under the direction of Dick Deuter. menu may not contain words as "en Brochette," "ragout," "strone" or other similar phrase when it comes to making a dish. Spaghetti, meat loaf, roast turkey, oyster stew, they are unbeatable.

I am pleased to say that all officers without exception of substance were well prepared for the inspection on March 24th, and they were in their regularly assigned positions. Thanks again for your attention.

It is nice to see Companions Russell up and around again. According to Ken all seems to be on the way to a correct mark this time. Ken has been sick from all Masonic activity since 1960.

In the next issue we will definite plans for our annual gathering for officers and members. Tentative plans for the evening sometime in May.

WHEN A MAN IS POOR

A man is poor when he is the confidence of his friends; people who are nearest to him believe in him; when his character is honeycombed by deceit and pushed by dishonesty. He is poor when he makes money at the expense of his character, when he does not clear out, supreme in his ideal this is clouded, he is in danger of worst kind of poverty. To be poorhouse is not necessarily poor. If you have maintained integrity, if your character is square to the world, you have never bent the knee of poverty to avarice, you are not poor, you may be compelled to beg.

There will be a York Rite Past Officer's Night Friday, April 7th, at 7:30 p.m. in the first floor ballroom of the Masonic Temple. This affair is, of course, for and in honor of all past officers of any York Rite body. Tickets are $1.50 and can be purchased from any York Rite officer or at the cigar counter on the second floor lounge room. A good program has been arranged.

The York Rite Commandery Drill Team is working hard practicing for the competitive drills at the Grand Commandery Conclave at Terre Haute May 12th and 13th. The new rolled collar type of uniform coat will be used by the Fort Wayne Drill Team for the first time at Terre Haute. The new style uniform coat conforms to the national trend encouraged by the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States.

Don't forget your donations to the Camp Crosey Project. Any amount will be appreciated and will help send a deserving boy to summer camp for one week in August.

Do any of you old timers have a Knights Templar sword, belt or chapeaux you no longer have any use for that you would care to sell or donate to the Commandery? If so, please advise.

Master Masons, get your petitions to receive the York Rite Degrees in as soon as possible. They must be in by April 20th. for the May degree work. Inquiries are welcome. Contact the Commander or any Knight Templar for information concerning York Rite Masonry.

Make her day a Happy day!

A YOUNG MASON MEDITATES

Masonry promised me nothing except the opportunity for mental and spiritual growth and the opportunity to be serviceable to God and man.

I came of my own free will and accord as all men in all ages have done. I was received as all others have been received in the ages past.

I learned that Masonry is interested in the character of man, in man as a thinking, feeling being.

I learned that Masonry is not a religion in the sense that we think of the church, but that it is a form of the church, but that it is a form of worship and the true ally of all religions. I found that one grows stronger in his own religion, whatever it may be, as the result of the moral and spiritual teachings of Masonry.

I learned the real meaning of charity, and that one's integrity of mind and soul is his most precious possession. All that I had learned before was enhanced by the manner in which Masonry teaches sublime lessons.

About me I see brothers, some young in Masonry, others who have been Masons for many years. Towards all I feel a bond of friendship and fellowship which is indescribable. To have the confidence of such a group of brothers, and to know that you are joined to them by immutable bonds, as you are to every Mason in the world, is indeed a priceless privilege.

All of this I learned, and I learned as well, that to maintain and to perpetuate all that I have received, I must give back my best to Masonry and to society.

WHAT DO YOU SEE?

A lecturer once began his address by tacking a square of white paper on the blackboard. Then he took a piece of crayon and carefully made a black dot in the center of the paper.

"Now," he asked, "what do you see?" Person after person answered, "I see a black dot." Finally the lecturer asked, "Don't any of you see a large square of white paper?"

So it is with the average run of people. Most of them are prone to ignore the good conduct of others, and constantly find fault. Let us look for the large square sheet of clean white paper, rather than the small black dot.

STEAK SUPPER TO BE HELD

On Wednesday, May 17, Trinity Chapter No. 576 will hold a steak supper in the dining room of the Temple. The supper will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.25 for adults, children 50¢. The dinner was planned by Monette Wetzel and Mildred Mülle, Co-chairmen and Lillian Poiry, Worthy Matron.

RUMMAGE SALE TO BE HELD

The Star of the East Chapter No. 514 will hold a rummage sale on June 1 and 2, at 2028 S. Hanna Street. The sales is being handled by Chloey Lee, the ways and means committee, and Gladys Coe, Worthy Matron.

REAL MASTERSHIP

"We live in certain fixed relations. God is, and we are bound to Him in a thousand ways. Nature is omnipresent, and to live is to live in relationship with her. Always there are other human beings about us, and always will there be. To live in harmony with God, man and nature, is happiness. It is wisdom. It is sister-ship."

ARE YOU ACTIVE

Do you attend the meeting.
Are you an active member
The kind that would be missed,
Or are you content
That your name is on the list?
Do you attend the meetings,
And mingle with the flock,
Or do you stay at home
And criticize and knock.
Do you take an active part
To help the work along?
Or are you satisfied to be
The kind who just belongs?
Do you ever work on committees,
To see there is no tick?
Or leave the work to just a few
And talk about the clique?
So come to meetings often,
And help with hand and heart;
Don't be just a member
But take an active part.
Think this over, brother,
You know right from wrong,
Are you an active member
Or do you just belong?

WHAT WELCOME MEANS

Welcome is a good old Anglo-Saxon word that literally means that it is well that you came; it expresses a kind reception to a guest or new comer, given with a smile of gladness and produces gladness to the one receiving the kind greeting. It is a token of hospitality from one person to another. "You are welcome," given with the heartiness of sincerity is the most pleasant expression in the English, or any language. This greeting fills the mind of the stranger or friend with the most pleasing thoughts.

How easy and graceful it is to extend with a pleasant smile the glad hand and say "Welcome." In no other place is the word more appropriate than in a home, greeting to visiting friend or neighbor, for though he be far away from home and in a strange locality, yet he at once feels that he is among friends.

This is one of the benefits arising from the use of the word, "Welcome," as used in our pathway of life. It is a duty of everyone to welcome visitors and thus cause them to feel at home. Let it not be neglected. Use it all the time and with it let the heart beat in unison of the sentiment. Welcome ever produces a smile and "farewell," another good Anglo-Saxon word, brings a sigh, but it means, may you be well on your journey, and is a friendly token of kindness. Greet the newcomer with a pleasant word of welcome and bid outgoers a kind farewell.

Brotherhood is a key tenet of Masonry and in this nation where Masonry flourishes we have a practical demonstration that it can be a "way of life."

For as we look about we see a nation of people from many different religious, social, political and cultural backgrounds. A nation created by "migrants" who came to it because of the existence of a governmental climate that encouraged all races, nationalities and faiths to dwell together in harmony.

True, we have occasional ugly testimonials of race hatred and prejudice. We hear much about them because hate is more vicious and noisy than brotherhood. Yet we need not be too discouraged for real brotherhood among is deeper and more widespread than we think.

So if we as Masons find ourselves tending toward sympathy with intolerance and bigotry shouldn't we recall these truths:

That in the human family are many branches with many different characteristics and while some are more advanced than others, all share a common origin and face a common destiny;

That brotherhood is a fact of biology and that the blood of the negro can save the life of a white child in a local hospital.

That to have our race and culture should not cause us to lose respect for another's race and culture;

That the biblical command of "suffer little children to come unto me," did not include the phrase "little Caucasian children," nor were we admonished to "love only our Nordic neighbor as ourselves."

So shouldn't Masons recognize that in fulfilling the tenet of brotherhood we must accept differences rather than elash over them and acknowledge that in the Garden of Life there is infinite variety of equal importance ordained by the Divine Gardener. Let's respect His will.

Our annual Charter and Guest night is set for May 11. It will be in the gym of the Pleasant Township grade school at 6:30 p.m. Rev. James Bahhitt of St. Joseph's M. E. church will be the speaker. A musical program will follow the dinner.

After enjoying an unusually quiet month of April we look forward to May with renewed vigor and enthusiasm. It is always good to see a large attendance at lodge. Come out on Thursday nights and help us make the evening most worthwhile. There are two petitions to vote on at our stated meeting in May. That means there is work ahead for all of us to participate in and enjoy. The degree work for our candidates is as inspiring as we make it to be.

The next celebrated holiday before us is Mother's Day. That is an important day that I fear too many of us pass by with an indifferent attitude. There is much I could say on the subject but I am sure the following poem says it all so much better.

An Ode To Mother
My Mother is the sweetest one
In all the world I know

She knows when anyone needs help
And helps everyone she knows
But someday her time will come
And to Eternity she'll go
And yet to me my mother
Is the sweetest one I know

My Mother is always kindly To people every day
And I hope before my time is up
There's somehow I can repay
And yet I know she won't accept
For nothing what she has done
And all these years I'll always say
My Mother's "The Sweetest one."

When People needed help
They know that she'd be there.
And she'll get all her returns
When she walks the golden stair.
She don't know how I love her
But someday she will know.
Because to me my "Mother,
Is the sweetest one I know."

You may wonder what a Mother's for
And why she's loved so well,
Well, there's one thing in my life
I'm not afraid to tell,
If some of you wonder

Aod others don't want to know,
Just remember "Your Mother,
Is the Sweetest one you know."

Our Grand Lodge sessions in Indianapolis convenes May 16 and 17. The Wardens, secretary and myself are looking forward to attending all the meetings. Much worthwhile information and knowledge are gained from these sessions if we go with that intention only in mind.

I wish to extend my sympathy to the family and friends of brother Elmer D. Ross who passed on to his eternal home March 27. Our Masonic service was held for him at McCombs funeral home on Wednesday, March 29. My prayers and wishes for returned health go out to all who are ill, may you soon be out and active again.

Franklin Boyer a charter member of this Lodge, affiliated by transfer from Home Lodge No. 342 on Dec. 1st, 1948. He served as Treasurer in 1949 and 1950, and departed this life March 30th, 1961.

We wish to extend a warm welcome to Bros. Charles Sills and William Matter who recently joined our ranks as Master Masons. I am proud to say that all of our candidates this year are becoming active in the affairs of the lodge. Watch for their appearance in the degree work in the future.

The cast of the play, under the direction of its new leader, Thurber Mohr has just finished a hasty month, having made appearance at So. Whitley, Poe, Ohio City and Chubbuck. The next date to remember for this endeavor is May 17th at Celina, O.

Our Masonic education committee, under the direction of S. W. Fisher has been presenting some extraordinary and informative programs at our stated meetings, it is worth your time to come and hear from Bro. Fisher.

Bro. Ward Bundy is still on the convalescent list having undergone surgery at the Lutheran hospital, Bro. Richard Baker also was operated on at the Mayo Bros. Hospital in Rochester, Minn. Let us remember the Level—some thoughts. In Freemasonry, the level is a symbol of equality; not of that social equality which would destroy all distinctions of rank and position, and beget confusion, insubordination, and anarchy; but of that fraternal equality which, recognizing the fatherhood of God, admits as a necessary corollary the brotherhood of man. It, therefore, teaches us that, in the sight of the Great Architect of the Universe, his creatures, who are at an immeasurable distance from him, move upon the same plane; as the far-moving stars, which though millions of miles apart, yet seem to shine upon the same canopy of the sky. In this view, the level teaches us that all men are equal, subject to the same infirmities, pertaining to the same goal and preparing to be judged by the same immutable law. The level is deemed, of much importance as a symbol, as it is repeated in many different nations. First, it is one of the jewels of the Lodge—an immovable, one, which leads to its being adopted as the proper official ensign of the Senior Warden, because the Craft when at work, are on a common level of obedience. And then it is one of the working tools of a Fellowcraft, retaining its symbolism of equality. The mason is your Lodge — come on and be a part of it.

On the 16th and 17th of this month will be held the annual Grand Lodge Convention of the State of Indiana. Attending this year in addition to our Master will be our Senior Warden, Doug Baugh and our Junior Warden, Guy Mausteller.

Also this month, on the 29th, will be our Past Master's Dinner. Please keep this date open for us and plan to be there. Remember the ladies are also invited to this affair. You will soon get your reservation cards, so your card in to Brother Guy as soon as possible.

By the way have you noticed how the stairways look since they have been painted.

How many times have we heard the reading of the scripture lessons at our meetings without perhaps giving thought to the meaning contained therein. The Entered Apprentice Lesson deals with "Brethren dwelling together in unity." The Lesson of the Fellowcraft Degree speaks of the "plumb-line" which is one of the working tools of that Degree.

The Master Mason Lesson has many beautiful passages that give the meaning to this Degree. Let us look at several of these passages and isolate them to what they mean.

This passage "Keepers of the House of the Lord Tremble" is explained in this way, "house" represents the body of the mason; and "keepers" are his arms and legs, weakened in old age. The passages "grinders cease because they are few" and "doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low" refers to the loss of the teeth because of old age and the inability to chew his food. "those who look out of the windows are dimmed" means the dimming of the eyes of the aged. "He shall rise up at the voice of the bird" also alludes to the infirmities of the aged when he arises in the morning at the call of the birds. "Daughters of music" of voice and hearing; "golden vessels" alludes to the failing of the brain; "pitcher be broken at the fountain" and "wheel broken at the cistern" are referring to the great vein and junction to the heart. "Silver cord be loosed" is the spinal cord. "Grasshopper shall be a burden" means the body of man which ceases to function in old age. "Fears shall be in the way" is the childishness which of old age. The expression "the almond tree shall flourish" is a most beautiful way of comparing the blooming of the tree to the greying of man's hair.

"Dust returns to earth" has reference to man when he travels to the undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns. "Mourners go about the streets" alludes to the death of man. "Long Home" is the grave.

So we see that these scriptures deal with the third step of the Masters Carpet name age, as Master Masons, we may enjoy the happy reflections consequent on a well-spent life, and die in the hope of a glorious immortality.

My Brothers: On March 24th, Summit City held its annual Ladies' Night Banquet. From the letters and telephone calls which I received, as well as many who personally offered their congratulations, would indicate that this affair was a great success. The major portion of credit is due my officers, committees and their members for their whole-hearted cooperation. Each discharged their duties faithfully and promptly. Without this cooperation and assistance, this affair could not have been a success. Whether your part in it was large or small, it was of equal importance, and to each and every one of you I am deeply grateful, and wish to offer my sincere thanks. I wish also to extend thanks to Bro. Leslie Emmerson, and to the members of the Whitley County Barber Shop Chorus for their wonderful entertainment. I am sure that it was greatly appreciated by all. Dr. Paul E. Chalfant delivered the principle address. His wit and humor delighted everyone, and we greatly appreciate his taking time from a very busy schedule to address us. Dr. Chalfant is pastor of Sunnyside Presbyterian Church in South Bend.

At some time you have been asked or heard asked this question, "What is a Mason." To this question I have heard several answers, and they in most part were quite fitting. Some time ago I was introduced to a Masonic brother from Chicago, and he presented me with a little card. The title of this card is "What Is a Mason" and the answer as follows:

"A Mason is a Man and a Brother whose Trust is in God. He meets you on the Level and acts upon the Square. Truth is his Compass and he is ever Plumb. He has a true Grip on all that is Rite. He is loyal to his Order and whatever his Degree, he is Master of himself. In the Lodge of life he wears unstained the white Lambskin of innocence from his Initiation as an Entered Apprentice. He travels ever East toward the Light of Wisdom, until he receives the final—the Divine Password—that admits him into the Ineffable Presence Of The Eternal Supreme Grand Master Of The Universe—Gnd."

The card does not indicate who penned this, but whoever it was certainly must have the beauty of Masonry deeply imbedded in his heart, else he never would have been able to express himself so beautifully. If each of us can live up to this standard, I am sure that we will merit the confidence, the brotherly love and affection of our brethren, and eventually receive our eternal reward from the Supreme Grand Master of the Universe.

Due to our Ladies' Night Banquet being scheduled for March 24th, which was the fourth Friday of March, and the last Friday being "Good Friday" it was decided to confer the Master Mason degree on our three March candidates on April 14th. There were no petitions to vote on at our April stated meeting, we had the balance of April to confer this degree. At this writing it appears that we will have one candidate in May for the degree, and confer by courtesy the Fellowcraft and Master Mason degree on a candidate from Michigan.

Carl G. Schlenker, Chairman of our sick committees delivered the beautiful flowers from our Ladies' Banquet to Bro. Edmund O. Carey, W. Berry St., Bro. Robert E. Lee, P.M., at the Lutheran Hospital; Brn. Preston Somers, P.M. at rest home on Highway 30, West; and to the wife of Bro. Ahner R. Wolverton, P.M. at the Lutheran Hospital. We wish all of them a speedy recovery.

See all of you at Lodge.

It was certainly a pleasure for the attendance for the month of April. Let us make it larger for the month of May. It sure has been pleasing to the officers. Those that were unable to make the trip to Garrett Wycoff Lodge at Lima, Ohio April 8th missed a very enjoyable journey. We opened lodge at 3 p.m. and after the introduction of the visiting brethren, Brother Robert Kroeger was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on which the Officers and Craft gave a most excellent performance.

At our entered apprentice night April 11th two of our brethren received their Indiana Grand Lodge award of gold. They were Brother Noah Zehr and Chloral W. Meeker. We wish them many more years of health and happiness. During the month of May we will have three more awards of Gold emblems.

May 16 and 17 your Master and Senior and Junior Wardens will be attending Grand Lodge in Indianapolis. By the time you receive this issue our Guest Nite will be over so now is the time to start thinking about our Tri State Visitation which will be Sept 30th and Oct. 1st in Chicago. The price for the two days will be twenty-five dollars and will include everything but one breakfast. Those who plan to attend get in contact with our Senior Warden Francis Ray or Charles Winans and get your name on their list so they can start making reservations, as this is one event you will long remember. For the sick we wish them a speedy recovery.

We cannot change the rocks above, But we can plant the seeds of love; For time has left a little room Today, for happy thoughts to bloom. So cultivate today and sow Happiness then watch it grow. Tomorrow? . . . a promise in the blue But faith and prayer can make it true.

As I edit this article my thoughts and yours are possibly on spring, but as I glance out the window I observe the robins searching for food on our lawn which is almost covered with snow.

There is little we can do as regards changing the dreary weather at present but by the time you receive this message all will have changed or at least so, I hope. Many of you will be busy rolling lawns, cultivating shrubbery and planting gardens.

We will each spend many pleasant hours renewing friendships with our neighbors across the fence and planning neighborhood cook-outs and picnics.

It is at this season of the year that we come awake like mother nature and are possessed with renewed energy and desires to clean up the dreary aftermath of winter and set things to right.

We will be especially concerned in getting the best grades of seeds, plants, fertilizers, tools and instructions in order to properly propagate our lawns, shrubs and flower or vegetable gardens.

As we look out our windows and meditate on the tasks ahead they appear to be a burdensome endeavor caused by our present point of view but when the sun comes out and warms the marrow of our bones our thoughts and attitudes change and we are eager to help the elements in the transformation.

Now is also the time to apply our enthusiasm and plant the seeds of Masonry.

That spirit of applied fellowship—the spirit that builds—has accomplished much for the Craft of Indiana throughout the years.

After all, what could be more appropriate to Free Masonry than this spirit of applied fellowship in everything we do? The Fraternity owes its very existence, and more particularly

Its tremendous growth through the years, to the concerted will and efforts of a multitude of craftsmen whose chief concern has been to serve their fellow men in the name of Brotherhood.

Was this effort and concern for Masonry a burden? Ask those active Brethren. They'll tell you that in the final analysis it was fun, working together and applying that special brand of friendship which has characterized Masons down through the years. Also as they tell you, take a good look at the pride that shines in their eyes, the pride of accomplishment — together!

By precept and example, this is undoubtedly one of the finest of all Masonic Maxims.

Let us each one examine the seeds we are sowing to be certain they are of the highest quality, and that we apply the effort to cultivate the fruit of Masonry by faith, deeds and prayer.

An occasional trip to your lodge, and a visit in the Tylers Room will awaken your latent spirits and start you sowing the seeds of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

It may be a long way to the goal, but it is over so far to the next step toward that goal.

Our Fraternal Friendship Night on April 17th was a signal success and I am extremely proud of all the co-operation received in making this evening such a success. We had nineteen lodges represented and the largest crowd I have seen in our room in my years of Masonry.

Our Smorgasbord-Square Dance was another success and we owe our Junior Warden, Bro. Max Poorman our congratulations.

We will be having degree work on May and June so watch the Masonic Calendar in your Sunday papers and join us, as your time permits.

I express and send greetings and best wishes to those of our membership who are physically unable to attend lodge. Our prayers reach out to you that the Grand Architect of the Universe is watching over you and administering to your needs.

If you stand very still in the heart of a wood
You will hear many wonderful things

The snap of a twig and the wind in the trees
And the whirl of invisible wings

If you stand very still in the turmoil of life
And you wait for the voice from within

You'll be led down the quiet ways of wisdom and peace
In a mad world of chaos and din

If you stand very still and you hold to your faith
You will get all the help that you ask

You will draw from the silence the things that you need
Hope and courage and strength for your task.

It was our privilege to start our new year by presenting five of our members with their gold awards. Those receiving the honors were Sisters Edith Hunsaker, Josephine More, Nettie Jeffrey, Grace McMillen and Clara Dunn. Congratulations girls, we're very proud of all of you.

Sisters and Brothers a new year has started for our Chapter and are all looking forward to helping of Worthy Matron and her Officers make it a very good year, With help and Faith I know we can succeed together.

Our first chapter meeting was April 11, 1961, at the Temple where Sonoma Woodruff as our Hostess. The East was decorated with her emblem "The Praying Hands" between two Palms. The West was decorated with two Palms and a basket of greenery and white roses. Everything was very pretty.

The Chapter has chartered buses to go to Grand Chapter on the 27, 1961. Anyone desiring to go to see Tama Christopher. Hoping to get a big group to represent our Chapter from Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Kilowatts from Indiana-Michigan gave a song recital after closing of chapter. The girls were very good even if two girls had colds.

The Past Matrons had a dinner party for Edith McIntosh, Junior Worthy Matron, on April 6, 1961 at the home of Audrey Helmuth, assisting hostess.

Eleanor Pohler, May Turner, Kathryn Doudt, and Gertrude McField. The DeMolay Boys will entertain Chapter on May 9, 1961. The chapter will be sponsored by the MaDeMo Club. Their ceremony is very good so let's have a real good attendance.

Star of the East's rummage sale will be held June 1 and 2nd at 5 S. Hanna. So when you are clearing house don't forget Ways and Means.

We need you. Contact Chloey or Gladys Coe.

FORT WAYNE CHAPTER No. 432 O.E.S.

Meetings 1st and 3rd Thursdays

Tessie Wise ----- W.M. 2333 N. Clinton E-92275
Mera Hayden ----- Secretary 4015 Wawonaissa Tr., K-8454
Edith Jacobs ----- Pub. Ch. 1619 Circle Dr. ----- E-67045

Our new officers conducted their first meeting on April 6 and are to be congratulated for their beautiful performance of the ritualistic work. The officers formed a semi-circle to the East and were personally congratulated by each of the sideliners.

Junior Past Matron Gladys Gifford was initiated into the Past Matron's group by Past Matron Vera Hayden.

Gladys was seated in a rocking chair, became accustomed to her semi-circumference, and presented with a purification candle and welcomed with flowers from several Past Matrons. Gladys and Harold thanked Chapter for their Past Matron and Patron jewels.

Worthy Matron Tessie Wise and Associate Matron Mary Knauer entertained all committees at a gala party on April 10 in the dining room of the Temple. A get-acquainted game-bingo game was played to start the evening off on a hospitable note. The large crowd broke up into committees for their individual meetings, then convened again as one big, happy group for colored slides of initiation, and another game with many nice prizes. Refreshments were served and a big night was over for two of our busiest people, Tessie and Mary. We all had a wonderful fun!

Several officers and members attended Orand Chapter in Indianapolis, April 25, 26 and 27th.

Members Ill: Vera Marti, Elizabeth Sibers, Nan Bowman, Mary Fletter, Robert Lee, Erba Price and Ralph McVay.

Illness in Families: Daughters of Jean McAllister, Gertrude and Chester Merebant; son of Myra Perrine; sisters of Margaret Bowers, Pat Walker and Doris Zehner; husbands of Esther Nabrowold, Anna Phillips and Charlotte Price; father of Irene Lytle.

Deaths in Chapter: Audrey Donaldson.

Deaths in Families: Wife of Frank VanDyke; father of Vera Marti. New Parents: Gloria Driver. New Orandparents: Mabel Driver and Miriam Hoeler.

Social Calendar:

May 2, Satellite's will meet at the home of Patsy Hinkle, 1909 Alabama, with Myra Perrine assisting.

May 4, We will honor Past Matrons and Patrons with a banquet in the Temple dining room at 6:30. Reservations may be made with Cynthia Nicholson, A-87374 or Ruby McDowell, H-03207 by May 2nd. There will be no initiation that meeting, but the past officers will open the meeting. We hope to have a large turnout and especially invite all Past Matrons and Patrons to be with us that evening.

May 8, Visiting Committee will meet at the Gas Kitchen at 1:30 with Gladys McMillan, Nellie Feaser, Viola Starke and Florence Obenour as hostesses.

May 9, Past Matron's will meet with Oarneta Stumpf, 3802 Monroe St., with Lillia Blombach assisting.

May 16, Non Pariel will have a potluck at 6:30 at the home of Gwendola Hadley, Oetting Road, with Irene Woolridge and Gladys Staley assisting. Bring own table service and a covered dish.

May 18, At our second stated meeting of the month, we will honor Mothers.

May 22, Social Committee will meet on the mezzanine of the Masonic Temple with Edna Meyers and her committee as hostesses.

May 23, Officers will meet with Pat Walker, 4002 Enola Court, with Carol Munk assisting.

May 24, Starlite Guild's meeting place and hostesses will be announced later.

If you missed installation of officers March 18, you also missed an impressive ceremony the "Award of Gold" at which time Sister Sonoma Woodruff, Past Grand Matron, presented a 50-year membership pin to Grace Tribolet. Sister Grace served Fort Wayne Chapter as Worthy Matron in 1924 and has been a loyal and active worker for our Chapter. Sister Grace—we're proud of you.

Any items or announcements for publication in the Square and Compass should be given to the publicity chairman by the 10th of the month preceding publication.

LABOR IS HONORABLE

In the building of this City of the Brotherhood of Man and the Spiritual Temple of ours, what portion of the work are you willing to undertake? Are you willing to quarry the rough ashlar? Are you willing to work in the trenches and lay the foundation stones, away down from the sight and applause of man?

If there is one great truth that Royal Arch Masonry teaches above all others, it is that labor is honorable, be it ever so humble. That he who would wear the crown must earn it. That he who would rule, must first learn to obey. That he who would enter the sanctum sanctorum of the genius of Royal Arch Masonry must enter by self-denying toil, and the hinges of its doors will swing open as readily for the peasant as for the prince, for the subject as for the kind.—Exchange.

DUTY

Masonry lays on us the duty to lead pure, useful, temperate and charitable lives that in every condition and circumstance of life we should remember our high calling; that we should know and practice charity, not only in the relief of financial distress, but in all the ministrations that love dictates to the just and generous heart; that we should never forget our duties as citizens and in all responsibilities of citizenship be true in public life; that in the home relations our lives shall be such that content, comfort and happiness shall reign, and that as we journey through life we shall hold aloft the light of truth, making clear the way to those who follow.

May 31 will be our final initiation of this term.

I want to thank all those girls spent time and effort calling friends about our dance on April 8. To you girls, our dance was a success. Thanks also to the decoration committee, the chaperons, and the mothers who worked so hard preparing the food. I feel certain that every had a wonderful time.

Our rummage sale on April 5 also a big success. We had a profit of $52.06. Special thanks to all mothers and girls who gave up their vacation time to help at the sale.

Our Senior Princess Roxanne Smith has asked me to announce her installation will be on June 8. She hopes you will keep this open and come to see her installation as queen.

The next Mothers' Club meeting will be held at the home of Florian Karels at 2115 Bremer. The date of the meeting is Monday, May 8. The meeting will be a potluck and the installation of officers will begin at 6:30 p.m.

My promises to be an extremely busy month for our chapter, as we ourselves faced with the usual end activities and preparations for the state convclave next month.

On May 2 and May 9, the Flower Ceremony will be presented by the officers for Social Order of the Beaucant and Star of the East Chapter of the Eastern Star. We are always happy to present this program for other groups so that the community may be better informed about the nature of our order.

Our first meeting, May 10, will be one of the most important of the year: election of officers. In view of the tremendous turnouts we have had for the last few elections, I'm sure there is little need to urge all of you to be present if it is at all possible.

On the next night, Thursday, May 11, we will have our annual Mother and Son Banquet, one of the night-lights of our entire year. We feel that this is something quite unique, an occasion upon which we can honor our mothers. The banquet will be at 6:30 p.m. and reservations, which will be made by calls from the Mothers' Circle, must be in by Monday, May 8. Tickets may be secured at the May 10 meeting or at 6:00 on the night of the banquet.

The May 24 meeting will be our third Initiatory Degree of this semester, and it also will include the Flower Ceremony and refreshments afterwards. On the next Wednesday, May 31, at 7:30 in the Commandery Room, the DeMolay Degree will be conferred upon all the new members who have received their Initiatory Degrees this semester.

On April 22, I was privileged to represent our chapter at the Spring Convocation banquet of the Scottish Rite of the Valley of Port Wayne, our sponsoring body, and say a few words about our work.

On April 9, Bill Branstrator, our candidate for State Senior Councilor, and I accompanied our present state officer, Jim King, in Indianapolis for the April state officers' meeting to make further plans for the 1961 convclave, which will be in Port Wayne on June 30 and July 1 and 2. We hope that a large number of members of the host chapter will register to participate in convclave events, and they will be offered special rates. A registration blank, which is to be completed and submitted to Dad Herick, may be found in your April issue of the "Indiana DeMolay Digest" or may be secured from Dad Herick.

The contests in which statewide competition will take place include flower talk, talent contest, oratorical contest, essay contest, golf, tennis, bowling, and a number of various team and individual swimming events. Since we are the host chapter, we should be well represented in all of these areas. Anyone interested in any of these contests should notify Dad Herick or me. Plans are progressing satisfactorily for convclave arrangements, and, with your help, we hope we can present an outstanding convclave.

Just as a reminder, Representative DeMolay awards will be presented in June at the time of the installation of next semester's officers. So far, our chapter has received only two; so let's get those second forms completed and win several more by that time. It isn't as hard as it may seem if you will devote a little time to it.

non-essentials, developing an intolerant attitude toward our neighbors because they think a little differently than we do? Is our vision so blurred that we fail to recognize the light of truth that shines all about us? Or are we gradually learning to cast off our biased notions and to strive for a saner, more understandable, and universal belief or that can be accepted by all and followed in earnest?

The world is still struggling with the problem as to what constitutes a rational homage to the Deity. Obviously it must be stripped of the superstitions that frequently grow up about a faith. People are becoming too intelligent today to accept theological monstrosities. In this matter-of-fact age men want to keep both feet on the ground. But after folk have followed their beliefs or have dissected them by the cold process of logic, they still come back to the humble faith of their forefathers.

What are the results of this worship? We may as well ask about the benefits of water, light and air. It seems almost safe to assert that humanity could not long exist without a recognition of some power of right, truth, and justice in the world. We cannot fathom the exact nature or depth of that power, but we are aware of its presence.

Our Masonic belief about this matter is broad and fundamental. It emphasizes the fact of Deity, but leaves the particular form of homage to the individual. To such a program all men can subscribe.

HOMAGE TO THE DEITY

By Robert W. Tarbell, in Wisconsin Freemason.

The human race looks out and beyond its narrow confines to adore a power greater than itself. As far as can be determined, people have worshipped since the first light of reason began to dawn on the primitive mind, and on down through the ages the race has been accumulating customs and theories in the practice of its religions. It is not the intention here to take issue with any man's form of worship, but merely to emphasize the fact that paying homage to the Deity occupies no small part of our time and thought.

Does our adoration spring from an inborn desire to worship and to enjoy spiritual growth, or do we go about our service in a conventional way, following the crowd because it is the expedient thing to do? Those who exert their intelligence in matters of this kind may become great leaders, or may be branded as heretics.

A history of the way in which men have worshipped would fill many volumes. The early idea embodied a god of fear. Nature was rough and forbidding. The thunderbolt and the lightning struck terror to the heart of the simple shepherd, and the "pestilence that stalketh at noonday" surely was the visitation from an angry god. Such a power must be appeased by supplications, sacrifices, and a show of respect. Out of this practice grew a reverence for an unseen spirit that has deepened and ripened to this day.

Men build an institution around their faith. With institutions come creeds, for creeds are the statements of belief. They are the standards set up for the wars of the last fifteen centuries have arisen because of differences in creed, differences in an understanding of the Great Spirit, differences in man's own petty notions about religious formality and prepotentials. Hatreds, persecutions, unbelief, destruction—all these have come because men strive so zealously to pay homage to the Deity.

Where do we stand today? Are we cluttering up our lives with a lot of Our absence from the monthly luncheon has been corrected and we will not happen again. So I shall endeavor to report most of our happenings, and bring us up to date. We have been very busy in our chapter. Both with visitations and with work. We had the pleasure being invited to Decatur Chapter our Excellent Grand King John Hubbard to assist them in preparing their Inspection. A most pleasant enjoyable evening was spent, the enthusiasm which Decatur Chapter is showing on their reorganizing program is something to see.

Your High Priest, King, Scribe and High Priest Roger Schafer, attended an All Degree Day in Muncie, Ind. 15. Companions if only you had have all been there, it was something I have never, in all my years of York Rite ever seen. 4 recent states, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, conferred the four higher degrees upon 86 candidates. We were able to furnish these candidates for their Royal Arch Degrees. Companions if you could ever hope be inspired, this day of degree shows York Rite Masonry is actually on the upgrade. Congratulations to Muncie Chapter for such successful day. "Tis food for thought for our own Chapter." Congratulations are in order for new made Companions, Morris Fever, and Bruce Bona. I'm sure our Companions who have been with us in the Degree work for past 2 months will agree that those who have not attended have been missing some fine work by your Chapter officers and degree work.

On April 7, 1961, we held our 2nd High Priest Banquet. A fine attendance, wonderful speaker, and most enjoyable evening by all. On March 24th, the Excellent Companion Young held a joint Installation of Thomas R. Marshall and Port Wayne Chapter, on the Mark Master Degree. I have received our report from our Grand High Priest, and am proud to say we received an excellent on our Inspection, thanks all officers, for such fine work only result in many petitions. Companions don't forget our monthly officers preceding our stated meeting. brings us a fish supper so plan to be there and bring a friend.

Let me express my appreciation to all officers in the Chapter for their excellent performance in degree work at the recent Annual Inspection. I am proud to say that all officers were present, and everyone assumed their assigned stations. There will be some degree work and presentation during the month of May. And don't forget that prior to our stated meeting on the 3rd Friday of every month, we do meet in the kitchen or the mezzanine for supper.

At many of our stated meetings in the past few months we have been pleasantly surprised by the attendance of many past high priests and members whom we have not seen for some time. Why not plan to make it for supper about 6 p.m. on the 3rd Friday and then join us in the meeting room at 7:30 p.m.

We wish to thank Sir Knight Harold O. Martin for arranging the beautiful Knight Templar Easter Sunrise Service at the Scottish Rite Auditorium, Em. Sir Knight Harry Haller for planning and serving breakfast for so many people following the Service, the Rev. Kenneth Tousey for a very fine sermon, the Missab Shrine Chanters for their beautiful and impressive singing, Sir Knight James Allen for playing the organ, the Scottish Rite for the use of their facilities and for their usual fine cooperation, all Sir Knights who served as ushers and the more than seven hundred people who attended the Service.

About fifty people from the Allen County Home were guests of the Commandery for the Service and breakfast.

The York Rite Commandery officers will attend the One Hundred

Seventh Annual Convclave of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Indiana in Terre Haute, Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13. Our Drill Corps, under the direction of Em. S.K. Harry Haller, Commandant, will vie for top honors in the Competitive Drills.

Boy's summer camp, Camp Crosley on Lake Tippecanoe, will be Sunday, July 30 to August 6, inclusive. The fee is $22.00 including $2.00 spending money. Eligible age is eleven to fourteen inclusive. Any Master Mason interested in sending his boy to Camp Crosley for a week of planned activities and fun should contact Harold O. Martin (R. 2, Churubusco) or myself in plenty of time. It will be necessary to fill out application and other forms.

Each year the York Rite Commandery is happy to bear the cost of sending a certain number of worthy and qualified sons of Masons to Camp Crosley who, for financial reasons, might not be able to go otherwise. We should like to be advised of any such cases. Every case is handled in strictest confidence. No distinction is made between the boys who are able to pay their own way and those who are not. There need be no embarrassment whatsoever. We enjoy doing this much for a boy, and nobody has to know the difference.

Exactly how many boys will get to go to camp this year depends largely upon contributions being received by the Commandery for this purpose. Have you sent your contribution in yet? Address your envelop to Camp Crosley, Port Wayne Commandery No. 4, Masonic Temple, 216 E. Washington Street, Port Wayne, Ind.

We are happy to announce that Roy Welty, James Whitehurst and Dave Ruoff have completed the Orders of the Commandery and have been dubbed and created Knights of the Temple—Knights Templar.

Comes another month and with it another spring. Time keeps swinging his scythe and the law of averages makes one pause for thought. Have we done our best? Have we put forth a hand to one in need? Have we wronged anyone and for which we are sorry?

The past is hard to change but the future is limitless in possibilities.

Had a nice visit at Job's Daughters and Honor Queen Valerie Sage is a very gracious leader. All the girls seemed pleased to have guests and I would recommend every Master Mason and Eastern Star to visit them. Their beautiful ceremonies and sincerity makes one proud to be a small part. Bro. Bud McComb and wife Jean are helping them in keeping the wheels rolling.

We have degree work as follows:
 EA—April 20.
 FC—May 11.

MM—May 27. Ham and Bean supper same night.

What with Grand Lodge, and the farmers putting in crops, this is shaping up to a busy month. See you in Lodge.

Congratulations to our newly raised brothers, which at this writing includes Robert Melton, James Mahnensmith, Robert Hadley, Manuel Davidoff. Take not your newly acquired membership lightly. You will find, as we all have, sooner or later—that being a Master Mason not only includes participating in our privileges but also involves taking on a tremendous responsibility. You have become heir to a great tradition. We the living masons owe so much to those brethren who have passed beyond. They have done their work well—now it's our turn.

I have found in my masonic experience that there is nothing like reading the various masonic publications, to make you feel humble and appreciative of those who have paved the way for us. Indeed, we have a proud heritage.

Let us take this opportunity to say farewell to brothers, Earl Young, Herman Adams and James Streeter who have dropped the working tools of life and passed on. We shall miss you, we hope that our graveside services in some way made the burden lighter for those concerned.

April 17th will find our Senior Warden as guest Senior Warden by invitation at the Sol D. Bayless Lodge

No. 359 at Fort Wayne for the fellowcraft degree. Several brothers, including worshipful master, Norman Bushee plan on attending. We thank Lodge No. 359 for the invitation.

I think all present at our April meeting will agree that we were given a rare treat when Three River's lodge presented its play "A Rose Upon the Altar." Our most hearty thanks go out to this group who have donated their time and talent to promote the ideals of Masonry and also the brotherly love and friendship so necessary to our fraternity. There should be more visiting among the lodges enabling new friendship to bloom and gives us a chance to perfect the art of being a gracious host.

I want to extend an invitation to all our guests at our last meeting to honor us with their presence at any of our meetings. We would like to know you all better.

It was gratifying to see the nice turn-out of Olive Branch members to welcome our guests. It would be a pleasure to see you all at the next meeting.

Our sister lodge St. Mary's Chapter OES 203 held public installation at Poe on April 1st. Officers installed were: Worthy Matron, Beatrice Gottschalk; Worthy Patron, Cecil Gottschalk; Associate Matron, Marguerite Heiser; Associate Patron, Donald Chaffin; Secretary, Reland Sheets; Treasurer, Marjorie Lybarger; Conductress, Joyce Aspy; Associate Conductress, Selma Headford; Chaplain, Opal Kraft; Marshall, June Lybarger; Organist, Florence Davenport; Adah, Martha Hamrick; Ruth, Bernice Chaffin; Esther, Marcella Pettibone; Martha, Mary Ann Lybarger; Warder, Kathryn Scherrer; Sentinel, Velma Fryback; Soloist, Myrtle Morton; Prompter, Bertha Morton.

St. Mary's Chapter OES especially reminds its members of the stated meeting on May 8. Of interest to all officers and members will be a Mother's Day program, petitions to be reported on, reports on Grand Chapter, and the arrangements of the Worthy Matron for the ceremonies of initiation and also the official visit of the Worthy Grand Matron on District Deputy.

We are glad to welcome all of our lost members that have become "unlost" in the past few months and attended lodge. We are also glad to welcome a number of visitors from Indiana and Ohio and one visitor from Far East Lodge No. 1, Yokahoma, Japan.

It is indeed gratifying when we can put on the degrees of Masonry for a candidate and have his brother, who had just been raised the previous month at Churubusco, Indiana, to give the work lecture. This happened to us on the last Candidate that we had, and he, in turn will be giving the work lectures for our new candidates. We will have had work all during March and April. We have a petition to vote on in May and, from all indications, we will have work the second, third and fourth Wednesdays of May. Lodge will take up at 7:00 p.m. each Wednesday and we will have a Bean Supper starting at 6:00 p.m. on May 24th. We will cross up our 6:30 degree members by calling a 6 o'clock degree.

Brothers Ray and LaMarr Girardot wish me to remind all of the members that a Fellowship Team will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 22. They are doing an excellent job and are really going to have things humming around New Haven Lodge No. 740. With two candidates to work on during April, Brothers Girardot will have everything pretty well shipshape.

At this writing, I do not know of any petitions that we will vote on in June but if any are received, we will do degree work in June and will be "dark" during July and August except for our Stated Meetings. Our ailing Brother, Rolla Durbin, is well on the way to recovery and is now home, about, and receiving visitors. Word has just been received that Senior Steward Bill Youtz is in the hospital for rest and diagnosis. We all know that Brother Bill can use some rest in as much as he is also Worthy Patron of New Haven Chapter of Eastern Star, very active in church work besides holding down a regular job. Word has also reached us that Brother Lowell Phillips is on the ailing list and has been in the hospital in Florida. Our thoughts, hopes and good wishes go out to all our ailing Brothers wherever they are.

I would also like to call attention to the fact that our Junior Warden Harold Towlesky has been doing a good job of providing refreshments after our meetings plus some good Euchre games. Some of the brothers have been leaving early, thus passing up a good time and fellowship in the Social Room.

A GENUINE MASON

To respect my country, my profession, my fellowmen as I expect them to be, and myself. To respect the right of every man to worship as he sees fit. To be honest and fair with men. To be a loyal citizen. To speak of my country with praise and to act always as a trustworthy custodian of its good name. To be a man whose name carries prestige everywhere it goes. To have my expectations of a reward on a solid foundation of service rendered. To be willing to pay the price of success in honest effort. To look upon my work as an opportunity to be seized with joy and to be made the most of, not as a painful drudgery to be reluctantly endured. To remember that success lies within my own self and in my own courage and determination. To expect difficulties and force my way through them. To turn all temper with cheerfulness, kill doubts with strong convictions, and to reduce action with an agreeable personality. To find time to do every needful thing by not letting time find me doing nothing. To make every hour bring me dividends in increased knowledge and healthful recreation. To keep my future unencumbered with debts. To save as well as earn. To steer clear of dissipation and guard my health of body and peace of mind as most precious stock in trade. Finally, to take a good grip on the joys of life. To play like a man. To fight against nothing as hard as my own weakness and endeavor to give it strength. To be a gentleman, so I may be courteous to man, faithful to friends and true to God.

DEFINITION OF FREEMASONRY

Freemasonry, in its broadest and most comprehensive sense, is a system of morality and social ethics, a primitive religion, and a philosophy of life, all of simple and fundamental character, incorporating a broad humanitarianism, and though treating life as a practical experiment, subordinates the material to the spiritual. It is a religion without a creed, being of no sect but finding Truth in all. It is moral but not selfrighteous. It demands sanity rather than sanctity. It is tolerant but not supine. It seeks truth but does not define truth. It urges its members to think but does not tell them what to think. It despises ignorance but does not condemn the ignorant. It fosters education but proposes no curriculum espousing political liberty and dignity of man but has no platform or propaganda. It believes in nobility and the usefulness of it. It is moderate, universal and a moral as to permit each individual to form and express his own opinion even as to what Freemasonry ought to be, and invites him to prove it if he can.

All the arrangements have been made for our Charter/Member night banquet on the 24th. To review the program that we have arranged for you — your guest speaker will be Past Grand Master J. Carl Humphries and the Scottish Rite choir. This, I am sure all you craftsmen will enjoy—plus the added pleasure to meet old friends and the chance to make new acquaintances. Be sure and come.

We are working with 4 new candidates this month — the work is coming along just fine — our Fellowcraft club is doing a good job — we welcome any of you to come and help out on any part or station that you would like to work and be a part of.

Your officers and program chairman Doc Delp have tickets for our Maumee Golf outing at Garrett on June 3rd. This is on a Saturday. We will have all day golf and a dinner in the evening with the ladies. I don't know if this will inform you in time—if it does—see any of the officers for tickets.

With this issue of the Square and Compass the year will be half over with—let us all help and be interested in seeing to it that the next 6 months will be just as fine as the first half.

The real object of Freemasonry in a philosophical and religious sense, is the search for truth. From the first entrance of the Apprentice into the Lodge, until his reception of the highest degree, this search is continued. It is not always found and a substitute must sometimes be provided. Yet whatever be the labors he may perform, whatever the ceremonies through which he may pass, whatever the symbols in which he may be instructed, whatever the reward he may obtain, the true end of all is the attainment of truth.

This idea of truth is not the same as that expressed in the lectures of the First Degree, where Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth are said to be the "Three great tenets of a Mason's profession." In the connection truth is a "divine attribute and the foundation of every virtue" is synonymous with sincerity, honesty of expression and plain dealing. The highest idea of truth which prevades the whole Masonic system, and which is symbolized by the Word, is that which is properly expressed to a knowledge of God.

Have a nice summer—have a good vacation—we will see you when the work takes up this Fall.

Brothers We hope to see you in the Ionic Room at our next stated meeting June 12th. We will have Degree work following in June but due to conflicting work on Monday evenings we will have to hold it on some other evening, probably on Wednesdays. I would suggest that you check the Masonic Calendar for the dates.

Brother Earl Collier is back home and from latest reports also back at work after his operation. We are also glad to hear that Brothers Cyril Marsh, Dan Duffey and Ralph Hodges are also at home following stays at hospitals due to illness and accidents. We wish all of these Brothers a speedy recovery. Please remember to contact us and let us know about any illnesses or accidents. We are approaching the period for vacations and we hope that all of you will try to make these safe vacations.

So many times we plan our trips and in order to do the many things we want to do in the short time allotted to us, we leave too little time for going, and coming. Let us caution you to allow more time traveling so that you may enjoy the vacation more fully. We wish all of you a very happy vacation this summer.

I was listening the other night to something that had to do with the trial of the late Billy Mitchell. They were quizzing him in regard to the speeds of future planes which he had predicted would approach the speed of sound. It seems that the top speed at that time was around two hundred or two hundred and fifty miles per hour. At that time a speed of anything approaching the speed of sound was considered a fantasy. But today any schoolboy knows that many planes today far exceed the speed of sound. We read where Commander Shepard reached a top speed of 5500 miles per hour. Some of us can remember back when young daredevils raced their horses and carriages at speeds which were considered unsafe to the public. With this change in the short space of a half century, we wonder with awe what the future holds in store for our world.

In this changing world we need more than ever to hold dear to us the Tenets of Masonry. We should assist any good man who professes a desire to become united with us in this great and good work to join our organization and become a better man for the benefit of society. Let us not forget our Brother's welfare in our prayers to God. May the Light of Free Masonry shine through us in our daily contacts with mankind. Let us congregate at the Altar of Free Masonry to renew our ideals and to enjoy the Brotherhood of Man. May God be with you in all your actions with mankind.

It is sobering to note that all the world's great religions, including those we consider to be pagan, have much in common and all teach the same basic truths. All advance the thesis that life has meaning and responsibilities and that helping our fellows is as much a part of the good life as is our enjoyment of the rain-washed freshness of a spring morning.

All teach that it is better to forget ourselves than to push ourselves forward; that it is better to serve than to be served; to sacrifice personal comforts for the comforts of others and that we should speak softly, be generous and treat others kindly.

So, will you agree that the tenets of Christianity, upon which the moral lessons of Masonry are framed, constitute a sort of Law of the Universe, the tenets of which, like the flowers of spring, can be found sometimes here and sometimes there. In short—let's be a bit humble and admit that our culture has no monopoly on goodness.

Approximately 120 persons were present at our Charter Night dinner at the Pleasant Township school, including 27 officers and their wives from sister lodges. Our next dinner, scheduled for early fall, will be Ladies and Past Masters night.

Our lodge will be dark for the months of June, July and August. Stated meetings will continue to be held during the summer months on the first Wednesday of each month. Plan to attend.

Our attendance for the past month has been wonderful we hope to have the month of June just as good. July and August will be our dark months all but our stated meetings. We will have degree work in the month of June and we will be eating on the first and third degree so plan attending the month of June before you start on your vacation. By the time you receive this issue of the Square and Compass Grand Lodge will be over and we will have a new Grand Master. Your Master and Wardens will be attending and we will give you a report on the proceedings at our stated meeting. Our annual Tri State visitation will be held in Chicago September 30th and October 1st. Those who plan to make this trip please contact our Senior Wardens Francis Ray or Brother Charles Winans so they will have time to make travel and hotel accommodations. So get your name on the dotted line before vacation time as this is another big event for Home Lodge. For all the sick I wish them a speedy recovery.

Wait out till tomorrow's sun
Beams upon thy way,
All that thou canst call thine own Lies in thy "today".

All too often we make excuses to ourselves, our families, our fellow men and even to our Grand Architect for not accomplishing the tasks which we know need to be done.

Even now I find myself rushing about preparatory for the Grand Lodge Session and wonder if I have accomplished all the incidental items that need a phone call, a letter or assignment.

Today was Mother's Day throughout our land and as we meditated on this thought while at church or even in the sanctuary of our homes, no doubt your family circle was drawn more closely together with special courtesies extended to Mother.

It seems we need these special days or holidays to refresh our memories and in some small way force us to pay our respects and love to some person or event that would otherwise escape their just due, respect and honor.

By the time you actually receive the hit of philosophy we will also have passed another significant day; namely, Decoration Day.

The beautiful custom, now nationwide, was first inaugurated by the women of the south for the purpose of decorating the soldiers graves, and now has grown to point of decorating graves of all our dead.

As we look around us we find ourselves greatly indebted to the fair sex of our nation. Every man has or had a mother so in a sense our order owes much to mothers who by their just and upright men to prolong and multiply the ranks of masonry.

Those of you who missed our Fraternal Friendship Night truly missed an evening of friendship that will long be remembered by 125 in attendance. It now appears that this will be repeated on a yearly basis to watch for it next year and plan to attend.

We owe a vote of thanks to our Junior Warden, Max Poorman, for our excellent Smorgasbord Dinner and Square Dance. Bro. Max is actually planning for our Annual Family Picnic to be held at Franke Park on Saturday, June 17. The lodge will furnish the meat, coffee, cream, sugar, rolls and pot—Bring a covered dish or dessert and table service and join us for an afternoon of fun and fellowship for the entire family.

We are proud of the new members to our craft team and we trust their efforts will be an inspiration to more of our younger brothers to come out and join the ranks of our Fellow Craft team. The experiences of working in this group is most rewarding and it will add new meaning to each participant in the real significance of masonry.

Plan to attend the stated meeting of Sol D. Bayless on Monday, June 5, at which time Bro. Kenneth Redding, your Senior Warden, and I your Master, will report on the Grand Lodge Session.

Your Junior Warden and I along with our wives enjoyed ourselves at Waynedale's Ladies and Charter night and heard a fine talk by Rev. James Babbitt, a member of our lodge.

I leave you with this closing thought:

Life's field will yield as we make it
A harvest of thorns or of flowers.

Life is only a right-of-way
But the franchise is held by us all;
The roadbed is rocky and filled with bumps,
We have to use sand on the down hill jumps,
For the load is a hard one to haul.

We oft jump the track on the roadbed of life,
The schedule is hard to maintain;
Set the air brake on passions that try to derail,
Hold fast to Faith's throttle — It never will fail.

The running will smooth out again.
Steady the roadbed on Life's right-of-way,
With smiles and the way will be fine;
Keep a strong, steady peace with your whistle in place,
With a song in your heart and a smile on your face,
Till you get to the end of the line.

Keep your eye on your orders set forth in the book,
Till the last mortal mile has been won;
Trust the Dispatcher, who each night and day,
Will faithfully guide you on Life's Right-of-Way.

To your rest at the end of the run.
These words are a fitting tribute to the men who operate the trains of today, through the seasons and in all kinds of weather, particularly through the nights in sleet and snow, rain and fog, with their only beacon the powerful headlight to pierce the darkness endeavoring to maintain the schedule. Their faith in the dispatcher must be boundless, for it is in his hands to guide them down the right-of-way and bring them in safely to their terminal.

How like unto ourselves who are traveling on life's right-of-way. Our travels along this right-of-way may be devious and uncertain. The roadbed rough and filled with bumps, and our schedule hard to maintain. We can become discouraged and contemplate making a detour, but we are taught to have faith in the SUPREME DISPATCHER, and apply to Him for strength, wisdom and guidance, and so long as we do that, we may confidently believe that we will come safely to the end of our journey.

Summit City extends the hand of fellowship to Richard Joseph Scott, Ralph Lester Harwood, Jr., and Albert Paul Puff, Sr. who were raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on April 14th.

We have the following sick brethren. P.M. Sam Geske and Clarence Grndrian at the Lutheran Hospital. Brothers Eli Wright and William Jackson at the Parkview Memorial Hospital. P.M. Preston Somers in nursing home on Highway 30, west. To all we wish a speedy recovery, and sincerely hope that they may be with us soon. I am happy to report that our chairman of the sick committee Carl Schlenker is now at home from the hospital and getting along nicely. Keep up the good work Carl.

We will have one candidate for the degrees in May, and at this time it appears that we will have an additional candidate for the Fellowship and Master Mason degrees, to be conferred as a courtesy to a Michigan lodge.

As this is the last article that I will write until September issue, I wish to extend to all my brethren happy vacations, health, happiness and prosperity, also to your loved ones. See you in September.

Brethren, the last month of the spring session is now upon us. Let us make it a grand finale by joining us in the work at lodge every Thursday this month. In case all the work on your early garden was for naught because of the excessive rain and prolonged cold weather, perhaps you are thinking of planting another. Before starting again—think of these directions!

Having A Garden This Year?
Plant 5 rows of peas (P's);

1. Preparedness
2. Promptness
3. Perseverance
4. Politeness
5. Prayer

Plant 3 rows of squash:

1. Squash gossip
2. Squash criticism
3. Squash indifference

Plant 5 rows of lettuce:

1. Let us be faithful
2. Let us be unselfish
3. Let us be truthful
4. Let us be loyal
5. Let us be loving to one another

And no garden is complete without some turnips—4 in fact:

1. Turn up for church
2. Turn up with a smile
3. Turn up with a new idea
4. Turn up with real determination

—Author unknown
All those who earnestly and sincerely plant this garden would be tremendous assets to our lodge and its progress. Come join with us so that we may go forward in this great potential during this earthly span of life.

We have elected two candidates for work this month, and there will be one petition to vote on. Also make note that there will be a meal served on the night of the third degree. Come join us in the fellowship of food and friendship, then back to our work upstairs.

On May 9, 1961 I had the pleasure of attending a very interesting program at the Veterans' Hospital. This program was to honor all organizations and individuals who have donated their time to the hospital and its patients over the past year. It is surprising how many individuals have spent from 500 to 1000 hours there.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY WITH 103 YEAR OLD INSURANCE COMPANY
Career opportunity with a future to a man willing to learn the life insurance business. No experience necessary. Age 21 to 39. This is a permanent position with a guaranteed salary of $85.00 per week, plus commissions, plus bonuses, paid vacation, pension plan, hospitalization, sick benefits, and Group Life Insurance.
If anyone is interested, would you please contact Mr. J. Short at A-5187, or come to Lincoln Tower Building, Room 605, mornings between 9 and 12 noon.

Even more astonishing were a few names in the 2500 and 5000 hour columns. With these inspiring people to pattern, I hope to see many of you at our next visitation here which will be Monday, June 5. See you then?

I want to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of our brother, Frank D. VanDyke who passed on to his eternal home on April 28, 1961. Masonic services were held for him at the funeral home.

My senior warden, Fred Goshorn, Junior warden, Simon Hartling, and myself spent an enjoyable two days at Grand Lodge in Indianapolis on May 16 and 17. We appreciate the opportunity of attending and feel that all we learned was inspirational, educational and time well spent.

I wish to all of you brothers who are fathers a happy Father's Day on June 18. Until I visit with all of you in this column next fall, have a happy summer and a safe vacation. Especially watch out for the car behind the one ahead of you. I want all of you back in lodge come fall. Don't forget also our stated meetings on the first Thursday in July and August. Have fun, rest lots and be careful!

GARY MAN ELECTED GRAND MASTER

Harold S. Jackson of Gary was installed May 16, as grand master of Masons in Indiana at the conclusion of the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge F. & A. M., governing body of the Masonic Fraternity. Other officers elected were Jack F. Hewson, Evansville, deputy grand master; Judge Arthur A. Osburn, Marion, Senior grand warden; Clyde E. Flowers, Fort Wayne, junior grand warden. Two officers were reelected; Oswald A. Tislow, Indianapolis, grand treasurer and Dwight L. Smith, Franklin, grand secretary.

The new grand master announced the appointment of Joseph L. Bridwell, Franklin, as junior grand deacon. Other appointments are Chris G. Bunner, Lafayette, grand chaplain; Howard O. Hunter, Indianapolis, grand lecturer; William D. Smallwood, Hobart, grand marshal; Don A. Burton, Muncie, senior grand deacon and Fritz M. Ehling, Indianapolis, grand steward and tyler.

OUR TASK

The task of every man is to take the raw material of his life, with whatever of glowing passion or hard heredity it may hold; take it as it is and by patience in spite of blunders, by perseverance in face of failures, by loyalty to an ideal and fidelity to a noble life-plan, shape it into a constant beauty and enduring worth.

The flowers are blooming.
The grass is green,
Spring must be here
Because today I've seen.

The Chapter room was decorated very pretty for our meeting May 9. The DeMolay Boys sponsored by the Madonna Club, gave some of their work. It was very interesting and good. Their Advisor can be real proud of them. I want to thank the boys and their Advisors for accepting my invitation, as I know it was a hussy week.

Our Associate Worthy Matron, Edna Senger, gave the report on Grand Chapter, and I know who went had a good time. The Officers who took over for the regular Officers while they were attending Grand Chapter did a real nice work.

Star of The East Rummage will be held in June, I hope you remembered to send yours.

When we have our Memorial Ceremony in Chapter it will be in memory of our Chapter members who have passed away from us.

A wreath with a white star in the middle will be placed in the East. The five points will place a flower from each point in the form of a "V." The Program Committee will have an angel enter with a trumpet, each person who has a deceased person will place a lily in a basket at the altar. The Choir will accompany for the program. T trumpeter will play "Taps" at the end.

The District Deputy will also pay her official visit at this time.

CALENDAR:

Ways and Means Committee will meet May 15, 1961, at the Gas Kitchen.

Madonna Club will meet May 18, at the home of Pauline Blue. Assisting her will be Della Lutter, and Marianne Lutter.

Program Committee will meet at the home of Kathryn Fuhrman on May 25.

Cheer Committee will meet at the home of Eva Stuber, 637 Huffman Street.

Decorating Committee will meet June 5, 1961, at the home of Wahilla Clark, assisting her will be Hazel Bundy, Christine Chesterman and Georgia Yoquelet.

Choir Committee will hold a potluck dinner June 12, at the home of Flora Fletter.

Drill Committee will meet at the home of Loretta Lindemuth, assisting her will be Mildred Clark.

Officers will meet with Herdis Helmuth, assisting him will be Guy Bair.

Estrellita Club will meet at the home of Enid Gahman, assisting her will be Kathryn Harris and Ileana LeClair.

Allah Signet will meet at the home of Edith McIntosh on June 20, assisting her will be Gladys Coe, Lucille Kelso and Clella Chandler.

On June 13, we will have a Chalk Talk Ceremony at our Chapter Meeting.

Illness in Chapter: Sisters Helen Harper, Anna Ynung, Irene Racine, Mildred English, Alice Perkins, Margaret Coxon.

Illness in Families: Sisters Charlotte Domer's son, Bernice Coxon's mother and mother-in-law, Alice Perkins mother, Gladys Lovelands mother, Linda Michaels mother, Ruth Heston's father.

When'er I see the flag gn hy
It thrills me through and through;
I stand "attention" and salute
The red, the white, the blue.

God bless the land o'er which it waves,
Its men and women, too,
And may it always be their pride,
The red, the white, the blue.

Then, God of Nations, hear us now
While we our pledge renew—Allegiance to that Flag of Flags,
The red, the white, the blue.

Our Worthy Matron wants to thank the many members who have helped to serve the banquets that we have been asked to serve.

At this time we want to thank the Ways and Means Committee, and all who helped to make our Steak Supper a success.

Again I want to remind you of Trinity's rummage sale to be held on June 8th at 2028 S. Hanna. If you have any rummage and want it picked up, call Monette Wetzel, K-9727, or Mildred Mullen, T-7702.

June 2nd we will be honored by the official visit of our District Deputy, Sister Pat Chausee, at which time we will have initiation. The officers have been practicing diligently to be proficient in their work so the members will be proud of their chapter and to continue the high standards that have been set before them. Please plan to attend and try to bring a member along with you. The Sewing and Decorating Committee have been busy making beautiful decorations, and the Social Committee have been serving delicious refreshments after each meeting.

June 16th we will honor the Father's. The program Committee is planning a program in their honor, we are hoping all the Father's will come to Chapter. After this meeting, Chapter will be dark until September.

Have a happy and pleasant vacation. Wherever you plan to go—traveling to the lake or even if you stay home be careful and may we see everyone at our first meeting in good health with pleasant memories of the summer and renewed energy for the activities of the chapter in the fall and winter.

FORT WAYNE
CHAPTER No. 432
O.E.S.
Meetings
1st and 3rd
Thursdays

Wise W.M.
33 N. Clinton E-92275
Hayden Secretary
405 Wawonaissa Tr. K-8454
Jacobs Pub. Ch.
519 Circle Dr. E-67045
The Worthy Matron opened the 4th meeting with a tribute to the Chapter of Fort Wayne Chapter's keepers, the past matrons and sons who have kept the store run-ing. The East resembled a supermarket check-out lane and in the stood a large "O", the second in the word "hospitality," which symbolized "Others." Preceding the being a delicious banquet, prepared by our good cooks on Social, served in the dining room, which displayed banners and food stuffs appropriate to a store.
Honored guests for the evening
the Worthy Grand Patron Bradley Swift, Past Grand Patron Mary
Lillian Little, Grand Sentinel Clayton Norrick and Deputy of District No.

14 Patricia Chausse. Del Procter a reappointed member of the Audit and Inventory Committee of Grand Chapter and Maxine Mosier, Representative to the State of Wyoming in Indiana Grand Chapter were also welcomed. We were happy to have so many presiding matrons and patrons and visiting past matrons and patrons present for the night to honor our past matrons and patrons. Vestel Chausse, the husband of Sister Pat, and Mildred Swift, wife of Brother
Brad, were also introduced.

We are all proud of the honor which has been bestowed upon our Chapter and share with all chapters in District No. 14 the appointment of our Brother Clayton to the office of Grand Sentinel in the Indiana Grand Chapter. We all agree with Sister Tessie, "It couldn't happen to a nicer guy." Our congratulations, Clayton, and our pledge to support you along your pathway. Men of the choir sang a clever tribute to Clayton as he was escorted East.

Mary Knauser reported on the Masonic Home trip following Grand Chapter. George Hadley gave a financial report including the fact that there are 594 chapters in Indiana with a membership totaling over 139,000. Tessie Wise reviewed the proceedings of Grand Chapter, which was followed by the Bottoner's colored slides. The background which Tessie gave and the slides were especially appreciated by all of those who have never attended these sessions. Pat Walker and Frank Bidlack beautifully sang a duet intended for the Worthy Grand Patron.

A memorial honoring deceased past matrons and patrons preceded the presenting of gift aprons and hanker-chiefs to those matrons and patrons present. The choir paid tribute to our honored matrons and patrons in song. We were happy to recognize all of the 1931 star points—a remarkable record to be able to count them still among our active members.

It was good to have a full chapter room and heartening to our guests who closed the meeting with some sage and inspiring comments. Punch and cookies were served on the Mezzanine following chapter.

Matrons of the Fort Wayne chapters and New Haven Chapter hosted a tea at the Waynedale Bank Bldg.
May 7th for District Deputy Pat Chausse. Guests were the matrons of District No. 14.

Members ill: Sisters Gertrude Shaw, Eleanor Costello, Catherine Fries,
Neva Bushong, Blanche Rufner, Voorra Carrington, Grace Tribble, Jane Kesler and Elnora Sprinkle, and Brother Kenneth Stine.

Illness in families: Husband of Betty Murphy, daughter of Jean Mc-Allister, sister of Doris Zehner, granddaughter of Velma and Clarence Seslar, mother of Dorman Walker and sister of Vera Hayden.

Deaths in chapter: Brothers Frank Fortney and Frank VanDyke and Sister Marjorie Wood.

Deaths in families: Son of Flossie Stark, father of Irene Lytle, mother of Velma Hartnup, brother of Velma Culver.

New grandparents: Sisters Martha Brandenburg and Arlene Hendrickson. New Great-grandmother: Sister Theresa Harsch.

CALENDAR:
June 1, We will have a memorial service for members deceased during this past year.

6, Satellites will have a family potluck at 6:30 p.m. at Hamilton Park pavilion. Bring covered dish and table service.

8, Choir will meet at the home of Martha Spade, Butt Road, with Joyce Bidlack assisting.

zanine with Nolah Richard, Helene Trehra, Helen Springer and Hilda
Dellinger as hostesses.

13, Past Matron's will meet at the home of Helen Helms, 4219 S. Harrison St., with Esther Schaberg assisting.

14, Decorating's meeting place and hostesses to be announced.

15, An official visit of our District Deputy Pat Chausse will highlight this meeting when our officers give their first initiatory work. Sister Pat is a very gracious person and we are looking forward to her visits and help this year.

20, Non Paniel will meet at the home of Martha Brandenburg, Win-dors Road.

26, Social will have a potluck for families at Large No. 1 Pavilion, Frank Park, at 6 p.m. Bring covered dish, table service and white elephant.
Helen McClintock's committee will furnish meat, rolls and butter and coffee.

27, Officer's place and hostesses will be announced.

28, Starlite Guild will meet with Vera Hayden, 4015 Wawonaissa Trail, with Ruth Nichols, Helen Brintzenhofe and Alma Bloemker assisting.

Two of our shut-ins have birthdays this month. Let's remember Mable Fell, Richmond State Hospital, on June 14 and Ida Jones, Masonic Home on June 30.

The Worthy Matron wishes for each of you a safe and happy vacation, and hopes to see all of you at the 6:30 potluck on the Mezzanine before our Sept. 7 meeting, when we have the privilege of renewing our obligation to the Order.

TRIBUTE TO MOTHER
God took the sunshine from the eyes,
made the love light in your eyes, on bonied flowers he took the new,
made your tears, unselfish true.
on a rack he built your faith,
with angel prayers he gave breath, with his love made your divine, best of all—he made you mine.”
The first meeting conducted by our newly installed officers was most inspiring. Congratulations to each in travelling the ritualistic work.

September 6th will be the first stated meeting for the fall. Summertime is vacation time and several of the members will be traveling by air, train or automobiles. Our Royal Matron and Royal Patron, Kathryn Clark and Alfred Schell wish you a pleasant and enjoyable summer and would like to see all of you in Court in September telling of your many experiences.

We must not hope to be mowers,
And to gather the ripe gold ears,
Unless we have first been sowers
And watered the furrows with tears.

It is not just as we take it,
This mystical world of ours,
Life's field will yield as we make it
A harvest of thorns or of flowers.

Take heed to thy friends, a faithful friend is a strong defence, and he that have found such a one hath found a treasure.

We would like to congratulate our officers for their beautiful work on their first meeting.

We had 15 Sojourners to attend the Supreme Shrine at Chicago the 1st week of May. Along with W.H.P. Velma Freeze and W.O.S. Richard McKeener and wife Elaine.

A lovely dinner was given for W.H.P. Velma and her line officers by the P.H.P. at the Gerber House in May. She said it was very nice, all had a nice time.

The Patrol had W.H.P. Velma as a guest for dinner at the Four Winds. Velma wishes to thank them.

Committee meeting for June:
Ways and Means, first Tuesday evening. (chairman) Elaine McKeener, June meeting at Gas Kitchen.

Decorating, 1st Thursday evening, chairman Evelyn Hanes, June meeting at Evelyn Hanes.

Cheer, 2nd Tuesday afternoon, chairman Delta Schmoce, June meeting at Cornelia Crag.

Social, General chairman, Mary Stuhls, evening group 4th Monday. Chairman Carrie Schulte, June meeting at Orta Wyson.

Afternoon group 4th Tuesday, chairman Elsie Sponbauer, June meeting at Freida Spalding.

June 9th our Birthday Party, our W.H.P. Velma has a surprise for us. June 23 Ceremonial. Come and support our candidates and officers.

Then in July and August W.H.P. Velma and W.O.S. Richard wishes you all a happy vacation and be careful and be back with us on September 8 for the beginning of our fall activities.

Oh yes we are planning an Ice Cream Social in September. Will have details later.

Soj. Alice Niebel is spending some time in Norway visiting her mother. Will be gone 3 weeks. She is having a wonderful time.

Illness among our members:

Ethel Felger, Neva Bushong, Velma Roush, Cornelia Betz.

Improving, Wanda McKenney, Jean Day, Delores Weigel.

Deaths in Shrine: Florence Gibbs, Nola Bailey.

Deaths in family: Mother of Sarrah Narrich, Mother in law of Gertrude Engleman, Father of Arthur Popp.

Any news for September I must have it August 10th. So help me to get the news in the Square and Compass.

BE FRATERNAL

When you attend the meetings do not sit down in a corner and expect every member to come and shake hands with you, and in case they fail to do so, complain that the members are unfriendly and that they lack sociability. It is no more their duty to do so than it is yours. Every member should aim to promote the fraternal spirit by saying a friendly word of greeting to other members. Try it; you will like it.—Wisconsin Masonic Tidings.

Judy English ----- H.Q.
4501 Bowser ----- H-0901
Mrs. Marjorie Simmers ----- Guardian
2913 S. Hanna St. ----- H-67475

As my term as Honored Queen draws to a close, I would like to extend my deepest appreciation to all those who helped to make my term a happy and successful one.

I want to thank all of you who attended our Inspection Banquet on May 3. It was indeed a lovely evening and I want to thank all the mothers and daughters who worked so hard on the decorations. Our Grand Guardian, Mrs. Dorothy Vaughn has found that she has sugar diabetes and I think it would be nice if all the members of Bethel No. 8 would send her a get well card. Her address is 1815 Washington Street, Vincennes, Indiana.

Our Honored Queen-Elect, Roxanne Smith, has asked me to remind you that her installation will be on June 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the Egyptian Room. She invites all members to attend.

On behalf of Bethel No. 8, I would like to thank the Mother's Club for the six lovely silver trays which they purchased for the Bethel. The newly elected officers of Mother's Club are Mrs. Robert Rinehart, President; Mrs. William McCoskey, Vice-President; Mrs. L. J. Schubert, Secretary; Mrs. Samuel Masloub, Treasurer; and Mrs. Richard English, Corresponding Secretary.

Don't forget Grand Council this June 8, 9, 10, and 11. It will be held on the campus of Purdue University. The Grand Guardian said she would like to see many girls from Bethel No. 8 at her Grand Council.

Daughters, I don't know whether you're aware of it or not, but Bethel No. 8 is the largest Bethel in the state of Indiana. An honor for which you can all be proud. Let's show that we are proud by attending the meetings regularly.

Pass it on.

Let it travel down the years.

Let it wipe another's tears,

'Til in heaven the deed appears—

Pass it on.

Our apologies for the absence of an article in the last issue of the Square and Compass. Your President and Publicity Chairman were both ill at deadline time.

April 4 was Friends' Night, and what a thrilling sight it was to see so many visitors.

On May 2, we were honored to have the DeMolay boys exemplify their Flower Ceremony as part of a Mother's Day program. How proud Fort Wayne can be of these oys and their accomplishments!

May 16 was the occasion of our annual Birthday Dinner. The Past Presidents of the Assembly were honored during the Stated Meeting.

We wish to extend a big thank you to all who helped make the Card Party a success, and also to all who helped with the Rummage Sale.

THE BIBLE

The Holy Bible is truly the Light of Masonry and the corner great men in history indicated reverence for it and the reliance placed in it, for guidance in daily life.

"If you blot out from your that is taken from the sacred what would be left to bind together."—Benjamin Harrison

"The Bible is the word of God."—Woodrow Wilson.

"It is support of the strong the consolation of the weak; the pendence of organized government and foundation of religion."—Coolidge.

"There is no other book so concentrated wisdom. As a nation are indebted to the Book of Books our national ideals and representative institutions."—Herbert Hoover.

"No other book has ever affected the whole life of a people as Scriptures has affected the life of the English Speaking peoples."—Theodore Roosevelt.

It is not rare gifts that make happy. It is the common and universal gifts; it is health, the glance of sunshine in the morning; it is fresh air, it is the love, it is the kindness that meets us on the journey; it is only a word, a smile, a look, of these and not any rarity of things that are God's gentle are of man's happiness.—Morrison.

MANKIND'S ETERNAL TASK

All people interested in having free society, I think, should be concerned with spreading ideas of freedom; let the actual, detailed work take care of themselves, as the inevitably will. The ideas have to first. The most important thing a society is that its idea factors really well run. The scholars, and philosophers of a society be good or there is really little.

How does one bring about a change in the idea factors? I have answer except that hard one of self-discipline, more rigorous and active pursuit of truth; all the that take forever. This is mankind's eternal task.—Sylvester Petru.

that the month of June has the time of our big event,

the Indiana State Conclave, is rapidly approaching. We will be hnst chapter for the yearly gathering, to be June 30, July I and 2. Plans have been progressing satisfactorily, but much work still remains to be concluded in the next few weeks.

Most of the conclave expenses will be financed by a conclave booklet, in which local businessmen have placed advertisements, and by a booster club, which was joined by the purchase of a booster card for one dollar. The price for attending the three-day affair is $7.50, but a special price has been secured for members of our chapter as the hosts. We may attend for only $5.00, and anyone attending for only one day will be charged only $2.50. Also, boys who sold 25 of the above-mentioned booster cards are admitted free.

Since we are the host chapter and the biggest chapter in the world, we hope that a large number of members will be able to attend. The price includes meals, two dances, the opportunity to attend all sessions and compete in statewide competition in a number of events, and the chance to help back Bill Branstrator, our candidate for State Senior Councilor. We feel that it is a fine investment for only $5.00, and any members who have not turned in their registration blanks should contact Dad Herrick immediately.

The rest of our program for the year includes only a meeting on June 14 to install new officers and present the Representative DeMolay awards. The new officers who were elected last are Bill Branstrator, Master Councilor; Al Haney, Senior Councilor; and Jim Tennant, Junior Councilor. At this public ceremony, their appointed officers also will be installed. We would appreciate your attendance and that of any other

Also at this public ceremony, the Representative DeMolay award, the highest self-achievement award in the DeMolay world, will be conferred upon four members of our chapter. They are Junior Past Master Councilor Jim King, Master Councilor-elect Bill Branstrator, Chaplain Sam Carter, and your Master Councilor.

As my term draws to a close, I would like to express my appreciation to all who have been so much help to me: the advisers, the Mothers' Circle, and the officers with whom I have been privileged to serve. I feel very confident that the new group of officers taking office on the fourteenth are fine representatives of DeMolay, and it is with great pleasure that I pass the duties which have been so enjoyable to me along to them. The Order of DeMolay has been very generous to me, and it is with the greatest pride that I shall always be able to say, "I am a DeMolay."

MORE LIGHT

Francis Bacon, one of the leading Masons of his day, once wrote:

"Reading maketh a full man; conference a ready man; and writing an exact man. And therefore, if a man write a little, he had need have a great memory, if he confer little he had need have a present wit; and if he read little, he need have much cunning to seem to know that he doth not."

After reading Bacon's statement, a present day advertising executive added this comment:

"Once a busy man feels the urgency to learn—and to keep learning—it's remarkable how he somehow finds the time and place to do it. Today, in business and industry, ignorance is the most extravagant bliss anyone can pretend to enjoy."

As Masons, we should all subscribe to such sentiments as these by examining our own efforts to acquire additional light not only in Masonry, but in the equally important fields in which the destiny of our modern world is taking shape.

Self-Discipline

Lesson for May 25, 1961

"SPARE the rod and spoil the child," an old proverb says. We can all "sound off" about the younger generation, how it's going to pot, and about the juvenile delinquents and what ought to be done about them. We have big ideas about educating parents to feel responsible for the kind of boys and girls their children are. This is all good, so far as it goes.

But do you know the most common reason Dr. Foreman why parents don't discipline their children? They don't discipline themselves. One rod that must not be spared is the rod reserved by myself, for myself. If I make a bad job of self-discipline, I shan't be likely to be good at disciplining others.

If You Want It

It can be said in simple words what discipline is. It means training a person to take, or do, what he doesn't like, or to keep from doing or taking what he does like. Self-discipline means learning this for yourself, and practicing it without anyone standing over you to make you do it.

There is one single requirement that must be met first of all. You must want, very strongly, what self-discipline will do for you. The writer of Prov. 2 puts it into a nutshell: insight and understanding. Do you want these qualities in your character? They don't glide into your room on a moonbeam. No one ever was born with perfect insight and understanding. Nobody (except Jesus) ever achieved perfect insight and understanding.

Nobody ever achieved enough of it to be worth while, without working at it, without wanting it. It comes hard enough at best, it never comes at all to fools who don't care.

Not Only Women

This Bible is a very frank and outspoken book. There are parts of the Proverbs that plainly say the object of wisdom is to "preserve you from the loose woman." This might mean a professional prostitute, or it might not. Then, as now, the "young man without sense" (Prov. 7:7) is easily taken in by the wrong kind of woman. No amount of warning, no amount of law-making, no good example,—nothing will keep a young man from being fatally foolish here unless he is self-disciplined from within.

And yet, while some people think that the "loose woman" is the one real danger to youth, this book of Proverbs would make us aware that there are other dangers. There is anger, for example. How many murders are committed out of anger, only God knows. But you may be pretty sure that the fit of anger which brought forth this murder was not the first to which the killer had given way. Some criminals will even put up as excuse the fact that they were emotionally disturbed. Such an excuse should deceive no one. A fit of anger may be irresistible when you are in the middle of it, but it is possible to work on yourself so that you know the signs of anger coming up, and you can nip it in the bud before it starts. Diplomats and politicians can do this, and they don't claim supernatural help; how much more should a Christian, by the help of the Holy Spirit, be able to discipline himself away from acting like a barbarian or a spoiled child! Again we say, laws and good advice can perhaps prevent murder, but they can't prevent anger, the seed-bed of murder. Only self-discipline can do that.

Red-Eyed Woe

One other trouble which is common in mankind is Liqueur. The writer of the 23rd chapter of the Proverbs gave us good a description of a hangover as you can read anywhere. It's nothing less than red-eyed woe. Now all the troubles of the drinker, whether he gets to the stage of being an alcoholic or not—all his troubles are actually artificial troubles. They are real, to be sure, but they are not natural. Sex and the acquisitive instinct and anger are all natural, however we may control them; but the taste of liquor is not born in any one. The way not to have the drinker's problems is simply not to drink.

THREE MASONIC PILLARS

Masons have been told that "a Lodge is supported by three great pillars." It may or may not be a coincidence that the letters composing the English name of Deity should be the initials of Gomer, Oz and Dabar, Hebrew words for wisdom, strength and beauty—the three great pillars.

Since their first letters are arranged thus—G O D—it might be assumed they present one reason for use of the letter "G" in its conspicuous location in the East of a Lodge. Some authorities see in this circumstance more than an accident.—York Rite News.

I have visited the hospital and find Bro. Ernest Rinehold in very poor condition. However, in a more cheerful vein, "Bud" McComh and Charles Miller are much improved. We will be seeing them home soon.

Our St. John's day banquet is moved up to June 17th. at Huntertown Methodist Church, with dinner at 7:00 p.m. I have a report that the speaker is a good one with dinner music by Mrs. Ruby Yoder again. This makes for a very nice evening. O.E.S. is cooking and serving the dinner. Price is $1.75 per plate. Bring your wives and friends and I will see you there.

We are on the way to Grand Lodge, so must hurry. See you next month.

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome four of our new candidates who have received the degrees of Masonry by initiation, Brothers Kenneth S. Snyder, Paul Claxson, Harold Parker, Jr., and Jack Hevel. We are certainly proud to receive candidates of this caliber into our lodge as they are jumping right into the work and taking a very active part in the lectures.

By the time this reaches your hands, our beao supper on May 24, prepared by JW Harold Towsley and assisted by the committee of Eastern Star Ladies from New Haven will have been a great success and we will have added another new member. Grand Lodge will be a thing of the past for me and I cao say, with pleasure, that I had the opportunity and privilege of helping to elect a new Grand Master and other officers of the Most Worshipful Graod Lodge of the State of Indiana.

I would like to pay tribute to the ladies of the New Haven Chapter of Eastern Stars and call attention to the good that they have heeo doing in helping to reoovate and furnish additional equipment for our building. All of it is very much appreciated and words cannot convey all of our thanks. Past Worthy Matron Dolores Stark and Worthy Matroo Treva Girardot are doing a wonderful job and hope that this will continue throughout the year and coming years. By the way, I wonder why they don't write their own column and get io some of their oews while it is still fresh?

I have just received word that Brother John Young has been in and is out of the hospital recuperating from an operation. Good luck, John. Brother Rolla Durbin is still on the recovering list and we hope he is able to return to work soon. We will be dark during June, July and August but hope to see all of you at the Stated Meetings, first Wednesday of each month. Turn out and help us spend your money.

April 29th will go down in my books as a memorable day in our lodge. The craft team of the Amnity Lodge of Huntington were our guests in the raising of Brothers Gene Hillsmler and Don Martin. Gentlemen, may I commend you. I have been privileged to watch you before, but it is always a great experience. To cap the evening off we retired to enjoy a wonderful ham and bean supper complete with corn bread, prepared by Brother Elwin Mahneosmith, who in my opinion is a past master when it comes to ham and beans. Judging from your editor's frequent references to the dinners—it probably gives you the impression that I am a chow hound. I plead guilty.

MASONRY HELPED MOLD AMERICA

Every line of America's history is written with Masonic ink, sweetened with Masonic love, blessed with Masonic brotherhood, and reddened with Masonic blood and sacrifice.

Swim only a few highspots and you find Brethren making the American Dream, from Colonial days to these times of international peril.

There's Kit Carson, Lewis and Clark, Oglethorpe, Lindbergh, Samuel Gompers, Luther Burhank, Tom Paine, John J. (Blackjack) Pershing, John Phillip Sousa, Irving Berlin, Clark Gable, Eddie Cantor, Will Rogers.

A long string of Presidents. Generals from Washington and Robert E. Lee to MacArthur, Ridgeway, Clark and Doolittle.

Admirals from Farragut to Halsey. Developers of men like coaches Alonzo A. Stagg, Andy Kerr, Dana Bible, Bernie Bierman.

Empire makers like Astor, Morgenthau, Wanamaker, Mellon.

Yes, Masonry has molded America, made it tick and click, defined its great dream of Brotherhood, sent its message of hope and courage ringing throughout the world!—(Exchange).

THE LESSER LIGHTS

The mediaeval Lodge was a frame structure erected close to a church in process of building. It had three main windows—in the east, the west and the south. There were none in the north because the Lodge was always built on the southern side of the church, and close to it for the advantage of light and warmth of a southern aspect. These windows were termed the "three great lights." To ao early ritual these windows were termed "fixed lights," supposed to be in every room where Lodge is held, their uses being to light the meo to, at, and from their work.

At the three windows were seated the Master and Wardens; the Fellowcrafts and their appropriate stations and the Apprentices were placed to the north, as they required less light than the more skillful and advaoed Fellowcrafts. This same early ritual places the junior Entered Apprentice in the North, his business being to keep off all cowans and eaves droppers, because the narrow space between the Lodge and the church would form a convenient hiding place.

Work was performed during daylight. When brethren met for social or business at night, candle light became necessary. The officers retained their usual positions and before each was placed a candle. These three candles are now termed "The Lights."

When Lodges came to be held io taverns the three windows disappeared, but the candles were retained.

COMMANDERY BAND PLAYS FOR S.O.O.B. PICNIC

On Sunday, July 9, the Social Order of Beauceant held a picnic at the home of Lawrence Miller. Almost a hundred people were in attendance.

During the picnic the Fort Wayne Commandery Band played several selections for the entertainment of all.

BANQUET TO BE HELD

The Star of the East Chapter, O.E.S. will hold a Past Matrons and Past Patrons Banquet on September 26.

The banquet will take place in the dining room of the Masonic temple. Those desiring reservations may call Gladys Underwood at K-5509.

SUPPER TO BE HELD

Fort Wayne Chapter, O.E.S. will kick off their first fall meeting by holding a pot luck supper on the mezzanine at the Temple, just prior to their stated meeting. Those who attend are requested to bring a covered dish and their own table service. Meat, rolls and coffee will be furnished.

IN THE HEART

The place to look for evidence that you are a Mason is not in the head where memory of rituals, grips, signs, and tokens may be retained, but in the heart from whence will flow the healing streams of brotherly love, generosity, kindness, patience, and goodwill. If these are found you will know your Masonic fellowship has borne good fruit and you are in fact a Mason—Masonic Chronicle.

RUMMAGE SALE SCHEDULED

Trinity Chapter O.E.S. will open up their Fall activities by holding a rummage sale on September 22, at 2028 South Hanna Street. Members who wish to bring their rummage may take it to the above address at 7 p.m. on September 21. Those who want their rummage picked up may call Monette Wetzel at K-9727 or Lillian Poiry at K-1919.

The sale has been arranged by the ways and means committee, of which Monnette Wetzel is chairman.

TO HOLD SQUARE DANCE AND SMORGASBORD

On Saturday, October 21, Three Rivers Lodge will hold a square dance and smorgasbord at the Temple. Joe Taylor and his red birds will furnish the music with Patty Corbett calling the dances. Ticket reservations must be made in advance as there will be no door sale.

STYLE SHOW AND CARD PARTY TO BE HELD

Miriam Shrine will hold a card party and fur style show on Tuesday, September 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Eagles Hall, on South Broadway. Refreshments will be served. Tickets are $1.00 each and may be obtained from any member of the Shrine.

TO HOLD POT LUCK SUPPER

On September 12, Star of the East Chapter, O.E.S. will welcome back their members with a pot luck supper. The theme of the supper is an old fashioned reunion. The program committee will entertain. All members are welcome.

ME LODGE MEMBER ETS 50 YEAR PIN

Home Lodge Worshipful Master Lawrence Miller had the privilege recently of presenting the Indiana Home Lodge Award of Gold to Brother Charles Otto Woodward in Berlin, Florida. He was assisted in presentation by Brother Everett Keenan and the brethren of Berlin Lodge No. 192. Brother Woodward is now a resident in Florida.

BOWLERS NEEDED

Ralph Thomas, Secretary of the Masonic Bowling League has issued a call for more bowlers to join the teams for the fall and winter playing season. There are many openings in the teams so all who come will be placed on a team.

If you would like to bowl on the Masonic team this year, call Ralph Thomas at A-40093, or come to the meeting of the year on Tuesday, September 5, at the OE Club.

FORT WAYNE COMMANDERY SENDS SIX BOYS TO CAMP

This year the Fort Wayne Commandery sent six boys to Camp Crosley during the week of July 31-August 6. S.K. Harold O. Martin, in charge of the Camp Crosley project reported that the boys had a very enjoyable week. Sir Knight Harold personally took the boys to camp and returned them. The Fort Wayne Commandery wishes to thank everybody who contributed. Special thanks is offered to Miss Irene Beeman, who contributed the funds for two boys to go to camp, as a memorial to her late brother, S.K. Belmont Beeman.

DINNER DANCE SCHEDULED

Wayne Lodge has announced that November 4 has been selected for the date of their annual dinner dance to be held at the Temple. All members are asked to post their calendar now. Additional details of program, etc., will be announced at a later date.

SCOTTISH RITE TO OPEN FALL ACTIVITIES

On Tuesday, September 12, at 6:30 p.m. the Fort Wayne Scottish rite will kick off their Fall seasons activities by staging their annual ham and bean supper for all members. There will be plenty of beans, ham and corn bread. This dinner has become a tradition with the Scottish Rite.

There is no charge to attend the dinner, your only admission requirement is a paid up dues card.

No long program is scheduled, but merely a get-together for good fellowship and fraternal association.

TO HOLD LODGE OF INSTRUCTION

On October 12, at 7:30 p.m. the Waynedale Lodge and Three Rivers Lodge will jointly hold a Lodge of Instruction in the Waynedale Hall. The master mason degree will be exemplified with both lodges participating in the work.

Fellow members, we have come to the end of our vacations and we look forward to returning to our fall work with renewed vigor and vitality. I hope all of you had an enjoyable summer and interesting trips wherever they may have been.

W had the misfortune of losing two members during our summer recess. I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to the friends and families of both John H. Waikel and Ernest H. Felger. Masonic services were held for both members. Honorary and floral respects were recently paid to Rev. Robert Beck at the request of his home lodge of Charity No. 30.

There is one petition pending to vote on at the present so we plan to have degree work in September. Start out the fall season right by attending lodge on Thursdays. Your officers always appreciate having a large attendance present.

Our annual dinner-dance is scheduled for November 4. Mark your calendar on that date until you are notified about further plans on this. The next visitation night for our lodge at the Veterans' Hospital is October 2, 1961. Watch your paper for any further dates of interest.

Worthy of repeating is an article taken from the August issue of The Indiana Freemason, in regard to another important date, September 17. It reads as follows:

The Red-Letter Day

"Only once during the year is an event sponsored by Ancient Craft Freemasonry in Indiana scheduled on Sunday. That is the annual pilgrimage to the Indiana Masonic Home. Long dedicated to the principle that Masons should lend active support to their church or synagogue, Masonic Temples are opened on Sunday only for a funeral service, and all types of social and ritualistic activity are forbidden on the first day of the week.

"But the pilgrimage to Franklin is, in a very real sense, a personal rededication to tenets that are fundamental. It is highly appropriate that such an event should be on that day of the week when man is called upon to reflect on whence he came and whither he is traveling.

"September 17 is the date for the annual pilgrimage this year. It should be marked in red on the calendar of every Lodge and every Chapter. Every Master Mason is a shareholder and every member of the Eastern Star a sustaining donor in our great benevolent institution — one of the finest of its kind to be found anywhere in the nation.

"It is disappointing at times to learn of the great number of Hoosier Masons who have never visited the Home operated under their auspices. This would be a good year to concentrate on first visits. Let September 17 be the highlight of the year in every one of Indiana's 547 Lodges."

In early Indiana history homes were far apart and the opportunity to meet neighbors on a friendly neighborly level were infrequent. Then, Masonry filled a needed social purpose by bringing together men from scattered farms and rural settlements, resulting in acquaintances and friendships being formed among those who otherwise would have remained strangers. Cooperative endeavors and community helpfulness resulted.

In today's crowded communities where many do not know the dweller in the apartment above and the family in the next block is a stranger, Masonry can again serve a similar useful purpose. It can bring together men from these crowded areas and be a means for forming acquaintances and friendships among those who might otherwise remained strangers.

Membership in and regular attendance at Masonic affairs, both ritual and social, can therefore mean a broader band of friendships and a happier and more useful life.

We will be joined by Three Rivers Lodge No. 733 for a Lodge of Instruction in our hall at 7:30 p.m., October 12, 1961. Plan to be present for this meeting. The Master Mason Degree will be exemplified with both Lodges participating.

On Master Mason night of both July and August we had an evening meal and a program of entertainment in our Hall. Look forward to a meal and social time on Master Mason night in September. Our first stated meeting of the fall and winter will be Wednesday evening at 8:00 p.m. on September 6, 1961. Plan to be present.

By the time you receive this issue of the Square and Compass vacations will be a past memory. I hope all of you have had a very enjoyable one as for myself my vacation will always linger in my memories. My wife and I had the pleasure of a trip to Dunedin, Florida upon which I had the pleasure of presenting the Indiana Grand Lodge Award of Gold to one of our brethren whose name is Charles Otto Woodward, 1636 San Charles St., Dunedin, Florida, with the assistance of one of our brethren Everett E. Keenan and the brethren of Dunedin Lodge 192. I had the pleasure to present the award in their lodge room and we also had the pleasure of visiting with more of our Brethren in Florida.

At our stated meeting in August we received 2 petitions so September will be a busy month as we have one more to pick up on the Fellow Craft Degree also our Tri State visitation will be Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st which will be held in Chicago. Those who plan to go on this trip contact Fritz Ray or Charles Winans as they would like to know well in advance so as to make reservations.

At this date I do not have the dates for our Veterans Hospital Visitations but I am sure we will have one in September so try and go out there as it is a very enjoyable hour well spent. Hoping to see you in the lodge room and for the sick and shutins I wish them a speedy recovery.

Vacations are wonderful
Away from the daily routine
To new places and adventures
But homecoming is wonderful
As we renew old friendships
And meet in familiar places.
We sincerely hope that each of you have truly had a wonderful vacation. We trust you have returned refreshed and ready to meet the which lie ahead with renewed enthusiasm, and goals to meet for coming year.

Fall is fast approaching and vest time is here and we must close our storehouse for the days months ahead.

If we are to reap the harvest masonry then we must share another's burden and we will find that the giver often receives in giving than does the one who receives.

The basic ideals of Freemasonry — Brotherly Love, Truth, and Unity — are as meaningful and universal today as when they first entered man's conceptions in the dawn of fraternal thinking. They are changeable because there is no of improving them.

Freemasonry is a worldwide organization where men of all ages and political beliefs can meet in harmony.

Your Masonic Lodge contains friendly understanding so scarce so needed in our complex world today; it contains the belief in one true God, no matter what he be called. It contains the high code for which the Masons are well known; and it contains fundamental principle of Freemasonry — which the whole world must use to insure a real peace — the Brotherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

Good will and good works never wasted. Temporary darkness may cloud conviction with doubt, despair but the joy of eternal life has reassured itself since the dawn of man.

The English poet, John Donne said, "No man is an island, each of itself." Likewise no one Mason or Lodge is an entity of Freemasonry. We need to be reaping bountiful harvests of Masonry attending lodge meetings and acting in its activities.

Sol D. Bayless under the leadership of Brothers Rex Lamm, Robert Squires and Past Master William Butz have made an extensive study of our membership roll, new members for the past five years in an effort to develop a team.

It is my desire, along with all officers, that those of you who contacted will respond for an assignment. You will unquestionably receive more than you give by friendships and experiences participation in the work of lodge.

The destiny of the craft drifts in your hands.

Shakespeare said: "There's a deity that shapes our ends, rough them though we may." Our destiny will depend upon how well we

We will have degree work in September but will be dark in October. It is my hope to get a news letter to our local membership on the fall activities.

Brethren: The Entered Apprentice degree instructs you regarding the Furniture of a Lodge—"The Holy Bible, Square & Compasses." In open lodge these always appear on our Holy Altar, and have a very great symbolic significance. The Bible is the symbol of the Volume of the Sacred Law. In English speaking countries, it is universally one of the three Great Lights of Masonry. In lands predominately Christian it is the Volume of the Sacred Law, as is its Old Testament to Jews. In other lands the holy book of the common faith becomes the Great Light upon the Altar. In Lodges in the Far East, under the jurisdiction of England, Ireland, Scotland, several holy books will be upon the Altar that the initiate may find and use the one of his own faith. The Volume of the Sacred Law is a silent symbol of a Freemason's faith in the Grand Architect of the Universe.

The Square is the Symbol of the Master; of rectitude of life and conduct; of morality, truthfulness, honesty. So universal is the knowledge of its meaning that the word has percolated into all strata of society. The "Square man" is the honest man. To "act on the square" is to act honestly. In Freemasonry to "part upon the square" has its own symbolism. The square is a tool made of two members, pointing in different directions. These directions are "right" with each other, a right angle, so called because the 90 degree angle is the only—therefore the right—angle for stones which are to build a perpendicular and stable wall. When brethren "part upon the square" they leave each other in different directions, but in directions of which, if their destination be unknown, their rightness is known. Brethren part in the full knowledge that their course until they meet again will be according to the angle of a square—right.

The Compasses — Symbol of restraint; of the principle tenets of the Order; of skill and knowledge, since without their use a square cannot be erected and without a square a temple cannot be built. "Square and compasses" are universally the symbol of a Master Mason; of Freemasonry. A thousand devoted symbolists have read as many meanings into both these tools of a Mason. Both symbols are much older than Freemasonry; Chinese manuscripts give them a Masonic significance two thousand years ago. No symbols in Freemasonry offer so many possible interpretations. But many symbols may be different things to different men; each interprets what he can from a symbolism so deep as to be almost all embracing. In modern Masonic rituals, the compasses are "dedicated to the Craft" and are emblematic of restraint of passions. Here "passions" refers to any overemotional lack of control. Years ago the philosopher Burke said "men of intemperate passions cannot be free; passions force their fetters." It is passions in the larger sense; intemperance, excess temper, unjust judgment, intolerance, selfishness, that the spiritual compasses circumscribe. The positions of the square and compasses in the three degrees are universally symbols of light, further light, more light.

We have had the following brethren confined to the various hospitals. Henry Lindeman, Nicholas Cozmas, Clarence Grotrian, Jesse Miller, Samuel Evans, Ralph Miller, Thos. M. Yoder, Fred McIntyre, Merritt D. Allen, and P.G.M. Wm. C. Gaeke. We sincerely hope that all are fully recovered and that we shall see them again in our lodge room very soon.

The following brethren have been called by the Supreme Architect of the Universe to join the Celestial Lodge above; Reese Ertes Walden, July 16, 1961; Herbert Franklin Monroe, July 24, 1961; John Paul Luther, August 8, 1961. To their families and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

Summit City Homecoming day has been set for Oct. 27, 1961. Please note this date on your calendar.

Summit City's visitation dates to the veterans' hospital are as follows: Oct. 9, Nov. 27, Jan. 29, Mar. 19, May 7 and June 25. Make a note of these dates and arrange to visit these unfortunate veterans. They appreciate these visits very much, and I am sure that you will feel better also.

By the time this issue of the "Square & Compass" reaches you it will be September and to most of us our 1961 vacation will be but a memory. I sincerely hope that all have had a most pleasant vacation. I am looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to seeing all in our lodge room again.

Greetings Brother South Gaters, I hope that you all had good vacations this summer and that you are ready to greet the fall season with vim and vigor. Of course, the weather these past two months hasn't been what you would call good.

We would like to see all of you down here at the Temple on Monday evening, September 11th, at our Stated Meeting. Call up a Brother South Gater and bring him down with you. The time is 7:30 and the place is the Ionic Room.

Brothers, these are momentous days. Violent threats and challenges are being hurled at the free people of this world by those who would seek to enslave them. Their aim, and only aim, is to conquer the world, not for the benefit of the people, but to fulfill their greedy ambitions of being world rulers. In all ages there have been those who sought to conquer the world for the power of rule and the belief that they could run the world a little better.

We, in this country, and most countries use the word "Communism" as the means by which evils are spread. The word is only a mask which hides the real nature of the sect in charge. When we speak of Hitler or Mussolini we think of them as dictators because that is what they were. Why then should we not apply that same term to the Russians and the Chinese instead of applying the "mask" of Communism. If the free world press would use the term dictatorship to these countries the free world would see them in their true light. Many of the people who think that they are subscribing to the principles of Communism might be appraised of their error. These ambitious men who rule these countries, follow the dictates of Communism only so far as it aids in their dreams of conquest. They do not hesitate to rewrite the rules whenever it suits their purpose to do so.

Freemasonry, by its very nature must be opposed to the spread of Dictatorship in whatever form it rears its ugly head. The first act of a dictator is to outlaw and destroy Freemasonry, the church and the free press. No dictator can feel secure unless he has taken away all freedoms and made everyone subservient to his dictates.

On our Altars rests the "Great Light" of Masons. This is God's great gift to man. Should the atheist or the infidel wrest this book of Holy Scriptures from our Altars, thereby darkening the paths of Freemasonry then no longer could we call ourselves Free and Accepted Masons. It was this Light which guided our forefathers whose hearts were aflame with the cause of Liberty. It is this Light which has burned so brightly through the years to our present day.

Agreements made in the past have placed us in the position we find ourselves today. We must see to it that we do not fall into more grave errors. After all when we have been burned by these people we should know enough not to trust them again. It is hard to imagine how grown educated people can actually believe that a treaty with Russia would be worth any more than the paper it is written on. Certainly the treaty would be binding on us, but the Russians or the Chinese, as the case might be, wouldn't hesitate to break it if it suited their plans. We have been taught that no atheist can be made a Mason because no obligation would be binding on him. To believe otherwise, would be stupid and fatal. Our country has already suffered from those who would hope to see their names go down in history as the great peacemakers. They ignore facts far fantasy in their approach to the problems. They hope that these enemies of our way of life will keep an agreement made when a realistic view would warn them otherwise. This is our greatest danger today. We do not desire war nor do we think that there is a need for war. The best preventative is to keep ourselves strong, keep our word our bond and judge our enemies for what they are.

We as Freemasons, must not permit the Great Light to be taken from the Altars. Neither must we permit those who would through ignorance or duplicity give away our freedoms under the guise of bargaining. We have commitments toward Berlin which we made in good faith. Under agreements made between the great powers after the war we were given certain rights of access to and from Berlin. Too, the Russians agreed to hold free elections that the people of Germany might determine their form of government. Russia has refused to allow these free elections and threatens to sign a separate peace treaty with the East Germans. There is much talk at all levels of bargaining over Berlin. We have clear cut obligations to the German people, we also have certain rights in travel between Berlin and West Germany. What then is there to hargain for without giving up some of our rights or obligations. This is a matter of grave concern to many people today. Freedom can be kept only by upholding our rights and meeting our obligations to others. If we give up freedom we lose all. I pray that all Masons with the help of Almighty God will act and think as Masons.

Remember these truths:
 "Freedom is never secure; Security is never free."

I am grateful for the privilege of seeing you once again after a very pleasant summer vacation. I hope all of you have enjoyed it as much as I have. It seems that there is not much to report at this time as we have been inactive since June.

Our fall and winter activities will be under way on Sept. 5th when we will visit LaFontaine Lodge in present our play at 8 p.m. The Senior Wardens will be there to make fifty year award. Sept. 12th will be our regular stated meeting. We do have degree work to do, but that schedule is uncertain at this time pending petitions to be received. I suggest that you watch the Masonic Member in the Journal Gazette for our degree dates. Our entire membership is invited to visit Waynedale Lodge No. 739 on October 12th, the Grand Grand Lecturer, Bro. Allen Heston will hold a lodge of instruction on the M.M. degree at that time. I urge you to attend this meeting.

The cast of Rose upon The Altar will travel to Kendallville on October 13th, this meeting is scheduled for 8:00 p.m.

Our fall social affair will consist of a smorgasbord and square dance on Saturday, October 21st. Joe Taylor and The Indiana Red Birds will furnish the music with Patty Corbett singing the dances. You will need tickets or reservations in advance for the evening. Bro. Kenneth Witte, Chairman of the Veterans hospital visitation, reports the following schedule for our group.

Sept. 18th, Nov. 6th, Jan. 8th, Feb. 26th, April 16th, and June 4th. 7:30 p.m. I hope you will support this program as you did in the spring.

The month of July seemed to bring misfortune to many of our members. Past Master Charles C. Scott was very severely burned while lighting a fire in his yard at his home. He was hospitalized for several days, but improved at this time. Past Master Wm. D. Senger spent several weeks in the hospital after suffering a severe heart attack. He is resting at home at this time. Bro. S. W. Fisher underwent surgery at the Lutheran Hospital in July and Bro. J. S. Lawrence Huffman narrowly escaped the loss of an eye in an accident at his home. I believe that all these Brethren have recovered or on the road to recovery now.

Watch for the announcement concerning the Masonic Home visitation sometime in September. It is an interesting trip to take to Franklin and see how our home is operated. Bro. Fisher will be ready with the most interesting lectures concerning Masonic education this season. So resolve now to get in the attendance habit at your lodge. You will be richer for the experience.

As memory goes back to the old grocery store . . . There's one thing I think would be well to restore . . . The spirit of friendship, so folks once again . . . Will know their own neighbors and fellowmen . . . Slow down, be generous and have time to give . . . Spare life with others and learn how to live . . . In today's modern grocery there's one thing it lacks . . . The selling of fellowship, in cartons and sacks.

It is again time for school bells and the hurry and scurry of getting in the swing again. We hope you all had a pleasant summer and we will be looking for you at our first meeting. Our Worthy Matron had a mishap and is wearing a splint on her little finger. We would also like very much to see many of you on Friends Night. It is a good time to be a friend and help greet our friends.

Welcome back! Whether you Europe, sunned in Hawaii or your own backyard, we happy and well-rested.
At our last meeting in June we honored with an official visit of District Deputy Pat Chausse. As song goes, "May You Always" your way back to visit with us, Pat. Her nice words of praise our officers, who inspirationally their first initiatory work, what we the sideliners this group. A large "S" service, the third letter in the "hospitality," stood in the West and that's what we've learned to these officers. We are looking forward to the remainder of their year.

We hope everyone has had a restful and interesting summer vacation and are now looking forward to the activities of the comlog season.

Our Assembly resumes its schedule on September 5 with a potluck super at the Temple. Bring your covered dishes, your table service, and your appetites.

Our next Rummage Sale will be October 31, so be sure to save your cast-offs as you do your Fall cleaning.

The winner of the Buffalo Hunt was Mary Louise Shafer.

The Beauceant picnic was July 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Miller. A big Thank-You is extended to the Knight's Templar Band who played for the large number present.

Illness and distress of members:
Mrs. Don Thrasher, Mrs. Stanley R.
Putman, Mrs. Eugene Roush, Mrs.
Clara Vance, Mrs. Everett Miles and Mrs. Phillip McCague.

band of Mrs. Wm. Donnelly, brother-in-law of Mrs. Putman, step-father of Mrs. Albert Uogger, sister of Mrs.
Maynard Cope, and father of Mrs.
Wayne Kruse.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Robert Beck upon the death of her husband, the Rev. Robert Beck; to Mrs. Charles Masel who lost her father-in-law; and to Mickey upon the death of his sister.

Heartiest congratulations to Mrs.
Kenneth Weaver who has a new baby, to Mrs. Alfred Sebell who has a new grandchild, and to Mrs. Maynard Cope who has a new daughter, Cathy Ann, who was 5½ years old when she came to live with them.

Best wishes to Thelma and John Kaysen who were married August 6.

Several officers and members of our Assembly are planning to attend the Supreme Assembly of the Social Order of the Beauceant, which will be held in San Diego, California the last week in September. Since these sisters will not be back in town by October 3, which is the date of the first Stated Meeting in October, the Assembly Hall will be dark for this meeting only.

Summer clinging to each vice Wanting to stay,
Autumn breezes whispering
"It's time you went away."
What a magic time... September
When the summer and the fall
Combine to make a season Enjoyable for all.

With summer behind us and Autumn at the front door Anthony Wayne Court will have a carry-in dinner at its first meeting for the fall on Sept. 6th. Fall flowers will be used for the decorations. Yes, it's time to start back to Court and its many activities.

The Supreme Council was held in Pittsburgh, Pa. in June and was attended by H.L. Mary Wilson of Anthony Wayne Court and H.L.
Florence Geiger and S.K. William Maxwell of Truth Court. It was a session of "Goodwill and Understanding." The Supreme Royal Matron, Sue Ramsey, has as her motto "The Lord is my light and my salvation," her watchword is "Courage," her flower is the "Orchid" and her colors are "Pink and Orchid."

Several members of Anthooy
Wayne Court attended the school of Instruction held at the Fowler Hotel of Lafayette, Ind. On July 23rd the court picnic was held at Franke Park. A large group assembled and reported a good time even though the thunderstorms almost drowned out the food and fortune teller, Esme-ralde.

During the summer various groups held their meetings. The Morning Glories met at the home of H.L. Nell Scott of Peru. The Wananams met at the Earl Beard cottage at Eagle Lake, Mich. The Lamplighters will meet at the home of H.L. Mary Alice Newlin, Sept. 17th at Carmel, Ind. We are sorry to lose H.L. Fredia Brooks, but wish her lots of happiness in her new home in Nevada.

Illness Reported by the Cheer Chairman: during the dark months of July and August were as follows:
H.L. Pearl Helmer at Lutheran Hospital, H.L. Marie Stepheos at Lutheran Hospital and H.L. Inez Thrasher at Parkview Hospital. Illness in Families: Father of H.L.
Margaret Anderson at Bluffton Clinic and sister of H.L. Inez Thrasher.
Deaths in Families: Husband of H.L.
Lana Place, husband of H.L. Mildred
Walden, father-in-law of G.R.M.
Waneta Newby.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS:
Aug. 27th Officer's Club will hold a picnic at the Biddle cottage at Big Long Lake.

Sept. 5th, Ways and Means group at the home of H.L. Doris Thieboldt, 5921 Decatur Road, H.L. Alice Reece
as co-hostess at 8 p.m.

Sept. 6th, Carry-in dinner and
stated meeting.

Sept. 11th, Cheer Committee will meet at the home of H.L. Thelma Adams, 3225 Webster St. at 1:30 p.m.
Sept. 11th, The Program Committee will meet at 8:00 p.m.

Sept. 19th, The Past Matron's Club will meet at the home of H.L. Edith Skelly, 925 Edgewater Ave. at 8:00 p.m.

Sept. 20, Stated Meeting.
Sept. 26th The Social committee will meet at 8:00 p.m., place to be announced.

Some good and well-worthwhile meetings are coming up. Attend Court and help the officers by giving them your support.

If today has brought you trials,
And perhaps a bit of sorrow Aren't you glad in just a while There'll be a new tomorrow?

And aren't you glad For grace that makes
Your troubles all seem lighter
And for Faith, that future days
Will be happier and brighter?

From east and west, north and south, and backyards vacationers are returning untanned and relaxed — telephones are ringiing—members are being alerted to the responsibilities and duties that lie ahead in the fall activities of the court.

September 13, potluck, stated meeting and short practice.

Sept. 17, picnic Maxwell's cottage, Jimmerson Lake.

was in an accident near Lebanon and is in serious condition at Indiana University Medical Center.

H.L. Louise Wilkerson received a very bad burn on her leg while removing a roast from the oven at her sons home.

H.L. Beth Smith is still recuperating from her recent.

To these we wish the very best for speedy recoveries.

A brief resume for good of the order.

Since June issue S.K. Edgar De Forest was installed as a Grand Representative by Past Grand Royal Patron, Alfred Schell in our Court.
Both are from Anthony Wayne Ct.
No. 3. H.L. Mary Beaman was installed as Faith by the Royal Patron S.K. Oliver Boldt, this was to fill a vacancy for the remainder of the year.

Receptions were held throughout the state for Grand Court line officers. School of instruction held at Lafayette was well attended. Members from both courts enjoyed picnic at Moores' cottage on Crooked Lake, and pavilion No. 2, Foster Park.
Several from Indiana attended Supreme Sessioo at Pittsburgh.

Incidentally, the poem at the beginning was used by the Grand Royal Joyce siding Marshall.

Joyce and Mary McCosky, Mrs.
Florence McCoskey, Mrs. Elma
Stevenson, Mrs. Ruth Flagg and Mrs.
Helen Eby will be installed our first meeting, Sept. 6.

Girls, we have a husy month coming up this September. September 20th is our Banquet and Inspection.
Reservations must be in by Sept. 16.
Tickets are $1.00 for the Daughters and $1.25 for the adults. The Banquet is going to be different this time, so lets have a nice turnout.
Call me or Mrs. Simmers to make your reservations.

Girls, don't forget our Hayride, September 23. Rides start at 6:30 to 10:30, tickets are $1.00 per person and they will be available at all the schools and at the meetings. It promises to be different for the fact that the latest records will be given away. I hope to have a real nice crowd for this.

School vacations are drawing to a close. Therefore, we will all be getting back into the harness once again for our school studies and our DeMolay work.

Speaking of DeMolay work, much of it took place during the month of June and the first two days of July at the State Conclave. All who were unable to attend missed a wonderful affair which will remain unforgettable by all those who were able to attend.

It is impossible to thank each personally who contributed to the huge success of the State DeMolay Conclave. It took a good many hours, days and nights of hard work. We could not have had the Conclave but for each and every one of you. Thanks Again.

I think the City of Fort Wayne can be proud of its Chapter of DeMolay.

Of course, we can not leave out the DeMolay Sweethearts of each Chapter, who attended the Conclave. They added to the color and beauty and each is a real Sweetheart.

We officers are looking forward to a full and successful term, with the aid of each DeMolay member lending a hand of assistance where needed. If each will give some time and effort, and bring in the petitions of the boys wanting to come into fellowship with us, we will be able to enlarge our Chapter.

There will be the usual fall activities coming up and when you hear of them, Please make an effort to attend.

See you in Chapter.

THE ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE

One underlying purpose of the Plan of Masonry is to make it possible for the individual to have a greater knowledge of his own being. All things in life relate to self.

That the wisdom of Masonry in stressing the value of the individual is needed more today than ever before must be apparent to all.

There is a trend to label people; to form men into this camp or that camp; to join this team or that team, and thus to abolish individuality.

The fears, real or imaginary, are repeated and repeated. We are constantly warned, admonished, and reminded.

In the midst of everything, we must find time for quiet contemplation. Some of the things which would overwhelm us may not be so important when we face them with confidence and quiet courage.

We stifle the flow of life itself when we forget that life is something that we must create, and that we cannot find happiness by being swept about by the tides of fear and ignorance.

Whatever we do, we must consult our own hearts and minds.

Man's birthright is a very personal gift.—Masonic Messenger.

THE GATES OF THE TEMPLE

In the system of Freemasonry the Temple of Solomon is represented as having a gate on the east, west and south sides, but none on the north. In reference to the historical Temple of Jerusalem such a representation is wholly incorrect. In the walls of the building there were no places of entrance except the door of the porch. But in the surrounding courts there were gates at every point of the compass.

The Masonic idea of the Temple is, however, entirely symbolic. The Temple is in the Speculative Mason only a symbol, not an historical building; and the gates are imaginary and symbolic also. They are, in the first place, symbols of the progress of the sun in its daily course, rising in the east, culminating to the meridian in the south, and setting in the west. They are also, in the allegory of life which it is the object of the Third degree to illustrate—symbol of the three stages of youth, manhood, and old age, or, more properly, of birth, life, and death.

—Masonry Defined

FOR THIS WE THANK THEE LORD

No man lives for himself alone. Divine law decrees that each life should touch the next on down through the ages, so that the good men do compound and the evil reduced to nothingness. If there was harshness in the Pilgrims' way of life, there were also spiritual strength and beauty, and these also have come down to us. If selfishness and narrowness limited the spirits of the Fathers, their vision and their love, liberty were unlimited, and these have come to be our own. If in hearts and minds of our leaders there has been ambition for place and power, there was also faith in a country's future, love for its institutions, respect for its standards. The too, have come down to us. Through the years this rich inheritance of courage, faith and power has been ours. This compound of good has enriched and beautified our lives.

TRAINING MASONS

The Oklahoma Masons should never consider the acquisition of membership as of primary importance because by tradition and example, based upon law and usage, one of the very fundamental of Masonry is the prohibition against solicitation. Masonic influence in community is not based primarily upon numbers, but rather it is represented by the quality of its leadership. The value of Masonic membership is gauged by the conduct, dedication and contribution of its individual members.

The fundamental functions of lodge should be the training of members in an understanding of the truths and ethical values of the brotherhood. All of its ceremonies rituals emphasize the proposition inculcating the desire to become benevolent men, instructed in the social virtues of human relationship, to imprint indelibly upon the hearts and minds of its members their duty to propagate the ideals of the art.

The success of a Masonic Lodge cannot be gauged by the membership stick of its membership roll or by the accumulation of funds, "for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things he possesseth."

The chief concern of a Masonic lodge should be the welfare and happiness and the development of its members. The activation of the high principles of human virtue result in a fellowship so closely twined together and so firmly dedicated to making alive the beauties of our ritual and the fundamental truths that are taught at the altars of our symbolic lodges.

The value of a Masonic lodge to the community in which it lives consists entirely in the operative art of Masonry as practiced through the influence of those whom it has helped, to train into what we recognize as Masonic character.

The most important function of a Masonic lodge therefore is to train its members and keep them informed in the arts and history, philosophy and symbolism of Masonry, and the endeavor of a Mason's life and conduct.

COMMANDERY
No. 4 K.T.

Stated Conclave

Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 is well represented at the National Triennial Conclave of Knights Templar in Cleveland, Ohio. In attendance were Past Commanders Brown Cooper, Harry W. Haller, Grey Wagner, James P. Johnston and Schuble C. Boggs, your present commander, the entire Drill Corps and the Commandery Band.

The Fort Wayne Commandery Band, under the direction of S.K. Russell T. Wharton, served as the "Indiana State Knights Templar Band" representing all of the Knights Templar of Indiana. On Saturday afternoon, August 12th, the band played a concert in the lobby of the Sheraton Hotel, conclave headquarters. Saturday evening the Band, under the leadership of Drum Major John Kurtz, led the Indiana delegation in the Grand Triennial Templars Parade in which more than three thousand Knights in full uniform participated.

The parade was beautiful and impressive as the various drill teams, including our own, formed the Passion Cross, Triangle and other drill movements as they marched down Euclid Avenue in the heart of Cleveland.

The Fort Wayne Commandery Drill Corps, under the direction of Em. S.K. Harry W. Haller, by virtue of winning first place in competitive precision drilling at Terre Haute in May, represented Indiana in the national competition on Monday afternoon, August 14th, in the "B" (twenty-one man) Team competition. The team had practiced hard all summer, often three evenings a week, and they never looked better than they did on the floor in Cleveland.

At this writing we only know that the Fort Wayne Drill Team did not place among the top four but placed well. The team really looked like it belonged in there with the nation's best teams. Every member of Fort Wayne Commandery should be as proud of our Drill Team and Drill Captain, Harry Haller, as your Commander.

Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 this year sent six boys to Camp Crosley during the week of July 31- August 6. S.K. Harold O. Martin, in charge of the Camp Crosley Project for our Commandery, reported that the boys had a very enjoyable week. Sir Knight Harold personally took the boys to camp and returned them. We wish to thank everybody who contributed anything at all for this purpose. We especially wish to thank Miss Irene Beman who contributed the necessary funds to send two boys to summer camp as a memorial to her late brother, Sir Knight Belmont Beman.

The Third Battalion School of Instruction will be held in our asylum on the fifth floor of the Temple on Tuesday, September 19th at 7:30 p.m. All Commandery officers and Drill Corps members are expected to be in attendance. All other interested Sir Knights are welcome. Battalion Commander S.K. Harold Hoolihan, Grand Junior Warden, will be the instructing officer.

Beginning with the first week of September we will buckle down in earnest in practicing our ritual work. S.K. Roger Shafer, Senior Warden, is in charge of the Order of the Red Cross; S.K. Phil McCague, Captain General, is in charge of the Order of Malta and S.K. Jack Walker, Generalissimo, the Order of the Temple. Casting will be early in September and rehearsals on Tuesday and Thursday evenings 7:30-9:30 p.m. Any Sir Knight interested in taking an active part in the conferring of the Orders of the Commandery is invited to come to the fifth floor lounge room at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, September 5th.

It is cheaper to build a new nursing home than to remodel a fine old house. A single room and bath, with all the usual facilities, can run as high as $150 a week; but there is a tax consideration which helps out those who are supporting aged parents in these institutions. Nursing homes surely provide a needed service.

The above discussion should receive careful attention on the part of bankers, businessmen, investors, and even the average reader of my column. One thing should be remembered, however. Namely, that although President Kennedy and others are seeking more funds for the aged, I repeat that the "middle" group of people (between 25 and 55 years of age) must, for the next few years, not only pay directly for their own children's and parent's support, but also pay the taxes to build and equip educational structures, nursing homes, etc., and provide for greatly increased public assistance.

SHOULD WE ANSWER CRITICS?

The Mason is taught that he must not enter into argument with the uninformed. It is, in fact, impossible to communicate with those whose minds are closed.

In truth, we answer our critics in no uncertain terms when we carry on the work of Masonry.

When the cry of the widow and orphan is not heard in vain, we answer our critics.

When we shelter, educate, and love a child at our Masonic Home, we answer our critics.

When we help a brother in distress, we answer our critics.

When we meet in lodge as brothers, united by our common obligations to God, our Country, and to neighbor, we answer our critics.

When we point to the part that Masonry had in the formation of our government, we answer the critics.

When we speak out clearly on matters that concern the general welfare of society, we answer our critics.

When we gather about the final resting place of a departed brother to show that "The Mystic Tie of Masonry" is not broken at death, we answer our critics.

When we wear the Square and Compasses proudly and with the consciousness of all that it means and has meant in the long struggle of man to walk in dignity unafraid, we answer our critics.

To live Masonry is to answer our critics.

—Masonic Messenger.

DO YOU EVER VISIT A SICK MEMBER?

Do you ever realize what a kindly act it is to visit a sick brother? All day long he lies helpless upon his bed, brooding over his condition.

He seems cut off from all activities of life, he is apart from the world. His universe is bounded by the walls of his sick room. The very things that keep him interested in life are kept from him.

The day is a thousands hours long, a thousand gray, slow dragging hours, filled with sombre thoughts and perhaps pain. Footsteps and voices pass and carry not. The voices sound distant, they speak of things he no longer knows. It seems to him that they are the voices of those he once called friends, but they do not stop for a friendly word with him. He is forgotten. The hours seem ever so long and gloomier. "How sad it is," he thinks, "that as soon as I step out of sight my friends have forgotten my existence. Why should I live in a selfish world where no man thinks of another. In these long lonely hours I learn the hollow emptiness of man's professions of friendship."

And then, just as his thoughts have the lowest level of grayness, the door opens, a ray of light flashes upon him, a burst of sweetest music strikes his ears, your smile envelopes him, your cheerful voice cries, "Hello, old man, how are you?"

Doctors! Medicines! Nurses! Why, one good cheerful call from you is worth a thousand of them. Did you ever think of it?

It's no sin to go motoring on Sunday, but the way some people drive is a crime.

BABSON DISCUSSES OUR SENIOR CITIZENS

Babson Park, Mass. The latest census figures show that the number of people over 55 years of age has increased about 25% compared with the head count taken ten years previously. While this gain is not as rapidly as the 50% increase in the number of teen-agers, it is substantially ahead of the "middle" age group between 25 and 55 years old, which has about held its own.

TREND IN OLDER AGE POPULATION

The combination of growth in total population and lengthening life span means, that the number of people over 55 years of age is likely to continue to increase. More important than is the progress of medical and biological science.

In the above connection, let me say that I.B.M. is working on the theory that, if arteriosclerosis and cancer can be controlled, older people might live to 120 years or more! Several drug companies are working on polymers, D.N.A.'s and R.N.A.'s (the latter initials are used in place of involved chemical terms) which have a close relationship to life. I will write further of this in some later week.

INCREASING PURCHASING POWER

The growth of this segment of the population means that in the future this group will exert a greater influence upon the nation's economy. I might add, upon the political picture also. Thus, even though their per capita spending has not risen commensurate with their growth in numbers, the aggregate spending of older people will rise.

Because of the long prosperity of the past two decades, the older folks may have more of a backlog of purchasing power. Savings in the form of insurance, annuities, securities, and pension funds are at all-time highs. To these can be added the more liberal social security payments and other forms of "transfer payments." The trend of legislation would seem to indicate more public old-age assistance in the future.

SENIOR CITIZENS AND GENERAL BUSINESS

Unlike the teen-agers, the necessities of life required by older people are more moderate. Nevertheless, certain food companies are tailoring a number of products to the needs of the geriatrics. Older people do consume large quantities of soft drinks, fruits, and fruit juices. Perhaps their biggest needs are for medical and dental supplies, eye glasses, hearing aids, and inexpensive "informal" clothing. Sporting goods lines (including bowling, golf, and fishing) and hobby supplies should experience higher demand. Tourist and vacation regions, and businesses incidental thereto, will enjoy their trade.

People quickly become bored with retirement. Therefore, I forecast that businesses supplying "Do-it-yourself" tools, seeds and gardening implements, and cameras and photographic equipment should find a good market in these senior citizens. Also, demand for radios, phonographs and records, and television sets will benefit; as will sales of greeting cards.

OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE AS WELL AS PROFIT

Profits from the older age group will come largely through nursing homes. Builders tell me that the greatest increase in their business is in the building of nursing homes. At present, some large houses are coming onto the market for possible use as such, but under present laws

My Brethren, we are starting off with a very quick and busy schedule this month of September. You will be receiving cards on the called meetings. I would like to see some real interest from all of the officers and members as we start our fall schedule. God has given to man a mind that can be directed by man. If a mason does not grow in masonic knowledge and use it for the betterment of his life, he, in my opinion is wasting a part that God has given to him. May we ever strive for higher goals in our understanding of masonry.

Mrs. Jesse Masters, Worthy Matron for our Eastern Stars, has advised me that they are fresh and ready to start again after a very pleasant and short summer. In September a Next to New Sale will be held at the Masonic Hall in Leo on the 22nd. Anyone having items may call Mrs. Robert Hedges at T-8471 or Mrs. Clair Reed at Leo 2985.

Plans are in the making for a visit from our District Deputy on October 11.

The work season is now upon us and we've had all summer to polish up for our fall degree work. At our September meeting we'll prepare for our Lodge of Instruction held Oct. 2nd at 7:30 at Decatur. Everyone should plan to attend this meeting which is intended to increase the Masonic education of all its members.

We are planning a Past Masters and Distinguished Service night in November and it would be greatly appreciated if any of the brethren who recall any outstanding service performed by any of your old huddies would please drop a line to Brother Jesse or myself.

Last meeting I gave a short summary of the events and results of the meetings at Grand Lodge. One of the items stressed more than the others was the Masonic Home. Perhaps a few of you do not realize it, but we have one of the finest homes and facilities of this sort in the world. But it is a constant struggle to obtain funds to maintain this high level. Also, if additional funds were available, another building at the home could be converted for housing more of our distressed worthy brethren. Please give a little thought to your obligations as a Mason and support our charitable institution. If every Mason in Indiana would give one or two dollars every year just think of the joy and relief it would bring.

Fellas, today has been another of those days. It also has come to the time that I must take my pen (typewriter) in hand, again, and attempt to heat out a column. Summertime. I can easily figure out how the Columnists and writers earn their money. It is the rough way. June was a month of no activity in the Lodge with the exception of Stated meeting. July is the same. We will vote on one petition for transfer into our Lodge and one petition for degrees will be presented at the August meeting. As it will be vacation time for me, the August stated meeting will be in the able hands of our Senior Warden, Lyle Tustison.

Brother Werner, who is helping out at Cape Canaveral, was a recent visitor and was able to see a number of the members while in town. Seems like sickness is dogging the Lodge. Brother John Young is back in Parkview Hospital for a serious major operation and from the good reports that I have received, he is on the way to the road of recovery, although it will be a long, weary and toilsome journey. We send John the luck and good wishes of all the members and want to pass on to him that our thoughts are certainly with him. Brother Don Stark is another who seems to be having his troubles and seems to be "on again, off again" when it comes to the sick list. Also, Brother Gene Stark is on the ailing list. Seems as though Gene is being bothered by a bad back and trouble with his arches, making it very difficult for him to get around. He is back working at the present time. I am glad to be able to report that Harold Eddy and Rolla Durbin have recovered, are back to work and are able to attend Lodge meetings. Certainly good to see all of the fellows back.

The vacations make a large dent in our summer attendance in our stated meetings and would like to remind everybody that their presence is appreciated as well as most of us being able to learn another Masonic lesson, or two. September is just around the corner, bringing with it another Holiday, beginning of the year, called meetings and work, then another month and joint inspection with Monroeville.

The New Haven OES have purchased more equipment and it is hoped that we can rededicate the Lodge Hall. A letter about this has been mailed to all of our members and I hope that you will feel able to help out on it. As pointed out, every little bit helps, no matter how small. Good Luck and see you at a meeting.

LIGHT OF FREEMASONRY
(Masonic Tidings)

What, then, is the light of Freemasonry? It is composed of many beams, which, like the colors of the rainbow, united give forth the pure white beams. The three primary colors, as we may call them, are Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

Truth is of great importance, for every brother should be a true man, square in his conduct, upright in all his actions. He who regulates his life according to the Masonic line and rule will walk justly and uprightly before God and man, neither turning to the right nor left from the paths of virtue. The essence of truth is to be true to one's self, true to one's neighbor, and to our God. And if a man is said to be a Freemason the world should know that he is one whose tongue is kept from evil, and his life speaks no guile.

Brethren, it is our proud boast that this ray shines forth bright and clear from all lodges, and that in to be a Freemason is, as it were, a hallmark of integrity. May it ever continue to be as long as the Fraternity exists.

MASONIC KEY

In the early rituals of the last century, the tongue is called the key to the secrets of a Mason. One of the boasts that was given in the Lodge was in these words: "In that key of a Mason's tongue, which is always in speak as well in the sense of a Brother as in his presence and when that cannot be done honor, justice, or propriety, and the virtue of a Mason, which silence."—Exchange.

While Materials: Acts 15:22-41; 18:19-40; 17:1-14; 18:35; 1 Thessalonians 1:1; 1 Peter 3:12
Devotional Reading: Philippians 1:3-11

Second Fiddle

SOME people are born to be second fiddles. This is no disgrace. In an orchestra it is no disgrace to play with the second violins. Every symphony is written for all instruments, not the first violins only. The second violins, the cellos, the bass fiddles, do not mention all the other kinds of instruments. — the composer has them all in mind.

Dr. Foreman

So it is with the people who, so to speak, play second fiddle; all their lives. They may not sit in the front row and they may not play the principal melody, but we cannot do without them. The true music of life must have them.

—and Silas... Silas and...

There was a man named Silas, who is mentioned a number of times in the New Testament; but never mentioned alone. He is always somebody's companion, always a member of a team. It is "Paul and Silas," "Judas and Silas," "Silas and Timothy" ("Silvanus" in 1 Thess. 1:1 is the same name, like William and Bill); even when Silas is mentioned alone, as he is by Saint Peter, he is helping some one else. Apparently you never thought of Silas without thinking of some one else too. Now this is nothing against him. He was simply a second-fiddle man. He was no soloist, but the music the early church played, so to speak, would have missed something of importance if he had not been playing. Sometimes football or other athletic teams will vote for the player "most valuable to the team." This one is very seldom the man the public watches for and hears most about.

Hero and Leader

Being second-fiddle, or supporting actor, or team-mate or whatever you call it, does not mean that one leaves great accomplishments to others. The second fiddle's work is cut out for him and the conductor of the orchestra expects to hear him. So it was with this Silas. The early Christians recognized him as a leader; indeed that is the way he is introduced at the first mention of his name. Furthermore, he was called a "prophet," which does not mean a reader of tea leaves or crystal balls, it means an inspired preacher. Other members learned the will of God through listening to him. Besides this, he could be a hero when the time came. His name will always be remembered alongside that of Paul in the incident at Philippi, when they were both beaten and thrown into jail; it was no surprise the prisoners heard at midnight it was a dust, Paul and Silas both in the midst of that ugly place sang their hymns together.

Indispensable Man

In one sense, nobody is indispensable. Everybody dies sooner or later, therefore those who are left behind can, if they have to, get along without him. But when we speak of indispensable men we mean men we don't intend to go along without, unless we have to. When Barnabas and Paul split up, Paul had to have some one, he needed a helper. If Silas was less impressive than Barnabas (as he was, to be sure, for nobody ever mistook Silas for the king of the rods, as they mistook Barnabas once) at any rate Paul needed him. On one occasion Paul simply would go no farther on his important journey until Silas and Timothy could catch up with him and they could all go on together. When Saint Peter set out to write a letter he needed some one to help him, and Silas was the man. Peter did not have to mention Silas' name, but he wanted all the readers to know it was Silas who helped him. So the reader of the Bible who is helped by this letter of Peter may be thankful for the man Silas; the same thing is true of 1 Thessalonians. For the obscure who help the great, we give thanks!

It has been very pleasing to see the attendance we had for September and it was a very busy month for Home Lodge. I only hope the rest of the year will be just like it. In the month of October we have one petition to vote on. October 10th which will be on our Entered Apprentice degree night we will honor our members who are eligible for their 25 year pins. Our Secretary, David Mills will send those that are eligible a letter to that effect. Dinner will be in the dining room at 6:30 p.m. and for them that has already received their award I hope you will be present to congratulate our 25 year award members. We will have a guest speaker after which we will return to the lodge room where the lectures will be given on the entered apprentice degree.

On October 11 will be our Lodge of Instructions held jointly with Wayne Lodge No. 25 at 7:30 p.m. which will be on the Fellow Craft Degree. Our next big event will be our annual Family Nite which will be held Saturday, November 11th. Be sure and mark your calendar for this nite.

As for the Sick and Shut-ins, I wish them a speedy recovery.

In the EA degree the candidate is made aware that the Masonic Fraternity is based on belief in one God as the maker of all things and as the Father of all mankind. Thus, we are in fact, one people, regardless of geography or race.

Admit this truth and you must admit we have a responsibility to do our bit to improve our local community and ultimately the world community.

Admit this truth and we must then recognize that it is our duty to help achieve order, promote justice and bring about peace. Admit this truth and we will live a more orderly life, practice charity and do our best to, by work and example, bring peaceful change and improvement. Admit this truth and we must admit that it is our job to help bring about a quickening of the moral sense so that law and order will prevail not only in our local community but in the broad expanses of the national community and also in the broader expanses of the world community.

But you may say, "I'm just one person." Note this—group action is but a number of individuals acting in concert. So as Masons we might well heed the slang of the teen-ager—"Get with it." Edwin Markham summed it up when he said, "There is a destiny that makes us brothers; none goes his way alone."

Our fraternity is preparing for a lodge of instruction to be held jointly with Three Rivers on October 12 at 7:30 p.m. The officers of the two Lodges will meet for dinner prior to the meeting. The MM degree will be exemplified with the Assistant Grand Lecturer present. Here will be an opportunity for increasing your Masonic knowledge as well as fellowship.

We anticipate degree work during the month of October. Be with us.

Our fall season got off to a good start on Sept. 5th when our play was presented at LaFontaine lodge to a capacity audience. All of the members of the cast did an outstanding job. We received another petition at the stated meeting on Sept. 12th and perhaps we will remain active for some time to come. I am looking forward to seeing many of you again at the M.M. dinner on Oct. 3rd at 6:30 p.m.

We visited at the veterans hospital on Sept. 18th and had another good turn out. Remember the date of Nov. 6th for our last visitation for this year. Bro. Fisher has again started his series of lectures on Masonic education and presented a very informative talk at the September stated meeting. He will speak again on October 10th.

I hope you are planning to attend the Smorgasbord and dance on Oct. 21st. We urge you to secure your reservations at once to enable us to plan accurately. Tom Franklin is the ticket chairman. You may obtain tickets from him or any officer, or call me and I will deliver them personally. Joe Taylor and The Indiana Red Birds will be there to furnish the music. This group are recording stars, and are heard each Saturday noon on radio station W.G.L.

I am glad that our lodge was well represented at the open house at the Masonic Home, and I wish to thank all who attended.

We were pleased to receive correspondence from P.M. Cyrus D. Senger who has been ill most of the summer. He reports that he is slowly gaining his health back. Glad to hear from you Bro. Senger and we send you our best wishes and best regards. Bro. Huffman reported that to his knowledge no one else is on the sick list at this time. We hope that it will remain so.

In closing may I remind you that our lodge will meet each Tuesday until you read this column again and that the play will be presented on Oct. 20 and 27.

The officers of your Lodge hope that all of you fine Maumee members have had a pleasant summer and good vacation.

With the arrival of the fall season Maumee is busy with the making of 2 new Master Masons during September and with more degree work during October.

Brother Fred Peters and his visitation members called on the Vets Hospital recently. There were many fine people to call on, to talk to and to visit in a friendly way. Please let your officers know of any sick members no matter where they are—we want to call on them and visit them if we can.

We are sorry to report to you the loss of 2 more good Masons of Maumee. During August our Lodge lost Brother Eldon Bell and now in September we have lost Brother Harry Johnson.

It is very noticeable the fine work and time given to Maumee by some of its Past Masters. It makes no difference whether its a funeral, degree work or heading up a committee you are likely to find Brothers Gingham, Bill Schwartz, Gene Christ, Dick English, Shirley Schick and others with a very big hand—thanks to all of you, we appreciate your good efforts.

Our Lodge will hold a Lodge Inspection on the MM degree by association with Sol D. Bayless Lodge on Friday, October 13th. Please show up if there are any particular parts of any of you wish to take. We will be very glad to see you at your participation.

One fine Brother who has made so much good work for Maumee—Brother Don Friedly at 1400 Columbia Avenue is recovering from an operation. See you in a month soon. Our good tyler Bro. Bill Lower is now home from hospital and receiving visitors at home, 4037 South Hanna. Call and send cards to these fine Brothers who have done so much for Maumee.

Maumee will be glad to see you and all of you fine Brothers—on up and visit or participate in work—see you in Lodge.

Did you drop a word of kinship as you walked life's way today? Is some brother's heart made lighter by a smile you sent his way? Did you help to lift the burden of a friend who was in need? Showing tenderness and compassion by each loving word and deed? Did you cheer and comfort by a kind soft spoken word? Bringing them a little nearer to sweet forgiving Lord?

As we all get into the routine of the fall season, let's forget to be over mindful of around us and make a special effort to do as suggested above. With autumn upon us and winter around the corner, I hope all of you have a note to reserve Thursday to come to lodge. We were due September, but we have two for the month of October.

On August 23, we had the fortune of losing Walter E. Kasper who passed on to his eternal home. Walter was a very active member and will be greatly missed.

As mentioned last month, September 17 was Visitation Day at the Masonic Home at Franklin. It was a very sorry many more of you Remember brothers, October 2 is the day Lodge ought at the Veterans' Hospital. It will be our first visit this year so let's all go out and join our effort. I would also like to see our sick brothers a speedy recovery.

On October 11 we will join Home Lodge for lodge of instructions. We will be exemplifying the Fellowcraft degree. There will be a dinner served October 26, the fourth Thursday. Following dinner, the past masters will be invited to put on the degree work. There will also be two 50 yr. awards to be given during the evening. If this date isn't already on your calendar, be sure to circle it in red as a reminder to join us for this fruitful evening.

Lastly, I wish to again remind you of our dinner-dance on November 1. This is our one big annual event of the year and cannot be brought to attention too often. I wish to close with this poem which only further exemplifies the thought at our opening . . .

A smile is quite a funny thing.
It wrinkles up your face,
When it's gone you'll never find
Its secret hiding place.
It's far more wonderful it is To see what smiles can do,
A smile at one, he smiles at you
And so one smile makes two.

October finds us in the midst of our Fall work and we expect to see you brothers at our Monday night meetings assisting us in our work. The temperature should be down from the highs we experienced in September.

Tuesday evening, October 10th, Allen Bennett, Assistant Grand Lecturer, will hold a Lodge for Instructions in the Hall of Summit City Lodge No. 170, F&AM, at which time both South Gate and Summit City Lodges will apply the Master Mason Degree. We welcome the presence of any of our Brethren to witness the proceedings.

Also Brethren mark the night of December 16th. This is the night for our annual Family Night Dinner. This is the night when you bring the entire family down for the dinner and the entertainment, all free of course.

We are happy that Brother Romane Cole is making a good recovery from his illness. Brother Romane was vacationing in Florida when stricken. May we take this opportunity to congratulate the Coles on their new son who was born on their wedding anniversary.

We want to thank the Brethren for their fine attendance at our September Stated Meeting. The business of a Lodge is decided by a majority of the members present but too often in the past few months have been present. We hope that you will continue to attend our meetings and give us your support by taking an active part in the discussions. We were particularly happy with the attendance of so many of our Past Masters. Keep coming.

Now Brothers I want to talk about something which has not been publicized too much, as yet, for very good reasons. You have read in the papers involved. The only question asked is "Cao you earn the wages you ask."

Remember brethren, our first visitation to the Veterans' Hospital is Oct. 9th. Mark this date on your calendar, and resolve to be with us when we visit these unfortunate veterans. They greatly appreciate our visits, and I know that you will feel better for having given an hour of your time to cheer and encourage them.

Our annual Homecoming is set for Oct. 27th. You will receive in the mail the usual announcement, also a card advising us whether you will attend. It is very important that you return this card to us immediately. By return of these cards, it will enable us to plan accordingly. An enjoyable evening is in store for you. The following brethren are eligible to receive the 50-year award of gold, and I am hopeful of having our Most Worshipful Grand Master Harold S. Jackson with us to make this presentation. Presto H. Somers, P.M., Frank J. Janorschke, G. Walter Craig, and Homer E. Glock.

We have been advised by our Grand Lecturer that our inspection will be Oct. 10th and will be held with South Gate Lodge. Make a note of this and arrange to attend.

We have only one brother that was confined in a hospital, Bro. Fred McIntyre at the Lutheran. I am happy to announce that Bro. Fred is now at home and getting along very nicely.

Our Secretary is inquiring regarding the whereabouts of Bro. Harold F. Lallow. If there is any member who knows his address or where he can be contacted, please inform Bro. Myers.

We hope that you will continue to attend our meetings and give us your support by taking an active part in the discussions. We were particularly happy with the attendance of so many of our Past Masters. Keep coming.

Now Brothers I want to talk about something which has not been publicized too much, as yet, for very good reasons. You have read in the papers about the removal of a general in Germany on charges that he was instructing the troops in areas which were against regulations. Yet he was given no hearing or was a court martial ordered. We have some members in Congress of both parties who are attempting to learn the facts about this matter. So far the people responsible of his action against the general have not been identified and the Defense Department refuses to give out this information. The general was charged with instructing his troops as to who our enemies are and the methods in which they operate.

We have seen the great trees which have stood for long years against the storms and elements only to be killed by tiny insects boring from within. From many sources it seems clear that within our Defense Department as well as many of the other departments of our government there are individuals who hold responsible positions who are not working for the preservation of the United States and what it stands for. No matter how strong our weapons or forces we can be destroyed from within.

As Freemasons it is our duty to support any investigation which will bring light on anyone working against our best interests. Therefore, as Freemasons we should contact our people in Congress and urge support of these investigations. Freemasons were in a large measure responsible in winning our precious freedom in the War of the Revolution and it is our duty to preserve our freedom. It will not be easy because a campaign of character assassination will be waged against anyone attempting to expose these people. These people are prepared to stop in any manner anyone attempting to spread anti-communism. In former years these people were principally engaged in stealing our secrets but now it appears that learning from experience what smears and lies can do to public figures they have planned programs to deal with anyone interfering with their efforts.

Therefore, my Brethren, let us be observant and demand that these investigations be carried out. Let us examine any smears against our representatives in Congress and make sure that we are not being taken in as they intend that we should. There will probably be great publicity given to these charges by responsible newspapers who either are being used or in some cases follow such a line of policy. Money will buy many sources of advertising. Our duty is in the preservation of our Nation because this Nation depends upon Freemasonry and Freemasonry depends upon a Free Nation.

Truth, is one of our tenets. Let us seek out the truth in all matters. Let us search in the Great Light which shines from our altars. Let us be worthy of the title of Free Masons. Above all let us be diligent and always defend our liberty and our country. Let us pray to God for wisdom, strength and courage to do the things he has proscribed for us and to thank Him for all of the blessings that are ours to enjoy.

Anyone can carry his burden, however hard, until nightfall. Anyone can do his work, however hard, for one day. Anyone can live sweetly, patiently, lovingly, purely, till the sun goes down . . .

And this is all that life really means. Robert Lewis Stevenson
We all carry our burdens as they pertain to our own small world but we often lose sight of the burdens of our fellow men.

Oh yes, we give of our wealth to church, charity and civic affairs, but seldom stop to put ourselves in the other man's shoes.

We need a refresher course in the art of selling as applied to the principles of masonry.

When we think of a salesman, we usually picture a businessman with a sample case, a clerk behind the counter, or a fellow with brushes knocking on our door. Yes, these are professional salesmen — but they're not the only kind. Actually, we're all salesmen, regardless of age, occupation, or surroundings.

If our new neighbor drops over to introduce himself, he's offering his friendship, and he sincerely hopes we'll "buy it." When the "better half" sadly proclaims "I have nothing to wear" she's starting her pitch for a new Fall outfit. And, let's not forget Junior who never stops selling Pop on why he needs a bigger allowance.

What about Masons and Masonry? Are we selling anything to anybody? Yes, we are, because each new candidate for Masonry is entering the fraternity because he was sold on the principles of Masonry reflected by some one or several masons he observed at work or home or play.

A good salesman lives by and follows the rules which might read something like this:

1. Know your product.
2. Plead your sales.
3. Have enthusiasm.
4. Use the right approach.
5. Sell Yourself.
6. Be a good listener.
7. Put yourself in the other man's shoes.

Close the sale.
For the past few years we have not had the influx of new candidates and we have made excuses that money was tight or there is too much unrest in the world, but I feel these obstacles would all be overcome if we lived our Masonry by the rules.

Take rule number one and check yourself to see how well you know your product, and how it benefits the buyer. It is difficult if not impossible to learn about Masonry by watching Surfside 6 on T.V. every Monday night.

Rule number two do plan your sales may not seem appropriate since we do not solicit candidates, but nevertheless our behavior is observed by countless people in our daily pursuits.

Rule three deals with enthusiasm and this is one phase that is always studied by the buyer.

Next use the right approach, particularly here, as we are taught this lesson in our first degree.

Rule five is sell yourself in anything you do because people must first accept you and then your product. Have a friendly smile, admit mistakes, be positive and don't knock others if we want to gain assurance and respect of our acquaintances and friends.

In being a good listener we discover the real need and can better apply personal appeal.

Applying rule number seven we talk about you and not "I" and we all have just enough "Ham" to swell out our chests and fall in line.

Finally, if we have followed the rules, this step becomes somewhat mechanical.

A recent candidate to Masonry informed me that his reason for joining our fraternity was the result of observing and studying the character and actions of Masonic friends.

Let us not lose sight of this fact, but check the rules and see how you rate as a salesman for Masonry.

I am happy to report that Brother George Zeis' wife no longer has need of our wheel chair, but sorry to report that Brother Les Merica's mother suffered a broken hip and is now utilizing the chair. Brother Thomas McTigue is confined to the Veterans Hospital and would welcome cards and cards. Brother Russel Poole and Lewis VanCamp are welcome and would likewise welcome or mail.

We regret the passing of Ralph Lambert and extend our sympathies to family and friends.

We had degree work in September but it appears as though we have dark in October; however, we have a School of Instruction. Brother Allen Bennett, Ass't Lecturer, on Friday, October, and our Annual Fish Fry on day, October 14th.

In closing I'd like to leave thought—"He who dedicates to a great ideal, himself great."

'Tis the autumn, 'tis October, with a carefree, happy air,
When the starlit skies of nighttime bring a dawn that's bright and fair.
Each new day another challenge, to a world that's ever new—
When you bid farewell to summer, and October smiles at you!

We are sorry many did not know of the potluck at our first meeting but those who were there enjoyed it. We will be busy this month with the rummage sale and the Past Matrons and Patrons banquet. We would also like to have many go along to Franklin. You will enjoy the day and it gives a real boost to our members at the home. Why not sign up now?

The night was hot but so rewarding. Our first meeting in September was memorable for the good food, wonderful fellowship and inspiring renewal of our obligation to the Order. The chapter and dining rooms were reminiscent of school days and the blackboard read, "Mrs. Wise, teacher." Our Tessie is that—our teacher of things beautiful and spiritual, and always full of fun. The letter of Hospitality, was to remind us all of the power and peace of prayer.

The clowning of the Satellites after our second meeting added a touch of fun to the fellowship on the mezzanine, which was decorated in balloons, clowns and circus peanuts.

Our annual caravan to the Masonic Home at Franklin will be Sunday, October 1, and we hope many of you will plan to attend. Transportation arrangements can be made with either Mary Knauer or Harold Houser. Bring covered dish and your own table service; meat, rolls, butter and coffee will be furnished by the social committee. Our members at the Home are looking forward to our visit with much anticipation and will enjoy meeting you there for dinner, don't disappoint them.

Our officers have invited friends from other chapters to fill their stations during initiation at the stated meeting of October 5. On his Friend's Night let's be friendly and not let any of our guests go home without experiencing the hospitality of Fort Wayne Chapter.

Now's the time to clean out your attic and basement, your closets and drawers, and take your "stuff" to our rummage room at 2033 S. Lafayette St. The room will be open Wednesday night for the receipt of rummage and the sale will be held Thursday, October 12. If you desire someone to pick up your rummage call either Tessie Wise, E-92275, Cynthia Nicholson, E-58863 or Ruby McDowell, H-78561. We need your rummage to have a successful sale.

The Choir is planning a very entertaining program to follow our meeting of October 19. A big turnout will demonstrate to the members of the Choir how much we enjoy and appreciate their annual show.

OCTOBER SOCIAL CALENDAR:

3, Satellites will meet at the home of Vallie Brouwer, 4114 Trier Road, with Mitzi Clayton assisting.

9, Visiting will meet at the Gas Kitchen with Leila Smith's committee as host.

10, Past Matron's will meet at the home of Hope Dumford, Oetting Road.

11, Decorating will meet with Arlene Simpson, 4117 Hoagland.

12, Choir will meet with Jo Cecil, 3405 S. Anthony Blvd., with Ruth Duntan assisting.

17, Non Pariel will meet at the Gas Kitchen.

23, Social will meet on the mezzanine with Gertrude Marchant's committee serving.

"Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another." — Romans, 12:10.

Put brotherly love in your contacts and in your behavior—It's a good habit.

Activities of the fall season started in full swing with a delicious potluck preceding the first stated meeting. Officers are to be complimented on the splendid manner they performed their floor and ritualistic work.

S.K. Vernon Reed, Jr., Assistant Grand Lecturer, made his Official Visit at the last meeting of September. He presented instructions from the Grand Royal Matron, H.L. Waneta Newby. He also admonished each one to study their ritual very diligently. His short message to the court was most inspirational.

To be a friend and have a friend is one of life's greatest assets—and so it will be on October 11th. Friends from Courts over the state will visit us and perform the opening and closing ceremonies. H.L. Beth Smith will be chairman of the program, and there will be refreshments and social hour in the dining room following the meeting. We will cordially welcome the many friends who are coming.

October 20th our Grand Lecturer, H.L. Elsie Bowman of the South Bend Court will make her Official Visit. H.L. and S.K. Glenn Geiger are in charge of the dining room for this event.

The Officers Club and Ways and Means had a combined meeting at the home of H.L. Nellie Moore, September 11th with S.K. William Maxwell assisting.

The social committee held a called meeting at the home of the Royal Matron, H.L. Bertha Clear. H.L. Evelyn Reed, chairman, presided. A hamburger fry rounded out the evening.

Sickness and distress reported: S.K. Glenn Geiger Jr. is recuperating very nicely at his home after an automobile accident; the father of Bill and mother of Nettie Maxwell are slowly improving. There has been so much reported of illness among Amaranth folk in other jurisdictions. To all we wish the very best and a quick recovery of good health.

S.K. Oliver Boldt, Royal Patron, who is chairman of our membership drive gave outstanding remarks about the Amaranth and again stressed our goal and motto "Every one get one."

Coming Events: Officers to meet October 2nd with H.L. Bessie Meyers

Herschel Wickliffe.

Illness in Families: Husbands of Ethel McTigue, Lenna Buckley, Bess Wickliffe; brother of Dewey Wickliffe; son of Nolah Richard and mother of Noland Stabler.

Deaths in chapter: Mary Mitchell and Pearl Helmer.

Deaths in families: Father of Betty Stall.

New parents: Susan McDermott.

New grandparents: Bea and Del Proctor, Dorothy May O'Brien and Helen Fisher.

We never appreciate the gift of good health until it's too late but we can help cheer those of our members who are shut-in. Theresa Harsch, 811 Kensington, has a birthday October 7 and would surely welcome your cards and messages.

with H.L. Mabel Travis assisting. Ways and Means, October 9th with H.L. Mabel Travis, H.L. Bessie Meyers assisting. Rummage October 20th, 2028 S. Hanna St.

AN AUTUMN DAY

God took a bit of the sunset,
Colors bright and rare.
He took from the mountains a hazy blue—
From a maiden's hair.
From the ocean came a ripple of jade,
From the rivers a misty gray—
He blended them all together
And made an autumn day.

Yes, fall is here and the activities have started in Anthony Wayne Court. The officers are working hard as are all the various committees.

The Court is honored by three Supreme Appointments: P.G.R.M. Mary Ellen Sible attended the Official visit of the G.R.M., Waneta Newby at Hammond and was installed into her office as Deputy Supreme R.M. Others installed at that time by G.R.P. Carlton McKenzie were P.G.R.M. Vivian Shoaff and P.G.R.M. Nell Scott who also have supreme appointments.

H.L. Elsie Bowman, Grand Lecturer will visit Anthony Wayne Court on Oct. 4th and a nice turn-out is expected. On Nov. 1st, G.R.M. Waneta Newby will make her official visit to our Court. The Decorating, Social and Program committees are all busy and are planning a very eventful and enjoyable evening although it will be instructive to all. A bake-sale is in progress therefore all members will receive little notices.

We are deeply grieved by the passing of H.L. Pearl Helmer who quickly slipped away. She was a charter member and was Prelate in the early years of our Court. She was always willing and ready to do more than her share, altho in poor health, and often stated that she dearly loved her Amaranth. Our deepest sympathy to her husband, Nelson, and niece H.L. Georgia Garrett.

Sickness and Distress:
Illness in Court: H.L. Frances Adams, patient at Parkview Memorial Hospital, H.L. Lula Brown, patient at Lutheran Hospital. H.L. Iva Schieber, ill at home. Father of H.L.

Elizabeth Dull, patient at Lutheran Hospital. Daughter of H.L. Blanche Gebert in hospital at Madison, Wis. P.G.R.M. Iva York ill at home.

Births: Congratulations to the Louis Hoppers on the birth of a new grandson, also a new granddaughter of H.L. Blanche Gebert.

Deaths in the Court: H.L. Pearl Helmer, granddaughter of H.L. Kathryn Clark and grandson of H.L. Blanche Gebert.

COMING EVENTS:

Oct. 1st, The Officers will meet at the home of H.L. Ruby McDowell at 8:00 p.m.

Oct. 3rd, The Ways and Means Committee will hold their meeting at the home of H.L. Ethyl Smiley, 3209 Holton Ave. with H.L. Marie Stephens as co-hostess.

Oct. 4th, Stated meeting with the official visit of the Grand Lecturer, H.L. Elsie Bowman attending.

Oct. 9th, 1:30 p.m. the Cheer group will meet at the home of H.L. Ann Forst, 3231 E. Maple Grove with H.L. Lulu Brown as co-hostess.

Oct. 9th, 8:00 p.m. The program committee will meet at the home of H.L. Flo Widney in Columbia City.

Oct. 17th, 8:00 p.m. the Past Matrons Club will meet with H.L. Ferol VanBuskirk in Monroeville.

Oct. 18th, 8:00 p.m. Stated meeting.

THE EVOLUTION OF MASONRY

Have you ever stopped to wonder why there are hints of Masonry in early history, tradition, mythology, and symbolism of the race? The story of the builders reaches from the Temple of King Solomon to the Grand Lodge of England. Masonry has spread all over the civilized world. Probably the full and complete history of Masonry can never be reduced to words on paper. That is because the essence of Masonry consists of human and spiritual values which cannot be numbered and weighed and measured.

Masonry has survived because it is a continuing unfinished story of builders seeking through the cardinal virtues and common endeavors, to make life a nobler expression of the brotherhood of man.

Let us therefore more earnestly strive to be Masons, not merely in form, but in faith, in spirit, and in character. Let us strive to realize something of the vision of humanity and the dream of man—brotherhood.

GET OUT, OR GET IN LINE

During recent years we have heard many complaints about the general indifference and apathy of the average employee in nearly every line of activity. Comments about these traits may be somewhat over-emphasized, because every fairly administered enterprise has its quota of efficient and loyal employees. At the same time there are many workers whose attitude toward their work and their employer is not inspiring and whose lack of interest in their work and loyalty to the firm is a matter of deep concern both to the employers and to the public.

Recently I re-read Elbert Hubbard's fine essay, "Get Out or Get in Line." It provides a splendid formula for all employees in all lines of work and on every employment level. One paragraph from it is especially worthy of review:

"If you work for a man, in heaven's name work for him! If he pays you wages that supply you your bread and butter, work for him — speak well of him, think well of him, stand by him and stand by the institution he represents."

This advice is as sound today as it was the day it was written. The employee that every employer and the public value highly is the one that gives undivided service. When put to the test, loyalty is an excellent personal quality for which there is no substitute.

ANOTHER DEFINITION OF FREEMASONRY (Oklahoma Mason)

Freemasonry, in its broadest and most comprehensive sense, is a system of morality and social ethics, a primitive religion, and a philosophy of life, all of simple and fundamental character, incorporating a broad humanitarianism, and though treating life as a practical experiment, subordinates the material to the spiritual. It is a religion without a creed, being of no sect but finding Truth in all. It is moral but not self-righteous. It demands sanity rather than sanctity. It is tolerant but not supine. It seeks truth but does not define truth. It urges its members to think but does not tell them what to think. It despises ignorance but does not condemn the ignorant. It fosters education but proposes no curriculum. It espouses political liberty and the dignity of man but has no platform or propaganda. It believes in the nobility and the usefulness of life. It is moderate, universal and so liberal as to permit each individual to form and express his own opinion, even as to what Freemasonry is or ought to be, and invites him to improve it if he can.

MASTER'S WAGES

Masonic labor is purely a labor of love. He who seeks to draw Masonic wages in gold and silver will be disappointed. The wages of a Master Mason are earned and paid in their dealings with one another. Sympathy begets sympathy, kindness begets kindness, helpfulness begets helpfulness, and these are the wages of a Freemason. — Texas Grand Lodge Magazine.

THE "BLUE" LODGE (Kansas City Freemason)

Every once in a while somebody rises to criticize the use of the term "Blue" Lodge. There are lots of Masons who believe it is an arbitrary and meaningless term. This is because they have not taken sufficient interest in Masonic symbology to ascertain the real significance of the term itself.

The term "Blue" Lodge is fortified by historic usages which go back to the very beginnings of the fraternity and beyond. Among the Jews blue was a significant colour; one of the veils of the sacred tabernacle was of blue, denoting one of the fundamental principles of Masonry in the centuries. The Jews may or may not have borrowed the colour from the Babylonians, who clothe one of their principal idols in blue, or they may have borrowed it from the Hindus, who represented their great god, Vishnu, in blue.

Among the early Christians blue was a peculiarly significant colour. In the Druids blue was the symbol of truth; to the Chinese it meant deity in the sense of their peculiar religion; in the Hebrews it was a symbol of immortality.

There is nothing incongruous in the fact that the early Masons should have attached to blue a significance of their own. In the Entered Apprentice Degree the candidate is pointed to the blue heavens, which he believes to reach by means of the theological ladder of Jacob. In the Fellowcraft Degree he is pointed to the blue globes representing the material universe symbolized by the sky. In the Master's Degree he is enjoined to observe all the established customs and ancient usages of the fraternity.

To the Mason the foundation of the institution is represented and symbolized by the colour which in various ages and in various countries has come to mean perfection, truth, immortality and friendship. What a more appropriate colour could possibly be adopted as the peculiar symbol of the Craft? Why quarrel with a usage, if it is no more than a tradition which has such a consistent and ancient foundation?

There is nothing arbitrary in designating a Lodge as a "Blue" Lodge, because the original designation of the early Lodges was blue, going back through the ages to the meanings we have indicated. Don't let any Masonic "symbolologist" tell you out of believing that the blue is the most appropriate designation the Lodge could possibly have.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

In what is undoubtedly the most comprehensive survey ever undertaken of Main Street sentiments on taxation problems, the National Federation of Independent Business has completed and sent to the White House, Congressional Committee on Finance, Treasury Dept. and other governmental agencies a 240 page report.

The district chairmen of the Federation were asked to vote on the ten parts of the President's proposed tax program, and invited to make additional comments.

Approximately 1,000 of the total number of district chairmen replied. Each of them are engaged in independent business or professional practice covering the entire field of commercial activity from manufacturing, wholesaling, retailing and services. The returns from 50 states and the District of Columbia were about in ratio to their populations.

54.9% expressed favor of the proposed tax incentive program which would provide for a different method of depreciation write-offs to encourage business to expand.

Yet only 22.3% were in favor of the proposal to levy a withholding tax against interest and dividends, and only 18.4% favored the repeal of the provision that now permits the first $50 in income from dividends and interest to be tax free, and the additional credit of 4% on dividend income in excess of $50.

In volunteered comments, there is expressed considerable and often quite bitter resentment over U. S. policy on foreign matters. 71.9% voted for the proposal to compel U. S. firms with foreign plants to pay U. S. taxes on the undistributed earnings of these plants. And likewise, by a majority of 57.6% the president's proposal that such tax be deferred on U. S. plants operating in so-called "under-developed" countries was voted down.

While 54.2% voted against the president's proposal to change the ruling on capital gains from the sale of depreciable property by having the profit computed on such a sale on the actual original price rather than the depreciated value, 93.4% are in favor of the President's recommendations to tax cooperatives.

Although by time survey was tabulated, Congress had already voted a one year extension of present corporation and excise tax rates, only 39.3% favored such a move.

Of the ten tax proposals, half were favored, the other half not favored.

While the Federation is not committed on a vote by the full national membership of the organization, it is quite probable that these district chairmen, closely in touch with the independent business sentiments in all parts of the country, voted in much the same way a full membership ballot would turn out. But one thing seems obvious. There will not be much employment supplying expansion of the nation's vast independent business complex until there are substantial reforms in the crazy-quilt tax laws.

At the annual election of officers September 15th, the companions present elected the following: Eugene McMeekin, High Priest; Jobo Collins, Scribe; Charles Cook, Secretary; Howard Moff, Royal Arch Captain; Harold Martin was re-elected as Treasurer, and Richard Jones as Secretary.

During the meeting, the companions gave recognition to and paid tribute to the proud Masonic service of P.H.P. Earl Bradley rendered so faithfully to Thos. R. Marshall, but to history as well. He became active in Masonic work in the year 1916 and retired from office in Thos. R. Marshall chapter from that of Trustee Sept. 15th. He still promises to be faithful in attendance at meetings. He is indeed, very proud to have one of us, a man with 45 years active Masonic work.

Eugene McMeekin made the following appointments to the office: Thos. Mvers as Master of the 3rd Vail; Ned Biddle as Master of the 1st Vail; Weir Anderson as Master of the 1st Vail; P.H.P. Edso Dickey as appointed Chaplain-pro-tem. He succeeded P.H.P. Earl Bradley as Trustee for a 3 year period was to end on Mansfield.

Please keep in mind that on October 20th which is our next scheduled monthly business meeting night, that there will be no Supper Meeting because of the business meeting. Instead we will open at 7:30 p.m. and then attend a performance and entertainment on by the York Rite Assoc. In addition they are inviting a well known speaker from Indianapolis for this occasion. Anyone who is a Blue Lodge Masoo is invited to attend this rally, and it promises to be an enjoyable evening. There will be refreshments after the meeting.

As you read this column, the year may reign will have coded as High Priest of Fort Wayne Chapter. It has been a very short year, yet many pleasant memories will remain with me for years to come.

Our summer activities have been busy. Our Annual Picnic was held at the Shrine House Patrol Grounds for the first time. I'm sure those who attended agree it is a wonderful place for a picnic such as ours. To those members of the Shrine House Patrol who granted us permission to use their Grounds many thanks. I assure them it was appreciated and all I sincerely hope each of you enjoyed the vacation season. Our Annual Ham and Bean dinner was held on Sept. 21, 1961 and well attended.

We are all looking forward to attending Grand Chapter, to be held in Gary, Ind. in October. We have more than special interest because our own officer should move up to Honored Office of Excellent Grand High Priest of the State of Indiana.

At our first meeting of the Allen County York Rite Association, it was announced that October 20th has been selected as York Rite Guest Night. Companions this promises to be a very full evening of entertainment and of course the finest of oil it's free. So invite all your Blue Lodge friends to attend. The program will consist of a concert by the Knights Templar Band, a full hour show by the Masquers of Mispah Temple, a performance by the Commandery Drill Corps and a very well known speaker on York Rite Masonry.

The Installation of newly elected officers of Fort Wayne Chapter has been set for October 14th at 8:00 p.m. It will be a public Installation.

To the incoming High Priest and officers I would like to thank each for the cooperation and help given me in the past year. To the members of Fort Wayne Chapter I have this to say, support your Chapter by attending your Chapter on degree nights. Those of you who do not attend cannot realize the fine work and fellowship your chapter officers have created in the Past few years. This can only continue if you the members support these fine young officers with help on degree work and petitions.

A York Rite Guest Night has been planned for Friday Evening, October 20th on the fifth floor of the Masonic Temple beginning at 7:30 p.m. This Guest Night is for all York Rite Masons and their Blue Lodge friends. An excellent program has been arranged under the General Chairmanship of Sir Knight Homer Stevenson. The Knight Templar Band will give a concert at 7:30 p.m. There will be a short drill exhibition by the Commandery Drill Corps which recently placed fifth in national drill competition. The Mispah Shrine Masquers will entertain. Following a short talk by an excellent Masooic speaker will be a period for light refreshments and fellowship. The members of all Blue Lodges are invited to come for this period of entertainment and good fellowship.

Sir Knight Linus J. Johnson, at this writing (Sept. 15th) has been in the Lutheran Hospital for several weeks and expects to undergo surgery at an uncertain date. Consequently, it might be better if friends first checked with the hospital to ascertain whether or not "L.J." should have visitors.

Your many friends in Masonry pray for your speedy recovery, "L.J."

Our asylum will soon be graced with a new United States flag thanks to Em. S.K. Shuble C. Boggs.

Our tentative Knight Templar calendar for October:

October 3rd, Drill Corps Stated, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 5th, Rehearsal, Order of Red Cross, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 10th, Full form opening, rehearsal, Order of Temple, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 12th, York Rite Stated, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 17th, Rehearsal, K. T. full form opening for inspection, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 19th, Knight Templar Stated.

Oct. 20th, York Rite Guest Night, 7:30 p.m., fifth floor.

Oct. 24th, Rehearsal, Order of Temple, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 26th, Rehearsal, Order of Malta, 7:30 p.m.

We wish to remind everybody about our Knight Templar Public Inspection Saturday, December 9th. Order of Temple Conferred in afternoon, Public Inspection in evening. The full program has been announced in a previous column and will be announced again at a later date.

Welcome DeMolays to the busy month of October.

To start the month off DeMolay will have its annual Hayride, weiner bake and dance. The rides will begin at 7 p.m. October 7th until 9:30 p.m. with dancing lasting after the rides. The price of tickets will be $2.00 a couple and may be purchased from DeMolay members. There will be no Stags so get your dates now and plan for a good time.

Our first annual meeting in October will be with the Initiatory Degree for the first class. There will be refreshments after the meeting so plan to come and bring in your new petitions.

The special this month will be a trip to Purdue University to see the Boilermakers struggle against the Miami of Ohio. There will be only 72 seats available at $5.00 a seat. This will cover the bus fare and the game. Sign up at the meetings or contact "Dad" Herrick E-2689. First come first served. This will also give you boys a chance to look the campus over.

Our next regular meeting will be October 25th. This will be a regular Stated meeting and the last chance to bring in petitions for the fall term.

I will plan to see you at the Social affairs but most of all will enjoy meeting you at our meetings. Plan to bring another Brother with you for the more we will have at our meetings the more each will get out of it.

I would like to extend an invitation to anyone of the Masonic Body to visit us at anytime but especially on initiation nights.

MASONRY AND IMMORTALITY

As one of its leading principles and tenets, Masonry teaches the cherished doctrine of the immortality of the soul, basing this doctrine upon the positive declarations of its Great Light.

Not only does Masonry teach this doctrine, but by beautiful forms and ceremonies it rivets and fastens it upon the mind, heart and consciousness of the Craft. It reminds them by the sprig of acacia of the enduring and abiding confidence in the Celestial Lodge above, where, by the aid of the theological ladder, which Jacob in his vision saw, we all hope finally to arrive.

Masons are taught to look forward to the time when the cold winter of death shall have passed, and the bright summer morn of resurrection appears; when the Son of Righteousness shall descend and send forth His angels to collect the ransomed souls who have been found worthy of admittance to the home of the redeemed and glorified in the bright world above. —Exch.

COMFORT OR FREEDOM?

Comfort and security must have less consideration. At intervals throughout the centuries men have been willing to give up all their freedoms for comfort and security, and I sometimes fear that we are now taking that path. Those who are running for office don't run on the platform of the freedoms which they will maintain for all. They don't run on the principle that every man is inherently a person of dignity, an individual with the right to continue to be an individual. Too many men are gaining votes with the dangerous promise: "We will give you more benefits of a material nature than you have been able to get from someone else." —Masooic Service Assn.

How Jesus Grew

Lesson for October 1, 1961

A PERSON who no longer grows ceases to be a person. He becomes a fossil, if he is old, or he stays a baby, if he is young. Our world is cluttered up with babies who never grow up, and with fossils in human shape. The fossils haven't had a new idea in thirty years, and the babies haven't had any ideas of their own yet. A genuine human being grows throughout his life-time, grows in spirit when he no longer grows in his body.

It shocks some people to think that Jesus ever grew; but Luke says plainly that he did, and tells us how. The church has always said that Jesus Christ is both God and man; and this is hard to understand. But if we try to make the problem easier by saying that Jesus was a special kind of human being who did not grow and did not need to, then we are not making the problem easier but harder; for we are then denying that he was truly human.

He out his way forward

Luke, writing our third Gospel, uses his Greek language with care. He uses one word for "grow" — in Luke 2:40, and another word in Luke 2:52. Luke 2:40 tells us that Jesus did grow, before he was twelve years old. Luke 2:52 tells us how Jesus grew after he was twelve years old. In speaking of the little boy Jesus, Luke says he grew, but he uses the same word that is used to describe the growth of garden plants and flowers. It is a good word to tell how little children grow. It comes naturally, they can't help growing. Give them food and sleep and the out-of-doors to play in, and they will grow without knowing it. But after twelve Luke has another word. It is a word suggesting effort, struggle.

Body and mind

Some people are, we say, one-sided. Part of them grew but the rest didn't. We have all known people who were "brains" but physical weaklings. We have also seen people who are very strong up to the neck, but pretty weak above that spot. Luke is careful to tell us that Jesus grew both in wisdom and in stature; that is to say, mentally and physically. The old Greeks used to have a motto which the Romans copied and is still in circulation: "A sound mind in a sound body." Jesus cut his way forward in both respects. He grew in wisdom—that word is important also. No doubt he grew in knowledge. His mother would teach him, as Deuteronomy directs parents to do; but while knowledge can be put into a boy or girl from the outside, as it were, by an instructor, wisdom—that is, knowing what to do with the knowledge you have—has to be developed on the inside. A coach can guarantee to teach a boy enough knowledge to get into the university; but no coach can guarantee to teach wisdom to go with it. Jesus grew in wisdom by working his way forward. It is of no use to wish to be wise without being willing to go through the trouble it takes.

Who liked Jesus?

One way of judging the worth of a man is to ask: Who likes him? Merely being popular is not enough. Popular with what kind of people? Luke writes that the boy and young man Jesus advanced "in favor with God and man." (God and men, literally.) Put into everyday language, this means both God and men liked him better every day. In later years Jesus had bitter enemies, who at last murdered him; but in his younger years, if Luke tells the whole story at this point, Jesus appears to have had no enemies. He made only friends. Jesus was not one of those cranks who doesn't care what people think about them. But he did not forget (what so many otherwise normal persons forget) that it is much more important that God should like you than that other people should. We must leave it to the reader to think it out from here: If Jesus grew physically and mentally, spiritually and socially, how can Christians have all-round growth like that in our own lives?

A constant participant in degree work in Spring and Fall convocations of Scottish Rite, Fort Wayne Valley

The officers, past and present, plus the membership of No. 297 realize how fortunate we are to have Brother Ault's tireless devotion to his secretarial duties in our lodge. Again, well done, Harvey.

One note to remind you members: October 24th, 7:30 p.m., Bluffton Lodge. We open on master mason degree for inspection. Plan to be there.

This is the beginning of a very busy month. We start the month off with joint Lodge of Instruction with Monroville Lodge on October 3rd. October 4th is monthly stated meeting. We vote on two petitions for degrees and will have work as follows: Entered Apprentice degree October 11th at 7 p.m. October 18th is Fellowshipcraft degree at 7 p.m. with coffee and donuts in the lower dining area after the lectures. October 25th is Master Mason degree with a dinner to take up promptly at 6:15 p.m. I urgently request all the brothers to make any and all of the meetings that they can and would appreciate a call as to how many can be expected for Master Mason dinner so that necessary food can be prepared.

I know our JW Harold Towsley and his helpers from the Eastern Star can be depended upon to have a good meal. Help them by advising if we can expect you for dinner. The summer has been a very busy one for all of us. We have been concerned with stated meetings, gardens, vacations, swimming, boating and horse-back riding. Then, we had the Lodge Hall painted. Fellows, take a hint from one who knows. Protect your eyes as you walk into the building as the new colors are terrific and a much needed improvement has been made. This is an improvement that we can be proud of.

Our Board of Trustees have been busy and have made improvements in the lighting and in the basement. I understand that they have more ideas cal philosophy and practice of life. If ever there was a generation that ought to be not only willing, but eager and anxious to try out the philosophy of Brotherhood — not sentimentality, but with all its wit and wisdom and patience, it is this generation. It has been shown us in letters of blood and fire, what hate, envy, vanity and greed can do. Their ruins litter the world, from the Alps to the North Sea, and beyond.

What has Freemasonry, the oldest and greatest of fraternities, to say to the world today? What can it do toward building a world fit to live in unstained by blood and undefeated by hate? Such is the challenge of our time to our Craft. At least Masons in mind and these will be handled as time progresses. The Stars have been hard at work in providing new chairs for the dining room to replace the older wooden chairs.

Another look at the calendar brings to mind that our annual election of Officers is but a short time away. I want to urge all our members to plan on attending Lodge December 6th and help to elect your new Officers. We are making plans for a dinner before the meeting and would like an idea as to how many of the members are in favor and how many would attend.

Brother John Young has recuperated and is hard at work. Brother Paul Harding had a siege of sickness in the hospital and is now able to be up and resume his duties at New Haven Public Schools.

Our Eastern Stars have been busy as beavers this summer working around the Lodge Hall. My family and I were very pleased to enjoy a Potluck Supper in September at the invitation of Worthy Matron Treva Girardot. A nice turnout together with all the delicious dishes of home cooked fancy foods topped off a wonderful evening of companionship.

I do not know of any brother that is sick or in the hospital. I am very happy to report this and wish it were that way all the time. I enjoy all of the brothers being in good health and able to attend Lodge. I again urge you to remember the degree work we are having in October together with the dinner.

BABSON DISCUSSES FALLOUT

Babson Park, Mass. A featured article in Life Magazine for September 15, 1961 makes some statements regarding "fallout" which need careful checking and analysis.

WHAT PRESIDENT KENNEDY DIO NOT SAY

In the President's letter which preceded the article, the President said:

"The government is moving to improve the protection afforded you in your communities through civil defense. We have begun, and will be continuing throughout the next year and a half, a survey of all public buildings with fallout shelter potential, and the marking of those with adequate shelter for 50 persons or more. We are providing fallout shelter in new and in some existing federal buildings. We are stocking these shelters with one week's food and medical supplies and two weeks' water supply for the shelter occupants . . ."

Neither the President nor Life Magazine made clear the difference between the effect of the explosion of an H-Bomb and the resultant fallout. If an H-Bomb should strike a city, the blast would probably kill 97% of the people. No ordinary "fallout shelter" would be of any use. But the fallout which would drift from this explosion would also be deadly. However, if all the nation's people had proper shelters, 97% of the people not killed by the blast might survive the fallout drifts.

COST OF FALLOUT SHELTERS

Even 3% of those in shelters who might die from fright or from other causes in the course of two weeks amount to about 5,000,000 people. Hence, the scope of the entire project of shelters is stupendous. I have had a survey made of an average home shelter; the minimum cost quoted is $1850. This is for a shelter in a basement 100 miles from the center of a large city which might be bombed. As the distance becomes less than 150 miles, the price of the shelter increases. No shelter within five miles of where the bomb hits would be of any use. At least 90% of those within this radius of five miles would be killed under any conditions—shelters or no shelters.

WHAT DO INHABITANTS OF BERLIN WANT?

We are constantly told what Mr. Khrushchev wants; also what President Kennedy wants; but we have never heard what the people of Berlin want, or do not want. Of course they want food, water, and heat. They feel that the West Germans will see that they get these. But they certainly do not want a "shooting war" between Russia and the Western Allies, with Berlin getting the worst of it all in the center of the fighting.

Therefore, as a practical matter, should one build a shelter here in the U.S.A. until it is learned that well-to-do families in Berlin (West and East Berlin) are building shelters? Another awkward question: How many people should such shelter be built to accommodate—two weeks? Those living on farms and having no near neighbors can answer this question quickly; but small cities or towns the answer is very difficult, where all are neighbors and friends of one another. It is a thing for a neighborhood or community to build a shelter which would accommodate several hundred; but build for just one's own small family would, I should think, make one rather selfish.

WILL THERE BE A NUCLEAR WORLD WAR III?

All of the above boils down to the question of whether missiles with hydrogen bomb heads will be thrown at cities of the U.S.A. to cause destruction? I don't believe they will be for many years to come. When we were in Berlin, Poland, and Russia two years ago, I was told by Berlin officials that there must be developed an accurate anti-missile missile.

There is none such now. On bombs launched from airplanes, submarines have an accurate enough aim to destroy a large city. Such city must be relatively near the coast. We are building up the defense of these cities as fast as possible. That we will be in a position to have "anti-missile missiles" when we have them in storage. Such defense missiles are what Russia is now testing. It is silly to talk about such underground either by Russia or the U.S.A.

JOHN LOMBARD HEADS ROYAL ARCH MASONS

John D. Lombard, prominent Indiana Mason, insurance man, and chairman of the City Board of Safety, was elected Most Excellent Grand Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Indiana. He will serve for one year as the presiding officer of the Grand Chapter in the state.

Lombard, a 33rd degree Scottish Rite Mason, is past thrice potent master of the Scottish Rite Valley of Fort Wayne, and past presiding officer of all the local York Rite bodies.

The Grand Chapter of Indiana will meet in Fort Wayne in October, 1962 along with the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masons. There are 105 chapters in the state with a membership of 26,000. The state chapter was organized in 1845, and the Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19 R. A. M. was chartered in 1851.

TO HOLD CHRISTMAS BAZAAR AND CARD PARTY

Trinity Chapter No. 576, O.E.S. will hold a Christmas bazaar and card party on Thursday, November 30 at the Masonic Temple. Tickets are 50¢ each or $2.00 per table. There will also be some entertainment. The event will start at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available from Monette Weitzel, K-2927, from Lillian Poiry or any member of the ways and means committee.

I wish to thank the Craft for their help at our Lodge for Instruction held last month. I also wish to praise my officers for their excellent work that night. We made some mistakes of course, but I have never attended a course, but I have never attended a Lodge for Instructions that was perfect. One of the reasons for having these Instructional meetings is to clear up any questions which the officers have as to the proper procedures. Brother Bennett agreed with me that we have a good line of officers.

Since I wrote my last article we have had two of our Brethren taken by death. Brother George Strahlem and our Tyler, Henry Haesert. These Brethren have entered to joys of the Lodge above but we will ever remember the times we spent together in the years past.

This month we have a Holiday for Thanksgiving. Life moves at so fast a pace these days that we never have time to do so many things we plan or hope to do. There is television to watch, concerts, lectures, plays, ballets and many other kinds of entertainment to occupy our minds and time. Meetings and the many activities that we share with our families also demand a share of our time. Once in a while perhaps, there is time to get up to Lodge. But in all of our rush do we find time to pray to God? Are we regular in our attendance at church and do we give the thanks due to God for our every blessings? Do we even keep the Sabbath as a day of rest?

Thanksgiving to many of us means a day of feasting plus watching football or a drive somewhere. This one day was set aside as a day of Thanksgiving to God. In one sense this is a ridiculous form because we should make every day a day of Thanksgiving. Everything that we have, everything that we are or hope to be is by the Grace of God. We own nothing. For the short time we are here on earth we are allowed to have the use of the land and things growing, but we can take nothing with us when we leave. The only thing we can do while we are here on this earth that will go with us in the after world is our service to others. When we stand before the Great White Throne, it will matter little to what station we rose or what material things we gathered in our name. The Judgment Book at our page will show only our Charity. This is why Masonry teaches us that Charity is the greatest round on the ladder.

The word "Charity" to most people means almsgiving, and generally is regarded as something that you hope you will never have to receive. But it also means Christian Love or the act of loving all men because they are sons of God. It means an act or feeling of affection or benevolence. Also, it means lenience in judging men and their actions. So when we speak of Masonic Charity, we mean all of these things.

My Brothers, let us build our future edifices by practicing Charity and following our Masonic teachings. Above all, let us never get too busy to offer up our prayers to our Gracious and Loving Father. Remember, we want our children to grow up to be good citizens, but if we don't do these things we can never expect them to inculcate these principles into their lives.

Of repeated prayers of thanks
For life's meat and bread,
Can sustain our restless hearts
And keep our minds well fed.

As I sit here at home collecting my thoughts for this issue I am aware of God's handiwork.

The foliage has turned to beautiful shades of amber, gold and red and the air is filled with the pungent odor of burning leaves. Baseball is finished and football is now the sport of the hour and by the time you receive this issue we will be nearing the holiday season. The beauty of fall will be well faded, storm doors and windows in place and the larder stocked with apples and popcorn for those long winter nights.

As we approach another Thanksgiving season it is fitting and proper that we as Masons and Americans should humbly pour out our hearts in gratitude and thanks to our Creator and Sustainer, the Grand Architect of the Universe, for the many blessings which he has showered upon us through His loving kindness.

We ought first of all to be thankful that we live in a land with all of our freedoms, specifically: free speech, free press, public assembly and perhaps most important the freedom to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience. No people in all of history have been more blessed and none have more to be thankful for than we who live in these United States.

We should thank God for peace, even though it is a peace induced by fear and not love. Let our prayer of thanksgiving include the hope that because more peoples in the world than ever before are thinking, talking and working for peace, eventually a peace based on love of man for man and not on man's fear of man will prevail in the world.

We should be grateful for Free Masonry which has always taught dependence on Divine strength, which we are taught, comes by the power of prayer.

We should be thankful that in this free land of ours we may meet and work as Masons in Masonic Lodges where we are privileged to teach those who knock at our doors, the principles and rules of morality, the doctrine of Brotherhood, love and compassion for those less fortunate, and where we may foster and cement ties of true friendship.

It is not enough to be thankful for these many blessings, but we must express our thoughts and feelings in our every day living with all mankind by demonstrating and promoting the Brotherhood of Man.

Masonry has no greater challenge, no greater opportunity or greater obligation, than to work for the day when all men shall live together as Brothers, sons of one and the same Father.

We are each an insignificant spark but if we each strive to keep our small spark glowing it is certain to kindle and glow to such an extent that our light will eventually shine forth to the four corners of this great earth.

So at this Thanksgiving time, my Brethren, let our prayer be, "Father for thy many blessings we thank Thee, and help us to become good stewards of Thy bounty."

We had our Lodge of Instruction under the guiding hand of Brother Allan Bennett, the Assistant Grand Lecturer, along with the Brothers of Maumee Lodge and I am happy to report that we received a good report and learned of some new changes which you will notice when next you attend Lodge.

The officers and myself extend our sympathies to Brethren who are ill, and pray for recovery.

Mark your calendar for Monday, Nov. 27, which will be our Annual Past Masters Night Banquet. We will have degree work in the afternoon with dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by entertainment. Fifty and twenty-five year awards, and a speaker. This promises to be an evening you won't want to miss.

My closing thought—Friendship is like a garden of flowers, fine and rare,
It cannot reach perfection except through loving care;
Then, new and lovely blossoms
with each new day appear . . .
For Friendship, like a garden
grows in beauty year by year

It is said that in Roman times a rich ruler sought to find a way of training that would produce a perfect human—completely self-sufficient. He could therefore produce a society of persons who would be independent of others and neither need help or give help to others.

Of course he failed, for the perfect human and the perfect social order yet to come.

But during the experiment the ruler was asked what he would do with those who could not be made into the expected pattern of the scornful answer was, "The ruler does not worry about the state from his shop."

The ruler and his empire are but stained pages of history, but "shavings" theory is still with even among Masons and Master Builders.

Wouldn't you agree that this recent this "shavings" theory: flouting Masonic obligations, flouting that Masonry is "together rather than 'separateness,'" fall act in the event of illness or misfortune, using Masonry for material gain, and even failure to pay a debt. Masonry should be a brotherhood, not a business.

This month John Womack, Bennett Noel, SS were called with the ANG and assigned to sea duty. Our collective good goes with them. They will receive publications and notices of lodge during their duty month.

We will hold a dinner PM work October 25 and also to be working during the month of November. Plan to include you in your monthly program. A Past-Masters dinner and is being planned for late in the year. Members will be notified of final arrangements are made.

Our members and guests enjoyed

Our future plans call for degree

We should all be looking forward to Brother Oan H. Laughman who was seriously injured in an auto acci-reported improving at this time.

Brother Lawrence Wiley was hospi-and has indicated that he intends to attend lodge soon.

The play group has been busy this the play will continue to be active in future years as it is our medium of

We have appeared twelve times this brethren in our lodge room, and the Worshipful Master informs them that he is very happy to receive them on the Masonic Level. Have you ever paused to reflect just what is meant by Masonic Level. It was always my opinion that this was the manner in which we extended the hand of fellowship to a visiting brother, receiving him on the basis of equality in our great Masonic fraternity. The "Level" in our fraternity is the "Symbol of Equality."

Receiving a Masonic brother on the level has a far greater significance. Few symbols are less understood. "Equality" does not mean that of wealth or poverty, social distinction, civic responsibility or service to mankind. It refers to manhood, and to the "Internal, not the external qualifications" of a human being.
The equality of Brethren in a lodge is that of the dignity and worth of the human soul, without regard to any man made distinctions. Masonic equality recognizes that one man has greater potentialities of service, of life, or reward than another, but denies that any man may not aspire to any height, no matter how great.

In the middle ages, ladies and gentlemen, priests and kings, a ruling and aristocratic class, refused to work. Labor was degrading, and the possession of soft hands were noble.
Horny hands were the mark of a slave, a serf or a menial. It was the will of God that Popes, cardinals, bishops, priests, kings, nobles, ladies, etc. were entitled to live with the rest of mankind.

It was the discovery of Freemasons that this was a fraudulent scheme of life; that a man who labored was not a whole man and that it was not the "Will of God" that he should support his laborless neighbor. Hence, the idea of equality of manhood, of labor and of opportunity which in modern Freemasonry is symbolized by the "Level."

I am happy to report that all of our brethren confined to hospitals have been released to their homes, with the exception of Brother Paul Porter in the St. Joseph hospital. We wish them all a speedy and complete recovery.

The following Brother has been called by the Supreme Architect of the Universe to join that Celestial Lodge above; Earl Carroll Gardner—died Sept. 22, 1961. To his family and friends Summit City extends their deepest sympathy.

We welcome into Summit City Lodge Brother Donald Thompson, who was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on September 22nd.

Two petitions for the degrees have been received at the October stated meeting, and in all likelihood we will have degree work in November.
Make arrangements now to be with us.

See you at lodge.

This is the chosen month of the year, November when we should especially all "gather together to ask The Lord's Blessing."

This should be done many times during the year, during each month.
Yet this is particularly significant now with our holiday of Thanksgiving close at hand. We have so many things to be thankful for that the list would be a tremendous one. Today I am especially aware of the privilege of living in a free America. What are we doing as individuals to keep it so? The constant and ever powerful threat of Communism is always surrounding us.
Today as I worshipped in the church of my choice I was especially thankful for freedom of religion. Yet how many of us take that for granted and frequently make excuses for not attending church and its many functions.

Last week as I attended a convention in connection with my vocation,
I thought of the freedom of speech each of these men had who were trying to sell their particular product.
Yet all this could be snatched from us overnight because we take it all for granted and do little to preserve it. I pray that each of you will join me in this.

Freedom Pledge
I am an American, A free American Free to speak—without fear
Free to worship God in my own way
Free to stand for what I think right
Free to oppose what I believe wrong Free to choose those who govern my country.

This heritage of Freedom I pledge to uphold

For myself and all mankind

E. Carlson, St. Paul, Minn.
On October 1, 1961 we had the misfortune of losing another member, Dale W. Summers. Masonic services were held for him at the funeral home.
I wish to extend my sympathy to the family and friends of Brother Summers. Also, I wish for those ill a speedy recovery.

Our lodge joined Home lodge who were the hosts on Wednesday, October 11 for Grand Lodge instruction.
Assistant Grand Lecturer Mr. Allan
Bennett, was present who gave us much constructive criticism and advice in our degree work which was exemplified that night.

We had a nice group assembled for our Oct. 2 visitation night at the Veterans Hospital. The next date to remember for this visit is November 20. Please make note to join us for a few minutes well spent to make those less fortunate a little happier.

Make note there are five Thursdays during November.

According to custom of past years each officer will advance one station to present the work during the month of November, our moral support will be encouraged and appreciated by those officers in their efforts.

See you at our dinner dance Saturday, November 4. The dinner starts at 6:30 p.m. and the dance follows at 8:30. Our caller for the dance will be Joseph McDowell. I hope all members are busy selling tickets for a large crowd.

October was a very busy month for Home Lodge and a very enjoyable one for our Tri State meeting in Chicago. It was held on September 30th and October 1st. The meeting opened at 4:00 p.m. and after the usual introductions the meeting was closed for the banquet which is one to be remembered by all in attendance after the banquet we retired to the Lodge room where the Master Mason Degree was conferred by one Milwaukee Lodge which was very interesting.
The next Tri State meeting will be held in Peoria, Ill., on October 1st and 2nd of 1962, as this is one year away but keep it in mind as this is one visitation that will be remembered for a long time.

October 10th on our entered apprentice night Home Lodge presented pins to their members who for 25 years had been a Mason there were 24 eligible for them it gave me great pleasure to meet the Brethren and present to them their pins after which our good friend and Brother Dr. Wm.
Ratz gave a very inspiring speech.
October 11th was our Lodge of instructions was held jointly with Wayne Lodge No. 25. Brother Hunter commended both Lodges for the work they displayed, also included in the month of October was the awarding of the Indiana Grand Lodge Award of Gold to one of our 50 year members.

As soon as you get your card for Family Night which will be November 11th please mark it as to how many in the family will be present and return it as we expect a large crowd. There will be entertainment for the children and adults.

November 13th will be our Veterans Hospital Visitation. Let us try and make this visitation the largest of the year for as the Holiday Season is fast approaching, we may add a few words of encouragement to those who are confined there.

For the sick and shut ins I wish them a speedy recovery.

Our banquet and inspection was September 20. The dining room was decorated with an Oriental theme. Lanterns and circular fans hung from the ceiling. Behind the head tables was a huge pagoda, it was red and tan and a large gold gong with a black dragon hung in the middle. Fans decorated the tables and each female guest received a fan and fortune cookie, each male guest received a back-scratcher and a fortune cookie. I was really proud of all the girls that showed up, we had a real nice turnout. I want to thank everyone who worked so hard to make this banquet a success. I would like also to express my thanks to my father who made and painted the pagoda. My inspection committee was: Diane Simmers, Ellen Stanbury, Carol Botterton, Sharon Erler, Sandy Bates, Judy Hutchinson, Cheryl Gledge, Annel Hoover, Judy McClintock, Diane Stackhouse, Sonja Flagg, Cindy Clevenger, Sharon Lenitz, Marti Morrell, Linda Roop, Marsha Prior, and Sharon Higgins. Thanks, girls.

Oct. 4, was Friend's Night, the officers from the following Bethels came: Auburn, Columbia City, Huntington, Huntstown, and Marion. I was glad to see so many girls on the sidelines.

The November meeting of Mothers' Club will be at Mrs. Betty English's home so girls tell your mothers.

November 1 is our Moms' and Dads' Night and I hope that a lot of parents come. November 15 is Election, girls if there is a certain girl that you would like as Honored Queen come and vote for her. Hope to see all of you at the meeting.

I would like to extend a Thank You to all who helped on the night of the DeMolay hayride, for if it were not for those behind the scenes, it could not have been the success that it was. It was good to see so many couples out for the hayride and know all enjoyed themselves.

November 8 will be a regular Stated Meeting. At this meeting, we will vote on petitions and will have Special Entertainment.

The next meeting will be on November 22 and the Initiatory Degree will be conferred upon one of the largest classes. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

EVENTS TO COME: Election of new officers, Election of the Chapter Sweetheart, and plans for the Christmas formal.

The November meeting of the DeMolay Mothers Circle will be held on November 27, 1961 at 7:45 p.m. in the meeting room of the Indiana Trust and Savings Bank on the corner of Clifton and Washington Streets. Mrs. Robert Clymer will be the chairman for the meeting.

All mothers of DeMolay boys are welcome. Plan to attend and hear of the plans for the Christmas Party and place your reservations for it.

Bible Material: Philippians 8:1-18;
Colossians 3:1 through 4:1;
Devotional Reading: 1 John 4:13-21.

Being Related

Lesson for October 22, 1961

WE CAN'T help it. When we marry, we discover we have not married one single person, we are suddenly in the midst of more in-law than perhaps we had reckoned on. But this should not surprise us. Already at birth we are related to people we never saw before and did not choose. They might not have chosen us, either, to tell the truth, if they had known how we were going to turn out. That's life. From

Dr. Foreman beginning to end we are related, willy-nilly, to people we hardly know or don't know at all, as well as to people we do know and love. Being related is the inevitable human experience, along with death. The Christian way of life, at base, is simply recognizing our relatedness more and more, and living up to it.

Being Related to Other Christians
Saint Paul, that world-famed letter-writer, never finished a letter without having something to say about a Christian's relationship. Most of the troubles in the church and in the world come from, and in turn produce, perversions, dislocations or disturbances in relationships among people. It would not solve all our problems if each of us could be shut up in a tight little cell all his life; for then we should never be human. But we can't live an unrelated life no matter how we tried. So what the inspired Apostle has to say about relationships is always just what we need. The world has changed in appearance since New Testament times, but the inter-relatedness of men is a more vital problem than ever.

In Phil. 2:1-18 and in Colossians 3, most of what Paul has to say is directly on the problem of the relation of Christians to other Christians. It's a mistake to think that just because you are a Christian, that you will never find other Christians a problem, or that they in turn will have no problems caused by you. This writer has lived at various times in communities in which every one was a professed Christian, but personal relationships could get so acute crises all the same. Paul found this to be true in the Christian communities (churches) to which he wrote. The most common destructive factor, often, was quarrels, sometimes over trifling matters. Paul's remedy is always the same: Be like Jesus, and put yourself in the other person's place. Easter said that don't! To be sure; but remembering it is the will of God, we can have good hope that he will bless our every effort to live as the family of God.

Being Related to Outsiders

Being related to outsiders presents another problem. They do not recognize us as brothers and sisters; if they did, they'd have gone a long way toward being insiders. But how can we be related to uninterested or even hostile persons? Here we have to remember what has already been said: We are related, no matter how we batch the relationship, it's still there. The question remains, though, if the other party wants to have no part of us; if we're dealing with people who are uncongenial, mean, not Christians by intention or in fact, ne-sons who don't know where a syllable of brotherhood, who profess no interest in God or his plan; yet who are related to us in some way or ways (as, e.g., marriage, business relations, casual contacts and so forth), what? Paul puts it into one little word: SHINE!

Can We Grow?

What Paul means, no doubt, that the start of Christian relations is to be a Christian. Even if the other person is not Christian, you can be one. If the world around you is dark, you can shine.

Probably there is no need to ask the question: Can we grow in our Christian relations? That does not mean having no friends, it may have little to do with friendship. It means being more Christlike in all our relationships both with the Christians and non-Christians, with neighbors you see every day and also the people you never actually see. Of course we can grow this as in all that is good; we are really alive!

NO COMPROMISE WITH WRONG

(Oklahoma Mason)

A Mason who would be true always be guided by that which is right in the eyes of the great Art of the Universe. The way we should travel as we pursue the great joy along the pathway of life is clearly marked out for us. In Masonry it can be no compromise with wrong which is wrong. He who does more than half right is wholly wrong. It is impossible to reach our places in this world or the next traveling even half-way in the wrong direction. Only the designs plan upon our trestle board of life by Divine Architect can guide our steps through this life to eternal happiness in the next. There is no way...

WHEN DID YOU BECOME A MASON?

Grand Master, New Mexico (in the New Mexico Freemasonry) (in the New Mexico Freemasonry) It has been said that the place of Masonry is in the conferring of the degrees upon candidates, that the work of Masonry is to attempt to teach those candidates. There is an old question which have heard many times—"When you join the Masons?" and comes the follow-up question—"Did you become a Mason?" question needs no further explanation.

The making of Masons, or becoming a Mason, should be a good for the community. Masons all the obligation of the entire community into a system thinking that will benefit the community. We are well aware that few dedicated people can do much.

In the conferring of Masonry, we teach lessons. The teaching of Freemasonry is alike to some of our education and not similar to the features. Much of our learning never be put into practice, because most of the lessons of our degree are immediately found to be ready into our daily living.

In spite of the vow of secrecy which you took to not impart the secrets of Masonry it can be told to the world that no atheist can become a Freemason. When we give lips to a Trust in God we need to be able to demonstrate our faith other than just to talk about it. The fact we pledge to keep a tongue of secrecy; to practice charity; to be diligent and discreet; to befriend the needy; and to do good unto all, again needs more than just lip service.

I find in most of my vision there is a solid nucleus of the "statesmen" who prove that Masonry is a way of life, and exemplify the ideal of Brotherhood of man, the Fatherhood of God.

The life span of man is lengthening. Scientists can make him live longer, but we are the ones who have to make the extra years worthwhile.

An opportunity exists for each of you. If you have not already paid the dollar to the International Temple Fund, you're missing a "Once in a Lifetime" opportunity. Blanche Williams will gladly enroll you in the fund for the preservation of the temple in Washington, D. C.

Members of Non Pariel will entertain and serve refreshments after Chapter November 2nd.

On November 16th the sideliners will be honored. To be called a 'sider' may not sound important but officers certainly appreciate those who attend the meetings and wish to honor them at this meeting.

At this time of year when so many chapters are observing Friends Night is an ideal time to review the ups and passes of our Order, which is usually required in an examination to visit another chapter. Our worthy matron and conductress will review these with us on November 16. An official reception for our own Clayton Herrick, Grand Sentinel, Indiana Grand Chapter, O.E.S., will be held on November 18, preceding inspection. The social hour on the mezzanine will begin at 4 p.m., followed by a program in the Commandery room at 4:45. You won't want to lose this opportunity to congratulate Clayton.

A banquet will be held in the dining room at 6 p.m. Reservations, at $6.50 a plate, may be made with Patricia Nicholson, Ruby McDowell, Tessie Wise. Baby dedication will be held in the Commandery Room at 7 p.m., award of gold ceremony at 7:15 and a called meeting at 7:30 p.m. The official inspection by our worthy Grand Matron Helen Gore. Member Calendar:

Decorating will meet with Ann Overby, 902 W. Creighton.

One of the nicest meetings of any night chosen to honor our friends from other chapters. Our door is wide open and Fort Wayne Chapter is proud of the large number of dignitaries and visitors who gathered to attend our October 5th meeting. The door at 432 Hospitality Lane (a miniature house in the East) is ajar and a welcoming light shines thru. In the West, the letter of the fifth letter in the worthy matron's watchword 'Hospitality', for "Impressions"—reminding that the impressions we first make are lasting and that this night was opportune time to make a favorable impression on our guests.

It is always amazing, but a tribute to our members, to see the ritualistic work performed by a group of officers who have never worked together before—often have never even met before—and have it executed so beautifully. The choir paid tribute to the visiting officers in song; the decorating committee carried out the door of hospitality in the chaplain and dining rooms and the social committee served delicious sandwiches, chips and coffee—all in all a most evening for the capacity crowd.

Following the October 19th meeting the choir entertained with a delightful comedy skit depicting a family watching TV and concluded by honoring our worthy matron "Queen for a Day."

The annual caravan to the Masonic Home was enjoyed by those who motored to Franklin, and especially by our members at the Home who joined in the carry-in dinner and program. Theresa Harsch arrived the day ahead of our visit to make her home there. Bertha Kaiser is feeling better and would welcome hearing from her chapter friends.

The committees and worthy matron wish to thank everyone who participated in our card party and rummage sale. Both were successful and added to our treasury.

This is November. It is the best month of the year to many. But one knows as he enjoys the crisp dawns, mellow noons and quiet afternoons, that the great turn is near. The voices of Autumn are distinctive, but they are not sad. The Master Plan has four parts and the wise man savors each as it comes.

We had 19 members to motor to Indianapolis to attend the State Shrine Association, had a lovely trip and nice weather.

For Past Officers night we had 17 as guests, we were happy so many could be with us.

Life brings many, many changes

As we live from year to year
But there is certainly one thing

That will never disappear

So enduring is our friendship

That whatever else may end

We have the joy of knowing

We are friends.

The above lines were penned by a guest to our court on Friends Night, H. L. Nellie Russell of Court No. 5, Peru. Her son, Kenneth Russell, is well known to many of our readers. Amaranth means friendship and hospitality and this night really brought the warmth of a hand clasp.

By special dispensation—an election was held and S. K. Glen Geiger, Sr. was elected Associate Patron and was installed to serve in that station the remainder of the year. H. L. Louise Wilkerson was appointed and also installed to serve as Marshall in the East.

The official visit of the Grand Lecturer H. L. Leslie Bowman of South Bend was both constructive and inspirational.

Those on the sick list are greatly improved, for which we are so very grateful.

Coming Events

Nov. 8th—H. L. Mary Beaman Deputy Grand Royal Matron will make her official visit to the Court.

Nov. 22nd—Stated meeting with Thanksgiving meditations—"It is good to give thanks unto the Lord." The Royal Matron and Royal Patron wish you and yours a happy holiday.

Dec. 13th—H. L. Waneta Newly of Anderson—Grand Royal Matron accompanied by S. K. Carlton McKenzie of East Chicago, Grand Royal Patron, will make her official visit. A banquet will precede the meeting. Make your reservations early with H. L. Helen Gonterman, chairman. A very special invitation is extended to our sister Court to join us on this special occasion.

Committees—Officers Club will meet Monday, Nov. 6th. Ways and Means will meet Monday, Nov. 13th.

Membership teams are starting to roll—let's keep rolling. The benefit is for your Court.

"THE SMALLEST BLESSINGS"
Did I forget to thank Thee, Lord,
For things that may seem small

A flower by the wayside,
A wild bird's lonely call

For life is made of little things.
So let me not forget

To count my smallest blessing.

And before the sun has set,
To thank Thee, Lord, for every one

That adds a note of cheer,
And my blessings will be multiplied

Before another year.

Another month of November upon us and a little more get-togetherness with the cooler weather. Anthony Wayne Court has some very interesting meetings this month. The official visit of the Grand Royal Matron, H. L. Waneta Newby and Grand Royal Patron S. K. Carlton McKenzie is scheduled for 1st month. The social, decorating, a program committees have all been making plans for several weeks. Friends' Night is November 15th, that is an important meeting on calendar with friends visiting for other Courts.

The decorating committee met at the home of H. L. Helen Matron on Oct. 21. An enjoyable evening was had by all and the final plan for that official visit were discussed and completed.

Coming Events:

Nov. 1st—Official visit of Grand Royal Matron and Grand Royal Patron.

Nov. 5th—Officers' meeting.

Nov. 7th—Ways and Means at the home of H. L. Ethel Beigley, 14th St. Joe Blvd. at 8 p.m. with H. L. Martha Smeader as co-hostess. They have cookies and cards for sale.

MASONIC SECRETS

Over a period of many years have heard and read much about secrets of Masonry, and it is still opinion that they are, in themselves, of the least importance. These called secrets are not the matters of which the Grand Masonic Temple is built. They do not constitute of the ancient landmarks of Fraternity.

Masonry has no secrets which would deem important or to know. The secrets of Masonry nothing more than modes of recognition by which we know each other by which we know a true Craftsman from an impostor, by which we prove ourselves worthy and well qualified by which we show that we have reached the sacred places of the Fraternity, and have knelt at the altar of a common Father.

The fundamental facts of Masonry are not secret. Its principles are known; its objects are known; its members are known; its meetings are known. Our ancient honorable Craft has adopted general principles of secrecy because a unity and harmony of labor be better attained thereby.

As has been said by a great philosopher: "Bees will not work in silence; neither will virtue except in secrecy. Let not thy hand know what thy left hand do. Like other plants, virtue will grow unless its roots be hidden from the sun. Let the sun shine on roots, they wither and no flower will delight thee."

With the election of officers, the York Rite Night which was very successful (those who did not attend missed a very entertaining and enlightening evening) and the Grand Chapter at Gary at which we were represented by R. B. "Dick" Jones, seems this season is going to be busy one.

We also have two candidates to receive the work beginning November 1st, with the Mark Master Degree. would also remind the Companions the dinners before each stated meeting, as the cooks have promised us some excellent menus this year.

Our secretary, R. B. Jones, has added that the dues cards have been mailed to all the members and would remind the Companions that the end of the period for paying dues is March 1st, after which time, they are delinquent as by order of the Grand Chapter.

We failed to state in the last issue the Square and Compass that our H.P., Langdon Mansfield, was presented his Past High Priest Pin with appropriate remarks by P.H.P. Harl Bradley, who he succeeds as Trustee Thomas R. Marshall. We hope to see Langdon at our meetings and hoping us portray the work at which is very proficient.

Greetings Companions, as your newly elected and installed High Priest, I wish to thank you for your confidence in placing me in the highest office of our Chapter. I assure each and every one of you that I will do my best to have a successful year: but this can be done not one man alone, but with the co-operation of all members.

On Oct. 14, 1961, in a public installation, attended by many friends, relatives, and wives, the following officers were installed for the year 1961-1962:
 High Priest Donald R. Marvel
 Ivan A. Plank
 Bernard L. Smith
 Captain of Host Ralph J. Roller Principal Sojourner Robert Marshall
 Royal Arch Captain Albert C. Ungerer
 Master of Third Veil Albert F. Cary
 Master of Second Veil Arthur G. Gardt
 Master of First Veil Robert T. Gabman

..... P.H.P. Roger Shafer pro-tem
 P.H.P. Eugene A. Roush, who started Don Marvel in line, acted as Grand High Priest, P.H.P. Lawrence Miller as Grand Marshal, and P.H.P. Myron A. Millhorn as Chaplain. The Past High Priest jewel was presented by Mrs. Myron Millhorn. Mrs. Don Marvel served a buffet lunch, and the other ladies present. In our stated meeting night of Oct. 1st, we are serving our ever popular pancake and sausage supper at 6:15. So plan to come and bring a companion with you, then above all attend our Stated Meeting, for your officers need your support.

On reading this article, your Grand Council will have attended the Grand Chapter sessions at Gary, Ind., where Don Marvel received the Order of the Priesthood. They hope to have some constructive ideas to present to Fort Wayne Chapter.

Companions you will soon observe another Thanksgiving Day. I take this opportunity to wish you a most pleasant one, and if a trip is involved, let's make it a safe one.

Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 was well represented at the National

We are now about to enter into the Thanksgiving Season. Let each of us every day of our lives prayerfully and thankfully meditate upon the goodness and glory of God. Let His Holy Spirit enter into our hearts and move us to humbly do whatever good we can each day to further His Kingdom.

The York Rite Commandery is planning for one of the final events of the year—our Annual Inspection on Saturday, December 9, 1961. We extend a very cordial welcome to all of our Masonic friends to attend this impressive ceremony.

At 2:00 p.m. the Sir Knights will be assembled in the fifth floor asylum for the opening of the Commandery and the conferring of the Order of the Temple. This will be for Sir Knights only.

Meanwhile, the ladies of Fort Wayne Assembly No. 139 Social Order of the Beauceant will be hostess to the ladies of the attending Sir Knights. Mrs. Myron Millhorn, her committee and members of the Beauceant have planned an enjoyable afternoon for the visiting ladies.

At 6:00 p.m. the Commandery Banquet will be served for all Sir Knights, their families and friends. This banquet will be $1.50 per plate.

At 7:00 p.m. the Sir Knights, their ladies and guests will retire to the fifth floor asylum where our own Fort Wayne Commandery Band under the direction of S. K. Russell Wharton will entertain with a half-hour concert.

At 7:30 p.m., or shortly thereafter, the Officers and Drill Corps will participate in the Public Inspection. Sir Knight Harold R. Hoolihan, Eminent Grand Standard Bearer, Knights Templar of Indiana, will be the inspecting officer.

For those attending the banquet we urge that ticket reservation be in by Tuesday, December 5th. Sir Knight Harold Hamrick is Ticket Chairman (H-03405). Tickets may be obtained from S.K. Hamrick, myself or any Commandery officer.

We sincerely hope that all Sir Knights will cooperate with their attendance and recommend the Inspection to their friends.

LOOK IN YOUR OWN HEART FIRST

The degrees of Masonry depict man's journey through life. Its philosophy forever deals with man and man's relationship with God.

Masonry sees man as he is, his strength and his weaknesses; his hopes and his aspirations.

But in looking toward the tall goal of achievement we may be prone to expect too much of ourselves and of our brothers.

It is true that one has a right to demand more of a Mason than of others. The Mason is the recipient of all that is priceless; he has the advantage of a plan of discipline which is peculiar to our institution. He has also accepted increased responsibilities which are known to every Mason. But with it all, we cannot expect perfection.

That Masonry teaches by symbolism is in itself a symbol of the tolerant attitude that one Mason should have toward another.

The task of each is to do the work at hand; to be so busy in the cause of Masonry that we will have neither time nor inclination to be critical of others who are working toward the same goal which we pursue.

By our own gradual growth and development we will be in position to observe more readily the growth and development of our brothers.—York Temple News, Ohio.

SPRIG OF ACACIA

(LeHigh Consistory News)

The Sprig of Acacia is one of the most interesting and important of all the symbols of Freemasonry, yet there are many who do not have a clear idea of what it is, whence it comes, and how it happened to hold such an important place in the Masonic ritual and tradition.

Botanically, the Acacia is the Mimosa Nolifica, and is called the Babul tree in India. It grew abundantly in the vicinity of Jerusalem in ancient times, where it is still found, and it is familiar in this day as the tree from which gum arabic is obtained. In ancient times the wood of the Acacia tree was considered sacred by the Hebrews. It was of this wood that Moses was ordered to build the Holy Place of the Tabernacle, the Ark of the Covenant, the tables for the Shewbread and the sacred furniture. By the Jew, therefore, it is only natural that the tree from whose wood he sanctuary of the Tabernacle and the Holy Ark of the Covenant had been constructed would ever be viewed as more sacred than other trees. The early Freemason, with all these things in mind, likewise very naturally appropriated this sacred plant to the equally sacred purpose of a symbol which was intended to convey and teach an important truth in the ages that were to come.

The Sprig of Acacia, to the Freemason, is symbolic of immortality, which is one of the most important doctrines that it is the purpose of Freemasonry to teach. In our funeral service it is referred to as "the emblem of our belief in the immortality of the soul." One of the basic tenets upon which Freemasonry is founded is an unfeigned belief in the one living and true God, and of the immortality of the soul, embellished by this green sprig.

BABSON DISCUSSES BANK ACCOUNTS

Babson Park, Mass., October 26. My column today is addressed to young people getting married, or to those in a position to advise couples starting out in life. Newlyweds should place at least a part of their joint savings, after buying essential furniture, in straight life insurance. When they are young, they can get such insurance without difficulty and at a moderate rate. Next, I recommend building up credit and establishing good will at a local bank. It is a wise move to rent a small safe-deposit box for jewelry and important papers, including wills. Don't forget to make wills, even if you haven't much capital.

BANK ACCOUNTS VALUABLE

It is important to keep a reasonable deposit in your local bank for emergencies, . . . and a portion for possible later investment when conditions are less clouded and you have more funds. After you put money in the bank, don't withdraw it until the proper time comes, and then only after careful consideration. Think of your bank account as sacred, not to be disturbed except for these pre-considered contingencies.

The young may think the idea unimportant, but there is no better way of building up a reputation for thrift, honesty, and hard work than by starting a bank account and MAKING REGULAR DEPOSITS. Become acquainted with an officer of the bank and speak to him every time you go in, so that he will come to know you and will be able to give you a good reference if you need one. Getting to know bank officials can be as valuable to you as your bank-account interest payments. BANKS TODAY ARE SAFE

During the bank-closing emergency in the 1930's practically all the weaker banks were done away with, so that financial institutions today are in a safe and profitable position. This brings me to the question of bank stocks, which I recommend as an investment . . . particularly the stock of your local bank with which you do business. Practically any local bank could be liquidated for more than its published assets, so that you as a stockholder would probably get more than you paid for your shares. Five or ten shares of such stock would probably be one of the very best investments for a young married couple.

INVESTING IN BANK STOCKS

If you are going to put more than a moderate sum into bank stocks, it would be wise to get the Annual Reports from at least two or three banks and go over them carefully. Any bank will give you an Annual Report, whether you are a customer or not, and in most states these reports must be published in the papers every year. After my father's death, I recall finding a scrapbook in which were pasted all the Annual Reports of our hometown Gloucester banks, clipped from the Gloucester Daily Times.

Most people look for the bank with the largest deposits, but let me give you a hint about this. When bankers talk to me about their "large deposits," I always say, "Well, you certainly owe a good deal of money!" Because it should be realized that a bank's deposits represent money that must be paid back to the depositors sooner or later. Therefore, when appraising bank statements, be sure to subtract the deposits from the total assets to find out what would be left for the stockholders.

LOOK BEHIND THE SCENES

In considering bank stocks, always check up on the character, integrity, and ambition of the men in charge of the bank's operations. Be sure that the officials are in good health, and that their judgment is sound. It is a good sign if they are church-going men. It is, of course, an extremely bad sign if they are addicted to liquor.

MASONIC BENEDICTION

May no strife disturb the day, or sorrow thy night and may the pillow of peace kiss thy cheek, and the pleasures of imagination attend thy dreams, and when length of years have made thee tired of earthly joys, and the curtain of death gently steals around the scene of thy existence, may the angels of God attend thy bed, and take care that the expiring lamp of life shall not receive one rude blast to hasten its extinction, and finally, may the blessings of Heaven wash thee free of all impurities and prepare thee for that land of everlasting felicity.—Masonic Tidings

THE UNITY OF FREEMASONRY

By Carl H. Claudy

As every Master Masoo who visits in another jurisdiction than his own soon discovers, the rituals of no two grand lodges are alike. They all tell the same story, are founded on the same legends, have the same philosophy, teach the same truths, but they do this with differing arrangements of sequence and of words.

Nevertheless, the ritual of Free Masonry is the basic rock upon which all the Masonic rituals of all the several bodies of Freemasonry are built, or from which they departed on a voyage to secure for themselves a new ritual . . . the wiser a Mason becomes in any of the concordant bodies, the longer he lives and learns within them, the more convinced he is of the primacy of that which is given the initiate when he is raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason.

Now that vacation is over, we may reflect on a year almost done.

The greatest highlight of the year to me, and possibly a lifetime, was having the privilege of raising my own son, Billy Shenk. Welcome to the fraternity, Bill.

I also met several old friends this year whom I had not seen for years. Ones whom I had always admired, I've found to be Bro. Masons. This fact calls to mind, before being brought to light, many times my regard for the Fraternity was not always the best because a Brother or two heeded not well his lessons. I find now that this is a very rare occurrence. It brings to mind the wonder, if the general public might likewise be misled by a few unthinking Brothers by an offhand remark or two.

Leave us not forget that this nation was created for religious and racial tolerance by our own Brethren. We must respect these wishes, even though it might seem that by this very act, we may destroy the privilege.

We, the officers, would like to see all members possible at December stated meeting for elections and the annual oyster supper. See you there for a very enjoyable evening.

My Brothers, as has often been said, Masonry is a progressive science. New Haven Lodge is progressing with the younger members taking an active interest and part in the affairs and work of the Lodge. As I previously wrote, we had planned on work in October but our candidate requested that he be held over until November, thus making a void in our schedule.

We managed to slip in a guest night banquet for the Brothers and their guests and a good time was had by all, aided by a very interesting illustrated travel talk by our Senior Deacon Norman O. Long covering his two years of living in Indonesia. A short talk on Rules of the Road with explanations was given by member Don Fry, State Police Officer assigned to the Fort Wayne Sub-Post. This talk proved of interest to all those attending and, I might add, clarified numerous points of contention.

We have a candidate on holdover and will vote on another petition at November Stated meeting. We will have one petition for degree presented, and possibly two, so it appears as though we will have a busy month in November and December together with election of officers at the December Stated meeting.

I am glad to announce that Paul Harding has recuperated and is back to work. Paul has been having a rough time with a siege of sicknesses and hospital visits. Glad that Paul is back in circulation again.

Brethren:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks and appreciation for the time and work spent by the brethren in preparing and participating in Lodge for Instruction at Decatur. It is encouraging to see the members share in the responsibility of keeping our lodge work as accurate as possible. Thanks again. We had a very enjoyable and profitable evening over at Decatur and I hope they enjoyed their session with Brother Bennett as much as I did.

Our honorable secretary, Bro. Herb Jesse has recently returned from a trip to Europe. At our Nov. 9th meeting he will show colored slides covering his tour of England, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, France, and others. Don't miss this meeting! Refreshments will be served. See you there!

RUG IS WORTH MILLION DOLLARS

In the George Washington Masonic Memorial at Alexandria, Va., are a number of unusual things of interest to Masons that only a comparatively few members know of. Probably the greatest of these, considering its historical background, is the giant rug in the general assembly room.

This rug covers the entire floor, about thirty by sixty feet, and although it is on display, visitors are not permitted to walk upon it, but are restrained by a small chained area within the entrance door.

At first sight one is impressed by the beautiful colors and the outstanding arrangement of the pattern, as far as one can see the figures are the same. When the room is darkened and with low lights, the most singular effects are achieved.

If the lights are blue, the brilliancy is increased, it seems as if the blue in the rug is raised directly out of the floor. The same effect is repeated with red lights and the red figures seem raised above the floor.

The secret of these dyes seem to be a lost art, present day weavers do not seem to be able to make such beautiful color effects.

The material is a very fine soft wool, apparently from young lambs, and today its colors and condition is miraculous.

This rug was the gift of Brother Sarkes Hnarthigian, an American immigrant who left his native land to establish his business in Chicago where for years he has been the outstanding rug dealer in that city, if not in our whole country.

Within a comparatively short time he was taken and accepted into Masonry and in his gratitude for that privilege he made this gift to our National Masonic Memorial honoring the great Mason, George Washington. Before making this gift he was offered a million dollars for it which he refused.

In this rug are 64,800,000 knots, all hand tied by many children of pre-school age. It required the full time of twelve weavers for 27 years. It weighs 600 pounds and is the greatest Persian rug in the world.

It was made for a Shah of Persia in the year 1625, just five years after the Pilgrim fathers landed on our shore, and is now 336 years of age but as beautiful as if made within recent years.

FIRST MASONIC GRAVE IN AMERICA

The oldest Masonic grave in this country has the date of 1680 on the gravestone. This stone is at the Old Burying Ground in Charlestown, Mass., and marks the last resting place of Sergeant Richard Ketell, 71 years, who died in the year mentioned. Also engraved on the stone are angel's wings, an hourglass and Masonic emblems. It is told that the Grand Lodge of England ordered that no other stone be erected showing Masonic devices in such numbers. The stone is of great interest to many people.—Contributed by Harold R. Kohl from a New England newspaper.

WHAT IS THE SYMBOLISM OF THE MASONIC ALTAR?

(National Observer)

The altar is one of the most ancient symbols of mankind. It has great significance for all ages since the red dawn of history, and the candidate might profitably devote hours to the study of this one subject.

In Masonry the altar, among other things, is a symbol of faith. It rests the Three Great Lights, and comes the candidate in search of light and to offer himself, symbolically, to the service of his fellow and the Grand Architect of the universe. Here he takes his obligations traditionally considered more solemn and binding when taken at an altar than under any other circumstances. In every activity of the lodge altar is the focal point for all Brethren, that the precepts for which it stands and the Lights that thereon may guide their every thought and action.

Obstacles have but one meaning: take off your coat and get busy.

Usually the man who thinks his genius can't think of anything else

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

For some time, to curtail the ravages to American business and employment brought about by the flood of cheap goods from low labor wage areas, Sen. Keating and colleagues have had before Congress a measure which would set tariff rates according to the prevailing wage scale of any nation exporting to the U. S.

This problem of having an economy undermined by goods produced with cheap labor is not alone an American one. In England, the present government, is trying to get England into the European Common Market.

The European Common Market to which practically every free Europe nation belongs, except England, is a plan whereby goods are moved between nations without import duties or tariffs.

However, since the Macmillan government started the drive to bring England into the Common Market, there has been, according to public polls made in the British Isles, a distinct opposition to the Macmillan government which some believe will cause its fall.

A major spearhead against the plan is the Beaverbrook newspapers who are currently running front page boxes on the affect joining the European Common Market would have on British welfare.

Quite a typical example of a National Federation of Independent Business this barrage is as follows: "The hourly wage of a textile worker in Britain is 3 shillings, 11 pence. The hourly wage of a textile worker in Italy is 1 shilling 11½ pence. That is why the mills in Italy will damage the industry and employment of Lancashire if we go into the Common Market."

Translated into American money, this means the British textile worker gets 53 cents per hour, the Italian worker 25½ cents per hour.

Thus, the British opposition to tearing down their tariff walls that protect their business and employment is a great lesson that American policy leaders who have taken steps that have already destroyed a great part of the American textile industry should take note.

The British know, despite their efficient production methods, that they cannot compete with a nation who pays the workers half as much as the British pay.

Thus, it is difficult to see, the starry eyed State Dept. dreamers to the contrary, how U. S. industry can compete with a wage scale that is about four times that of the British scale.

There is perhaps another lesson to be drawn from this situation in England.

The British People seem to be willing to permit their leaders to engage in many strange maneuvers, but when they adopt a course that threatens the welfare of the man in the street, a mighty storm is set up. Nobody is going to destroy Alf's job without having a fight on his hands.

THE INDIANA MASONIC HOME

Rules, Qualifications and Directions for admission to and conduct in the Masonic Home at Franklin, Ind. References: Indiana Blue Book (Appendix) and Handbook for Secretaries (Chapter 6).

It has been our experience in talking with our Masonic Brethren that so few know much about the Qualifications for admission to the Masonic Home or any of their rules. In several articles we are going to endeavor to help, if we can, to clear up any questions that might arise in talking with any of Your Brethren on this topic. Also to encourage each Lodge to have some plan to instruct their new Master Masons on this subject. The Home is a part of our Fraternity so let's be well informed. We are not authorities on this subject, therefore our information is taken from the above references.

Our first list of information is as follows.

1. Who are eligible to apply for Membership in the Masonic Home?

a. Master Mason, in destitute circumstances, who has been a member the requisite number of years.

h. His wife, in destitute circumstances.

c. His Widow, in destitute circumstances.

d. His child, over the age of four and under fifteen.

e. Member of the Order of the Eastern Star the requisite number of years, in destitute circumstances.

2. The following are not eligible to apply for membership in the Masonic Home:

a. Mother of a Master Mason, as such,

h. Mother-in-law of a Master Mason, as such,

c. Adult son or daughter of a Master Mason, as such,

d. Member, or his dependent, of a lodge outside the State of Indiana.

e. Widow of a Master Mason first husband whose second husband was not a Master Mason.

f. One who is mentally ill.

g. One who has tuberculosis, epilepsy, cancer or any contagious or infectious disease.

h. One who has funds or property sufficient to provide care for himself.

i. One who has children who are financially able to provide care. Remember,

1. Child members of the Masonic Home may not be adopted.

2. Applicants may not be admitted ahead of their turn.

3. "Emergency" applications, either for hospital or otherwise, are not received.

4. The Home does not make advance agreements to admit any person, either child or adult.

5. No amount of money is sufficient to obtain admission of one who is not destitute or who does not otherwise qualify.

This is a summary of some of the things each of us should know. Look for our next article. Home Lodge 342, Masonic Home Committee.

PAST MASTERS ASS'N. TO CONFER DEGREE

The Northeastern Actual Pastmasters Association F&AM will meet Dec. 29, 1961 at the Fort Wayne Masonic Temple to confer the Pastmaster degree upon the Masters elect of Fort Wayne and area Lodges.

Presiding Masters are asked to have their candidates to the Temple promptly at 3:30 p.m. Home Lodge 342 is serving as host to the invocation and dinner will be served at 6:15 p.m. All Past and presiding Masters are invited.

Officers of the N.A.P.A. are: John L. Lare, President; Lester E. Smith, 1st Vice President; Robert R. Marshall, 2nd Vice President; W. Arthur Rodemeyer, Secretary; Orvis A. Dellinger, Treasurer. Members of the executive committee are: James Farrar, Thomas Cannon, Berton Sterling, Clarence McIntosh, Harry Wann, Glenn Myers, Earnest Earhart and Rolla Durbia.

I'M A NEW GUY

I see you at meetings but you never say hello; you're hushy all the time, you're there with those you already know. I sit amongst the fellows, yet I'm a lonesome guy, the new fish are as strange as I-you old fellows pass us by. But darn it, you guys asked us in, and you talked of fellowship; you could just step across the room but you've never made the trip. Why can't you nod and say hello, or stop and shake my hand? Then go and sit among your friends, not that I'd understand. I'll be at our next meeting, perhaps a nice lunch spend; do you think you could introduce your self? I want to be a friend.—North Niagara Falls, N.Y.

As I start to write this issue for the Square and Compass I realize that my being W.M. of Home Lodge is rapidly drawing to close as you make progress in advancing up in the Lodge line you think of many things that you will do when you become Master, but different problems arise that you cannot foresee and the first thing you know time is running out for you and you wonder where it went. The saying of the hour glass is How Swiftly the Sand Runs, but time keeps right up with it. At our family night we had better than 600 to attend. We were really pleased to see so many attend. We will have work in the month of December. On our Master Mason night we will have dinner and after dinner we will have our 12th Grand Lodge award of Gold. For all the sick and shut-ins I wish them a speedy recovery.

Maumee will be busy with work in December so come on up and be a part of your Lodge—the best Lodge going—anywhere.

We are sorry to have to report to you the loss of Brother Jim Darby—I'll never forget Jim—he was the Brother I met in Scotts Rite Masonry who asked me if I had ever taken the Lords name in vain—remember?

Your W.M. has been busy calling on the sick Brothers of both Maumee and other Lodges—this has been nice to do and certainly would recommend that all of you good Maumee Brothers call on or send a card to any of the sick that you know of. See you in Lodge.

This I Offered You

In January, I came to you as master and brought you nothing in my hands.

I brought

Only myself

And all that within, my life and experience have come to make me what I am now with you.

I came—hoping that you would welcome me,

If not—then hoping that you would eventually accept me

And if never—

Then I still came and remained for as long as you needed me, though you may not have wanted me, though you may not have loved me as a brother, I came.

The wanting and the loving remained as my gifts to you because I wanted to render my service and love as a gift to all of you.

I may never have called on you, and you may never have needed me

But I was there to fulfill my duties to the best of my ability

The experiences have been beyond description and their memories will remain forever.

So I stayed and offered my all for you, members of Wayne Lodge No. 25. Still as I leave, in my heart is a gift given to all of you freely

It is a gift of love which I offer with all humility.

Then someday, in this connection,

I hope I can hear my Master above say,
"Well done Thy good and faithful servant!"

It is again that time when we will be electing a new worshipful master for 1962. This will be done during our annual stated meeting of December 7. A dinner will precede this meeting at 6:30.

We had a very nice crowd for our annual dinner-dance held on November 4. I hope everyone present had as enjoyable an evening as I did. My only regret is that our entire membership could not be present.

On October 26 the award of gold was presented to John W. Reynolds, who now resides in St. Louis, Mo., and to Robert J. Gaskill of the city who will soon be a fifty year past master. He was Worshipful Master of Wayne Lodge in 1913. Brother Clyde Flowers, Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Indiana presented the awards to the members. Following this our past masters exemplified the 3rd degree for the lodge. They did a fine and commendable presentation in their respective stations.

Soon after the arrival of this issue, the great holiday season of Christmas will be creating great disturbances in every household and all over the land. When that big day rolls around, I will be thinking of all of you and hoping that:

"With the dawn of Christmas
May you find it true
That in His love and goodness
God is watching over you."

Brethren, here in December we approach the end of another year. Soon I will relinquish my duties as the Master of our Lodge and turn them over to a new Master. How quickly have the sands of time run this past year.

This year has seen many new brothers raised, and we have conducted the last rites for some of our beloved brothers who left our Lodge on earth for the Grand Glorious Lodge above. Brother Delbert Hand was taken from among us last month.

Our annual Family Night Dinner will be on the 16th of December. It is always a highlight of our year when the families of our brothers can join together in fellowship and partake of the eats and entertainments. We hope all of you will plan to attend and that you will get your reservations in early.

Also this is the month when we elect our new officers for the coming year at our stated meeting Dec. 7. I know you will want to attend an important meeting and take part in electing your new officers.

Before I take leave I want to thank all of the Brethren for their cooperation this year, those who served on committees, and those who gave their assistance in our work. My thanks go to the Brethren who labored in the kitchen that we might enjoy our dinners and after Lodge refreshments. Also, I certainly want to thank the visitation committee for the time at the Veterans Hospital as they have served so nobly in a fine effort. Finally my special thanks to my members for their splendid cooperation and I wish to commend them for their excellent work. Also my sincere thanks to my Junior Warden, Bob Mausteller and his lovely wife for beautiful decorations they planned and made for our special dinners.

And now I wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a very, very happy New Year.

I wish to close my year with the following poem by Alfred Tennyson:

Ring Out the Old

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the sky,
The year is going, let him go,
Ring out the false, ring in the true,
Ring out the grief that saps the mind,
For those that here we see no sign,
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in redress to all mankind,
Ring out a slowly dying cause,
And ancient forms of party strife,
Ring in the nobler modes of life,
With sweeter manners, purer law,
Ring out the want, the care, the war,
The faithless coldness of the times;
Ring out, ring out my mournful rhymes,
But ring the fuller minstrel in,
Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite,
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring in the common love of good,
Ring out old shapes of foul desire,
Ring out the narrowing lusts of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old,
Ring in the thousand years of peace,
Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kinder life,
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.

Brethren: This being my last article in Square and Compass that I shall write as your Worshipful Master, I wish to take this opportunity to extend to you my most sincere and grateful thanks for granting me the honor and privilege of serving you as your Worshipful Master for the year 1961. It has been a most enjoyable one and a very rewarding experience, and one that I shall treasure and cherish for the rest of my days.

From the time this appears in the December issue, it will be only a month away that another will assume the duties of Worshipful Master. To that brother I offer my sincere and wholehearted cooperation, and am sure that he will receive the same excellent cooperation from his fellow officers as I have. I cannot thank them enough for their unselfish devotion to their duties. It is such devotion that are dedicated to the principles of Masonry that make the term of the Worshipful Master a pleasant one. To them I shall be eternally grateful.

To all the brethren who have so fully assisted in the conferring of the degrees, and to those brethren who so willingly gave of their time to attend the last Masonic rites of departed brethren, those who faithfully visited at the Veterans' Hospital, to the chairmen and members of the various committees I owe a debt of gratitude. My sincere thanks to you, my brothers, because without you it would indeed be a long rugged road.

I am happy to report that I have received a great many compliments on my Homecoming Banquet held on 27th. It always gives a person a feeling to know that your efforts are appreciated in making an important occasion such as this memorable, and one long to be remembered.

Our Most Worshipful Past Grand Master, Theo. J. Jena, who for and behalf of the Most Worshipful Lodge of the State of Indiana an outstanding job in presenting 50-year Grand Lodge Award of honor to three of our distinguished brethren — George Walter Craig, Joseph Janoschke and P.M. Harvey Somers. Our Most Worshipful Grand Master Harold S. wrote me requesting that I press to them his personal congratulations for having achieved this distinguished award.

There were many who expressed joy at the wit and humor of Mel H. Ramsey, our principle speaker who spoke to us on "Value of humor." His stories and jokes had everyone laughing. Brother resides in Rumford, R.I. He is Master Mason of Saint Andrews No. 39 of Riverside, R.I., a degree Mason, and member of Mystic Shrine.

I have five petitions for the de- presented at our November meeting so it appears that we have plenty of work in December. Please make careful note of dates for December. Entered Apprentice Dec. 8, Fellowcraft Dec. 15, Master Mason, Dec. 29th. On the 15th, the usual date that would confer the Fellowcraft has been set aside for a Material. Unless the differences are resolved before Dec. 15th, will be held on that date and that as many of our brethren as possible attend this trial.

We are planning a dinner for Apprentice and Master Mason nights and I would like to see a good representation of our brethren on those nights.

The following brethren have been called to join the Celestial Lodge above where the Supreme Architect of the Universe presides: Hugh W. Stahl, Oct. 24; Maurice Ruby, Oct. 12; Fred W. Musser, Oct. 16; Chas. S. Burton, Oct. 23; Joe H. McCormick, Oct. 27; Walter Nickerson, Oct. 29, and Adam Henline, Nov. 1. To their families, relatives and friends we extend our sincere sympathy.

We have the following sick brethren, P.M. Brown Cooper, St. Joseph's Hospital; Gordon Wilkerson, Veterans' Hospital; Robert Reed, Parkview Hospital. John R. Gibson, 473 St. Joe Blvd., Paul Porter, Chas. F. Martin and Leonard Newport are now at home. We wish all of them a speedy and complete recovery. I have also received a report that Bro. Jesse Miller, who now resides in Minneapolis, Minn., 1315 7th St., S.E., is very ill and would appreciate a card from the brethren here.

And now my brethren, in conclusion I should like to leave you with this thought on "Brotherhood."

It makes no difference after all,

Which lodge a fellow joins;

He can be an Elk from Timnookoo,

Or an Eagle from Des Moines;

If he keeps his obligations,

And does the best he can,

He's a credit to his emblem and

The Brotherhood of man.

His coat may bear three links of gold,

Or a compass and a square;

His watch chain represent an Owl,

A Lion, a Moose or Bear;

A K. of C., or a K. of P.,

No matter the creed or brand,

If his heart is right, he's a shining light,

In the brotherhood of man.

If he cherishes the vows he took,

If no duty he tries to dodge,

If he steers a course by the golden rule,

He's a credit to any lodge.

Pray God some day each emblem,

And the orders for which they stand,

Will meet and weld together for

The brotherhood of man.

If you need to move a mountain
Of trouble from your way,
Don't be discouraged by its size,
Just work at it each day.

When I was elected as your Worshipful Master in January, the year ahead seemed to be bereauclean, but here I am doing my last article for the Square and Compass and I can hardly believe a year has almost past. It has required much, but the support of others has certainly lightened the load.

In most all of my past articles I have tried to bring you something in a philosophical nature, but this time I feel as though I would just like to think that I am talking to each of you in personal friendly manner—just plain visiting.

Just the other day a friend of mine and I were visiting over a cup of coffee and he made this remark, "You certainly have given many hours of your time to Masonry." I replied to him, "but look at all the good that Masonry has given to me."

The good book tells us that "It is more Blessed to give than to receive," and the best way I know how to prove any statement is to put it to the test, which I have been doing for six and a half years in Masonry. As I recall our Fraternal Friendship Night when we had some eighteen lodges represented and one-hundred twenty-five brothers on the sidelines to witness the Fellowcraft Degree I was thrilled beyond mere descriptive words, but all this was only possible by the assistance of a fine group of officers, their wives and countless others that assisted in the plans for that evening.

We enjoyed a fine Picnic, a Family Night and a Fish Fry and by the time this article reaches you our Past Masters Night will be added to the past events of 1961.

This was also the year we procured new Jewels and aprons for the officers as well as a new Masters Hat.

The Fellowcraft Club took on a new life under the guidance of Past Master Bill Butz, assisted by Robert Squires, Rex Lamm and Irvin Whitman.

Thanks must also go to Gerry Botteron and Don Anderson for some entertaining films which were shown after several of our Fellowcraft Meetings.

The Grand Architect called a number of our members to their eternal home and we were blessed with new members to fill the missing places.

This has truly been a wonderful year for me and as I look back now and recall these past events I am filled with mixed emotions and wonder if I shouldn't have given more—

In December we will have our election of officers and I want to take this opportunity to wish them one and all a wonderful year of service. I will join the ranks of the Past Masters who sit quietly by the side and give their moral support to all the affairs of the lodge.

What more beautiful time of the year to bow out—than at the Christmas Holiday Season.

May this of all your Christmas days, turn out to be the best and when the New Year rolls around, with 12 more months to spend, may health and fortune call on you and stay from start to end.

THREE RIVERS LODGE No. 723 F. & A. M.

Stated Meeting
Second Tuesday

Delbert R. Dennis W.M.
2708 Waynedale Blvd. S-4293
Curtis K. Heston Secretary
4721 S. Anthony K-2418

One year ago I was seated on this same chair looking ahead with enthusiasm, preparing to write my first article for the paper. Now I find myself beginning my farewell message to you as your master for 1961, with mixed emotions, looking back, and filled with fond memories.

During this year I have not quoted the poet to tell you that roses are red and violets are blue etc. I have not said that spring is just around the corner, or that winter is fast approaching. I didn't mention that the sands of time are running out. These things are obvious. I did however take advantage of this fine paper to bring you all the news of our organization as it happened and to keep you informed of schedules. I hope that you have enjoyed reading the column as much as I have enjoyed writing it.

The Question has been asked, how do you measure the success of a Masonic year? The answer is simple. You measure your success by the degree of accuracy in which you accomplish the things you set out to do. In the beginning we planned to increase the attendance, to live within our financial budget, to receive as many worthy candidates as would knock at our door, and to promote good fellowship throughout this area by use of our Masonic Play. We have accomplished these things. I am satisfied that the year has been most successful. This success is credited to all of our officers and many others who have given of their time and talents.

My sincere thanks to Bro. Fisher who not only filled his station well but in addition did a splendid job as chairman of the Masonic education committee, and who also has a perfect attendance record. Brother Franklin did equally as well in his station as well as a magnificent job with the refreshments. The senior Deacon Lewis Howard, made remarkable progress and added much to our degree work. The record shows that our Chaplain LeRoy Roberts attended every meeting for which I am grateful. The stewards Hall and Huffman in addition to their regular duties did many other detailed tasks which helped so much. Sherman Senger was an excellent Tyler he kept busy doing extra things too. Bro. James Bowser substituted for Jr. Deacon most of the year. He did a fine job and his work is appreciated. You read the story of the Sec. and treasurer last month.

My very deep appreciation goes to Tom Mohr "Director of Rose Upon The Altar," to Lawrence Huffman who was magnificent on the visitation committee. Also the other committee chairmen, Kenneth Witte, Lee Garrison, Glenwood Rosevear and Leslie Sils. Please thank all your committee members for me. I am indebted to the Past Masters who assisted and counseled with me. I want to thank everyone who contributed anything to the Lodge even to the ones who merely attended a meeting.

The officers and myself send greetings to our sick members. Arthur Harris and Richard Rider were recently in the hospital. We hope that they are feeling fine again.

The M.M. degree on Dec. 5th will conclude our degree work for the year. We will open at 5:30 and eat at 6:30. I have requested that all of those who have been candidates this year be present. Plan now to come and meet all of our new members in a group.

The annual stated meeting falls on Dec. 12th. New officers will be elected for 1962.

Now in closing I will say farewell as your Worshipful Master for 1961. I shall return to the craft and the place from whence I came.

MASONIC FACTS OF INTEREST

For some three or four centuries the only architectural style used in either northern Europe or England was that which afterwards came to be called Gothic. Some 1,500 cathedrals were erected in that style by the Freemasons. For that reason they are often referred to in histories as "the Gothic builders" or as "cathedral builders."

Thanksgiving has been called a "jewel set in the hearts of thankful men."

But what will we be thankful for—an over-flowing table, "glad rags," a new car or a color TV. If so, we'll agree that these are fine and desirable but the fellow who has been caught in a tight bind, at some time in his life, knows that some things are much more important.

He would probably be thankful for friends, church, faith, laws, freedom and truth. He would believe that these are the timeless gifts of God to man—the vital, life-enriching heritage of man. He would be a fellow who would not take the material things of the day and leave out the gratitude.

Here is a comment made by Will Rogers many years ago. Maybe it is still pertinent. "If the pilgrims could gather in a few punkins, peatators and some corn for the winter, they were in a thankful mood. Now, if we can't gather in a new radio, some fancy rags and some guvament aid we feel like the world is agin' us."

Waynedale will work during the month of December. Out stated meeting and election of officers will be Wednesday, December 6. Because of the importance of this meeting, try to be present.

We will raise another MM on November 29. We plan a dinner at 6:30. Since regular MM night for our lodge would be Thanksgiving eve, November 22, we have pushed MM night into the fifth Wednesday of the month. You will soon be notified of our plans for Past-Masters night.

I would like to congratulate the new members of DeMolay who were initiated in the month of November. I feel that you have made a big step in starting the New Year out well, which is approaching fast. You have also taken a step in laying aside a foundation upon which your future will be built. I hope that you will follow the teachings of our Martyred Hero who gave his life for his beliefs.

The month of December will see many activities in the Fort Wayne Chapter of DeMolay. Highlighting a few of these will be the annual Christmas Formal to be held on December 27. This dance will be sponsored by the Scottish Rite for the Job's Daughters and the DeMolay's. Admission will be by 1962 dues cards of either a Job's Daughter or a DeMolay. I hope all will participate not only in the dance but also in the planning and decorating.

Also in the month will be the election of the top 3 officers. On this night all the city high schools will be represented by a girl which they will enter in the contest for the chapter Sweetheart. The winner will be announced and crowned at the Christmas formal.

I would like to extend a Very Merry Christmas to all the DeMolays and all persons working with them.

Since the January issue of the Square and Compass will not be delivered until after the first of the year Happy New Year too.

Bill Branstator M.C.
DEMOLAY MOTHERS

The DeMolay Mothers December meeting will be the Christmas party on Dec. 4 on Monday at 6:30 at the Trinity Episcopal Church at Berry and Fulton. Mrs. Grace Whonseller is in charge of planning. The program for the evening will be given by Mrs. Keller, Portrait of a Family. The Christmas project for the Circle is needed recreation articles for the retarded children.

I was glad to see so many Moms and Dads at our Mom's and Dad's Night November 1. I hope you come back real soon. I want to thank Ellen Stanbery and her committee who entertained that night. Also I would like to thank everyone who helped work at the rummage sale. It was October 31.

For our money making project we are going to sell candy bars. They are bars of milk chocolate and almonds and are larger than regular candy bars. They will sell for 50¢ each. I hope, girls, that you will do your part in selling these candy bars. You can get them at the meetings.

Mother's Club will be at Mrs. Tenent's house, Dec. 11 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Troyer, Mrs. Eby and Mrs. Parker will be co-hostesses. There will be a 25¢ gift exchange.

Our big events for December will be our Christmas Party on Dec. 20, the installation of the newly elected Honored Queen Dec. 23, and our Christmas dance with the DeMolay which is Dec. 27. For the new members I would like to explain about the dance, it is free for all Job's Daughters and their dates, but you do have to show your dues card at the door. Which reminds me girls, this is the month that your 1962 dues are due.

Since you won't receive the next Square and Compass until January I want to wish to all of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Our heartiest congratulations Mrs. Rehklau who has a new grandchild.

A final reminder—don't forget Bakeless Bake Sale.

CALISTHENICS

Thanks to Selmagrams of Petersburg, Florida; Perform exercise on Lodge nights:

First stand up and stretch. Second, walk over to the television. Third, bend down and slowly return.

Fourth, straighten up and walk to the closet.

Fifth, lift your head, take a coat, put it on and drive to Lodge.

So far you have stretched, back, exercised arms and legs, rested your eyes. At the Lodge will exercise your mind on Masonic principals and subject your life to precepts and examples. Your life will help you make a new man. YOU. Try it!

AN APRON LECTURE

Masonry is a song of the soul. Along its pathway, for centuries, courageous, manly men have trod master's carpet drawing their inspiration from its sacred treasures of truth, philosophy, tradition, art, and history.

Backward lies the past, upon milestones are inscribed the history of our Masonic lore. About us stand the transcendent thought and life of men who today lend dignity and stature to our Craft, while before us lies the future resplendent with the bright hope.

The king, wrapped in his robes, the judge clothed in his mine; the statesman, crowned with his laurel wreath of fame; the farmer who earns his daily bread by the sweat of his brow; have deemed it an honor to wear this emblem, this badge of Mason.

Now the sunlight of hope glows in your heart, and the vigor of manhood is pictured upon your countenance, yet on tomorrow's eyes may be closed in eternal sleep, and then this apron will be a shroud for your coffin.

But so long as life shall be yours, brother, wear it so no word of proach will ever come to you, fraternity which has entrusted your keeping. Accept it then, with blessing and benediction of the brothers who surround you.

Finally, when the fateful comes in which you, too, must descend into the narrow house, let better life, whose billows in eternal shore, may it be, in the words of the poet, "Like one who wears a drapery of his couch about him, lies down to pleasant dreams."

There is a Christmas song upon the air, There is a joy innate within the heart; An inner sense of peace, a holy light, illumines life and sets these days apart. On hill and valley flows this mystic peace, On high and low looks down the Christmas Star; and from the heart of one who holds dear, This Christmas message where'er you are. May all the blessings of the Christmastide descend, a mantle like new-fallen snow . . . Upon your heart; and through the year to come . . . May we be with you as you come and go.

We wish at this time to thank all those who had any part of making this inspection such a lovely evening. Thanks to all the chapters for co-operation in decorating the chapter room so beautifully and making the dining room so pretty. It was very much appreciated by the Worthy Grand Matron and other guests. We would like to congratulate Sister Bessie Clark who was presented a gold card by our Worthy Grand Matron. Again we are entering the Yuletide season all too soon. There are several changes of dates so we would like our committee members to note the changes.

We all have the same number of hours in a day, but how we use our time makes the difference in how much time we have for other projects and for leisure. "Time" was the word chosen by our Worthy Matron for "T" the sixth letter of her watchword Hospitality.

For those who planned time to attend the November 2 meeting, they were rewarded by Non Pariel's program which featured a Mother singers choral group. Non Pariel presented Chapter with new covers for the rituals. Non Pariel is a social group who love to play cards so the East was appropriately decorated with a table set up for playing cards. Members of the group were given playing cards for badges and prizes were awarded the lucky card holders.

We missed, at this meeting, Vera and Paul Hadden and Helen and Clayton Herrick who were attending General Grand Chapter in Miami, Florida.

A tribute to the sideliners — those members who serve chapter by their attendance but are not members of a particular committee or group — was presented at the November 16 meeting. Also at this meeting we reviewed the signs and passes of the Order.

The officers will pay tribute to their Star Pals at the December 7th meeting. An entertaining program is being planned and, of course, there'll be refreshments.

Spread a little cheer by remembering our shut-in Sister Lottie Slater, Lawton Nursing Home, on her birthday December 12.

You won't want to miss Fort Wayne Chapter's observance of Christmas at the December 21 meeting, so shop early and spend a little of your holiday spirit enjoying the hospitality and fellowship of your Star sisters and brothers.

DECEMBER CALENDAR:

4, Social Committee's Christmas dinner and gift exchange will be held at Holiday Inn, at 6:30. Reservation Deadline is December 1st.

5, Satellites potluck and Christmas exchange will be at the home of Betty Peters, 122 Edgemoor Lane, 7:15. You are reminded to bring your table service.

11, Visiting Christmas party will be at the Y.W.C.A. Dinner reservations should be in by the 8th. There will be a gift exchange.

12, Past Matron's will announce their Christmas plans.

13, Decorating's banquet will be at 6:30 at the Woman's Club. Reservation deadline is the 6th.

Fill your heart with Merry Christmas And good will from heaven above; Tie it, like a Christmas package,

With a shiny bow of love. Give it to a friend that's lonely, And enclose a card of cheer; It will bring you joy at Christmas And a happy bright dew Year.

Our first meeting in December will be Dec. 1 and will be honoring the side liners. The second meeting will be the Christmas program Dec. 15 is the date. The program committee and the choir have planned a very lovely meeting and the officers will be in charge of refreshments and decorating. The Ways and Means committee are selling peanut brittle at 75 cents a pound.

Let us light the candles on our trees of hope. This is the Christmas season. Let hearts refresh and take joy and gladness to those who are heavy laden. Happiness finds a lodging only in the generous heart. Forget the trials of the hour, know that all this world is governed by a wisdom far greater than anything we can comprehend. If we learn the peace of ever-lasting reliance in God, we will have no fear. For he can make the season one of rejoicing and praise-giving.

Since it's the time for everybody to think of Christmas, let's all think of Jesus' Birthday too and what He did for us. He gave us the true meaning of Christmas. Star of the East wants to say "Merry Christmas" to all of its members and Happy Holidays.

On November 16, 1961, Inspection was held by Star of the East and Ft. Wayne Chapters at the Temple. It was preceded by a dinner at 6:00 o'clock in the dining hall. The tables were arrayed with cornucopias filled with gourds and bittersweet. It was lighted by yellow candles to give a festive look.

The called meeting began at 7:30 p.m. The chapter room was decorated with the theme of "Ruth, And The Wheat." In the East was an ox cart filled with sheaths of wheat and a white fence with daisies and lily-of-the-valley all around it. In the West was an open White Bible with her watchwords Be-Ye-Kind, marked by a bookmark with the Star's five colors. Our guests were Worthy Grand Matron Heleo B. Gore and our Worthy Grand Patron Bradley J. Swift. Star of the East had the opening and Fort Wayne doing the initiatory work. The Baby Dedication was held at 7:00 o'clock. The Worthy Grand Matron Helen B. Gore conducted the ceremony for the eleven babies dedicated to our chapter. Our Worthy Matron Gladys Coe presented the gifts to the babies.

On November 1, a title of Honorary Captain was conferred on Eva Lee by the drill team. She became a charter member on April 19, 1929. In 32 years of organization she has missed just five drill practices and two exhibitions and has been Drill Team Captain for 25 years. A tribute was given her along with a silver whistle and a gold laynard by Mrs. Gertrude Knight. Mrs. Lee responded by the many happy times she has had, over the past 32 years. There are four charter members remaining on the Drill Team.

Just a reminder to those who want to pay their dollar to the International Temple Fund for their once in a life time membership. You also will be a certificate. Please keep this in mind.

Wayne met the Princess and the Chief of the Wanamacs for a very inspirational and friendly meeting that was also educational. The Social Committee worked very hard, made mocassins for all present and dressed dolls and made headbands for all. The lake and forests were abound with wild life for those present. A small Indian boy stood in front of his wigwam in front of the Throne. The social group served a delicious dinner of roast venison, ham, corn bread, pumpkin pie and all that would please an Indian group. It was further carried out in themes by the program chairman. This all took place on November 1st when the Grand Royal Matron, Waneta Newby and Grand Royal Patron Carlton McKenzie officially visited Anthony Wayne Court. A very special "Thank You" to the program and social groups and an extra special "Thank You" to the decorating committee for weeks of work.

One of the highlights of November was the Officers Meeting at the home of S.K. and H.L. Boldt. It was old-fashioned hay ride and we bake with officers of Anthony Wayne Court No. 3 as guests. It was a night but a crowded hay wagon everyone warm and comfy, even the flat tire did provide a few bumps. Many of our officers in were invited to be guests at Anthony Wayne Court for their Friends Meeting on November 15. A wonderful evening was enjoyed by all, and we thank you for our invitations.

Our stated meeting on November 22 was fittingly celebrated in the theme of the Thanksgiving holiday, and filled with plans for the Official of our Grand Royal Matron and on December 13. We hope to have a large attendance at that time and invite all Honored Ladies Sir Knights to make reservations for the banquet with H.L. Evelyn 7638 St. Joe Rd. T-0046 or the H.L. Matron or Secretary.

The Ways and Means Committee met with H.L. Bessie Myers on November 13. The December meeting will be on December 11, place to be announced. Officers will meet on December 4 with H.L. Mabel Granada Drive.

There has been a great deal of news and distress reported during the past month. S.K. Ben Brothers several broken bones due to a S.K. Glenn Geiger, Jr. is now able to be back on the job after his accident last August. The uncle of Bertha Clear passed away, and her sister and S.K. Paul's sister quite ill. H.L. Stated Assembly
Third Thursday

Dickey I.M.

George F. Gable Secretary
20 W. Wildwood Ave. H-4727

Another month has rolled around passed into oblivion. Many events come and gone.

Council, together with Fort Wayne Chapter, held their installation of officers on Saturday evening, December 14th.

Officers installed were: Edward Dickey, III, Master; Clayton Herd, Dep. Master; Carter Palmer, Cond. of Work; George Gable,
Dep. Secy.; John Lombard, Treasurer;
John Pontoni, Capt. of Guard; Jim Lombard, Cond. of Council; John Steward; Fredrick Ruoff, II, Steward; Glenn Myers, Sentinel.

and Council assembled at Gary for annual session October 26th and 27th. By now you know that the Council will assemble in Fort Wayne in October 1962. Many of the Companions will be asked to serve on committees to help make the assembly a success. It will not be small task to get all of the details in working order.

newly elected Most Ill. Grand Master Karl L. Dickes set out in his acceptance address a good challenge to us all by asking for a ten percent increase in our membership.

Each of our Companions is asked to become a Salesman and sell York Rite Masonry to our Blue Lodge Brethren.

What is "York Rite Masonry?"
You hear this phrase or title, frown and ask. "What is this question may be answered in many ways. Remember well during your degrees in the Blue Lodge you stood before the Master and he remarked that York Rite is a progressive science."

When you travel on the highway of life you learn many lessons. Only a few are presented to you.
This is a golden opportunity, the opportunity of traveling a delightful road leads to personal progress in life. This road must be traveled step by step. But each step reaches and is a never to be forgotten experience; something to 'lay-up' in the archives of your mind and heart for future use.

The further you will understand and appreciate how Freemasonry enriches your life and the lives of those around you. It cements the ties of men into one great family of men and Brothers who seek the enrichment and happiness of all mankind. It inspires and rewards with a sense of purpose beyond all monetary possibilities. Masonic opportunity never ceases. Your personal progress is up to you.

York Rite is a series of Masonic degrees which dramatically explain the teachings, backgrounds and ancient customs which are not fully explained in the Symbolic or Blue Lodge. All of these degrees are rich in history and color. They are presented in full regalia.
There are no "work lectures" for candidates to memorize.

York Rite degrees are consecutively, by three separate bodies, the Chapter, and Commandery, each of which exercises complete authority over the degrees it controls.

Thanksgiving has passed and each one should have had many things to thank our Heavenly Father for.

Within a few days we will celebrate the Birth of Christ. Let us be thankful again for the privilege of living in a Land of the Free, where we can worship as we please. Let us sing our praises to the fullest. Let our hearts overflow with joy. Let happiness ring from the house-tops to proclaim this Blessed Event.

Good night to you all, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Since our last writing for the Square and Compass, the Grand Chapter of Indiana has elected John Lombard as Grand High Priest for the ensuing year. Our congratulations to John, as we feel they could not have elected a more able or experienced man to discharge the duties of this office.

We will have our usual dinner before our Stated Meeting in December, and we urge all members to be present. As of this date the menu has not been selected, but judging from past dinners it will leave nothing to be desired.

I would like to extend to all Companions the Seasons Greetings, and I would like to bear from all members living in other communities.

Thomas Marshall was well represented at the York Rite meeting October 20th. The Commandery Drill Team under the direction of Excellent Companion Harry Haller, gave an excellent exhibition, and the Shrine Masquer's gave their usual fine performance. This was followed by a brief talk by Excellent Companion, John Lombard, on York Rite Masonry, after which refreshments were served in the kitchen. We feel sure the meeting was enjoyed by all who attended.

George F. Gable Secretary
442 W. Wildwood Ave. H-4727

As the year is fast drawing to a close, I wish to take this opportunity to wish all Companions and their families, my sincerest wishes for a most Happy holiday season. We will all be attending many gay and cheerful parties, during this Christmas time; but let us never forget the true meaning of Christmas.

For our dinner, for Dec. 21, the night of our Stated Meeting, we will serve fried chicken, prepared by our own Chef, Don Planck, assisted by the wives of our Officers. To them we owe an everlasting debt of gratitude, without whose faithful help, we would have been unable to served these popular monthly dinners.

At the Grand Chapter session at Gary, several honors were accorded members of Fort Wayne Chapter No.
19. Excellent Companion John Lum-bard was elected Grand High Priest.

John then appointed Ex. Comp.
Roger Shafer as Grand Guard, and Comp. Doyle White as Grand Chaplain. Also I have the pleasure of serving as Grand Master of the Second Vail.

Companions, the second Thursday of each month is York Rite Assn.
Stated Meeting night. No one knows better than myself, how many nights a week are needed, to take an active part in Masonry; but it is my wish that all line Officers as well as any companions who can, attend these meetings at which time details for degree work, as well as other things for the good of the Order, are discussed.

It seems to be a misunderstanding idea, that petitions need only be brought in by the officers. Nothing is further from the truth, as we need help from each one of you. However if you need help in selling York Rite Masonry to any of your Blue Lodge brethren, any of your Officers including myself, will be glad to help, aid and assist. Also companions, let's show our appreciation, of living in a free Country, by attending your Chapter more regular. Remember one must take their life in their own hand, to even belong to a Lodge in many foreign countries.

Be seeing you Dec. 21st.

All Master Masons and their families are invited.

Plans are being made for our annual York Rite Commandery Ball which will be held Saturday evening, February 17, 1962. Those who enjoyed our "Sweetheart Ball" last February will want to remember this date.

We wish to remind all members about the election of Commandery officers for the ensuing year at the regular stated convocation December 21.

Members of the York Rite Bodies have been enjoying a fine dinner in the kitchen at 6:00 p.m. before the stated convocations of Fort Wayne Chapter, the Council and the Com-month. Invite your Blue Lodge friends to this hour of good fellowship.

The York Rite Association election of officers will be December 14 at the regular stated meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the fifth floor lounge.

And now, may the Lord ever renew a right Spirit within us, especially at the Christmas Season, and may His Spirit of peace on earth and goodwill to all men prevail throughout the Earth.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

It is probably too early to draw definite conclusions, but it appears more than a little significant that since California enacted a "no limit" law, that the federally computed cost of living index shows consumer food prices on a downward trend.

About mid-year the California Legislature, following a long established Texas custom, passed a law making it illegal for anybody to limit quantities of the sale priced merchandise any one purchaser could buy.

It had long been the custom, principally by chains, to offer items far below the wholesale cost to induce people to come into the store. But to minimize their losses, it was always stated a customer could only buy one or two of the items.

But that is changed now.
Under the law, if a retailer offers merchandise below the wholesale cost, his competitor down the street can drive up with a truck and buy out the entire stock for supplying his stores, and it is illegal to try and stop him from doing so.
Thus, at least in Texas, and now California, a lot of foolishness has been stopped.

Under the old system, in theory, the store would make up what it lost on these below cost sales by marketing its higher priced goods.

(C) National Federation of Independent Business other goods which presumably the "hot special" buyers would purchase while in the store.

This worked out to be as fallacious as the theory that the more government spends, the more money there is in circulation, hence the greater the prosperity. Shoppers attracted to the stores on "hot specials" are usually price conscious, and determine quite readily whether other goods they intend to buy is higher than available some place else. The result was, as fishermen say "they weren't getting their bait back."

So, in order to make up for these losses, it was necessary to keep raising higher and higher the markups on non-special items. And like a dog chasing his tail, this resulted in an endless circle with retail food prices always inching upward.

But the passage of this new law seems to have reversed this trend, with price tags hanging obsequiously along the shelves.
While there is a dearth of "hot specials," there is also a lack of fantastically high mark ups on other items to try and make up losses on the specials.

The passage of the law also seems to have another effect.

Instead of trying to fool the buying public, the accent on staff training now is being placed on quality, courtesy, service, and fair pricing. And as already indicated, it appears that the California consumer, after at least twenty years of unwittingly financing noisy jungle warfare in food retailing, is benefitting in the process.

Glad to report most of us are back from vacation and back to work.

Sorry to report the loss of Bro. PM Sylvester Warner and Bro. Russell Holloper. Our deepest sympathy for their families. Their loss is greatly mourned among the Brethren.

On more pleasant notes, we are pleased to announce our annual oyster supper at 6:30 p.m. on December 7th. Come and enjoy the supper and an evening of fellowship. This is also stated meeting and election night. It is also the time when all committees give their annual report. Everyone possible should come. Cards will not be sent out.

Also on agenda in December, Bro. PM Walter Kell will receive his 50 year pin on evening of Dec. 14th. This is a special meeting open to public, at 7:30 p.m. A short program and refreshments follow. Would like to see a good turn out for this one. An interesting program is being planned and should be very enjoyable to all. Bring your friends and family.

I am sorry to bring to attention the Grand Lodges comment on which was noted that we are very short of Masonic Home contributions. The goal is $100 per member. We have 302 members and a contribution of only $196.00. Many of the members contribute $2.00. Some give $5.00. Evidently most members give nothing. This gift is purely voluntary, so please, when paying dues, add a dollar or two for the Home. It is an excellent home and deserves more and better help. I missed visitation day, but our members who were there, reported an immense appreciation for the work being done. Please remember the aged and dependent. A dollar goes a long way in helping them. Don't forget.

See you at the December 7 oyster supper and meeting. Watch for card or word of mouth on Degree work coming up.

Friday, October 27 the Ossian School cafeteria was festively decorated in autumn colors to honor the illustrious Harvey A. Ault, 33°. 169 of the Brothers, their wives, Harvey's family and friends gathered in tribute to Harvey's Ault's recent elevation to the honorary 33°, of Scottish Rite Masonry, Brother Earnest Earhardt did a superb job as Toastmaster of the occasion. Many of the Brother's came from far and wide to be with Harvey during the tribute that was given him in his own home town. Incidentally, I was quite pleased with the spontaneous reaction of the fellow lodge members to get this whole affair arranged in such a short time.

It should be mentioned that Harvey's wife, Mary, should receive a lot of the credit for Harvey's achievements in Masonic work. We believe that without her co-operation this would have been almost impossible. This is the first Masonic affair in our memory that included Brother's and their wives in a social affair for our Ossian Lodge. Judging from this occasion, we hope that there will be more such affairs in the future. Again, congratulations to Wells County's second 33°.

November 6th, was the annual homecoming for Ossian Lodge and as usual was a great night for fellowship. We presented the 25 year awards to Ralph Hoover, Past Master, 1958; and Ernest D. Seaman. The award was presented to Ralph Hoover by Past Master Ed Hostetter. Harvey Ault took this opportunity to thank those present for his gift and the tribute that was given to him. The speaker of the evening was Rev. Kenneth Timmons, who spoke on the subject "Being a Mason in a world at war." The program chairman certainly made a fine choice in Rev. Timmons and we all enjoyed and were inspired by his presentation. In closing, I want to say that it was nice to see Past Master, Elmer DeBolt and Hospitalier, Charlie Lewis present. Both Elmer and Charlie haven't been feeling too well recently.

Incidentally, you wonderful women of the Methodist Church, thanks for the extraordinary Ham Loaf dinner.

WHY WE ARE CALLED "FREEMASONS"

There are many theories: a man was a Freemason because his ancestors were not slaves nor was he a slave; he was so called because of the Guild's laws, he could thus "travel in foreign countries" and work where he would; he was a Freemason because he worked in freestone, which is any stone which can be cut, smoothed, carved in any direction; he was free when he had passed his apprenticeship and became a Fellow of the Craft he was free when he left the status of serf or villain and legally became free. Probably at some time or another, Masons were called Freemasons for any of these reasons or for all of them. The consensus leans to the theory that the Freemason was such because of his skill, knowledge and abilities which set him free of those conditions, laws, rules and customs which circumscribed masons of lesser abilities in the cathedral building age.

ETERNITY

The efforts and strivings of our three-score years are not adjusted to the scale of seventy; they are adjusted to the scale of immortality. This life is not the opera, it is the overture. It is not the book, it is the first chapter of the book. A man must be wakeful to his eternal destiny if he would know the magnitude of things.

DOES THIS SHOE FIT YOU?

We sing "Sweet Hour of Prayer," and then content ourselves with 10-15 minutes a day—or no time.

We sing "Onward Christian Soldiers," and wait to be drafted into His service.

We sing "O for a Thousand Tongues," and we do not use the one we have.

We sing "There Shall Be Showers of Blessings," but do not come when it's raining.

We sing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," and let the least little offense sever it.

We sing "Serve the Lord with Gladness," and gripe about all we have to do.

We sing "We're Marching to Zion," but fail to march to Sunday School and church.

We sing "I Love to Tell the Story," and never mention it all year.

We sing "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord," and worry ourselves into nervous breakdowns.

We sing "The Whole Wide World for Jesus," and never invite our next door neighbor to church.

We sing "O Day of Rest and Gladness," and wear ourselves out traveling, cutting grass or playing golf.

We sing "Throw the Life Line," and content ourselves with throwing out a fishing line.

WHAT IS AMARANTH?

About three hundred years ago in Sweden during the reign of Queen Christina, the Order of Amaranth for the Ladies and Knights of the Royal Court. The name of the order was probably chosen because of the never red Amaranthus flowers growing in profusion at that time. The Order was perpetuated and exists in the Royal Court of Sweden now. It, however, had no connection with Masonry, so let us leave it, and come to its originations in this country.

Several other organizations were organized in France from about 1730 on in which the women related to Master Masons might show their desires and earn the respect and honor of the Fraternity. These ladies are said to have been adopted into the Masonic communion, and the "Rite of Adoption" was organized in 1775 provided that each organization must be under the sponsorship of some Masonic Lodge.

During this period and following it, in the United States the same fellowship was growing. In 1852 Rob Morris speaks of the Eastern Degrees, and wrote the Ritual of this Lodge, setting up the "Chapter" system. At the same time, and using the form of the original Order of Amaranth of Sweden, was written, setting up the "Court" system. In 1873 the first Order of the Amaranth was officially organized by Robert Macoy and Rob Morris, of which it was said "This Organization shall be known as the 'Rite of Adoption of the World' and shall consist of the degrees of the Eastern Star, the Queen of the South, and the Amaranth." About 1880 the Eastern Star began to form separate organizations, and in 1921, the requirement that you must be a member of the Eastern Star in order to join Amaranth was dropped.

In the Amaranth, initiation is by a Master Mason. Installation of officers is by a Master Mason. Elections are held by Master Masons. All the floor work is on square corners and turns, and is performed in pairs. Swords which are generally those of Knights Templar are seen much in evidence.

Under all present laws, rules and regulations, all Rituals and Landmarks, no woman can come closer to being a 32nd degree Adoptive Rite Mason, than when she is privileged to become an Honored Lady of the Amaranth.

THE INDIANA MASONIC HOME

References: Indiana Blue Book (Appendix) Handbook for Secretaries (Chapter 6).

May we continue with our lesson from last month. After an application has been asked for, it is the duty of the Masonic Home Committee of their respective Lodge to call on the applicant. Read the rules for admission to the Home and determine whether, in your opinion, the applicant is eligible, if, upon careful investigation of the applicant's circumstances, you are convinced that he or she is eligible, then secure an application form. This application form has many questions that have to be answered with a great deal of thought. An application usually has stumbling blocks.

1. Failure of the Lodge to read and understand its resolution requesting admission of the applicant.
2. Failure of both Lodge and applicant to read and understand the agreement signed by the applicant.
3. Vague or inadequate report of the Lodge's Masonic Home Committee.
4. Lack of complete information in letters of applicant's children, attempt of children to dodge questions, or their refusal to co-operate.
5. Inadequate laboratory reports in medical examination.
6. Failure to attach copy of prepared burial agreement.
7. Lack of proper signatures and absence of Lodge seal.

These are some of the things required on the application form. Check and double check to see all questions in this form have been answered. Don't make the mistake of building up the hopes of an applicant you know to be ineligible.

Winking at falsification or concealment of pertinent information is just the thing that may prevent an applicant the privilege of a home for the rest of their lives. Look for our next lesson in future issues.

Home Lodge 342 Masonic Home Committee.

By the time you read this, the installation of the officers of your lodge will have been held. At the annual stated meeting December 5, the following officers for 1967 were elected:

Francis H. Ray, Worshipful Master; William P. Reinbold, Senior Warden; Ervin L. Burelison, Junior Warden; Herman H. Rauseh, Treasurer; David R. Mills, Secretary; Ralph J. Roller, Trustee.

The appointed officers are:

James T. Peters, Senior Deacon; Harold S. Salishury, Junior Deacon; Homer L. Clendenen, Chaplain; Loyd N. Bouillon, Senior Steward; Russell W. Prince, Junior Steward; William N. Slyby Sr., Tyler.

Trustees to serve again are Harold O. Martin and Donald C. Stoneman. These officers and myself will be doing our utmost to serve you in this coming year. I feel I have, as all incoming Masters must feel, a group of officers that are very capable of this most important duty to the Craft wherever dispersed. We have the confidence that 1967 is going to be a good year, and we wish all the Craft health and happiness for this coming year.

The first important event in our calendar will be January 23, when we will be honoring an august group of this lodge, namely the Past Masters and their ladies of which we have many. Watch your local paper for an announcement of the program for this event. Tickets will be $1.25 per plate for Master Masons and their ladies. Yes, you can bring the "little" woman to this event.

We will have a candidate for the Fellowcraft and Master Masons Degree. We always have a dinner to honor the newly made Master Mason and the brethren on this important night. So brethren, ask and bring one of your Master Mason friends, come down and enjoy fellowship with us; and also to help us, for we as the officers of your lodge need your help and support. As all men need aid and succor.

You will be kept informed at all times about the coming events in your lodge through the Square and Compass.

Second Tuesday

Albert J. Fisher W.M.
522 Third St. E-3061
Curtis K. Heston Secretary
4721 S. Anthony K-2418

Albert Jay Fisher was elected Worshipful Master of Three Rivers Lodge No. 733 F&AM, Tuesday, December 12, 1961 at the Masonic Temple.

Other officers elected were Thomas Franklin, Senior Warden, LeRoy Roberts, Junior Warden, Hoyt C. Campbell, Treasurer, Curtis K. Heston, Secretary, and Delbert R. Dennis, Trustee. Appointive officers are Brns. James Bowser, Senior Deacon; Kenneth Disler, Junior Deacon; Glen Rosevear, Senior Steward and Tom Mohr, Chaplain.

Outgoing officers are Worshipful Brother Delbert R. Dennis, Lewis E. Howard, LeRoy Roberts, Loyce E. Hall, Lawrence E. Huffman and Sherman L. Senger.

The new officers were installed January 2nd at a public Installation ceremony which was very well attended. Installing officers were Worshipful Brothers Kendall C. Freck, Homer H. Stevenson and L. Gail Davison. The gavel which was made by Bro. Sherman Senger was presented to Bro. Fisher by Worshipful Bro. Delbert Dennis. The Master then welcomed all illustrious Brother Albert R. Spencer, 33°, gave the invocation. Music was furnished by St. James Lutheran Choir under the direction of Mrs. Paul Keck and accompanied by Brother Melvin Hill.

The Worshipful Master's address contained some interesting remarks. "We are no longer able to demand that this be done or that be done. If we do not think seriously about Masonry, who will?" asks Brother Fisher. He also gave some examples how people make excuses to get out of serving. One remark that was mentioned was self concluding. "To be an officer of a Masonic Lodge is an honor not given to the man but earned by him. Honor is above rank or title and is self earned!" Brother Fisher finished his address with an appeal to the wives present to send their husbands to lodge because the teachings of Masonry not only make finer men but teaches them to be better husbands and citizens.

The Past Masters Apron and Pin were presented to the outgoing Worshipful Master Delbert R. Dennis. The benediction and singing of the Recessional hymn concluded the program.

A reception was held served by the Misses Lori Trump and Mae Vinning assisted by Brother Lee Garrison.

Stated Meeting

John W. McNaughton W.M.

George F. Gable Recorder
442 W. Wildwood Ave. H-4727

Writing for the Square and Compass is a new experience for me. It seems rather difficult to believe that 1962 is already upon us. The New Year's approach has always been a time for reflecting past deeds and looking ahead to future plans.

Your lodge is looking back over its shoulder at the efforts of all who have given so much of their time and talent to make Maumee the successful lodge it is today.

We are proud of the fine leadership that has gone before us. The standards that have been established will be a challenge to maintain, but our trust is in God and with His help 1967 will be another fine year for Maumee.

You have elected the following officers for the following year. John McNaughton, WM, Herschel Bolyard, SW, Paul Stait JW, Fred Raake Treas., George Gable Sec., William Ginger, Shirley Scholer, Herh Foreman as Trustees.

The following appointments have been made. Berton Pontoni SD, Philip Gutman JD, Arthur Graue SS, Wayne Doerhman JS, Robert Mathieson Chaplain.

You have a fine lodge of which you should be justly proud.

There will be a class of 4 candidates for January with the Master Mason degree being exemplified on Jan. 27. Why not take this opportunity to visit lodge and see the calibre of work that Maumee offers?

A final thought — In a Sunday School class room hung this sign: What kind of a class would this class be if everyone were just like me?

What would your lodge be if everyone were just like you? Plan now to make 1967 your year to contribute to your lodge.

Sincerity is the very foundation of true friendliness. It is also a human trait that is hard to counterfeit, as the sincere friendly impulses come from the soul of a man and not from the calculating mind. Think kindly and friendly thoughts. If you have a heart and soul, why be ashamed of them? Bring them in to the shop and office and your daily life. The hand may be cunning, and the head may contain the brain that can conceive the most brilliant thoughts, but every good and worthy impulse comes from the heart. Strengthen them; believe that they are your friends, and in the long run you will be.

This is an excerpt from the Indian Freemason, author unknown.

My pledge to the Lodge is to be sincere in all my thoughts, words, and actions during the coming year. Summit City Lodge elected as officers for 1962, Worshipful Master, Murray Petty; Senior Warden, Robert H. Miller; Junior Warden, Donald R. Johnson; Treasurer, Albert Spencer, P.M.; Secretary, Dwight M. Myers P.M.; and Trustee, George Winchell, P.M.

Appointed officers are Senior Deacon, Robert J. Stone; Junior Deacon, J. J. Harter; Chaplain, Jack I. Hanson; Senior Steward, Thomas W. Elder; Junior Steward, Lawrence Elder; Tyler, Arthur C. Walda; and Assistant Tyler, Grover A. McBride.

Committee Chairman for 1962 are Masonic Home, Albert R. Spencer, P.M.; Auditing, Donald H. Borge; Finance, Leon B. Williams, P.M.; Fundraising, Albert R. Spencer, P.M.; Registration, Robert P. Porter; Education, Dale W. Lucas, P.M.; Visitation of sick, Carl G. Schlenker; Resolutions, Robert B. Coar and William A. Adler; Entertainment, William B. Thompson, P.M.; Decorations, Dean E. Boltz; Wardrobe, William H. Instruction, Harold J. Meyers; and Masonic Service, Lowell H. Kire and William E. Maxwell.

Class conductors will be Robert Leifer, Harold J. Meyers, George Wager and Richard J. Scott. Past Master Abner R. Wolverton is appointed director of the Fellowship club.

Thank you is used so frequently that it sometimes seems to be almost meaningless, yet it is an expression of my heart felt gratitude to all those who have so cheerfully and willingly agreed to share with me the responsibilities of the lodge during the coming year.

By the time you receive this issue of the Square and Compass your Officers will have been installed by the Past Masters Albert R. Spencer, Abner R. Wolverton and Berton Sterling Jr.

Installation of officers was set for 10 on New Years Day with a reception on the Mezzanine following the installation.

Plans are being made for the Ladies Night Banquet, which will be held on March 30. Details for this and other events will be announced later. We want to be really up to date, so to lodge.

Brother Ray Lee is in the Lutheran Hospital recovering from surgery, by the time you read this he should be nearly recovered and at home.

Last but by no means least I think you for your expression of confidence in me by electing me as Worshipful Master of your Lodge. I can only say that I will do my best not to betray that confidence. A Happy and Prosperous New Year to all. See you in lodge.

Kenneth J. Redding ----- W.M.
3510 S. Maple Grove - H-81429
Arthur C. Slane ----- Secretary
3205 Reed St. ----- H-60453

My Brothers, in this my first article for the year 1962, I wish to thank all of you for the opportunity of serving you as Master and also to wish each of you health, happiness, and joy for the coming year.

I know there will be problems to be solved and the one I am the most concerned with at present is the attendance at Lodge. Sol D. Bayless has a membership of 1050 and if we have 50 in attendance it is considered a large crowd. Where are the other 1000? I know that approximately 10% live out of town, but that still leaves 900 in the Fort Wayne area. The lodge needs your help and you can help by attending and taking at least some small part.

Masonry in some parts of the world is prohibited, but not in this glorious country of ours which was founded by our Masonic Brethren. Must we wait until we are oppressed before we wake up to realize what we have? When Monday night comes around, make it a point to be in Lodge at least part of the time.

We have several social events coming up this year—Family Nite, March 3rd; Smorgasboard supper and square dance, April 14; Fish Fry, October 13; And our Annual Past Masters Nite, November 26th. Mark these dates on your calendar and plan to attend them.

Your officers and standing committees for this year are Kenneth J. Redding, Master; Max Poorman, S.W.; James Timmons, J.W.; Arthur C. Slane, Sec.; Melvin V. Ebrman, Treas.; Harold Houser, S.D.; Robert Stute, J.D.; Donald Anderson, S.S.; Rex Lamm, J.S.; Irvin Whitman, Chaplain; and Oliver Lynn, Tyler.

Clarity or Relief Committee is K. J. Redding, Max Poorman and James Timmons.

Masonic Home Committee is Melvin V. Ebrman, Eril C. Steward and J. J. Anderson.

Auditing Committee is Clarence Kreischer, Sol London, Karl E. Reid, Jr., and Melvin V. Warner.

Entertainment Committee is James Timmons, Harold Houser, Harold Whonseller, Rex Lamm, Irvin Whitman, Glenn R. Bickel, Robert Banton, Charles Canfield, Robert Squires and Delmar J. Proctor.

Publicity Committee is Max Poorman, James Timmons, and Clarence Stroup.

Proficiency Committee, all officers, Clarence Stroup and Howard J. Anderson.

General Assistance Committee is William I. Butz, Eril C. Steward, Kenneth McGraw and Clayton L. Herrick.

New Year A Checkpoint:

The Wise and Beneficent Author of Nature must certainly have had us all personally in mind when he created in the minds of man, those sparks of inspiration that brought about what we might call "Checkpoints in Life." Take for instance, the New Year: We are at once reminded of the words of Saint Paul who said with realistic wisdom: "Let us run with patience, the race that is before us." South Gate is fortunate in having the same Masonic heritage that every other Lodge has, large or small, old or young. We have a heritage of symbolism and allegory; of dedicated officers; of Masonic charity in its broadest sense; of a body of members who, in their own individual manner in the midst of conflict and application to life's working world, still manage to apply in some quiet, unobtrusive way, those principles of brotherly love, relief and truth. With this rich foundation to draw upon as our "bank account of spiritual pay," we all share in the truly great experience of looking forward to the coming year. South Gate Lodges is moving forward; is re-dedicating itself to vitalizing its very life blood, the individual; is concerned about reaching the talents and aspirations of its membership; is actively and positively seeking to inject into the thoughts and actions of each member some of the enthusiasm, the team-spirit, the participation-level that makes for a successful lodge. Your Lodge is sensitive to your needs. Time is the only element that intervenes. Your Officers, your Committee Chairman, your Committee Members are busy organizing plans for personally contacting you. We invite you to share in this great experience. When you come to Lodge the next time (and it doesn't matter how long it has been since you've been there), you will find someone there to meet you, welcome you, help you get into the Lodge room. One man we heard about has not been there for over 10 years; he probably feels that no one cares, or that he might be humiliated by questions concerning entrance into the Lodge. There is a place for you in South Gates work. Courteous behavior, friendship and tender aid will be rendered to you. Try us out!

Plans lead to Action:

Some thirteen Officers and about twenty Committee Chairman, together with about a hundred Committee Members have met on several occasions to make careful plans for South Gate. A Calendar of Events has been prepared for the entire year; plans have been laid for an Every-Member Contact Survey; a Social Program has been completed that we believe will inspire, entertain and re-vitalize your life; plans for keeping all members informed of progress have been made. We ask now, that you give us your support and your understanding. A large number of players have taken the field of action; some are still "on the bench." Won't you rise to the occasion personally and join us on the field?

A Point-of-View:

At this very early stage in the life of South Gate in 1962, the Team has adopted some ideas that perhaps demonstrate our point-of-view:

* Keep the Faith by giving it away!"

* When people Share, people care!"

* Always Everybody Ought to Get the Word; keep people informed.

And Finally: * "I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to my fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again." (S. Grellet).

Some things you'd like to know:

January 8, Dinner at 6:00; Installation of Officers and Stated Meeting. Come and make your presence known. This is not public.

Roy Hart and Mrs. Hart celebrated their 39th Wedding Anniversary on our last Friday Night.

Secretary Frank Bryan and Mrs. Bryan will be celebrating their 25th Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, Jan. 4. All members are invited to an Open House "at home" from 1:00 to 6:00.

A 50 Year Award will be presented to Brother George Beason at the Jan. 8th meeting. Let's fill every seat in the Lodge that night.

Our Past Masters, including our Junior Past Master, who have done such a masterful job for us through the years, are planning to take an active role in the affairs of South Gate. Here is a goldmine of human resources.

Our newest candidate lost his raincoat on Dec. 4th. Please Help!

On a final note, a successful Lodge is a good investment of time and effort. A good Lodge does not just happen; it is planned, worked for, worried over and evaluated; it is flexible and active; it is made up of loyalty; devotion to God; devotion to country, cooperation and an overwhelming desire to cooperatively do the best that can be done for its members.

To those who are ill we wish a speedy recovery. To those with sorrow we express our sympathy. To new parents and grandparents our congratulations.

Happy New Year from all of us to all of you.

A Letter From Your Noble Prophetess and Assistant Secretary of State Association.

It seems fitting that at this time I should drop a line to you Sojourners to enlighten each of you as to what the Indiana State Shrine Association is and what it is trying to accomplish.

I have lately found that several Sojourners did not know who could belong to the Association. Therefore I am taking this opportunity to convey this information to you.

The object of the Association shall be to the promotion of sociability and fraternal friendship and the advancement of the Order in general.

Membership.
Any member of the White Shrine of Jerusalem in good standing in his or her own Shrine, in the State of Indiana, is eligible to membership in this Association.

Meeting.
Regular meetings of this Association shall be held in April and October. The April meeting shall be held on the second Saturday of the month unless it falls on the Saturday before Easter, in which case the meeting will be held on the third Saturday. The place of meeting shall be decided upon majority vote of those present at the October meeting.

The annual meeting shall be held on the second Saturday of October in Indianapolis. Election and installation of officers shall be held at this meeting.

Dues.
Dues in this Association shall be twenty-five cents per annum, payable October 31 of each year.

I am twenty-five cents.
I am not on speaking terms with the butcher.

I am too small to buy a quart of ice cream.

I am not large enough to purchase a box of candy.

I am too small to go to the movies. I am hardly fit for a tip, but when I am used for State Shrine dues, I am considered "Some Dough."

I have several hooks of dues receipts and would be more than pleased to write one of them out with your name on it if only you would drop that little coin of such little value in my hand.

Since our Shrine has been organized we have been faithful supporters of the Association and have been given several honors for having the largest membership in the Association, last year we tied for second place. What do you say lets be on top this next year? It all depends upon you and that little twenty-five cents.

Fanny M. Bickel.

Stated meetings of Miriam Shrine will be held January 12 and January 26. Come to Shrine and support the officers—good "side liners" are essential to the growth and prosperity of Shrine.

The Oran club will meet January 29 at the home of Sog. Erma and Alton White, 4709 S. Anthony at 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

Miriam Shrine has been saddened by the deaths of 2 Sojourners, Clara Maurer and Nora McClew.

Illness in the Shrine: Emma Oolden is slowly improving, we are happy to report Shirley Bly is able to be out again. Several Sojourners have had the flu. To all who are ill we wish a speedy recovery.

As you know this is the last of the year. I would like to thank each and everyone of you who have been kind and helpful to me during the year. I would also like to express my thanks to my mother and father without their help I would have been able to do it. At this time I would also like to express my thanks to the wonderful girls who were officers, and to the council for being so kind.

I just like yesterday. I was so tired, I had a never-ending month to go through the wonderful 6 months. It has been a very experience and I sure love it. I will never forget.

And to you Diane, I would like to express my congratulations. I know you will have a successful year.

Well, I guess that just about it so I will be seeing you at meetings. Thanks again everyone.

I would like to express my appreciation to each and every son who attended my installation on December 22. I realize how difficult it was to come since it was close to Christmas, which makes appreciate the attendance more.

The newly installed officers as follows: Diane Simmers, Honorary Queen; Ellen Stanbery, Senior Queen; Carol Botteron, Junior Queen; Sharon Erler, Guide; Pat Marshall; Rosalie Curtis, Chaplain; Susan Poirey, Treasurer; L. Foulkes, Recorder; Connie Mousician; Marsha Kemp, Librarian; Marsha Ehrman, First Messenger; Marsha Prior, Second Messenger; Kennedy, Third Messenger; Spencer, Fourth Messenger; C. Ely, Fifth Messenger; Candy Ciger, Senior Custodian; Sandy Benson, Junior Custodian; Sherie Kinner Guard; Rose Bershing, O. Guard.

I would also like to thank Past Honored Queens who acted as my Installing Officers. They are: Nancy Tennant, Installing Officer; Barbara Stanbery, Senior Guide; Roxanna Smith, Installing Officer; Florence Ashley, Chaplain; Jackie Miser, Installing Officer; Judy English, Senior Custodian; Diane Hevel, Junior Custodian; Margie Roth, Installing Recorder; Pat Slater and Pat Bunn served at reception after the installation. Thanks to all those who worked to make this installation the most wonderful night of my life.

Our first meeting, January 12, consisted of an officers, choir, and entertainment; and officers and practice; and the regular meeting.

Our sick committee chairman, La Vonne Custance. Her address is 3525 Smith Street, Fort Wayne. Telephone number is H-0713. Many girls hear of anyone who is sick and would appreciate it if you would let them know so that the meeting can send cards. Other girls on the committee are: Janet Diss, Kathie Geffert, North Side.

Thanks to all the girls who so willingly of their time to our Job's Daughter-DeMolay Christmas Formal a success. For those who did not attend, the theme of the dance was "Moon Mist." Woody Neff and his band provided the music.

The meeting and events to follow are:

Jan. 17, Initiation.
Feb. 7, Moms and Dads Night.
Feb. 21, Eastern Star Night.
March 7, Chili Supper.
March 7, Initiation.

Happy New Year, but before we begin looking into the new year, let's relive a few of the magical moments which closed out the old.

The East was decorated with the motto "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself" in acknowledgement of the side-liners who were honored at the November 16 meeting. In the West "T" from Tessie's watchword Hospitality was to remind us at this Thanksgiving season to count our blessings and give thanks for the things we have. The bible markers which Tessie made and presented to each person were truly a labor of love and will be long treasured. The choir's special music added much to the beauty of the evening. Helen Lauterberg gave a brief history of Starlite Ould and invited anyone interested to join the group.

The large attendance at the reception for Grand Sentinel Clayton Herrick on November 18 was an indication of admiration and a pledge to help him along his travels. The theme "On the Levee" was carried out in song by our quartet and the program arranged by Helen Howard to enlarge upon one of Clayton's favorite songs, "Old Man River."

A delicious dinner prepared by Star of the East cooks was served by our own social girls following the reception.

Worthy Grand Matron Helen Gore dedicated fifteen babies to the principles of our order, and then in an impressive Award of Gold ceremony Helen Brintzenbofe was presented with her fifty-year membership pin.

The Commandery Room was effectively decorated with the silhouette of Ruth on the backdrop in the East and sheaves of wheat and in the West an illuminated Bible with the motto "Be Ye Kind." The Worthy Grand Matron was escorted East through an aisle of gleaners, and the Grand Patron's escort was through an aisle of utility poles and lines representing the company for which he works.

Star of the East opened the called meeting and our officers did a beautiful ritualistic initiatory ceremony for two proxy candidates. We were very pleased to have so many of the Grand Family with us for the reception and inspection and are proud of their words of praise.

The officers relinquished their stations to their Star Pals on December 7 for a special informal "opening." It was a lot of fun and enjoyed by everyone present including our guests Sarah Scott, Associate Grand Matron, Pat Chaussey, Deputy of District 14 and Grand Sentinel Clayton Herrick.

The "A" in the West from Tessie's watchword stood for "alone" to remind us of two kinds of aloneness; the one being good as a time for reflection and appraisal and the other loneliness, and she asked us to show our hospitality especially at this Christmas season to let others know they are not alone.

Mrs. Lois Keller gave a timely story on the family of Christ entitled "A Family Portrait." The officers provided a smorgasbord of refreshments following the meeting.

Everyone departed from the December 21 meeting with a warm and cheery feeling, the hustle and bustle forgotten and the echo of Christmas carols reminding us "Tis the season to be jolly."

Now for 1962, Charter and twenty-five year members will be honored at the January 4 meeting with a special program.

And there's a big secret to the air — the men won't tell what they're planning for January 18, so better be here and find out.

Katherine Muir, who lives at the Masonic Home will celebrate a birthday on the 13th—let's send her a shower of cards.

A new year is a magic chest,
Untold wealth is in it,
A golden chain of precious bours—
Every link a minute.

Tears and laughter, sadness, song—
Jeweled gems that lead Richness to the legacy . . .
Ours to keep or spend.

A new year is a magic chest,
The gift of time is in it,
So guard it well, and do not lose
One precious, golden minute.

The Holiday parties last month were very festive and promise to long remain "Sweet in our memory." All shut-ins were visited and presented gifts of cookies, flowers or fruit. The Court has eleven shut-ins at present.

The Decorating Chairmao and her committee are to be congratulated on the beautiful decorations used in the court and dining room. Each meeting a different theme has been carried out. This has taken hours of work and planning. Those not attending court have really missed some outstanding decorations.

Calendar of Events:

Jan. 3rd Stated meeting: Past Matrons and Past Patrons night. A banquet will precede the meeting honoring all past Matrons and Past Patrons of Anthony Wayne Court.

Jan. 8th 1:30 p.m. The Cheer Committee will meet with H.L. Mary Wilson with H.L. Elizabeth Dull assisting at 2810 S. Wayne Ave.

Jan. 8th 8:00 p.m. The Program Committee will meet at the home of H.L. Amelia Brown 1129 Lake Avenue.

YOUR PRESENCE IS IMPORTANT

How is Freemasonry perpetuated by Masons living according to the principles of Freemasonry.

Masonry can never be a "leave-it" matter. World conditions call for Masons who are strong in faith, unwavering in their determination to make Masonic principles effective in every area of life, ever conscious of their sacred obligations.

Your attendance at the meeting of your lodge is not a matter of arithmetic, but of influence, that you can do by being present and the good that you receive being present.

Here in the Masonic Lodge, we gain that inspiration necessary to make the symbol and the symbolized one and inseparable. Here the words of the ritual open new vistas of truth.

Here in the Masonic Lodge, we have the privilege of association of kindred minds and of the motto united by "The Mystic T Masonry."

Here in the Masonic Lodge, we meet and pray at a common altar.

Here in the Masonic Lodge, we learn to press forward in the path of virtue, and to keep eternal view.—Exchange.

NO COMPROMISE

A Mason who would be true always be guided by that which is right in the eyes of the Artificer of the Universe. The we should travel as we pursue great journey along the path of life is clearly marked out. In Masonry there can be no compromise with that which is right. He who does no more than right is wholly wrong. It is possible to reach our proper place in this world or the next by veiling even halfway in the direction. Only the designs upon our trestle board of the Divine Architect can guide us through this life of footprints through this life of no other way . . .

Since the deadline for the Square and Compass is before our stated convocation, I feel at a loss in repeating some of the most interesting events of the month. At our last stated convocation in November, Excellent Master Harold Martin promised to look the dinner in December, but would not tell us what he planned to do. So, on all we will be able to attend to satisfy our curiosity. On December 1 we had a called convocation to host Huntington Master who brought along three ladies. Thomas R. Marshall presented the Past Master Degree and Huntington Master then portrayed the Most Excellent Master Degree. After close refreshments were served in the kitchen, Huntington was represented and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

By the time this copy reaches you the Yule Season will have passed with a new year ahead of us. We put our shoulders to the task to make a fine showing for the month. On November 27th the seven Councils which comprise Group 3 held a meeting at the Masonic Temple in Columbia City. This meeting was principally to get acquainted with each other and set up our goals for the coming year. On January 18th after stated meeting Huntington Council No. 51, together with Fort Wayne Council No. 4, will hold a practice session in preparation for a group inspection to be held on January 25th at Auburn, who will be Group 3. This is a must meeting for all the officers of the Council.

For those who were absent at the York Rite Dinner held in the month prior to Stated Meeting, we had a swell feed. Another fine meal is in store for you before next stated meeting. Last month we talked about "What York Rite Masonry?" This month we will talk about "Who is eligible to become a York Rite Mason?" The Masonic Rites all recognize the Symbolic or Blue Lodge as the foundation upon which we build. No man can receive the degrees of York Rite, or continue to hold membership therein, unless he is in good standing in a Symbolic Lodge. Any Master Mason may petition for membership in a York Rite Chapter. Any Royal Arch Mason may petition a Council of Royal Arch Masters and a Commandery of Knights Templar. A commandery petition is available which takes care of your application for membership in any or all of the York Rite Bodies. In the succeeding months we will talk about each of the various degrees of the York Rite. With these degrees each of you be enlightened and your quest for more Masonic knowledge will be sought.

All Blue Lodge and York Rite Masters should mark the date March 18th on their calendars with a red crayon, for on that date the Fort Wayne York Rite Association will hold another Master Mason Just Nite. More will follow about this. Watch your Square and Compass.

Again we are entering upon a new year, and I share the wishes of all of your Officers, that you give us a most busy time. Conferring Chapter Degrees on many candidates, which we hope you will bring in from among your Blue Lodge Brethren. Also lets do make a resolution to support your Chapter, by more faithful attendance, and make that special effort to attend our Stated meeting, dinners, which are on the third Thursday each month. Our Jan. 18 dinner will be weiners and baked beans.

I wish to offer, on the behalf of Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19, our congratulations to Comp. Jack Walker, newly elected and installed Commander of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4. Our best wishes also are extended to all of his elective and appointive officers. S.K. Jack you have our promise of complete co-operation during the coming year.

Our Casting for degree work will be the same as before with the following exceptions: Right Worshipful Master for Mark Master Degree is Robert Marshall; Right Worshipful Master for Past Master Degree is Art Gardi; Right Worshipful Master for Most Excellent Master Degree is Al Ungerer. We have tentative plans for degree work the first, second, and fourth Thursdays of January, so lets have a lot of help.

Stated Conclave
Third Thursday
Jack M. Walker ----- E.C.
Fritz Road ----- T-6439
George F. Gable ----- Recorder
442 W. Wildwood Ave. ----- H-4727

Jack M. Walker was elected commander of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 for 1962.

Other officers elected were Philip A. McCague, generalissimo; Roger Shafer, captain general; Ivan A. Planck, senior warden; Myron A. Millhorn, junior warden; Harold G. Martin, prelate; John D. Lombard, treasurer; George Gable, recorder; Albert F. Cary, warder; Louis Koch, Jr., standard bearer and Brown Cooper trustee for a three year term.

Officers will be installed at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, January 6 in the fifth floor auditorium. The ceremony is open to the public.

Installing officers will be Grey Wagner, grand commander; Harry Haller, grand marshal; Harold O. Martin, grand prelate, and Carter Palmer, grand warder.

The Drill Corps will give a drill exhibition preceding the ceremony. Following the ceremony will be the reception for the newly installed officers and the serving of refreshments.

The Drill Corps of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4, Knights Templar, elected Richard Peden as president for 1962; Homer Stevenson, vice president; Roger Shafer, recording secretary and Harry Haller, commandant.

The Allen County York Rite Association elected Edson Dickey as president of the organization for 1962. Albert F. Cary was elected first vice president; Donald Marvel, second vice president and Roger Shafer, secretary-treasurer.

Do you remember our York Rite Commandery "Sweetheart Ball" last February? The beautiful decorations? The lovely gowns of the ladies and the colorful uniforms of the Sir Knights? The color and gaiety? The music? The food? The friendly atmosphere and feeling of good fellowship? Seeing old friends again and meeting new ones?

We hope you remember all of these things because plans are shaping up nicely for our 1962 Knight Templar Ball. The affair will be held in the ballroom of the Masonic Temple Saturday, February 17 from 8:30 p.m. till 11:30 p.m. and will again be called the "Sweetheart Ball."

Eminent Commander Jack Walker is general chairman of the ball. Tom Houser, who has been doing such a wonderful job as chairman of the decorating committee the past few years, has again planned some very colorful and attractive decorations. And Banquet chairman Harry Haller assures us he will have plenty of food on hand. The dinner will be served on the mezzanine floor beginning at 8:30 p.m. Myron A. Millhorn is chairman of the entertainment committee. Ivan A. Planck is in charge of publicity.

The Tech Men orchestra from Indiana Technical College, who furnished the music for our hall last year, received so much favorable comment from those in attendance that they were booked to supply the music for the hall again this year.

Master Masons and their guests are invited. Formal attire is optional. Tickets will be $4.00 per couple.

Tickets may be obtained from any Commandery officer, Drill Corps member or from Henry Hoffman at the counter on the second floor lounge of the Temple. If requests are made by mail address same to Harold Hamrick, Ticket Chairman, 6420 Chaddsford Drive, Fort Wayne, Indiana, or to Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4, Knights Templar, Masonic Temple, 216 East Washington Blvd., Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Plans are also in the making for a York Rite Guest Night on Friday, March 16 at 7:30 p.m. Myron Millhorn is in charge of arrangements. All York Rite members and their Master Mason friends are invited. More information later.

The outgoing commander and the newly elected commander join in wishing each and every one of you a very happy and prosperous New Year.

TWO LOCAL MEN APPOINTED TO GRAND CHAPTER LINE

John D. Lombard, M. E., Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, has appointed two local men, G. Doyal White and Roger W. Shafer to positions in the Grand Chapter line. G. Doyal White was appointed Grand Chaplain. Mr. White is a past master of Sol. D. Bayless lodge, past commander of the Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4, past perceptor of the Holy Royal Arch Knights Templar Priests and an elder and treasurer of St. John's Reformed Church.

Roger W. Shafer was appointed Grand Guard. He is at present Captain-General of the Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4, and Past High Priest of the Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19 of the Royal Arch Masons.

By the time you receive this copy of the Square and Compass, we will have had our Christmas formal and the election and crowning of our new Chapter Sweetheart. Congratulations to her and many Thanks to all those who participated in our December activities.

Election was held on Dec. 13 for the three top officers in DeMolay. I would like to extend my personal congratulations to Master Councilor elect Al Haney, Senior Councilor elect Jim Tennant, and Jr. Councilor elect John Roscoe. I hope the Chapter will support them as much as they supported myself and my officers.

The meetings for the month of January will be: Jan 6, Installation of the new officers at 7:30 p.m. Invite your parents and friends to the installation. Second meeting Jan. 10 which will be a stated meeting with the purpose of bringing in new petitions and the last meeting will be on Jan. 24. It is a regular meeting with entertainment following.

Since this is to be my last article as your Master Councilor, I would like to Thank all the officers, DeMolay Degree members, advisors, Mothers Circle and parents for their grand support which they have given to me. Even tho my time has come to drop back into the ranks, I will still be glad to answer any questions or help anyone at anytime.

MASONIC BENEDICTION

May no strife disturb thy day, or sorrow thy night and may the pillow of peace kiss thy cheek, and the pleasures of imagination attend thy dreams, and when length of years have made thee tired of earthly joys, and the curtain of death gently steals around the scene of thy existence, may the angels of God attend thy bed, and take care that the expiring lamp of life shall not receive one rude blast to hasten its extinction, and finally, may the blessings of Heaven wash thee free of all impurities and prepare thee for that land of everlasting felicity.

As I sit writing this, my last column, the house is deep in Christmas preparations. It is a strange thing, how Christmas blends almost un-animously, the thinking of the entire world. That thinking, which is so close to the principles of Freemasonry, of doing good to all mankind. May it always be thus.

On Dec. 7th, we elected Maynard Campbell as the new WM, Jesse Jeffries SW, Russ Ramer JW, Floyd Gause Treas., and John Lare as Sec. The appointed officers are: Gene Martin SD, Mel Kuhn JD, Rodney Landsaw, Chaplain, Jerry Runyan SS, JS and Tyler not definite as I write this. By the time you read this, they will have been installed at regular stated meeting on Jan. 4th.

I would like to thank the officers, and Brothers who made this a very enjoyable year for me.

On Dec. 14th, we held an open presentation for the 50 year Grand Lodge Award of Gold, which was very ably presented by Bro. PM Harold Martin to our highly esteemed Bro. PM Walter Kell. A very enjoyable evening was had by a large group of Brothers and friends, especially Walter. He was escorted by our able Treasurer, Bro. Floyd Gause, who will himself be eligible next year.

As you will no longer be bothered by my writing, I hereby bequeath my pen to "Joe" Campbell, your new WM.

The sands of time seem to have run faster this past year than ever before. On Wednesday evening, December 6, we had a ham and bean supper which was very well received and enjoyed by the brothers present. After the supper the lodge was opened on the MM degree. This being the last of our stated meetings for the year of 1961, also our annual meeting, we had election of officers for the coming year, as follows: Forest Lyle Tutstison, W.M.; Harold E. Towles, SW.; Norman O. Long, JW.; Russell T. Smith, Secy.; Ray C. Girardot, Treas.; Jack R. Crance, Trustee for 3 years. I have appointed the following officers: John A. Summey, SD.; William R. Youtz, JD.; Jean M. Winesburg, SS.; Gwen O. Rinker, JS.; Donald E. Stark, Chaplain and Lee O. Pettyjohn, Tyler.

I am very proud to be able to work with these officers for the coming year and all the other brothers that make it possible to help some other brother to further light in Masonry.

Our lodge was saddened this past month by the death of brother Rev. Ernest B. Megenty. Ernest was a charter member and the first Chaplain of our lodge. His labors, his service to his fellow man and his counsel have laid up in the archives of the lodge a memorial that he stood there a just and upright Mason. To his wife and family we extend our deepest sympathies.

There will be degree work in December but during the month of January we will be holding a lodge of instruction every Wednesday evening. Our fellowcraft team is doing a very good job and invites any brother who wishes to help in any way, shape or form.

At this writing, I am very happy to report that we do not have any brothers on the sick list. Also, it gives me extreme pleasure to be informed that the voluntary contributions to the Masonic Home at Franklin are pouring in with the dues payments at a very rapid rate and I know that New Haven Lodge No. 740 will go over the top again this year as we have succeeded doing in the past. Nice work, brothers, in not forgetting your Masonic teachings.

perfect Christmas? he might seldom get the answer Yes. Yes, it would have been perfect if she had been here. Yes it would have been perfect if I could only forget the terrible state the world is in. There is joy in Christmas, and it ought not to be a season of tears. But beneath the carols there are the hearts heavy with frustration, disappointment, bereavement, and the sadness of those who realize that after all these centuries peace is harder to find than ever, men of good will too few. Christmas may remind us that in this life we cannot put off joy until all causes of sorrow and regret have been abolished. Jesus our Lord was born where and as he was, because of the military power of a pagan people. The first Christmas had its shadows, and they were deep.

Joy and Tears

The Christian's joy is not built on a make-believe. There are people who can persuade themselves that there is nothing wrong with the world, nothing really bad in it. But this is not the Christian view. We do not deceive ourselves by mere happy-talk. We must not turn the Christmas-carol record up so loud as to drown the sounds of weeping in the darkness. Christmas is not a season to forget the woes of the world, it is a time to refuse to do what we can to make those woes fewer. Christians can join in every good work for the benefit of the oppressed and the lonely and the victims of man's inhumanity to man, because we believe that God is still on the throne. Christmas should remind us that it is possible to rejoice even in the midst of frustration, disappointment and regrets, possible to cherish hope even long deferred. And Christmas-tide may even rehuve us: For the troubles of the world, are we not partly blamed? Can we honestly say that we have never caused a single tear in the sorrowing world? Is our Christianity all a matter of carefree carols, or of outstretched helping hands?

Tears at Christmas

CHRISTMAS is not always what we expect it to be. We have been to church, we have received presents and given them, we have toured the stores, all decorated for the season, and we have seen how many lighted trees and Christmas stars. Maybe we went home for Christmas, or if we are older, the younger members of the family

Dr. Foreman came to see us. Surely there is little left out of what it would take to make a happy Christmas. And yet the passing of the Day does leave heartaches amidst all the happiness. This is nothing new; it has been so since the first Christmas.

Disappointments

Put yourself in the place of some of the persons who figure in the Christmas stories in Matthew and Luke. Joseph, we know, was a carpenter, no rich man, but not on the bottom of the heap either. We can imagine that he must have wanted, for Mary's first born, the best of everything. But now the little baby has to be born in a stable, surrounded really by the worst of everything. What may have galled Joseph, and Mary too, was the thought that if it had not been for the wicked Romans, this long winter journey to Bethlehem would not have been necessary. The child was robbed of all that Mary and Joseph had planned for him -- and yet he was by legal descent heir to the throne of David. The Romans had long since abolished that throne. Heirs to vanished thrones got no favored treatment from the Romans.

Mary must have been sorely disappointed no less. That her Son was born to be a king, she had no doubt; but a king's first appearance should surely be more dignified, if not more splendid. Everything the baby's eyes fell on -- the manger, the cattle, the crowds, -- suggested poverty, struggle, the lot of the oppressed. We know that when Mary went up for the purification ceremony a few weeks later, her offering was one which was allowed only in the case of people who were extremely poor.

Our Own Disappointments

If some recording angel went about the country on December 26, asking the same question of every Christian: Did you have a

OUR VISITORS

When you come to Lodge, you an eye for the visitors? are always there. They do not feel disposed to make themselves known, to seek you out and introduce themselves. Indeed, they are expected to do that. It is the duty of certain brethren of the Lodge to introduce themselves to the visitors.

We want our Lodges to be friendly and fraternal. It is a well-known fact that our brethren are at heart friendly and that they have genuine will toward others. But we everybody else to know it. Regard of the very best intention, we sometimes take it too much for granted that others know that we are friendly and fraternal. Let us take no chances on that, but let us each make it business to seek out the visitors, attend our Lodge and express to a cordial invitation to come to such courtesies as these, which Lodge member can extend make vast difference in the impression other people will have of our Lodge in general and our Lodge in particular.

FAMOUS TAVERNS

In the early days of Freemasonry in England and subsequently America, lodges met in inn taverns.

The first meetings of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire were in "The Earl of Halifax" tavern in Portsmouth. In 1738, a lodge held at the "Harp and Crown" Charleston, S.C., as reported in S. C. Gazette. The New York Gazette in 1739 advertised the meeting of a lodge at the "Montgomery Tavern." Lodge No. 18, Dover, New Hampshire, was opened and established the Sign of General Washington. The first lodge on record in New Jersey, St. John's in New York met in "The Sign of Rising Sun" tavern in 1761. An early lodge in Providence, R. I. met in the "Horse" and later in the "Crown" tavern. The Grand Lodge of Massachusetts met many times in the "Bunch of Grapes" and in "Royal Exchange" taverns.

WARDEN

Warden began as the fine old Anglo-Saxon word wærd, which meant to watch, so that the warden was a guard, a watchman, a custodian, something, as when a watchman the timber was called a wood warden of hay was called a hay warden. The two Wardens in a Lodge watch over the activities which center their station, and both of them the Master to rule and govern the Lodge. Traditionally the Senior den oversees ("watches over") the craft while at labor the Junior den oversees the Craft during hours when at refreshment. Traditionally, the latter is a constitutional Lodge officer whose duty is to range for social affairs, parties, entertainments, and at one time he was made over to special and standing social committees no historical explain.

OUR FIRST PRESIDENT AND EMINENT MASON

in Masonry throughout his life, and was highly honored by the fraternity in his death. Truly, he was highly favored in his natural heritage; he was robust in physical stamina and courage; he was superbly brilliant in intellect, richly endowed in many gifts, and superlatively great in personality and abilities of leadership. But all these noble qualities were nurtured, strengthened, reinforced and given keenness and power by the influence exerted upon his character by Freemasonry.

The Masonic career of our first President began four months prior to his twenty-first birthday when he was initiated into the Lodge at Fredericksburg, Virginia, November 4, 1752. On March 3, 1753, he was passed, and on August 4 of the same year he was raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason. On June 24, 1784, Washington was made an honorary member of Alexandria Lodge No. 39. On April 28, 1778, this Lodge changed its registration from the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge to the Grand Lodge of Virginia and was given the number 22. George Washington then became its chartered worshipful master and was re-elected to the office Dec. 20, 1788. Thus it is a noteworthy fact that he served as worshipful master of the lodge of his home town and at the same time occupied the office of President of the United States.

When Washington was inaugurated President in New York, the capitol at that time, the oath was administered by Chancellor Robert R. Livingston, grand master of the Grand Lodge of New York. The Holy Bible on which Washington took the oath of office was borrowed from St. John's Lodge No. 1 and is held by that lodge today in great veneration.

When the cornerstone for the new capitol at the city of Washington was laid, the ceremonies were entirely in the hands of the Grand Lodge of Maryland. He wore the apron that had been presented to him by Lafayette, used a gavel carved from the stone of the building and a trowel which is now the revered property of the Lodge of Alexandria.

Washington died December 14, 1799; his three attending physicians during his last illness were Masons. He was buried with full Masonic honors by the Lodge of Alexandria, which later changed its name to the Alexandria Washington Lodge 1-22.

Just outside the city of Alexandria, on Shooter's Hill, the Masons of America have erected one of its mightiest and most exquisite stone monuments in memory of George Washington.—James E. Smith, 4238 Thackery Place, Seattle, Wash.

THE TEST OF FRIENDSHIP

George Washington said: True friendship is a plant of slow growth and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation." Note that it is true friendship that Washington was talking about—not the superficial associations which often pass for friendships.

Friendship is a state of mind on which transient circumstances, good or bad, have no effect. It is a difficult-to-explain combination of admiration, affection, loyalty, and understanding that draws certain people to each other. If it is the real thing the "shocks of adversity" only intensify it, only make a person want to be his friend's friend all the more. And being a friend is the best part of it.

So, don't count your friends—count your friendships. Think of the bonds which bind you to those whom you would be eager to do something for, whether or not they could ever do anything for you. That is the test of friendship.—The Little Gazette

Stated Meeting

Second Tuesday

Albert J. Pisher W.M.

Three Rivers is on the move! Beginning this year, many new and exciting plans are taking place. Realizing that the past has laid a solid foundation for us, we are able, this year, to do more, plan further, and help others become not only better Masons but remain faithful and loyal to the craft.

We are setting up classes for instructions to those who want to take a more active part in ritualistic work. This is an invitation to begin now by calling S-4293 or E-3061. We will help you to become a builder like every Master Mason should become. We will show you what to read, how to read it and finally the easiest way to memorize it. Don't wait. Call the telephone numbers now!

Plans are being made for a Masonic education week with all lodges participating. Three Rivers Lodge will be the host. No longer are we able to remain a small and unnoticed lodge. Responsibilities force us to boldly step out and claim these duties, as all lodges have done which have gone before us. We are sincere when we say we want to help every member. Let every member be sincere by helping and assisting our lodge. "How may we help?" you ask. First, by remaining in good standing with our lodge. Too many of us leave dues unpaid. We either wait until the last moment or find that we do not have the available money. Knowing that we must pay dues annually, why not try to save just a little each month for that purpose only? But how weak we, as humans, are when our hearts say yes but our will says no. Second, let us resolve to attend lodge at least twice or more a month. Once in the habit, you'll find it no trouble at all.

Attention All Past Masters: You are requested to meet at 7:15 p.m., February 26, Monday night at the Vets Hospital. This will be one of your nights. Please show your support to the officers and lodge. May we remember all those who are unable to attend lodge. We know that you are thinking about us. Please notify us of any sickness. This is important!

Brethren, I appreciate the honor you have bestowed upon me by electing me your Master for the ensuing year. I will do my best to uphold that honor. I am reminded of the quotation, "The place should not honor the man, but the man the place."

At our stated meeting on January 3, the following officers were installed: Vernon Foulks, Worshipful Master; John Womack, Senior Warden; Walter Hertzog, Junior Warden; Raymond Hupp, Treasurer; Dorl Feasel, Secretary; Carl Ross, Senior Deacon; Stuart Trainer, Junior Deacon; Donald Barnett, Senior Steward; Richard Hanes, Junior Steward; John Conaban, Chaplain.

Installing officers were: Past Masters, Ernest Earhart and John Osborn of Osian Lodge 297, and our own Elmer M. Spahr. Brothers Earhart and Osborn have installed every Master and his officers since our lodge was granted its charter.

Brothers John Womack, our Senior Warden, and Bennett Noel, who would have been our Junior Deacon, are on duty with the Air National Guard in France. Their stations will be filled until they return, (we hope soon) by our Past Masters who are always present and willing to help; however, I do hope this will not keep anyone inactive who would like to participate. I'm sure you will get much more out of lodge if you join in the work no matter how large or small the part.

At this writing we have three candidates for the Entered Apprentice Degree, so by the time you read this we should have three new brothers among us.

How about a post New Years resolution? Come to lodge more often.

The month of February finds us well into the activities of Wayne Lodge for the coming year. Each officer is busy perfecting the new work he is to do, and hopes soon to be able to give an impressive interpretation of the meaning of Masonry to our candidates.

Installation of the new lodge officers on January 4th was made even more memorable by the excellent work done by our own Past Masters Bernard Smith, Joseph McDowell and Harold Garrison. We were all most pleased and grateful for the part they played in this important ceremony.

Applause is also due to Orval Haver and Cles Platt for setting up the "coffee and cake time" after the ceremony, and to all the fine people who sat on the sidelines and shared in our experience.

Our hospital visitation was held on January 22nd (not on January 8th as I wrote in the previous article). Under the capable chairmanship of Brother Kenny Rayl and the telephone calling of Brother Frank Baptist, a good group represented our Lodge.

Our January candidates are now assuming the duties and privileges of Master Masons, and we have another petition to vote on at the February 1st. Stated Meeting. We are off to a fine start, and I hope we can have candidates to vote on every Stated Meeting!

Brother Al Hoffman is still confined to his home at 1153 S. Monroe Street. If you are in the neighborhood, drop by and say "Hello" to him. Better yet, make a special call, for Al is an excellent conversationalist. At the time of this writing, Past Master Charles Bandy is in Parkview Hospital in a traction-device because of back trouble, and Brother Ernest Keppeler is at Veteran's Hospital under observation prior to a possible hernia operation. We hope they are both well and home by the time this paper goes to press!

Our first big event of the year will be Annual Past Masters and Ladies Nite. Hold Thursday, March 29th, open for this event. You will enjoy a good dinner and entertainment. Come up and renew old acquaintances during this evening. More news will be in next month's Square and Compass.

Brothers, I hope by the time you read this article you have already paid your dues for the current year. I wish to thank those who have, into the ones who have added a contribution to the Masonic Home

True Masonry is exemplified just in the Lodge but more especially in your conduct in your daily life. Remember always that Masonry is judged by the world at large, the conduct of the members of the Fraternity. Let any Mason make the slightest misstep and the Fraternity is judged to be guilty. Let us then employ our Fraternity teachings every day that the world may be convinced of its effects.

The New Year has started from all indications it will be one Masonically speaking.

Officers were installed on Years Day by Past Masters R. Spencer, Abner R. Wolverton, Berton J. Sterling Jr., acting installing Officer, Marshall and lain.

The choir was directed by Master Oral F. Lee and Brother Bert J. Fisher, Worshipful Master of Three Rivers Lodge No. 733. Thanks to all who participated in our ceremonies.

Past Master Dean B. The presented your Worshipful Master with a gavel, which had been by your Masters son Steven. Dean also presented a new flag to the lodge which will be sent in the East with fitting monies in the near future.

We have two candidates for a new and three new petitions for the January stated meeting with the five who were made Masons in December have kept will keep your officers and craft Club busy for the first of the year.

Your officers have been dis and planning for some special for this year.

It was suggested that we breakfast, the Master Mason and then a cornbread and lunch. Are you interested? If interested, or have other suggestions why not come to lodge and

Your lodge has been busy and have been inspired by your attention. On January 10 with the temperature -10 below zero, we had Masons attend our Entered Apprentice meal. It was truly gratifying your officers to see so many out such a night. Among those present were 5 Past Masters who also served the elements to assist in the degree work.

We are looking forward to a full schedule of events that are soon to hold here at lodge. Plans are in the making for an oyster stew to be served on Wednesday, Feb. 21st for the Fellow Craft Club at which time officers for 1962 will be elected. We are all members that have taken an active part in the Fellow Craft Club, as well as all those who would like become active in the degree work, be present on the above date.

Brethren we would like to remind you that our only contact with our and shut in brothers is through information that we receive from each of you. Often our sick brethren in the hospital and have returned here before we have knowledge of their condition. We would like to do our part in helping to cheer them with a personal call. We will do so if you are notified in time, so if you know of any of the brethren that are incapacitated please inform us so we may do our part. Your Chaplain Bert Mathieson or any of the officers will be glad to take the call and address, please feel free to call on any of them.

Often times in the rush and business of our everyday lives we neglect to take a few moments to think. We would think about the direction in which we are heading and take a good look at our purposes in life.
 We would like to offer the following for your consideration.

Is Anybody Happier?
 Is anybody happier because you passed his way?
 Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?
 This day is almost over and its toiling time is through;
 There anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?
 Do you give a cheerful greeting to the friend who came along?
 Do you have a cheerful sort of "howdy" and then vanish in the throng?
 Are you selfish, pure and simple,
 as you rushed along your way?
 Is there someone mighty grateful for the deed you did today?
 Do you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast, that you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?
 Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said?
 Is a man whose hopes were fading
 now with courage look ahead?
 Do you waste the day or use it; was it well or poorly spent?
 Do you leave a trail of kindness or a fear of discontent?
 Do you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say

You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

Taking a backward look with appreciation and a forward look with vision:

Thanks to many of the Brothers, South Gate began the new year with a most successful calendar of events designed to give impetus to the cause of Freemasonry. Congressman E. Ross Adair presented to Lodges occupying the Ionic Room a fifty-star American flag that had been flown over the nation's capital.
 Wayne, Home and South Gate Lodges were represented by the Masters, Officers and Committees. The Commandery Color Guard posted the colors. Hugh Rice gave a most effective response to the presentation on behalf of the Lodges. A fine dinner was made possible by the long, hard efforts of Bill Brase, ably assisted by Richard Patten and several other brothers who volunteered their services that evening. John Whitney, Junior Warden, helped with the decorations, as well as with many other tasks connected with such an event. Our faithful brother Elias Lare also gave his services following the dinner. Brother George Beacon joined ranks with Blaine Jones and Bernard McBride as 50 year Members. Brother Bacon was presented his award of gold by Past Grand Master Orvis Dellinger. The new officers for the year were installed by Brothers Al Spencer, Abner Wolverton and Burton Sterling in their well-known inspiring manner. Jay Fisher, Master of Three Rivers Lodge provided music for the ceremony. Officers include: Douglas S. Baugh, JM; Guy I. Mausteller, SW; John A.
 Whitney, JW; Harold E. Meeks,
 Treas.; Franklin I. Bryan, Sec.; Pete
 V. Toyias, Chaplain; Charles C.
 Scott, Senior Deacon; Everett C.
 Karrick, Junior Deacon; Dale E.
 Shupe, Senior Steward; Howard C.
 Le Claire, Junior Steward and H.

Edward Fleck, Tyler. Clarence Mc-Intosh was elected Trustee.

Degree work was presented for one candidate in January; one candidate will receive the degree during February. South Gate Officers and their wives met for dinner in February. The Fellowcraft Club is making and executing plans to get together on Fellowcraft nights for entertainment, as well as to make plans for participating in the degree work. Dick Darrell is heading this group. If you are interested in becoming a part of this group, call him at T-33835. Your call will be welcomed.

Plans are progressing for the Every-Member Survey. Your warm and gracious hospitality will be appreciated as much by those making the survey, as you will probably appreciate an opportunity to tell us of your wishes and aspirations.

A few dates to remember: Saturday, February 10, at 6:29, South Gate will be holding its first Smorgasbord-Square Dance of the year. Bob Taylor will call. The North Side Triple Trio will entertain immediately following the dinner.

On Monday, February 12th our regular business meeting, we are trying to line up an interesting program.
 A special tribute to Abraham Lincoln and George Washington will be made by Brother Hugh Rice. We hope to have two films to show s well. Our Masonic Education Committee, headed by John Inches, will present a short resume of The Washington Masonic Memorial at Alexandria, Virginia. Plan to come. You won't be disappointed.

Plans are underway, also, to arrange an exhibition for South Gates by the Commandery Drill Team.
 Watch for details.

Watch the Square and Compass for Hospital Visitation dates. Brothers Paul Muller and Glen Hoon are heading this committee, and will preciate your help.

The Time For Kindness Is Now:
 One of the greatest tributes that can be made to any Lodge is to say that it has a reputation for being kind and friendly to all who may rub shoulders with its members. Try this recipe for success along these lines:
 Friends, in this world of hurry,
 And work and sudden end
 If a thought comes quick of doing.
 A kindness to a friend.

Do it this very instant!
 Don't wait—don't put it off;
 What's the use of doing a kindness,
 If you do it a day too late?
 Brother Wilbur Huff is heading our Sick-Member Visitation Committee, and is doing a super job with his committee. Remember these lines;
 There is a destiny that makes us brothers;
 None goes his way alone;
 All that we send into the lives of others

Comes back into our own.
 A Final Word For This Issue: "The future belongs to those who wisely evaluate the past and utilize the present." South Gate is moving forward! He who stands still may find the world moving past him. Won't YOU help us determine the future course of Masonry by sharing in its great works? Call me at E-71424 and let me know how you would like to serve.

Brethren, again we meet in the Square and Compass, the media of communication of our Lodge.
 The installation of officers has now passed into history, but what plans we have in the future are for the benefit of all the brethren wherever they may be. This month I would like to tell you about a very interesting plan we have in which all the brethren can participate throughout the coming year; namely, the Mentor Plan—which has one major objective—to teach the fundamentals of Freemasonry to every candidate, so he may become a Master Mason in as fast as well as in name. This Plan comes to us free from the committee on Masonic Education of the Grand Lodge of Indiana. This Plan is the work and the combined effort of many men of the Masonic Order. It is headed in our Lodge by a committee of four very capable men; Brother Thomas Waltheiser, Chairman, assisted by James Lucas, Phil McCague, and Donald Krewson.

 Come down fellows and see what this is all about, and help us make it go.

To the ill brethren, we wish you a speedy recovery, and please let us know some way when illness strikes for sometimes it is pretty difficult for us to know when our brethren are ill.

Another Important duty of our Lodge brethren is the Veteran's Hospital visitation which falls always on Monday night. The dates below are the ones we should remember:

This V. A. visitation is a tribute of our respect for mankind and those who have contributed much for our freedom. So join us in this good work.

THE HANDS

Two basic attitudes toward life are symbolized by an open hand and a closed fist. The open hand represents friendship. It is clearly obvious that in it no weapon is concealed, and the hand may be grasped by another. But you cannot shake hands with a fist.

We also learn from this that the open hand may give or receive. It is stretched out to offer what it has to another, and it takes an open hand to receive another's gift. A fist neither gives nor receives. It only grasps what it intends to keep for itself.

In Masonry we are taught that the open hand is the way of life. It offers friendship and helpfulness to all who will receive it. Our duty is to extend the hand of fellowship to every brother, lift up the fallen, guide the wavering, and meet all with cheerful greeting. The proper use of the hands is one of life's most important lessons.

Wouldn't this old world be better,
If the folks we meet would say,
"I know something good about you"

And then treat us just that way?
Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each handclasp, warm and true,
Carried with its assurance

"I know something good about you"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If the good that's in us all

Were the only thing about us

That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If we praised the good we see?

For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking too?

You know something good about me!

I know something good about you!

INDIANA MASONIC HOME

This is the third in a series of articles on the Masonic Home prepared by the Masonic Home Committee of Home Lodge No. 342.

References: Indiana Blue Book (Appendix), and Handbook for Secretaries (Chapter 6).

We hope you have been enjoying bits of information, so lets continue.

Preparing for residence:

1. Keep sakes may be brought to the Home (but they must be small).

2. Members who wish to do may find something to occupy the time.

3. Religious services are regularly.

4. Numerous recreation programs are afforded.

5. There is spending money allowance, though small. $2.00 month.

6. Members may have visitors.

7. Members may go down to Franklin, to Indianapolis, may attend church, Lodge, Chapter meetings.

The Home does not operate transportation system in Franklin, but taxi cab service is available at a reasonable note. Members may go in groups to get the most of their money.

Some of the churches in Franklin provide automobile or taxicab transportation for Home members. Franklin Lodge and O.E.S. Chapter always welcomed the members of the Home. When some of the ladies in the State have special meetings they usually invite members of the Home and provide transportation.

Lodges or Chapters or expeditions to send spending money, gifts, letters, remembrances, any time of the year. The more the better. Even the smallest gift is very much appreciated.

Visitors are always welcome. There are no special visiting hours except for the hospital and the home are 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p.m.

A relative should not bring a new member to the Home for mission, that responsibility belongs to the Lodge or Chapter always.

Our responsibility does not end after a member has been admitted. It has just begun. It is up to us to make our members as happy and contented as possible.

Look for or next issue. Home Lodge 342 Masonic Home Committee.

A CREED

I wish I were high enough to honestly admit all my shortcomings; low enough to accept flattery without it making me arrogant; rich enough to tower above deceit; poor enough to treasure love; brave enough to welcome criticism; compassionate enough to understand human frailties; wise enough to recognize my mistakes; humble enough to appreciate greatness; staunch enough to be true to my friends; human enough to be thoughtful of my neighbors; righteous enough to be devoted to love of God.

LIVE FOR SOMETHING

Live for something. Do good. Leave behind you a monument of virtue that the storms of time never destroy. Write your mark of kindness, love and mercy, on the hearts of those you come in contact with year by year; you will never be forgotten. Your name, your deeds, will be as legible on the hearts of those who leave behind, as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds shine as the stars of Heaven.

THREE MASONIC PILLARS

Masons have been told that the Lodge is supported by three pillars. It may or may not be a coincidence that the letters comprising the English name of Deity should be the initials of Gomer, Oz and Deity.

Hebrew words for wisdom, strength and beauty—the three great pillars.

Since their first letters are arranged thus—G O D—it might reasonably be said that the letters "G O D" are in its auspicious location in the East.

Lodge. Some authorities see in this circumstance more than an accident.

The last of January the Worthington and Patron, their committee Past Matrons and Patrons were entertained by the point officers and little helpers. It was a lovely party and we appreciated it and enjoyed it very much. Thanks girls you and your helpers, we know you worked hard and long for it. The first meeting in February will be the election of new officers. It is the duty of each member to support the chapter by being present and voting for the candidate of his or her choice. The second meeting will be a committee recognition night. We would like a large attendance that night also.

A Good Code, by George Jean Nathan.

My Code of life and conduct is simply this: disregard equally the good and bad opinion of others; never do a friend a dirty trick; never grow indignant over anything; live the moment to the utmost of its possibilities; and be satisfied with life always, but never with oneself.

When we have our next chapter night we will be entertained by the Masons. Their theme will be "Dearest Ties," with the East being decorated with neck ties, so by the preview ahead I'm sure you will want to be there.

Star of the East will hold their banquet and party honoring their worthy matron Gladys Coe and her committee members on January 25. Everything will be so pretty so he sure to come to this special event.

A special event to keep in mind will be when we honor our Charter Members and 25 year members on February 27. It will be Star of the East chapter's 35th anniversary, see you there. The names of all the honored guests will be published in the next issue.

One item you will not want to forget is the election of the coming officers on February 13. Be there to support your choice of officers. Our attendance is good but one more is always appreciated.

CALENDAR:

Ways and Means will meet at the home of Jean Konkle, 1824 W. Fourth St. on February 19th. Assisting her will be Winifred Smith and Ruth Gordon.

On February 15th the Madonna Club will meet at the home of Jean Konkle with Lois McNaughton assisting.

The Social Committee will hold their February meeting with Viola Wells at 4844 Lillie St. Her assistants will be Fern Lambert, Edna Montooth, and Garnett Browne.

The Program Committee will meet at the Temple for their January 31st meeting. Their February meeting to be announced later on.

The Sewing Committee will meet on February 14th with Barbara Skiver, Lela Ford, Nellie Baumgartner, Josephine Simon and Ruth Gable.

On February 5th the Decorating Committee will meet at Martha Smith's home with Viola Anderson, Lucinda Pettit, and Guyanna Heingartner.

The Cheer Committee will meet on February 28th at Margaret Slagle of 715 Guildford. Her co-hostess will be Martha Miller.

FORT WAYNE
CHAPTER No. 432
O.E.S.

Meetings

A good chapter doesn't just happen, it is planned and worked for. The planning for our first meeting was rewarding to all who attended. Helen Howard gave a brief history of the beginning of Eastern Star in Fort Wayne as a tribute to our charter members, and a beautiful ceremony reunited our twenty-five year members with the lessons of our order. Tessie chose "inspiration" to symbolize the letter "I" from her watchword, and this even was an inspiration to practice "hospitality." We were reminded that often only a word of invitation is necessary to bring someone back to chapter; let's make it a goal to attend chapter and bring another member.

As they always do, our men put on a very entertaining program on the 18th. The large crowd was evidence of how much we enjoy and appreciate their efforts. Often we joke about their "amen corner" in the chapter room, but we are very proud of our men and believe they exemplify "hospitality."

On February 1st we hold election of officers and hope to see each of you in chapter to cast your vote.

A special program will be dedicated to all who have served at the fifth point on Electa Night February 15.

The All Committee year end party will be held on the mezzanine on Feb. 19. You won't want to miss this—it's one of the nicest events of the year.

February 2nd is Bertha Bayser's birthday. Let's each send her a card at the Masonic Home.

FEBRUARY CALENDAR:

6, Satellite's will meet at the home of Mabel Keppler, 3704 Hastings Road, with Carolyn Goldsmith assisting.

8, Cboir will meet with Audra Martin, 1120 Rivermet.

12, Visiting will meet on the mezzanine with Cicla Dellinger, chairwoman.

13, Past Matron's will meet with Helen Herrick, 2324 Hillegas Road, Flora Dornte assisting.

14, Decorating's meeting will be held at the home of Marylee Clingman, 8203 Ravina Road.

20, Non Pariel will meet at the Gas Kitchen.

26, Social will meet on the mezzanine with Frances Burchard's committee serving.

27, Officers will meet at the home of Bernice Bowman, 6108 Midwood Dr., with Velma Fortness assisting.

28, Starlite Guild will meet with Lina Buckles, 1844 Lindley.

Happy Valentines Day!
It only takes a little love
To make this life more sweet.
It only takes a little cheer
To make the day complete.
It only takes a little smile
To brighten all the day.
So plan a little bit of each
For all who come your way.
Valentine Day should serve to remind us to do what we can to brighten the days for our sisters, brothers and friends.

In a few short weeks our calendar events for the year will have been completed. However, there are many special events yet to come. February 2 will be election. Feb. 16 we will honor our Star pals and affiliate members. The program committee has planned a very interesting program for that evening. Most of the members of that committee will be taking part. They have given us many fine programs this year. Last meeting the Shrine Chanters gave us all a thrill when they came marching into the chapter room, after the meeting, dressed in their natty uniforms and singing a spirited song. The director, Bill Wetzel, had planned a varied & well balanced program. A special number included our choir director, Geraldine Boldt, singing the solo part. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all and we extend our sincere thanks for such fine entertainment.

CALENDAR:
Feb. 5, Cheer Committee will meet with Henrietta Silver at 1928 Lynn Ave. Bea Werling will be co-hostess.
Feb. 6, Social Committee will meet at the home of Mary Henninger, 528 Dayton. Nora Bryan will be assisting.
Feb. 7, Sewing and Decorating Committee will meet with Doretha

Baker, 2011 Phenix. Sarab Hoover is the co-hostess.

Feb. 16, Chapter meeting honoring Star pals and affiliate members.

Feb. 19, Choir will have their end of the year party. Time and place will be announced later.

Feb. 20, Program will have their end of the year party. Time and place to be announced later.

Feb. 26, Officers end of the year party.
Feb. 27, Ways and Means end of the year party.

Feb. 5, Ne-Ca-Wa will meet at Carmen Utterbach's home, 1628 Fairhill Rd.

Feb. 12, Dor-Al Sunshine guild will meet with Wanda Rippi, 4902

Salem Lane.

Feb. 13, Past Matrons will meet at Carmen Utterbach, 1628 Fairhill Road.

Feb. 14, Stitch and Chatter will meet at the home of Dorothy White, 1317 Morton.

Illness in Chapter. Marie Kraemel-meyer and Marie Anderson.

Illness in Family, father of Dorothy Boger, father of Virginia Rose-vear. Son-in-law of Aelene Miller and son of John and Marjorie Simmers. Granddaughter of Ralph and Mae Ernst.

Fraternal greetings and the best to you in 62. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." Psalms 119:

The royal matron and royal patron hopes that through every day of this new year you will hold high the lighted lamp of Truth so others may linger in its rays and seek its light.

Court activities were rounded out in the old year with a night that shall remain "sweet in our memory," inspection. A banquet preceded the meeting. The dining tables were decorated in a lamplighter theme interwoven with Christmas touches. The room was lovely. The delicious dinner was served by Steigerwald Caterers, thank you, Phil, so very much. And a special thanks to H.L. Helen Gonterman, Chairman.

As we entered the court room a winter wonderland greeted us which was so very pretty. The G.R.M. H.L. Waneta Newby accompanied by the G.R.P. S.K. Carlton McKenzie visited the court officially. Attending her were the Grand Marshal, H.L. Ruth Beeman and Grand Page H.L. Gladys Hawhee. Under escort duties the Grand Matron and Grand Patron were presented at the altar, thence to the throne, as H.L. Evelyn Reed, Grand soloist sang a solo in the tune of "White Christmas." Others escorted were supremes, past grands, grand elective and appointive officers. Presiding and Past Royal Matrons and Patrons. We were honored with distinguished guests from Ohio, Thank you for visiting us and do come again. Initiated were Maynard Cope and wife, Fred Lantz and wife, Patricia Brown and Bivian Monen-smith, who has recently been in-stalled as Charity. The Grand Royal Matron complimented the court in the ritualistic work. She thanked S.K. Vernon Reed, A.G.L. and H.L. Mary Beaman, D.G.R.M. for their service to the court, both had made official visits prior to hers. Her message on keeping Christmas every day was most inspiring and left deep medita-tive thoughts. The G.P. gave a recipe for 1962 and if each of us would use it tomorrow would be better than today. They were escorted to the altar for signing of the Holy Bible by S.D.R.M. & P.H.L. Wilma and S.K. Arlie Binns.

The "Yule" Party of officers and committee members was held at the home of H.L. Mabel Travis with H.L. Mary Beaman assisting. The Wilkersons hosted the same group in January. The February meeting will be at the home of S.K. Ben and H.L. Esther Brothers.

The Sweet Adelines and an old fashioned oyster stew was enjoyed on Master Masons Night. At our last meeting in January, Anthony Wayne Court were guests, following the meeting entertainment and a social hour was enjoyed.

Several of our members have been on the sick list, we wish them a speedy recovery. Sadness has come to us by the death of our Jr. P.G.R.M. H.L. Iva York, and the mothers of H.L. Lillian Johns, P.S.R.M. and H.L. Fanchon Eshen-baugh, G.A.C. To the bereaved our deepest sympathy and a reminder that (the rose still grows beyond the wall).

February 14th stated meeting fol-lowed by a card party. February 28, advanced officers night. See you soon at Amaranth.

The month of February marks a month which is a very busy one for Anthony Wayne Court. The meet-ings for the month of January were full of activities. Due to the illness of the Royal Matron the Past ma-trons and Past Patrons night was held on January 17th. H.L. Dorothy Wol-ever presided on the Throne. On Jan-uary 24th the members of this court were guests of our sister Court, Truth Court. Thank you Honored Ladies and Sir Knights for a pleasant and happy evening.

We were saddened by the death of H.L. Ida Prass. She was 87 years old and with her daughter, H.L. Lil-lian Johns and Son-in-law, S.K. Cur-tin Johns were the instigators of Anthony Wayne Court. She was known as Mother Prass to chapter members of the Court and attended many meetings when the Court was young and in need of help. At that time they all lived in Gary, Indiana. The first meeting was held March 3, 1941. She was very active in Amaranth and will be missed by her many friends.

Coming Events for the month of February, 1962.

Feb. 4, The Officer's Club, A.O.K. will meet at the home of S.K. Harold and H.L. Georgia Garrett at 7:30 p.m.

Feb. 6, The Ways and Means Committee will meet at 8:00 p.m., place to be announced. The group has candy, cookies and pickles for sale.

Feb. 7, Stated meeting and ad-vanced Officer's night. This is a chance to see the Officers for next year working. Come see them and support them.

My term as Honored Queen gotten off to a good start, am looking forward to the next months.

Our first meeting was held Jan-uary 3, 1962 in the Egyptian Ro-om of the Masonic Temple. At 5:30 had an Officers, Choir and Past Potluck. We had very good at-tendance and a wonderful selection food. Then at 7:30, we had a regular stated meeting. I was happy to see so many girls on sidelines, and also so many past. We also had a guest with us, Miss Brenda Dull, who was crowned the DeMolay Sweetheart on De-ber 27, at the White Christmas mas-mal. Thank you very much for coming. After the meeting, it was entertainment. Brenda Dull, an Oriental Dance and Miss L. Hambrook, the Leader of the Cordia Majorettes and her as-sisted two twirling routines. Gum passed out at the door for re-laxants.

On January 17, we had our initiation. The following girls were initiated: Linda Batcher, Ann Middleton, Beverly Tyler, Schubert, and Judy Doherty. We girls come back soon. I would like to thank my officers for wonderful job they did, your was just beautiful. After the ing, we had open face sandwiches and potato chips for refresh-ment.

I would like to announce our special event. It is a Chili per. It is on March 7, from 5:00 to 8:00 in the banquet hall of the sonic Temple. Tickets are 75¢ ticket chairmen are: Diane Sim-mers South Side; Betsy Stephenson, Side; Harriet High, North; Roberta Cook, North Side; Elmhurst; Laura Foulks, Elmhurst; Aetha White, Northwood; Ungerer, Northwood; America New Haven; Karen Kelly, La-sharon Lantz, Ben Guyer, Krieger, Central; and Sandy Bur-

This is being written before the group 3 inspection was held at Au-son so no formal report can be given at this time.

The cold weather cut our attendance down on January 11 for the dedication of our candidate, but a good job was turned in by officers.

At present the program for the York Rite Guest Night, March 16 dinnering up in fine style and the plans will be released at the next writing.

Plans have been started for a York Rite Officers Dinner, their ladies included, the place and date have been definitely set. More to follow later.

The first of the York Rite degrees contained in the Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. The chapter confers the degrees, popularly known as the Blue Degrees because they are the capstone of Ancient Craft Masonry. These degrees are rich in history, the first three culminate in the completion and spectacular dedication of King Solomon's Temple. The fourth and final degree of Royal Arch Mason—oldest degree any Rite—is concerned with the discovery and identification of "that which was lost" and for which the Royal Arch degree provided only substitute. The Royal Arch is officially called the Most Sublime Degree. It is a stirring, heart-warming experience and a fitting climax to that has preceded and should ever main a memorable highlight of our Masonic career.

Companions, as we enter well into the new year, it seems that there is a lack of news for this month. However, we do have a good menu.
planned for our dinner at 6:15 on our Stated meeting night, Thursday,
Feb. 15. Our own Companion Doe Planck is preparing a fine meal of steak with baked potatoes, so bring your appetites and dig in, then come upstairs and attend our Stated meeting.

Although we often appeal to all of you, to bring in new Chapter, or York Rite petitions, we must never lose sight of the fact that our Blue Lodges also need new members, for without them we soon would have no prospects for new members.

We do have one candidate to receive the Chapter Degrees, and at the time you read this article he probably will have received the Mark Master Degree. Any other petitions, you might have, please present them at the earliest possible date to either myself or our Recorder George Gable, so we can better be enabled to plan our work.

In March, we are again planning a York Rite Guest Night, such as we had last fall, which many of you enjoyed. We plan a fine entertain-afterwards, so line up a guest to bring, the more the merrier. More

THE BEST WE CAN GIVE

Although we may be confused by events, astronomical figures, and the wonders of science, we must never drift into a fatalistic attitude toward life.

The strength of Masonry is, and has always been, in the stress that it places on the individual.

This emphasis points to the vast void that exists between the philosophy of those who are the eternal enemies of Freemasonry.

The dictator state is concerned with the masses. The many can be controlled by the iron hand of despotism. The strong individual will always resist tyranny.

More and more there will be the struggle between the right of man to fulfill his mission on earth as an individual, and the insistence of the few in power that man must delegate his birthright to an impersonal state.

Today we must extend our efforts, teach and practice Masonry in every department of life, and proudly proclaim to the world the principles that we stand for. We must give our best for the things that we value most.

To start off my new term as Master Councillor of this Chapter, I wish to express my extreme gratitude to the friends and parents who attended our installation of officers. It was a frightful night and I am deeply honored at the interest which our visit proved.

I wish to thank the installing officers on a very impressive ceremony.
Also our Advisors who added that "little touch."

I wish to thank "Mom" Herrick,
Mrs. Branstrator, and the Mothers Circle for the refreshments and the wonderful decorations. Mrs. Herrick went out in the afternoon to get red and white, my school colors, in my honor. Again thanks a lot.

The officers installed were: Master
Councillor, Allen Haney, N.S.; Senior Councillor, Jim Tennant, N.S.; Junior Councillor, John Roscoe, Central;
Treasurer, Bob Quick, S.S.; Scribe,
Lyman While, N.S.; Senior Deacon,

Mike Kelly, N.S.; Steve Paring, S.S.; Danny Miller, N.S., and Matt Corsichrine, S.S. The invocation was given by Rev. J. E. Lawshe from North Webster.

The first meeting this year there were about 50 boys in attendance.
Chairman of the Committees were appointed and are as follows: At South Side, Sam Carter and Danny Truett; Central, John Roscoe; New Haven, Mike Shirk and Larry Bush-hill; Elmhurst, Bob Johnson and Tom Ice; Northwood, John Smith and Denny Miller; Lakeside, Lyman While and Jay Porter; North Side, Jim Tennant and Duane Traster.

To close I hope to see all the boys at our next meeting who are willing to work for the betterment of De-Molay and are willing to bring in a petition. Not that I only want a select few, but you can not proudly say, "I am a DeMolay," and then not have enough time to ask someone if he would be willing to get into the Greatest Youth Organization in the World.

TRICKERY'S PRICE

The man who sets out to fool somebody is a fool. For only a fool could be blind enough not to see what he is doing to himself when he tries to fool another. First of all he immediately becomes a prisoner of his cunning. From then on he must live in constant fear of being found out. He has to watch every little word he says, lest somebody will put two and two together and come up with four. And when his trick is discovered—as it usually is, sooner or later—he stands to lose the confidence and respect of those with whom he had been dealing. Friends turn into enemies. Admiration changes to contempt. All of his future activities are thus handicapped by a reputation that follows him like his shadow. Nothing one can possibly gain by trickery is worth the cost!
—"The Little Gazette"

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Traditionally, the word "extortion" has always held a somewhat sinister meaning.

However, it now appears there would well be a new type of terminology for the word, and that there will now be set up the term "legal extortion."

At least that appears possible unless Congress takes some action to clean house in the National Labor Relations Board. There has been some suggestions that as long as it seems, in some quarters, perfectly fine to give the communist government of Yugoslavia jet planes, perhaps as additional help to Tito, it would be well to ship him several carloads of NLRB people.

The latest off-lacke alant... left tackle of course, by NLRB is to establish the edict that a non-union worker in a plant where there is union workers, does not have to pay union dues.
He just gives the same amount each month to the union. It's called union security.

Basically, this is just another move by a government bureau to encroach further into the affairs of individual states. Some states have "right-to-work" laws which makes it illegal to require union membership to hold job.

These laws, of course, irritate the leaders of monopoly labor organizations. And of course, nothing grieves an NLRB official quite as much as an irritated labor leader, unless it is the thought of getting National Federation of Independent Business

ing off the government payroll and having to go to work.

But in this situation, they come up with a most serious ruling. In these particular states, a worker does not have to belong to the union. But he does have to fork over to union operating in his job area, an amount of money equivalent to dues called "union security" payments.

This opens an entirely new area of economic opportunity for enterprising people. Hoodlums should no longer demand payments, which is extortion. Instead, they now would be able to seek plate glass security payments. In fact, this could probably go a long way to alleviate the nation's crime problem. If so, terms can be found to be used for other forms of extortion, for armed robbery, et al, then there would be less criminal offenses throughout the land.

It now appears that this whole question of unbridled license given a few labor leaders will be a major issue in the forthcoming session of Congress. Even Congressmen with heavy labor constituencies report three-fourths or more of their people are demanding corrective steps.

Senators Thurmond and Mc-Clellan, Congressmen Algar, Santangelo, Helstad, and many others, are either writing bills, or working with other legislators, on bills that will curb the powers of these labor ogres in their inauguration of practices which have created a serious unemployment situation, held down the economy, and hampered national defense.
There is growing demand the system be changed back to where American government is by the people, of the people, and for the people.

Brethren, it is an honor to be elected Worshipful Master of New Haven Lodge 740, F.&A.M. I shall try, to the best of my ability, to perform the duties and meet all responsibilities of this high office.

The success of New Haven Lodge 740 will continue because we have a lot of the brothers taking parts. To this I can only say thank you very much. January 3rd was Installation of officers which was very well attended. After our officers were installed by Pastmasters Lamar Girardot, Roy Weaver and Rolla Durbin, we presented our Junior Past Master Jack Crence with the gift of a beautiful watch suitably engraved and bearing the Pastmaster Jewel.

After Lodge was adjourned, our Junior Warden Norman O. Long invited us to the dining room for coffee and donuts followed by some of the brothers indulging in a gabfest, others in cards.

My brethren, we are starting off with a very quick and busy schedule. February 7th is stated meeting. We will vote two petitions for degrees and will have work as follows: Entered Apprentice degree Wednesday, Feb. 14th at 7 p.m. February 21st will be Fellowcraft degree at 7 p.m. February 28th is Master Mason degree at 5 p.m., lunch at 6 p.m. followed by the second section at 7 p.m. I would like to have all the brothers come out and support our new officers. We want to organize a Fellowcraft Team and still need some help with it.

Brother Harry Parent is on the ailing list again in Rochester, Minn. I know Brother Parent would appreciate a card and you can get his address by calling me. See you all in Lodge.

On December 19th the members of Harlan Lodge elected their officers for the year of 1962 as follows:

Cyrus Gustin, W.M.; Rollie Johnson, S.W.; Alfred Moore, J.W.; Robert Hissong, Sec'y; Zeno Brandon, Treas. and Walter Love, New incoming trustee.

The appointed officers are: Lynn Smith, S.D.; Stanley Love, J.D.; Rolland Dorsey, S.S.; Elvin Mull, J.S.; Otho (Jake) Gustin, Chaplin, and Walter Love, Tyler.

The officers were installed on Jan. 2nd with a public installation preceded with a pancake and sausage supper.

We have a good active group of officers this year and with the help and cooperation of the rest of the members, we are looking forward to a happy and successful year.

I am proud to say that we are living up to all of the predictions so far for 1962. The economists predict this to be a boom year and it looks as if Hometown is proving this in that we have started three new candidates on the road of masonry. The new line of officers are doing a wonderful job in their new stations and this is commendable since we haven't had much practice for some time. Watch for dates of Degree work this month and support your new officers by attending when you can. Masonry cannot stand by its name alone, for what is masonry, but you and I who strive to live by its teachings.

We could use some help on the Craft team for anyone interested. I know you are all interested or you wouldn't be reading this article, but what I would like to accomplish, is that all of you enjoy your masonry. This can be done by regular attendance.

We were saddened recently by the passing of our friend and brother, Vernon Wetzel. Memorial services were held at the Kridler funeral home in Chubbuck by Hometown at the request of the family. To them we extend our deepest sympathy.

All Master Masons were invited to visit Hometown Chapter No. 388 O.E.S. on January 9th. Several were in attendance and enjoyed some slides taken in Alaska by Mr. and Mrs. Al Thorpe of Harlan. A very enjoyable evening, indeed. Keep in touch with this article for news events, past and present. See you in lodge.

The 98th annual installation of officers of Ossian Lodge No. 297 F&AM took place on the evening of 1 January, 1962 at their Lodge hall.

Preceding the Installation, an annual custom was followed out by the Brethren who enjoyed an oyster supper. This repeat was tastefully prepared and served by brothers Elwin Mahnensmith, Ray Fryback, and Charles McGee.

After dining, the Lodge was opened on the Master Mason degree. Past Master Earnest Earhart was appointed installing master and Past Master John Osborn was appointed installing marshal. The following officers were duly and truly installed:

Joseph Roman, Worshipful Master; Minor Stowe, Senior Warden; Earl Smith, Junior Warden; Max King, Treasurer; Harvey Ault, Secretary; Joe Clark, Senior Deacon; Charles McGee, Junior Deacon; James Mahnensmith, Senior Steward; Bill Howard, Junior Steward; Robert Hadley, Tyler, and John Osborn, Chaplain.

Our Junior Steward, Brother Bill Howard is presently serving with the United States Air Force in France. We hope to have him back with us by this fall.

Your correspondent joins with the Worshipful Master in congratulating Brother Norman Bushee on a year's Masonic Labors well done. As Worshipful Master during the past year, Norm will be a hard man to follow. In the East—so states new Worshipful Master J. Roman.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Remember that your brother cannot be your enemy. While sometimes things may occur that will seem to pull you apart and the weeds of malice and hatred may try to take root in your heart, the cement of Masonry is indestructible, for it is made of true brotherly love.

If you do not have that kind of love in your heart there is something definitely wrong with you, and you should proceed to enlighten yourself as to the real fundamentals of true Masonry. No man can be a good Mason and hold malice.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 145:13-21.

God's Holy Name

Lesson for January 28, 1962

IN ancient times, and among primitive people to this day, the name of a person was closely connected with the person himself. Actors and writers—not to mention immigrants with names that sound strange to American ears—change their names easily and think nothing of it. But among the ancient Hebrews, if a person changed his name

Dr. Foreman it was supposed to be only if some radical change had come over the man himself. So when the Bible speaks of reverence for God's "name," what is chiefly in mind is not a sound in the air or marks on paper, but reverence for what the name stands for—God himself.

Irreverence
Americans are notoriously irreverent. At least, such is our reputation in Europe, and to some extent we deserve it. Our trouble is that it is a kind of tradition in this country that everybody is as good as everybody else if not a little better. Reverence seems like kow-towing, groveling, being an "Uncle Tom," boot-licking.

We have all sorts of contemptuous words for the attitude of humility. We feel (even if we do not come out and say so) that to be reverent is sissified, it's a sign of weakness, an admission of inferiority. What we forget is that God is not only not a man, He is infinitely higher than man. He is our Creator. To show reverence in the presence of another human being may well be uncalled for and demeaning (sic); but reverence in the presence of Almighty God is—at the very least—a simple honest admission of the fact that the one God is infinitely higher and holier than any of us or all of us together. To treat God lightly, with indifference or contempt, is irreverence, in any form. Profanity, dragging in God's name either casually or in irreverence.

Jesus on Irreverence

Our Lord never used the word "irreverence" or "irreverent" but he spoke of certain acts which he described or referred to as "that leaves us in no doubt what he was driving at. He said (Matt. 5) about "harmless" oaths of that time—swearing by heaven or by Jerusalem, and condemning them all. What good would an oath do even if it were not irreverent? If a man cannot be true when he says "Yes" or "No" putting him under oath will make him more truthful, (J) himself did not refuse to testify when the High Priest "adjured him by the living God." That is a case where refusal to speak all would have been considered worse than speaking out. Jesus poured a drop or two of scorn on people who pray long prayers, even repeating themselves, and over, fancying that God proves our prayers according to their length. He also was against praying for show, would hardly think anybody would be so foolish as to pray in order to make an impression on anybody but God—and yet people sometimes do it. Did you yourself ever pray in public wonder, then or afterward, "So-and-so thought of your effort."

The worst offenders

The worst offenders against reverence are sometimes religious people. They are worse because they should know better. There were people in Galilee who had no use for Jesus, and they did not treat him with decent respect. Indeed, some of them even plotted his death. But they were open and aboveboard, or so they were. Jesus raises a question with his intimate friends: "had such a high regard for him that they called him 'Lord'?" said Jesus—"Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and do you what I tell you?" (Luke 22:16) You see it is not a question of words. The word "Lord" is a word, it was no doubt used respectfully, but it was a word used as some people used the name who they did not mean it. A man who goes to church and says "Jesus, I my cross have taken and drop into the collection, only half of what his Sunday neighbor is going to root him, the slanders who cannot be told, pagans except for that occasional hour in the pew, are all irreverent. For the essence of irreverence is treating God as if he didn't really count.

THE INDIANA MASONIC HOME

This is the four and last of a series of articles prepared by the Masonic Home Committee of Home Lodge No. 342.

References: Indiana Blue Book (Appendix) and Handbook for Secretaries (Chapter 6).

Again we greet you and hope you have received a little information that you never knew before. In this article we will talk on the Topic "Outside Relief."

Question: What is this "outside relief" I have heard mentioned in connection with applications for Masonic Home membership?

Answer: It is a plan whereby cash grants are made monthly to individuals in lieu of residence in the home. What it amounts to is this. Home membership may be either resident or non-resident. One who receives an outside relief grant is a non-resident member.

Who is eligible for outside relief?
1. Persons otherwise eligible to enter the Home who, because of physical or mental condition, can not be admitted.
2. Persons who have been accepted for residence at the Home, but because of limited facilities, can not be received until a later date.

3. Persons otherwise eligible for admission who, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, should remain in their home communities.

This relief is administered by the Board of Directors of the Indiana Masonic Home. The money comes from the Grand Lodge Relief Fund. Money is transferred from the Masonic Home Maintenance Fund to the Grand Lodge Relief Fund, and then checks are drawn as needed. Checks for "Outside Relief" are sent to the Lodge for and on behalf of an individual.

Outside Relief is available only to applicants eligible through Masonic membership. Those eligible only through the Eastern Star must apply for assistance from the Order of Eastern Star.

No Lodge is too small and no relief fund is too meager to rise to the occasion if the true spirit of Free Masonry is present.

This will be our last article. If we have helped anyone to understand our Masonic Home just a little bit more, we are indeed grateful. For further information check the References through the Blue Book or Hand book for Secretaries.

SHILOH CHAPTER LOOSES FOUR 50 YEAR MEMBERS

In the first ten days of the month of February Shiloh Chapter mourns the loss of four fifty-year members. Sister Mable Scheid who would have received her award of gold in April, passed away Feb. 1st. Sister Clara Dunn on Feb. 4th. Sister Flossie Fuller on Feb. 6th. Sister Bessie Clark who had been presented the fifty-year award in November, 1961 passed away Feb. 9th.

WAYNE LODGE TO HONOR PAST MASTERS

On Thursday, March 29, Wayne Lodge will hold a dinner at the Temple to honor Past Masters and ladies. Dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 p.m., at $1.00 per plate. Two tickets will be sent to each Wayne Lodge member. The dinner will honor the fifty year award members by the presentation of the gold award. Entertainment will be by the Central High School Choir under the direction of William Wetzel. Arrangements for the dinner have been handled by W.M., E. F. Goshorn, assisted by the other officers of the lodge.

THE HISTORY OF WAYNE LODGE NO. 25, F&M FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

The year 1823 marks the beginning of fraternal societies in Fort Wayne, the organization of Wayne Lodge No. 25, Free and Accepted Masons. General John Tipton appears to have been the moving spirit in the matter. On March 29, 1823, John Sheets, Grand Master of Masons in Indiana, granted a dispensation to Alexander Ewing, Worshipful Master; John P. Hedges, Senior Warden; Benjamin Kercheval, Junior Warden, and others to form a lodge to be known as "Wayne Lodge of Fort Wayne, County of Randolph, Indiana." At the first meeting, held in May of that year, there were present, in addition to these already mentioned, Captain James Hackley and Benjamin Kercheval, together with the following named visitors: General John Tipton, of Pisgah Lodge No. 5 of Corydon, Indiana; Anthony L. Davis, of Franklin Lodge No. 28, Kentucky; Richard L. Britton, of St. John's Lodge No. 13, Ohio; John McCorkle, of Lodge No. 14, Ohio; and Robert A. Forsythe. And, on reading the dispensation, the lodge was opened in the first degree in ancient form-consisting of Alexander Ewing, Worshipful Master, John P. Hedges, Senior Warden and

A group of twelve brothers went out to the V.A. Hospital on Summit City's visitation night. This is a good turn out, however, more brothers can be used. Some of the patients are far from home and have few chances to visit with anyone, not connected with the hospital. They seem to appreciate our visits very much and so make the little time we spend there, worth while.

Congratulations to the two newly made Master Masons of the January Class. We had degree work for February and the possibility of work for Mareh. Why not come and participate?

Brothers Walter Harris and Harry Adams have been released from the hospital and now recuperating at home. I just learned that brother Don Clarke had a bad fall and had very severe bruises to his hip. I understand that he is almost fully recovered. Our best wishes for a speedy recovery to all the ailing and our sincere sympathy to those in sorrow.

Brothers, please call your Worshipful our brothers is ill. I find that in many cases the brothers have recovered and are working again before I know about their illness.

Worshipful Master Maynard Campbell is a gracious host who received us into his lodge with the brotherly love that is the most important part of our teachings. Everyone had a good time as a result of his graciousness. I take pleasure in inviting any brother or brethren from other lodges to come to our lodge at any time.

From all indications, the month of March is going to be a busy one for the Craft. Watch your local paper for developments and dates of degree work.

Our calendar of events is set for the following dates:
April 27, Smorgasbord and Square Dance.

May 22, Guest Night.

November 22, Family Night.

Remember these dates and plan to be with us on as many of these occasions as possible.

Our Mentor Plan and Masonic instruction plans are being formed and progressing, so plan to attend these informative meetings. They will be held during an intermission of fifteen or twenty minutes on degree nites and also stated meetings.
Come to lodge and see and hear what this is all about and to lend your assistance wherever possible.

An informed Mason is a good Mason, and it is our duty to know as much as we can about it. Come to your lodge and bring a brother with you. Ask to take part in all degree work for we welcome the opportunity to help where ever we

It seems that we are now getting into high gear and moving along rapidly to an extremely busy year.
At our last stated meeting we received 7 petitions and 4 transfers of membership, which added to those already received this year make a total of 12 petitions and 8 transfers.
As you can see we have been quite active and your officers are progressing very well in their new stations.

I should like to thank all those who assist us in the degree work.
There are so many unsung heroes, so many whose labor is often unnoticed and yet so very necessary.
To those who assist us in the lectures, those who make the investigations, those who help lift a brother's load or give a helping hand in time of need, and to those who just by their presence on the sidelines inspire the officers to greater efforts, we offer our gratitude and thanks.

We should like to inform you of our sick brethren so that you may, if you find time, either call personally, write a few lines, or call them and wish them a speedy recovery.
As of this writing we know of the following brethren who are ill. Bros.
Jay Thomas, Alfred Wermuth, Lloyd
Gilbert, Melvin Henemeyer, Fred
Dyer, Ezra Garringer, Homer Scott, and William Schwartz. Everyone knows that Bro. Bill Schwartz is quite adept at practical jokes and I believe he may have a story to tell when he once again is up and around. Seems like it had something to do with radishes. It is the wish of the lodge that each of these brothers has a speedy recovery and are soon again blessed with good health.

Your lodge conducted Masonic services for Brother Harry Collier on Friday, Feb. 2 at McComb Funeral Home. We wish to extend to his family our sincerest expression of sympathy at this time. To continue down the pathway of life without our loved one at our side is truly hard;
it seems as though the whole world has collapsed and the way that once looked bright and cheery appears dark and gloomy;

the same heavenly Father who is comforting love to each of give to our Brother's family to continue, secure in the know-that "death is but the begin-

"Now Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Hebrews 11:1)

Spring is almost here again. Across the land nature is awakening from a long winter sleep. The earth is coming alive with beauty, and we again there is evidence of victory over death, a Resurrection of life. Springtime is a song of Faith.

If you have ever visited the great wood forest on the Pacific coast, you were awed by the immense height and age of the trees—trees that have stood before the birth of time. How could trees stand for many years against atmospheric forces of the Coastal Range? Rangers of the area say the winds can scarcely uproot the trees because of the mighty roots sent down into the earth. The strongest trees are always those that have endured the greatest number of storms. It is not what happens to the trees but what happens within the trees. This also is true with people. If we have sent our roots deep into those values that truly sustain life, faith and trust in the Grand Architecture of the Universe, we cannot become uprooted by the storms of life. This is the faith we should give to others. Trees are made stronger by storms; people grow in wisdom by adversity. It has been said; "If we are strong enough within, there is nothing from without that can do us harm."

As winter has brought us problems of dismal weather and inconveniences of human error, (Yes, I'm kidding the season just a bit, though our Secretary Frank Bryan has had squalls coming up for eight weeks) we cannot help but feel that we have sent down our Masonic roots just a bit deeper; and as the life sap flows with renewed vigor through our veins as spring approaches, somehow there is a feeling of good-will and accomplishment in the realm of Masonic progress.

There is a recipe for "Planting A Spring Garden":

1. Plant Five Rows of "Peas" — Preparedness, Promptness, Perseverance, Politeness, Prayer.
2. Plant three rows of "Squash"—Squash Gossip, Squash Criticism, Squash Indifference.
3. Plant five rows of "Lettuce"—Lettuce be Faithful, Lettuce be Unselfish, Lettuce be Loyal, Lettuce be Truthful, Lettuce Love One Another.
4. Plant for rows of "Turnips"—

Turnip for meetings. Turnip with a smile, Turnip with new ideas, and Turnip with Determination.

With just a little care and attention, what a wonderful harvest we shall reap from the Garden of Cooperation and Masonic Charity.

South Gate has been busy during January and February with degree work for candidates, with plans to continue in March. The Officers met for a dinner and get-together with wives, and had a most enjoyable time. These socials serve far more than the mere purpose of filling our pangs of hunger. They draw us together for the cause of Masonic progress; all members profit indirectly from the good-will formed there. The Smorgasbord was well attended. The Tribute to Lincoln and Washington meetings were successful. The Fellowship is continuing to grow, with members practicing.

Members are especially invited to attend the meeting on Monday, March 12th. The Commandery Drill Team will give an exhibition.

A Special Appeal: Dues paid to any organization entitles a member to certain rights and privileges. They also carry certain responsibilities to the organization to which dues are paid. One responsibility is to pay the dues on time, without undue prodding. Another is to put something back into the organization along the lines of personal service, or the minimum form of support called Attendance. Rights and responsibilities are keystones of success in the American way of life. There is still a place, in spite of elements of time, place and circumstances that tend to deaden its influence, for some of the patriotism of America's glorious heritage. It will be a sad day for all Americans when we fail to sense a tingle down the spine when we see our flag waving free against a backdrop of deep azure; or when we see a man reach down to lift a falling neighbor; or to jar our own selves from the lethargy of immobile membership.

Walk tall. Regardless of your height . . . walk tall!

By reaching for that extra inch or two

You might just lift your eyes above the wall.

Which seems to block tomorrow from your view.

Think tall. Try stretching your thoughts a bit.

You walk with freer strides. Quite soon you'll find

Your shoulders squared unconsciously to fit.

That larger suit you've tailored for your mind.

Feel tall. Think tall. Walk tall . . . as soldiers do.

You'll be amazed. It really makes you taller.

Inside and out, you'll be a bigger you.

And anyhow, it cannot make you smaller.

I wish to congratulate each and every one of you for your fine contributions to the Masonic Home. You have contributed $1143 which is an average of one dollar per member, and I am told this is the largest contribution of any of our Fort Wayne Lodges. I am proud of you. I cannot take any of the credit myself. It was through the efforts of our Junior Past Master Dell Proctor and your fine cooperation. The tenets of a Mason's profession are brotherly love, relief and truth and you have demonstrated that you have learned your lessons well.

Since my last news item, we have had three brothers who have been called to make their home with the Grand Architect of the Universe. Brothers Geo. McClintic, Elmer Lontz and Geo H. Waldschmidt. To the bereaved families we extend our heart felt sympathy.

I wish to welcome Brother Clarence Fiegel into our lodge. He was raised a Master Mason January 22.

Don't forget we have two important social events coming up sooe, Family Night March 3 and Smorgasbord supper and square dance Saturday, April 14. Mark these dates on your calendar and plan to attend.

We wish to welcome into our membership Bro. Jerry Walker who was raised February 6th. The Master Mason dinner was well attended. Our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Garrison, Wayne, Mrs. Franklin, Miss Vinning and to our Junior Warden.

Flash! Tickets are now available for our annual smorgasbord and square dance on Saturday, March 10th, 6:30 p.m. when we will be host to the Corinthian Club. Tickets may be purchased from the officers and members. We have a limited supply so get your tickets now! Leroy Roberts, Junior Wardee, is chairman.

Three Rivers appreciates being asked to serve other lodges. One of our Past Masters conducted a funeral for a sister lodge. We thank those who assisted him in that important ceremony.

On March 6th, our cast will present the play, "Rose upon the Altar," at Gas City. Anyone wishing to drive that short distance is cordially welcomed. The play is managed by our Chaplain, Bro. Thurber C. Mohr.

To our Past Masters who attended the PM Vets visit goes our sincere thanks. If you haven't been to lodge this year, why not visit us this month? Our stated meeting is Tuesday, March 13th, 7:30 p.m. This is also Masonic education night. The 1962 officers are doing an excellent job in their stations. The work is superior and the enthusiasm effusant.

We remember those who are sick and cannot be with us; also those who have gone whom we name in our hearts before him. If you know of any illness, please let us know. You are the only couriers we have.

How big are you? Not long ago, one of our Past Masters sat down peacefully in the Tyler's chair to rest himself. However, the chair wasn't sturdy enough and collapsed. Everything is in sitting order now, we are happy to report.

I'm sure all who attended our lodge of Master Masons in January will agree that we have gotten off to a wonderful start for the new year. Three new brothers were raised and are now traveling among us as Master Masons. They were a fine class of candidates and will, I am sure, be a great asset to our lodge.

It was very gratifying to see so many brethren at lodge and enjoying themselves as I am sure we all do when once we get together. The brotherly love and friendship found in lodge is always a welcome relief from the ways of our everyday world.

A great man once said, "If a man does not make new acquaintances as he passes through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man should keep his friendships in constant repair." What better place than lodge can one find to make new acquaintances and keep old friendships alive?

We had no candidates for February, but at our stated meeting February 7, 1962 three petitions were received and read, so we are looking forward to March and the prospects of bringing these men to Masonic Light.

Our Junior Warden and his committee are starting arrangements for our annual Charter and Ladies Night dinner to be held in May. More details will come later as to the exact date, time and place.

In the past if we had a sick brother among us it was soon known to all, and our sick and visitation committee could carry on their work. We have now grown to the point where a brothers distress could be overlooked. If any of you brethren know of a sick brother would you call either myself, our secretary or brother John Conahan, chairman of our sick committee. This is an important part of lodge work and we would appreciate your bringing to our attention any information regarding the illness of a brother.

TRAITS OF A GOOD MASON

Despite the infrequent contradictory incidents which may come to our attention, it can be said to the honor and glory of Masons that there is very little attempt to commercialize Masonry. The real Masoe is so disgusted by any attempt made to influence him in business by an appeal to Masonic affiliation that few of those so inclined have the nerve to try to work the miserable game.

One of Masonry's cardinal principles is that each member is expected to do what is right without favor or bias; to do it because it is right, and for no other reason.

One reason why Masonry has enjoyed such a long unbroken history of accomplishments is that it has been kept out of business and politics. It is what is inside of a man that is of interest to the craft, and not what has been accumulated on the outside.

It is a brother's character, his soul, that makes him a true and loyal Masoe. When a man entertains the idea of bartering this great principle, he has indeed fallen far from the ideals of our ancient and honorable fraternity.

A great big "Thank you" to everyone who helped in any way on the Steak Supper. Although not as many attended as last year, there was a good crowd and the food was delicious, as usual.

Everyone enjoyed the color slides of the Swinford's trip to Jamaica which were shown after the meeting on February 20. March 6 will be our first initiation. The officers will practice Saturday, March 3 at 2:00 p.m. There are no demerits for an officer who does not attend practice, but our initiation will only be as good as we make it, and it takes practice. Mark your calendars for March 20. That is when we will honor our Past Presidents, so let's show by our attendance that we appreciate their past efforts.

Day sewing will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Masel, 5014 Smith St. on Monday, March 12. We really have a good time at our "sewing bee" so bring a sack lunch and join us. The Evening Sewing Group will meet with Mrs. Grey Wagner, Leo Road on March 19, at 7:30.

Our congratulations to Mrs. Earl Lyman, who has a new grandchild, our sympathy to Mrs. George Bojrah, who lost her father, and our wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Bojrah, Mrs. Everett Miles, Mrs. John Keyser, Mrs. James Todd, and the mother of Mrs. Willard Havel. Save those Buffalo Nickels!

On the 10th of November, 1823, the charter was granted. On the evening of November 17, in the rooms of General Tipton, enclosed within the palisades of the fort, the following officers were installed: Worshipful Master, Alexander Ewing; Senior Warden, John Tipton; Junior Warden, Benjamin B. Kercheval; Secretary, Charles W. Ewing; Treasurer, Anthony L. Davis; Senior Deacon, James Hackley; Junior Deacon, Hugh B. McKee; Steward and Tyler, James Wyman. On the occasion of the meeting on Christmas night, General Tipton was elected to the office of Worshipful Master, a position which he held for five

Although Wayne Lodge is the most substantial organization, story of its earlier years is one of heartaches and difficulties. In the first five years, the order continued to meet in a room of the fort at that time occupied by General Tipton, and in the same room order worked for some time after; in Washington Hall; the C. Seminary; and the Courthouse. Though efforts were begun in 1829, the Lodge purchased to establish a Lodge Hall on the east corner of Columbia and son Streets, the site of the establishment of S. Barb and Company there erected a brick building. June 3, 1833, the Lodge found necessary to sell the lot and ing to the highest bidders—Holman, Richard L. Britton, F. Comport, Alexis Coquillard, Hugh Hanna—for $1,328.

The suicide of James Hackley, husband of Rebekah, daughter of Captain William Wells, presented a troublesome problem to the Lodge of Masons in 1826. Hackley's death was the first lodge since its organization, objection was made to conduct the funeral because of the of the death, but, according to records, the members turned to gratify Mrs. Hackley. Hackley taken his own life, by hanging, a vain attempt to murder his in-law, Mrs. Turner, against whom he had become enraged because of a dispute over the partition of property in Spy Run. Mrs. Turner escaped by leaping from an window in her home. The details of the incident are given by John Dawson, in his "Charcoal Sketches" and these agree in all respects with the story as repeated by Lucien P. Ferry, who was then twelve years.

The authority for the above found in Burt Griswold's "History of Fort Wayne" and Hon. John Dawson's "Charcoal Sketches of Fort Wayne."

The first celebration of St. John Day was held June 24, 1825—General John Tipton was the orator of the day.

Submitted by Roy Welty, Chairman of Old Fort Committee.

National Observer

Is there a nation intact today has lived since the time of the King of King Solomon's Temple? One. Hundreds have risen to power and disintegrated through the fusions they brought upon them in trying to keep the evils that up within them. Their hopes, ambition and deeds lie buried in ashes of antiquity.

But what about the noble Fraternity of Masonry? Nations have stowed honors, degrees, titles ranks since time immemorial have been swept away in the steadily rising tides of human passion and greed. Yet, Masonry stand and the honors conferred stand more firmly today than before. It has not changed. Whirlpools of hate and the tor of war passed over it—and it stood immovable and fixed. What is so?

Again the answer is simple, Masonry. The Masonry we practice erected according to the rules designs laid down by the Supreme Architect of the Universe in the of Life. That book is our T. Board. The rules and the design plain and clear—Properly trained observe it (the pattern) man no law more complex than the Commandments.

There are two times in a life when he should not speak when he can't afford it, and when he can—Mark Twain.

Our chapter, like other fraternal organizations, is as strong as the members interest and support. Your worthy Patron and I feel that the guidance and guidance extended to during the past year clearly demonstrates the abiding faith to which we are all dedicated.

We trust that your hopes and expectations for the good of our order have been realized and that our endeavors have not been in vain.

For the confidence that was placed in us, we are sincerely grateful. The experiences which we have had the past year have been a source of strength.

We wish to thank our officers, committee members, and sideliners for their wonderful co-operation and management.

To our committee chairman, who has worked so very hard, we want to say thanks for a job well done. This year has been one of the most years of our lives, and it has been a great honor to be of service to you.

To Sister Louise Wilkerson and other Don Niles, may your year be a blessed and prosperous one, and you and your officers continue to enjoy the happiness that has been yours.

Fraternally, Lillian and Pete.

February 2 we held our election for the ensuing year: Louise Peterson, Worthy Matron; Donald Worthy Patron; Loretta Baker, Associate Matron; Richardson Baker, Associate Patron; Eugenia Wood, Secretary; Doris Thielbolt, Treasurer; Ernst, Conductress, Jean Jasch, Associate Conductress.

March 24th at 7:30 p.m. the new officers will be installed in the community room of the Masonic Temple. This is always a very lovely ceremony and it is our hope that there will be a good group to enjoy this with the members and friends of our chapter.

March 2, Stated meeting in Colonial Room. The Star Pals affiliate members will be honored. There will also be a memorial service. 5, Cheer Committee will hold their end of the year party at the Hobby Ranch House at 6:30 p.m.

March 6, The Social Committee will hold their end of the year party at the Hobby Ranch House at 6:30 p.m.

March 7, Sewing and Decorating will have their annual dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m.

March 16, will be the farewell service for Lillian and Pete and line corps of officers.

March 13, Past Matrons will meet at Dorothy White, 1317 Morton.

March 14, Stitch and Chatter will meet at Winifred Shoemakers, 822½

Another chapter year is drawing to a close. As I began this year as your Worthy Matron I prayed for guidance and your support to lead the chapter through a prosperous and successful year. I sincerely hope that the trust which you placed in me a year ago has been fulfilled. George and I shall be always grateful for the honor and privilege of serving as Worthy Patron and Worthy Matron of Fort Wayne Chapter. We want to say "thank you" to each of you for your assistance and cooperation, your support of our projects and just for being there. We have enjoyed this year and hope you have too. Congratulations to our newly elected officers. Those elected to serve our chapter during 1962-1963 are as follows: Worthy Matron, Mary Knauer; Worthy Patron, Harold Houser; Associate Matron, Patricia Walker; Associate Patron, Frank Bidlack; Secretary, Vera Hayden; Treasurer, Helen Helms; Conductress, Carol Munk and Associate Conductress, Irene Lytle.

Installation of new officers for the coming year will be held in the Commandery Room on Friday evening, March 23 at 7:30 p.m. Families and friends are invited to the ceremony.

A short play entitled "Suppressed Desires" was presented by four students of St. Francis's dramatics club when the men entertained chapter. We enjoyed their comedy and the fellowship on the mezzanine following chapter.

New members and affiliates will be honored at our March 1st meeting. Our last meeting of this year, March 15, will be devoted to honoring the retiring officers and especially our Associate Matron and Patron.

March is a jade, a fickle thing. With the Winter's wind and the sun of Spring. The sun writes, "Come!" and the wind says, "Go!" The Sun writes "Rain!" and the wind says, "Snow!" The sun keeps writing, the wind erasing, and March never knows which way she's facing.

My thanks to every one for the help you gave to me this year. To serve you as your Matron I needed all the help I could get, I am grateful for the co-operation of every one. Thank you again.

My work is done. How well only the Master knows; One never sees the finish of all the seed he sows. It may be only one's part to patiently turn the sod; One plants, another waters, but the increase comes from God.

We wish Sister Ethel, her officers and committees a pleasant successful year.

There will be an open installation, by invitation, on March 31 at 7:30 p.m.

March 6, Committees March Party, 6:30 dinner at the Y.W.C.A.

Illness in Chapter: Sisters Minnie Young, Maxine Shupe, Justine Miller, Dottie Green, Elsie Brooks, Elizabeth Lowry, Mary Pressel, Emily Johnson, Blanche Tarnon, Emma Golden, Mary White, Clare Swinder, Ursia Boerger, Nina Boltz, May Hanis, Emma Tibbury, Rosy Green, Bessie Clark and Addie Sunday, and Brother Ezra Garringer.

Illness in Families: Husband of Wilma Garringer, Husband of Marjorie Dyer, Husband of Evelyn Bundy, Son of Charlotte and Danley Schiebel, Wife of Dale Shupe, Sister of Evelyn McBride and Step-mother of Justine Miller.

Deaths in Chapter: Sisters Ida Rollins, Mabel Schied, Clara Dunn, Flossie Fuller, Gladys McConnell and Bessie Clark.

Deaths in Families: Brother of Oakla Magner, Sister of Mamie Dial, Husband of Effie Watts, Husband of Addie McClinton, Stepfather of Gertrude Lombard, Stepfather of Betty Hummel, Mother of Nellie Buchanan, Mother of Esther Jones, Mother of Agnes Emery, and mother of Mary Brosius.

With this edition being the last for me I wish to go back to last month when the Masons entertained chapter and wish all our talented actors the very best in years to come in acting. With these boys I know they will go far. Just how far?

The theme of "Going Fishing" at our Worthy Matron's party was a very nice event. The tables were decorated with fishing equipment and canoes to paddle up stream. A delicious meal was served, then the Committees honored Sister Gladys and Brother Herdis with many poems and gifts. A skit of Sister Gladys going fishing and Brother Herdis staying away from home got the two of them in jail. At the present they are out running loose and free almost.

The Birthday Party of the chapter Star of the East was the 35th birthday. The Program was presented revolving Star of the East Chapter from the beginning to the present time. The presentation of different occasions on certain events. The East was decorated with a huge 4 tiered birthday cake with 35 lights on to represent different years. District Deputy Pat Chausee was escorted to the East by the conductress. There were 22 to receive the 25 year membership pins. The beauty vases were presented to chapter by the Past Matrons, Allah Signet, Drill Team and Estrellita Club, also the Social Committee. Gifts also presented were by the Madonna Club and memorials were presented towards the white twilight robes. Refreshments were served in the main dining room with individual cakes of 2 tiered layers. The tables were decorated with conf. and gift boxes, streamers, and favors of white handkerchiefs with crocheted borders and tied with coral ribbons. Everything looked very festive and pretty.

Sisters and Brothers our Star of East years have a way of passing quickly by. We couldn't hold fast to them—not even if we'd try. This year has been a one well-filled with plans and work and fun. And now it comes time to say to each of you, dear friends "Well-done." Our thanks to all—and Bless each one. Gladys Coe, Worthy Matron and Herdis Helmut, Worthy Patron.

There's magic in a word of "praise." Something good can be said about everyone — we have only to say it.

In Review: Another year in the history of our Court will soon be ending—our theme was "Faith and Prayer." "If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, nothing shall be impossible unto you." Matthew 17:20 Watch Word—"In His Name."

Motto: "Look to, not down, look forward, not back, look out, not in,
and, lend a hand."

Colors: "White with green," and flower, the beautiful gardenia.

Owning ode: Faith of our fathers.

Closing ode: Everything to God in prayer.

From this blueprint pages have been written of the year's activities—that have been of interest to all.

Some dreams have come true—some have not—but it's only out in the tomorrows will see and know the result of seeds sown.

March 14, Reports and election of officers.

March 28th Stated meeting, practice and social hour.

April 11th Installation.

Deaths in families: Sister of H.L.
Nellie Moore and great aunt of H.L.
Evelyn Reed.

Officers entertain in March at home of H.L. Velma Schane, with H.L. Pauline Stocks assisting.

Our best wishes to the Grand Royal Matron H.L. Waneta Newby at her new address in Indianapolis.

To the fraternal organizations appearing in Square and Compass who have had or will be having installation of officers for this year—our Court "Truth No. 21" Order of Amaranth wishes you the very best.

Grow by "Acknowledging His Ways and he will direct thy paths."

Amaranth is an order of friendship and hospitality guided by truth-faith—wisdom and charity—if you are one, drop in and see us. If not—and interested—give us a call—we need your membership.

As we close the book—may this year remain—"Sweet in our memory."

GROWING FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is like a garden of flowers, fine and rare,

It cannot reach perfection except through loving care,

Then, new and lovely blossoms
with each new day appear . . .

For Friendship, like a garden,
grows in beauty year by year.

The month of March is predicted to be full of activities for all members of Anthony Wayne Court, when officers and committee chairmen will give their reports of the proceedings for the past year. This must be read before the election of officers. Year-end parties are also being planned honoring the Royal Matron and committee chairmen. Another big event for the Court is the Birthday party, Charter Member night and Men's Night on March 21st. A good program is being planned.

March 4th the officers will have their year-end party at Hall's East-End Restaurant at 6:30 p.m. The hostess will be H.L. Ethel Beighley.

March 6th at 6:30 p.m. the Ways and Means will hold their year-end party at the Paramount Grill with H.L. Anne Robinson as hostess.

March 7th, Stated meeting. Reports of all the committee chairmen and election of officers. All members are urged to be present. Your officers represent you. Come and vote your preference.

March 12th, 1:00 p.m. H.L. Mary Wilson and her co-chairman, H.L.
Erma White will be the honored guests at a luncheon at the Shrine Club Room.

March 12th, 8:00 p.m. The Program committee will have their year-end party, place to be announced at a later date.

March 20, 8:00 p.m. The Past Matrons Club will meet at the Shrine Club Room with H.L. Kay H. Foster
as hostess.

March 21st, 8:00 p.m. Stated meeting with program honoring Charter Members and the Court's birthday, also the men will entertain with a program and refreshments.

March 24th, 8 p.m. The Installation of the New Officers will be held. This will be open installation and several of the Grand Court family will be present. Invite your friends to attend this lovely occasion.

March 28th, The Program Committee will have a dinner at 6:00 p.m. at the Paramount Grill honoring H.L. Mary Ellen Sible. The hostess is H.L. Florence Turner with H.L.
Iva Schieber assisting her.

Illness in the Court: H.L.'s Kay
Foster, Edith Scherer, Jean Boehr, Kathryn Clark, Frances Adams and S.K.'s Melvin Henemyer and Dale Widney.

Deaths in Court: Brother of H.L.
Martha Smeader and husband of H.L. Anna Rush. To those who lost loved ones our sincerest sympathy.

Congratulations to the Ned Biddles who are grandparents again.

Hi Girls! First of all I want to thank all of those who came to Mom and Dads Night. We had a very large crowd and a lot of parents.
The decorations upstairs were highlighted by a big red heart. In the middle of the heart was a cupid and the words Mom and Dad written on it. Above the Honored Queens chair were two big hearts with faces made on them. In the west were figures of Mom and Dad made out of hearts. Hearts were pinned on everyone as vouchers. Washrag dogs were given as gifts to all the parents.
For entertainment we had the Shrine
Chapters directed by William Wetzel.
Miss Judy Schoaff of Elmhurst High School did two ballet numbers.
Thanks to all the girls who worked to make this night a great success.

On February 21, 1962 we had Eastern Star Night. We had Guest Officers from the Fort Wayne Chapters and also the surrounding chapters. In the east was a large styrofoam star with each point the color of the star point. In the middle was a sheaf of wheat. Our theme was "Let Our Star Shine." In the back of the Honored Queens chair were these words. A special closing program was given when we formed a star and then went into our cross.
Gifts were presented to each guest officer. There was entertainment and refreshments after the meeting.

March 7, 1962 is our Chili Supper from 5:00 to 8:00. At 7:30 will be our regular stated meeting and it will be an Initiation.

March 21, 1962 is our Past Queens, Guardians, and Associate Guardians Night. I would like to invite all Past Queens, Guardians, and Associate Guardians. We will have special entertainment and refreshments.

Girls, don't forget our money making projects. On March 7, is our Chili Supper. Second is our Candy Sale. Any one wanting candy, call Diane Simmers.

The Clean Life

Lesson for February 25, 1962

WHAT is the most valuable feature of American life?
It is not the supermarkets, the big double-lane highways, it isn't the cars or even the schools. Many

Dr. Foreman
without which the church would soon with away?

The answer, of course, is the Christian home, Christian church and Christian home support each other; sometimes with an assist from the school, sometimes not.

But the home is more indispensable to the church than the church to the home.

What then is the inner support and foundation of a Christian home? The obvious answer is Christian marriage. Failure of marriage means failure of the home.

Attack on home

Today the home is under attack.
Not directly; no one would get moment's bearing if he advertised himself as opposed to good home.
But indirectly, in countless ways marriages can be, and often are, poisoned in advance. It is well known that one marriage in four the country over, ends in divorce and that though divorced persons often re-marry (for the stark and simple reason that they already have cheated wife or husband, they are not likely to make more of the second try than the first.

One of the deadliest ways poison a marriage beforehand is to come to it no longer a virgin, and this holds true for man and woman alike. From the very beginning, the Christian church of the Jewish synagogue have up one standard for marriage.

Continence before, and chastity (faithfulness each to each) during marriage. Whatever breaks down that standard does something to break down marriage itself.

"home" where husband and wife are both survivors of many affairs with other people, a marriage knows nothing of faithfulness, marriage ready to break in the minute a more handsome man or a more alluring woman comes along.

the scene—such a "home" likely to have little or no regard for any children and may re-resent them.

Mind and body

The laws of any place fail to hind the best ideals of the people. Any good lawyer will admit as much. But even the law is clumsy and "external" as it may be, knows that adultery is wrong. But by the time adultery gets to the courts, or becomes a tribunal for divorce, it has been going on for a long time. Jesus put quite bluntly. Any man looks on a woman with lust in his heart, has already committed adultery with her. There are three requirements for any good or bad: desire, capacity, and opportunity. And an act of adultery exists for a long time.

A clean mind first. A clean life is not one that lacks legally ishahlo acts. A clean life is in which the law is not needed is a life that supplies its own discipline.

Our special problems

In America at this time a generation or more before the Christian ideal of continence before marriage, chastity declined, it itself has been eroded by stant attack. Consider the and magazines for sale at nearby drugstores; consider themes of popular moving pictures and novels; consider moral standards of Hollywood and their influence on our life. Consider the way we girls dress. To maintain a life in the midst of surro-such as we are common in America is extremely difficult, more than for most previous centuries.

Yet there is one thing that help us to keep in mind. That at the time the Chris-church began, standards of conduct between men and women the Roman Empire, when infant church was born, was as low as they are today.
today, if not lower. Yet the of Christ outlived the empire future of America is the em-those large areas of corruption, with the small group intend to remain clean.

A very nice group of officers turned out for the Group 3 inspection at Auburn on January 25th. There were 62 present for this meeting. Huntingdon Council No. 51 portrayed the opening and the Royal Master Degree. Fort Wayne Council No. 4 portrayed the Select Master and the Closing.

York Rite Guest Night, March 16 are not completely finalized at this time. However, a Drill Exhibition Band concert by the Commandery Band together with a short lecture on York Rite of Freemasonry. This will be followed by some light entertainment and a lunch.

The York Rite Officers Dinner will be held April 28th. The full plans have not been completed.

The Council has had some sickness during the past month, but at this writing most of them are well on the road to recovery.

Last month we talked about the Capital Degrees of York Rite Masonry.

This month we will talk about the "Cryptic Degrees of York Rite Masonry." These degrees are conferred by a Council of Royal and Select Masters. The two Cryptic Degrees are so called because they are secretly concerned with a crypt or a certain secret vault which our legends inform us was known to select few of the Craft. The wise Chief Architect of King Solomon's Temple knew that the protection and preservation of Masonry's principal secret—known only to three—was vital to the future welfare and progress of the Craft. How he guarded against its possible loss is the central theme of these magnificent degrees, both of which are essential to a full appreciation and understanding of the Hiramite Legend. A third honorary degree known as the Super Excellent Master Degree is given once in every three to five years.

Those who missed the dinner before the last Stated Assembly missed a very fine meal enjoyed by some York Rite's.

At a recent meeting of the Officers of Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19, R.A.M., it was unanimously decided to initiate a new plan, for starting new Officers through the line. Under the new plan, to begin in September, after the new High Priest takes office, the new appointee will start as Master of the First Veil, instead of the office of Chaplain as has been the custom in the past. This plan will eliminate one year from the length of time necessary to go through all the Chairs in the line. The Junior Past High Priest, will have the prerogative of filling the office of Chaplain, for the coming year. In case he does not so desire, the High Priest may then appoint any other Past High Priest, to fill the station. This plan will enable the outgoing High Priest, more of a chance to remain active, then has been the case in the past.

There seems to be a mistaken idea in regards to the monthly dinner, we have been having on our Stated Meeting nights. It seems quite often to be referred to as the "York Rite Dinner." This is entirely erroneous, as it is, and always has been the "Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19 Dinner, although all Master Masons, as well as all York Rite members are most welcome to partake.

This dinner was conceived as a means of encouraging more Companions, to come up on meeting nights. Since Fort Wayne Chapters treasury was not large enough, to permit these monthly dinners, it was decided by the Officers, to accept donations, to defray the cost and if there was a deficit, our Officers would dig down in their own pockets to make up the difference. All help in preparing and serving these dinners, is obtained from Fort Wayne Chapter Officers and our wives. Without their faithful help, these social periods would not have been possible — to them we give our heartfelt thanks.

Our Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19 dinner, for March, will consist of Pork and Kraut, with home baked corn bread, so come and enjoy a fine dinner then come up to the Chapter, Council, and Commandery stated meetings.

Companions, don't forget our semi annual York Rite Guest Nite, Friday night, March 16, 1962. We have a good entertainment planned and also tasty refreshments, afterwards. Lets make a big effort to bring several Blue Lodge Brothers along, besides yourselves, as the thought behind these entertainments, is to interest Blue Lodge Brothers in York Rite Masonry.

York Rite Guest Night will be Friday, March 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the fifth floor auditorium of the Masonic Temple. A fine program of entertainment has been arranged. Refreshments will be served following the entertainment. Master Masons and their ladies are invited as guests of the York Rite Bodies.

The Knights Templar Easter Service and breakfast is being planned in anticipation of a large attendance again this year. Harold O. Martin will arrange the Worship Service, and Harry Haller will arrange the breakfast. The program for the Service will be announced next month.

The York Rite Commandery Drill Corps under the direction of Captain Harry Haller has been practicing every Tuesday evening in the fifth floor auditorium in high hopes of retaining the state championship in precision drill earned in competition in Terre Haute last May. Later, the team will practice more often.

The Grand Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana will be held in Evansville May 10, 11 and 12. Competitive drills will be held Saturday, May 12.

Committee Chairmen for the year are Jack Walker, York Rite Cooperation; Roger Shafer, Entertainment; Myron A. Millborn, Reception; Harry Haller, Banquet; Richard Peden, Telephone; Harold O. Martin, Hospital; Harry Haller, Detail or Drill Team; Albert F. Cary, Delinquent Dues and Suspensions; Dr. Ivan A. Planck, Publicity and Public Relations; Sick Committee, Phil McCague; Harry Haller, Patriotic Activities; Harold O. Martin, Boy's Camp.

Roger Shafer is in charge of casting and expediting for the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross; Phil McCague is in charge of the Order of Malta; Harold O. Martin is in charge of the ritualistic work and Harry Haller the military work for the Order of the Temple.

Master Masons, is there a Master Mason who has never desired to receive more light in Masonry? To have the remaining mysteries revealed, all of the unanswered questions answered? To complete the story that is now half told, the book that is only half read?

We invite you to investigate York Rite Masonry. In passing through all of the degrees of the Chapter and Council and the Orders of the Commandery all of the mysteries are revealed to, all of your unanswered questions answered. As a Knight Templar you stand with a select group in the fullest light of Masonry.

Another month has passed, a month of birthday commemorations, including that of George Washington, the Father of Masonry, as well as his Country. Our stated meetings have been interesting and we have been planning many interesting events in the future.

On January 31st several officers of Thomas R. Marshall visited the Huntingdon Chapter, who conferred the Royal Arch Degree upon three candidates. The work was well portrayed and an enjoyable trip was had by all who went.

We have also been advised that Thomas R. Marshall will be host for a Lodge of Instruction, called by the Grand Lecture, Loyd Young, for this district, on April 22nd. Refreshments will be served in the kitchen after the meeting.

DE MOLAY

Fort Wayne
Chapter
Order of DeMolay Stated Meetings
2nd and 4th
Wed., 7:30 p.m.

Al Haney ----- M.C.
644 Florence ----- E-8618

Clayton Herrick ----- Advisor
2324 Hillegas Rd. ----- E-2689

On behalf of the Fort Wayne Chapter of DeMolay, I would like to send our best wishes to Mrs. Hickman at the Lutheran Hospital, Mother of our "Mom" Herrick. We hope for a speedy and complete recovery. Get well quick.

During the last two weeks I have had the pleasure of accompanying our DeMolay Basketball team to the Regional Tournament and then on to the State Tournament. The Regional Tournament was on February 3, in Peru. Our boys played the last afternoon game and promptly beat a highly talented Muncie Central team by the score of 66-54. The two winners of the afternoon games went on to the State Tournament.

On February 10th at Richmond the State Tournament was held with such dignitaries as "Buddy Faulkner" on hand. The four teams in the State Tourney were Fort Wayne, Goshen, Indianapolis-Temple, and Jefferson City. We drew Indianapolis Temple in the afternoon game. Our boys were a little slow starting, but grabbed the lead in the 4th quarter and went on to beat Temple by 14 points. After Jefferson City rolled over Goshen in the afternoon game we met them at 8:15, that evening Jefferson City, having a tall (matter of fact they had two boys 6'5") and experienced team, ran up a big lead which our boys couldn't quite over come. The final score was 55-50 in favor of Jefferson City. I would like to say that the Chapter is very proud of our basketball team. Being runner-up in the State Championship game is nothing to be ashamed of. Congratulations boys. Thanks too, to all who drove and made it possible for the boys to go to these games.

February 14th we initiated our first class of boys. We are happy to have these boys as brothers, but we have only nine new members in this class, this means that out of a Chapter of 813 members only .01% of our members asked someone to join our organization. Therefore we must work and work hard to remain the World's largest Chapter.

Coming events are the Tournament Trot on March 2nd and then the 18th of March will be DeMolay Sunday at Trinity Methodist Church at the corner of Putnam and Short Street, at 10:30. Hope to see you there.

DeMolay Mothers Circle will meet March 26 at the new Bank in the City Garage with Mrs. Gore as hostess.

FACTS ABOUT DIAGNOSIS

The significance of what may seem irrelevant is important to the doctor seeking to arrive at a diagnosis.

"May I call your attention to the singular incident of the dog in the night time," said Sherlock Holmes. "But the dog did nothing in the night time," countered Dr. Watson. "That," said Holmes, "is the singular incident."

When Dr. Edward Jenner noted the absence of smallpox among dairymaids, this negative observation led to the establishment of vaccination against the virulent disease.

Similarly, the absence of dental caries in fluoride-rich districts brought about fluoridation of water supplies.

There is another type of observation that leads the doctor to a solution of problems. This is the experience of detecting factors common to several groups.

Often an important clinical discovery results from the observation that a series of puzzling cases, though differing in many ways, possess one factor common to all.

A common cause of blindness in infants was what is known as retrolental fibroplasia. In medical practice it was noticeable that the condition particularly afflicted children born prematurely. It wasn't long, prematurely that caused the blindness, but the fact that all these blind children had been given oxygen, which was considered vital to their living. The detection of this common factor prompted measures to protect premature children from blindness.

Doctors use their five senses to detect and diagnose disease, and they also use the ability to notice and interpret. In some instances it may be a lucky guess, but as one wise person said, a lucky guess is never merely lucky, there is always some talent in it.

Another month in the history of Huntertown Lodge has rolled by and I certainly hope that you who are reading this article are not among those who missed some very fine work put, on during the month of February. Home lodge came out in numbers on Feb. 8th with their craft team and put on a very creditable performance. At the time of this writing, I can't say as to the other nights of the 15th and the 24th, but I'm sure they will have been just as enjoyable. Just think, sixty four people in our lodge room at one sitting. Truly a wonderful night of fellowship. It looks as though we may have some more in the future, so keep your ears open.

Thanks to the efforts and fine work of some of our officers and members, our kitchen ceiling, floors and walls, and floor to the tyers room got a very sorely needed refacing. Thanks to all of you who helped in this project.

Our hearts were saddened last month by the death of brother Howard Dice who died on Jan. 14, 1962. Howard served Huntertown Lodge as S.S.-1951, Chaplain-1952, J.D.-1953. We extend our very deepest sympathy to his family.

Let me tell you of the little boy in one of John Ruskins stories, who on his way home from school one day saw a house far off across a valley with golden windows. The boy stopped as if turned to stone in complete amazement. Of course he determined to see this magic house closer and set off at once across the valley. After trudging a long way, he came to the house, and to his astonishment, he discovered it was his own. Never once did he realize that the many times that he looked through those panes that the level light of the Sun was turning his own windows to gold. Throughout this vast country, I am told, there are many lodges with golden windows, some 2000 and even 3000 strong with Architecture and Treasures befitting a King.

Well I congratulate them every one and do not envy them. But what of our own lodge? Does it not have golden windows of its own. I think it does and I am conscious of no desire to go on pilgrimage to others. You and I, We are the lodge. We are here and there could be nothing better than that. There are, ooe supposes, wooden lodges, Iron lodges, silver lodges, and golden lodges. Ours is a golden lodge because it has golden hearted members in it. See you in lodge?

Another month has rolled around and New Haven Lodge has completed another milestone. We had two candidates in February with all the work done in full form and our newly elected officers taking their parts and showing fine proficiency. Coffee and donuts or cookies was provided by JW Norman Long after the EA and FC degrees. Lodge was opened at 5 o'clock P.M. on the first session of the Master Mason degree, called from labor to refreshment for light supper at 6 p.m. and again called to labor at 7 p.m. for the second session. Our Fellowcraft team is doing an excellent job. I would like to take this opportunity to again commend the officers and craft to the excellent manner in which they have stepped in and put on the work.

Good degree work is the backbone of any lodge and our lodge is meeting and exceeding these high requirements. I extend a hearty welcome for all our members to attend any of the meetings and invite any and all visiting brethren to pay us a call and then return for another visit. The welcome mat will be out at all times.

At this time I would like to point out that our lodge hall will be open each and every Wednesday evening whether we have a candidate or not. On no degree nights, any of the brothers that want to practice their lectures of fellowcraft team work can proceed in that direction, others can play cards, watch TV or just plain "jaw." Coffee and donuts or cookies and cokes will be available and everybody will be welcome to participate in any way they desire. I sincerely urge you to make your presence known. We don't like to pass over anybody and we won't if we are given any kind of an opportunity, at all, as we have room for everybody and parts for all.

Twilight memorial services held at Harpers Funeral Home at 7:30 p.m. February 8th with thirty-five of the brothers in attendance for our late departed Brother Robert Aldrich. He has passed on to that house in the heavens not made by human hands and I do want to extend our sincere sympathy and condolences to his family. He is gone but not forgotten.

I send my wishes for a speedy recovery to Brother Les Pensinger who is still on the sick list at Parkview Hospital and I know that the other members of our lodge concur. I believe a card to Brother Les will do a world of good to let him know how we feel as he cannot have visitors at the present time.

See all of you in lodge, SOON.

On Dec. 7, 1961 the members of your lodge elected their officers for the year of 1962 as follows: Jack V. Bridges, W.M.; Authur Popp, S.W.; Joe Blough, J.W.; Alvan A. Tharp, Sec.; Harold Rediger, Treas.; and William Lantz, incoming trustee.

The appointed officers are: Harold Shie, S.D.; Richard Knisley, J.D.; Wayne Rossetto, Chaplain; and James VanZile, Tyler.

Your Lodge has been very active since the first of the year and we have five new brothers to labor with in this grand and good work.

Our attendance has been good for our past several meetings and it is my sincere hope that this trend continue—this is your lodge—We're here the first Thursday of every month. Write it down on that pocket calendar of yours right now and we'll see you in Lodge this next month.

There is degree work going on at this time—remember the card you were mailed—look it up and join us.

Following is a letter I received from our past master Richard Workman who has been transferred by his company to Indianapolis.

Dear Jack,

I would like for you to bring forth through our media of communication, the Square and Compass, a few words to our Lodge members from me. The main thing I would like to point out is that of the real pleasure I have had in serving as master of Leo Lodge for the year of 1961. The Cooperation and help from the officers and members of the Lodge has made the job much easier and beneficial for and to me. The opportunity of being associated with the workings of this lodge has given to me a better understanding of people and things. A better understanding of people realized through this closer contact within the Lodge, that God does exist in them and that the principles of morality and justice is practiced and honored. This gives me a better feeling and outlook for the future. With this better understanding and feeling that I have about people and things I can live a fuller and more objective life with my family and people around me.

May this spirit continue to dwell at Leo Lodge.

Fraternally yours,
Richard W. Workman

WHAT TO READ

If you have the "blues," read the twenty-seventh Psalm.

If your pocket-book is empty, read the thirty-seventh Psalm.

If you are losing confidence in men, read the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians.

If people seem unkind, read the fifteenth chapter of John.

If you are discouraged about your work, read the one hundred twenty-sixth Psalm.

If you find the world growing smaller and yourself great, read the nineteenth Psalm.

If you can't have your own way in everything, keep silent and read the third chapter of John.

If you are all out of sorts, read the twelfth chapter of Hebrews.

WE ARE JUDGED

A true Mason should always strive to illustrate the principles of the Fraternity by upright living. As one is able to make a picture more elegant by beautiful framing, a diamond more beautiful by exquisite setting, so we can render Masonry more attractive by ever striving to see to it that our lives are consistent and blameless. We are judged by those outside by the kind of lives we live. Let us always set a good example.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

The cartel producing objective of the drive to put the U.S. economy into an alliance with the European Common Market is perhaps best seen in the plan the U.S. aluminum industry would like to put across.

The U.S. industry would like to be free to enter into negotiations with the 13 aluminum exporting nations, of which communist Yugoslavia is one, to regulate the world trade in the metal.

Under the proposal, the U.S. would guarantee these exporting nations the same share of the U.S. aluminum market as they now hold, plus a share of any increases in the use of the metal in this country.

In return, the other countries would give the U.S. aluminum industry guarantees to a share of the world market.

This would result, an industry spokesman said in a method to "organize the world aluminum trade on an orderly basis."

This plan, of course, would eliminate free competition in the world aluminum market and substitute for it a monopoly. In addition, it would be a monopoly composed of a partnership between private investors, government, and socialist government ownership and in the case of Yugoslavia, communist ownership.

In addition, it would negate thoroughly and completely the American principle of free competition and would result in global price rigging.

Back in 1978 the founders of the nation shed blood to escape from this sort of thing, and by and large in the years that followed the nation has done quite well.

Many Congressmen are astounded that any open move would ever be made to get the nation to forsake these principles to enter into such a thing as the European Common Market.

Of course, there is a facet of this European Common Market agreement that has not been brought too much to light in the U.S. That is the fact that the existing agreements provide for a free movement of labor between the signatory nations. There are no immigration quotas on workers between the nations.

If the U.S. accepted this part of the agreement it is not hard to imagine that every 50 and 60 cent per hour worker in Europe would be swarming into America.

It is, of course, a part of the current proposal to recognize that many U.S. industries would be forced to shut down as they would be unable to compete with the flood of cheap foreign imports. The plan then is to assess the taxpayers for funds to retrain all the displaced workers through Harvard to enable them to qualify for jobs as government economists, which appears to be the only substantially growing area of employment left in the nation.

But nobody has yet come up with an estimate on how many billions of dollars it will take to send all these millions of displaced workers through Harvard to enable them to qualify for jobs as government economists, which appears to be the only substantially growing area of employment left in the nation.

THE WORLD A PARADISE

If men were all Masons, and they with all their heart her mild and gentle teachings, that world would be a paradise; while intolerance and persecution make of it a hell. This is the Masonic Creed: Believe in God's Infinite Benevolence, Wisdom and Justice; Hope, for the final triumph of Good over Evil, and for Perfect Harmony as the final result of all the concords and discords of the Universe; and be Characteristic as God is, toward the unfaithful, the errors, the follies, and the faults of men; that all make one grand brotherhood.—Morals and Dogma.

DEACON

The ancient Greeks had a term for which there is some obscurity, but which meant to be swift of foot, to run quickly, to run errands, to serve running errands, to be a messenger. It passed through Latin and came to English in the latter of which it became deacon. Very early in history the Christian Church adopted it as a name for a church officer, and it continues to be often used in churches than elsewhere. In Operative Masonry Lodges, companies, incorporations and guilds not infrequently used it as the name of one of the principle officers. In modern speculative Lodges the two deacons are messengers and in a general way personal assistance to the Worshipful Master and the Senior Wardens. The need for such an office is realized by the fact that the Master and his Wardens occupy stations which they are not to leave except when their own duties make it necessary in which cases they return to their stations immediately after the service is performed.

Rejoice

On Easter Sunday, come to church

... come to worship and rejoice ...

... come to experience, more deeply and fully, the glory of the season. Come, pray together with family, friends, neighbors.

Dear Mr. Hunt:

We were most appreciative of your recent kind and helpful contribution in the amount of $25.00 for use in our Patients' Welfare Fund here at the Fort Wayne Veterans Administration Hospital, which was made possible by the Masonic Service.

As you have heard Mrs. Gallagher, our Chief of Social Service, explain many times, of the continuing need for funds of this nature—you may be assured that your fine donation is of definite patient value to many of our needy Veterans.

Again—please convey our sincere thanks to each of the members of your Organization for making this assistance possible.

Very sincerely,

MASONRY JUSTIFIED

If you are in doubt and find need to justify yourself as a Master Mason read the following, spoken 100 years ago by the Rev. Charles Brockwell, Church of England, as he addressed the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts: "I have had the honor of being a member of the Ancient and Honorable Society many years, have sustained many of its offices, and can and own, in this sacred place, and before the Great Architect of the Universe, that I never could observe aught therein but what was justifiable and commendable, according to the strictest rules of society; this being founded on the precepts of the Gospel, the doing the will of God, and subduing the passions and highly conducive to every moral virtue."

April, Spring, Easter. A time of renewed hope, new life, and faith in an eternal salvation. The month of April brings forth thoughts of things awakening, stirrings in the world, May flowers will bloom again. Masonry is like this, the Entered Apprentice Degree brings the stir of new hope, the Fellow Craft Degree the sprouting of new life and the Master Mason Degree the fulfillment of a renewed faith in an everlasting salvation for all mankind.

We have five new petitions for the degrees for April. These with other new master Masons bring new life to our Lodge.

We will have the Master Mason Degree on Saturday the twenty-eighth. Breakfast at eight o'clock, degree work beginning at nine and lunch at twelve o'clock. Rolls and coffee for breakfast and beans and cornbread for lunch. See members of the Fellowship Club for details and tickets. A nominal fee will be charged for the tickets so that we can have some idea of how many to prepare for.

Our Ladies Night Banquet will be a thing of the past by the time you read this. I want to thank all who helped, for their whole hearted co-operation, in making another successful event. (In case I should miss some one or forget).

Our officers are becoming very proficient in the degree work. It seems that they thrive on work and more work. My sincere congratulations to all for a job well done on the Entered Apprentice Degree in March.

A hearty welcome to our new brothers who were made Master Masons in February. One of them, Brother Ronald Brown, was admitted to Parkview Hospital with an asthma attack the first week of March. He was doing very well when I called on him and thought he would get out in a couple of days. Brother Charles Dixon is also (at the time of this writing) in Parkview with a broken kneecap, the result of an auto accident. These are the only ill or injured brothers reported to me up to now. To them we wish a speedy recovery.

Don't forget the breakfast and ban dinner, April 28th is the date. See the Fellowship Club for details.

Brethren: Another month has rolled around, my how the sands of time pass by. This was a short month for me as some of you know I was layed up for a couple of weeks but I am on the mend now and hope to be with you as usual.

We have two members in the Lutheran Hospital, Walter Mooney and Harold Henry and I hope by the time this news reaches you they will be up and on the go. If anyone knows of any illness please report to one of your officers.

Sol D. Bayless welcomes two new members into its fold, Leo Knast and James A. Ernst, who were raised Master Masons during the month of February. We have three candidates for March, so will be quite busy during this month.

The Grand Master of the Universe saw fit to call one of our brothers to his eternal home, Bro. Louis Gochen and also a brother from St. Bend Lodge, Cyril Geo. Christoff. Sol D. Bayless held services for both of these brothers.

Attention Brethren! Sol D. Bayless is going to have a Smorgasbord Dinner and Square Dance Saturday, April 14. Time 6:30 p.m. Please Masonic Temple. Price $1.50 per person. Tickets now on sale, see one of your officers. Mark this date on your calendar, April 14.

"If I could assume the role of a magician and was given the power to give you gifts, I would extend those that have more power than all the gold one could carry.

First: I would give you faith. Faith to believe that yours is a God-given mission . . . that through the work you do for others, all may share in the good life and be gentle, kind and good.

Second: I would give you contentment and joy of service for your task; joy in knowing that you hold within your hand the ability to help or hinder the growth of the American nation.

Third: I would give you an unconquerable courage that would suppress any fear of defeat or failure. Man was made for victory, not defeat. Nothing can beset you so long as you are working sincerely for the best interests of your fellow man and your loved ones.

Fourth: I would give you compassion that you might see the best in your co-workers; that you might leave off fault-finding and open-minded in all issues and see the great common need of all human kind.

Fifth: I would give you vision to look beyond the years and consider what might be accomplished through your services, realizing that ideals are distant, and to reach them we must start moving forward now, today.

Sixth: I would give you the Master Teacher as a Companion, that you might ever be inspired to teach the way He taught; to lead the way He led; to serve the way He served; and to love and forgive the way He loved and forgave. He never found a task too difficult; a task too perplexing; a task too large nor too lowly if it meant true service." — B. Harvey.

The Commandery Drill Exhibition following our Stated Meeting in March was excellently done, though not particularly well-attended.

The special George Washington program after the Stated Meeting in February seemed to be appreciated by those in attendance.

We all enjoyed another Bill Brase fine dinner prior to the Master Mason degree last month.

Why don't you plan to make it down to Lodge this month? You just might find a friendly face and a warm brotherly grip extended. You are the only one in all the world who can do it. You alone, decide on Monday how your evening shall be spent. You alone, shape your decision to "skip this month" at lodge. You are missed; of that you can be sure. What is your $15 for? In this day of concern for profits and gain, why not reap some of the profits of your investment by putting something into your Lodge that money will never be able to purchase?

A triumphal feast was scheduled in a village, and to insure adequate refreshments, each villager agreed to pour one bottle of his best wine into a great cask.

"If I fill my bottle with water," reasoned one, "The dilution will be so slight, who will notice?"

But when the feast commenced, and the cask was tapped, nothing but water poured out.

Everybody in the village figured alike; "My bit will not miss!"

Draw what moral you will.

Another month of the year gone by and, again I find myself writing a message to the Craft.

The first two months of the year were without degree work, but we will have degree work in April we have had degree work in March.

Our Masonic calendar April features a Smorgasbord Square Dance to be held Friday, April 27. Serving will start 7:00 p.m. in the dining room. The event is open to Master Masons, their ladies and friends. Get together and come to enjoy an evening of fun.

Since the first of the year, brothers of our Craft have been called by the Supreme Architect, the families of these brothers extend our heart felt sympathy, one knowing of an ill or distressed brother should please inform our Lodge.

March 5, was our Veterans' Day. I want to say a word about this. Our Brother Master Frank Hunt and our Brother chairman Charlie Winans doing a wonderful job as the Master in this good work, but brethren need our help a little more. The brethren leave this visitation seventh Monday, they and I hope that we have contributed something to our fellow men that are in need of understanding and friendship. Dates for these visitations are listed every month, so watch them and join us in this good work, to help those that are less fortunate than we.

In checking through the issue of the Indiana Freeman the Masonic Home to be far our potential for 938 members have given $387. Our Masonic needs our dollars to carry on great work of caring for the brothers and widows that are not as fortunate as we, so brethren let's take a look for charity. Charity also beyond what our dollars can buy.

let's seek out someone to give a little boost in morale.

I mentioned the Indiana Freemason previously and would like to say that there is a vast amount of teaching in this Masonic Magazine printed by the Indiana Masonic Home as an organ of our own Indiana Grand Lodge. The subscription rate is low, only $3.50 for two years. Every brother of the Craft can have a lot of news and teachings of Masonry through this low cost magazine. "Level of Leadership" by Dwight L. Smith is of interest to all Masons and especially to Masters and officers. See if you can find a copy to read or get a subscription.

On May 22, will be Guest Nite for our Lodge. This nite is for Master Masons and their special guest. Dinner will be served followed by a program.

April again promises to be a month of activity for our Lodge. At our March stated meeting we received 4 new petitions and 1 transfer of membership. Your officers are doing an excellent job on the degree work. They are having ample opportunity to display their talents in the busy schedule we are maintaining. As the year progresses, it is interesting to note the steady improvement each makes in his station.

Our Fellowcraft Club has elected new officers for the coming year. William Haines as Pres., Fred Peters Jr., as V. Pres., and Don Hendry as Sec. It would be amiss if we did not recognize the important part our Fellowcraft team plays in the degree work of the lodge. If you have not seen the Master Mason degree in full form, you have a treat in store. Our next Master Mason degree will be presented on April 25, so plan now to attend?

Fred Peters Sr. Chairman of the Master's Visitation Committee has asked that all who are able to attend, plan to be at the Veteran's Hospital on Monday evening, April 23rd at 7:30 p.m., for our regular visitation to the shut-ins. The lodge would like to thank Bro. Fred for the time and effort he has spent on this committee, it is gratefully appreciated.

Another reminder of our combined Master Member and Past Master's banquet on May 23rd, 1962 at 6:00 p.m. Save this date and be sure to attend.

Plans are now being formulated for our annual golf outing and dinner. It will be held this year at the Ballville Country Club somewhere in June. (Exact date will follow in next issue of Square and Compass.)

Our lodge conducted Masonic funeral services for Bro. Clark Essig at the Elzey Funeral Home in Oshtemo, Indiana on Feb. 26. Our deep sympathy is extended to the family of Bro. Essig.

As we near the approach of spring, thoughts must necessarily turn to Easter, and just as Christ's resurrection came after His crucifixion, does the message of Easter bring new hope for greater peace and happiness in a world now suffering from death, disaster and confusion. Christ came forth victorious from the grave, we must believe that ultimately we shall conquer the powers of the world through His living presence. Even in the face of conditions which prevail today Christ manifests Himself in the lives of those who are passing from their earthly abode into the presence of their Father. Men of all nations are defending their homes and families against destruction. Whether they be following wise or false prophets, civilization is still reaching out in hope and faith that there shall be a more abundant life in days to come. Faith, hope sacrifice and love are but the evidence of the spirit of Christ, who prayed that we be taught to dwell in the world but be spared from its evils.

Let us have hope faith and an unwavering confidence that out of this great confusion there will come a victory as great as that of the morning of the resurrection when the great stone was rolled away from the tomb and Christ came forth as the manifestation of the ultimate triumph of life over death.

Were it only possible for each of us to be reminded of this season's message each day throughout the year, that we might be reminded often of Easter and God's blessed promise that after the darkness of death there shall come resurrection and life eternal. Let us look forward to Easter time with new hopes, greater purpose in life, and more faith in God and those who live around us.

Why was our smorgasbord and square dance such a success? Webster's new world dictionary says that success is a "favorable outcome." How do we arrive at this result? Without the co-operation and hard selling from our members and the Corinthian club, we might have gone into the red. However, we did finish in the black. Our sincere thanks to the officers of the Corinthian club and to our members who worked hard on this event. We wish to thank Faye Brennan and her staff for an excellent job. The food was delicious.

The secretary has informed us that there still are many dues unpaid. January 1st is the date they should be paid. However, the grand lodge gives a few days grace to those who forget, neglect or otherwise cannot pay at that time. Let us make a determined effort to pay our dues now! Thank you.

We hope that you didn't miss the fine presentation of the Masonic play last month. The cast is to be congratulated for an excellent performance. They are becoming more professional every performance.

We do have some brothers sick. Our past secretary, Floyd Brake, is in the Lutheran Hospital, Rm. 325. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bundy were sick last month with the flu as was our Senior Warden, Brother Franklin. We hope that our brethren remain in good health and those who are sick may recover quickly. Our thoughts are always with them. Let us know of any illnesses by calling E-3061, T-34010 or K-3417.

Our lodge is active in masonic education. You missed a fine lecture given by worshipful brother Delbert Dennis on the "Masonic Apron." We were told that there are mainly three outstanding types of aprons; that it matters not which type of apron we have but how we wear the apron and what it means to us as individuals and as Masons. He further explained the designs on the apron of each officer. Our special thanks to Bro. Dennis for his time and interest in this important mission.

Other past masters are busy in Masonic affairs. W. B. Davison sings in the Scottish Rite choir. W. B. Bickle is in charge of the merit badge system in the DeMolay order. W. B. Heston is our secretary along with W. B. H. Q. Cambell, our treasurer. As we find out more about our past masters, we will pass the news on to you.

April is going to be a busy month. Here is the calendar you will want to cut out. It schedules the work provided we have work.

April 10, Stated meeting, 7:30 p.m. Masonic education lecture
April 17, EA degree 7 p.m.
April 24 FC degree 7 p.m.
May 1, MM degree and oinnes at 6:30 p.m. Watch for further information.
May 8, Stated meeting 7:30 p.m. Masonic education lecture.
May 15-16, Grand lodge meeting in Indianapolis.

The month of Easter is again with us. At this climax to the Lenten Season, the remembrance of the Resurrection should cause all of us to pause longer for more serious reflection as to the meaning of this most Holy Sunday. Because of a long-ago Easter, the Beloved Teacher became the Proved Saviour. Thousands of men have suffered, bled, and died, but only the Son of Man is risen! Think on it, Brothers, and may you share fully in the happiness of this Easter Season.

We welcome into the membership of the Lodge Brother Ethan G. Leiter, who became a Master Mason on February 22nd. It is always a great pleasure to introduce a person into the meaning of Masonry.

We regret to inform you of the death of Past Master Fred E. Murry on February 8th. Masonic Services were held on March 9th, with Past Master Harold Garrison acting as Master, assisted by our Chaplain, Wayne Cleavekner. To the family of Past Master Murry we offer our sincere sympathy, and pray that they be Divinely guided and strengthened in their time of sorrow.

Past Master Orval Braner has been ill of a heart attack. His home address is R. R. 3, Portland, Indiana. I am sure he would be glad to receive get-well cards from the Brothers.

Monday, March 12th was our Veteran's Hospital Visitation. Fourteen of the Brothers came out to the hospital, and we were glad for such a good turnout. We can always use more, so make it a point to be with us on April 30th at our next visit.

We have a candidate to vote on for the month of April. Make a special effort to visit Lodge this month, and enjoy the fellowship.

Our Past Master's Dinner was well attended Thursday evening, March 29th, and many thanks to all who participated in making this event possible.

Brothers, it is necessary to take up a most important problem with that certain percentage of the membership who have not yet paid their dues. Dues were due and payable on or before January 1, 1962. After that date they were delinquent, and those still delinquent March 1st have an assessment of an additional two dollars. This ruling has been a part of Wayne Lodge By-Laws for several years, and the same law applies to suspension for failure to pay the assessment as it does for failure to pay the due. The Secretary has mailed a letter to every delinquent member to this effect, so all concerned have had due and timely notice. If you are delinquent, please send in your dues and the assessment promptly, for they are already three months late! If any Brother is ill or in distress, please let us know now, and we will try to do everything in our power to assist you in this matter.

See you in Lodge!

THE LIFE WORTH LIVING

By Henry Van Dyke
There is a life that is worth living now as it was worth living in the former days, and that is the honest life, the useful life, the unselfish life, cleansed by devotion to an ideal.

There is a battle worth fighting now as it was worth fighting then, and that is the battle for justice and equality; to make our cities and our states free in fact as well as in name; to break the rings that strangle liberty, and to keep them broken; to cleanse, so far as in our power lies, the fountains of our national life from political, commercial, and social corruption; to teach our sons and daughters, by precept and example, the honor of serving such a country as America. That is work worthy of the finest manhood and womanhood.

ARE YOU AN ACTIVE MEMBER?

Are you an active member
The kind that would be missed?
Or are you just contented
That you are on the list?
Do you attend the meetings
And mingle with the flock?
Or do you stay at home
And criticize and knock?
Do you take an active part
To help the work along?
Or are you satisfied to be
The kind that just belongs?
So come to the meetings often
And help with hand and heart.
Don't be just a member
But take an active part.
Think this over, Brother;
You know right from wrong.
Are you an active member,
Or do you just belong?
L. Kelley, Master.

WE CAN MAKE BROTHERHOOD A REALITY

A day will surely come when man, having grown tired of walking alone, will turn to his Brothers. On the day when we shall have learned to feel the sorrows and joys, the suffering and the hopes of others, as our very own, that world order of love and justice shall have come nearer. On that day alone the brotherhood of man will have become a reality.— Pierre Van Passen.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

There are several bills pending before Congress which are categorized, somewhat loosely, as fair trade bills. The nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, approve, and support this legislation, although there has been no preference expressed for any particular bill.

All of these bills have a common objective. These are most interesting. C. W. Harder, writing bills. Undoubtedly the writers of them have in mind the contemporary problems of the predatory type of discount house, plus the flood of cheap foreign imports.

The philosophy of these bills is based on a U.S. Supreme Court decision that a manufacturer's interest and property rights in his trademark do not diminish or extinguish on transfer of merchandise bearing such trademark.

They appear to be more designed for the protection of an adequate price level on manufactured goods, and one of the purposes is to protect those manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers who prefer to handle quality merchandise. In the long run, there is protection for the consumer built into these bills.

The principle is quite simple. There is nothing in any of these bills to stop the consumer from gambling on any inferior merchandise as he desires.

However, it is also believed that those consumers who want a quality item, guaranteed and backed up by reliability, it should be possible for them to purchase such items.

In all manufactured goods, regardless of the care taken in the factory, there is the possibility of defects. The responsibility for taking care of any such defects is usually borne by the retailer, the wholesaler and the factory, together. A certain part of the mark-up at each level is set up to take care of such costs. In other words, the insurance policy is paid for by these three.

And in order to minimize the cost of this insurance, the maker puts into the item the best labor and materials possible. Unless a fair price is maintained, it is not possible to pay for this consumer insurance.

A disclaimer can obviously, if he can get his hands on the trademarked item, advertise it for less as he is not backing it up. Neither does he tell the buyer, "Look, once you buy at my price, whether it works or not, that's your problem."

Usually the customer does not understand this background. In good faith the customer buys a quality trademarked item feeling it is backed up. If he has a sad experience, then he is inclined to blame the manufacturer, who is absolutely blameless.

It's a vicious circle. Unless there is some protection for a trademark, there is little use for any manufacturer to try and build quality. Eventually, the American consumer will have only a choice of cheaply made as possible junk, with no guarantees of any kind. When this inevitable and eventual result comes about, the Japs will take over the entire American market.

Trinity Chapter No. 576, O.E.S., held its Installation of Officers on March 24 in the Commandery Room of the Masonic Temple.

The Worthington Matron, Sister Lillian Poiry, welcomed all members and visitors. Then she and Brother Pete Poiry, Worthington Patron, each gave an inspiring closing address.

Sister Marjorie Simmers, Past Matron of Trinity Chapter, was escorted East and introduced as the Installing Matron. The officers then retired.

A beautiful lighted shadow box with a white dove perched on the edge of the open Bible, placed in the shadow box, was placed in front of the pedestal in the East, honoring the incoming Matron. When all was in readiness, the Installing Matron, Marjorie Simmers, announced the Installing Officers as follows: Jeanice Kemp, Installing Marshal; Wm. Maxwell, Installing Chaplain; and Wm. Wetzel, Installing Organist.

The officers installed were: Worthington Matron, Louise Wilkerson; Worthington Patron, Don Niles; Assoc. Matron, Doretha Baker; Assoc. Patron, Richardson Baker; Secretary, Eugenia Wood; Treasurer, Doris Thiebold; Conductress, Mae Ernst; Assistant Conductress, JeanAnn Jasch; Chaplain, Elmer Spahr; Marshal, Lillian Poiry; Organist, Carmen Utterback; Adah, Winifred Shoemaker; Ruth, Elizabeth Smith; Esther, Geraldine Boldt; Martha, Ophia Henning; Electa, Leota Niles; Warder, Wm. Wilkerson; and Sentinel, Esther Robertson.

The Worthington Matron was escorted by her husband, through an aisle formed by past Electas and the present Star Points. Her granddaughters presented her with a bouquet of red roses. Geraldine Boldt sang to her.

The Worthington Patron was escorted by his wife, Leota, son and daughter, to the East through an aisle formed by past patrons of Trinity Chapter. Sister Mabel Robinette sang to him.

Sister Louise Wilkerson gave an inspiring Installation Address. She announced her motto for the year would be "Walk in the Light of the Lord," her watch words, "Peace, Love and Loyalty." Her colors are, Red and White with Gold; her flowers, the red rose and the white carnation. Her scripture is Philippians 4, verses 7, 8, 9. She closed by giving, "My Prayer. O Lord, open my eyes each morning to see the good in little things. Let your spirit fill my heart, your purposes my mind, and your presence all my days make me humble, asking not praise, awaken me to see the world of love and service.

Rev. Clayton E. Gooden, Pastor of the West Creighton Ave. Christian Church, gave the benediction, thus closing a lovely installation. Sister Louise invited all to a reception to be held on the mezzanine following the installation ceremonies.

A reception for the new officers was held April 6, at which meeting the Worthington Matron announced the following committee chairmen: Social, Virginia Rosevear, chairman, Alice Retherford, co-chairman; Ways & Means, Marie Bojrab, chairman, Mildred Mullins, co-chairman; Sewing & Decorating, Dorothy Mausteller, chairman, Leota Niles, co-chairman; Program, Norma Miller, chairman, Mary York, co-chairman; Cheer, Edith Ball, chairman, Flossie Cockran, co-chairman; Registration, Vida Wood, chairman, Dorothy Spahr, co-chairman; Choir, Mabel Robinette, chairman; Publicity, Lavern Amstutz.

You will be kind, if you know love, And have a loving heart;

For love and kindness are so close They can't be told apart.

You will be kind if you know hope, Because by hope we live;

And, from our hope, both trust and faith.

Are treasures that we give. You will be kind, if you know Him, For, His example taught

The greatest kindness to mankind That peace and joy have brought.

Our motto this year is "Kindness." A kind deed is never lost. It keeps going on and on, from one person to another, until at last it comes back to you again.

Take time to be kind, speak oft with a smile, Bring sunshine to others and make life worthwhile,

Make friends of all members, help those who are weak, Always to remember — a kind word to speak.

Edna Senger, Worthington Matron Installation: On Friday, March 30, at 7:30, the following were installed as officers of our Chapter for the coming year:

Worthington Matron, Edna Senger; Worthington Patron, Guy Gair; Assoc. Matron, Kathryn Fuhrman; Assoc. Patron, Leslie Silver; Secretary, Tama Christopher; Treasurer, Faythe Silver; Conductress, Hilda Deeter; Assoc. Conductress, Nana Bair; Chaplain, Mary Beaman; Marshal, Gladys Coe; Organist, Sally Ann Webb; Adah, Mary Connelly; Ruth, Kathryn Abousamra; Esther, Chloey Lee; Martha, June Kraus; Electa, Florence Geiger; Warder, Harry Deeter; Sentinel, Virginia Reichebelderfer; Prompter, Anna Kesler.

The installing officer was Past Grand Matron, Sonoma Woodruff. Installing Grand Marshal was Edith McIntosh and Installing Grand Chaplain was Mary Kenner.

The back-drop in the East was beautiful with the silhouette gowning in a blue dress with silver sparkles, silver sash, and a corsage of white roses. Our Worthington Matron's motto "Kindness" was suspended by wires. The word was accented very nicely by spotlight.

Edna's emblem, The Open Bible Within The Star" was beautifully displayed in the East, with palms and white roses on each side. The Chapter's new beauty vases (presented at the 35th birthday party) with white, blue & silver ribbon were used behind each star point.

Edna's escort were members of Allah Signet, wearing white aprons and bolding long handled kitchen tools. Guy's escort were his Masonic brothers. The choir sang to both.

Following Gladys Coe's installation as Marshal, an escort was formed by her appointive officers. After the singing of "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown," each of her star points placed a star the color of their station upon a crown; Edith McIntosh then placed the crown on Gladys' head.

Near the conclusion, Gladys Coe escorted Edna to each star point for a Friendship Agenda and signing in a book. At this time, Irene Stucky sang "My God and I."

This year's officer's dresses are white lace with silver thread and lined in blue. Their appearance and the room decorations were indeed very lovely.

General Grand Chapter will be April 17, 18 and 19 at Indianapolis and will be attended by our Worthington Matron and other officers.

Allah Signet will meet April 17 at Audrey Helmut's home, 1232 Fairfield. Assisting hostesses will be Lucille Kelso, Alverta Martz and Nettie Meyer.

Drill Team will practice on April 18. Their social evening will be April 4, at Carrie Stewart's home, 1325 Archer, with Gladys Thompson assisting.

Estrellita will have their April 11th meeting at Alice Petrie's home, 3517 Robinwood. Assisting hostesses will be Irene Bobilya and Alice Lash.

Madonna Club will be held at 8:00 p.m., April 19th.

Past Matrons Club will meet at 6:30 p.m., April 5, at the Gerber House for a dinner. Mildred Wahle will be chairman; assisting hostesses will be Eva Tucker, Audrey Helmut, Jennie Greek and Willodean Rathert.

All of the April committee meetings will be held at Edna Senger's home, 2032 St. Joe Blvd., as follows:

Decorating, April 2; Choir, April 9; Sewing, April 11; Ways and Means, April 16; Cheer, April 25; Program, April 26.

Illness in Chapter: Sisters Francis Adams, Audrey Glenn, Anna Henry, Beatrice Collins, Fay Farrell, Elsie Charles, Isabelle Helton, Enola Flowers, Brother Harold Henry.

Illness in Families: Elsie Charles' brother, Esther Brother's mother, Wanda Wassno's daughter.

Deaths in Families: Fern Lambert's sister, Ann Waldschmidt's husband, Ruby Murray's husband.

THE AMERICAN CREED

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

LIFE'S GREATEST JOY

An unknown author contributed the following: "Have you ever helped another? Ever earned a grateful smile? Ever asked a weary brother in to ride with you a mile? Have you ever given freely of your riches and your worth? If you haven't, then you've really missed the greatest joy on earth."

I BELIEVE

I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow, that whatsoever the boy soweth, the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and the joy of serving another. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of a printed book; in lessons taught not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the schoolroom, in the home, in the daily life and out of doors. I believe in laughing in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living.—Edwin Osgood Grover.

Blest be the tie that binds,
Our hearts in fraternal love
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that above.

As this is my last report, I would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank you." To the editor, Mr. Lee, for his courtesy and kindness; To the Royal Matron, H.L. Bertha for serving as Publicity chairman, and to extend Best Wishes to the new publicity chairman for the ensuing year.

The annual reports were read, accepted, and filed, the audit of books made and closed. May the year remain "Sweet in our Memory." The annual election resulted in the following H.L.'s and S.K.'s being elected.

Royal Matron, Bessie Myers; Royal Patron, Glenn Geiger, Sr.; Associate Patron, Velma Schane; Associate Patron, Wm. Maxwell; Treasurer, Celia Rutan; Secretary, Geraldine Boldt; Conductress, Nellie Moore; Associate Conductress, Mabel Travis; 2 year Trustee, Oliver Boldt; 3 year Trustee, Bertha Clear.

Installation of these elects along with the Matron's appointive officers will be Wednesday night, April 11 at 8:00 p.m. at K. of P. Hall. You are cordially invited and will be most welcome. H.L. Waneta Newby, Grand Royal Matron, will serve as Uncrowning Matron and H.L. Jeannette Hartsough, Grand Associate Matron, will serve as Crowning Matron. In these ceremonies other Grand Officers and friends of subordinate courts will participate. Preceding installation by Special Dispensation, the Court will hold a short stated meeting at 7:00 p.m. sharp in the Ante-room.

The year end party for the officers and committee members will be Monday, April 2nd at the Venice Room, Highway 30 West at 6:30 p.m.

S.K. Glenn Geiger, Jr., H.L. Nellie Moore, H.L. Anne Brette, and the mother of H.L. Esther Brothers are reported speednig to recovery. H.L. Myona Binkley is in the hospital at the Allen County Home. Let's breathe an extra prayer of thanks that in the history of our Court, the charter has never been draped.

To the Matron, Patron and out-going officers: Some give time and some give wealth, but you have given your very self. Through all this year with loving favor, unselfishly you did labor.

To the incoming Matron, Patron and officers: May every act performed this year, be done with love and joy. May every task, however great, be done without alloy. May all your deeds of love be sown in other's gardens here, and every day just one more lived to make a good year.

In signing off—My wish and prayer—May God keep each of you with in His Care.

Hall 120 1/2 Washington Blvd. It was open installation. At the stated meeting on March 7, prior to the election of officers all committees gave their reports. The following is a partial report of the Royal Matron: We, your Royal Matron and Royal Patron, are proud of our officers and our committees. My humble thanks to H.L. Mary Ellen Sible, H.L. Helen McClure and members of the decorating committee for the beautiful and outstanding decorations we have enjoyed this year. Our Grand Royal Matron was deeply impressed by our decorations at the official visit. I greatly appreciate the hard work done by the Social Committee. The banquets we enjoyed were delicious and served with efficiency, cooperation and with a smile. The refreshments served after the Court Meetings were well planned and served in the same manner. Also to learn that they did all of this and still made a profit was astounding. I thank you, H.L. Ahleen Oliver, H.L. Emma Schell and members of the Social Committee. Many thanks to the Program Committee H.L. Hazel Dehler and H.L. Flo Widney for the many programs during the past year. They were very entertaining and well planned.

To the Cheer Committee Chairman, H.L. Mary Wilson and her co-chairman, H.L. Erma White and all the members of the Cheer Committee who did a commendable job in taking care of the sickness and distress. This group has operated most efficiently. To the Ways and Means Committee, where we get our operating capital, Committee chairman, H.L. Norma Jean Miller and co-chairman, H.L. Ann Galbreath and their helpers who headed different projects did a tremendous job. S.K. George Beach was pickle chairman, H.L. Mary Wilson, cards and cookies, H.L. Emma Schell rummage sales, H.L. Genevieve Wagner card parties assisted by H.L. Hazel Dehler, H.L. Loretta Rippe, H.L. Ann Galbreath. The card parties were outstanding. All-in-all we had a very profitable year. Thank you H.L. Inez Thrasher for all the work on the beautiful towels used on friends night.

My sincere thanks to you S.K. Al Schell for your kindness and helpfulness throughout the year. Many thanks to H.L. Emma and to H.L. Dorothy Wolever, my Mom. I have enjoyed working with each and every one of you and was able to brag that all of my officers were present at official visit. I can also brag about my protem officers and the past Matrons and Past Patrons as they always came through just when I needed them.

Thank you H.L. Frances Adams for always being able to help me, and I do appreciate it. I am sorry that I had to miss so many meetings and thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I wish to thank all of you who served on the various committees, such as Finance, Rules and Regulations, Examining, Auditing, Telephone and Publicity. I appreciated the time you spent on performing these duties.

In closing let me say
If I have wounded any soul today
If I have caused one foot to go astray
If I have walked in my own willful way

Dear Lord, Forgive.

BABSON COLUMN

BABSON DISCUSSES MAKING MONEY
FROM IDEAS

Babson Park, Mass. So many young people seem to feel that it is necessary to have some capital or a college degree or an important relative in order to start a business of their own. This week I wish to write about some acquaintances who started with only an idea; but who, with persistence, made a great success.

CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY
My first job was with George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post. He told me that Mr. Cyrus Curtis paid $10,000 for the Post, but could raise only $100 as down payment. I saw its circulation grow to over 6,000,000 copies, and—including the Ladies' Home Journal—the Curtis Publishing Company stock sold for over $100,000,000.

Among the important people Mr. Lorimer sent me to interview was Thomas A. Edison. Mr. Edison told me that he had only five years of schooling and only $100 of capital when he started in business. The help of Sydney Z. Mitchell, my cousins be built America's electrical industry, based upon incandescent light, the phonograph, the storage battery, etc., which Edison invented. All these came ideas, as neither Mr. Edison nor Chicago cousins had any money.

OTHER WELL-KNOWN NAMES

I remember interviewing Deere, who founded the farm machinery business when it seemed possible to interest any farmer in machinery. I also interviewed Ward Jones, of the Johns-Manville Company. He became interested in asbestos, believing that it had a future as abuilding material. Hence Birdseye, founder of the frozen-food industry, was a personal friend of mine—a Gloucester and later one of the trustees of Gravity Research Foundation, which I am much interested in. I asked me to buy some of his but I didn't; later he sold a General Foods for over $20,000. If I had bought his stock at $1 per share, I could have got $10 for each share. Bill Waller, Thermos Bottle fame, and Otis, who, with no capital and many failures, founded the Elevator Company, taught me sons. I remember the Walter story—how his family started in famous chocolate business in kitchens at Dorchester, Mass. Goodyear's idea of vulcanizing rubber was a similar "kitchen" idea. Their only assets were an idea and the persistence to do it.

My father kept a drygoods store in Gloucester, Mass. Manufacturing and engineering did not interest though I was an MIT graduate. I urged me to go into merchandise. He would tell me the story of land Macy, who started his retail venture with a little "saw and needle" shop. Today, I shoppers a day visit Macy's in New York! His new idea consisted of elaborate window displays and initial advertising, always marking price of goods in the window in the advertisements. The drygoods merchants thought the undignified and would have nothing to do with it.

THE HENRY FORD STORY

Mr. Ford himself told me he was seven years in raising $10,000 after making his first Ford. He had only one idea, but still it without education or capital. However, those who invested $100 in the first Ford Motor Company ultimately were able to take over $1,000,000 for each $100 they invested—all from an idea and perseverance. Opposite my father's store was a "Great Atlantic Pacific Tea" store. My father told me about George Hartford, who opened the first A & P. His idea was to cut out the middle man. He went to the wharf, where ships from China came in and bought his tea. Then he took it to New York in a horse and cart and sold it at retail, proving it fresher and cheaper than anything that could be bought elsewhere. He used this one idea the company now has over 4300 stores and employ 145,000 clerks, grossing over $1,000,000,000 from tea and groceries annually.

I could tell of Mr. Patterson's wooden cash register; William Judson and his "crazy" zipper; Borden, who made condensed milk; Mr. Gillette and his razor; and the humble pharmacist of Atlanta who started the Coca-Cola Company. I ought to mention Minute Tapioca, the frozen juice products, and M. Fox, who last year left this party to become Vice President in charge of sales for United Fruit. "do for bananas what he had for oranges!"

"Science shouldn't take too much credit for conquering space nothing."

By the time this is in print the York Rite Guest Night will be past and then only can the success be measured.

The York Rite Officers Dinner date has been changed, to May 4 and will be held at the Shrine Club. This dinner is for the Officers and their Ladies.

At the present writing plans are being formulated for an All Degree Day. The present date set for May 26. The success of this will be the number of petitions which you as members submit. Talk to your Blue Lodge Brethren.

Companion Kirtz, our Steward, is well on the road to recovery after a bout with a hospital bed. At this writing he is at his home, but hasn't been out of doors. Does any other companion know of a Sick Companion?

This month we will talk about the "Chivalric Orders" or the "Christian Orders of Knighthood." The degrees, or more properly, the orders of the crowning body of the York Rite, The Commandery of Knights Templar are often designated as Templar or Chivalric Masonry, because their founding was during the age of Chivalry.

A Commandery of Knights Templars confers three orders, the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, the Order of Malta and Mediterranean Pass, and the Order of the Temple.

The ancient knights banded together and organized the original Order of the Temple in the 12th century. They were the flower of knighthood, sworn to defend the weak and aged, and particularly to protect the pious and defenseless pilgrims journeying to the sacred shrines of the Holy Land.

Today, as it ever was, life abounds with contrasts — wealth and poverty, truth and falsehood, justice and injustice, liberty and oppression — flourish side by side the world over.

Men of purpose, born of Faith, filled with Hope, and motivated by Charity are ever needed to shield the weak and helpless. It is the avowed purpose of the modern Knights of Templar to meet that great need.

Chapters and books could be written on the background of this great Order, but time and space here will not permit.

This has been but a brief resume of York Rite Masonry. We invite you to continue your search for further light and to improve yourself in Masonry. We offer you an expanded fellowship with men and brethren who ever seek to build with Plumb, Square and Level, that Temple of our Craft and further, we sincerely solicit your identification with the only Order founded upon the Christian religion and the practice of the Christian virtues.

The Knights Templar of America have a long and noble record of outstanding achievements for the Christian Faith. It is a high honor to be knighted in one of their many Commanderies.

On March 9th your commander and a number of Sir Knights from Fort Wayne enjoyed a visit to the Apollo Commandery at Kendallville where the Order of the Temple was conferred by Apollo's Eminent Commander, Bill Douglass and his Sir Knights.

The Order of the Temple will be conferred Thursday, April 5th beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 Eastern Service will be held in the Scottish Rite Auditorium at 7:00 a.m. Easter Sunday. Following the worship service a ham and egg breakfast will be served in the dining room. Tickets for the breakfast may be purchased at the door, $1.00 for adults and fifty cents for children under twelve years of age.

An All Order Day has been planned for Saturday, May 26. The Illustrious Order of the Red Cross and the Order of Malta will be conferred in the fifth floor auditorium beginning at 1:00 p.m. The Order of the Temple will be conferred in the evening following a banquet in the first floor dining room. The class will bear the name of a distinguished Sir Knight. Petitions to receive the Orders of the Commandery must be in by May 17th.

The Drill Corps has been giving exhibitions in precision drilling before Masonic bodies upon request and wish it to be known that they are usually available for this purpose.

The Grand Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana will be held in Evansville May 10, 11 and 12. Competitive drills will be held Saturday, May 12.

On behalf of the Fort Wayne Chapter Order of DeMolay, I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to "Mom" and "Dad" Herrick on the loss of Mrs. Hickman, mother of Mrs. Herrick. We all feel the loss of Mrs. Hickman, but remember: Our loss is God's gain.

From my mother, dad and myself we wish to thank the DeMolay Mothers Circle, Mr. and Mrs. Herrick, and all the boys and parents who remembered us during my mother's illness. We deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness.

On the evening of February 28, we were entertained by the Order of Eastern Star Drill Team. The boys enjoyed the precision marching so much that they expressed their thanks by a standing ovation of several minutes. We wish to thank Mrs. Gladys Coe, Worthy Matron, and Mrs. Vance Knight the president of the drill team for bringing the ladies down.

Friday, March 2, the DeMolay Tournament Trot Dance was held. The crowd was small but "lively." Miss Jill Guiding spun the disks with the experience of an "old hand." I wish to thank Paul Rever and the officers who came down to decorate Thursday evening. The boys were handicapped with minimum of decorations, time and help, but made up for these deficiencies in spirit and hard work. They did a very commendable job. The marvelous decorations had a great deal to do with the success of our dance.

Up and coming events: DeMolay Mother and Son Banquet on May 17. Reservations must be made in advance. The sewing will be done by the Job Daughters with the entertainment provided by different groups or individuals from every school represented in DeMolay.

There are only two more meetings before the end of turning in petitions for membership. Our quota is 120 new members. We must meet this quota in order to remain the Worlds Largest Chapter. We must bring 100 petitions in two meetings. Boys, I am leaving it up to you. Do you want to remain the Worlds Largest Chapter or not?

CHECK YOURSELF

Any man can spoil himself: he can allow himself to grow so sensitive that he lives in constant pain. He can nurse his grudges until they are an intolerable burden. He can think himself insulted until he is apt to be. He can believe the world is against him until it is. He can imagine troubles until they become real. He can hold so many under suspicion that no one believes him. He can look so askance at his friends until they are no longer friends. He can think himself so important that no one else does. He can have such a good opinion of himself that no one else enjoys his presence. He can become so wrapped up in himself that he becomes very small.

THE BIBLE IN MASONRY

It is our duty as Masons to never lose sight of the fact that the Holy Bible is the first Great Light in Masonry. It is the indispensable furniture of every lodge room, and must always be considered as such if our great Fraternity is to continue to be a power for good in the world.

The keystone of the arch would be gone should the Bible ever be removed from our sacred altars. The very foundation of Masonry would be destroyed, beauty, strength and wisdom departed, and Masonry would be bankrupt.

Without the Holy Bible the traditions of Masonry have no certainty, its philosophy has no divinity, its precepts no sanction, its aims no significance. The first ray of Masonic light that falls upon the eye of the initiate clearly reveals the source from whence all the moral lessons of Masonry emanate.

WHAT YOU SHOULD LEARN

(The Scottish Rite Herald)
There are five things in life which everyone ought to learn.

1. Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. When you smile or laugh, your brain for the moment is freed from the load that it ordinarily carries.
2. Learn to tell a helpful story. A well-told story is as wholesome and welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room.
3. Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to linger over your ills and sorrows.
4. Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in this world, keep the bad to yourself.
5. Learn to greet your friends with a smile. They carry too many frowns in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.

It is saddening indeed to have to plead with the members of such a great fraternity as ours for their presence at some of our meetings. I am quite sure you all remember the day you knelt at the altar of masonry while its teachings and moralities were unfolded to you. By your absence you say it isn't necessary that you should be present for somebody to learn about masonry, but I say it is necessary from the viewpoint of the candidate. A speech doesn't necessarily have to be given by a well known orator; anybody could read it; but how much better it would be if given in terms of eloquence by one who could deliver a speech in such a manner. The same principle applies in our lodge hall. How much better it would affect the whole ceremony to have it supported by a full room of Brothers. If you expect to receive your wages as a mason, remember, you have to come to get them, they can't be mailed to you.

Our deepest condolences and sympathy to the wife and family of Dewey Garman who passed to his eternal reward on Feb. 24, 1962. Memorial services were conducted at McComb's funeral home Feb. 28 for Dewey.

Nice to see our Secretary, John Lare, and our Chaplain, Rodney Lansaw back with us and healthy after their operations.

I have a message for you in one word. OBLIGATION.

There is in this word a point which, like a number of other points of which you have heard, has a meaning of its own. For at the root of the word is a reminder that he who accepts an obligation ties, or binds, himself to something he is to have as a sacred duty. You bound yourself to the Lodge and did so in view of two duties you are expected to perform. One of these is your duty to be a good and faithful Mason. And the other is your duty to be a good and faithful worker in the Lodge. In accepting that obligation you did certain things. What it was you did we others could not see because you did them in yourself; you thought, you felt, and you decided in your own soul what afterwards you promised. It is because of this that the obligation which ties you to us is a Mystic Tie. May I remind you that the Lodge at the same moment obligated itself to you, for there can be no obligation that binds only one. The Worshipful Master gave you a pledge of his friendship and enduring brotherliness and did so on behalf of the Lodge. So to sum it up; if you are to be a good and faithful Mason, so the Lodge will be good and faithful to you and if you are to be a good and faithful worker, so the Lodge will be a good and faithful worker for you. In this double tie is the other side of what is meant by the Mystic Tie; it is Mystic because it is in the soul; it is a Tie, because it binds us to the Lodge and the Lodge to us. Think along these lines until our next meeting and then remind yourself of that one word. OBLIGATION.

We in the Masonic fraternity appreciate history. We cherish the ancient arts of our predecessors. The web of Masonry has always been woven within, and without the pages of history.

History, however, is not necessarily something that happened long, long ago. History was made last week, it was made today, and by the Grace of the Grand Architect, tomorrow will some day be history.

Olive Branch Lodge No. 248 is planning a banquet and program entitled "A Century Plus 3." In it, we will attempt to prove that the bonds of mankind through history are everlasting.

All Master Masons are cordially invited to spend with us, what we believe, is going to be a very entertaining and informative evening.

The banquet will be held at the Poe M.E. Church on April 12th, 6:30 p.m. Reservations are $1.25 per plate, and can be made by contacting Earl Hamrick, Box 104, Hoagland, no later than April 7th. The program will follow at 7:30 p.m. in our Lodge Hall in our regular stated meeting.

Come, break bread with us, renew old friendships or make new ones.

As you read this I'm sure it will be a remembrance to those of you who missed our last Stated meeting for one reason or another that the first Thursday of each month is our night of Labor and a night to enjoy the fellowship of the lodge. We had a fine attendance at the last Stated meeting and we're looking forward to even a greater one for our next month.

Your Lodge had work on the third degree for five new brothers during the past month. The evening of March 15th and 24th were real nights of fellowship—the work was put on in full form and I'm sure everyone present gained a great deal from it. Coffee and cookies were served after the work on the 15th and delicious pot luck dinner was spread at 6 p.m. on the 24th in the Lodge's dining hall.

You have a committee in your Lodge hard at work planning for a Family night that will be long remembered. At the earliest possible time the date will be announced and as each of you hear it, please reserve it and tell every Brother you see. We're working for a real turn out of your families. Remember, this is a night for your families—we have many nights in Lodge while they wait, now let's all make it a day they'll enjoy and remember.

This had been a severe winter and as we turn to Spring let us all give thought to the things that are happening around us. The new life should ever be a remembrance to us that we are known both for what we have done and what we leave undone. Let us all live a life as Mason's that will make everyone's life fuller and leave undone no thing that will aid a Brother or his Family.

Brothers, another month has rolled around, we are getting older and it is time for me to prepare another column. We did not have any candidates in March but a family night with pot-luck supper was held with a very good attendance. Our JW, Br. Norman O. Long, gave another on his travel talks, complete with slides, covering a portion of his experiences in the Far East. This again proved to be very interesting and was enjoyed by all present.

Our secretary, Russell T. Smith just returned from a trip to Florida and was able to visit Brothers Ed Jackson and Curly Phillips. He reports they are both enjoying living in Florida and are well except that Curly was sporting a broken arm. Our good wishes go out to both these absent Brothers.

Brother George Elkins is still on the ailing list after his accident and would enjoy a visit. See you all in lodge. Remember, we will be open every Wednesday evening.

Ossian Lodge number 297 mourns the loss of two of its brethren who have been taken from us.

Brother Charles E. Elzey passed away January 31, 1962 and was accorded full Masonic burial rites at the grave in the Ossian Cemetery.

Brother Robert A. Riley Sr., passed away March 5, and was accorded full Masonic funeral rites at the Elzey funeral home in Ossian.

We regret the loss of our brothers, but one need only pause and think to realize that death is but another phase in the Master plan laid down by the Grand Architect of the Universe.

It is lamentable that the operation of a working lodge is so difficult to make into newsworthy copy, inasmuch as the reporting of stated meetings lacks the color of information concerning the conferring of degrees, granting of awards, and the entertaining of illustrious guests. However, the stated meeting is the bone and sinew of lodge operation and as such should never be relegated to the status of a bothersome task which out of necessity must be performed.

Brethren attend your stated meetings.

Law of Love

Lesson for March 25, 1962

In the sight of God, what is my most important duty? What can I do that will yield the best returns in life? It is a happy discovery to learn that the answer to both questions is the same. We know this is true because Jesus himself was asked both questions, and gave the same answer each time. The strangeness of his answer is that he Dr. Foreman did not directly say to either questioner: DO—anything whatever. The highest duty and the most rewarding effort is not action but attitude. For Jesus' reply to these questions was: Love God; Love your fellowman. Jesus was not the first to sum up the Law and the Prophets—in short, the entire Old Testament—in these two commands, love to God and to neighbor; but he gave his approval to this way of summing it all up.

Love to God. We have called love an "attitude." This is not quite fair, for love which is only an attitude, never resulting in action, is not what Christ and Christians after him mean by the word. Nevertheless, love is an attitude before it is an act. You might say, love should be the atmosphere, the light, in which you see, or think about, God and your neighbor. Now it is clear that love to God can't be precisely the same as love to men, even the best of men. From all that is said of "love" in the New Testament—for instance in 1 Corinthians 13, or John 13 through 17, it is plain that love, as God approves it among men, involves helping them when in need. But God is never in need. Also, love is at its high point when it is expended on the unloving and the unlovable; but God is never unloving nor unlovable. Perhaps we can put together love to God and love to man this way: Love means sharing their concerns. Jesus the boy was sharing concern of his Father in heaven when he said, "I must be my Father's business." As he was sharing his Father's concern when he said, "I always what is pleasing to him." 8:29.)

Love to man

Not all that concerns God concerns us. He has a wide mind to control, and he has not us to help operate heaven, but the stars in the sky. But as it may seem, God does concern with men; and it is in which we can share—and share gladly if the love of God in us. But the concerns of men are different. They arise out of weakness and sin, just as concerns arise from his love and power. Much of the concern of every man can be summed in one question: How can I get out of the jam I'm in? Not one is in the same kind of "The troubles of a man mind wrestling with some are not the troubles of a man without enough food for his brethren, and neither of these of trouble is the same as the (say) President Kennedy, the same, love to our fellow involves being sympathetic all those in trouble, of every a concern and sympathy will pull us into sharing the helping where and as we can.

On reading the Bible

We must add a little but a tant postscript. When this time came to Jesus, on one occasion he gave the answer to another, he got the answer of his questioner. The point the answer came from the but not (so to speak) from on top of the Bible. How of you, for example, read the of Deuteronomy or Leviticus. That chapter 6 in Deuteronomy has quite a bit in it which not fit us; but verses 4 and 5, intensely correct. In the chapter of Leviticus (perhaps one's favorite chapter of the Bible) there are some very liar laws, which passed when the nation of Israel was to be. Today people plant kinds of seed in a field, or clothes made of more than material, and never think modern people are not to tattoo themselves as a mourning. There is much that no longer has force. Christians. But "Love your neighbor as yourself" does have it did not pass away when salm fell.

WARDEN

Warden began as the fine old him: why his duties were made over meant to watch, so that the warden was a guard, a watchman, a custodian of something, as when a watchman of the timber was called a wood warden, or hay was called a hay warden, etc. The two Wardens in a Lodge watch, or oversee, the activities which center in their stations, and both of them assist the Master to rule and govern his Lodge. Traditionally the Senior Warden oversees ("watches over") the craft while at labor, the Junior Warden oversees the Craft during the hours when at refreshment. Traditionally, the latter is a constitutional Lodge officer whose duty is to arrange for social affairs, parties, entertainments, and at one time he had stewards to assist him: why his duties were made over to special and standing social committees no historian can explain.

In greeting you in the month of May I am reminded of the passage "How swiftly the sands run" for already we are in the fifth month of the year 1962, and I'm also reminded of what every Past Master knows that the Master's year passes rather quickly.

We want to take this opportunity to congratulate newly raised Master Masons Brother Ken Rapp, Guilford Blummer, and Ron Venderly. Our Master Mason Degree and supper were very well attended and I want to thank all the Brethren who took part in the Degree work for a job well done.

Our May calendar of events includes our Guest Nite May 22. This nite is set aside for Brothers of Home Lodge to bring a good friend or friends who are not a Mason to enjoy fellowship and to hear a message about Masonry and what it stands for in our society today. Tickets for this event can be purchased from any officer of the Lodge and also from Henry in the Social Room on the second floor of the temple.

As most of the members know, in the fall of every year we have a tri-state meeting. The date for this year is September 29 and 30. We will journey to Peoria Heights, Illinois, our host lodge. This may seem a little early for this announcement, but it will be at hand before we know it, so let's be thinking about it and get our reservations in early. The chairman of this yearly event is again Brother Charlie Winans and he is now making plans for reservations and transportation facilities. The cost (which is low) for this visitation will be announced at a later date. I would like to tell you a little about this tri-state gathering which is well attended by members of the Lodges participating. The four Lodges taking part in this event are two Illinois Lodges, one St. Louis, Missouri Lodge, and our Home Lodge from Fort Wayne. We travel by bus or train and are always very graciously received for fellowship dinner and entertainment. Let us hear from some of you who have never taken the opportunity to make this journey into fellowship for I know you won't regret it.

I received a communication from Worshipful Master Armstrong of Garfield Lodge No. 669, Hammond, Indiana, notifying us of our Brother Charles Wright who passed to that undiscovered country and was given the Masonic Services by Brethren of the Garfield Lodge.

I also received notification that Brother Hollis Breece who lives in Oklahoma City is ill in the hospital there. A lot of you Brethren know Brother Hollis very well for he has not missed any of our tri-state meetings since its beginning several years ago. Brother Hollis, we wish you a speedy recovery.

Anyone knowing of an ill brother, please contact me or our secretary Brother Dave Mills.

The Worshipful Grand Lodge of Indiana will be convening this year on May 15 and 16. Any member is entitled to attend this meeting which is held annually in May.

Did you miss last month's article for Wayne Lodge? It was there, inadvertently slipped under the heading for Waynedale Lodge. It just goes to show it can happen in the best paper published!

Two of our members were called to serve in the Celestial Lodge during the past month. Brother Charles Knothe of Fort Wayne, and Brother Fielding B. Hall of Los Angeles have both passed on, and to their families we offer our sympathy.

We have had Brothers Jess Rayl and Jack Dierkes ill in the Lutheran Hospital, and Tom Pantazin ill at home. We hope for their complete recovery by the time this article is in print.

One of the finest things to happen to the Ionic Room for many a year has occurred recently, and I urge all the brethren to make a special effort to visit Lodge and look it over. Everyone has been pleased and proud of the change, and our many thanks go to the House Committee, Trustee, and Custodial Staff of the Temple for the time and effort they have given to achieve this happy result.

We wish to welcome into the fellowship of Wayne Lodge our new Master Mason, Ronald Coil, and wish him a Masonic life of Plenty, Health and Peace. To his Dad-in-Law, Junior Warden Forrest Fennell, congratulations for a job well done in acting as Master for these ceremonies.

We have a candidate to vote on at the May Stated Meeting, so plan to be with us then.

May is the month for Grand Lodge, and it will be the privilege of the Master, Senior and Junior Wardens to attend this informative and inspirational session. It will be held May 15th and 16th at the Masonic Temple in Indianapolis.

A Fellowcraft Club party for all Wayne Lodge members was held at the home of J.D. Bob Bogen-schuetz, 3525 Kirkwood Drive on April 27th. Everyone who came enjoyed Dr. Hilgeman's hunting films, and an evening of general good fellowship.

Don't forget to watch the June issue of the S. & C. for plans concerning the Family Picnic. It will be held late Saturday afternoon and early evening, June 9th, at the Schoaf Park River Lodge.

See you in the Ionic Room!

Several years ago I read the report of a speech in which the listeners were asked, "What Is Your UPSET Size?"

This is one of the most challenging questions I ever faced.

Does it upset me if the toast is burned? If someone calls me on the phone, bawls me out without giving his name and hangs up, does it get me upset? Does it upset me if I read a dispatch or hear a broadcast which indicates that constant war is threatened?

A man's character is indicated by what has a power to upset him. If he is easily upset, of course he is a light-weight. As the size of what it takes to upset a person increases, so his spiritual substance and stature increase.

The second question which offers an unforgettable challenge is this: "Are you part of the problem or part of the solution?"

Everyone at almost every moment is either part of the problem or part of the solution. At one time we may be part of the problem, making things difficult for other people. At another time we may be part of the solution, making things easier for other people.

If I hurt other people's feelings or get my own feelings hurt, may be worse, I am part of the problem. If I have a problem, I am part of the problem. If I have a discussion, I stubbornly refuse to recognize or take full account of facts presented, I am part of the problem. If I break a rule, or if I drop litter, I am part of the problem.

If in considering what we shall take in a controversy, of considering my own interests, of considering what is good all concerned, of what is good for the community, then I am part of the solution.

If I don't do my part to the organizations to which I belong, I am part of the problem. If in dealing with every day I am moved only by reason, I am part of the solution.

I can increase the number of occasions in which I am part of the solution. I'm then contributing to the great world problem of establishing world peace. The public man has no difficulty in himself as others see him. He has to do is look at the editorials, the letters to the editor, or his own mail. But a private person has to use his imagination.

What is your upset size? Every person is either part of the problem or part of the solution. (E. Meeman)

In belonging to the Greatasonic Fraternity, you automatically become involved in its activities. Are you a part of the problem, or the solution?

Remember May 7th is our annual Past Master's Banquet (the ladies also). Past Grand Master John Jefferson will speak. Shrine Charters will perform. This copy goes to press to hope you were there.

Thursday, May 10, we will have our Charter and Ladies Dinner. Our Junior Warden, Hertzog, and his committee have been hard at work and the arrangements have been made for this annual event. It is one of the few times of year when your lady can see the fellowship of a Masonic working with you. Further details will be mailed to you soon. You receive your notice and make your reservations promptly.

The month of March saw three brothers raised in our lodge. We are all who attended their work were impressed by interest and sincerity shown these fine young men. It proves as I'm sure it does to you, Masonry has that "something" to attract men of this world to its ranks.

We have no candidates for April, but investigations prove favor there will be work in May, we will be looking forward to working you in lodge.

We are sure you will be glad to that Brother John Capin is working nicely from his recent work and Brother Arden McCoy feeling much better. As of this I know of no other illness.

When you enter our lodge rooms you will notice the new carpet and newly painted walls. This clean-up did not just happen it was planned and accomplished by ambitious men. My thanks to all who helped, so fully and willingly, with this

Our Master and Senior Warden looking forward when we will have Grand Lodge. On May 8th, Brother Al Robinson will address the lodge. He has visited many cities and foreign lodges. Those who have heard him have commended him highly and said that we do not miss this important event. Will you mark your calendar for May 8th and to worshipful Masters, Wardens and Brethren reading this notice, feel free to attend and be guests for fellowship and refreshments. J.W. Roberts will be in charge of the food under the direction of Brother Lee Garrison.

These years officers are doing a splendid job supporting the work of the Lodge. Another of our Past Masters is busy in Masonic work. Worshipful Brother Bengler is active in the 20th degree in Scottish Rite. Our congratulations to past masters who remain in Masonry.

Who would say hello! To our brothers who are out of state.

Especially do we welcome letters from them. Let us know how you are getting along. One such letter has already been received from Brother Allen Hackbirth, Denver, Colo.

If you have read this far, it probably didn't take 5 seconds to decide to read all of this article. Following is the calendar:

- May 1st, MM Degree, dinner at 6:30 p.m.
- May 8th, Stated meeting 7:30 p.m.
- May 8th, Guest speaker for the evening, Corinthian Room.

The date for Maumee's combined Charter Member - Past Master's banquet is rapidly approaching. May 23 is the date and the time is 5 o'clock p.m. Mark it on your calendar and plan to attend.

Our golf outing and dinner is now definitely set for June 9, at the Kendallville Country Club. Tickets may be secured from Chairman, "Doc" Delp or any of the officers. Keep this date open and even if you are not an expert golfer, come play any way. If you do not play golf in any form, why not plan to attend the dinner with your wife?

Your officers are looking forward to Grand Lodge again this year on May 15 and 16. Maumee can be especially proud of our Brother Clyde Flowers who represents us as Junior Grand Warden. Brother Clyde is a Past Master of Maumee and will be the first Grand Master from Maumee. We are truly happy for him and for the honor he will bring to Fort Wayne.

It was our sad experience to learn of the death of Past Master Gene Gilchrist's wife, Grace. We ask God's comfort and care for Bro. Gene and extend our deepest sympathy to him.

May 13 is Mother's Day and is one of the sweetest days we celebrate, with its cherished memories of her who protected and guided our childhood.

We read about the mothers of the days of long ago. With their wrinkled faces and their hair as white as snow. They were middle-aged at forty, and at fifty donned lace caps; At sixty clung to shoulder shawls, and loved their little naps. But I love the modern Mother Who can share in all our joys, And who understands the problems Of her growing girls and boys. She may boast that she is sixty—But her heart is twenty-three—My glorious, bright-eyed mother Who is keeping young with me.

 Saturday April 14th was our Smorgasbord Supper and Square dance and it was very well attended. In fact if many more had been there we would have had difficulty in finding room for them to dance. I am sure all had a good time as the crowd stayed until closing. I would like to thank the officers and all who attended in making it such a Success. Grand Lodge time will soon be upon us and by the time this news reaches you, your Master and Wardens will be in attendance. Come to lodge on June 4th and hear our report on the Grand Lodge proceedings.

Since my last news to you we have had three of our brothers called to be with the Grand Master of the Universe, Brothers Elie Walker, Albert W. Koontz and Thomas W. Cannon.

During the last month we have had reported three brothers in the hospital, John Kurtz, Therman Leichy, Harold Henry and Paul J. Martin. All of these brothers are now home except Paul J. Martin who is in St. Joseph Hospital, may be enjoy a speedy recovery.

If anyone knows of any other illness please report to any of your officers.

Your Master and Wardens will be going to Grand Lodge on May 15th and 16th to learn more about the Masonic Fraternity, and how its business is conducted. I fear that some of the reports will be discouraging, Masonic membership has decreased in Indiana during the past Grand Lodge Year. Can it be that Masonic principals and tenets are no longer important? I don't believe it, I believe it is because too many of us are letting trivial things interfere with our interest in Lodge, therefore we do not convince the world at large of its good effects.

Congratulations to our new brother, James Earl Craig, who completed his degree work in March.

We elected five petitioners to receive the degrees in April and have three new petitions for May.

Brother Paul Eller is in the St. Joseph Hospital, brothers George Nedelkoff and Adam Baumgartner are ill at home and Brother Bert Ault is recuperating at home. I still get around too slowly, I guess. Brother Bert Ault left the hospital on Sunday morning and I tried to call on him Sunday afternoon.

Remember brothers that if your 1962 dues have not been paid, your name is on the delinquent list. I know it is easy to forget, so let this be your reminder to send them in and get your name off the list.

Your Master and Wardens will report on their trip to Grand Lodge at the stated meeting in June, that is the first Friday or June the first at seven thirty if you forgot.

WHAT MASONRY IS AND IS NOT

(Exchange)

Masonry is not a Temple of Mysteries, nor a Repository of Rituals, nor a Reformatory of the Fallen, nor a Branch Office of a Benevolent Society, but the happy and restful, refined and intellectual home of men of good will and good sense; Brethren, not Bondsmen, men of brain and brawn, young men and mature men, drawn and conciliated together by some magnetic affinity of association far more than mere gregariousness; just average men in a world of motion and emotion, of aspiration and purposeful progress—men who discover one another and realize themselves in close and familiar association and who have realized that the Brotherhood of Man begins with the Manhood of Brother.

HOW STRONG?

Every Mason has felt the warmth, the security and the strength of "The Mystic Tie," yet no Mason can adequately define it.

When men are bound together by sacred obligations, when there is so much love in our hearts that no space is left for envy or hate, there is the consciousness of "The Mystic Tie."

When the appeal of those who may need the strength of the strong is heard by responsive hearts, there is "The Mystic Tie."

When there is mutual respect, mutual confidence, and perfect understanding among brother Masons, there is the presence of "The Mystic Tie."

That which binds Masons together is not a physical entity. It cannot be seen or felt. It is the reflection of the Mason who makes Masonic teachings one with life.

With every kindly act, with the daily practice of the tenets of Freemasonry, "The Mystic Tie" increases in strength.

"The Mystic Tie" is not a convenient escape from responsibility. It is the comforting hand in the midst of life's struggles that enables us to proceed with renewed patience and greater courage.

A TEST OF FRIENDSHIP

The unknown author who penned these lines hit a keynote thus:

Once a rich man said he would divide his fortune among his friends, if only he knew who they were.

Years passed, and at last the man died—in a midwinter blizzard. His request was that the funeral be held at four o'clock in the morning.

Although scores had boasted of being his intimate friends, only three men and one poor woman turned out, to stand red-eyed and sad beside his grave.

When the will was read, it directed that his estate be divided equally among those who attended his funeral.

Friends are much scarcer than we think!

A REAL FREEMASON

The real Freemason is distinguished from the rest of mankind by the uniform unrestrained rectitude of his conduct. Other men are honest in the fear of punishment which the law might inflict; they are religious in expectation of being rewarded, or in dread of the devil in the next world. A true Freemason would be just if there were no laws, human or divine, except those which are written in his heart by the finger of his Creator. In every climate under every system of religion, he is the same. He kneels before the universal throne of God, in gratitude for the blessings he has received, and in humble solicitation for his future protection. He venerates the good men of all religions. He disturbs not the religion of others.

Congratulations to the new officers on the splendid manner in which our first stated meeting was presented. The officers were installed March 31, in the Commandery Room.

The East was decorated with a white back drop with Sister Matron's motto "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart." In front of the dais an open Bible with the words, "Love, Unity and Harmony," and a beautiful palm branch. The West honored Sister Matron with a reproduction of the Shiloh Badge. Behind each star chair was a yellow rose in white containers made of wire net and yellow roses burst through.

When all was in readiness, Sister Lettie Dickie, Past Grand Matron of the Indiana Grand Chapter, as installing officer assisted by Hazel Reithmiller; installing Marshal, Alta Current; installing Chaplain, Mary Downer; installing Organist, called for installation to order.

Our Worthy Matron Ethel Miller was escorted to the East by her nephew, George Miller, through an arch formed by her nephews which had served with her on the floor in past years. She was holding yellow roses and white Bibles, while Mr. Phil Bergwald sang, "In the Garden," after which each one placed yellow roses in a vase by the open Bible in the east.

Our Worthy Patron Dan Schlieff was escorted to the East by his children, Mike, Tucker, and Ambrose, through an arch of their friends while Mr. Steigeland sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

After all the officers were installed and Sister Lettie presented our Worthy Matron to us, Brother Ed Day approached the East and presented her with a gavel made of Zebra wood from Africa. Dr. Dallas Browning of Wayne Methodist Church, gave the benediction, thus closing a lovely installation.

Our Worthy Matron Ethel Miller will entertain each of the Social Committees at her home, 712 Rockhill St. on their regular meeting time for the month of May.

Calling all Shiloh Members! We sell tickets to our Fish Fry 4 to our Relatives, Friends, Neighbors and Shiloh sisters and others, for who knows they may come to eat and all the fish are donated. Tickets have been distributed to all committees, so if you have not received yours contact your chairman. Tickets will be available at the Spring Rummage Sale.

The Spring Rummage Sale will be May 7-8, so please call any of the following for what you have to donate large or small. Mae Jones, S-2271; Ethel Miller, E-67753; Morea Fisher, A-67231 and Genevieve Cleland, S-2657.

Our Mother's Day Program will be presented on the first stated meeting in May with the Decorating Committee serving after the meeting on the Mezzanine. Officers in Chapter: Eva Kuepler, Mary Bandy, Mary White, Emily Johnson, Ruby Williams, Floyd Brake, Bion Oetz, Elizabeth Pfial, Shirley Wiley.

Illness in families: Husband of Florence Oetz, Wildred Witmer, Sister of Catherine Manning, Brother of Florence Oetz, grandson of Morea Fisher.

Deaths in families: Fathers of Ruth Garlets, Norma Krall. Husband of Ethel Bell, Son of Edith Fitzpatrick, Sister of Orilla Hoffmann, Brother-in-law of Emma Dickson.

Births: Charlotte Guyatt a great-granddaughter.

The first month has passed, with the newly installed officers performing their duties in a most efficient manner. The committees for the year ahead have had their first meetings, and many plans have been made.

At our first stated meeting in May, we honored the mothers, who are members of Trinity chapter.

May 18 is our birthday party and we will honor the charter members.

The members who are not attending chapter are missing something, so please do come out and fill the sidelines.

The Ways and Means committee are working hard on the steak supper, which will be held on May 16, so don't forget to pick up your tickets from Marie Bolraj, Mildred Mullins or Louise Wilkerson, your W.M. The committee will hold a rummage sale June 12, so please save your rummage. There will be further information on this later.

For all who come your way.

Sisters and Brothers, as we have just passed through another Lenten season and another Glorious Easter it can be our realization that we worship a living Lord and as we look on from this most important day, we realize that this truly becomes the real beginning. Another new year has started for our Chapter and we are looking forward to making it another Good year by the continued Faith and help of all members.

Our new officers conducted their first meeting on April 5, and must be congratulated for a beautiful performance of their work. The East was beautifully decorated with a lighted lantern on a lamp post, with violets and ferns at the base. In the West were our watch words, Faith, Fidelity and Friendship. The tables were decorated with plants, violets, lilies of the valley and leaves.

Worthy Matron Mary Knauer and Associate Matron Patricia Walker entertained all committees at a lovely party on April 9th in the dining room of the Temple. Games were played to start the evening then the crowd broke up into committees for their individual meetings. Refreshments were served and Mary and Pat, we certainly had a wonderful evening.

The decorations in the East for our April 19th meeting consisted of a large white cross and white lilies at the base. In the West were the words "Faith unlocks the Door." Past Matrons' and Patrons' Night, May 3, the theme was Memories. The East again being beautifully decorated with the silhouette of an old fashioned girl and spring flowers. In the West was the music "Memories." The tables were decorated with Spinning wheels and nosegays, the nut cups were lanterns.

I wish to thank all who had a part in my installation. I also want to thank all of you for your confidence in electing me your Worthy Matron. The honor you have bestowed on me tonight makes me very humble and with your support it will be a year of service and friendship.

Our Motto for the year is "Faith Puts a Lantern in Your Hand."

Our Bible Verse: Psalms 119:105 "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." Our colors: Blue and Green. Flower: The Purple Violet and the Green Fern.

As we serve this year, we hope we will help to light your path through the beautiful teachings of our order and the lessons taken from that great Book. Our watchwords will be Faith, Fidelity and Friendship. Faith in the word of God, Fidelity in our duty, and the beautiful and lasting Friendships we make along the way are a most important way of life.

Mary Knauer New Officers were installed at 7:30 p.m. March 23 in the Commandery Room of the Masonic Temple. Rev. Traverse Chandler, assistant pastor of West Creighton Ave. Christian Church, offered prayer.

Brother Clayton Herrick, Grand Sentinel of the Indiana Grand Chapter was the installing Grand Officer. Assisting him were Sister Gladys Gifford, Installing Grand Marshall; Sister Velma Fortess Installing Grand Chaplain; and Sister Lucille Brattain Installing Grand Organist, assisted by Sister Vera Aker. The Obligation was given by Brother Orvis Dellinger. Brother Leon Williams presided at the signing of the Bible.

Newly elected officers installed were Sister Mary Knauer, Worthy Matron; Brother Harold Houser, Worthy Patron; Sister Patricia Walker, Associate Matron; Brother Frank Bidlack, Associate Patron; Sister Vera Hayden, Secretary; Sister Helen Helms, Treasurer; Sister Carol Munk, Conductress; and Sister Irene Lytle, Associate Conductress.

Appointive officers installed were Sisters Virginia Curtis, Chaplain; Tessie Wise, Marshall; Joyce Bidlack, Organist; Velma Ensley, Adah; Clara Bolyard, Ruth; Jeannette Morris, Esther; Marcella Mills, Martha; Dorothy Fennell, Electa; Jean Doenges, Warder; Louis Cereghino, Sentinel. Sister Beth Jacobs will serve as prompter and Sister Flora Dornie as march director.

The east was beautifully decorated with a silhouette of a lady holding a lantern in her hand. The beautiful walk and white picket fence were banded with blue violets and greenery.

On April 18, Bethel No. 8 observed Friends Night. Miss Karen McComas of Bethel No. 60, Auburn, Indiana, was guest Honored Queen for the evening. Other officers were from Auburn Bethel No. 60; Columbia City, Bethel No. 102; Huntington, Bethel No. 27; and Hometown Bethel No. 71.

After the meeting a very impressive "Friendship Wheel" was formed by each officer and her guest. The theme, "Friendship Lanes" was carried thru all the decoration, using a fence entwined with flowers, a mailbox and a lamp post in the east. On the tables on the magazine, were lamp posts and mailboxes. The entertainment was a quartet from South Side. Thank you boys very much, the girls just loved you and we hope you will come again sometime.

On April 28, Mrs. Dorothy Cory, Grand Guardian of Indiana paid her official visit to the double inspection of Bethel No. 8 and Bethel No. 71 of Hometown. Inspection was held at 1:30 with many Grand Officers and other guests present. At 4:00 a lovely Baby Dedication was held. Babies of Past Honored Queens were dedicated to the Bethel. A Banquet was held at 5:00 in the Banquet Room. The theme of the banquet was "Cup of Friendship." A large backdrop in back of the head table was used depicting a large cup and saucer, with a white carnation above the cup. Above the backdrop were the words in gold letters, "Cup of Friendship." White, pink, and gold appointments were carried out in all the decorations. On the head tables were gold mug cups, planted with pink and white carnations. The centerpiece was a large cup and saucer planted with carnations and other flowers. On the side tables, dishes were planted in flowers of white, pink and yellow. These were used with pink candles.

After the banquet the tables were cleared and removed for the dance which followed. Playing for the dance was "Garrett's Little Band," a group of high school boys from Garrett, Indiana. The dance was well attended by both the Job's Daughters and DeMolay.

I wish to thank everyone who worked on the Inspection to make it the success it was. Those on the Council, the Mothers Club, and the DeMolay boys who served the banquet. I also would like to thank all the girls who helped with decorations. I think you all did a lovely job. I would especially like to thank Miss Mary Tilden, from Hometown, for the privilege of working with you. I do hope you will come and see us again.

On May 2, we will observe Master Mason Night. All Master Masons are especially invited to attend this meeting. Each Bethel Officer will have a special guest for this night.

Count your days by golden hours,

Count your nights by stars-not

And with joy thru all your lifetime
Count your life with smiles-not tears,
Count your age by friends-not years

Many thanks to those who helped with the rummage sale both by giving of their time and rummage. You will be pleased to know that, thru your efforts, this project was a real success. Now if our Card Party and Bazaar does as well, it will be due to the many faithful members who helped to make it so.

Fifteen of our members were guests of Warsaw Assembly on their Friends Night. Girls, be sure not to pass up the opportunity to attend these meetings in the various Indiana Assemblies—We really have a "Ball." Our thanks to Sisters Jane Millhorn, Ann Kurtz, Mary Louise Shafer, Thelma Adams, Isahell Masel, Fay Squires, Grace Martin, Bea Koch and Dorothy White for the fine program also to Sister Eugenia Wood for the lovely song given on our Friends Night, April 17th.

May 1st will be Mothers Day and Childrens Day—The Children and Grandchildren of our members will be special guests after a short meeting. A program and refreshments are planned and we hope to see a good attendance.

May 15th will be the annual Birthday Dinner. You put your Birthday money in the "Kitty" during the year (at least we hope you did) so now is your chance to "Cashin" on your investment with a good throw in as interest.

Just a reminder that the sewing is May 21st and the Evening sewing May 28th. Place of meeting to be announced. Sister Dorothy man, our benevolent chairman is covering from surgery at the Lutheran Hospital—The report is that it is getting along fine. Sister Shirley Wiley is recovering from injury in an automobile accident. Sir Knight John Kayser suffered a serious injury to his hand. We are happy report that all are on the mend.

Don't forget, we have a date, see you in assembly?

THOUGHTS ON THINKER

Most of the men the world is brilliant are no more brilliant to the rest of us; they just do more thinking than we do. They concentrate on an idea while the rest of the world, like humming birds, from the triviality to another.

Sir Isaac Newton, something of a wool-gatherer in his youth, wrote out the laws of motion and universal gravitation, invented calculus and quite a few other mental chores. But, looking back over his life he denied vehemently that he was smarter than the next fellow. He attributed his accomplishments simply to "the power of patient thought." Practically every important benefit that has been evolved for mankind has been the result of somebody "patient thinking." So, in the unlikely event that you should come up with someone thinking, think twice yourself before you disturb him!

DUE GUARD

This strange word is apparently not found in use anywhere outside Freemasonry. Professional philologists confess that they have never heard of it; it is seldom included in dictionaries, even the largest, and in no volumes. Is the "due" a form of some word as "duty"? Or is it a form of the French name for God? Huguenots, who were French Protestants before the Protestant Reformation, employed it in the sense, and made it denote "God gave you." Many analyses of the ritual inclined to believe that in our Lodges we employ it more nearly in its former sense, so that a man is expected to make it his duty to do something. Until the history of the word has been discovered there is always be an uncertainty about meaning.—Texas Grand Lodge magazine.

ATTENDANCE

(York Temple News)

Many of our Masonic organizations are experiencing poor attendance. Only a small percentage of their membership attends meetings. Various methods have been indicated in an attempt to bring more members but only with little success. This condition may continue until the real reason for non-attendance is known. How about you? You attend at least once a month? What is your reason for not attending so?

Do members expect too much of their lodge? Do they fail to comprehend its purpose or understand its teachings?

No one can deny the fact that your organization needs your support. Neither will anyone deny the fact that he who stays away is the principal loser. It does not matter how many a member who does not attend regularly is a poor member. However, you lose contact with fellow members and know nothing of what is transpiring in your lodge. You may even drift away from precepts inculcated in the various degrees and orders.

Can a non-attending member's church feel he is as valuable to the church and gets as much instruction as one who attends every day, or is actively engaged in the phase of its responsibilities?

There is much truth in the quoted statement, "You get what you put in." Masonry only what you put in.

The winter season is now behind us and the spring activities are now beginning. Thomas R. Marshall will have its usual dinner on the stated meeting night, May 18. On May 4, we will confer the Mark Master Degree on our candidates; on May 25, the Past and Most Excellent Master Degrees, and on June 8, the Royal Arch Degree. We invite all members to come and help with the work on these dates. We feel sure everyone will enjoy these activities.

We would also like to remind all members of our usual party after the June 15 stated meeting. More about this in the next issue. Let be sure and mark the date on the calendar. Because of this party there will be no dinner before the stated meeting in June. See you at our meetings.

Due to the very small number of petitions that have been turned in, I am afraid that we will have to give up our plans for a Chapter All Degree Day. For those candidates we do have we will enter the Mark Master Degree on April 26, the Past Master and Most Excellent Master Degrees on May 3, and the Royal Arch Degree on May 10. These degree nights are all on Thursday nights at 7:30. Companions, although part of this work will be over as you read this, do make that special effort to come up and watch the work, as it is rather disorienting to the candidates not to see their officers to see no one sitting along the sidelines. Our dinner menu for Stated Meeting Night May 17, will be a fish fry, as usual it will be served at 6:15 so we can enjoy a leisurely meal. On April 12, we had the pleasure of conferring the Most Excellent Master Degree on a candidate from the Geneva Chapter, as they do not have facilities of conferring this degree in full form.

 We wish to thank Sir Knight Harold O. Martin for arranging the beautiful Knights Templar Service at the Scottish Rite Auditorium, Em. Sir Knight

Harry Haller for planning and serving breakfast for so many people following the service, the Reverend A. Kenneth Timmons for his very fine message, the Mishpah Shrine Chanters for their beautiful and impressive singing Sir Knight James W. Allen for playing the organ, the Scottish Rite for the use of their facilities, All Sir Knights who served as ushers and the hundreds of people who attended the service.

About fifty people from the Allen County Home were guests of the Commandery for the Easter Service and breakfast. Our thanks to Sir Knights Carter Palmer and Myron Millhorn for arranging the transportation and other details.

Our Order of Malta team was pleased to be asked to confer the Order of Malta at Angola on the evening of April 14th. A ham, beans and cornbread dinner was enjoyed afterwards.

The officers of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 will attend the One Hundred Eight Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana in Evansville May 10, 11 and 12. Our drill team will participate in the competitive precision drills May 12th with high hopes of winning first place again this year.

At the Grand Commandery Banquet at the National Guard Armory, 201 South Rutherford Street, on the evening of May 12th will be the completion of the installation of the Grand Officers and the presentation of awards. Tickets for this banquet are $2.00 per person, and reservation requests must be made with your commander before May 3rd.

Any Sir Knights and their families who wish to attend all or part of the Grand Conclave in Evansville and be with the Fort Wayne group are asked to contact Em. Commander Jack Walker for information and reservations before May 3rd.

Don't forget our All Order Day Saturday, May 26th. The illustrious Order of the Red Cross will be conferred in the fifth floor auditorium beginning at 2:00 p.m. followed by the Order of Malta. The Order of the Temple will follow the 6:00 p.m. banquet. Tickets for the banquet will be $1.50 per plate. Contact your commander for reservations.

Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 will have a fish fry Friday, June 5th, from 4:00-7:00 p.m. in the first floor dining room. Master Masons, their families and guests are welcome. All the fish you can eat. Donation, $1.00 for adults, 75 cents for children under twelve.

The Ascension Day Service for our Sir Knights and their families will be at the Wallen Baptist Church (the Reverend William F. Russell) June 3rd at 10:30 a.m. Sir Knights are asked to wear their uniforms. Those not having uniforms are urged to attend the service anyway. Any Sir Knight who would like transportation is asked to call Em. Commander Jack Walker.

REMEMBER

Stretch forth your hands whenever necessary to assist a brother with counsel and advice.

Sooth the anguish of his soul and betray no confidence he imposes in you. Support him with your authority—use your utmost endeavors to prevent him from falling.

Relieve his wants as far as you are able without injuring yourself or your family.

You are connected by solemn promises—let those always be so remembered as to direct your actions—for them, and then, and only, will you preserve your conscience void of offense, and prepare that firm cement of utility and affection which time will have no power to destroy.

The State Conclave is coming up June 30 through July 2. This year it is being held in Indianapolis and promises to be one of the biggest and best Conclaves yet put on. During Conclave time we have a chance to meet the De Molays from all over the state and get the chance to "strike up" lasting friendships. Also we are running our Chapter Sweetheart, Miss Brenda Drill, for the State Sweetheart title. Let us (the members of the Chapter) make sure the title of State Sweetheart is in Fort Wayne next year.

On May 23 the last Initiatory Degree will be conferred upon the largest class this term. On June 13th DeMolay Degree will be put on by the State De Molay Degree Champions. On June 15th the installation of the Officers will be conferred along with the Chevalier Degree and the Representative De Molay Awards. Hope to see you there.

Our hearty regards go out to Bill Branstrator Jr., who recently received the nomination for the Chevalier Degree. The Chevalier Degree is the highest honor a De Molay can receive. It is an award for outstanding service to De Molay and the community. This degree is given upon advice of the local Advisory Council after which time the Supreme Council Executive Officer of that jurisdiction also gives his recommendation Bill is the present State Senior

The place to look for evidence that you are a Mason is not in the head where memory of rituals, grips, signs, and tokens may be retained, but in the heart from whence will flow the healing streams of brotherly love, generosity, kindness, patience, and goodwill. If these are found you will know your Masonic fellowship has borne good fruit and you are in fact a Mason.—Masonic Chronicle.

MY LODGE

(The Masonic Monthly)
 I want my lodge to be a place where I can always find an abundance of love, understanding and kindness.

I want my Lodge to be composed of well informed brothers, brothers who appreciate the privilege of being Masons, and who are over willing to devote their time and talents to the welfare of the Lodge, and to the well-being of its members.

I want my Lodge to be a place in which I can acquire Light and more Light: a place where the officers are ever aware of their responsibilities; who are proficient in the work and who keep in mind that there is a great deal more to Masonry than the ritualistic ceremonies.

I want my Lodge to have a system of instruction so that each of our members can grow in Masonic knowledge.

I want my Lodge to have that atmosphere of reverence, and quiet dignity, which is in keeping with the Plan of Masonry.

I want my Lodge to carefully investigate every petitioner for the degrees so that we may be quite sure that the material we accept will add strength to Masonry.

I want to think, act and walk in life so that I may be worthy of membership in my Lodge, and to help make it the kind of Lodge I want it to be.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all the brothers who helped to make our meeting of April 12th a success.

We had 40 present for the banquet entitled Centy plus 3. I think everyone enjoyed the delicious dinner. Those of you who couldn't attend missed a treat. We had a very informative discussion on the history of the lodge and honored some of the grand old men of the past. It is like our master of Ceremonies Don Chaffin expressed, it is hard to pick our particular members who may have done a great deal for the lodge. I expect each of us can pick out some brother who we think has impressed us very much, and has been a great influence in our lives. It was very gratifying to know that there were nine different lodges represented at this meeting.

We surely appreciate the co-operation and the fellowship of these brothers.

Olive branch can be proud of the officers in the past they have kept a very just and accurate account of the minutes of their meetings for over 103 years.

Yes we are a very small lodge in number, but as I glanced around the hall I noted there were brothers there who had been faithful for many years in helping keep the light shining.

The record books show from whence we came. It is up to us as to whether we go. Let all of us attend as often as possible our Regular meetings are the 2nd Thursday of the month. Hoping to see a good many present at our May meeting visiting brothers are cordially invited to share with us in this great and good work.

Brother, what kind of a mason are you? Are you one who wants to take all he can from the good name of Masonry, or one who gives of his time and talents to help make Masonry better for his fellow men. You can be sure that I will make every effort to make use of your talents, whatever they may be.

Every year through hard work our lodge is getting better and I am very proud of every member for their cooperation.

Our JW brother Norman Long, reports that there were 110 people in attendance at our potluck supper and ladies night. To the ladies we are very glad that they came and saw first hand, just what kind of fellows we are. To those of you who could not make it, all I can say is you missed a very enjoyable evening.

On Wednesday evening April 11 brother Jim Chapman gave us some good ideas and pointed out how our lodge building could be improved. Let's hope something can be done.

There is no degree work this month, but come down to your stated meeting May 2.

Your Master is looking forward to attending the Grand lodge at Indianapolis on May 15 and 16. I have never attended but feel this will be a very important year.

We are very glad to report that Brother Paul Harding is back at work. At this time there is no sickness among the members of our lodge, so do yourself a favor brother, and thank the good lord for all the blessings and comforts of life.

May is the Month that the Grand Lodge of Indiana convenes to take care of its business for another year. It will be the very pleasurable task of S.W. Jesse Jeffries and myself to journey to Indianapolis on the 15th and 16th to witness and participate in these actions. A very great event in our lives as well as the history of Masonry and Indiana.

The attendance register is looking much better, especially the stated meeting nights and I believe that we are all better off for it. Thank you for your support.

You may remember in one of my articles before, I mentioned the word "Wages" to you. I have been thinking about this since and feel that I must explain to you this word. Of course there are the symbols and emblems and metaphor which have all been explained to you but I maintain that the wages we receive are in every full and actual sense completely real, and have in them not one trace of fictitious valuation. I shall not try to list them all but merely remind you of a few of them. First item: the honor and satisfaction of being a full member in an ancient, honorable, and world-wide Fraternity. Item 2: if you are a regular Lodge worker, you have learned by heart and therefore have in your permanent possession the Ritual, which is worth a very high price, because of the language, the wisdom, the beauty in it. Item 3: you have millions of acquaintances wherever you go, because where two Masons meet, though they have never seen each other before, they are at once acquaintances. Item 4: you have in the Lodge itself a large group of men among whom you find companions, or associates, or colleagues of friends. Item 5: in whatever the Lodge accomplishes for, or Freemasonry means to, any man or community, part of it is your own; because Masons compose a Lodge, and you are one of them. Item 6: you have a social security of another kind from that offered by any government, one that is equally real and of as high a value, so that if you are unfortunate, relief will come; and if you pass on your descendants will not be forgotten. Item 7: we have the enjoyment of many occasions, no two alike, but especially the enjoyment of rich Masonic brotherhood in any meeting. Such is the nature of some of the wages of Masonry; a far different thing than the monetary meaning we attach to the word "wages." Which will you value most?

Our stated meeting in April was one which will long be remembered. After the normal business had been concluded a discussion was held concerning the building of a new Temple. It was generally agreed that this is something that must be done and since it will be a very long project with much work to be done by all of us we should wait no longer. I have asked that more discussion be held at our May meeting and I hope to serve the will of your Lodge by appointing a steering committee to report to the Lodge on all of the various problems which we must deal with in an endeavor of this magnitude. The opinions of several brothers were expressed and one point was left upper most in our minds that this is something not to be rushed into lightly, nor was it something to be shelved for months or years but rather we should make progress on it by slow, deliberate, sound thinking and action. We can only progress by having each and every one of you working with us. Be sure and make the May meeting. On April 19th we had a fellowship meeting with our families in the Lodge Dining Hall. Brother Alvin Tharp showed his slides of his Alaskan trip and afterwards a carry-in lunch was served. I wish to express my personal thanks to Brother Tharp for entertaining us with his beautiful slides.

May 26th is the date for our family night. Your reservation card will be coming to you soon by mail. Please fill it out and return it at the earliest possible date. Don't forget—This is your Lodge—Come labor with us.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Every man has three names. First—When he is born he inherits the family name, such as Smith, Jones, etc.

Second—When he is born someone gives him another name, or names, hoping that he will develop some of the characteristics of the one who has the same name, such as John, Walter or William.

Third—When he is born, he begins to make a name for himself. This name is most important and lasting. While he is living, he is known most intimately by the name he makes for himself. And the name he makes for himself is the name by which he will be remembered long after he has passed beyond the limits of this life.—The New Age

A MASTER MASON

Some years ago the Georgia Masonic Messenger editorialized as follows:

"I am thinking of a brother whom I have known for many years.

"He is quiet, modest and forever willing to do all the humble work of Masonry. He attended Lodge regularly for many years. He has never placed himself in a position of wanting to be 'appointed' to some office. He has never wanted to occupy the spotlight. When named on a committee, he does his work efficiently and silently. He is available as a F. C. in the M. M. Degree, and is content with that job.

"His name is always called when there are refreshments to be prepared and served. He accepts this responsibility with the same degree of pride that one accepts a high office.

"His loyalty to the Lodge is an inspiration. His love of Masonry is a challenge to all Masons.

"You know such a brother in your Lodge. He would never want his name mentioned, but you know him and I know him.

"Let's tell him Thanks."

LEARN TO FORGET

(Rocky Mtn. Consistory)

A good memory is a blessing, but if it is too good, it is not a blessing. There are things that we ought to remember, and other things that it is our duty to forget.

Train your mind to forget all cross words, all gossip, slander, all unkind looks and the invitation that you did not get. Forget the seeming carelessness of those who love you; they are sometimes too busy or too troubled to do all you desire.

Forget unpleasant things. By carrying them in your mind, you make it a chamber of horrors. Do not allow the wreckage of a month or a year to fill your mind with mental junk.

Train your memory for good things only, and train your "forgettery" for things which do you harm. Bad memories hurt us. Memories of good things build us up.

Learn to forget what is forgotten.

DEDICATED TO PEACE AND BROTHERHOOD

(Exchange)

An army of over 5,500,000 men is on the March throughout the world. They carry no weapons. They seek no territory. They destroy no cities. They hurt no population. They are Freemasons ringer around the globe, dedicated to peace and brotherhood. Wherever they practice their love and charity, countries flourish, schools and colleges develop youths for leadership. Their weapon is truth and light. Superstition, hatred, cruelty, justice, and inhumanity cannot be before their ranks. No wonder tyrants and despots, fanatics set snares for these 'beacons of light.' They foreshadow a fate for mankind's enemies — tolerance, love, understanding, and Ten Commandments — in action.

(Exchange)

Masonry promised me nothing except the opportunity for mental, spiritual growth and the opportunity to be servicable to God and man.

I came of my own free will and accord as all men in all ages have done. I was received as all others have been received in the ages past.

I learned that Masonry is interested in the character of man, in man's thinking, feeling, being.

I learned that Masonry is not a religion in the sense that we think of the church, but that it is a form of worship and the true ally of all religions. I found that one grows stronger in his own religion, whatever it may be, as the result of the Masonic and spiritual teaching of Masonry.

I learned the real meaning of duty, and that one's integrity of soul and soul is his most precious possession. All that I had learned before was enhanced by the manner in which Masonry teaches sublime lessons.

About me I see brothers, young in Masonry, others who have been Masons for many years. To me all I feel a bond of friendship and fellowship which is indescribable. I have the confidence of such a group of brothers, and to know that you joined to them by immutable bonds as you are to every Mason in the world, is indeed a priceless privilege.

All of this I learned; and I learned as well, that to maintain and perpetuate all that I have received must give back my best to Masonry and to society.

MASONRY TEACHES

The members of our great Fraternity do not claim much for Masonry, no more than its just due. Even our ancient brethren of yesteryear made such claims, we of today have the equal right to repeat those claims. Truths as were taught in Masonry centuries ago have not changed. What is right then is just as right today. Members of our beloved Craft have always been taught that Masonry is the friend of every good, and the enemy of every vice and wickedness; the foundations of Masonry rest upon the solid superstructures of true morality; that instead of being a foe to religion, it is its constant companion, and has been from the remotest time. It is the friend of the poor and the destitute, and the enemy of arrogance and inequality, the firm and unflinching advocate of loyalty and patriotism, and the avowed and determined foe of disloyalty and rebellion.

The army of Masons carries no banners nor death-dealing instruments of warfare; no halazoned shields precede it, no war-like trappings mark its members, the roaring guns proclaim no victories for us, in our hands the bayonet and sword would rust, and the god of war would severely reprimand us for deeds of murder left undone.

We, as Masons wage a battle of principles. As we have gone forward in our onward course, no man can say that Masonry has ever been the aggressor in any difference or dispute. Down through the ages members of our ancient and honorable Craft have stood firmly for the right, and by God's help, will continue to so stand until the end of time.

MASONRY HELPED MOLD AMERICA

Every line of America's history is written with Masonic ink, sweetened with Masonic love, blessed with Masonic brotherhood and reddened with Masonic blood and sacrifice.

Swim only a few highspots and you find Brethren making the American Dream, from Colonial days to these times of international peril.

There's Kit Carson, Lewis and Clark, Sam Houston, Davy Crockett, Ogilthorpe, Lindenberg, Samuel Compers, Luther Burbank, Tom Paine, John J. (Blackjack) Pershing, John Phillip Sousa, Irving Berlin, Clark Gable, Eddie Cantor, Will Rogers.

A long string of Presidents.

Generals from Washington and Robert E. Lee to McArthur, Ridgeway, Clark and Doolittle.

Admirals from Farragut to Halsey. Developers of men like coaches Alonzo A. Stagg, Andy Kerr, Dana Bible, Bernie Bierman.

Empire makers like Astor, Morgenthau Wanamaker, Mellon.

Yes, Masonry has molded America, made it tick and click, defined its great dream of Brotherhood, sent its message of hope and courage ringing throughout the world! Exch.

MONEY

If a man's after money, he's money-mad, if he keeps it, he's a capitalist, if he spends it, he's a playboy, if he doesn't get it, he's a ne'er-do-well, if he doesn't try to get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it, he's a parasite, and if he accumulates it after a lifetime of hard work, people call him a fool who never got anything out of life. —Digest Melbourne, Australia.

FORT WAYNE MAN HONORED BY GRAND LODGE

Clyde E. Flowers was honored by the Grand Lodge at their recent meeting and annual election, by being elected to serve for the coming year as Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Lodge of the State of Indiana.

Brother Flowers is a past master of Maumee Lodge, Fort Wayne. He is also very active in Fort Wayne Scottish Rite Masonry, having been honored by receiving the thirty third degree and serving for a number of years on the board of trustees of the Scottish Rite Body.

MASONRY, THE SAME AS OF OLD

Notwithstanding the youth of our great nation, as compared to many other nations, the United States contains more than two-thirds of the Masonic Lodges in the entire world. This fact alone, if no other argument existed, indicates the benign influence under which the Craft labors in this, our beloved country. The seed grown in good ground has brought forth, thirty, sixty and even a hundred fold.

Not as in days of yore, is it necessary for us to meet secretly. Nor do we have to placate a jealous monarch, or convince the profane of the rectitude of our intentions in order to enjoy royal favor. But temple after temple from one end of this land to the other, some of them rivaling in magnificence the temples of old, mark the place of convocations of the Craft. Each one is a shrine emblematic of the holy place where our Hebrew brethren offered up their devotions to the same God we still adore. And as long as we never fail to pay proper tribute to our Creator, Masonry will continue to be one of the greatest powers for good in the land.—Exch.

WHAT YOU SHOULD LEARN

There are five things in life which everyone ought to learn.

1. Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. When you smile or laugh, your brain for the moment is freed from the load that it ordinarily carries.

2. Learn to tell a helpful story. A well-told story is as wholesome and welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room.

3. Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to linger over your ills and sorrows.

4. Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in this world, keep the bad to yourself.

5. Learn to greet your friends with a smile. They carry too many frowns in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.—S. R. Herald.

GREATNESS

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams, as great as the love he bears, as great as the values he redeems and the happiness he shares. A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks, as the worth he has attained, as the foundations at which his spirit drinks, and the insight he has gained. A man is as great as the truth he speaks, as great as the help he gives, as great as the destiny he seeks, as great as the life he lives.

Brothers, we are now starting the last month before the summer vacation period. We have two petitions to vote on, let's have a good attendance for this month.

We wish to welcome into the fellowship of the Lodge Wilbur E. Wilson, who is now a Master Mason. May he enjoy all the pleasures and duties of a fine Masonic Life!

On Saturday, June 9th, Wayne Lodge will have a family picnic at Shoaff Park River Lodge. The time will be 4:30 p.m. Those families attending are asked to bring a meat dish (preferably chicken), a vegetable and/or a dessert, and their own table service. The Lodge will furnish coffee, milk, pop, bread, butter, and a supply of napkins. We hope to have a very good crowd, as many people have asked that this family event be resumed.

Don't forget Monday, June 18th, is Vet's Hospital Visitation Night, at 7:30 p.m. I hope everyone who can get out will make this final visit before the Fall season.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the family of John F. Fulk, who passed away at his home in Danville, Illinois. The Danville Lodge conducted the Masonic burial service, and we offer them our thanks.

Brother Paul Garrison underwent surgery on his throat, for a growth on his vocal cords, and is progressing very nicely at home. To any of our other Brethren who are ill, we wish them a speedy recovery, and strength to bear their misfortune.

We are very grateful to the family of Charles Knothe for the excellent set of Mackey's Revised History of Freemasonry, in seven volumes, and a two-volume set of Mackey's Revised Encyclopedia. These books, when appropriately inscribed on the frontpiece of each, will be placed in the Temple Library, for the information of all Masons. It is a wonderful memorial to Brother Knothe.

I regret that as Master of the Lodge, I was unable to attend Grand Lodge this year. I started a new job on the 14th of May, and it was necessary that I be at work for the week of Grand Lodge. Wayne Lodge was amply represented by Senior Warden St. Hartings, as my proxy, accompanied by Junior Warden Forrest Finnell. From my past experience, I have no doubt that they had a very enjoyable and informative time.

Brothers, don't forget to attend Stated Meetings during the months of July and August. The business of the Lodge must continue, even during vacation period. Have a restful Summer, and come back to Lodge in September 'arin' to go!

When was the last time you and your family were to a family potluck? Do you know that it's been nearly two years? June is going to be family potluck month. You will want to take this opportunity to bring your entire family for food, fun and fellowship. Coffee, bread, and milk will be furnished by the Lodge. All that you need is dishes and silverware plus whatever your wife or yourself wishes to prepare, mainly food. We will be looking forward to seeing you June 21 Thursday.

We had a wonderful time during the 14th annual past Masters Night. Here are those who attended. Worshipful Brothers: Ward Bailey, Charles C. Scott, Kendall C. Freck, Robert S. Dumford, Curtis K. Heston, Lewis G. Davison, Cyrus D. Senger, Albert E. White, Hoyt Q. Campbell, Delbert R. Dennis and Albert Fisher. We thank all those who made this evening a success.

We will have work during the month of June, so follow your Calendar. Here is the schedule: May 22, Tuesday officers practice 7:30 p.m.; May 29, Tuesday Officers Practice 7:30 p.m.; June 5, Tuesday Officers Practice 7:30 p.m.; June 12, Stated Meeting 7:30 p.m.; June 19, EA Degree; June 26, FC Degree; July 3, MM Degree with Dinner at 6:30 p.m.; July 10, Stated Meeting 7:30 p.m.

Remember family Potluck is on Thursday June 21. We pray God's healing hands upon Brother Brake, who is at the Lutheran Hospital, room 325. He appreciates your visits so much. Why not try to surprise him by calling on him in person?

Veteran's visit is coming this month. We hope that you will take this opportunity and support your Senior Warden, Tom Franklin, in this worthy cause. We wish to welcome into our Brotherhood Charles Wilber Charles.

We are looking for many good results from this fine Brother.

Our golf outing and supper at the Kendallville Country Club, on June 9th, is an annual affair of Maumee Lodge and as usual we are expecting a large crowd of golfers (?) to be on hand. This golf outing has been arranged for us this year by Doc Delp and his able assistants, who each year seem to give us a little better program than we had the year before. Thanks to all who participated in this program.

Your Lodge has been extremely active the first half of this year. It almost seems impossible that vacation time is here and soon our brethren will be dispersed to many different sections of the country enjoying a well deserved rest and time out to enjoy the pleasures of relaxation.

Reflecting on the progress of your lodge thus far this year, we see that we have raised 20 new Master Masons and have added an additional 10 by affiliation. This has given your officers and the Fellowcraft team ample opportunity to demonstrate their abilities in the degree work, and they have proven that they are able to handle each degree with accuracy and efficiency.

Looking forward to the rest of the year we know that we can count on the same continued support, which makes our efforts so much more enjoyable. Thank you each and every one for your participation. We would like to recognize two of Maumee's Past Masters at this time; Brother Clyde Flowers who was elected Senior Grand Warden At Grand Lodge in May, and Brother Shirley Sholer who was elected to the line of officers in Scottish Rite. We are sincerely proud of all our brethren who are treading round after round up that ladder that leads to fame in our mystic circle.

Though our lodge will be dark in July and August, except for stated meetings, we shall resume work again in September. As we have many exciting plans for this fall we hope that each of you has a very pleasant vacation, and that you will return refreshed and ready to become a part of the activities here at Maumee when lodge resumes in September.

Just one parting thought by Ken Keller.

Join the great company of who make the barren places of fruitful with kindness. Carry a load of heaven in your hearts, and shall make your home, your corner of the world, correspond to that of you. Your success and happiness are yours. External conditions are the accidents of life, its outer trappings. The great, enduring realities are and service. Joy is the holy fire keeps our purpose warm and intelligence aglow. Resolve to be happy, and your joy and your form an invincible host against difficulty.

This will be the last meeting of the Craft until September as we not have degree work in July, August, only stated meetings.

Last month we introduced our brethren to the teachings of Master We welcome our newly raised Master Masons Bill Sheaffer and Charles Hirschy to the Craft. We will have degree work in June, as indicated at the time of this meeting so come and take part in the work brethren.

I would like to mention again the date of our Tri-State Meeting is September 29 and 30. Read the issue of the Square and Compass or call Brother Charlie Winger, K-0772 for more information.

Our Guest Note will be history the time you read this, but there is well attended and we always receive a good dinner and fellowship.

To any ill brethren, we wish a speedy recovery. In case there be someone ill that we do not know about, please contact any of our Mason so that we might help in any way that we can. It is our duty to aid and succor a brother, for in these days of past the problems of each of us to be shared with one another all we have to do is be informed.

If there is anyone that may have any questions concerning the regulations of gaining admission of our Masonic Home at Fort Wayne you can call our very able and chairman of this committee, R.

Our Brother Fred Owen has been called to the Celestial Lodge above, and in his passing has gone a brother who contributed much to the Craft. Another Fred was the secretary of some Lodge for more than forty years, a record I am sure that is among the highest in the Craft. He survived by Mrs. Owen who resides at 810 Kinsmore. The Month of June, the first month of the Summer season, is the sixth month of the year. June, the month of roses, was named by the Romans in honor of the stately Juno, queen of the Gods.

An old tradition assigns the agate Chalcedony as the jewel, and the rose-suckle as the flower of the month.

We will have work in June, and no man ever grasped the full significance of the principles of Freemasonry by simply receiving the degrees. Because a great deal of our work has come down from the past because there is much therein that is symbolic—because the circumstances under which the degrees are conferred are not conducive to clearness of thought—and finally because the degrees are all too carelessly conferred, the degrees, are some of the reasons why every lodge should be a school of or for instruction on the subject of Masonic ritual and principles.

The results of our failure in this respect are manifest. We have what is called Masonic illiteracy. There are a great many who have received the degrees who have no real idea as to what a Freemason really is.

Come to lodge during June and the months to follow and help us demonstrate what Masonry is.

Stated Meeting—First Wednesday

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Junior Warden, Walter Kroeger, and his committee for the job they did on our Charter Ladies Night Dinner. I'm sure who attended enjoyed the fine dinner and entertainment they arranged for us. The speaker for the evening was our Junior Past Master, Walter Walker, whose speech on the "Wonderous World of Words," was enthusiastically received.

on Galley 6

At this writing we have two brothers who have taken their Entered Apprentice Degree and by the time this column is read will in all probability be traveling among us as Master Masons. We have no candidates for June but during the month of June our Fellowcraft Club will be holding practice. This would be a fine time for anyone interested in any part in the degree work to get started. If you are interested in taking a more active part in your lodge please call S-5639.

By the time this column has reached you your Master will have attended Grand Lodge and returned with his report on its proceedings. I hope you can be present at our stated meeting in June to hear this report.

This will be the last article for the summer as there will be no Square and Compass in July and August, but remember we will have our stated meetings those two months so please try to be present.

See you in lodge?

Second Monday

Greetings Brothers. Your Master is just about ready to embark on a journey to the Southlands . . . Indianapolis, that is, where the Grand Lodge of Indiana will be convening. By the time your Square and Compass arrives at your home, I shall have returned with a great store of inspiration and knowledge.

We all regret the passing of Brother Robert Bumke. We extend our deepest sympathy to his family, and offer the services of South Gate Lodge at any time a request is made to us for such services. Masonic Memorial Services were conducted. He had attended the Past Master's Banquet the evening before. He will ever be in our hearts.

Chestnut Street in Salem, Massachusetts, at a casual glance, seems to be the same as any neat, well-kept, residential area. However, a careful look reveals that for a distance of about three blocks, each doorway entrance is different. A second careful look shows that the houses have all stood for more than a century and are kept in a remarkably good state of repair.

There is a history back of the houses on this particular street which is interesting. As settlers came to this area from their native country and locality, they recognized the fact that they soon would be like each other with similar dwellings. This thought led them to decide that each would send to his native community for a door or entry way for the home in a new land. Each new resident of this area, on Chestnut Street sent or returned home and brought the door and entry way of his choice. Today they appear strangely different from those of the modern housing only a short distance away. Though different, the visitor is struck with a glaring truth; namely, that we sometimes will need to dare to be different if we are to preserve some things that are dear to us. To these people it was the memory of a native land.

Let us look at ourselves and see what doors are open to us. As I watched the development of South Gate this year I wondered how each of us would receive it. What would we think of our Lodge? To what limits would we go to keep it? And what would be our purpose for being here?

All through life there are doors, so to speak, for us to open. Many of these appear to be alike as in the new housing area close to Chestnut Street. Then, too, there are those which are different. We imagine there are signs on them, and one person enters where he sees "The Quick Way to Fame and Fortune"; another tries the door upon which he imagines the sign, "A Sure Road to Easy Living." While still another tries one upon which he thinks the sign reads, "A Short Cut to Get By."

To the disappointment and amazement of these it is found there are many who have crowded through these doors, each with the sole purpose of getting all he can but doing nothing but wishing for an easy road. Again the vast majority of the group realizes that there are but few who really get that for which they came.

There is a careful person who has learned to work and plan. As he studies the doorways that are different, he notices the path less worn to one. Upon this door the sign simply reads, "Opportunity." Upon opening this door, the newcomer can easily see in the crowd doctors, ministers, scientists, teachers, and a list of others who readily reach out to help him. The newcomer is then told that the door of opportunity is open to all, but only those enter who are willing to work and share. Those who enter by this door know the things which have been most helpful to them are the examples and materials that have been made available by the many who have gone before.

The reality of entering the doors that are open during one's life becomes clear when at the door of opportunity the newcomer realizes "It's up to each one who enters." There are really no short cuts that can guarantee real success, but to become that person who will be proud to be, you will make the best use of that opportunity that is yours. This may even require that we dare to be different from the crowd at times and build doorways to our lives that have real meaning.

Beans and cornbread (Mrs. Faye Brennan style) were enjoyed by all who attended our Saturday morning Master Mason degree on April 28th. Our Junior Warden especially seemed to enjoy them. Need I say how I know?

Congratulations and a hearty welcome to our new brothers, Charlie Walter Chastain and Richard Erwin Crowder who received the Master Mason degree on the twentieth-eighth.

Brothers, please make your investigations promptly and get your report turned in to the secretary on time when you are placed on a committee for investigation of a petitioner. It is not fair to either the lodge or the petitioner to put off or neglect this responsibility. Let us see if we can't do better next month.

We have had degree work every month so far this year and have welcomed twelve new members into our fraternity.

I have just learned that Brother Jesse Miller has returned to Fort Wayne. Brother Miller is ill at home and will report further as to his condition, later on this month.

Those of you who have not visited Lodge for some time should come on an inspection of the Temple, especially of the Ionic Room and Corinthian Rooms. The Ionic Room has been repainted, the Corinthian Room is being painted. The check room and ladies lounge in the basement have been cleaned, painted and new mirrors, chairs, etc. placed in the ladies room.

Our trustees and the entire staff of the Temple should be commended for their part in the creation of the "New Look." Anyone can be proud to conduct a visitor on a tour of our facilities.

Vacation time is near and as we take off on our vacation trips and lake outings always keep in mind the virtues and tenets of the fraternity. It is only by the way we live and act that those we contact can form a good opinion of Masonry.

May the Spirit of the Grand Architect of the Universe be with you and keep you safe, till we resume our labors in September.

EVERYDAY MASONRY

(Square & Compass, Denver)

A formula for living stated in the most simple terms is not always simple to put into practice. It must be studied carefully by the individual and practiced by the individual until it becomes a part of him.

In every teaching of Freemasonry there is that which is directly related to the highest ethical and religious truths, the very wisdom of the ages, but there is more—Masonry illustrates by symbols and conveys by allegory just how such teachings are to be used in a practical manner to govern the life of a Mason.

No teaching in itself is of any value unless we take it to our very hearts and discover for ourselves the genuine happiness that follows from the application of such teaching.

We may take a superior attitude toward some particular virtue that we have and fail entirely to grow in virtue because we refuse to see the beauty expressed in the lives of others.

We can crush another by a single sentence of unjust criticism or by idle gossip. We can kill the hopes and dreams of others by our envy at their preferment.

We can, on the other hand, apply Masonic teachings to everyday living and walk proudly as men and Masons. And, by so doing, the world will be convinced of the wonder and greatness of Freemasonry. Ray F. Akin—Grand Orator of Arizona

There seems not much doubt that what we need now is not more scientists and technologists, but more humanities. We need to educate the people to a broader understanding of the morality and sympathy needed for people to live together in peace and harmony. Instead of more leisure hours, which if used for personal enlightenment and charitable enterprise would be a goal well worth striving for, but which, so far, have proved to have a demoralizing effect on both young and old in morals and philosophy of life, we should find some compulsion to keep us gainfully occupied during more hours of the day. Voluntary compulsion in community work of practical usefulness would be a good answer and would create such an interest in the Fraternity that more intelligent and enterprising candidates would be knocking on our doors. Lectures on the moral lessons of the rituals and charges, as well as constructive discussion of basic principles, will, in my opinion, tend to solve the attendance problems which are faced by every Lodge. The potential of every Mason in every Community is a valuable asset and only needs the right spark to ignite it to action in unselfish service.

AND OUR TIMES

Masonic Messenger, Georgia

We have the ideals, the teachings, and the implements with which to build a temple of beauty, one that will defy the onslaught of time.What Masons of the past have given us as a priceless heritage, we must be willing to use generously and unceasingly.The trend today is for people to look outside themselves, to dwell on all that is taking place, and from that viewpoint to consider morality as a collective abstract thing, while overlooking solid and indefeasible truths, which time does not alter.The task that we have as Masons may seem a difficult one. Yet in every age Masons have used Masonry as a stabilizing force, as a reminder that man cannot lightly dismiss those things which identify him as a spiritual being. We dare not lose ourselves in a web of materialism.Our Masonry must be truly revealed by our unswerving trust and faith, and our zeal must be demonstrated by our increased enthusiasm for the practice of Masonic principles and by our stubborn attachment to those principles which must never be consumed by fear or by apathy.We can be a part of all that is about us we can be interested in passing events, and yet see beyond the present.We may not impress others by what we proclaim, but we cannot fail to impress them by what we are.This is our work for our times.
What we have is not a gift to be placed on exhibition, but a responsibility to discharge.While others may discuss morality and ethics as theories, the Ma-son must reveal their true meanings by the daily practice of the tenets and teachings of Freemasonry.FELLOWCRAFT DEGREESince Masonry is a progressive science, there is always progress apparent in each degree. So it is in the Middle Chamber Ceremony, for ceremony is it. What the candidate does is ceremony, what he hears is the lecture. Here as in all degrees, the progress is upward. Both sacred and profane history relates that in King Solomon's Temple there was a set of steps or winding stairs, beginning at the porch and rising to the Middle Chamber where, once a week, workmen received wages consisting of corn, wine, and oil.WHAT IS MASONRY TODAY?Whatever may have been the origin or purpose of Masonry matters but little at this time. Whether in its primitive form it merely fulfilled the purpose of a trade union, or rising to a higher plane it taught the workmen that the tools with which they wrought were endowed with symbolic significance in the building of character, is, after all, of but little importance. The momentous question is what is Freemasonry today?
The pre-historic age lies far behind us, never to return. The present is ours. So let us of today live and act by the Masonic application of the tools of our art. By so doing we shall raise for ourselves an imperishable monument of virtue and morality. When this living present shall have become the dead and distant past, it is the desire of the true and loyal votaries of the Craft that the student of Masonic lore shallfind in us an example worthy imitation, and derive a new impetus from the work we have donePUBLIC RELATIONS
(In Masonic Tribune, Wash.)
By Robert C. Hill, P.M.In modern business, a favorable public opinion is regarded as a valuable asset. The time is gone when industrial tycoons selfishly ignored rights of others and arbitrarily their way in defiance of the public welfare.Times have changed. Public relations today are planned with and zealously developed. Bibb as a rule, tries to meet the wishes demands of its customers. The public relations department has become an important cog in present day business, is it not equally true other phases of this modern world?The Grand Lodge of California recognized this trend by creating Committee on Masonic Information
Grand Master Alfred F. Brelsstates: "Its objectives will be to provide the press with data concern-the activities of Grand Lodge. No items and pictures are prepared, distributed to news channels for publication. There is no doubt that public relations will result from service, as the general public have a better opportunity to know something of the positive approach our Fraternity."The need of such a service is evidenced by the garbled accounts Masonic activities as published in daily press. These errors are not intentional but are due to lack of real information or knowledge of sonic procedure. Writing Maso-news is an art in itself. To successful the writer must have Masonic background and long experience.Masonry has nothing to hide has much to offer of general interest. This idea of a committee to seminate authentic Masonic information merits deep consideration close study by all Masonic bodies is well worth a try.TO THYSELF BE TRUE
Masonic ChronicleOne of the most profound thoughts

I will not hurry through this day!
Lord, I will listen by the way,
To humming bees and singing birds,
To murmuring trees and friendly words;

And for the moments in between Seek glimpses of Thy great Unseen.

Past Matron's and Past Patron's night was truly a lovely evening. So many "Memories" returned to all of us as each guest was introduced.
May was our birthday month and as we celebrated our 44th birthday we took great pride in honoring our charter members as well as our mothers. The candle of carnations made a lovely decoration for the occasion which now is another beautiful "Memory."

The many interesting reports of those who attended Grand Chapter assured us that the session was another most wonderful one. It was very gratifying to see so many members, visitors and guests on the sidelines and your support is most humbly appreciated.

Members ill: Laura Gildea, William Norris, Emma Welch, Charles Marker, Henry McIntosh, Genieve Sheets,

"I wonder if we aren't a little bit pushy in all our efforts to land on distant planets without an invitation. Apparently celestial visitors don't come our way in flying saucers don't like what they see. They keep on going."

Mrs. Robert Brecount Recorder
4206 Avondale H-5675

Mrs. James Todd Pub. Ch.
6903 Edgebrook Dr. H-69381

A good deed is never lost, he who sows courtesy reaps friendship, and he who plants kindness gathers love.

Two more meetings and we will be closing our Assembly doors until September. On June 5th we will exemplify the work with a proxy candidate. June 19 will be our last assembly. There will be no sewing in June.

On June 14 Fort Wayne Assembly has been invited to attend Indiana Night at South Bend, anyone wishing to attend will please contact the Recorder.

We are happy to report that Sister Dorothy Lyman is recuperating at home after a really rough time in the hospital. Here's hoping we will see her in Assembly in the fall.

Others in Assembly on the sick list are: Sisters Doris Carey, Rebecca Joseph, Hilda Fuzy, Violet Sapp and Olive Greer. Illness in the family:
Daughter of Thelma Kayser. Deaths in the family: Brothers of sisters Dorothy Gramling and Elsie Ashton and the aunt of Sister Anondas Marvel. To those who are ill, we wish a speedy and full recovery.
Our deepest sympathy to those in sorrow.

Vacation—that magic word bringing thoughts to all of fun at the lake —a motor trio or just relaxing at home. Whatever it means to you, we hope it's a wonderful summer and that you will return in the fall refreshed and full of enthusiasm for the many activities ahead. First on the list—Pot Luck the first Assembly in September. See you there? Until then, have fun, drive carefully and adieu.

WAKE UP AND LIVE

If you are not getting the kick out of living you think you should be getting, if you feel you are in a rut, if life is getting awfully dull—here is a trick that will do wonders for you! It will shock you awake like a cold shower. It will provide new zest, unexpected exhilaration. It will bring you a fascinating succession of personal challenges—with the odds of winning better than ever.

Whatever you are doing—running a business, writing a sonnet, teaching a child, planting a garden, operating a machine, packing a suitcase, helping a friend, trying to keep your wife happy, investing your money, telling a story, saying your prayers—whatever you are doing—stop in your tracks—often—and ask yourself this exciting question: How can this be done better? The Little Gazette

At a recent meeting of Anthony Wayne Court No. 3, the following officers were installed: Royal Matron, Frances Adams; Royal Patron, Ned Biddle; Associate Matron, Norma Jean Miller; Associate Patron, Glenn S. Myers; Treasurer, Elyth Smiley; Secretary, Georgia Garrett; Conductress, Blanche Gebert; Associate Conductress, Ethel Bieghley; Third Year Trustee, Ruby McDowell; Standard Bearer, Amelia Brown; Marshal, East, Edna Biddle; Marshal West, Ivena Henemyer; Prelate, Robert Chevalier; Musician, Dorothea DeForest; Truth, Iva Schieffer; Faith, Ruth Hensel; Wisdom, Anne Robinson; Charity, Anna Rush; Historian, Edgar DeForest; Warder, Lana Place; Sentinel Robert G. McClure.

P. G. R. P. Alfred O. Schell acted as Installing Officer, assisted by: P.R.M. Hazel Dehler, Installing Marshal; P. R. P. Albert Douglass, Aide to the Marshal; P. G. R. M. Esther L. Cook, Prelate; P. G. R. M. Mary Ellen Sible, Mistress of Ceremonies; and Grand Associate Matron Jeannette Hartough of Indianapolis as Coronating Matron.

Royal Matron Frances named her Committee Chairmen for the year as follows: Cheer Committee, Anne Forst and Blanche Gebert; Decoration Committee, Anne Robinson; Program Committee, Norma Jean Miller, and Doris Thiebolt; Social Committee, Anne Galbreath; Ways and Means Committee, Ruby McDowell and Elyth Smiley.

The Stated Meeting held May 2nd was really action-packed. First, the Ritualistic Degrees were conferred upon Anna Mildred Galbreath, charming daughter of Past Royal Matron Anna May Galbreath.

Held a Special Installation, inducting H. L. Elyth Smiley as Treasurer. (In case some of you didn't know, H. L. Elyth and her husband Guy, were sojourning in Europe, visiting their son Dale Wayne, who is stationed in France). And, climaxed the busy evening a most delightful Mother's Day Program was presented by the Program Chairman, 'Jeanie', assisted by Iva Schieffer and her daughter Beatrice Koch. Appropriate music by Dorothea DeForest, organist and Geraldine Boldt, guest soloist.

May 16th, The Ritualistic Memorial Service was presented eulogizing Fortney, Honored Ladies Pearl Helour departed members: S. K. Frank mer, Osel Marie Couch and Catherine Fries. Also H. L. Iva Couch, Junior Past Grand Royal Matron.

"As they neared the end of Life's journey, A voice seemed to whisper "Come" Gentle, sweet and persuasive Tenderly calling them on."

May 27-28-29 the 19th Annual Session of the Indiana Grand Court convened at the Terre Haute House in Terre Haute. Royal Matron Frances and several of Anthony Wayne members attended, all reported having a wonderful time. Come out to the June 6th meeting and hear the delegates report on the proceedings of this Grand Court Session. It should be very interesting. Also, we will honor Anthony Wayne Courts Grand appointments.

June 15th the Ways and Means Committee are sponsoring a Run-nage Sale at 2031 South Lafayette Street. Anyone having articles for this sale please call Emma Schell, H-2773 or Georgia Garrett, K-1101 for pick-up.

June 20th, Stated Meeting. July and August will be vacation months; Court opening again in the fall, September 5th with our annual Pitch-in supper.

All Committees are busy working on the Courts activities and projects. Ways and Means have several projects in the offing and solicit the support of each and every member.

We are planning on the Birthdate Calendar again this year. Also, the Round-Robin Home Card Parties, which were so successful in the past, will be resumed, starting with the Kickoff at McDowell's Square Dance Barn on the Seddlemeyer Road, May 19th at 8 p.m. For each of these projects, all members will be contacted personally.

Deaths: Husband of H.L. Charlotte Taylor.

Best Wishes for a speedy recovery to all who are ill. Our deepest sympathy to those in sorrow and congratulations to the Alton Whites on that new grandson and to Ferol and Lloyd Van Buskirk who are grandparents again.

Meeting Dates of Committees: Cheer, 2nd Monday at 1:30 p.m., Decoration and Social Committees, 4th Monday at 8 p.m., Program, 3rd Thursday at 8 p.m., Ways and Means, 2nd Wednesday at 8 p.m.

BRING HIM BACK

How many do you think—in the United States tonight—would go to lodge if someone who is in regular attendance would use a little persuasion to get him to go? You owe it to the Fraternity as a whole and your lodge in particular to introduce members who for any reason have become apathetic. Don't greet them with that hello stranger technique, but accept him back with that warm feeling of friendship and brotherly love.—Kansas Masonic Digest.

Truth Court No. 21 celebrated Past Officers night on May 9th with the following Past taking part: Royal Matron, H.L. Louise Wilkerson; Royal Patron S.K. Edward Abousamra, Associate Patron S.K. William Maxwell, Conductress H.L. Geraldine Boldt, Associate Conductress H.L. Bertha Clear, Prelate S.K. Oliver Boldt and S.K. Robert McClure as sentinel. H.L. Helen McClure, protemmed as Secretary. They all did fine work and we thank them for their efforts.

The first Officers meeting was held at the home of Royal Matron H.L. Bessie Myers and elected the following members to serve this year, President H.L. Lucy Shedron, and H.L. Bivian Mohnensmith Secretary-Treasurer. The next meeting will be combined with our Picnic on June 2nd at Betteles cottage on Loon Lake northwest of Columbia City.

We are glad to report that all our sick are improving and hope to see them out to our next meeting. Grand Court will be held at Terre Haute on May 26th thru May 29th and would like to have a good representation from our local Court there.

Don't forget the Grand Court Picnic to be held in Peru July 29th. Enjoy your vacation and come back next September to Court with vim and vigor to make things hum.

ANOTHER DEFINITION OF MASONRY

Freemasonry, in its broadest and most comprehensive sense, is a system of morality and social ethics, a primitive religion, and a philosophy of life, all of simple and fundamental character, incorporating a broad humanitarianism, and through treating life as a practical experiment, subordinates the material to the spiritual. It is a religion without a creed, being of no sect but finding Truth in all. It is moral but not self-righteous. It demands sanity rather than sanctity. It is tolerant but not supine. It seeks truth but does not define truth. It urges its members to think but does not tell them what to think. It despises ignorance but does not condemn the ignorant. It fosters education but proposes no curriculum. It espouses political liberty and the dignity of man but has no platform or propaganda. It believes in the nobility and the usefulness of life. It is moderate, universal and so liberal as to permit each individual to form and express his own opinion, even as to what Freemasonry is or ought to be, and invites him to improve it if he can.

—Oklahoma Mason

TO LEARN—TO BE (The Scottish Rite Torch)

One does not come into Masonry to demonstrate his mastery of a certain subject. He comes to learn more.

Every Mason understands that the importance of learning in Masonry is associated with the importance of doing and being. After all we can give the world only what we are.

Our advancement in Masonry cannot be measured by our ability to acquire facts, but rather it must be measured by our ability to use what we learn to the advantage of society.

The Mason who feels that he has arrived in Masonry, has reached a dead-end street.

This subject is important, not because it represents the opinion of any individual but because it is the solid ground upon which Masonry forever erects its Temple.

We speak of Masonic Fellowship. Here, too, is a condition that results from an association of men who strive to learn and to be. Fellowship is a hollow word unless it reflects basic reasons for its existence.

The entire structure of Freemasonry rests upon the desire and willingness of the Mason to improve himself by learning.

GOD AND MASONRY (Old Glory Gleanings)

Everything in Masonry is due to God, implies God, is of God, and points and leads to God.

Not a degree, not a symbol, not an obligation, not a lecture, not a charge, but finds its meaning in the fact that it is a part of the Universe, God the Father, Humanity, its solidarity and the earth, God the Maker of heaven and earth and all that in them is, Whom silence is eloquent and derisive worship.

Every lodge is erected to God, dedicated to holy Saints and in God's name, seeking to His will the design upon its board.

No initiate enters a lodge without kneeling and confessing his first trust in God, Whose law is the foundation of fraternity.

The greatest symbol in Masonry is the triangle, the oldest emblem in history and faith of Under His arching sky, upon friendly earth where man goes to his labor, Masonry toils for Glory of God.

A WAY OF LIFE

By H. Odis Garth

Masonry is a way of life in sense of the word. It is a philosophy that gives us a basis for solving all our problems, both personal and collective. It is dynamic, and will grow in strength and timeliness in direct proportion to use. It is fundamental, in the rules are clear. It is simple that the basic principles are in number. It is practical, because success has been proven through centuries. It is right and just, because faith in God is its cornerstone. Its principles are God-inspired. Masonry is a way of life! To practice it is not just to preach, because without practice is "a tale told by an idiot full of sound and fury signifying nothing." Masonry is a way of life! To defend—because which is right, just and true, subject to the attacks of the forces of darkness and evil. The Great Masonry was brought to us, the great trials and tribulations, by those who have gone before us. It is duty and privilege to preserve Light so that we may pass a brightening torch of Masonic standing to generations yet to come. Masonry is a way of life! To perpetuate—by offering that light of understanding to others but attempting to compel the acceptance of it. If we live it, and emphasize its principles fully in our lives, we become irresistibly desirable to And so, in the words of Tennyson, "The whole round earth is way, bound by gold chains about feet of God."

A TRUSTEE

Masonry is a trustee with the most sacred trusts ever placed in man. The impulse of the great upbuilding of the human soul. Human life on the earth, speak in God's great universal pilgrimage to a higher end. The journey of life from the cradle to the tomb is a continual search for truth. On this pilgrimage no man can go alone. Every Master on life's journey is to some his brother's keeper. As a trustee holds the teachings and lessons of Masonry in trust for the benefit of all mankind. A trustee is therefore, in one who, it is thought, best carry out his purpose. It is permitted to join Masonry if it is thought he will perpetuate principles and carry out his duty.

Richard Baker, to them, we extend our Heartiest welcome, and hope to see all of you in Chapter often.

There will be no family picnic this year, due to the lack of interest shown in the last two, that we have had. It seems that there are so many picnics in the summer, that folks just get tired of them.

Our menu for the dinner on the night of our Stated Meeting night of June 2nd, will be a smorgasbord, with dishes especially suited to hot weather.

We near the end of the season of the Chapter (we are dark in June and August), we pause to look backward and find that the Chapter has had a busy season and the prospects for the next season look good.

Our April meeting, we conferred the Mark Master Degree on Wm. Wright and Harmon, and our May meeting conferred Past Master and Most Excellent on the 25th. The Royal Arch Degree will be conferred on June 1st with our final meeting on the 1st.

There will be no dinner before June Stated meeting but a social thing is planned after the stated meeting, at the home of our High Priest, Eugene McKeekin, 5938 E. Drive.

Speaking of dinners, an excellent one was served at our May Stated meeting by Companion Dick Dueter. You at our meetings.

We wish to thank Drill Corps President S. K. Dick Peden, Em. S.K. Harry Haller, Commandant, and all of the members of the drill team who participated in the competitive drills during the Grand Conclave at Evansville, May 12.

We didn't win first place this year, but the team made a remarkable showing and can be proud of its efforts. We know that we can't win them all. Competition is rough and is becoming rougher every year. But morale was never better, and the team is determined to be back on top next year.

A number of Sir Knights were created during the All-Order Day, Saturday, May 26. The Class is to be known as the Brown Cooner Class in honor of one of the finest Masons and Sir Knights that we have ever known. The class is small, and the recognition ceremony during the banquet was simple but none the less sincere. It is very fitting that Eminent Sir Knight Brown Cooner should be the first man so distinguished in the long and honorable history of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4.

Our annual picnic will begin at noon Sunday, June 24, at the home of S.K. Dan Niebel, 1108 Lower Huntington Road, Potluck. Bring a meat dish, a cover dish and your own utensils. Also, bring your swimming habit. Dan has a very nice pool.

And now, we hope that everybody has a very pleasant summer. We will see you in September. Meanwhile please keep your commander informed about any illness, hospitalization or death of any Sir Knight.

PEASEMENT IS NEVER ANSWER Phonic Messenger, Georgia)

realize that the destiny of man is in the hands of dedicated men, and that we must have faith in their ability, loyalty and wisdom. After, we must never feel that we, individuals, are so far removed from the events of the day, that we remain aloof from everything and have a passive attitude toward the problems of our times. If we understand the serious national and international situation, there is the danger that the ideal of our government, individual freedom, is in jeopardy.

There are many that feel that we can appease the brutal enemy of freedom; and of freedom; that we can give more and yet more in or satisfy unjust and diabolic demands. This from experience, seems a dangerous path.

greed of a dictator is never satisfied. He lives on the acquisition of power and more power.

must have neither a soft nor a hard approach to the gigantic problems of our day.

With our reliance on God, and our faith that Right will prevail, our approach must be one of firmness without arrogance, unswerving devotion to America, and the willingness to sacrifice whatever is necessary for the victory of freedom over bondage.

HURDLES

(The Oklahoma Mason)

Be thankful that there are hurdles in life. Rejoice in the fact that they are higher than most people like to jump. Be grateful for the fact that there are so many of them.

It is those hurdles that give you your chance to work your way to the front. They are your friends, your allies. They trip up the horde that would outstrip you if those hurdles were not there.

The hurdles of life are set out for a purpose. They are a part of the grand scheme of things. Take them as they come, with a prayer for the nerve-power, the heart-power and the leg-power to negotiate each of them as you come to it.

Even if you trip on one you will be better off for having tried.

Hope to see all the Demolay at

The Mother and Son Banquet held on May 14th was a banquet from which everyone there got a deeper understanding of "What Our Mothers mean to Us". I am very grateful for the help from the Mothers' Circle for the decorations and food. These decorations created an atmosphere for an evening well worth remembering.

I wish to thank the Job Daughters for serving and the young ladies from the different schools who provided the entertainment. I am inclined to believe that this banquet was the high light in my term as Master Councilor. The dinner music was grand.

This being my last column I wish to tie up the loose ends. If I started thanking everyone who has been a help to me during my term I could write volumes.

To start out I wish to thank the Mothers Circle. Our mothers do more work and get less recognition than anyone connected with DeMolay. They press the robes and ties, store our equipment "neatly." The chapter will agree that the refreshments after our meetings were very well prepared and tasted delicious. I wish to especially thank Mrs. Robbins, the president, Mary Jane Horrell, the president elect, and Mrs. Dorothy Tanner who took care of the refreshments.

The Advisory Council kept me on my toes in more ways than one. Mr. Ehrman, the chairman, of the council, was my "ole joking buddy." Mr. Steward, the obligation advisor, has yet to commit the obligation to memory. Mr. Tucker, our ritualistic advisor, is the best in the State. Mr. Bickel, our awards advisor, seemed to be able to keep me on an even keel. Without these gentlemen, and others like them I never could have become a Master Councilor worthy of the title.

"Dad" and "Mom" Herrick are two people who fit their name perfectly. They have been a Dad and Mom to me in all my rough spots. These are two people whom I will never forget in my later years. The Chapter could not be in better hands. To the Herricks I give my heartfelt thanks.

But my term in office could not have been as successful as it was if it wasn't for my officers. The Seniors like John Roscoe, Mike Shirk, Tome Ice, and Tom Cameron, who stuck beside me through thick and thin, through final exams, banquets and all those time consuming things that go with being a senior. It was on these boys that I leaned the heaviest. The juniors like Jim Tennant, Bob Quick, Duane Traster, Sam Carter, Matt Cornocchione and Larry Bushkill are the boys who will carry on the good name of DeMolay. And finally the sophomores like Lyman Wible, Dave Flandt, Phil Baker, Steve Polry, Tom Errington, Denny Miller, Mike Kelly, Dick McVay and Dudley Wasey were learning how to become good officers. These men are the ones to whom all credit should go for having a good term in office. It was these men who made me the Master Councilor that I was. It is to these that I will be ever grateful to. Must not forget Bill Branstrator. It is nice to have had some one with experience to call on and never turned down. Thank you Gentlemen!

the State Conclave June 29, 30, and July 1. It is going to be the biggest and one of the best and may the Largest Chapter in the World have the largest group there.

OUR DUTY AS MASONS
By M. W. Stafford King, Grand Master, Grand Lodge of Minnesota

Let us be reminded that alone we are but one — and can do little. But that together we are many — and, with God's help, we can do much.

Let us seek out our Brother, that we may know him and work with him — and he with us.

Let us kneel together about a common Altar, and ask for the strength and guidance, which only the Supreme Architect can give — The one for all and all for one, let us strive toward the perfection which all good men seek.

Let us remember that no man stands straighter than when he stoops to help a fellow man — That no man's stature is larger than when he freely admits error, and asks forgiveness for it — that no man is taller than when his head is bowed in prayer — That no man is stronger than when he understands his Brother, and forgives his errors — That no man is braver or more patriotic than when he works in time of peace to preserve the freedoms won in time of war — That no man is richer than when he has earned a friend — That no man can better fulfill his destiny than to preserve and pass on to his son his American Heritage, — the right to think and act as a free man in reverence of God and respect of his fellows.

All these are ours if we prove ourselves worthy.

Our cause is just — our purpose high. Be, then, my Brothers, proud of your share in it. Be of good faith. Be unshamed.

Though in our day we may not complete the Temple, let us lay the Foundation so true and so lasting that generations yet unborn will build upon it with confidence and with pride.

MASONIC SECRETS

Over a period of many years we have heard and read much about the secrets of Masonry, and it is still our opinion that they are, in themselves, of the least importance. These so-called secrets are not the material of which the Grand Masonic Temple is built. They do not constitute any of the ancient landmarks of the Fraternity.

Masonry has no aspects which the world would deem important or care to know. The secrets of Masonry are nothing more than modes of recognition by which we know each other, by which we know a true Craftsman from an imposter, by which we prove ourselves worthy and well qualified, by which we show that we have visited the sacred places of the Fraternity, and have knelt at the altar of a common Faith.

The fundamental facts of Masonry are not secret. Its principles are known; its objectives are known; its members are known; its meeting places are known. Our ancient and honorable Craft has adopted the general principles of secrecy because a unity and harmony of labor can be better attained thereby.

As has been said by a great philosopher: "Bees will not work except in silence; neither will virtue work except in secrecy. Let not thy right hand know what thy left hand doeth. Like other plants, virtue will not grow unless its roots be hidden from the sun. Let the sun shine on the roots, they will wither and no flowers will delight thee." *

We've missed a lot of you at our May 11th meeting, and would like to see you back with us at our final meeting before summer dark months on June 14th.

Your master is going to show slides taken during his tour of duty in Korea while with the U.S. Air Force. This will be a good chance to take a trip without leaving your chairs.

There will be a short period for refreshments and a chance to talk to a brother you have not seen for a while. Some of you may not know who the new officers are and possibly have not had the opportunity to meet them so this will be a very good time to do so.

We are planning another night similar in programming to our May 11th meeting, and are in need of suggestions.

June 14th will be our final meeting until next September, let's all make an effort to be there.

Brothers, our dinner meeting held May 9th pertaining to the proposed improvements of the Lodge building was well attended.

Our JW informs me that some of the brothers did not give him due and timely notice so he could ward off all approaching danger. I was taught to do unto others as I would wish others to do unto me.

My brother you will never know the weight of the load that the JW carries until the pack is on your back.

Our building program should be going with full speed ahead by the time you read this column.

After the stated meeting May 6th it is anticipated that our Pledge Committee under the direction of brother Don Strak will be calling on you as a member of New Haven Lodge 740 for a donation. We need all the help you can give us.

There will be no degree work this next month, but we will be working as operative Masons on, in and around our Lodge building.

This is from the Master's Lecture book on Faith;

The greater the importance and the greater the difficulty of any undertaking, the more essential it is that an implicit faith in the G.A.O.T.U. shall guide our feet and make sure and steadfast our stumbling steps. Do we deserve that help? Then let us fear not, but go forward of good courage.

June is the month of our annual St. John the Baptist's Day banquet. Plan to attend this gala event, steeped in tradition and rich in masonic fellowship. A chance to visit with your friends and associates and feast on a famous meal prepared by the Huntertown chapter of O.E.S. Our distinguished speaker for the evening will be Bro. Harold Martin; Past Master of Home Lodge No. 342 and long active in Freemasonry. Those of you who know Harold will be looking forward to hearing him. I am sure, and those of you who haven't had the pleasure of meeting him have a treat in store, let me assure you. The date to remember is June 23rd-Saturday night at 6:30 p.m. at the Huntertown Methodist Church. Don't miss it!

We have been pretty busy with degree work and various things at Huntertown and I would like to take this opportunity to commend the officers for the very fine work and loyalty shown during this first half of the year. It is very gratifying to know that I have your full support; may you continue in your efforts and your hopes be fulfilled. Our meetings will probably be limited during the hot Summer months until cooler Autumn weather moves in. By limited I mean that we will still have our stated meetings, so don't just forget all about lodge until Autumn, but try to attend to the business we are engaged upon.

You may wonder about our annual St. John's Day banquet. We celebrate St. John the Evangelist's Day near the end of December because it is in reality the end of the solar year, since it is the day with the least number of hours of daylight and the longest night, and therefore is the turning-point of the year at which the days begin to grow longer. We celebrate St. John the Baptist's Day because it fulfills that which the Evangelist's Day predicts, by having the largest number of hours of daylight and the fewest hours of darkness. We Masons are not worshippers of the Saints; both of the Days are festivals of the Calendar, and since they are we may say that as we celebrate them they are Masonic occasions, and have no reference to theology. If so, why call them by the names of Saints? Because the custom goes far back in our history to a time when every day had a name instead of a number, and it so happens that the two days which we would celebrate in any event were at that period named for the two Sts. John. We Masons know that there are many teachings on the subject of light in Freemasonry. And this, I take it, is the meaning of St. John the Baptist's Day. Of the 365 days of the year it is the one day which contains the utmost possible amount of light. It is the noon of Summer. And if we hold a festival in honor of it, it is because it is a standing symbol or sign to signify that we Masons are sons of enlightenment, and will continue to be so as long as dawns appear and suns mount to the meridian. The greatest command God ever gave was "Let There Be Light."

name the present officers of your lodge or recognize but a handful of its members?"

YES OR NO?

Observers who keep informed on the public school question are of opinion that should the present administration succeed in getting public monies diverted to parochial schools, there will be a trend toward the establishment of Protestant parochial schools. If only the larger of the many Protestant schools were to establish their own schools the public would bid fair to be on its way out, because of so few pupils left in a community who would attend the public schools.

Our American public school system is free and tax supported as our fathers before us desired. It is for all the children of all the people—an institution that can be, and usually is, non-partisan, nonsectarian, democratic and efficient. It is far too great an achievement to be disrupted by a multitude of school systems.

The statement by those who would tear down our present system to the effect that the public school is Godless has been time and again proven false and in most instances came from a fifth column whose principles as set forth in their own doctrine are well nigh antagonistic to everything American.

DEDICATED TO PEACE AND BROTHERHOOD

An army of over 5,500,000 men is on the march throughout the world. They carry no weapons. They seek no territory. They destroy no cities. They hurt no population. They are Freemasons ringed around the globe, dedicated to peace and brotherhood. Wherever they practice their love and charity, countries flourish, schools and colleges develop youths for leadership. Their weapon is truth and light. Superstition, hatred, cruelty, injustice, and inhumanity cannot stand before their ranks. No wonder dictators and tyrants, despots and fanatics set snares for these "soldiers of light." They foreshadow a terrible fate for mankind's enemies—tolerance, love, understanding, and the Ten Commandments—in action!

THE FIRST CONSIDERATION

Are we not prone as Masons to be critical of ourselves, and perhaps of our brothers?

It is well for all Masons to study, to improve, to advance, but it is also well to realize that patience is required.

The temple of life cannot be rushed to completion. The victory is in how we work, as well as what we achieve. Always there must be the spirit of charity among those who labor in a common cause.

We are men who are striving to be better men. There is no illusion of perfection or infallibility. Masonry is a complete study of self, and as we learn more about ourselves understand the more that our brothers are men of like aspirations, goals and dreams.

If we could but form the habit of saying first in our hearts—"my brother," we would immediately clear the path between us, and would then leave unsaid that which might later cause remorse and regret.

Masonry will be as strong as the bond between you and your brother. There are many fine achievements which Masons and Masonry may gain in but there is no stronger foundation for us to build upon than our brother-to-brother relationship. This must be the first consideration.

Tests of Faith

Lesson for May 27, 1962

HOW do we know when a person's faith is genuine? "We" means human beings—such as other Christians. We don't know this as God knows it. He looks on the heart, as we cannot. God knows every one's faith as he knows all things, directly. But there is a great deal that we human beings know only indirectly, such as the state of another person's mind and the sincerity of another's motives.

Dr. Foreman

It is not, after all, other people's faith that most concerns us. What about our own? Do we really have faith or do we only think we have? Some people (like bishops, pastors, elders, parents) do have the great responsibility of deciding, in all humility, whether the alleged faith (for example) of candidates for membership in the church or candidates for baptism, is what it is claimed to be. (To judge from the present state of Christ's church, some errors of judgment at this point seem to have been made. Probably not enough testing has been done.)

"By their fruits ye shall know them," Jesus said. God does not need to wait till the fruit ripens to see what the tree will produce; but we do. Paul gives us (in Gal. 5) a list of "fruits of the spirit." The Apostle John had his own way of expressing things. He would take a simple word and make it hold many meanings. One overall test which he proposed really says the same things Paul and Jesus said, in other words. John's test was this: How does this person walk? He uses "walk" in the Old Testament sense, the one thing-after-another-ness, the everyday-ness of living. Life can be likened to a race or to a fight; but most of the time it is just a walk. Not exciting, not dramatic, just a tedious, monotonous and uneventful walk. Many a man walks in vain for a great crisis in which he can prove himself a hero. But most men do not operate by crises, they operate pretty dull, when you come down to it. John makes the point that it is just this everyday walking that is the test of the real faith.

Walking in light

How do you walk, then? It speaks more than once of "walking in light." Cockroaches and jackals walk in darkness. But and humming-birds move by light. Walking in light means living with your shades up and your windows clean. It means living that you will have no skeletons to hide in closets. It means a "like an open book," clean and clear type. It means you will die on the street the next time you go to the super-market, and worry about what people will find in the house after you are gone. Walking in light means living what you seem to be. Walking in light also means in God's keeping close to him, remembering him in love and a thank heart. It means steering yourself by the great lightness and by the little lights on the faith boats. It means living in joy, hope, not in gloom and despair.

The way He walked

John has another way of putting this. Any one who claims to "abiding in Christ" is using language that was dear to Christ to his friend and apostle John. But the test of faith is not beautiful language that can be used about it. The claim is a claim; but how do you test it? Can't see a person abiding in Christ. We have his word, yes, but how do we know he is sincere? John has the answer: words of one syllable. One claims to be abiding in Him, to walk in the same way in which He walked. This means, of course, to one who knows the living of bow our Lord lived on earth. This calls for ever-fresh, renewed, ever-renewing study of the Gospel records. There those who say it makes little difference what manner of man he was. John could not agree to that. It is of vital importance to know as much as we can how Jesus met life, how he was taught, helped, how he met and terrors, how he faced trial and tragedy, friends, enemies, finally death. The simplest test of faith is: Does it produce a reminding us of Jesus?

MASONRY IS NOT FREE

William M. Emerson, senior warden of Glen Park Lodge No. 732 of Gary, Indiana, addressed this message to his brethren in the lodge's "Trestle Board" for September-October 1959.

"It would appear that too many of our brethren have misinterpreted 'Freemason' to mean free from attending lodge, free from helping the master, free from fulfilling the obligations voluntarily assumed, free from taking part in the work and free from giving any effort of time towards the welfare of the lodge.

"Masonry, my brethero, is not free. Its rights, lights and benefits can only be purchased with your time and effort. Let us make it a point this fall, not to wait until we have a free evening before we attend lodge, but sacrifice just a few of our other pleasures to support our great Fraternity in which we claim to have so much pride.

"Remember, any one can wear a pin or a ring and state proudly, 'I am a Mason,' but can you make yourself believe it if you can't even

EASTERN STAR HONORS NEW GRAND MARSHAL

A reception was held at 3:30 p.m., Saturday, August 11, at the Masonic Temple to honor Clayton L. Herrick, recently appointed Grand Marshall of Indiana Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Stars.

Herrick is a Past Patron of Fort Wayne Chapter No. 432 of the Order of Eastern Stars.

Herrick was appointed to his new position by Mrs. Sara Scott of Dana, Worthy Grand Matron, and David Miller, Worthy Grand Patron of South Bend.

Brother Herrick is a Past Master of Sol D. Bayless Lodge No. 359, F. & A. M., Advisor of the Fort Wayne Chapter of Order of DeMolay and Sovereign Prince of Darius Council, Scottish Rite Valley of Fort Wayne.

The reception was followed by a program and dinner at 6 p.m. Inspection of the Fort Wayne Chapter No. 432 and Trinity Chapter No. 576 was held at 7:30 p.m. Heading the reception committees were Mrs.

Clayton Herrick

William Knauer, worthy matron of the Fort Wayne Chapter and Harold Houser, worthy patron of the local chapter.

FORT WAYNE SCOTTISH RITE LAYS CORNERSTONE FOR NEW BUILDING

The cornerstone for the new Scottish Rite Cathedral addition of office and social rooms was laid on Saturday, July 14. The ceremonies were conducted by the Indiana Grand Lodge of Freemasonry with Grand Master Jack F. Hewson, Evansville, assisted by Clyde E. Flowers, Grand Lodge Senior Warden of Fort Wayne. Brother Flowers is also a trustee of the Fort Wayne Valley, A. A.

Scottish Rite. They were assisted by other officers of the Grand Lodge.

Preceding the cornerstone laying a luncheon was held for the visitors, Scottish Rite officers and their wives. Grand Master Henson gave a short talk at the luncheon and was introduced by Byard H. Smith, Scottish Rite Active for Indiana of the Supreme Council.

THERE IS A GOD

"To every Mason there is a God—One, Supreme, Infinite in Goodness, in Wisdom, Foresight, Justice and Benevolence; Creator, Disposer and preserver of all things. How, or by what intermediate Powers or Emanations He creates and acts, and in what way He unfolds and manifests Himself, Masonry leaves to Creeds and Religions to inquire."

FIRST MASONIC GRAVE IN AMERICA

The oldest Masonic grave in this country has the date of 1680 on the gravestone. This stone is at the Old Burying Ground in Charlestown, Massachusetts, and marks the last resting place of Sergeant Richard Ketell, 71 years, who died in the year mentioned. Also engraved on the stone are angel's wings, an hourglass and Masonic emblems. It is told that the Grand Lodge of England ordered that no other stone be erected showing Masonic devices in such numbers. This stone is of great interest to many people.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE U.S.

The Constitution of the United States, the nearest approach of mortal to perfect political wisdom, was the work of men who purchased liberty with their blood, but who found that, without organization, freedom was not a blessing. They formed it and the people, in their intelligence, adopted it.

And what has been its history? Has it trodden down any man's rights?

Has it circumscribed the liberty of the press?

Has it stopped the mouth of any honest man?

Has it held up as objects of disgrace abroad?

How about the reverse?

It has given us character abroad; and when, with Washington at its head, it went forth to the world, this young country at once became the most interesting and imposing in the circles of civilized nations.

—Daniel Webster

No visitations during July and Aug. This year happens to be the 10th Anniversary of our Visitation started originally by Bro. Fred Krueper, P.M. of Home Lodge.

It has been going along quite well, thanks to the fine cooperation of the lodges and conscientious work of the chairmen, but there is still room for improvement of course. Louie of the lodges could use some more members on their committee. Come out and join us.

We meet at the Hospital about 7:45 Monday evening and visit from 7:30 to 9.

The patients thank us for stopping and ask us to come back. Some of them look forward to seeing us on Monday evenings and are disappointed if no one stops in to see them. Our weekly visits are appreciated by the Hospital too.

Here's hoping to see you at the Hospital on our Visitation Nights.

The first thing that comes to my mind as I write this copy is time and how fast the summer is passing. "Time is the most undefinable yet paradoxical of things; the past is gone, the future has not come, and the present becomes the past even while we attempt to define it, and like the flash of the lightning, at once exists and expires." (Colton) We should always remember the importance of today.

I'm sure we are all looking forward to the fellowship of regular lodge meetings and all realize that to be a good Mason we have to work at it constantly. I'm also sure that nothing will remind us of our duties and obligations as much as our regular attendance to our lodge meetings and activities.

We will have our Lodge of Instruction on Thursday October 11, 1962 at 6:30 p.m. with Three Rivers Lodge and this year it will be held in their lodge rooms. While this meeting is primarily to instruct your officers any brother may attend and I'm sure you will find it well worth your while to do so.

Again we meet for fall activities in Home Lodge after a pleasant summer of vacation activities for many of the Craftsmen. Starting in September we will have degree work again after being dark in July and August. The main event of interest will be the Tri-State Meeting which falls on September 29 and 30 this year. As I have mentioned here before, this is an annual event for Home Lodge. This year we will be traveling to Peoria Heights, Ill. We will go by chartered bus with a capacity of 41 persons. Let's get it filled this year. Any one of the brethren that goes on this trip will be pleased, I'm sure,

We wish to welcome Brother Neal into the fellowship of Wayne Lodge. May he have many years joy in his Masonic work.

We will have two candidates the month of September, so let's make a real effort to come down Lodge and get the Fall season ended out in good style.

We are sorry to announce the death of two of our members the last writing. To the families and friends of Brothers Ray Roscoe and Ray Gresjan we extend our sympathy.

Brother Paul Trebra was a past at the Parkview Hospital this summer, and Brothers Luther Boyer and James Newell were roommates the Lutheran for about a week. trust they are completely recovered by this time, and able to get enjoyment from life. Our sympathy also, to the Marvins on the passing of their wife and mother.

Our Annual Dinner Dance will

Brethren—Welcome back from, I hope, a very fine and restful vacation. Now that the vacations are over, Lodge starts its fall schedule. We have two candidates for September and will have the Entered Apprentice Degree on Monday Sept. 10 at 7:00 p.m. and I am looking forward to seeing each of you, not only this Monday but every Monday night.

Our chairman of the Vets. Hospital Visitation Committee, Gene Monro, has found it necessary to resign because of a conflicting work schedule and I have appointed Ed Van Horn to replace him. Thanks Gene for a job well done and I am sure Ed will do equally as well. Sol D. Bayless' nights for visitation for the season are as follows, Sept. 10, Oct. 29, Dec. 17, Feb. 18, Apr. 8 and May 27. You don't have to be a member of the committee to attend these visitations, all are more than welcome, just come to the main lobby on these nights and tell the receptionist who you are and she will direct you to where the meeting is being held.

Sol D. Bayless along with Maunee Lodge will have a lodge of instruction on Friday Oct. 12th at 7:30 p.m.

Fall also starts our social Calendar and I want to remind you that we have a Fish Fry Saturday Oct. 13th and our annual Past Masters Banquet Monday Nov. 26th. Mark these dates on your Calendar and plan to attend.

Since the last issue of the Square and Compass we have had seven Brothers to pass on to their eternal home with the Grand Architect of the Universe. They were; Richard Jellison, Norman B. Putman, Carl Stout, Clinton Wilson, August Halfman, Adolph Greenfield and Harry P. Lydick. Our sincere sympathy is extended to all of the bereaved families.

Two of our Past Masters have been in the hospital since I last wrote you Ernie Steward and Kenneth McGraw. Both have been released and are now on the mend. Anyone knowing of any illness please report to any of your officers.

I am sure each of you has had a pleasant vacation, and that you are now filled with vim, vigor, and vitality. (I haven't heard any real good fish stories as yet though).

This year is better than half gone, so perhaps it is time to take inventory of our Masonic accomplishments for the year. Let's see now, have I attended Lodge as I promised myself I would do? Have I lived up to my Masonic obligation? What have I done? What can I do? Here is one thing that can be done. Donate blood to the Red Cross for Brother Glenn Geiger and for the wife of Brother Myron Dinius. Brother Glenn Geiger has been very ill, was a patient at the Caylor Clinic in Bluffton for several days. During this time he was given several pints of blood. Blood donors are needed to replace this blood in the Red Cross blood bank.

The wife of Brother Dinius has had a very serious operation at St. Joseph Hospital and was given 13 pints of blood.

We have three donors promised for Brother Geiger so far but more are needed. You can call the Red Cross Blood Center here and make arrangements for giving the blood, but be sure to tell them for whom you are giving the blood. The Red Cross will then credit this to whom ever you say. Any type will be accepted.

We have received a letter from the Grand Lecturer stating that he will hold a lodge for instruction on the Fellowcraft Degree with South Gate and Summit City lodges on Tuesday October the ninth at seven-thirty.

We had one new petition presented at the August Stated Meeting, so we may have degree work in September.

Your worshipful Master and members of the visitation Committee have tried to call on all who were reported as being ill and all are now recovered or on the road to recovery.

It is only natural that in a Lodge as old and with as large a membership as Summit City's that some of our members will pass on to their Eternal Reward during the year; however natural it may be we always feel a sense of loss and of sorrow when we receive news of such Saturday, Nov. 10th at the newly decorated Temple Ballroom. Tickets and further information will be available soon on this event.

The Annual Masonic Home Visitation at Franklin has been set for September 16th. Plan to make this a family outing, meet our Lodge members at the Home, and other Masonic families from all over the State of Indiana. This has long been a highlight of the year, and an opportunity for Brothers to see some of the important work that Masons in Indiana are doing.

Don't forget to watch for the announcements of the Vet's Hospital Visitation here at home. This is another opportunity to meet Masons who are away from home, and to spread cheer.

The Grand Lecturer has set Wednesday, October 10th, as the time for Lodge of Instruction. Again we will join with Home Lodge to exemplify the Entered Apprentice Degree. Plan to be there at 7:30 p.m. and lend your support to the Lodge Officers as they strive for perfection in the work.

The most important information at this time is the Calendar of events for September and October. So take a pair of scissors or a knife and cut this calendar out right now before you forget.

- SEPTEMBER
- 4th — Master Mason Degree — Open 5:30 p.m. — Dinner 6:30 p.m.
 - 11th — Stated Meeting — 7:30 p.m.
 - 11th — Special Program on Masonic Education.
 - 18th — EA degree — 7:00 p.m. open.
 - 25th — FC degree — 7:00 p.m. open.
 - 16th — Sunday all day Maasonic Home Visit at Franklin.
- OCTOBER
- 1st — Veteran Hospital Visitation — 7:15 p.m.
 - 9th — Stated Meeting — 7:30 p.m. — Officers turn in all rituals.
 - 11th — Lodge of Instruction — 7:30 p.m. — Corinthian Room.
 - 16th — EA Degree — 7:00 p.m.
 - 20th — Ladies Night — 6:30 p.m. sharp.

Well, that looks like a busy two months ahead of us, doesn't it? And what are you going to do about it? Will you sit at home with an excuse to miss seeing your friends or will you make that special effort to have some Masonic fellowship. You may, perhaps, even learn something you didn't know before. Why not take a change of pace and hear what the Masonic Education chairman has for this month. It's different and informative.

We do have enough petitions to keep our lodge busy through January. If you like a particular degree then visit the lodge at that time but don't miss the Master Mason dinner on Sept 4th.

The time has arrived this year when we Masons and friends migrate to Franklin, Ind. to visit the Masonic Home and too see what the dollars and gifts we have donated are doing. "We are always welcomed at the Home any day of the year," says Worshipful Brother Albert White. If you cannot go Sunday, Sept. 16th, then try to go another weekend at your convenience. You will always be welcomed.

Three Rivers is always proud of the response her members give when called upon. We again urge you to save one short evening with us at the Vets Hospital. Meet with us at 7:15 p.m. Oct. 1st on a Monday, afterwards we shall have refreshments and a good time.

Ask yourself this question — Have I ever been to a Lodge of Instruction? What was your answer? What is a Lodge of Instruction? How is it conducted? Do we open on a particular degree or do we not open a formal lodge at all? If you are wondering what the answers are won't you visit on Oct. 11th, 7:30 p.m.? You will be surprised at what happens.

We are always happy to have something for the women. This year is going to be different. Ladies night will be . . . but we cannot tell you just yet. Keep the date night open, Oct. 20th. We'll be looking for you. Surprise your wife by asking her to this event.

We do have some members sick and some feeling better at home. Brother Brake is getting along fine at his daughter's home. Brother Paul Deam is at the Parkview Hosp. room 215 (visitors wanted), Brother Larry Holms is at Parkview Hosp. in the long term care unit (visitors wanted). If you get the chance to see these Brothers, let the Master know.

How does a Master spend his time during the so-called "dark" months of July and August? To most Masons served by "The Square and Compass," this means that only the minimum essentials of business are considered at two stated meetings. Degree work is at a virtual standstill. Lodge rooms, for the most part, are shrouded in a spell of darkness. Members turn their thoughts and actions toward conventional vacations and other typically summertime pursuits. The Temple is dark; the Trestleboard is void of designs; the Craft are not "at their labors."

In at least one community in our grand State, this scene is anything but true. Your Master had the distinct pleasure of attending proceedings in the halls of Henry J. Culver Lodge Number 617 at Culver, Indiana on the shores of beautiful Lake Maxinkuckee, and home of Culver Military Academy. Without equivocation, after due examination, I found that indeed, "In every clime a Mason may find a home, and in every land a brother!" In this very personable setting, degree work was presented every Thursday evening during July and August, with Candidates. The work exemplified was done with proficiency and with a deep sincerity of purpose. The officers carried out their duties well; the Past Masters (yes, there were several there each week) shared in the work; the Brethren volunteered and served well in several stations. There was no dinner, no entertainment; there was just the fellowship of Masons "in Lodge assembled." There was no occasion to scurry about looking for someone to "fill in" because someone had failed to appear. There was genuine interest in the work being done there. It was not uncommon after the meeting to see several groups of three or four men gathered about a table, going through the ritual in preparation for some future presentation.

What kind of men attend such meetings? Farmers, you say! Yes, I believe there were two; one a reputable dairyman, the other a solid citizen in the community who raises perhaps the best fields of hybrids in the area. Uneducated, backward, small-town folk! Well, there might have been someone there who had limited schooling, and there might have been three or four who have always lived in smaller communities. I do recall that I met a well-known contractor whose family builds schools, churches and homes. And I met a banker whose ideas about life and the worth of man far exceeded anything I had heard for some time. Oh, yes, and there was the Veterinarian who was conducting some research on improving the health and vitality of domestic animals; and one couldn't forget the funeral home director who gave the Apron Lecture so well, or the Colonel whose wit and humor, as well as his vast knowledge of Masonic history, served as a real inspiration to those of us who had the privilege of knowing him. Of Course, we cannot forget the chief electrician, a true Master or Masonry, a very kind and understanding man whose grasp of Masonic precept, together with resultant example, was most profound. There were many more . . . men of high calibre, who had somehow grasped the real essentials of what life is all about. I must mention, also, that these same men were seen at such places as the Eagle Scout Court of Honor, at Church, at their daily work, visiting the unfortunate, making personal sacrifices for others. They are all very busy people (yes, just as busy as those of us who live in larger metropolitan areas,) yet never too busy to meet their Masonic obligations.

What makes the difference? What complex factors cause one group to be Masonically active; the other to be less so? I'm not certain what the difference is. The problem is perhaps one for the sociologist or the psychologist to wrestle with; certainly it is a human problem, and one all Masons should be concerned with. Perhaps Lodges become too large in numbers; or perhaps the smaller community breeds deeper into its people some of the ideals we all agree upon, but those that some of us are too ready to give up, or to make impulsive excuses for not upholding. It might be well if all of us could spend some time in those Lodges where Masonry has real meaning to their members, where Lodge night is anticipated with pleasure, where you don't have to provide a floor-show and a free dinner to get a handful of people out to attend!

TWO QUESTIONS

By R. A. Manes
(In The New Age)

For thousands of years serious-minded men have begun their thinking with two questions old as mankind and eternal as time. "Whence came you?" "What came you here to do?" They are seemingly trivial questions and the answers, though worthy, are correspondingly commonplace. But search deeper and we find they demand the formula for Universal Creation in answer. Thus in crossing our portals the initiate learns the cause in which he has enlisted and the quest to which he dedicates himself.

Stated differently they ask "How did you get here and why?" These questions must have puzzled primordial man in his first hour of reasoning beyond his basic need of food and survival. In his first awareness of the limitless heavens, the teeming earth, and his own pulsing vitality, he must have pondered the source and the meaning of life.

From the beginning to this day the efforts of all mankind's preisthood and all of civilization's philosophers have been expended in seeking the answers. No other questions have ever demanded such labor in answering. Yet, through all the ages the true answers have remained obscure and in the shadows except for instant glimpses of partial illumination.

As Masons, the quest for the answers to these questions is our purpose; the discovery of the answers is our destiny. Seek earnestly and we find God and a way of life. Find the answers and we gain the unfailing ultimate light and discover a lost but eternal word.

E. A. RECOGNIZED

There has been some discussion as to when a person becomes a Freemason, whether it is when he has received the E. A. Degree, or whether it is when he has received the M.M. Degree. In England, whence came our Freemasonry, the Entered Apprentice is a Freemason. Following the ceremony of his initiation, the Entered Apprentice gets the seat of honor at the festal board on the right of the Worshipful Master and as a rule, he has a special toast. Never again will he have the same honors paid him, not even when he receives the Master Mason Degree. The night he is made an Entered Apprentice—more correctly, when he is made a Freemason—is his night.

MASONRY IS MASONRY

Perhaps too many articles have been written on the subject, Masonry and Religion. There are those who, under any and all circumstances, would twist and distort any statement in order to gain an unfair advantage, says the Georgia Masonic Messenger.

We write for those who are not blinded by prejudice, hate and intolerance.

Masonry is not a religion in the sense that you identify religion with a specific church or denomination.

Masonry is religious in design. A Masonic Lodge is a group of men who are of diverse religious beliefs and affiliations. Every man who has ever become a Mason has professed his faith and trust in God. His own religious belief and his particular church affiliation are his sacred rights and privileges.

Masonry has been and will forever be the staunch ally of religion. It has forever fought for the right of man to practice the religion of his choice.

Let us not disclaim the religion design of Masonry in order to yield to the unjust criticism of our enemies.

Masonry is not a denomination or sect.

It does not pretend to take the place of the church! Masonry is Masonry.

—West Australian Craftsman

ENFORCEMENT OF MASONIC LAW

We frequently hear among those who are not members of our beloved Craft, the question raised as to how the claims and obligations of Masonry are enforced. Our answer to this query is they can only be enforced by the solemnity with which they are assumed; by the honorable desire of being known and loved as a brother throughout the world; and the consciousness of friendship and protection which that distinction affords; by the fear of incurring the censure and reproof, the scorn and indignation of the virtuous and just; and by the steadfast hope of a blissful immortality.

The true and loyal Mason cheerfully submits to the laws and obligations of our great Fraternity because he believes that by so doing he is bound to receive the wages of a Mason—a home in "that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." No other form of enforcement of the regulations of our Craft is necessary.

JOB'S DAUGHTERSFORT WAYNE
BETHEL No. 8
JOB'S DAUGHTERSStated Meetings
First and Third
Wed., 7:30 p.m.Ellen Stanbery H.Q.
204 McKinnicircle K-2150
Mrs. Louise Botteron Guardian
2502 N. Anthony Blvd. E-60253

Hi everyone! These past summer months have certainly been busy ones for Job's Daughters. June 14th through June 17th was the annual state convention of Job's Daughters at Indianapolis. Seventeen of our girls who went were Carol Botteron, Linda Batchelder, Candy Clevenger, Sandy Burelison, Sharon Erler, Elizabeth Koepke, Marsha Kemp, Diane Simmons, Sherri Kreigh, Vicki Jones, Roxanne Smith Weesner, Laura Foulks, Connie Miser, Rita McCoy, Carol Weesner, Ellen Stanbery, and Barbara Weitzman. They made new friends from other bethehs, gathered new program ideas for our bethel, and had a great time. Girls start saving your pennies for next year's convention at Ball State University!

On June 20th, installation of officers was held. The new officers are Ellen Stanbery, Honored Queen; Carol Botteron, Senior Princess; Sharon Erler, Junior Princess; Pat Jetty, Guide; Laura Foulks, Marshall; Nancy Frenz, Chaplain; Marsha Kemp, Treasurer; Connie Miser, Recorder; Sharon Higgins, Librarian; Susan Mowery, Musician; Sandy Lemmel, First Messenger; Candy Clevenger, Second Messenger; Sandy Burelison, Third Messenger; Carol Weesner, Fourth Messenger; Rita McCoy, Fifth Messenger; Patty Kelly, Senior Custodian; Karen Kelly, Junior Custodian; Aletha White, Inner Guard and Judy Hutchinson, Outer Guard.

I again would like to thank all the installing officers: Barbara Stanbery, Porter, Phyllis Slater, Sally Parkison, Jean Day, Judy English, Patty Marshall, Diane Simmons, Past Honored Queens, and Mrs. Jackie Miser, pianist, for their inspiring work. I am especially grateful to my family for their time and effort. The decorations were beautiful, and the refreshments following the meeting were most enjoyable. I will always remember this wonderful evening as a high point in my life.

Mr. Ralph Sparks, A Past Grand Officer, installed our new Guardian Council at a special meeting held on July fifth. It is made up of Mrs. Louise Botteron, Guardian; Mr. Thomas Kemp, Associate Guardian; Mrs. Vernice Stanbery, Secretary; Mrs. Della Weesner, Treasurer; Mrs. Thelma Clevenger, Promoter of Finance, with Mrs. Frances Williams assisting; Mrs. Ella Burelison, Director of Music; with Mrs. Marion Kelly, Mrs. Jackie Miser, Mrs. Helen Parker and Mrs. Elma Stephenson assisting; Mrs. Helen Eby, Promoter of Sociability with Mrs. Frances Burchard, Mrs. Louise McCoy, Mrs. Helen McClintock and Mrs. Eva Troyer, assisting.

I am looking forward to working with each of them.

The following night, July sixth, was a special meeting of instructions in Hometown for the Council members and line officers. Several other bethehs attended, also. The Grand Guardian, Mrs. Cordelia Cook, presided. The purpose of the meeting was to clear up questions about the ritualistic work and make known the ideas the new Grand Guardian is stressing.

On July twenty-sixth, eight girls, three mothers, and one father from our bethel rode to Columbia City, to see their inspection. The girls there did a fine job in their ritualistic work, and we had a very enjoyable evening.

Instead of having many smaller meetings to plan and prepare the program and decorations for inspection, we had one large all day decoration party. It was held at my house on August 22. The decoration committee and officers arriving in the morning, each bringing a "potluck dish." We accomplished a great deal and also had a lot of fun. I want to thank everyone who came.

During the weekend before Labor Day, Job's Daughters held a car wash at Art's Standard Service Station on the Bluffton Road. Susan Mowery, Chairman, organized the car wash and had many girls to help work. Thank you, girls, for making the car wash a success.

September 5, our first meeting, is the officers and choir potluck and practice. The potluck starts at 5:30 p.m., so be sure to come; and bring your moms and dads, too! The meeting will then start promptly at 7:30 p.m. I hope to see everyone there.

Every year Job's Daughters has a special Sunday in Franklin, Indiana. This year it is on September 16th. The girls who take robes form a cross with hundreds of other girls all over the state. The ceremony is beautiful to see and offers the opportunity to renew old friendships and make new ones with girls from other bethehs. Everyone is welcome to attend. Those planning to go should call Ellen Stanbery, K-2150, or Mrs. Botteron, E-60253, for transportation arrangements.

September 19th is initiation. Girls, be sure to come and welcome the new members.

Our annual hayride will be held September 29th at Meyer's Farm east of New Haven and 7 and 1-half miles from Fort Wayne. Follow highway No. 24 a few miles east of New Haven to the Conservation club sign on the right side of the road. Turn left at the next intersection road which is Bruick Road. After crossing the iron bridge turn left on Parent road. The first barn on the right side is Meyer's Farm. This is a new location for our hayride and has excellent facilities for dancing too. I hope to see all of you girls and your friends there for an enjoyable evening. We will need chaperones, so all parents who wish to join in the fun call T-1846 to inform Mr. Thomas Kemp the Associate Guardian.

Mothers! ! Be sure to save the second Monday of every month for Mother's club. Mrs. Della Weesner, President, and her officers promise a most interesting year. The program for the year will be in next month's issue.

Girls, remember that this is your betheh too; and one of the largest the state, so if you are interested working on a committee, please call me at K-2150. Don't forget that first meeting is September 5th, you there.

We spend most of our time looking forward to and planning events. Nine months of the year dream of summer vacation, before we know, it's come and —that's life — I guess. But one thing that is no guess—the is yet to come in our Beaucent year.

A pot luck dinner will precede the Sept. 4th Stated Meeting and program has been planned following. On September 18th a special is in store for us. Sister Don Gramling will have Pictures to show the Assembly. Our Benevolent Meeting will be held on the third Monday in Sept. at the home of Mrs. C. Masel at 7:30 p.m. We would wish a safe and enjoyable journey for our officers and others attending Supreme Assembly at Fort Worth, Texas on Sept. 25th thru the 28th.

Now is the time to start your rummage for the rummage sale Oct. 30th.

Our worthy President and Vice President attended the convocation of Richmond Assembly July 16th. Our very best wishes Richmond. We know they are going to enjoy the fellowship of the Order and we will enjoy getting to know them.

Congratulations to the committee for the Knight Templar Eye Foundation. We not only met our quota but we went way over the top. The way we like to do things in assembly. BIG! It is with regret we announce that Sister Faye Squibb is leaving us — just when we were getting to know her. Best of luck to you, Faye. Sister Inez Threlkeld will be filling her station in Assembly for the balance of this year.

Illness reported in Assembly: Sisters Gertrude Knight, Helen Mildred Houser, Hortense Stevens, Violet Sapp.

Illness in Family: Daughter Sister Eugenia Wood and Sir Knight George Bojrab.

Deaths in the Family: Mother-in-law of Sister Anondas Marvel, Father of Sister Gertrude Knight, Son-in-law of Sister Eugenia Wood.

We wish a speedy recovery to those who are ill and extend our sympathy to those in sorrow.

Congratulations to the Ed W. bridge's on the birth of a grandchild. There will be no Day Sewing September. Guess that just about wraps it up for September. See you at the Meeting.

NO COMPROMISE WITH WRONG

A Mason who would be true is always guided by that which is right in the eyes of the great Architect of the Universe. The way should travel as we pursue the journey along the pathway of duty is clearly marked out for us. Masonry there can be no compromise with that which is wrong. He does no more than half right wholly wrong. It is impossible reach our proper places in this or the next by traveling even way in the wrong direction. The designs placed upon our board of life by the Divine Architect can guide our footsteps through life to eternal happiness in the end. There is no other way.

On Wednesday evening September 5th. Anthony Wayne Court No. 3 will resume their Fall Activities, opening with a "Pitch-In" Supper at 6:30 p.m. Stated Meeting at 8:00 p.m. followed by a Back to Court Program, under the direction of Honored Ladies Jean Miller and Doris Thibolt. These Gals are promising an evening of fun, so be sure you are among those present.

COMMITTEES IN ACTION

Cheer Committee:
H. L. Anna Forst, Chairman, reports that the Cheer Committee will meet at her home, 3231 Tucker Dr., Monday September 12th at 1:30 p.m. Ways & Means Committee:

Our entergetic Chairman, Honored Ladies Ruby McDowell and Eythel Smiley are working overtime on the Courts' money-making projects; Final plans for these activities will be made when the Committee meets evening of September 12th at 8:00 p.m. at the home of H. L. Martha Brandenburg on Windsor Drive.

First on the agenda will be a TV Breakfast at WANE TV station on West State Street at 10 o'clock in the morning of September 17th. We are limited to 80 guests, and as reservations are going fast, be sure to call H. L. Eythel H-81474 as soon as possible for your reservation. Also, if you need transportation, let us know.

The Round-Robin Card Parties that were started in the Spring have been going on during the Summer months, and from all indications will be in full swing during the Fall and Winter months. These Parties really are exciting, so all you Honored Ladies and Sir Knights, get on the "ball" and help make this project a big success PAST MATRONS CLUB:

H. L. Ruby Mowery will be hostess to the Past Royal Matrons at her home, 4131 Tacoma Ave., on Tuesday September 18th at 8 o'clock.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE:

WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Because the brotherhood of man is solely dependent on the manhood of the brother, the primary concern of every Worshipful Master should always be to see that more Masonry is infused into men than men into Masonry. The Master whose program comprises nothing but working the three ritual degrees without making provision to teach us the meaning and purpose of these degrees has a poor conception of his duty or of the requirements of his office. Few would dispute the fact that the newly raised brother rarely, if ever, knows what Freemasonry expects of him or what its purpose and objectives are. Yet the progress and purpose of Freemasonry can never be attained until the members become vividly aware of that purpose and of the part each must play as an individual in the realization of that objective. A Mason may know nothing of the history and development of Freemasonry, of his duties and responsibilities, or of the goal toward which we aim.

The office of Worshipful Master requires that he not only look after the interests of his brethren but visit the sick, the absentee, the widow, and the prospective candidate, either personally or by proxy. His duty requires that he arrange a suitable program of instruction to supplement the ritual. . . Truly his is an exacting office and its duties are not to be lightly undertaken. — Masonic Record.

No plant can bloom or bear fruit in uncongenial soil. It is equally true that no man can become a true Mason who has not within him those natural elements of character which ever unfold and expand under Masonic teachings.

EVERYDAY MASONRY

Square & Compass, Denver

A formula for living stated in the most simple terms is not always simple to put into practice. It must be studied carefully by the individual and practiced by the individual until it becomes a part of him.

In every teaching of Freemasonry there is that which is directly related to the highest ethical and religious truths, the very wisdom of the ages, but there is more—Masonry illustrates by symbols and conveys by allegory just how such teachings are to be used in a practical manner to govern the life of a Mason.

No teaching in itself is of any value unless we take it to our very hearts and discover for ourselves the genuine happiness that follows from the application of such teaching.

We may take a superior attitude toward some particular virtue that we have and fail entirely to grow in virtues because we refuse to see the beauty expressed in the lives of others.

We can crush another by a single sentence of unjust criticism or by idle gossip. We can kill the hopes and dreams of others by our envy at their preferment.

We can, on the other hand, apply Masonic teachings to everyday living and walk proudly as men and Masons. And, by so doing, the world will be convinced of the wonder and greatness of Freemasonry.

MASONRY

(Exchange)

Masonry is not a religious sense that you identify religion with a specific church or denomination.

Masonry is religious in that Masonic Lodge is a group of men who are of diverse religious beliefs and affiliations. Every man who ever became a Mason has put his faith and trust in God. His religious belief and his church affiliation are his sacred and privileges.

Masonry has been and ever be the staunch ally of religion. It has forever fought for the man to practice the religion of his choice.

Let us not disclaim the religious sign of Masonry in order to the unjust criticism of our religion. Masonry is not a denomination.

It does not pretend to be the place of the church. Masonry is sonry.

RELIGION AND MASONRY

Since the Teacher of Galilee not use the word "Religion" as far as we have record, we may use the word of the soldier of World War I who said "Religion is just your life that there is a God." Definitions from other people: "The art of living in two times the same time." Another: "It is eternal life in the midst of

BABSON DISCUSSES THE BUSINESS CYCLE OF YOUR CITY

Babson Park, Mass. Every community has its own cycle of business activities. These usually include:

1. Some basic industry of the city, such as the manufacture of textiles, steel, or shoes.
2. The building industry which depends largely on population growth.
3. The money distributed by the State to the unemployed, which is constantly increasing.
4. The automobile and gasoline businesses, which are constantly draining money out of the city to support Detroit or Texas.
5. The liquor business, which does the city no good and perhaps much harm.

Take a moment to analyze your community and decide how your city or town stacks up with neighboring communities.

IS YOUR CITY GOING AHEAD OR FALLING BEHIND?

The answer to this question depends largely upon the percentage of unemployment over the entire year. If your town needs little unemployment insurance money to depend upon, and if most everyone works, your city is a good one to live in. If, on the other hand, the reverse is true, then you should think of moving elsewhere with your children. Hence the question arises, "Are you living in the best state?"

The state which has probably the best record is Utah. The Mormon religion teaches everyone to work. During the last World War Utah was the only state which asked no Federal Aid. The Mormons believe that if a person cannot get regular employment at some given town, he should go out and work without pay to make a better Utah. I have written many books, but the one which had the largest circulation is "Fundamentals of Prosperity." Actually, 80 per cent of these books were purchased by Mormons.

MUTUAL FUNDS GIVE SAFETY

Just now many families are moving to California, which is greatly profiting from the defense industry, including the manufacture of missiles, airplanes, submarines, and electronics. Of course, we will never see full disarmament. As a last resort, people would fight with spears and rocks. Yet I do expect that nuclear warfare will be strictly limited. California could temporarily suffer from such a movement, notwithstanding the fact that it would be the olation as a whole.

Fortunate are you readers who live in a city with activities which are fully diversified, — that is, independent too much on any one industry. The safety of your investments depends largely upon diversification as does the safety of your investments. One should not put too much money in Mutual Funds, though surely provide protection through sound diversification. No one got rich buying Mutual Funds. It is an old saying: "We can eat our cake and have it too."

IMPORTANCE OF NATURAL RESOURCES

After graduating from high school or college, settle in a section which has great natural resources. There is a fine harbor, either on the coast or on some large lake. The center of good agriculture or mineral land always offers opportunities for young people. Count houses, shopping centers, even chain super markets are temporary "fads."

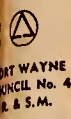

There will always be opportunities for young people of good character to find work. Who are anxious to work. Mien teaches that poor young men often rise to the top while the "do-to" boys often sink to the bottom. Another favorite saying of theirs is: "Only three things come back to the earth: from shirt sleeves back to shirt sleeves." The wheel of opportunity slowly revolving. The great finance corporations tell me so-called "poor boys" are financial risks, if they have wives. "A woman usually makes a man or breaks a man."

WHAT SHOULD MY BOY

If your boy intelligently decides that he should move to some state, do not hold him back. If he decides to move, he takes a good character reference from a local banker, teacher, minister, priest, or rabbi. He starts right with the right people.

A big-business employer told me: "When I want a new employee, I visit a library and get acquainted with the girls at the desk. They know more promising young men than most promising young men. Librarians have found young men who have become my junior partners."

the month is the beginning of a season for Thomas R. Marshall.

We hold our annual Past Masters Dinner, followed by the ball elections. I would urge all members to attend for the following reasons: First, because of the great meal which will be served; second, to help elect the officers who will conduct the affairs of the Chapter for the ensuing year; Third, to show your support for the Chapter which it needs to operate successfully in the coming year.

It would also like to remind the members of the Grand Council Grand Chapter meeting to be held in Fort Wayne in the month of September. I am sure all the companions want to attend them. Since this is the last month I shall be writing columns, I wish to thank the Past High Priests and companions who have helped in conducting the affairs of Thomas R. companions, I bid you all well back to Chapter, after what was a pleasant summer vacation for all of you. Don't forget that the 20, 1962, will be the Annual Meeting of Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19, which time you will elect High Priest and other Officers. Please make a special effort to attend this meeting, as your support is needed. The traditional Ham and Bean dinner will be served at 6:15 before the meeting.

It was with much regret that I received the resignation of our Chaplain, Comp. Robert Squires, who was doing such a wonderful job. Bob is being transferred to the west coast, and he can be sure that he has the best wishes of all of us in his new work. But there is good news to report also. I had the pleasure of appointing Comp. Bobby Hood to fill the vacant Chaplain's station. I know he will be much credit to Fort Wayne Chapter, as Bobby has shown much interest in our affairs and has started to take an active part in our Ritualistic work; we are glad to have you with Comp. Hood.

Grand Chapter and Grand Council will be held in Fort Wayne on Oct. 25, 26, 27, 1962. Although Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19, will be the Host to the Convention, we will need much help from all York Rite bodies and even some of your wives will be asked to help. Any Companion who desires to volunteer his services in any way, please contact your High Priest, or Myron A. Millhorn, who has been named General Chairman of the Convention.

THE EVOLUTION OF FREEMASONRY

Have you ever stopped to wonder why there are bits of Masonry in early history, tradition, mythology, and symbolism of the race? The story of the builders reaches from the Temple of King Solomon to the Grand Lodge of England. Masonry has spread all over the civilized world. Probably the full and complete history of Masonry can never be reduced to words on paper. That is because the essence of Masonry consists of human and spiritual values which cannot be numbered and weighed and measured.

Masonry has survived because it is a continuing unfinished story of builders seeking through the cardinal virtues and common endeavors, to make life a nobler expression of the brotherhood of man.

Let us therefore more earnestly strive to be Masons, not merely in form, but in faith, in spirit, and in character. Let us strive to realize something of the vision of humanity and the dream of man — brotherhood.

—Masonic Chronicler

MOSAIC PAVEMENT

The word Mosaic has nothing whatsoever to do with Moses. The Greek root from which it is derived is "moussa" a muse, suggesting something artistic. We find the root appearing in our word "museum," meaning a building in which artistic works are exhibited.

In the course of time, through the Latin, it came into the modern languages and during the Middle Ages it gradually became narrowed down to mean a pattern formed by small pieces of tile or inlay — a form of decorative work very much in vogue among the Operative Masons.

Remember that our "mosaic pavement" is so called because it consists of an inlay pattern made up of small black and white squares alternating to suggest day and night.

It was a great honor to be installed as master counselor at our installation June 15. I will try very hard to make my term a success. Also installed were Paul Boergert, senior counselor; Dudley Wass, junior counselor; Phil Baker, treasurer; Dave McVay, senior deacon; Tom Errington, junior deacon; Mike Kelly, senior steward; Steve Poiry, junior steward; Bob Quick, chaplain; Ed Errington, sentinel; Jim Long, standard bearer; Steve Kabisch, almoner; Matt Cornacchione, marshal; and Larry Buskhill, orator. New preceptors are Ron Smith, Max Johnson, Dave Bordner, Tom Rodgers, Steve Sandkubler, Dave Jackson, and Jon Walda.

The Representative DeMolay award was awarded at the installation to Allen Haney, Robert Smith, Paul Boergert, Richard McVay, and myself. Our chairman of the advisory council Mel Erhman took charge of the ceremonies and it was very impressive. Also honored at the installation was William Branstrator, who received the honorary Chevalier Degree for work in and out of the chapter. Congratulations, Bill. I would also like to congratulate Al Haney for a very successful term as master counselor.

Our first meeting will be September 12. I strongly urge all DeMolays to work on petitions in order that we might have a large number of petitions to be read at our first night. The obligations will be repeated at this meeting so I hope that many DeMolays will attend.

I am very much in debt to the Mothers Circle and their President Mrs. Horrell for a wonderful reception after our installation. Thank you very much.

During the summer I attended the convocation in Indianapolis and I believe that everybody that attended enjoyed themselves very much and learned a great deal. Our DeMolay Degree team put on a fine show and managed to take third in tough competition. Our sweetheart, Brenda Dull, didn't win but I'll always think she should have won.

Also, during the summer I attended the Jobs Daughters installation and I think they have some fine officers. My congratulations to their new queen Ellen Stonbery. I think she is a credit to Jobs Daughters and should have a very successful term.

Our hayride will be October 13 at Meyers Barn outside of New Haven. It will be discussed to a greater degree at our first meeting. I hope that every DeMolay is willing to get behind the chapter and back it 100 per cent on its first social event.

Also, I have been informed by Ellen Stanbery that the jobs Daughters hayride will be September 29. It too will take place at Meyer's Barn.

Let's all get to work after our summer vacation and make our DeMolay chapter even better. Remember that everyone gets out of DeMolay exactly what he puts into it.

A FRIEND

A friend is one to whom one may pour out all the contents of one's heart, chaff and grain together, knowing that the gentlest of hands will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping and with the breath of kindness blow the rest away.

—Arabian Proverb

HOW MANY ARE WE?

The Masonic Craft continues to maintain its membership lead over that of every other lodge type organization. According to figures compiled by the 1960 book of fraternal society statistics just published by Fraternal Monitor, Indianapolis, there are estimated to be 4,216,352 Masons in the United States and some 1,350,000 Masons in other parts of the world. The second largest men's fraternal group is International Odd Fellowship which counts 1,345,633 members. The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is third with 1,300,000. The Knights of Columbus claim a membership of 1,087,471, the Moose 1,020,424, and the Eagles 850,000.

Many organizations accept both men and women and in this group The Order of Eastern Star leads all the rest with nearly 3,000,000 members. Of the service clubs: Lions International is the most numerous with 605,203, with Rotary second with 471,500, Kiwanis with 256,000 is followed by National Exchange Clubs with 85,000, and Optimist International with 65,000.

Amongst the veterans organizations, the American Legion leads with 2,702,992 and the auxiliary numbers almost a million. Veterans of Foreign Wars list 1,300,000 and its auxiliary, 850,000. It is figured that there are 4,053,195 Boy Scouts and 3,042,000 Girl Scouts.

Among the groups with insurance or social benefits, the Knights of Pythias numbered 265,000, Woodmen of America about 456,000, Independent Order of Foresters, 366,000, and Maccabees, 259,000. There are 110,000 Pythian Sisters. The number of Rebeccas (Odd Fellows) is not noted.

THOUGHTS ON THINKERS

Most of the men the world labels brilliant are no more brilliant than the rest of us; they just do more thinking than we do. They concentrate on an idea while the rest of us flit, like humming birds from one rivalry to another.

Sir Isaac Newton, something of a wool-gatherer in his youth, worked out the laws of motion and universal gravitation, invented calculus and did quite a few other mental chores of note. But, looking back over his life, he denied vehemently that he was any smarter than the next fellow. He attributed his accomplishments simply to "the power of patient thought." Practically every important benefit that has been evolved for mankind has been the result of somebody's "patient thinking." So, in the unlikely event that you should come upon someone thinking, think twice yourself before you disturb him!

Brethren! To labor under the sign of fidelity. As the memories of a beautiful summer are still fresh and Autumn enfolds us, it is once again time to take up our tools and begin the labors at hand. These labors should be very pleasurable and inspiring for as you know—this year marks the Fiftieth Anniversary of Huntertown Lodge as well as three of it's very first members; Floyd Gause, Clyde Tucker and George Tilden; Floyd being the very first candidate ever initiated in our lodge. We plan to celebrate this event at Huntertown Lodge Hall on Sept. 29th, Saturday night at 7:30 P.M. This will be a public presentation, so anyone interested is invited to attend. Brother Harold Martin, Past Master of Home Lodge and whom you remember as the Speaker at our St. Johns Day banquet, has graciously consented to represent Grand Lodge in presenting these 50 year awards of Gold. It is my earnest wish that every member could be present at this memorable and historic milestone in the life of our lodge and ourselves as well.

Another date to remember is Oct. 3rd, which will be lodge for instruction at Huntertown in conjunction with Churubusco Lodge.

We wish a speedy and complete recovery to Gene Martin, our S.D., and Genevieve who were injured as the result of an automobile accident.

There is a sense in which the past means everything which has occurred before this present day. In that sense the world's past goes so far back that our minds are unable to think, or even to try to think, how ancient it is. But we do not mean that antique and prehistoric time when usually we think of the past; we mean only so much of it as still concerns us, which still has the power to shape or direct us. It is that which lies in the memory of men still living; it stretches back forty or fifty years. To most of us the most living history is the history of the past half century. We must honor those who for this period of time have served Masonry and have been the bearers and carriers of history. They are here in actual flesh and blood and we congratulate them most heartily. Also we salute the "cloud of witnesses" who invisibly accompany you, they who have passed to the Grand Lodge above, the many friends in Masonry "whom you have loved long since and lost awhile." Let one of our golden-mouthed poets express our feelings with these words:

"Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The last of life, for which the first was made:
Our times are in his hand
Who saith, A whole I planned; Youth shows but half; trust God;
nor be afraid."

Summer being nearly over, we will soon have to settle down from our vacations, relaxation, and various other activities, and begin to think more seriously about our masonic duties.

I received a letter from Howard O. Hunter, Grand Lecturer, informing me that he would hold a Lodge of Instruction in a joint meeting of Harlan and Leo Lodges, to be held in the hall of Harlan Lodge No. 296, at Harlan, Ind. The Entered Apprentice Degree will be exemplified with both Lodges participating.

We are strongly urging all our officers and members to mark this date on their calendar and keep it open for this important meeting. This meeting will be highly beneficial to each member and to the lodge as a whole. Don't forget to be at our meeting the first Tuesday night of September, which will be the 4th.

Vacation time is just about over for this year for most of us and time to start thinking about our Lodge work once again. Don't forget our stated meeting is the second Thursday of each month starting at 7:30 p.m.

I have received word from the Grand Lecturer that Olive Branch Lodge and Decatur Lodge will hold a joint Lodge of Instruction on the Fellowcraft Degree at the Olive Branch Lodge Hall, Poe, Indiana, on Monday, October 1, 1962, at 7:30 p.m. I would like to have as many brethren as possible to attend and to mark it down on your calendar of events. So lets have a good turn out for Lodge of Instruction, Oct. 1st. Also on our stated meeting the 11th of October we are going to have Past Master's Night, which will begin with a dinner followed by our regular meeting and with an outstanding speaker and also the presentation of several 25 year awards. So plan on attending this meeting and join in the fellowship of your friends and the giving of recognition to the Past Masters of our Lodge who have all had a hand in building and shaping Olive Branch Lodge, and the many men who have been raised in our Hall. Keep these dates open, October 1 and October 11, 1962. You will receive more information on our Past Master's Night Later.

The radio has added thousands of words to our vocabulary, not counting those used when it gets out of order.

But when I take a long time to do something, I'm thorough. When the other fellow doesn't do it, he's too lazy, but when I don't do it, I'm too busy. When the other fellow does something that pleases the boss, he's polishing the brass. But when I do something that pleases the boss—that's cooperation. When the other fellow gets ahead, he sure had the lucky breaks. But when I manage to get ahead, Man! Hard work did that! Funny, isn't it?

AMERICAN BULWARKS

In ancient times, operative Masons, skilled in architecture, guided by the moral law, laid the foundations and erected the buildings that house these three great bulwarks of the American way of life—the home, the school, and the church.

Today, as speculative Masons, it is our solemn duty to be ever watchful that these three institutions shall continue to grow and prosper, unhampered and unrestricted by insidious foes from within, or armed forces from without.

A GREAT COMMON ALTAR

By Albert Pike

Fremasonry is one faith, one great religion, one great common altar around which all men, of all tongues and all languages can assemble, in which there can be no rivalry, except a noble emulation of rites, orders and degrees, which can best work and best agree. Masonry will never be true to her mission till we all join hands, heart to heart, and hand to hand, around the altar of Masonry with a determination that Masonry shall become at some time worthy of her pretensions, no longer a pretender to that which is good, but that she shall be an apostle of peace, good will, charity and elevation.

THE LETTER 'E'

The letter "e" is said to most unfortunate letter in the alphabet, because it is always cash, forever in debt, never danger, and in torment all the time. All of which is true. Still, in war, always in peace, and in something to eat. It is the thing of existence, the crown of ease, and the end of trouble out it there would be no heaven. It is the center of and is always in love. It is the thing of encouragement and the end of failure.

Beginning Again

Lesson for August 26, 1962

Dr. Foreman impossible. Yet such is the universal reach and meaning of the Bible, where we find this ancient story, that we can learn something for our own lives.

Nothing is harder than beginning again, especially beginning again on the scene of a failure or a disaster. Yet that is just what the Hebrew people, exiled from their beloved Jerusalem, had to do. Really, their home city was not there any more. The glories of the city Solomon built have never returned, to this day. All around the returning exiles were the ruins of the old city, in the midst of which they must slowly build a new one.

We remember that the little nation of Judah had been smashed, and that its destruction was God's will, to punish the nation for its sins. Before the crash, few would believe it could happen. But after the crash, the mood of the nation changed at once from a silly optimism to a deep and bitter pessimism. From singing the song "We are God's people and he will not let anything destroy us," they sang a different tune—how different can be seen by reading the book of "Lamentations" written at this time. From being all hope, they plunged violently to no-hope. God had turned against them, they felt. And so he had. But until the prophets persuaded them otherwise, they did not think God could ever forgive them. The prophets had to preach over and over again: Just as for a man must be punishment, so penitence there is forgiveness. Punishes his own children, does not destroy them.

After Disaster

The clock and the calendar not run backward. What's done. Not even the Lord in would restore Jerusalem was. But few disasters are without remedy. The storm wrecks behind it—but it pays. There is always an afterglow of the worst of calamities. It is that a few readers of the urn will be able to survive the terrors of a nuclear war ever fought before. You do survive, it may be a hundred miles to the person who survived as you. You will have many other lems and much distress; thing will be sure—that "war" can happen once again. You will have lived the worst disaster in human history; and after that, other will be mild and tame by parison. But the thing you have to remember (the book be burned up and what you you won't get from books more)—you must remember God is always on both sides of every disaster: before and he is there.

After Confusion

The well-known passage Isaiah about making a road in the wilderness brings picture of a vast desert it is very easy to be lost unless you keep to the path. Life is no hard to find, Jesus said; but is such a road. Lost in the desert, or in a snow people are very likely to around in circles, instead of a straight line. So confused time, with the best hardly knowing what to do and nobody knowing how to about peace, if more people listen to God there would be confusion in the world. A magazine not long ago contained debate between an agnostic Billy Graham on the religious men? Billy Graham surely right: they ought men of faith, for one particular, the God-fearing does try to hear the voice of God of truth. Such a leader make mistakes; but surely better off than the man who not think there is a God at all!

ON THE LEVEL

(Indiana Freemason)

"The true rule, in determining to embrace or reject anything, is not whether it has any evil in it, but whether it has more evil than of good."

The foregoing quotation caused the wheels to turn again as applied to Masonry. Now there can be no doubt that Masonry contains no evil. At no point in Masonic work can we find any evil. However, we must recognize the fact that Masonry is more than a near-perfect philosophy—it is also an organization. An organization of people who are not perfect. Thus we find the rule becomes applicable to Masonry.

We all know that every Mason embodies many more good characteristics than evil, but the rest of the world may not know it. The man on the street sees or hears of our petty differences and may assume that Masonry is not as good for the character as it is supposed to be. Perhaps we should subtly emphasize our good characteristics so that he may observe them too.

REST AND REFLECT

As you travel the road of life, keep going always doing your best, but take the advice of one who knows; Look back once in a while and pause for rest and reflection. Gather your thoughts together and as you plan your steps ahead also remember to examine the goal you've set for yourself. Had I but rested along the way and reviewed the reasons for my hasty, headlong pursuit of wealth, fame and mere appearances, I might have been spared the lonely emptiness that is now my constant companion and my reward. But the road has been long, the hour is late, and it is too far to retrace my steps and take a different path, so I leave to youth this moral legacy:

You will reach your goal with time to spare and to enjoy if you but rest and reflect along the way — James R. Mitchell, 33.

Fort Wayne will host the 107th Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter, R.A.M. and the 107th Annual Assembly of the Grand Council, R.

and S.M. of the State of Indiana in the Masonic Temple, starting with the Grand Council Opening on Thursday morning, Oct. 25, 1962, and concluding with the Chapter deliberations about noon on Sat. Oct. 27, 1962.

John D. Lombard, M.E.G.-H.P. of the State of Indiana, will be host, assisted by P.H.P. Compan. Myron Milhorn, General Chairman, and Grand Chaplain G. Doyal White, and Grand Guard Roger W. Shafer. The Officers of the local Chapters and Council will serve on Committees.

Fort Wayne has had several men who have been honored by serving the Grand Chapter as G.H.P. Solomon D. Bayless in 1864, Henry W. Mordhurst in 1895, Fred W. Pocock in 1919 and Wilbur E. Neuenschwander in 1946. Those men who were honored by serving as M.I.G.M. of the Council were Solomon D. Bayless in 1864, Henry W. Mordhurst in 1887, William J. Adams in 1922, Ephraim P. Dailey in 1936, and Everett E. Miles in 1951.

Fort Wayne has hosted the Grand Chapter and Grand Council on May 20, 1868 with Thomas Newby, G.H.P. and Thomas Patterson, G.M.; Oct. 18, 1921 with Thomas R. Spink, G.H.P. and Fred R. Farnum, G.M.; October 20, 1936 with Glenn M. Smith, G.H.P. and Robert H. McKinney, G.M.

Registration desks will be open at the Masonic Temple at 9:00 a.m. on both Thurs. and Fri. mornings for Companions and their ladies. Please present your credentials to the Registration Committee upon your arrival at the Temple.

Mrs. Myron Milhorn is General Chairman of the Ladies activities and is being assisted by the wives of the local Officers.

On Wednesday, November 7, the Fort Wayne Valley, A. A. Scottish Rite will open a three day Convocation for the conferring of degrees. The Convocation will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 7, 8, 9, 1962, closing with a banquet for all members at 7:00 p.m. on Friday. The banquet speaker will be Dr. Kenneth McFarland, from Topeka, Kansas, a guest lecturer and educational director of The American Trucking Association and General Motors Corporation.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7

The Fall Convocation will open Wednesday, November 7, at 12 noon with the registration of candidates and members.

The degree exemplification work will start at 1:30 p.m. when George F. Hacker, 33° Thrice Potent Master of the Fort Wayne Lodge of Perfection will open the work on the Fourth Degree. This degree will be followed by the Sixth Degree, Melvin V. Ehrman, 33° presiding and the Eighth Degree, conferred by the Brethren from Huntington County, Carl R. Bailey, 32° presiding.

After dinner at 6:00 p.m., the Fourteenth Degree, the last degree of the Lodge of Perfection, Edwin R. Thomas, 33° presiding, will complete the degree work for the first day.

THURSDAY, NOV. 8

The ceremonies for Thursday, November 8, will open at 12:30 p.m. followed at 1:30 p.m. by exemplification of the Fifteenth Degree of Darius Council, Princes of Jerusalem, Clayton L. Herrick Sovereign Prince presiding.

At 3:30 p.m., Emmanuel Chapter of Rose Croix, Most Wise Master Edward H. Purcell presiding will exemplify the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Degrees. The new Eighteenth Degree with the picture tableaux of the "Sermon on the Mount" and the "Lord's Last Supper" which has been added to the degree, will be presented.

Dinner will be held at 6:00 p.m., after which at 8:00 p.m. the Twenty-Sixth Degree will be conferred by the Brethren from Wells County, John R. Young, 33°, presiding. This is the first degree to be exemplified by the Fort Wayne Consistory, Dean B. Needham, Commander-In-Chief.

FRIDAY, NOV. 9

The program for the day will start off with the registration of candidates at 10:30 a.m. followed by the organization and election of the Fall 1962 Class Officers.

Lunch will be served at 12:00 noon, after which at 1:30 p.m. the Twentieth Degree, Albert R. Spencer, 33°, presiding will be exemplified. This degree will be followed at 4:00 p.m. with the exemplification of the Thirty-Second Degree, both the Ceremonial and Drama Sections, Dean B. Needham, Commander-In-Chief, presiding. The Convocation will close its ceremonies with a free banquet for all members, starting at 7:00 p.m.

TRUTH COURT TO HOLD CARD PARTY AND BAZAAR

October finds us in the middle of a busy Fall season, with three petitioners knocking at the door of the Lodge. I hope every Brother will make it a special point to be on hand at least one of the meetings during the month, and assist in bringing Masonry to them.

September 16th was annual "Pilgrimage Day" to the Indiana Masonic Home. Although the representation from Wayne Lodge was small, they came away with a renewed admiration for the wonderful work our Brotherhood is doing for the distressed, the aged, the widow, and the orphan. The Indiana Home is one of the finest institutions of its kind in the whole United States.

Our Veteran's Hospital Visitation will start again on Monday, October 8th. Let's get behind Brother Kenny Rayl and have a real turnout for the beginning of the new season. Wayne Lodge Brother Hubert Grage is a recent patient there, and many out-of-town Masons really welcome these Monday night chats.

On Wednesday, October 10, Wayne Lodge will host Home Lodge for the exemplification Degree in the Lodge of Instruction. This is one of the most important Masonic meetings of the year, because it is here "are transmitted unimpaired the excellent tenets of our institution."

On Friday, October 26th, we will have our Family Halloween Party at Sear's Pavilion in Foster Park. There will be games and prizes for costumed children, and the usual Halloween eats and treats. Starting time is 6:30 p.m.

Tickets are on sale for our Annual Dinner Dance, which will be held Saturday, November 10th, at the Temple Ballroom. Dinner will start at 6:45 p.m. We are looking for a capacity crowd to entertain in our newly-decorated Ballroom. Joe McDowell will call, and a good square-and-round dance band will play. All of the officers of the Lodge will have tickets, so look them up and plan to attend this really big event of the year.

Ladies Night Saturday, October 20th at 6:30 p.m. in the Masonic Building. We are all looking forward to Ladies Night this month because we will have an unusual menu; fine entertainment and Worshipful Brother Bill Swartz as the main speaker. Tickets can be procured from the officers and members. Try not to wait until the last minute. Following is the Calendar for this month and next:

OCTOBER

- 1 — Veteran Hospital Visitation — 7:15 p.m.
- 2 — Master Mason Degree — open 5:30 p.m. — Dinner 6:30 p.m.
- 9 — Stated Meeting — 7:30 p.m. Officers turn in rituals.
- 11 — Lodge of Instruction — 7:30 p.m. — Corinthian Room.
- 16 — EA Degree — 7:00 p.m.
- 20 — Ladies Night — 6:30 p.m. — Masonic Temple
- 23 — Degree work — 7:00 p.m.
- 30 — Degree work — 7:00 p.m.

We would thank those of our member who journeyed to Franklin. Three Rivers Lodge was well represented. Several families took picnic lunches with them. They all had a splendid time.

We had a large turnout for the Sept. stated meeting where we enjoyed the fine program prepared by W. B. Dennis. The program was a taped recording of the members of the House Committee speaking on various subjects. It was very informative. Our Secretary suggested that the recording be made available to the other lodges. Worshipful Master Fisher and W. B. Dennis will plan to follow through with this suggestion.

To those who are sick, we wish them a speedy return to a normal routine. Please let the Officers know of any illness among our members. The Calendar above has been prepared for you. Cut it out and put it where it can be seen. Only then will you know where to go, when to go and why you are going. Thank You.

Sometimes give your service for nothing, calling to mind a previous benefaction or present satisfaction. And if there is an opportunity of serving one who is a stranger in financial straits, give full assistance to all such. For where there is love of man, there is also love of art. And it is well to superintend the sick to make them well, to care for the healthy to keep them well.

Hippocrates

The above is from the writings of Hippocrates. It shows that even in ancient times the philosophies and tenets of Masonry were practiced. Think a bit of the satisfaction we may derive from a call on some brother who is ill and cut off from his usual activities. This is a busy world, but surely each one of us could find time to call on one shut in brother a month. This would be enough to while away many hours that would otherwise be lonely.

We have one candidate for degrees for September and one new petition to act upon for October. Perhaps this will sharpen us up enough to come through the Lodge for Instruction without too many errors. South Gate Lodge and Summit City Lodge, with South Gate as the host lodge, will have a Lodge for Instruction on the Fellowcraft Degree, on October 9, 1962, with Brother Howard O. Hunter our Grand Lecturer to instruct us. Why not come and watch this? Your Officers will do much better if several of you are on the side lines, offering your moral support.

Plans for the Annual Homecoming Banquet are well under way and a letter, which will give you more details will soon be mailed to you. The date for the Homecoming is November 30th so keep date open.

I do not know of any of our brothers at this time. Several have been reported but all are now recovering nearly so at least. I sincerely hope however brother Jesse M. is still ill and welcomes visitors. We wish a speedy recovery to any who are ill and extend our deepest sympathy to those in sorrow. See in lodge.

By the time you read the annual fraternal pilgrimage of The Home Lodge Brethren to Grand Valley Lodge No. 1112 of Peoria Heights, Illinois will be a matter of record. I will have something to report on this assembly in the November issue.

In the month of September we had the pleasure of offering the Degrees on the Thiers: Dean Sharp, Art Miller, Robert Curtis, Donald DeBie. Welcome Masonic light Brethren. October 10, will be the Lodge of Instruction for Home Lodge and Wayne Lodge. We welcome the brethren of the Lodge to this instruction period. Come and see your lodge functions on this particular period.

The following message from the September Freeman, written by H. Haywood, Masonic author, scholar under "Decline Fellowship" by Dwight Smith, Grand Secretary, the Eighteenth Century Lodge the Feast bulked so large in the life of the Lodge, in many of them the members were seated at the table when the Lodges were opened and remained at it throughout the Communication, when degrees were conferred. The result was that Master fellowship was good fellowship in it, as in a warm, fruitful soil, acquaintanceship, friendship, and affection flourished — there was no staring across at a wall, of this festal spirit flowered the love which Masons bring to their Lodge. They brought gifts to it, and only by the ring of old inventories can the extent of that love; the altars, pedestals, tapestries, silver, candlesticks, oil libraries, Bibles, mementos, curios, regalias, and portraits. The Lodge was a home, warm, comfortable, luxurious, full of memories, and tokens of affection, and even if a member died his presence was never wholly absent; to such a Lodge no member went begrudgingly, nor had to be coerced, nor was moved by a ghastly, cold thing called sense of duty, but went as drawn by a magnet, and contented the days until he would go."

"What business has any lodge for grinding out the work! It was not called into existence in order to have the minutes read! Even a mystic will snap under the strain of cheerlessness, repetition, monotony, dullness. A Lodge needs a fire lighted in it, and the only way to have that warmth is to restore the Lodge Feast, because when it is restored good fellowship and brotherly love will follow, and where good fellowship is, members will fill up an empty room not only with themselves but also with their gifts."

CONTENTMENT
By Napoleon Hill

The richest man in all the world lives over in Happy Valley.

He is rich in values that endure, in things he cannot lose—things that provide him with contentment, sound health, peace of mind and harmony within his soul.

Here is an inventory of his riches and how he acquired them:

"I found happiness by helping others to find it.

"I found sound health by living temperately and eating only the food my body requires to maintain itself.

"I am free from all causes and effects of fear and worry.

"I hate no man, envy no man, but love and respect all mankind.

"I am engaged in a labor of love with which I mix play generously; therefore, I never grow tired.

"I pray daily, not for more riches, but for more wisdom with which to recognize, embrace and enjoy the great abundance of riches I already possess.

"I speak no name save only to honor it, and I slander no man for any cause whatsoever.

"I ask no favors of anyone except the privilege of sharing my blessings with all who desire them.

"I am on good terms with my conscience, therefore, it guides me accurately in everything I do.

"I have no enemies because I injure no man. Rather, I try to help everyone with whom I come in contact.

"I have more material wealth than I need because I am free from greed and covet only those things I can use constructively while I live.

"My wealth comes from those whom I have benefited by sharing my blessings.

"The estate of Happy Valley which I own is not taxable.

It exists mainly in my own mind, in intangible riches that cannot be assessed for taxation or appropriated except by those who adopt my way of life. I created this estate over a lifetime of effort by observing nature's law and forming habits to conform with them."

There are no copyrights on the Happy Valley Man's success creed.

If you will adopt it, and live by it, you can make life pay off on your own terms.

It can attract to you new and more desirable friends, as well as disarm enemies.

It can help you to occupy more space in the world and get more joy from living.

It can bring prosperity to your business, profession or calling, and make your home a paradise of profound enjoyment for every member of your family.

It can add years to your life and give you freedom from fear and anxiety.

It can place you on the "success beam" and keep you there.

But above all, the Happy Valley Man's creed can bring you wisdom to solve all your personal problems—before they arise—and give you peace and contentment.

It is with eager anticipation your officers are looking forward to a new program inaugurated for the first time this fall. On Wednesday, October 24, 1962 at 6:30 p.m. Maumee Lodge will hold its first Ladies Night. Preparations are underway to make this an evening to be remembered by both members and their wives. Special efforts have been put forth to secure the best in both food and entertainment.

We feel that it is no more than fitting that the wives, who have patiently stood by while we carried on our lodge work, be included in this program as a tribute to their unselfishness. Admission to this event will be by ticket and the cost is $1.50 per couple. They may be purchased from any officer or from any member of the Fellowship Team. Plan now to attend and bring the "Little Lady."

Lodge is again at work and we have been informed by Grand Lodge that we will have inspection with Sol D. Bayless Lodge on Friday October 12, 1962. If you are able, please come and see how your officers perform under the guidance of the Grand Lecturer. This is interesting especially if you've never attended a Lodge of Instruction.

As we progress in Masonry and in life we count among our most treasured possessions the friendships we have made. A poem by Ella Van Court speaks clearly of their value:

The sweetness of remembrance,
The love that friendship lends,
Combine to fill the heart with song
In praise of loyal friends.

God bless the kindly spirit
Which prompts each loving thought,
For with the gold of friendship Great riches you have brought.
The sweetness of remembrance
Puts blue into the sky;
It drives away the shadows
And makes the clouds roll by.
The little act of giving
A kindly thought or two—
It makes your life worth living
To know your friends are true.

It is now October and vacations are almost all over, the children are back to school and I would like to now see all of you Brethren back in Lodge on Monday nights. Sol D. Bayless needs your help. As it looks now we will have work during October and also we are having a Lodge of Instruction on Friday Oct. 12 at 7:30 p.m. along with Maumee Lodge.

October 13th is our Fish Fry and November 26th is our Annual Past Masters Banquet. Mark these dates on your calendar.

The Veterans Hospital Visitation Committee will make its regular visitation Monday, October 29th at 7:15 p.m. Chairman Bro. Ed VanHorn will welcome any help he can get.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Bro. David Dolson and family for the double tragedy in the loss of their son and daughter-in-law. Their son Albert was also a member of Sol D. The Lodge also extends its most sincere sympathy to the family of Bro. C. Perry Cooper a 50 year member who passed away Aug. 29th at Detroit.

Bro. George Seabold was in the Lutheran Hospital, but has been released and is now well on the mend.

Anyone knowing of any illness please contact any of your officers and make a report.

to drive us to Franklin. All in all, everyone had a very enjoyable day.We did our first initiation work on the nineteenth. They are a fine group of initiates, and we hope they will all be very active members. Our next initiation will be November seventh, so get on the ball, girls, and boost our membership. Special recognition will be given to the member bringing in the largest number of new members.Another big event in September was the hayride. Many people attended, and everyone had a marvelous time. Meyer's Barn proved to be a fine location. Also "The Klannen" who provided the music, certainly shook the rafters and kept everyone's toes tapping. Many people helped to make the hayride a success, and some important ones were the ticket chairmen. Carol Botteron, Candy Clevenger, Laura Foulks, Annell Hoover, Laurie Karels, Sue Keith, Patty Kelly and Sandy Urhausen all did a wonderful job in promoting sales. Also,
Jim Tennant, Master Councilor of DeMolays, was kind enough to promote the selling of tickets to the boys.Of course, no hayride is complete without the help of the chaperones.
We are very grateful to all the parents who volunteered and to Mr.
Kemp for co-ordinating their ac-activities. Again, thank you, all

Everyone is eagerly anticipating the Demolay hayride which will be October thirteenth. Jim Tennant stated that it, too, will be at Meyer's Barn. Rides will be from seven-thirty with "The Counts" providing entertainment for the evening. Tickets are two dollars a pair and may be purchased from DeMolay.October third will be Fringe Night. Several bethehs will be their girls to the meeting, so all be there to give them a big welcome. Be sure to bring a Daughters friend along with you.
The next meeting, October tenth will be Moms' and night. This is a meeting which has been set aside to honor our mothers and fathers. We have several surprises in store for them, so be sure to bring your Mom.
Dads and show them how much all appreciate them.October twenty-fifth is the set for the rummage sale. Everyone is sure to collect all your unwanted clothing or small miscellaneous hold items that you don't want more. (If any of you girls have to find a choir robe, accidentally put to the back of your closet, be sure to bring it to a meeting. They needed desperately!) Please consider Mrs. Botteron, Guardian myself about where and when take your rummage. Remember, is one of our money-making programs and a wonderful opportunity to and make better friends with our bethel members.Tentative plans are being made for another all day decoration

"O, sun and skies and clouds of June,
And flowers of June together,
Ye cannot rival for one hour
October's bright blue weather.
O, sun and skies and flowers of June,
Count all your boasts together,
Love loveth best of all the year
October's bright blue weather"
Our fall season began with the annual polkue and Obligation meeting. The lovely decorations, the little temple with the open door, and the scroll. "Open the Gates" were so very appropriate for our first meeting.
Friend's Night was another enjoyable meeting. The "Round Up" theme was carried out as the chuck wagon was rolled in; cowboy boots, and hats, and lassos added to the gay evening and friends from throughout the district were present.
Many thanks to Sister Clara Bradley who carried through with the decoration plans for the September and October meetings just as Sister Pat Dolson, Decorating Chairman, had planned them. In memoriam to Sister Pat Dolson who was so suddenly taken from us:
"Sleep on! Oh, beloved one, remembered
And cherished with love and with tears;
Ye live; for Life's deeds are immortal,
They pass not away with the years!

ENVY: A CANKER-WORM OF THE SOUL

By Enrique T. Westrup
The beautiful central teaching of the parable of the laborers in the vineyard, given to us at the closing of the Mark Master's degree, is of the blasting effects of envy in the human character. "Those last have wrought but one hour and thou hast made them equal to us," said the laborers who have applied early. The Lord of the vineyard answered: "Friend, I do thee no wrong. Is thine eye evil because I am good?"
To suppose that we are better and more deserving than others, simply because we had a better chance or larger facility, is the acme of envy. It can't go together with charity in the same human soul. It is destructive of all true spirituality. That is why "the last shall be the first and the first last; for many are called but few chosen."
Should we not be grateful for finding so valuable a lesson at the very threshold of the Royal Arch system? It should give us full satisfaction and make us ready to pick up humbly our "penny."

TRUTH COURT No. 21 ORDER OF THE AMARANTH

Stated Meetings
2nd and 4th
Wednesdays

Election 2nd Wed.
March

Mrs. Bessie Myers ----- R.M.

On account of illness, I was unable to do my best for our publication news but hope now to be able to do better.
In the month of October we have many events to celebrate and wish a good attendance at all events.

The Ways and Means will hold a rummage sale on Oct.
6th at 2028 S. Hanna St.
Please notify H. L. Bessie Myers for pickup service and then on Oct. 29th they will hold a card party in the Indiana Dime Bank Bldg. at 7:30 p.m.

Many guests are expected to attend our Friends Night which we will have on Oct.
10th and when our Grand Royal Matron and Grand Royal Patron visit us on Oct. 26.
Both of these nights are always well attended and we hope that you will keep up the good work. A banquet will be served at 6:30 p.m.
Oct. 26th and entertainment will be furnished by the Mizpah Shrine Chanters.

The monthly meeting of all the Officers has been changed to Oct. 2nd with H. L. Anne Brettelle, 1418 Spy Ron Ave. at 7:30 p.m. On Nov. 2nd we will be visiting Radio Station W.A.N.E. on their Breakfast hour. All those that can and will attend please notify H. L. Bessie Myers by Oct. 28th.

When I was sick and full of pain,

You visited me and wished me to gain;

Your cards and letters meant much to me

For they kept my mind off my misery.

Now that I'm better, I'll try to atone,

For all the hours that I spent alone;

And give you my services every meeting night

Hoping to bring happiness, ever so bright.

All the world's a stage, and it's surprising how many people think they should have free passes.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS —

October 2nd — Initiation, Oct. 16th
— Memorial, Oct. 30th — Rummage Sale, Nov. 6th — Inspection by the Supreme Worthy Pres., Nov. 20th — Charter Members Night, Dec. 4th
— Election, Dec. 18th — Christmas Party. Each one of these dates is important so it looks as though we have a full and interesting program for the rest of the year. Your attendance will add much to the success of these meetings, especially on the date of Inspection. Lets show the Supreme W. P. that we are interested in our Assembly.

The benevolent sewing will be held Oct. 15th at the home of Mrs. Earl Lyman, 1302 E. Pettit Ave. — bring your needle and yourself and enjoy an evening of friendship while we sew for the Cancer Society. There will be no day sewing in Oct.

We are really pleased to report that Sister Maude Miles is up and at 'em again. Just shows, you can't keep a good "Gal" down. Congratulations to our Worthy Pres. — she is Grandma again. Illness reported in the family. Father of Mrs. Louis Koch and the father of Sir Knight
Don Marvel.

We have been asked to assist the Chapter and Council at the time of Grand Chapter & Grand Council on Oct. 25, 26, and 27. It is an honor to be of assistance to the members of the York Rite Bodies and I am sure we will be on hand to help in any way we can.

Remember, this is your assembly and it will grow and be successful only by the combined efforts of every member. See you at the Meeting?

BABSON COLUMN

IN FOREIGN TRAVEL

Babson Park, Mass. — Almost everything sells for a little more today than ever before; but there is one marked exception. I refer to trips from the United States to England, Ireland, and the Continent. The competition of airplane travel has raised havoc with the steamship companies.
Hence the competition has reduced rates and will reduce them further this fall and winter.

ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIPS

Clerks and other employees with a month's vacation are now buying tickets to go round the world as readily as they formerly went on a camping trip to our National Parks.
These tickets can be bought on the installment plan with a small down payment.

The cheapest trips are in cargo steamers, which are limited to twelve passengers. Such trips, however, take several months and do not run on stated schedules. They do provide attractive staterooms and good food.
Trips around the world by air cost about $1,000. Those making a trip to South America had better not bother with cargo ships or airplanes but take one of the regular passenger steamships from New York and return. These lines give excellent service and cost, for a couple (2 in a stateroom), about $2,000; and they take about two months. Remember, it is winter in the United States.
The Grace Line sails from New York south through the Panama Canal and down the West Coast to Valparaiso, Chile and return. This takes around 50 days and costs only $1,000 per person — the stateroom. The Moore-McCormack Lines sail south from New York down the East Coast, including Brazil and Argentina. This trip take so long a time and costs less. Persons desiring to go can go south by the Grace cross the Andes and go on East Coast by rail, and come back by the Moore-McCormack.

Such persons can buy a round-trip ticket at the two lines work in a friendly manner. Neither goes around the Horn.

MOST POPULAR TRIPS
Take an airplane from your city direct to San Francisco, with a short stopover in Japan.
You can go directly to Tokyo.
Here you may take a train to Japan and take your airplane to Hong Kong. (You cannot at Shanghai or any other Chinese ports). Hong Kong is interesting although you should take a guide there. Your next stop be Manila (P.I.); and then Baguio, Calcutta, Bombay, Cairo, Rome, Paris, London, and New York. A great trip — it makes me take it by just writing about it.

As I understand it, the ticket is interchangeable for a year on any line, at any time, you may get back within a specified time — say one or two months before leaving, there are many for you to do in addition to a satisfactory passport. You take many vaccinations against diseases. Hence, it is better to your ticket from a regular travel agency in or near the city where you live.

I think the airplane ticket cost about $1,300 plus tax. In addition you should carry extra money for your travel. If you are ashore, say $500 more month. Consult your travel agent on these details.

ROMANCE OF SUCH A TRIP
I have been to Europe many times including Russia and the Balkans — also Japan and Africa, and all the countries of America; but I have not yet an airplane trip "around the world." It is something you can talk before you go, and long after you return. Only about one U.S. out of 500,000 takes this trip.
Meet and make interesting and can learn more than you in a year at any Liberal Arts or State University. I am commending it as a safe and profitable investment, perhaps the investment for one who has traveled much.

POLITICS AND RELIGION

Editorial By Newcomb Cook
In The California Freemason Freemasonry by its philosophy tells the wisdom of constitutional government and the freedom of Universal public education is a comitant of the first as the foundation of church and state is for the latter. There must be educated and enlightened citizen-free government is to succeed each citizen must be free to the faith in which he believes.

How these fundamental principles are to be protected and implemented is a political problem and Freemasonry as an organization eschews political activity and denominational religious discussion. His experience as a Mason prepares a man for duties as a citizen and for the religion of his faith. His minds may differ on these and he should join with like men to support the purpose of basic principles. If we attempt to carry on these activities with framework of our Lodges we long ago have been wrecked rocks of dissension and our would have lost the stabilizing fluence of four million Freemasons. The wisdom of our ancient

The High Priest not having made the appointments will announce the line of Officers in the next

Priest, McMeekin thanked all of his Officers and the Companions for their help during the past year and expressed his assistance in the com-

of the new officers and the Chapter closed.
We would like to remind all the Com-be in Fort Wayne October 26th and urge all to attend.

a great deal to report at this time. However, things are proceeding pretty much on schedule in the preparation for Grand Chapter and the Council which convenes in Fort Wayne, Oct. 25, 26, and 27.
The York Rite Association met and discussed several ideas and reviewed some of their past projects.
They felt produced the best results in a membership drive.
The past months I have talked to about the various degrees contained in York Rite Masonry.
The Blue Lodge Brother should be a Capitulur and Cryptic Mason. From the first beams of the Ancient Apprentice to the full clean of the Ancient Master only in York Masonry do the rays of the sun dispel the last lingering of darkness.
Throughout the ages light has been the source of life, the symbol of wisdom and wisdom, the root of happiness. Ever the foe of darkness and evil, it brings vision to the blind and cheer to the sorrowful.

COMPASSES — NOT COMPASS

This word is the plural of compass. It is from the Latin "com," meaning "together," and "passus," meaning "a pass, step, way or route."
Cunning, cunning, encompass, pace are derived from the same word. A circle was once described by a compass because all the steps in making it were "together," that is, the same distance from the center, and the word, by a natural extension, became applied to the circular, two-legged instrument used in drawing a circle.
Some Masons the word is used in the singular as is "square and compass" but the plural form, "square compasses," is much preferable, especially since it immediately distinguishes the working tool from the brother's compass with which it might otherwise be confused by the uninformed.

(Oklahoma Y. R. News)

Symbolic Masonry is the spreading of light. To impart knowledge, one must first acquire knowledge, to spread light, we must seek it.
When you were raised a Master Mason, you were given Masonic Light and a "substitute" and were sent out to seek that which was lost.
Guided by the bright rays of Masonic light streaming from the Royal Arch, you find the "true work."
In Cryptic Masonry you will learn the means whereby the "true work" was preserved for the Craft and you will come into the final and full right of ancient Craft Masonic education and knowledge.
Are you content to leave the game at the 7th innings, the opera before the final act, or put down your book with the last chapter unread? Generally not! Why then should you end your Masonic education just short of perfection?
Whether you consider Masonry as a guiding code of right living, or a beautiful play, or a wonderful story, you will miss that vital knowledge of how the word was saved, if you do not take the final step, which is most beautifully exemplified in the Royal and Select Master Degrees.
Your Illustrious Master and his officers urge you to invite your Blue Lodge Brothers to seriously consider taking the York Rite Degrees.

We are well under way with our Fall activities. The drill team is working every Tuesday evening, and we have a few social activities coming up soon. Watch for the announcements.
Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 was able to send six boys, age 9-12 to Camp Crosey on Lake Tippecanoe the week of July 26-August 1.
Miss Irene Beman again made it possible for two boys to attend camp as a memorial to her brother the late Sir Knight Belmont Beman.
Sir Knight Harold O. Martin, our Camp Crosey Project Chairman, assured us that the boys had a very enjoyable week of well-rounded outdoor activities. One Fort Wayne boy won second place in the swimming events in which three hundred boys competed.
We extend our sympathy to the family of Sir Knight Linus J. Johnson who passed from our midst September 5th.

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR CHURCH

"I warn you, however, never to think that Freemasonry is a substitute for your church. I would warn you that the relevance of Freemasonry today is this: to keep in mind that religion is associated with and is synonymous with the Church, but morality is synonymous and is associated with Freemasonry.
"Religion is not the same thing as morality. Religion is the upward stretch of Man; Man raising his hands toward the heavens so that God will lift him up in order to accomplish His will for Him. Morality is the outward stretch of Man.
But you cannot substitute the outward stretch for the upward stretch.
Show me the man, a Mason, who places his trust in God and in His Church, who lifts his hands upwards, and I will show you a Mason who is filling more adequately the horizontal of the outward stretch in the disposition of His gifts through the medium of morality."

Attention DeMolays! Our big social event is coming up this month! It is to take place October 13 at Edmund Meyer's Barn on the Parent Road outside of New Haven.
Meyer's Barn has a very clean and pleasant atmosphere. In case you are wondering how to get tickets there are chairmen at the following schools: North Side, Tom Errinton; South Side, Matt Cornacchione; Central, Jay Pendorf; New Haven, Larry Bushkill; and Elm-hurst, Ron Smith. The general chairman is Paul Boergert of South Side. Will De-Molays from the above schools contact their chairman in order that you have tickets to sell to your friends. Also, we need chairmen for our junior highs. Will boys interested in any of the junior highs call Paul Boergert, K-5507, so you will have tickets to sell.
The hayride will also have a Weiner bake and a dance featuring the Counts.

Our first meeting has passed and I have one question to ask. We are the largest chapter in the world, why were there only a handful of boys there? We took care of a lot of business and the meeting went fast. There were only seven petitions brought in — that speaks for itself. Now that everyone is in school, try asking a few of your friends this question. Are you a DeMolay? If not, try your best to make them one. It is not as hard as you may think.
Please try!
Our coming meetings in October are the 10th and 24th.
The meeting October 10 will be our first Initiatory Degree.
In the near future we will have our family night. The date will be November 19.
Message for Mothers Circle
There will be a meeting October 22 at the pond pavilion at Franke Park, Mrs.
Howard Habig will be chairman.

WE, THE PEOPLE

In order to form a more perfect Union the people of the United States of America did ordain and establish a Constitution which stated in Article I, Section 1:
"All legislative powers here-granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives."
As the meaning of the word "all"
is clear, it must follow that disregard of the letter and spirit of the Constitution in any manner whatsoever that will result in further restricting the rights of the people and weaken the Republic, is without qualification the responsibility of the Congress.
History will record the success or failure of the new order which has become part of our National governmental philosophy over the last three decades, but time can never lessen the culpability of the Congress of the United States of America for the deterioration so clearly evident in our heritage of justice freedom and equality. — The New Age.

HAPPINESS

You will never be happy until you think you are . . . Have you found happiness in doing a mean thing? . . . Happiness is where you take it, not where you find it . . . Happiness does not depend on rank or station. The mind is the seat of happiness . . . True happiness is a condition of the mind and not an accumulation of surplus cash . . . I am going to get my happiness while here, and if, in the future, I am fortunate enough to find a place of happiness, happiness will not be a stranger to me . . . In the White Mountains of New Hampshire is a little body of water called Echo Lake. Standing on the shore if one sings slowly and softly, the echo brings back a floating response, low but beautiful and distinct. Shout and it seems the echo slaps you in the face — life, is like that. Life should grow richer, as it grows older, because it has time to accumulate and acquire the assets of happiness.
A free man should learn to live bravely!

MASONIC DIGNITY

If it is our desire to keep Masonry above reproach in the community in which it is located, we should lay hold of the surest means of stopping the mouths of those whose aim is to slander and defame our ancient and honorable Craft. This can be done only by Masons ever striving to live pure and unblemished lives. Let us consider that it is not the reputation of one member only, but that of the whole society which is affected by a brother's misbehavior. Invested as we are with that distinguished badge worn by thousands of the most distinguished and most worthy men who have ever trod the earth, we should scorn to act beneath the dignity of our profession and contrary to the true character of a Mason.

Don't forget our meeting on October 11th which will be Past Master's Night at our Hall. We will be having a buffet supper at 6:30 p.m. and it is free. So, be sure that you attend and that your reservation is in. Come and see all your old friends and join in the fellowship of the evening. Our regular meeting will be following the supper. We will be honoring two 25 year members also at our meeting: Brothers Dallas Ake and Ed Kinerk. Let's all try to be there to honor these brothers and show them that we all appreciate their 25 years of service that they have given to our Lodge.

Some of you brethren may think that since this is Past Master's Night that it is for Past Masters only but that is not true. It is for all Master Masons. This is a night to honor the Past Masters of Olive Branch Lodge.

The fall season is upon us again and time once again for us to start attending our Lodge more regularly. Your present officers need and want your attendance. As you know, the only thing that you get out of any organization is what you put in to it. So let's all try and attend the meetings. We have degree work coming up so let's show our new brothers what the lodge has done for us and what it can do for them. Let's all try to do more for our Lodge than just belong.

Don't forget our meetings on the second Thursday of each month.

REFRESHMENT VS. LABOR

In Masonic Language, refreshment is opposed in a peculiar sense to labor. While a Lodge is in activity it must be either at labor or at refreshment. If a Lodge is permanently closed until its next communication, the intervening period is one of abeyance, its activity for Masonic duty having for the time been suspended; although its powers and privileges as a Lodge still exist and may be at any time resumed. But where it is only temporarily closed with the intention of soon again resuming labor, the intermediate period is called a time of refreshment, and the Lodge is not closed, but called from labor to refreshment. The phrase is an old one, and is found in the earliest rituals of the last century. Calling from labor to refreshment differs from closing in that the ceremony is a very brief one, with the Junior Warden subsequently assuming control of the Craft, in token of which he erects his column on his stand or pedestal, while the

Now that the climax of this year has come and passed in the presentation of three, fifty year awards of gold and the fifty year celebration of our lodge, what are our plans for the next fifty years? What are our plans for free masonry for the next fifty years? You may say, what can I do as an individual to further freemasonry; surely we can't all have it the way we would like it. But I say to you that we can if we be true to freemasonry and to ourselves. Surely there must have been some plans to shape the past fifty years of Huntertown Lodge into what it now is, with the respect and admiration of the community and all concerned. You and I love Freemasonry too much, and have worked in it too often, and have given too much of ourselves, our time, and our money to it to complain about it, or to find fault with it. John Burroughs said that he himself could find no fault with his wife, and that as a matter of fact she had many faults, but that he would never permit another man to find fault with her. We not only do not find fault with the Fraternity, we will not permit anybody else to do so. But even though we love our Craft, and even though we do not use our devotion to absolve us from carping against it, we must admit, I believe, and if we do, to be wholly just, that our Fraternity, at least here in the United States, is guilty of one fault; and it is so glaring and inexcusable a fault that Senior Warden lays his down. This is reversed in calling on, in which the ceremony is equally brief.

The word refreshment no longer bears the meaning among Masons that it formerly did. It does not necessarily signify eating and/or drinking, but simply cessation from labor, a period which may be utilized for various purposes. A Lodge at refreshment may thus be compared to any other society when it is in recess. Until approximately a century ago — the years differing in the various U.S. Grand Jurisdictions — a different meaning was given to the word, arising from a now obsolete usage. — Adapted from Masonry Defined.

TIMELESS ADVICE

"In many lodges there is a carelessness in the admission of new members. Everywhere unworthy men are being accepted; the Fraternity will never be honored by them. According to the conception I have of Freemasonry, this ought not to it is really a sin, and I intend to make clear what it is. It's Freemasonry's fault of not having even a fraction of the support of its full membership and of not having or showing appreciation of great work done in it and for it. If you ask me what difference it makes whether a great man was great as a Mason or not, as long as he was great, I should have to give too many answers for the space allotted me. I can say that when I speak of a great Mason and mean thereby a man who won to fame by what he accomplishes in Freemasonry and for Freemasonry, I am using the word "great" in the same sense that it is used of a great hero, or a great statesman, or a great artist, because it is no easier to achieve greatness in Freemasonry than elsewhere; nor is the Masonic field in which it works any narrower than is the outside world. We should become collectors of famous names. Maybe it would come in time to give us the enthusiasm of a sport. Each new name would be a new discovery. Each new discovery would bring into our circle an invisible friend, to enrich us and to excite our minds. We would grow; the Lodge would grow; we should become in our Grand Jurisdiction a center of light; ours would be a distinguished Lodge. For we should never forget that a Lodge is in respect to such things very much like a man; it can be individual; it can have personality; it can have color, and a shape, and a name of its own; in short, there can be great Lodges, and famous Lodges, and Lodges of renown, as well as men. Why should we not make our own a great Lodge? How? By letting it dwell, month after month, in the midst of greatness! Could you stand close to the flames without catching fire? I do not believe that you could.

"Unless above himself
He can erect himself
How poor a thing is man!"

be. Because of it, the Order is losing public respect and approval." Who said it? Not a Mason — but Emperor Joseph II of Austria, May 10, 1779, during the audience with a Danish captain, Franz von Sudthausen, who was in Vienna organizing lodges under the Zinnerdorf system and seeking the Emperor's "approval and protection."

HE GOT THEM TOLD

(Exchange)

A minister in a Southern town is said to have taken leave of his congregation in the following manner: "Brethren and sisters, I come to say good-bye. I don't think God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because I never marry any of you, I don't think you love me, because you never paid my salary. I am going to a better place, but I go to prepare a place for you. I have been called to be chaplain of the penitentiary, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls."

WHY NO METAL TOOL WAS USED

There are several explanations as to why no metal tool was used in building of K.S.T. The most likely one is that metal is mined from the ground and was therefore, unclean. At that time (1000 B.C.) iron was only just coming into use and was probably not known in Palestine and the metal most employed in tool-making was bronze which has a certain amount of copper in it. Consequently it would be subject to being struck by lightning and this would indicate to ancient people that the gods disliked it. They would not wish to use a substance so unclean or unacceptable. Another explanation is that the softness of metal tools would disturb the peace and continuity of building operations. A set apart for a sacred edifice explanation is that the softness of metal tools would easily discolour by bronze, while a further solution would be found in the tendency of tools to rust and copper to verdigris, which would indicate impurity. Gold, on the other hand, suffered no deterioration, but soft for use as a tool.

Bible Material: Malachi.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 119:1-10.

The Best for God

Lesson for September 23, 1962

EVERY priest and every minister you see is what he is because he chose to be so. He follows what Roman Catholics call "Vocation" and Protestants a "Call." — that is, he believed it was God's will that he should be a priest or a minister as the case might be, and so be of his own free will followed the Spirit's guidance.

In the old Hebrew days it was different. No man had to decide anything about a call to the ministry, that is to say the priesthood. A man was either born into a family of priests or not. If not, there was no way by which he could become one. On the other hand, if he was born the son of a priest, there was no getting out of it unless he was seriously crippled. The effect of this, naturally, was that many men were priests who had no liking for their work and perhaps very little capacity for it. They would get through their work at the temple as quickly and easily as they could. They were much more interested in the pay than in the service.

God Wants the Best

This was the situation which the prophet Malachi faced. Religion was at a low ebb in Jerusalem and thereabouts. People offered to God the least they could get by with. With the priests' bad example before them, the everyday worshippers grew quite indifferent to the whole business or religion. God got the tag-ends, tag-ends of sacrifices (lambs that were sick anyhow, for example), tag-ends of money, and probably small tag-ends of time. Anything would do for God, it was thought. Malachi tried to break through this piggy indifference. We do not know how successful he was, but we do know what he tried to do. He tried to help God's people recover the conviction that God is real, all-good and almighty. He is every man's best friend. The Israelites not only treating God as though they were actually robbing him. If a man wants his friend to be the best, what must he do? What must God think of men not only treat God and his and his service with contempt and actually give God the best instead of the best?

God Gets the Worst

This is not a parable from times. Its something we can serve in almost any case. Who gets the best of the member's money? Not God always. The family car, the garage payments, clothes and ties to "keep up with the Joneses" one hundred and one thing the best of the family in and they offer God, through church, part of what's left. They have provided for everything else.

God gets the worst of time. Is time set apart for Bible reading an important part of the time spent in Bible reading and prayer combined as much as is spent in listening to the reports on the radio? Is the set apart for personal religious time when one is most awake, or most sleepy? At Sundays, the story is the flimsiest excuses serve excuse absences from church.

Test of Reality

Here's the sole one criterion: the religion does not go untested. The test of reality is man's faith is not in nice things sings about it in church. The test is in what he puts into the situation of boredom and interest can't be cured first by putting more time and into the church. That comes not first. The best of your time, the best of your mind and heart for God and opening your mind to word; if you are willing to that much, you will find your religion growing real.

There is one more thing must be said, especially to the mothers, teachers and the young people. The boys girls you love are your precious possession — you say. But rightly speaking the not your possession at all lent them to you. Many a girl who has wanted to God's service in the church been talked or bullied out of older people. Don't rob God greatly needed helpers!

SCOTTISH RITE NOMINATES 3 FOR 33d DEGREE

Three members of the Scottish Rite Valley of Fort Wayne were elected to receive the 33rd Scottish Rite Degree at the Supreme Council meeting in Philadelphia.

They are William H. Ginger, Andrew G. Berry, and Dr. Gerald H. Jones, superintendent of the Kokomo District of the Methodist Church and former pastor of the Wayne St. Methodist Church here.

They will receive the degree, the highest in Scottish Rite Masonry, in Boston in September of 1963.

Ginger is past Thrice Potent Master of the Lodge of Perfection and Past Master of the Maumee Masonic Lodge; he is now chairman of the Scottish Rite membership committee.

Berry, a member of the Scottish Rite for many years, was founder of the Wayne Paper Box & Printing Corp. in 1897 and organizer of the Paperbox Manufacturers Association in 1917. He has also been the United Commercial Travelers "Man of the Year." He served many years as president of the old Methodist Hospital, is a charter member of the Rescue Mission, former president of the YMCA, and active in the Plymouth Congregational Church and the Rotary Club.

Dr. Jones is a past Most Wise Master of the Emmanuel Chapter of Rose Croix of Scottish Rite and has been active in ritualistic work for many years.

EASTERN STAR HONORS GRAND MARTHA, OF INDIANA GRAND CHAPTER

A reception was held at 4:00 p.m., Saturday, October 6, on the mezzanine of the Masonic Temple to honor Sister Adella Davison, recently appointed Grand Martha of Indiana Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Davison was appointed by Mrs. Sara Scott, Worthy Grand Matron of Indiana Grand Chapter. Installation was held April 19, 1962. Sister Adella was Worthy Matron of Star of the East Chapter in 1955-1966 and Deputy of District No. 14 in 1959-1960.

The Past Matrons Club and Past Patrons of Star of the East were in charge of reception committees.

Following the reception, a program was held in the Commandery Room at 5:00 p.m. The Adelles gave a clever football skit and Star of the East's Drill Team surprised the Grand Martha with a lovely performance of their drills and formations.

An inspection banquet was held at 6:00 for Shiloh, New Haven and Star of the East Chapters.

COMMANDERY TO HOLD INSPECTION AND BANQUET

On Saturday, December 1, the Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4, will hold a banquet and inspection at the Temple. All Masons are invited. At 7:00 P.M. after the banquet, in the auditorium, the Commandery Band under the direction of Russell Wharton will give a band concert. The Fort Wayne Scottish Rite Choir will also give a program of songs. For more details of the dinner and meeting see page 7 under York Rite News.

ATTENTION SHILOH CHAPTER MEMBERS

When mailing dues to your secretary for 1963, please remember the notice you received last April, that dues will be $4.00 for 1963.

CARD PARTY AND BAZAAR TO BE HELD

On Thursday evening, Nov. 29, 7:30 p.m., Trinity Chapter No. 576 will hold a card party and bazaar in the main dining room of the Masonic Temple. There will be table prizes and refreshments. Donation 50c. The party has been arranged by the Ways & Means committee, Marie Bojrab, chairman. Tickets can be obtained from any member of this committee.

SHILOH CHAPTER TO STAGE SHOW AND BAZAAR

On Tuesday, November 6 at 7:30 p.m., at the Masonic Temple, Shiloh Chapter will stage a fashion show, card party and bazaar. Alan's will present the fashion show. Donation 50c at the door or from committee members.

WAYNE LODGE TO HOLD ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

In the Temple Ballroom on Saturday, Nov. 10, Wayne Lodge will hold its annual dinner dance. A Turkey dinner will be served at 6:45 P.M., followed by round and square dancing at 8:30. Tickets are $1.50 for adults, $1.00 for children. Joe McDowell will do the calling for the square dance.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS PICK NEW OFFICERS

Thomas R. Marshall Chapter No. 161, Royal Arch Masons, recently elected John C. Collins, as high priest.

Other officers include Charles M. Cook, king; Howard D. Carr, scribe; Harold O. Martin, treasurer; Richard B. Jones, secretary; Richard Deuter, captain of host; David L. Ruoff, principal sojourner; Glen S. Myers, royal arch

captain, and Frederic L. Ruoff II, A. Lee Johns and Langdon Mansfield, trustees.

Appointments made by Collins include Ned Biddle, master third veil; Norman L. Morgan, master second veil; Harry Deuter, master first veil and Mansfield, chaplain.

FISH FRY TO BE HELD

All the fish you can eat, that is the boast of the Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4. The dinner will be held on Wednesday, December 5, at the Temple, from 4:30 to 8:30 P.M. Donation $1.00 — Children 75c.

SOUTH GATE EVENTS FOR COMING MONTHS

Saturday, November 17, 6:30 p.m., Family Night Dinner. Food and entertainment.

We welcome into the fellowship of Wayne Lodge new Brothers William Woodings, Jr., and Bernard Turansky, who took their degrees during the month of September. In October we had three candidates become Masons, and this month of November finds three more candidates seeking admission into our Order. This has been a fine Fall for Wayne Lodge!

We regret to announce the passing of Brother Orville W. Graft since our last writing. Masonic Services were rendered, and we offer his family our sincere condolences.

We wish a speedy recovery to Brother Lloyd Pinkerton, who is a patient at Parkview Hospital. At the time of this writing, he was not permitted visitors.

Thanks to the Brothers who made the Veteran's Hospital visit on October 15th with Kenny Royl.

Although we did not have a large crowd, those who came out to the Family Halloween Party at Sears Pavilion had a very pleasant evening.

Brothers, time is running out for those who still wish to attend our Annual Dinner Dance, and do not have tickets yet. All line officers of the Lodge have tickets, so if they haven't called you yet, call them! Tickets are $1.50 per plate for adults and $1.00 per plate for children under 12. We hope to see a capacity crowd at 6:45 p.m. Saturday November 10th.

As the Thanksgiving season draws near, let each of us go to our own place of worship and really give thanks for those wonderful blessings that have been ours in the past year: Life and health, and freedom to think, and to believe, and to work, are God's most precious gifts to those of us who have them. Let us also pray for the relief of those who are not as fortunate as we are.

During the year, we have been endeavoring to give you, the members of Three Rivers Lodge and interested Masons, facts and news concerning this lodge. We believe that you read this column to find out what is happening in your Lodge; not what has been written by others. Our Lodge has news which is made by you.

First, our Ladies Night could not have been a success without the excellent cooperation of the officers, ticket salesmen and Mrs. Franklin's well-planned meal. We wish to thank all. Brother Swartz who gave to us an interesting address. The Scottish Rite Choir under the direction of Lester Hostetler never sang more beautifully. To all who assisted, we give our sincere appreciation and thanks.

The calendar for the month follows. Please read and mark your own calendars.

NOVEMBER
6 — MM Degree open 5:30 p.m. — Dinner 6:30 p.m.
13 — Stated Meeting 7:30 p.m.
13 — Masonic Education Lecture 8:00 p.m.
19 — Vets Hospital visit—Monday 7:15 p.m.
20 — EA Degree 7:00 p.m.
27 — FC Degree 7:00 p.m.

DECEMBER
4 — MM Degree — Open 5:30 p.m. — Dinner 6:30 p.m.
11 — Annual stated meeting and election of officers.

We want to welcome Brother James P. Connelly as our latest new raised Master Mason. We hope that he will share the joys of our labors in the years ahead.

To the Brethren who are sick or at home goes our hope for a quick recovery. May we offer this prayer for them:

Our most gracious Heavenly Father, we give Thee thanks for supporting us through our trials and hardships. We pray that Thou will look upon our Brethren with Thy Healing Hand. Com-

I would like to thank Brothers John Womac, Bennett Noel and Murry Rhodes for the fine entertainment they provided for us at our social meeting last month. The slides they showed and their accompanying commentary was enjoyed by all. Their pictures of Berlin, again proved how much free men can accomplish as compared to men who live under the enslavement of Communism.

We have had no degree work in September and October, but we will be working in November. We have petitions to read before the lodge for December and in all probability will have work every week the remainder of 1962. So why don't you make it a point to keep Wednesday nights open from now on and come to lodge.

I was glad to see so many of our new brothers at the Lodge of Instruction. I think the instruction received and the discussion that followed our ritualistic work, in a lodge such as this is a source of valuable information to any brother truly interested in Masonry and his own particular lodge.

November is the month of one of our most cherished holidays, Thanksgiving Day. This is a day we set aside to thank God for his blessings and the abundance he has given our great land. However my brothers let us not confine our thankfulness to only one day of the year, but remember these words of the great theologian Henry Ward Beecher, "If one should give me a dish of sand, and tell me there were particles of iron in it, I might look for them with my eyes and search for them with my clumsy fingers and be unable to detect them; but let me take a magnet and sweep through it, and how it would draw to itself the almost invisible particles by the mere power of attraction. The unthankful heart, like my finger in the sand, discovers no mercuries; but the thankful heart sweeps through the day and as the magnet finds the iron so it finds it every hour, so heavenly blessings, only to find in God's sand is gold.

Brethren

We will soon be entering into the Thanksgiving season. Stop and count your blessings; you have a lot more than you think.

Take the millionaire, rich man, in his mansion on top hill has more money than you or I, but just what can he buy with it.

Three meals a day, first all. They will doubtless be more to serve than my thr but he cannot enjoy them as much as I can mine.

A roof over his head. It a wider and steeper roof than mine, and more rain will run off it; but the rain runs of mine is just as wet and underneath I am just as dry.

The world is full of pleasures and sounds and smells, but his ears and nose and eyes do not bring him a sensation a particle more sweet than mine bring me.

The world is full of love women, and each of us love and marry only one.

Compared with the blessing we have in common, a few paltry blessings which he has and I have not, are insignificant.

Count your blessings; you have more than you think. Since last writing you have had as hospital patients Bros. Earl Steward, Harry Riethmiller, Leonard Os Geo. Zeis, and John Thies may they all enjoy a speedy recovery.

Don't forget our annual Past Masters Banquet Nov. 26th. Our speaker will be Bro. Lowell C. Stanley, administrative assistant for The Indiana Masonic Home. Come and learn first hand about your Indiana Masonic Home.

Anyone that missed the Fish Fry Oct. 13th really missed a treat.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the families of Brothers Harry Lydick, Al Shook and Forest J. Hill who have gone to make their home with the Grand Architect of the Universe.

Once again time has brought us one of the most beautiful customs that has ever prevailed among any people — Thanksgiving Day. It is with grateful, happy hearts that we approach this period of Thanksgiving. We recognize and gladly own that the will of God is the ultimate secret of all true government, and His goodness and mercy the fountain of all real happiness.

We rejoice that we are a free people; that we have a free press; that we may worship Omnipotent God according to the dictates of our own conscience; that want and fear are kept far from us; and on this Thanksgiving Day our hearts openly proclaim our gratitude for the manifest, varied and countless blessings that our Father has bestowed upon us.

While our hearts are saddened because of the terrible conflicts prevailing, and our prayers go up for an early and permanent peace, yet with gratitude that knows no bounds, our souls are lifted up in Thanksgiving to our Father that He has given us this free country, so dearly bought, so hardly won, so dearly loved. May we by every thought, word and deed evidence a unity of spirit, service and faith that He may continue to lead us in the paths which we must follow.

The past month found our lodge engaged in many activities. Certainly the highlight of our Ladies Night was the presentation of the 50 year award of gold to William I. Lower, our tyler, who celebrated his 90th birthday on October 22, 1962. Bill, wish you the best of health and happiness, and hope that you may tye our lodge for years to come. My thanks to our Senior Warden, Herschel Polyard, and Clyde Flowers, our Senior Grand Warden for making the presentation.

It is my hope that those of you who attended our Ladies night were pleased with the program. If a husband-wife type program is to our liking, perhaps the future activities of your lodge could be arranged to include "Missus". From personal observation, I concluded that present enjoyed the entertainment, and would like to have another opportunity to join together in the near future.

It is with sadness and a deep sense of loss, that we report the loss of two of our brethren during the past month. Brother Kenneth Link and Brother Clifford Bell were called by the Grand Architect of the Universe, and we offer our sincere expression of sympathy to the families of these brethren.

Your officers were examined on the Fellowship degree on the Grand Lecturer on October 12, and I wish to report that you can be proud of work that was displayed by them. My thanks to Sol D. Bayless Lodge No. 359 for their hospitality extended to our officers.

Looking ahead we find that Monday, November 12, is our Veteran's Visitation at 7:30 p.m. at the Veteran's Hospital. Plan now to save this evening to help lift the load of some Veteran, possibly a brother Mason, who has given so much to help all of us. Just meet with Fred Peters, Sr. at the Hospital for an hour, and you will be richly rewarded by the experience. The nicest gift you can give to these boys is of yourself.

November finds us only 1 month away from the annual election of officers for our Lodge, and, in reflecting on this past year, I find many things left to do which only proves the old and true phrase "time marches on."

On October 9, our Worshipful Brother Orvis A. Dellinger presented the fifty year Grand Lodge Award of Gold to Brother Past Master Robert P. Cordiner. Congratulations again Brother Cordiner.

On November 27, which is Master Masons Degree Night, we will present twenty-five year awards to the following brethren:

Moses Bedree, Jacob Bernstein, Oliver C. Boldt, Donald F. Cameron, Martin L. Ewigleben, Ernest G. Frank father, Alban J. Giradot, William S. Ivson, Charles S. King, James M. McClure, Robert J. Moore, Gail H. Redd, Ralph Roller, Ralph E. Scott, William M. Slyby, Melvin C. Todd and Dean V. Willis.

Brother Past Master Harold Martin will present the pins and give a short talk at this dinner meeting.

The assembly of the Tri-State at Grandview Lodge of Peoria Heights, Illinois, was attended by Charlie Winans, Bill Maloley, Dave Maloley, Jim Farrar, Jim Johnson, Phil McCague, Ed Myers, Frank Dalzell, Herman Rausch, John Craig, Lloyd Bouillon, Hollis Breece, Ed Bandt, Ralph Roller, Don Shoner, and Fritz Ray. A pleasant visitation was enjoyed by every one.

To the brethren that are ill, we wish a speedy recovery. Please let us know when there is illness so that we may be of assistance to you.

November brings memories of the first Thanksgiving and the many changes in the world since that first Thanksgiving. Smallpox, typhoid fever, and polio have been conquered in the medical field. The invention of the automobile and airplane, the discovery of electricity, the jet age and now the beginning of the space age are some of the changes that have come about in the economical field. Many of these we take for granted, yet if we pause for a moment of reflection, we have many, many things for which we should thank The Great Architect.

A Mason should not forget to give thanks for the freedom we enjoy, in this great country at least. Freedom to attend the church of our choice, freedom to meet as Free Masons and to openly declare our membership without fear. We should also remember that with all these changes the principles and tenets of Freemasonry are still the same today as they were years ago.

November is also the month for Summit City's Annual Homecoming Banquet. Nov. 30th is the date and the time is 6:30. A letter and a program which will be mailed to you, will give you the details of this event.

Several brothers have been ill recently, some seriously so. Brothers Ray Guenther and Alvin Colbert are both in the Hospital for the second time. We all hope they and others who are ill a speedy recovery. We extend our deepest sympathy to those who have lost loved ones.

The lodge for Instruction last month was very interesting and informative. Your officers will report and comment on this at the November Stated Meeting.

Remember the Homecoming.

October has past and with it went our hayride and first Initiatory Degree. This term is going very fast. It is November already! November will be a busy month. There will be two meetings plus our special family night November 19. DeMolays please make note of this date on your calendar. This date. Family night is something new and I sincerely hope you and your family put So far, we have had one Initiatory Degree, but it will be our last unless you DeMolays get down to business and take your chapter serious enough to get new members. Up till now, I haven't said too much about petitions, but I think it is about time someone informed you of the facts! We are the largest chapter in the world, but I don't intend for us to become second largest during my term. If you stop and think, I'll bet that many times when you were asked about our chapter, you took pride in saying — we have the largest chapter in the world. You can't help from saying it, I know I have. Please DeMolays, go out and urge other boys and friends to join our fine chapter. Thank you.

Our two regular meetings in November are the 14th and 28th. One of these could possibly be an Initiatory or DeMolay Degree.

In our September 26 meeting we discussed many possible chapter activities. A rifle club was suggested. The boys interested in such a club must act on their own in getting a supervisor. When you have such a person, bring it up in our meeting. The Advisory Council will then take action. A bowling team was suggested but last year when we had one there was not enough boys interested to keep it active. Questions were asked about our DeMolay basketball team. Yes, we will have a team again this year. We have a coach so all we will need is boys interested in playing, which I'm sure we will have plenty of. Definite dates for tryouts will be released in future meetings.

I would again like to welcome the new members and hope they received something from our ceremony. Upon receiving your initiation, you are now entitled the privilege of being called a DeMolay. You also have the right to come to any of our meetings. Please attend. You will find that it will be profitable to you.

"Thanks" isn't a very big word, but it is the biggest word I can think of to offer the Mothers' Circle for their much appreciated refreshments and the many other things they do for our chapter.

THE REAL MASON
Masonry teaches that one can have strength of character only as he is capable of controlling his faculties; having a high objective, and pursuing it regardless of any difficulty. Albert Pike has given us a statement concerning symbolism, which gives emphasis to this thought: "The symbolism of Masonry is the soul of Masonry. Every symbol of a lodge is a religious teacher, the mute teacher also of morals and philosophy. It is in its ancient symbols and in the knowledge of their true meaning that the pre-eminence of Freemasonry over all other orders consists. In other respects, some of them may compete with it, rival it, perhaps even excel it; but by its symbols it will reign without a peer when it learns again what its symbols mean, and that each is the embodiment of some great, old rare truth." A good character is a Mason's best testimonial. The materials of the first temple were made ready in solitude. Those also must be shaped in retirement, in the silence of the heart.

THE MASON'S DUTY

Brother N. S. Meese in "The New Age" writes: "It is the individual responsibility of every member of the Craft to see that he does his part in the days before us. Men really die only as they break faith with the future. In the keeping of that faith lies whatever Masonry may have of fulfilling its destiny as a source of light and regeneration."

Now autumn pulls the shawl around its shoulder
And rocks a little faster the porch;

The apples in the partan are colder;

The sugar maple flares to a torch.

The corn shocks turn wigwams in the valleys;

Indian summer lights signal smokes;

While pumpkins strew fields for harvest rallies,

The sun rubs off its burnish on the oaks.

Where bittersweet festoons the rural fences,

Our elemental rue drifts its own tear;

The green and gold the growing, joyed our senses

Bleeds red into the heartbreak of the year.

There is in everything that gives us gladness

That catch of breath touches us with sadness.

The long week-end during Teacher's Convention was filled with many activities Job's daughters. On Oct.

twenty-fifth, our semi-annual rummage sale was held.

Everyone generously contributed their old belongings to help make this money-raising project a success.

The same evening, a group of "Jobes" journeyed to Col umbia City for their Friends Night. The girls of Bethel

No. 102 were gracious hosts, and everyone had an enjoyable evening.

The next day, many of turned out for our second all-day decorating party.

Finishing touches were added to the Inspection decorations.

Everyone brought their oak leaves, bittersweet, and other bits of autumn foliage.

Back drop was completed, all is in readiness for a special evening.

November the seventh is Inspection girls. The banquet will be at five forty-five in the quiet room. The price is $1.00 for the girls and $1.25 for the adults. Be sure to your reservations early, not later than Monday, 5th. Remember girls, it's bethel, so let's have a crowd to welcome the Grand Guardian and the members. The DeMolay is serving at the banquet. During the "long" end, the State York Rite clavie Grand Chapter, Grand Council was held at the Temple. The Job's Daughters worked in the cloak Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. We also served at luncheons for the York on these days. Everyone has a great deal of fun and was a good money making project.

As we watch the leaves change to beautiful autumn colors and fall to the ground, and pumpkins all around, we know that November brings us a day to give Thanks for the land in which we live.
 This day unites our families at the dinner table with turkey, cranberry sauce, and pumpkin pie. Since Chapter will be dark for Thanksgiving, our Worthy Matron Ethel and Worthy Patron Dan wish to be with you in thought this Thanksgiving Day.

Nov. 6, Shiloh will hold its annual Card Party and Bazaar. This year we will have an added attraction by presenting you the latest fashions. The Fashion Show will be presented by Alans, one of Fort Wayne's newest and leading stores. This is one of Shiloh's most impor-tana projects, so we hope that all Shiloh members will sell tickets to your friends. There will be table prizes and redress

 The springtime green, the summer rose
 The autumn's glorious golden close

Be thankful for your bleasings all
 The happy memories you recall For time which every headache mends
 And oh, be thankful for your friends.

This is the season to give thanks for all our blessings.
 Let us remember them and thank our beloved Father for each and every one. For everything that happens to us leaves some trace behind; everything contributes imperceptibly to make us what we are.

When this column reaches the members of our chapter, our Master Masons night will be in the past. To those that were not present, you really missed something. And to those of you who were there,
 I know you had a most enjoyable evening, both in the chapter room and after the meeting. Refreshments were served by the master masons and a pleasant social hour was also enjoyed by all who attended.

Nov. 16 will be our stated meeting when once again there will be initiatory work.
 Why don't you come out to chapter and see the fine work the officers are doing this year.

Nov. 29 will be our card party and bazaar. Won't you try and make up a table and come out and spend the evening playing cards. The Ways and Means need your help.

Once again, may I remind you that the Ways and Means has cookies, Christmas cards and many other items for the holiday season ahead.

At this time, a word of thanks should go to the wonderful work that is being done by the Cheer committee of our chapter with Sister Edith Ball and Sister Flossie Cochran as chairman and co-chairman respectively. The reports of their wonderful work from the recipients of their benethat, I, as your reporter, feel it should be passed on and each one on the committee be commended for the active work on a very important committee of the chapter.

get out to court and enjoy good friendship for a change.
S.K. Rossell is the only one who is still confined to his

'Tis then the scenery makes

Commonwealth countries to London to see if they could agree to England's joining the European Common Market. After ten days of haggling in London, the fifteen Prime Ministers of the Commonwealth Countries issued, on September 19th, a communique which was rather blind as well as bland. The communique said: The final decision must be left to Britain alone; we, however, withhold final judgment until the full terms of entry are known. One fact is certain, namely, that even if England is accepted, there is no hope for Canada to also be accepted. In the meantime, Russia fears the European Common Market, and will be much concerned if England is accepted.

MY OWN FORECAST AS TO CANADA, GREAT BRITAIN, AND THE UNITED STATES

Canada and Great Britain are gradually working apart politically as well as economically. Although the English Prime Minister now nominates a governor general for Canada for appointment by the Queen and continues to supervise or approve certain military and fiscal legislation, yet Canada is rapidly drifting away from the mother country. This, moreover, is true of Australia, New Zealand, and others of the fifteen Commonwealth nations.
My forecast is that if Great Britain heartily joins the European Common Market, it will push Canada and the United States closer together as one nation. Although a boundary line now nearly 4,000 miles long separates Canada from the United States, yet it contains no defense on either side and is one of the greatest examples of world peace.

A joining of the United States and Canada should be of advantage to both countries. It would give the United States a great new body of natural resources, and would help Canada industrially and give much additional employment to Canadian people. The two countries would supplement each other well from an economic as well as a political point

Activities of the Chapter for the year began with our annual ham and bean dining meeting followed by the Annual Meeting and election of officers. The installation, to the public, was held on Saturday, October 22, with High Priest James Johnson as Grand High Priest and High Priest Myron Miller as Grand Captain of the host. The following elected officers were installed: Ivan Carr, High Priest; Bernard Smith, King; Ralph Carr, Scribe; Robert Marshall, Captain of the Hosts; Ungerer, Principal Sovereign; Albert Cary, Royal Captain; John Lombard, Carr; George Gable,
Carr; Past High Priest Shaffer, Trustee. The elected officers were also presented with their veils by: Arthur Gardt, Master of First Veil; Robert Gah-gan, Master of 2nd Veil;
Squires, Master of 1st Veil and Curtis Connin as Master of 3rd Veil.
The meeting of the officers was held on October 3 to plan for the year.
A tasty menu for the dining to be held before each meeting were planned.
York Rite members as well as Master Masons are welcome to join with us in dinners.
Dinner for present officers and their ladies is planned for November 3, at 7 p.m.

Plans for the conferring of the degrees of the Chapter have been made with Past High Priest Roger Shaffer accepting the appointment as Director of Work. Companion Schuble Boggs will assist him in these important duties.
We all are grateful to our Past High Priests who have faithfully helped our Chapter in the past and who have again offered their services whenever they may be needed. By now, Grand Chapter is but shortly closed and we would be amiss if we did not commend our Most Excellent

With the Fall and Winter for us to take stock of those about us and start contact-and get them interested in the York Rite Degrees.

We talk about receiving more light and knowledge in Masonry. If reports coming out of the underground from our Brothers in those coun-take stock and begin to set up a solid front.

Our Brethren in Cuba have been attacked and many of them imprisoned.
Where will they strike next?
We have no idea, but you can guess that the time table has been set.
Must we go into exile as did our Brethren after the captivity at Babylonian and remain in captivity as they did for 470 years. Our world oppressors are no different today than the despot Kings of early Biblical times.
We today have too much of a "it can't happen here" attitude. But it can and will if we don't start to think about it.
By the time this is in

Fort Wayne Commandery
No. 4 is planning for one of the final events of the year—our Annual Inspection on Saturday, December 1, 1962.
We will have an All Order Day in conjunction with the inspection. The tentative schedule is as follows:

10:00 a.m. The Illustrious Order of the Red Cross will be conferred in the fifth floor auditorium immediately followed by a luncheon in the kitchen.
12:30 p.m. Conferring of the Order of Malta.
2:00 p.m. Opening of the Commandery and conferring the Order of the Temple for inspection by a Grand Line officer.
These Orders are for Sir Knights only.
The class of candidates will again be named in honor of a distinguished Sir Knight.
Meanwhile, at 2:00 p.m., the ladies of Fort Wayne Assembly No. 139, Social Order of the Beauceant will be hostess to the ladies of the attending Sir Knights on the mezzanine floor. Mrs. Elizabeth Masel and her ladies of the Beauceant have planned an enjoyable afternoon for the ladies.
At 5:45 p.m. the Commandery Banquet will be served for all Sir Knights, their families and friends. S.K.
Harold Martin will serve as toastmaster. S.K. Doyle White will present the class, and distinguished guests will be recognized. The Scottish Rite Choir will sing for us at this time.
At 7:00 p.m. The Sir Knights, their ladies and guests will retire to the fifth floor auditorium where our own Commandery Band under the direction of S.K. Russell Wharton will entertain us with a half-hour concert (7:15 till 7:45 p.m.).
At 7:45 p.m. The Commandery officers and the Drill Corps will participate in the inspection. Sir Knight Harold R. Hoolihan, Grand Senior Warden of Knights Templar of Indiana will be the inspecting officer.
We extend a very cordial welcome to all of our Masonic friends to attend this public inspection.
Tickets for the banquet will be $1.50 per plate. Tickets will be mailed to all members.
Additional tickets can be purchased from any Sir Knight or from Henry Hoffman at the counter on the second floor lounge. Or call ticket chairman Harold Hamrick, H-03405. We urge that reservations be in no later than Thursday, November 27. Just address your envelopes to the Commandery.
Em. S.K. Harry Haller is in charge of arranging the banquet. S.K. Myron Millhorn is chairman of the Reception Committee, and S.K. Ivan Plank, Publicity Chairman.
We will have a fish-fry on Wednesday, December 5 on the first floor of the Masonic Temple from 4:30-8:00 p.m.
Donation $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12 years of age. All the fish you can eat.

READ BEFORE SIGNING A

Many of my acquaintances have been gyped mercilessly by shoddy work done by fly by night operators in home repairs.
I have turned to Dwight Sherburne, general manager of the Central Indiana Better Business Bureau for some words of wisdom regarding this subject. He said:

The most serious and numerous complaints our Better Business Bureau gets is in the home improvement and home maintenance field.
Our purpose is to help you judge reliable firms in this field, against those with sharp practices, inflated prices, poor workmanship and fly-by-night operators.
Advertising is done by every firm, by telephone solicitations, door to door contacts, newspapers and other media. The established, reliable firm will not exaggerate the value, the product or the guarantee, in its approach.
An established, reliable firm, will not use "bait" advertising, that is, advertise a product which they do not want to sell or which they take pains to unsell whenever you are interested. The reliable, established firm, will offer in their advertising a worthwhile product, or service, and be happy to have you buy, knowing it will bring satisfaction.
BEWARE OF GIMMICKS IN SIGNING OR BUYING NOW
The firm that wants to please, will never use an approach such as "we will use your home for a model to show," or "I am a factory representative here for a few days as part of an advertising program," and similar approaches designed to make the house owner think a bargain is being offered — a bargain that has never been borne out by the contract price. Quality work and materials require a fair price true, but true bargains in any field, are rare indeed.
The firm interested in your home and its betterment will take the time to explain what can be done, the possible improvements, or changes that can be made. The responsible firm will not expect you to make a deci-

It will, or can, give the locations is a "man's castle" and improvements on it should be treated accordingly.

At the same time, high price does not necessarily mean high quality.
In many instances, measuring must

During the month of October we have been busy at Olive Branch Lodge, October 1st we had our joint inspection with Decatur Lodge and a lot of good instruction was obtained by both Lodges. On October 11th we had our Past Masters Night, along with a good supper. A lot of good fellowship was had by all that attended, and we did have a good turn out and the weather cooperated with us and we had a wonderful evening. The program was very well presented by Brother Don Chaffin and the entire Lodge gained much in his message as a lot of interesting topics were discussed by all in attendance.

We were unable to present a 25 year pin to Brother Dallas Ake, but Brother Ed Kinerk was there and he did receive his 25 year pin.

We have only one more month before our annual election of Officers, so keep December 13th open for this important meeting. As this fall season is upon us and coming to a close, our winter season will soon be here. Let's try and end this year by attending the few remaining meetings and get in the swing of things so that we will have the habit of attending for next year and give your support to our present officers and to our next years officers. As you know, the only thing that you get out of any organization is that which you put into it. Let's all try and do more for our Lodge than just belong. Our next meeting is November 8 at 7:30 p.m. so let's all attend and give our support.

Hello my brothers. As you know the craftsmen have been very busy remodeling the temple. To those of you who have not seen the improvements made, you will be surprised and also proud of your temple.

After a very busy summer and a last minute crash program, we are now able to hold lodge again in the temple.

The last phase of the remodeling program has been started.

The stars have donated $500.00 toward this project and how fast and how far we can go depends upon the finances.

Due to the fact that we are Scotch, and wanted to do most of the work ourselves, the time table for the fall events will be rescheduled (you will be informed.)

My Brother, Masonry is not dead, you are the one that is dead. Did you ever stop and think what happened to you when the door of Masonry was opened to you. I am sure the voice you heard did not tell you how busy it was, but took time out of every day to help you receive more light.

We have a waiting list of new candidates — will you help?

Brother Eugene Stark (our master plumber) is in the hospital, but coming along O.K. When was the last time you visited a sick friend or Brother? We expect so much and give so little — see you.

November is upon us and this old year is fast coming to a close. I don't know where the months have gone to but they certainly have gone fast. Next month will be our annual Oyster Supper and election of officers already. They say when you are doing something you enjoy, the time passes quickly and I believe this very much. I am not going to sum up the year yet but wait until next month for the proper time. There is not much news this time so I am going to cut this one a little short. Look for degree dates coming up and maybe an added attraction in December. I might report that our Lodge for Instruction with Churubusco Lodge as our guests was very successful and Educational as well. In the past I have given some of my opinions as well as those of some great Masonic orators and hope that you have enjoyed them, but for this time I have run out of Philosophy. See you in Lodge.

can to contemporary. Some of these tables feature magazine racks or lower shelves; some have drawers with ornamental hardware; some become nests of tables.

Notable are the Early American dough boxes that may serve not only as tables but as work boxes or planters.

One particularly beautiful item, an Italian import in antique white and gold, consists of three leaf-shaped sections, all the same size and each with three legs. The sections may be used separately or joined together to form a single, elegant table.

Right Care Protects Wooden Salad Bowls

It's easy to keep salad bowls or other wood pieces as beautiful as the day you got them, say Penn State extension home economics specialists. Right after use, wipe off each piece with a soft cloth or sponge and warm suds. Rinse with cold water and dry thoroughly—never soak woodenware in water. Whenever you buy wood items, check the label for washing instructions. Keep woodenware away from heat and store it in a dry place.

The firm interested in the home owner will, without being asked, spell out in writing, exactly what you are to get in major labors, or modifications, and will make a blue print specifications a part of the contract. It will give you a copy at the time you sign.

While most jobs in this field will be handled by monthly payments, there are some who want to pay cash. The established firm does not expect you to finance its business, or current jobs, by demanding $500, $1,000 or $2,000 down, before a stick is supplied or a lick of work is done.

Neither will the established firm

ask you to give a completion the time you sign a contract. Completion certificate is as its implies, acknowledgement of work. Do not sign until you are with the finished job, as by the contract. Establish show receipts or a drawn release the lien law, if desired. They ask you to falsify an FHA program. The established firm unconditional guarantees, guarantees are almost impossible. The established firm places exactly what it does. Established firms are covered insurance, and comply with the man's Compensation Act.

Do Beliefs Matter?

SOME beliefs matter, some don't. What two historians think about an obscure Egyptian general about 2000 years before Christ, makes mighty little difference really, even if they fought a duel over it. Nobody likes to be disagreed with; but those who have listened to family quarrels will testify that the quarrel is often over something very trifling. The one who is "right" could much better keep his (or her) mouth shut and let the other one think what he or she pleases; the truth in this argument may be so unimportant that it could be proved twice over and still make no difference.

Some beliefs do matter. All the same, some beliefs do matter. By "belief" we mean (for the moment) believing that something or other is true. By "matter" we mean make some important difference to somebody, either the believer himself or other persons. Still even this is not exactly definite. What does "important difference" mean? What is a "difference" and when does it begin to be important? This can perhaps be illustrated. Take the sentence: GOD IS LOVE. Suppose you woke up some morning and found that this sentence is not true? Suppose you had always believed it was true and now discovered you were wrong? It would certainly do away with the Christian religion. It would mean that it no longer made sense for you to try to love your neighbor or to love any one. If God is love, then human love is (so to speak) going with the current of the universe, it is being in harmony with God the Creator. If God is not love, then human love works against the universe, and must eventually be crushed by it. Hence, would be more god-like, life controlled by hate. So make all the difference world not only whether you believe in God but what kind you believe in.

"Saving faith" More about that next week now, the point is that beliefs do matter, a great deal of belief which is vital important is called "saving." By this is meant faith in the believer over on the side of God, and not on the side of Him. God as a friend or God enemy, which? The question answers itself. God as a friend God as a stranger? The argument as to which one person would prefer.

But there is one meaning "belief" we have not met yet. That is, believing in one. This is the kind of that is closely knit to trust, confidence, reliance, commitment may believe about a certain that it is going to St. Louis that the ticket I have in my pocket is good for the trip. I believe any number of things about that bus but not believing is going to meet an inch nearer where I live. I have to trust myself, my car, get on, take a seat, pay tax. That is believing in it.

So I may believe many things about God, but I believe in God enough to myself to Him, I have not the step that sets me acting the side of God, I have not had saving faith.

Results Some of the results of faith matters, or saving faith, be observed by outsiders, even by intimate friends, you feel like deep down about something in and for yourself alone. But the Christian does not operate with virtues and shadowy joys, sometimes ask: So and so a profession of faith loud but still he is one of the men in town. It looks like even belief in God makes difference to him. Is this faith? The answer, of course that in such a case the profession of faith was only that, a profession, a matter of words, can say he believes, or could be believed, without really so. Really and truly to believe the true God as Christ has him to us, is bound to make difference in the way we live, not only in the way we live, but in the way we live.

Zero Degrees Protects Food

New evidence underlines the need for storing frozen foods at zero degrees to retain fresh eating qualities.

Jean Shipman, Oregon State University food marketing specialist, reports a study completed on 100,000 packages of frozen food. It showed that temperatures above zero degrees considerably reduced storage life of frozen foods.

As might be expected, the higher the temperature rose above zero, the greater the toll in frozen food quality. A day's storage life is used up for each day food is stored at zero. One day at 10 degrees consumes 8 days time, and at 20 degrees 56 days storage are used up.

Quality losses accumulate from storage below zero degrees. Feeling a package to see if it is hard-frozen is not a reliable guide to quality. The package could have been thawed and refrozen, says the specialist.

What about food stored above zero? Peaches turn brown, strawberries discolor, and cherry skins brown and toughen. Vegetables lose color, flavor and Vitamin C.

Conveniences Aid Country Living

One of the reasons for the popularity of country living is that city conveniences have been added to make a country home just as easy to live in as a city apartment.

Families that have longed for years to live in the country can now count on having an automatic clothes washer, a dishwasher, two or more bathrooms and a hot water heating system even in extreme rural areas.

From a drilled well, the competent water systems dealer can provide a home beyond city water mains with all the comforts of plentiful hot and cold water the family was accustomed to having in the city.

A well designed private water system takes no back seat to a municipal or community water supply.

Double Duty Furniture Becomes More Popular

Double duty furniture, once considered a matter for custom design, is still prominent in many of the furniture lines as the Los Angeles Home Furnishings Mart.

This type of design, particularly strong in coffee tables, is evident in everything from Early Ameri-

BLUE LODGES TO STAGE GUEST NIGHT FEBRUARY 8

The Fort Wayne Blue Lodges in association with New Haven and Waynedale Lodges announces the first annual Blue Lodge Guest Night to be held at the Scottish Rite Dining room and Auditorium on February 8, 1963. The meeting will start at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by a program in the Auditorium.

The initiation of such a night has several purposes. The Grand Lodge has requested such activities to stimulate Masonic growth. It is believed that this is the best such meeting to be held on such a large scale and with so many Lodges working together jointly. It is designed to not only create a pride in our Brothers, but give them a chance to show off Masonry to a guest, in the hope that by seeing what Masonry stands for, and the character of the members of the Society, that it will inspire the guest to be moved to "join" and to later "receive." Tickets for the affair are $5 per person and are limited to 1600 people in attendance. However, additional tickets will be available for the program to follow the dinner in the Scottish Rite Auditorium. The Mizpah Shrine, "Pote's Little Symphony" will play during the dinner hour. The entertainment to follow in the Auditorium will be furnished by the Mizpah Shrine Maskers and Rex Paxton, recently appointed Public Relations Council for the Supreme Council of the A. A. Scottish Rite will serve as Toastmaster. Further details concerning the Paxton appears in another column in the Square and Compass.

The main speaker of the evening will be Brother Conrad Paxton. Further details concerning this big event in the annuals of Fort Wayne Masonry will be forthcoming in future issues of the Square and Compass.

The following Committees have been responsible for the planning of the Blue Lodge Guest Night. They have worked strenuously and diligently to deserve much credit for their efforts.

General Chairman — Bill Arnold — Home Lodge, assisted by Jim Peters, Secretary of the event, also of Home Lodge.

Banquet Committee — Chairman — Forrest Fennell — Wayne, Don Johnson — Summit City, Irv Burelson — Maumee, Jim Timmons — Sol D. Bayless, Paul Stait — Maumee, John Whitney — South Gate, Roy Roberts — Three Rivers, Walter Hert — Waynedale, and Norman Long — New Haven. Ticket, Finance & Publicity

PAST MASTERS ASS'N TO HOLD MEETING

The annual meeting of the Actual Past Masters Association of Northeastern Indiana will be held at the Fort Wayne Masonic Temple, Friday, December 28, 1962 at 4:00 p.m. Registration of members will start at 3:00 p.m.

Summit City Lodge No. 170 will be the Host Lodge and Worshipful Master H. Murray Petty will preside at the dinner which will be served at 6:15 p.m.

The meeting is held for the purpose of initiating and instructing newly elected Worshipful Masters of Masonic Lodges of the district, and the transacting of business, including the election of officers for the coming year.

Present officers of the Association are Lester E. Smith, Harlan, President; Robert Marshal, Fort Wayne, Senior Vice-President; Rolla O. Durbin, New Haven, Junior Vice-President, W. Arthur Rode-meyer, Fort Wayne, Secretary and Leon B. Williams, Fort Wayne, Treasurer.

Members of the Executive Committee are James C. Farrar, B. J. Sterling, C. M. McIntosh, William Karchab all of Fort Wayne; Harry Wann, Harlan; Glen Myers, Leo; and E. Earhart, Ossian.

PHOOLOSOPHY

By Hugh Murr

People who ask for advice are usually seeking sympathy.

Ignorance ceases to be bliss to those seeking information.

A handful of common sense is worth a bushel of learning.

REX PAXTON NAMED TO SCOTTISH RITE SUPREME COUNCIL STAFF

Sovereign Grand Commander George E. Bushnell has announced the appointment of ILL. Rex Paxton, 33rd Degree, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, as Assistant to the Sovereign Grand Commander — Public Relations.

In making the announcement, Grand Commander Bushnell explained that his new Assistant, with headquarters in Detroit, will work closely with local Valleys of the Rite in carrying out the Supreme Council's desire to furnish greater assistance to those in the field throughout the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction.

As a nationally known public relations executive and with long experience as a dynamic speaker, ILL. Bro. Paxton brings to his new assignment abilities and talents which can be of real help to local Scottish Rite Bodies and Clubs. Brother Paxton's long business career includes service as an Account Executive for the Lamport, Fox, Prell and Dolk Advertising Agency, as Vice President and Sales Manager of the Bigelow Press, as Sales Director of the Kalamazoo Stove and Furnace Company and more recently as Director of Public Relations for the Sutherland Paper Company of Kalamazoo. In the latter position, Brother Paxton addressed trade associations, professional groups and civic organizations in 47 states and Canada. He served on many industry committees and panels and is a member of the Public Relations Society of America.

Ill. Brother Paxton has compiled an outstanding Masonic record. A member of South Bend Lodge No. 294, F. & A. M., Brother Paxton entered Scottish Rite in the Valley of South Bend, Indiana, and is a Past Most Wise Master of John Hazen White Chapter of Rose Croix. He has been an active ritualist and has taken the role of Constans in the 32nd Degree on 30 consecutive occasions. Ill. Bro. Paxton has been an Honorary Member of the Supreme Council since 1941. He also maintains membership in Kalamazoo Chapter No. 13, R.A.M., Peninsular Commandery, K.T. Kalamazoo, Saladin Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S., Grand Rapids, St. Vincent Conclave No. 33, Red Cross of Constantine (Past Sovereign), Grand Rapids and the Royal Order of Scotland.

Ill. Brother Paxton served as an Infantry Captain in W. W. I and held the rank of Major in the Civil Air Patrol during W. W. II. He has been a member of the Christian Science Church for 43 years, completed a term as Reader in South Bend and headed the Board of Directors of Churches in South Bend and Kalamazoo.

The month of December, the first month of the winter season, is the 12th month of the year. It takes its name from a Latin word meaning ten. A Century before the birth of Christ, the year was made up of ten months, December being the last month of the year. When Julius Ceasar reformed the calendar and added January and February, making December the 12th month, its name was not changed.

December is also my last month to serve you as Master, my, how quickly the sands of time have passed. It seems but a short while ago that I was just installed as Master, now the year is almost over and this is the last time I will be writing you. I want to take this opportunity to wish both you and yours a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and prosperous New Year.

By the time this article reaches you, new officers will have been elected and I am sure they will receive the finest whole hearted cooperation, you and the Past Masters and my own officers extended to me. It has been a pleasure serving you.

Vincent Westfall has been appointed Chaplain to replace Irvin Whiteman who found it necessary to resign, because of a territory change in his business. Thanks Irvin for all your help.

I wish to report the illness of two brothers, G. Doyle White and Noah Tilman, may they both enjoy a very rapid recovery.

Sol D. Bayless Lodge extends to the families of Marvin Norris, Paul J. Martin, and Dr. Merle W. Ivins who have gone on to their rewards with the Grand Architect of the Universe, its sincere sympathy. Our sympathy is also extended to P.M. Brother Wm. I. Butz in the death of his brother.

Again, thank all of you for everything and I will close by just saying Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

As this is the last article I will be writing as Master of your Lodge, I feel I could not permit an opportunity such as this to go by without expressing my sincere appreciation to the officers and members for their unselfish support accorded me throughout the season just closing. Looking back over the year just ending there are one or two events that stand out so clearly in my mind. I recall our Ladies Night. We decided that we would like to have our ladies as our guests at one of our banquets, and to include them in our evening of entertainment. The success of this program may well set a precedent for years to come, and was only made possible by the help and assistance of each of your officers.

Also not to be forgotten, was our annual golf outing, under the able direction of Warren "Doc" Delp.

Brethren to close this last official article of mine, I should like to make a final request. My year as Master has been made easier and more pleasant by your unstinted support and cooperation.

We still have problems to face, and your new Master will meet many responsibilities next year. I'm going to ask all of you to give him every possible assistance. To accord him your moral and physical support. To offer your help before he finds it necessary to ask for it. Will you give him encouragement and friendly understanding that have proved such an aid to me in the year just closing.

Now, in closing, I wish for each of you the best of health, happiness and prosperity for the coming year, and indeed this is the season of the year when our hearts are full of gratitude for the many blessings which we have received. We need Christmas this year more than ever before. We need the strength, encouragement and joy which it brings.

We need more of the spirit of brotherhood in every walk of life. The anniversary of the birth of Christ gives each of us the opportunity of doing some good deed, some act of service for humanity. We may contribute to another's happiness or gladden the heart of one who may be discouraged — the widow, the orphan, the sick or the friendless. Christmas may be a beautiful and sacred time if we do our part in keeping it the enduring simple and wholesome season it ought to be. Let us not forget the needs of our own local community, in the name of Him who has bestowed upon this great land the priceless gifts of freedom and peace.

The most cherished gift bestowed by the passing year is the memory of the pleasant relations with those with whom we have been privileged to serve. May we carry with us at all times the spirit of love which is the foundation of our organization; may the glorious glow of human kindness kindled in the hearts of mankind on that first Christmas be as strong an influence in our lives as it was two thousand years ago.

Brothers, we are again nearing the end of another year and as we think back over the past months, we remember many things that were far from pleasant for some of us, but we also can remember many other events and happenings for which we can be very thankful. With a little added effort, I am sure we can all do better in the coming year.

Let us all stop for a moment and ask ourselves question? Have I done part for South Gate during 1962? Your Lodge can progress through the cooperation of every member. Officers alone cannot possibly fulfill their duties without your help. If we were to survey of all the jobs, large or small, which must be done to successfully operate a Lodge we could easily use the services of about ninety-eight of our members. What a wonderful feeling it would be to the remainder of our membership, or even one-half of number, sitting on the lines during degree work. Candidate would certainly learn the true meaning "Brotherly Love and Friendship." A Stated Meeting seem dull and unimportant to many of our members, it is your Lodge and you are entitled to voice your opinion on matters brought before Lodge, whereby you may benefit. We urge that you attend meetings as often as possible, assist your Officers every way possible, and hesitate to speak up if you have a desire to help our Committee. I am sure you would enjoy it and your officers would appreciate it.

On Monday, Nov. 5, sixteen of our members attended Visitation Night at Vets Hospital. Brother Paul Munro has done a magnificent job as Chairman of this Committee and we want to thank Brothers who took time from their busy schedules to help comfort the patients at Vets Hospital. Watch your Lodge bulletin board for check with the Officers at the next Visitation night plan to be there.

Another very important date should be marked on your calendars immediately. At our Annual Meeting in December (Dec. 10) you have an opportunity to elect Members of your choice. You wish to serve as Officers for the year? Lets plan now to attend important meeting and be in the largest attendance. South Gate has even known.

Your Officers make every effort possible, through press sessions (to make meeting as interesting as possible. We would like to hear from you as to what could be done to increase attendance. How much do you know about Masonry today?

My year as Master of our Lodge is rapidly drawing to a close. This past year has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life and I'm sure one I'll never forget. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the Brothers who have given so freely of their time and talents when they were needed.

On Saturday, December 15 we will have our annual Past Masters Banquet at the Wynedale Methodist church. Brother Hertzog and his committee have been working hard in preparation for this event and I'm sure have interesting evening plans for us.

We will be having degree work every Wednesday during December and don't forget installation of officers Wednesday, January 5.

Brothers we will soon be entering one of the most busy times of the year, the Christmas season. It is certainly a most joyous time. This year lets all make a special effort, during all the bustle and the season, not to lose sight of the meaning of Christmas. Be thankful for him whose birthday we celebrate.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to one and all. This is my last time for this year, so God Speed to all.

Congratulations and best wishes for a successful 1963 to the new officers of Summit Lodge.

For Home Coming Banquet 1962 is past. I hope you all there and enjoyed it. The fellowship that all goes with it. Best wishes for many more years of activity to our two new fifty year members who received their Awards of Gold at the banquet.

This article is the last one I will write as Worshipful Master of Summit City Lodge so I thank you all for your confidence in me and all of the other officers. The continued cooperation of the members, committees, committee chairman, and the officers has made the past year a very pleasant one for me. The fellowship and whole hearted support I have experienced this year can be found only in our Masonic Lodge, at least I never saw it in any other organization.

Please join me in a pledge to support with renewed zeal, the new officers of the lodge for the continued success of Masonry through out the world, as they take over their new duties. They are a wonderful group of officers. I couldn't ask for any better.

Mrs. Fay Brennan may not be a member of our lodge, however without her assistance, our dinners would have been quite a chore, so many thanks to her also.

The Grand Master has requested that all Masonic lodges hold a Table Lodge to celebrate St. Johns Day this year so watch for this on bulletin board. Plans are not complete, as yet, but keep December 27 open for that is the date.

Brothers, December 6th is our Annual Stated Meeting and election of officers for the coming year. It will be preceded by a dinner served at 6:30 p.m. at the Temple. Do not forget to come for dinner and stay for the most important meeting of the year. We also plan to award several 25-year pins immediately after dinner.

Our Annual Dinner Dance was very well attended, and everyone present seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. Thanks to the Wardens and Brothers who gave so much help to make it a success.

Wayne Lodge has had several illnesses in the past month. Past Master Walter Shady, Bros. Raymond Crippen and Ray Bailey have been hospitalized, and Bro. Shady has already been released. A speedy recovery to all.

We wish to welcome new Master Masons, Joseph Gold, Donald Weikel, and James Sharon into the fellowship of the Lodge, and hope they spend many Masonic evenings with us. There were also three Brothers taking the degrees in November, and a petition to vote on at the Annual Stated Meeting.

Since this is my last article as Master of Wayne Lodge, I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who have done such a wonderful job, and have made this year a pleasant and memorable one for me. Our Secretary, Treasurer, and Trustees have worked most diligently at the business of the Lodge. Bros. Platt and Haver with refreshments, Kenny Rayl at Hospital Visitation, Frank Baptist, Telephone Committee, P.M.s. Kronmiller, Roush and Randy on the Masonic Home Committee, and Bros. Don Keppeler, Ian Blackie and Kenny Clark as auditors, all served at their important tasks with a zeal that left nothing to be desired. The Wardens and other line officers have also worked hard to give our Lodge a successful year.

Monday, Dec. 3rd will again be Vet's Hospital Visitation night. I hope all who can, will go with Kenny Rayl for this very important part of our Lodge work.

Remember, dues for 1963 are due on or before Jan. 1, 1963!

May the coming Christmas Season offer to each of you a joyous and thankful heart for the many blessings granted by our Creator!

Brethren, in writing this my last message to you, I realize that many things have happened in this year 1962 as has been the manner of all years past. In the journey through this year as Master of your Lodge, the learning has been great and it has been a pleasure to serve you. I have become acquainted with and gotten to know better many brethren as I have advanced through these eight years in the officers line, but as always everything is finally terminated.

I want to thank all the brethren for their very able assistance on all the different committees of which the Lodge consists and are a necessary part of the operation of an organization such as ours. In the coming years, I hope each of you will assist your newly elected Worshipful Master and his officers (whoever they may be) as you have me.

Our Family Nite was well attended, as it always is, and we were pleased that so many of you could come to this special occasion for the family.

To those members who are ill, we wish a speedy recovery. When you know of someone who is ill, please notify the secretary or any member of the Lodge.

Come to our Annual Stated Meeting and election of officers on December 4, and see how the election is held and hear more about how your lodge proceeds in its important business.

A public installation of officers of Home Lodge will be held on January 1, 1963, at 7:30 p.m.

December is Lodge Participation Month. What better time of year can we rejoice together our freedom. Will you share yourselves with the Lodge this month? We know that your answer will be yes. The Lodge wishes all members to have an effectual Christmas with its meaning carried every day of the year.

TRINITY CHAPTER MAKES DONATION

Trinity Chapter No. 576, O. E. S., in appreciation for the redecoration of the Masonic Temple by the trustees, has donated $100 to be used in furthering this project.

The donation was used by the trustees for new drapes in the ballroom and ladies powder room. Needless to say the trustees are grateful for this donation and in the spirit it was given.

Various Plants Need Degrees of Light

Your florist or garden center experts can tell you which plants thrive best in various degrees of light, but you can also test proper locations for yourself by keeping potted plants in a fixed location for a week or so and watching their response to light.

In general, flowering plants like more light than foliage plants, but you can easily supply artificial light with either an ordinary floor or table lamp.

PRUDENCE AND TEMPERANCE

By Carl H. Claudy
Prudence in Masonry means wisdom; wisdom was anciently a cardinal virtue and the mere changing of the syllables by which it is dominated does not change its nature. It is the wisdom which was meant by the writer of Proverbs, who said, "the heart of the prudent getteth knowledge."

Freemasonry is a system of wisdom of heart, wisdom of mind, wisdom, if the Mason so wills it, of soul. It is an approach of man to his Creator. It is a forward looking to better days and a looking up to higher things. Its whole structure is aimed at helping a man in the formation of good character. Wisdom is essential for this, from thinking, rather than from education and teaching. Consider prudence as meaning a wisdom of both heart and mind and it becomes something high and holy and much more impressive than mere precaution, judged by the modern and colloquial meaning of the word prudence. Therefore, a man is prudent when he allows wisdom to rule his actions.

God bless you all this Christmas Day
May Bethlehem's star, still light the way,
And guide thee to the perfect peace
When every fear and doubt shall cease,
And may thy home such glory know

As did the stable long ago.
Edgar A. Guest
May the love, laughter and joy of the Christmas season be yours, Edna Senger — Worthy Matron.
Past Matrons and Past Patrons night was observed by Star of the East Chapter on Nov. 13. A delicious banquet was served in the dining room.

After the Chapter was opened, Edna Senger asked that the present officers relinquish their stations to the Past Matrons and Past Patrons. Sister Mary Mildred Wahle filled the station of Worthy Matron and Brother Clarence McIntosh filled the station of Worthy Patron.

Four new members were initiated and the By-Laws were signed by an affiliate member. — It is always an inspiration to hear the Past Matrons and Past Patrons give the initiatory; they know their work so well and are so gracious. Star of the East members are indeed proud of them.

The Decorating Committee had beautifully decorated the Dining Room and the Chapter Room with Mary Mildred's red rose theme.

The Choir's voices were lovely as they sang music that was used the year Mary Mildred Wahle was Worthy Matron, their songs to the Past Matrons and Past Patrons, and again when they sang "Thanks Be to God."

The Sewing Committee had made gifts for the Past Matrons & Past Patrons.

The Social Committee helped prepare and serve the banquet.

And the Program Committee made the evening's programs.

After the closing of Chapter, the Drill Team entertained with a fine performance of their drills and formations. Everyone had worked hard getting things prepared and it was indeed appreciated and a very lovely evening.

Our Chapter's Christmas party will be December 11th and the Choir will entertain.

Unto you, this day in Bethlehem, Judea.

A Saviour, God's Eternal Son was born.

Unto you, no finer gift was ever given

Than this, God's gift supreme on Christmas Morn.

Unto you this day was given light for guidance

Unto you this day was given this to know

A Saviour had been born to walk beside you

Forever — and wherever you may go

Unto you, may something in the Christmas Story

Give guidance for your conduct and behavior

Unto you, may it be given to remember

That Christmas is the birthday of your Saviour.

Unto you, may Christ bring love and understanding, Abundantly, to light your Christmas Tree.

Unto you, may Christmas be an inspiration

To be what God intended you to be.

To all our good sisters and brothers we'd like to pause a moment to say — In your homes this Christmas tide, may joy and happiness abide; may love and peace ever true, be this season's gift to you. To all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The chapter is planning a wonderful meeting on Dec. 21st. The Decorating committee with Leota Niles as its chairman is working hard on the decorations for the dining room for the Christmas meeting. Also, the program committee under the leadership of Norma Jean Miller has a wonderful program planned for the evening. The program will be slide pictures shown by Sister Helen McClure on the trip that she and Brother Bob made to the Holy Land. I am sure this will be very interesting to all. Refreshments will be served by the officers on the mezzanine and the choir will entertain with Christmas carols. Please try to attend this meeting which is being planned for your enjoyment.

Wednesday, Jan. 2, 1963
Stated Meeting, 8:00 p.m.
Advance Officers Night.

Have you heard about our Ways and Means Chairmen,
H.L. Ruby McDowell and H.L.
Eythel Smiley? Well they and their energetic committee members are our "Money-Makers" and believe me, they are 'chock-full' of Fund - Raising - Ideas. First, they have the Birth-dated Calendar completed, and are most happy to report a very nice profit was realized from that project. (The Calendars will be ready for delivery sometime in December).

The Sechlers Pickle Sales is another fast moving project. They have beautiful Christmas Boxes containing several kinds of pickles which will make wonderful Gifts for your Families or friends. Call Eythel Smiley, H-8147b or Ruby McDowell, H-08207 who will be glad to take your order and deliveries will be made right to your door. They also are selling Ball-point Pens (with erasers) Christmas Cards and Perfume.

The "Round - Robin" Card Parties which have been in progress the past few weeks will be continued through January. These Get-togethers are real fun, so lets all open our homes, invite a few friends for a table or two, so we can make this project a real success.

Illness in Court, Letty Dickey, Lutheran Hospital; Georgia Hudson ill at her home in Texas; Kathryn Clark, Christine and Marcella Tew, Blanche Rasmus and Arthur
Hickman, all ill at their homes.

To all we wish a very speedy recovery.

This is a Secret: Our good friend Associate Matron Norma Jean Miller is having a Birthday the day before Christmas. Come to Court Dec. 19th and maybe we might have a Birthday Cake, after the showing of the Film by the McClures.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

Our Court has been very active in November and will do their share of visiting other Courts in Dec. and Jan.
Several card parties are on the schedule for December besides the usual Christmas parties with gift exchanges.

Our Officers meeting will be held with H.L. Florence and S.K. Glen Geiger of 414
Penn Place on Dec. 3 at 8 p.m.
Each officer to bring a Christmas gift of not more than fifty-cents.

On Dec. 1st the court will hold its annual Rummage sale in the Church of God in Christ building at the corner of Berghoff and Culbertson Streets at 8 a.m. Please phone
H.L. Bessie Myers or H.L.
Florence Geiger if you have rummage to be picked up.

On Dec. 5, the Officers of Truth Court will visit Anthony Wayne Court and have charge of the opening and closing services of the Court thus evens the usual custom of each Court serving the other Court at least once each year.

Sir Knight Roselle is home but is not able to attend Court yet, but we hope he will be able to be about soon. H.L. Beth Smith is not up to par and might have to have surgery. We're sorry to hear this and hope for a speedy recovery.

Christmas greetings with all it's wreaths and holly; Invites old Saint Nick with all his zest and jollity;

To come and see his dear ones again

Who long to visit the place where he reigns.

Both young and old enjoy his grace and smiles

As he places his wares on the floor in piles;

Sits down in grandpa's easy chair

Pets a doll and strokes it's hair.

He surely has something for all his boys.

Electric trains, games, balls and toys;

For the girls a dress, a doll or two

Gum and candy and beads not a few.

We thank you, dear Santa for returning this year,

We enjoy you so much and think you're a dear;

May the lesson of giving enlighten our way

As we gather together on Christmas Day.

Mrs. Charles Masel
With the above message from our Worthy President I suppose we could say, "The year is over," but there is still much to do and there are many important events yet to come before we can put the official stamp of Finished on the year.
Dec. 4th will be the annual election of officers. You have a choice — you can read about it in the Jan. Square and Compass or you can come to Assembly and do your part in choosing the officers who will be serving next year. Why not try the latter? Dec. 18th is the Christmas Party. A program and refreshments are being planned. Christmas is one of those occasions when we, as a Christian Order, desire to make life sweeter for better for others. Those who pointed on the Christmas Benevolence Committee are Mrs. Willard Havel, Mrs.
Sethbert Sapp and Mrs. Car-

No man is an island entire himself; Every man is a piece

John Donne, the philosopher, writing in the 17th Century, probably did not have York Rite Masonry in mind when he wrote those immortal lines but they apply to every one of us today.

At our recently completed Grand Chapter, it was pointed out again that our membership is decreasing. Our efforts of the past to bring our enlightened brothers to other light in Masonry have been more than offset by the ill of the Grand Priest of the Celestial Chapter and by illness and suspensions.

A careful survey shows the use of the York Rite Festival Days by many York Bodies of many jurisdictions has done much to revitalize those bodies as well to increase membership.
The reading of the Knight Templar Magazine for October by all Chapter Members is commended as in it is outlined the procedures for making the York Rite Festival days successful. Remember, the success of our Chapter is dependant upon each of you as individuals to aid in whatever manner you are able.

If you cannot take part in the Ritual work, then honor the Chapter with your presence at the stated meetings.
We also need a good lecturer for the York Rite. Interest other Mason friends in our work and bring them to the meetings preceding the meetings.

To aid in the plans for the York Rite Festival Days in the Spring of 1963, a York Rite Festival Days Committee has been appointed. Jack Walker, Commander of Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4
Chairman, Philip McCague, High Priest of Fort Wayne Chapter No. 19, and Arthur Palmer, Past Commander of Fort Wayne Commandery are the other members. They are charged with the duty of selecting dates for the Festival and to secure the essential cooperation of all York Rite bodies in this area.

A committee to investigate demits and suspensions has been appointed. Company George Gable, Roger Walker, Don Marvel, and Myron Milhorn have accepted this assignment with Company Gable acting as Chairman.

Sixteen Companions and wives attended the annual officers banquet at the Shrine club on November 3. After dinner we were all guests of Companion and Mrs. Marvel at their home.

On Nov. 15, a fine turkey dinner was served prior to the stated meeting. Again, many thanks to the ladies for their assistance.

The menu for the December Meeting will be fried chicken with all the trimmings. Bring a Master Ma-

The nip in the fall air is already beginning to carry with it the threat of winter's bite as I write this. So now is a good time to start thinking about visiting your Chapter during the coming year and renewing old friendships.

One of our most active organizations is the refreshment Committee. It is ably headed by Glenn Meyers, who is being assisted by David Ruoff, Richard Deuter, Larry Deuter
Norman Morgan and Ned Biddle. These men are very anxious for you to sample their delicious meals. Why not come and eat with us on the third Friday of the month
at 6:30 p.m.

We expect to give degree work to several candidates before long and your help, either active or on the sidelines, would be appreciated.

If any of our members are ill, we would like to be notified promptly.
Hope to see you in Chapter next meeting!

My term is slowly dwindle-ing away but the events on the calendar are getting bigger and bigger. Our annual Christmas dance is coming up this month. The date for this formal dance is December 28. All DeMolays are invited to come and bring a date (preferably a girl). Admittance is obtained by showing your up-to-date dues card. I am looking forward to this event and hope I have plenty of eager DeMolays to help on committees. We plan this dance with the Job's Daughters.

Another big event this month is the election of officers and also our sweetheart. The date for our elections is December 12th. We hope to have a large number in attendance. At our last meeting we picked sweetheart committees. Paul Boer-ger is heading South Side;
Tom Errington, North Side; Larry Bushill, New Haven;
Phil Baker, Hometown; Max
Johnson, Central; and Ron Smith, Elmhurst. If any De-Molays from these respected schools wish to make a suggestion, I'm sure it would be appreciated. Don't forget that we are electing officers, too.

December 5th will be the date for our Initiatory and DeMolay Degrees. This is a special meeting and will start at 7:00 p.m. Please make a note of this date and time.

An honor was bestowed upon our chapter by a DeMolay.
Denny Truitt is the DeMolay of whom I speak. Denny got out and really pitched for DeMolay. He brought in 40 new members in the last term.
He was justly rewarded by the International Supreme Council. They rewarded him and Dad Herrick with a trip to Washington D. C. all expenses paid. Denny received a letter of high appraisal from the International Supreme Council. The chapter received a plaque and is proud of Denny. I'm sure he is a very happy guy and looking forward to his trip.

I would like to thank the DeMolays who gave up enough time to serve the Job's Daughters banquet. They all keep asking me why I wasn't there. Well, I've got a good excuse, I was working; although from what I have heard, I should have been there.

On December first Dad Herrick and myself get to take a little trip. I am very honored to attend the Banquet given by Judge Robert Grant. It is being held in South Bend.
Master Councilors and Chapter Dads from all over the state will be there. It is to be a tribute to DeMolay.

THE EASY JOB

It is comparatively easy to learn the lectures; it's harder to apply the principles. It is easy to vote money from lodge funds for charity; it's harder to go out and visit the sick. It's easy to repeat a story which you have heard, it's harder to hold your tongue. It's easy to refer an inquirer to another, it's harder for you to look up the information that is desired. But is it not apparent that the doing of the harder things not only accomplishes the desired purpose but cultivates the characteristics that make for your own growth? Don't hunt the easy jobs; but let some other fellow do them;
and go after that which helps you personally in addition to the mere accomplishment of the particular thing.

INDIVIDUALISM

We are living in a world and in a time when powerful leaders with millions of fanatical followers are committed to the forcible regimentation of their fellow men, according to formulas which have no initial authority but what that of their own private dogmatism. They not only refuse to recognize the right of private thought and personal conscience to be considered in the management of public affairs, but they have abolished the concept of the individual as a private personality and have reduced him to the level of the bee in the hive. To restore the individual to his former dignity as a human being is the urgent need of the day.

The last page of the year having been turned, it reminds us that this year is about to become history; A very special history for Hunteartown Lodge because, it marks fifty years of Freemasonry in Hunteartown. A very special meaning for me also, because it was my privilege to serve my Lodge as Worshipful Master during an Historic year. My thanks and appreciation to all of you for your support and interest, and if I may, a very special thanks to our faithful secretary; John Lare; without whose help and guidance and very efficient secretaries desk, would have made my duties much harder. If you will remember back to the beginning of the year when I assumed the duties of presiding in the East; I set forth a goal for us to work towards during the year. Simple enough in itself but hard enough to maintain. It was to uphold the very good reputation of Hunteartown Lodge. I am not going to say that I accomplished this for the Lodge but rather that it was accomplished by the Lodge for me. I will be forever grateful for the privilege and honor of serving Freemasonry in my own small way. I think it would be proper at this time to wish the newly elected officers for 1963 all the best luck in the world for a successful year. Also I think it would be proper for the rest of us to help them make it a successful year.

We were saddened recently by the death of our Brother Lohman Dunten. We extend our sincere sympathy to his relatives and friends.

Many times when masons are appointed or elected and accept a position in the line of officers; pointed questions are asked of them because they are in a sense representing the Lodge as agents to the world. Such questions as:

What does Freemasonry stand for?

What is it doing today?

What has it ever done?

Let me give you a definition which has been selected many times by eminent Freemasons as best answering such questions:

"Freemasonry is the activity of closely united men, who, employing symbolical forms borrowed principally from the mason's trade and from architecture, work for the welfare of mankind, striving morally to enoble themselves and others, and thereby to bring a universal league of mankind, which they aspire to exhibit even now on a small scale."

Studying Freemasonry is like looking at a sunset. Each man who looks is filled with the beauty and wonder of it, but the glory is not diminished. — Newton.

The busy season will soon be upon us. Let us not be too busy as to forget our obligations and attend Lodge.

We should be especially thankful this Thanksgiving season for our many blessings and all the privileges we enjoy. We do not know how soon this all could end, so we must be ever alert to our responsibilities to help keep our great country free.

On Sat. night, Nov. 24, the Masons are entertaining their families for a night out at the Hobby Ranch ouse. A big evening of entertainment, food and fellowship is being planned. The committees are working hard so we are looking for this to be quite successful.

Last month we had an enjoyable joint meeting with Leo, when we also had the Grand Lecturer there for Lodge of Instructions.

Hope to see you in Lodge next meeting night.

As this year of mine is drawing to a close as being your Master, I would like to take this time and space to publicly thank all of my officers and members who have helped me and have given so generously of their time and efforts to help me have a successful year.

This is the Christmas season and the time of rejoicing; it is the time when we celebrate the birth of our Lord. So, let us as Masons help to Keep the true meaning of Christmas this coming Yule season by doing our best to bring "Peace on Earth and Good Will to Men."

Don't forget our next meet-

It is one of your duties and privileges as a member of the Lodge to be there and vote for your officers and give them your support for the coming year. One last reminder, don't forget that your dues for next year are now due, and if you have a dollar or two extra don't forget the Masonic Home, this is the time of the year to be extra generous.

Brothers by the time you read this our pot luck supper will be a thing of the past. We will be looking forward to the fellowcraft degree, which will be given on December the 19th, starting at 7 p.m.

The impression a candidate receives is very important, therefore the more interest that is shown in our degree work, the stronger we become as Masons.

The Grand Master has issued St. John's Day Proclamation and we will observe this day, December 27th by having a Table Lodge, this is something new as far as Indiana Lodges are concerned.

There will be a special program for this event, and it will be necessary to know how many will attend, so suitable arrangements can be made.

Call me at W-2543 or brother Norman Long at W-2098. The feast will start at 6:30 p.m. and there will be organ music and singing, come and enjoy the good fellowship.

Brother Lloyd Beard and brother John Young are home from the hospital and we are hoping they will be back on their jobs soon.

On Tuesday, November 7, 1962, Ossian Lodge No. 297 celebrated its Annual Homecoming. This event has been held every year for the past several years.

The brethren started assembling and registering at 5:00 p.m. and at 6:30 p.m. moved to the Presbyterian Church dining room where they enjoyed a well prepared and served meal, after which they returned to the Lodge Hall and opened Lodge on the Master Mason Degree.

The Worshipful Master, Joseph Roman, after greeting and welcoming the brethren, introduced the speaker for the evening, Rev. Phillip Philbrook. Rev. Philbrook is a delightfully entertaining as well as thought provoking speaker. Rev. Philbrook is very eloquently concerned the requirement of a son in humor in the character of a Mason. This respondent is in firm agreement with Brother Philbrook and believes that too many people in the day to struggle take everything happens too seriously.

Brethren take a little out now and then and let it be good for you.

Bible Material: Genesis 1: 26-31; Psalm 8; Matthew 6:24-34; Hebrews 2:1-12
Devotional Reading: Hebrews 2:1-12

MOST people would call the Bible a book about God; and this is true. But there is something just as true, and for us very important: it is a book about man. Just as there are truths about God that will not be known unless God reveals them, so there are truths about man that have to be shown us. The race of man has seldom taken itself seriously enough. Men suppose they are like the heasts that perish; today here, tomorrow gone, and nothing else to be said. Men think their lives are so short and insignificant that it does not matter to any one what they do. Men have thought of themselves as so tied to this planet Earth that when it dies we shall die with it. Men have seen that we are animals, and so they think we need no more than animals do, food, a roof, a little place in the sunshine. What's right or wrong for a beast is right or wrong for us... and so forth.

Man the Master
The Bible gives no encouragement to any such mistakes. Man is much bigger than a mere "bigger animal." He is first of all a creature of God, that is the key to the meaning of his existence. "Thou hast made him," the post-palmsist cries. This alone gives man a glory. The same hand that wrought the universe, the same Mind that conceived the galaxies, are the mind and the hand that designed and developed man and mankind. Not only so, but God has made man only a little lower than God. So far as this earth is concerned. In this earth, our home, God has set man as the master of all. Every living thing is placed under the control of man. Much that man does, especially the good that man does, is part of his continuing age-old struggle to be what God created and intended him to be: master of life on this planet. Every pitfall you see is a battle-ground part of the long war against tiny living things that cause disease, germs and viruses. You see a wheat field or a tower, you see signs of man's quest of hunger and thirst. You see a clothing store, or on your furnace or light the flame in your fireplace, you are looking at part of man's long war with climates in which he lives. It is not meant by the high God but the victim of his environment to rise above it and control it.

Man the Slave

But that is not the whole meaning of man is not found in his conquests alone in his service. Some masters must have. Man (it has been said) is "incurably religious." To say, some God man must have his head on, and discipline, that is God to him, said Luther. Strange how a idols man makes for himself.

Man the Spirit

Another mistake men make about themselves is to count themselves with their bodies. Man is a natural mistake, because whatever we do or think, we do or think only with the aid of our bodies. But that does not mean that the body is the most important part of us. It does not. Our major concentrated interest does not deserve the passing we give it. Jesus asks us to put so much thought on our bodies.

A lady selling a young encyclopedia went by appointment to a beautiful home where a family with several children. The lady of the house did not use the encyclopedia; too expensive she said. Her visitor pointed to it and said, "As I came up the drive I saw about $200 worth of play equipment—bicycles and what not in the yard. Why do you spend that for what's below their minds and begrudge the same money to their minds?" And she might have added: "And how much you spend for their souls?"

Happy New Year!

CONRAD HAHAN TO SPEAK AT BLUE LODGE GUEST NIGHT

Conrad Hahn was born of missionary parents at Fuerte, Sinaloa, Mexico, 1906. Educated in the public schools of New Orleans, Louisiana, New York City and Scranton, Pennsylvania, and a graduate B.A., with high honors from Yale College, as a Phi Beta Kappa; and won his Varsity Letters in lacrosse.

He is also a M.A., Faculty of Philosophy and Political Science of Columbia University, with "highest honors" in English.

Mr. Hahn taught English, German, Latin at Suffield Academy, Suffield, Connecticut, 1928 - 1941. Coached cross-country, swimming, soccer, and tennis teams.

He was Headmaster, Suffield Academy, Suffield, Connecticut, 1941 - 1952. Headmaster, Unquowa School (country school for boys and girls), Fairfield, Connecticut, 1952-1958.

His Masonic record is outstanding, serving as Editor of Publications, Masonic Service Association of the United States, Washington, D. C., since 1958.

He is a Past Master, Apollo Lodge No. 59, Suffield, Connecticut, Past Grand Master of Masons in Connecticut, 1957.

He is a member of Jerusalem Chapter No. 13, R.A.M., Bridgeport, Connecticut, Jerusalem Chapter No. 16, R. & S. M., Bridgeport, Connecticut, Sphinx Temple, A.A.O.-M.M.S., Bridgeport, Connecticut, A.A.S.R., Northern Jurisdiction, 32 Degree, Valley of Bridgeport, Connecticut, nominated, 33 Degree, A.A.S.R., Northern Jurisdiction, 1961.

FORMER FORT WAYNE MAN HONORED

Jerald M. Stephens was installed Worshipful Master of Glenview Lodge No. 105, R. & A.M. in the Masonic Temple, Illinois, December 1.

Among those who attended the ceremony, besides the Most Worshipful Grand Master of Illinois and other distinguished guests, were his mother, Mrs. Ruth Stephens and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chal of Fort Wayne.

Brother Stephens, who has been in service with the Navy since 1943, is a former member of Home Lodge No. 342 and his mother and sister are members of Shiloh Chapter No. 141 O. E. S.

Our congratulations to him for this high achievement.

PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY IN '63

You don't need a crystal ball to see that 1963 has "what it takes" to accelerate our progress, to lift the level of our prosperity to new "highs." Looks like a great New Year!

For you, we hope that 1963 will live up to its "advance notices" in every detail . . . bring you all that you wish for . . . and, departing, leave behind it warm memories of your very finest year!

FORT WAYNE COMMANDERY NO. 4 ELECTS AND INSTALLS OFFICERS

The following officers were elected to serve in 1963. They will be installed at a joint installation with the Fort Wayne Assembly No. 139, Social Order of Beauceant in the fifth floor auditorium on Saturday, January 5, 1963.

Phillip McCague, E. C.; Roger Shafer, generalissimo; Dr. Ivan A. Planck, captain general; Myron A. Millhorn, senior warden; Albert F. Cary, junior warden; George Gable, recorder; John Lombard, treasurer; trustee for three years, Jack M. Walker; prelate, Schuble C. Boggs; Bernard Smith, standard bearer; Richard Dedem, sword bearer; and warden Louis J. Kock, Jr.

SHILOH CHAPTER MOURNS MEMBER

LETTIE DICKEY

Shiloh Chapter O.E.S. and Chapters in the 14th. district mourns the death of Sister Lettie (Ferguson) Dickey. Sister Lettie passed away at 8:45 P.M. December 21, 1962 at Lutheran Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Lettie Dickey was a most faithful member of the order. She was initiated in Shiloh Chapter on November 22, 1913 and served as Worthy Matron of Shiloh in 1922, Worthy Grand Matron of Indiana Grand Chapter in 1927 and Most Worthy Grand Ruth of General Grand Chapter from 1950 - to 1953. Sister Lettie was one of the first women ever to serve in the Indiana Legislature having been elected for a two year term in 1928. She was a Past High Priestess of White Shrine and Past Grand Royal Matron of the Order of Amaranth.

Shiloh Past Matrons and Past Patrons held twilight services at Klaehn Funeral home on Sunday, December 23rd. Faith Shrine No. 29 and Anthony Wayne Court No. 3 also held services on Dec. 23rd. Services were held on Monday at 11:30 A.M. with Rev. Larry Loving officiating. Burial was in Lindenwood Cemetery.

SEEKS FINAL RESTING PLACE OF UNCLE

Mr. Kenneth D. Lewis, of San Francisco, California, is trying to find the final burial place of an uncle, Maurice Lamott Jones. Mr. Jones died at Lake Worth, Florida on February 24, 1888, but his remains were shipped to Fort Wayne for burial. Mr. Jones was a Knight Templar in Fort Wayne.

If you can supply any information regarding Mr. Jones, please write direct to Kenneth D. Lewis, % Western Pacific Railroad Company, Western Pacific Building, 526 Mission St., San Francisco 5, California.

Herschel D. Bolyard _____ W.M.
4801 Lillie St. _____ H-9448
George F. Gable _____ Recorder
442 W. Wildwood Ave. _____ H-4727

In my first message to all members of Maumee Lodge I desire to voice my appreciation for the high honor you have bestowed me in electing me to be Master of Maumee Lodge for the coming year.

I assure you that I will diligently pursue, to the best of my ability, my duties of this office and to Masonry in general.

Your officers for the coming year are; Herschel D. Bolyard, W. M.; A. Paul Straight, S. W.; Berton Pontoni, J. W.; Fred Raake, Treas.; George Gable, Secy.; William Gingham, Trustee; Shirley Scholer, Trustee; Herbert Foreman, Trustee; Phillip Gutman, S. D.; Arthur Graie, J. D.; Wayne Doehrmann, S. S.; Robert Mathieson, J. S.; Kenneth Hanes, Chaplain; William L. Lower, Tyler.

Golf Committee: Warren "Doc" Delp and Eugene Harmon.

Veterans Hospital Visitation: Chairman: Fred Peters, Sr.

We must continue to go forward and I urge each of you to re-dedicate yourself to service to your Lodge and to Masonry.

I am hoping to see some new faces in Lodge and also our old standbys.

Let us all try to bring some member to Lodge who has not been there for a while and see if we cannot get our attendance to increase.

The Lodge and your Officers need your help by attending Lodge and taking at least some small part.

Hoping to see you in Lodge in January;

"Greatness comes only as we are related to something great beyond and above ourselves. This relationship to greatness is what Christianity accomplishes for you. It is what Masonry can do for you if you seek the best and seek it with all your heart, soul and mind."

Brethren, here's hoping everyone had one of the Merriest Christmases ever, and a very happy New Year. I'm sure this comes not only from the heart of your W. M. but all the officers as well. We will be busy every Tuesday night this year. We hope everyone will come down meet your new officers, and support them in their new stations. We intend not only to have degree work, but to have a course whenever possible, on Masonic Education.

Your newly elected and appointed officers for this year are as follows: Wm. Reinhold, Worshipful Master; Irvin Burelison, senior warden; James Peters, junior warden; Herman Rausch, treasurer; David Mills, secretary; and Richard Stresser, chaplain.

Harold Salisbury was elected senior deacon; Lloyd Bouillon, junior deacon; Russel Prince, senior steward; Charles Winans, junior steward; and William Slyby, Tyler.

Trustees for the coming year will be Donald Stone-man, Harold Martin and Ralph Roller.

Our Fellowcraft pres., Richard Stresser, has informed me that the Fellowcraft team is having a supper meeting and election of officers January 17. Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. It is to be a very good and unusual supper. Your attendance will be appreciated.

Blue Lodge guest night will be Feb. 8th. It is being held by the nine surrounding Lodges. Tickets are $1.75 each, and our Lodge is limited to sell to only 106 Master Masons. This is a good chance to introduce a good friend to Masonry. It is being held at the Scottish Rite Banquet Room and Auditorium. Dinner will be served at 6:30, followed by a program in the auditorium. We guarantee that the entertainment will be the best in the midwest.

and will be very impressive for the guests. Tickets may be purchased only by contacting Irvin Burelison at A-19555, or Harold Salisbury at H-79463, as we have only a limited supply and they are the only ones in Home lodge, handling them. We feel that this will be one of the biggest events of the year and a milestone for Masonry.

In closing, I would like to remind you that our Lodge has been falling short on contributions to the Ind. Masonic Home, at Grand Lodge last year, 141 Lodges received honor awards for 100 per cent contributions to the home. I'm sorry to say Home Lodge was not one of them. I would like to see a donor sticker on every 1963 membership card, there is no more worthy cause for a Master Mason than to lend a helping hand to his brothers and sisters at Franklin, Ind. Also, anyone having information of a shut-in or ill brother, please contact Russel Prince at H-90025 or your Worshipful Master.

Brethren:

This being my first article for the Square and Compass, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for having elected me Worshipful Master of your lodge for 1963.

I am highly honored to be elected to this high post and will, to the best of my ability, try to fulfill the responsibility of this office. With the help of a fine line of officers, Past Masters and Craft, I feel that the job will be well done.

I would like to thank you for the election of the other elected officers: Brother Forrest R. Fennell, Senior Warden; Daniel D. Dale, Junior Warden; Nile W. Hake, Treasurer; Harold W. Garrison, Secretary; and Bernard L. Smith, Three Year Trustee.

The two hold-over trustees are Joseph M. McDowell and Charles R. Bandy.

I have appointed the following Brothers to the remaining line offices: Robert Bogenschuetz, Senior Deacon; Robert H. Witchey, Junior Deacon; James L. Walden, Chaplain; Luther F. Borge, Senior Steward; Wayne Cleckner, Junior Steward; and James Pollos, Tyler.

Installation of the 1963 officers will be held, Thursday, January 3, 1963 at 7 p.m. in the Ionic room of the Masonic Temple and will be open to the public.

Installation ceremony will be conducted by the officers of our Past Masters: Bernard L. Smith, Joseph M. McDowell and Charles R. Bandy. Last year was the first time as members of a degree team. They performed a very impressive ceremony and are looking forward to another fine job again this year. This ceremony will precede our January stated meeting.

Our next visitation to the Veteran's Hospital will be February 4, 1963. We had a nice turn out in December under the leadership of Brother Kenny Rayl, but this is always room for more. You Brethren to join us this worthy cause.

We have one petition vote on at our stated meeting in January, so it looks like we will start the year off the right foot. The holiday will be over by the time the column reaches you, so I hope you had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and am hoping to see all of you at lodge to help us confer the degree on our fine candidates.

We welcome into Wayne Lodge Edward M. Miller and Perry R. Harder, who received their degrees last November. We are hoping to see these Brothers often in the coming year.

The last report of the committee reported that Walter A. Shady was home from the Lutheran Hospital and was doing very nice. Raymond Crippen has been released from Parkview and is convalescing at home. Ray Bailey is still in Lutheran hospital at this writing and is coming along slowly.

If I have missed any of you, I am sorry and wish you a speedy recovery. Please report your sickness to me at T-31655, or any other lodge officer as soon as possible.

My Brothers, this being my first article for 1963, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the privilege of serving as Worshipful Master for the coming year and also to wish for each and every one a Happy and Prosperous New Year. In the year out ahead we can accomplish much or little. It is for each of us to decide how much or how little we can make of 1963. In our plans that your officers are making, we need your help and attendance only at the Social events in Lodge. It would be so heart warming to see more of our brothers on the side and helping out with degree work. It has been said that you only get out something as much as you put into it, so I'm hoping that more of our brothers will be in there helping to maintain a strong and beneficial lodge this coming year. Your officers for 1963 are Max L. Poorman, Worshipful Master; James A. Timmons, Senior Warden; Harold W. Waser, Junior Warden; Arthur C. Slane, Secretary; Edwin V. Ehrman, treasurer; Robert Stute, Senior Deacon; Donald L. Anderson, Deacon; Rex A. Lamm, Junior Steward; Vincent Westfall, Junior Steward; Dale Brown, Chaplain; Oliver W. Linn, Tyler; Kenneth McBraw, Trustee; Kenneth J. Marti, Trustee and Hugh K. Sparks, Trustee. We shall propose no great plans; all we are going to advocate is that Freemasonry remain Freemasonry, and if we have strayed from the additional path, then we had better be moving back to the Main line while there is time to restore the prestige and respect, the interest and loyalty and devotion that was ours. Remember, a successful Lodge is a good investment of time and effort. A good Lodge does not happen; it is planned and worked for, worried over and evaluated; it is flexible and active; it is made up of loyalty; devotion to God; devotion to country, cooperation and an overwhelming desire to cooperatively do the best that can be done for its members. Never has the world needed the tenets of a Mason's profession — brotherly Love — Relief — and truth, more than it does today.

Masonry will only be as strong as the bond between you and your brother. There are many fine activities which Masons and Masonry may engage in, but there is no stronger foundation for us to build upon than our brother-to-brother relationship.

Brethren, when you pay your dues, please don't forget the dollar or more that goes as a voluntary contribution to our Masonic Home. Also if anyone knows of any illness, death or any other matter in which the Lodge can be of assistance, call one of your officers. We can't be of service, if we are not informed, can we?

Will we see you in lodge?

THREE RIVERS
LODGE No. 733

Stated Meeting
Second Tuesday

Thomas M. Franklin _____ W.M.
5006 E. State Blvd. — T-34010

Curtis K. Heston _____ Secretary
4721 S. Anthony — K-2418

Greetings Brethren:

It is with many qualms in regard to my own ability, but with the utmost confidence in the Brethren who have elected me to this high office that I submit this, my first article as Worshipful Master of Three Rivers Lodge.

We have just concluded a very successful year under Worshipful Brother Al Fisher and his wonderful line of officers. It is my fervent hope that Three Rivers Lodge will continue ever upward and onward.

Our Lodge has ever been known as a friendly lodge, striving for ever greater proficiency in degree work. It is my fervent hope that it will remain so. The new officers of your lodge will, with your assistance, do their best to make it so. As the poet said, "The fun is in the winning, not the spending. The doing, not in trinkets of reward. Though all in victory wish the battle ending, the thrill is in the swinging of the sword. The fun is in the doing and the daring, the prize is just a lure to catch the eye. To live is to be fighting odds and caring. To rest and feel no sadness is to die."

With this thought in mind, the new officers of your Lodge do dedicate their work of the coming year to carrying on the precepts and practices of your Lodge which have been so well planted and nurtured by the excellent Masters and officers of the past.

I have continued to refer to your Lodge and Brothers, it is your Lodge. It is not what we as officers want from you but rather what you as Brothers desire from your officers. Attend your Lodge, meet your officers, and make your desires known.

No matter how competent a group of officers may be, they cannot function with any hope of success without the cooperation and support of the Craft. So Brethren, attend your Lodge and we will all, officers and Brethren alike, have a successful year which can be enjoyed by one and all.

We will have several fine social events which will be announced in the Square and Compass as the year progresses, so plan to attend them and you and your family enjoy Masonic family fellowship on a social level.

Brothers, let me remind you at this time of the Blue Lodge Guest Night on Feb. 8 which is a joint venture of all Lodges in the Fort Wayne Jurisdiction. This night will mark a milestone in Masonry in Fort Wayne and is a worthy event deserving of your support. If you have not yet obtained your tickets for this night, you may do so by contacting the Junior Warden of your Lodge.

Allow me to introduce the officers of your Lodge; Worshipful Master — Thomas M. Franklin; Sr. Warden — LeRoy Roberts; Jr. Warden — Thurber C. Mohr; Treas. — Hoyt Q. Campbell; Sect'y. — Curtis K. Heston; Sr. Deacon — James C. Bowser; Jr. Deacon — Loyce E. Hall; Sr. Steward — Theodore R. Arthur; Jr. Steward — Merle L. Campbell; Chaplain — Lee B. Garrison; and Tyler — Charles E. Farmer.

Brothers these fine officers are deserving of your continued fine support and are looking forward to seeing you in lodge at your every opportunity. Following the stated meeting on Jan. 8, we will have degree work on succeeding Tuesday and are looking forward to seeing all of you then.

We would like, at this time, to take the opportunity to thank our Installing Officer Kendall Freck P.M., ably assisted by Homer Stevenson P.M. as Marshall and Gale Davison P.M. as Chaplain for a wonderful installation ceremony conducted with gravity and decorum. The members and guests were afforded the opportunity of seeing very impressive rites. Cyrus Senger P.M. was his usual impressive self in presenting the Gavel to the new Worshipful Master. Delbert Dennis P.M. and Hoyt Campbell P.M. were outstanding in presenting the Apron and Jewel to our Junior Past Master.

1963 will be a year of singular honor for your Worshipful Master and I sincerely hope that we may look back upon this year as one of added prestige for Summit City Lodge.

I am appreciative of the fine line of Officers I have for support and they deserve your encouragement and cooperation. — Donald R. Johnson, Senior Warden; Robert J. Stone, Junior Warden; Lee J. Harter, Senior Deacon; Thomas W. Yoder, Junior Deacon; Lawrence W. Baker, Senior Steward; Jack I. Brunson, Junior Steward; Cleddith L. Martz, Chaplain; Arthur Walda, Tyler; and Kenneth H. Martin, Asst. Tyler.

Special monthly activities have been planned for you in the expectation that they may encourage your attendance and Summit City Lodge will be your center of Fellowship on Friday evenings. These activities will range from class reunions to inter-city visitations, from "Honor" Nights to festive Banquets. All of this will be aided and abetted by impressive and colorful Degree work.

These activities will begin in January with a Homecoming for our 1962 Candidates. This is an opportunity for you to meet the fine gentlemen who have joined our ranks and witness the impressive work they can perform.

Many petitions have been received and Lodge will be opened early in the afternoon on the EA and MM Degrees. Your presence and assistance will be greatly appreciated.

January

11—EA dinner at 6:30.
18—FC open at 7:00.
25—MM special dinner at 6:30.

February 8th will see the beginning of what is hoped will be a great annual event. All Blue Lodges in Fort Wayne are joining hands in presenting a Guest Nite at the Scottish Rite which Master Masons may attend if accompanied by a guest. A fine meal is assured and excellent speakers are being brought to Fort Wayne for this occasion. You will be proud to have your guest see for himself this festive side of Masonry. A limited number of tickets are available from your officers.

Wishes for a rapid recovery are extended from the Lodge to Brothers Aaron Gearhart, Ted Shaw, PM Ed Schoenherr, and Dr. George Gillie.

In his travels through the ages, Man has been blessed with many accomplishments and today our living is easier, although more complicated. Work is completed faster, but with more confusion and fellowship is more readily available, yet often less fulfilling. Society will never cease changing, but the guiding Truths found in the Masonic lectures have remained constant in Man's long journey and they can never be considered outworn. Thus, in what might be considered a complicated, confusing, and less fulfilling society, the most refreshing moments are still available to you in a Masonic Lodge.

"The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher." — Thomas Huxley dence you have bestowed in me for the year 1963. Little did I know when our good brother and Past Master Robert Marshall asked me if I would like to start through the line of offices, I would ever be able to have the honor of becoming Master of our Lodge. When you are installed in that first important station, you become more alert than ever, for those years ahead and the duties you will be asked to perform. I am sure every Master's feelings are similar as he makes that advanced step each year through the different stations. I wish that every Master Mason could some day become Master of a lodge. We all know this is impossible, but there are so many jobs to be done in your lodge which are just as important and must be filled by one of you.

If you are asked to help in degree work, hospital visitation, telephone committee, or whatever it may be, please accept the offer willingly and I am sure you will never regret it. You may feel you are unable to perform some of these duties, but remember a few words which were repeated to you by one of our Brothers, "There will always be a Brother near-by, who is as willing to give as you are ready to receive help and instructions."

My job for 1963 would be very difficult, were it not for the fine slate of elected and appointed officers: John Whitney, Senior Warden; Charles C. Scott Jr., Junior Warden; Everett Karrick, Senior Deacon; Dale Shupe, Junior Deacon; Howard Leclair, Senior Steward; Pete Toyias, Junior Steward; Jim Meeks, Treasurer; Franklin I. Bryant, Secretary; Dean Bunn, Chaplain and James Sirey, Tyler. These men give much of their time and talent, so let's all show our appreciation by attending Lodge regularly.

At this time, we still have many vacancies in our Committees. If you would like to help us, please contact any of the officers and we will certainly welcome you. We are desperately in need of a Brother who can play the piano. Don't be backward Brother just join us.

Our Junior Warden has promised a fine dinner at all our social events for the year. Please mark the following events on your calendar, so we can have a large attendance, which is one way we can reward him for his labors. March 9, Smorgasbord and Square Dance, 6:30; May 6 Past Masters Banquet, 6:30 (members only); Sept. 14, Ladies Night, 6:30; Nov. 16, Family Night, 6:30.

Brother Robert Gardenour, has agreed to head our Fellowship Club. He is looking for some help, so let's get behind him so we can have an active club!

Veterans Hospital Visitation is another way you can serve. Please watch for dates.

If I can be of any help, please feel free to call me at H-2104 during the day or H-2104 or H-4561 at night.

Again I thank you for the opportunity and honor of being Master of South Gate and I will do my best to serve you.

True friendship is ever fine and beautiful but it is not accomplished with handshaking. There must be an exchange of something warm and sweet, something that will enrich the heart with happiness. There must be some service, no matter how small, that will endure.

Knowing many people does not necessarily mean having many friends. True friendship is not based upon how many people we can call by their first names, but by what we have willingly done for each other. We may meet many people in the course of a short time and then not see them again for years, perhaps. We recognize their faces but do not know their hearts. That is not friendship but mere acquaintance, for there can be no real friendship where the heart is not involved or revealed.

We your W.H.P. and W.O.S. Fanny and Arnett wish for each of you a Happy Healthful and Successful 1963.

Now that our official inspection is over, which was a very interesting meeting, we were very happy to have our Supreme Worthy High Priestess Helen Louise Patty, and our Supreme Queen Betty Whitecotton and other Supreme officers and Supreme Committee Members with us.

It was a happy pleasure to have the Worthy High Priestesses and Watchman of Shepherds from Wabash, Muncie, South Bend, Elkhart, Kendallville, Remington, Portland, New Castle and Indianapolis along with other sojourners from each of the Shrines.

Our Xmas parties are all over. Now we start the New

The daughter of Iva and John Schieber will enter the hospital after the holidays. The granddaughter of Violet Diehm was injured in an automobile accident, the husband of Maybelle Tickle is some better.

Deaths in the Shrine
Lena Oberlin of Hamilton, Ind. passed away Nov. 22 and Edna Thompson passed away Nov. 28 at the Masonic Home at Franklin, Ind.

To those who are ill we wish a speedy recovery and to those in sorrow we extend sympathy.

The Card Party and bazaar held November 28 was a huge success. A big vote of thanks to the Chairmen Violet Diehm, Mary Wilson and the committee.

See you in Shrine.

ARE WE DOING OUR PART?

What are we doing to sell York Rite Masonry to our Masonic Brethren?

Are each of us inviting our Masonic Brethren to share with us the beauty and thoughtful teachings that our degrees and orders exemplify?

We who are active in our York Rite bodies know and understand the extent that our York Rite degrees and orders have helped to make us better Master Masons. But have we imparted this knowledge to our Masonic Brethren?

One of the most important facets of York Rite Masonry is our willingness and ability to explain to our Masonic Brethren the benefits we have derived from our beautiful degrees and orders. We should constantly share with our Brethren the excitement and zeal we enjoy from our Rite.

Your York Rite Grand Bodies and your local York Rite bodies and Associations are constantly striving to promote ways and ideas to help you yourself a salesman for our Rite. But the added punch needed is for each member of our Craft to appointment himself a salesman for our Rite and sell his Master Mason Brother on our Rite.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL! Do you have great expectations for this New Year? 1963 can be the best you have ever known! Do you ever write yourself a letter on January 1st, rather than make a long list of good resolutions that someone, one by one are broken?

Why not, some time in January, write yourself a letter, and file it away, then next New Year's Eve remember on New Year's Eve open it! You will find that a great spiritual law, as exact as the laws of gravity, stands in the face of great expectations!

Matthew 8:13; Proverbs 23; Psalms 62:5).

Many lovely chapter parties and a beautiful initiation of new members added to the memories of another joyous season just passed.

THROUGHOUT THE COMING YEAR

Whenever you meet the friends you know,

Never greet them with a sneer,

But clasp their hand and wish them well

Throughout the coming year.

Remember well your resolutions

To speak comforting words of cheer,

To do kind deeds in time of need

Throughout the coming year.

By P. F. Freeman

From Ideals Magazine

On behalf of the Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron and all of Star of the East's officers, a Happy New Year is wished for all.

Our Chapter was very nicely entertained by the South Side Choir at the November 27 meeting. Star of the East's Christmas party was held on December 11, when the Starliers (our Chapter's choir) entertained the members with a fine array of Christmas music.

The first meeting of the New Year will be January 8, which will be Mason's night. Guy Bair, our Worthy Patron, is in charge of entertainment for that evening, and the men will serve the refreshments.

The Allah Signet Club will entertain our Chapter at the January 22 meeting.

Let's all make a New Year's resolution to attend chapter as often as possible during the coming year.

OUR PRAYER

As the old year ends and the new begins; forgive us for the failures of the vanished days, and bless us in whatever we have truly striven for in the days that do not die. Keep us from vain regrets, and let us face forward in the light of the best that we have learned. Purge our hearts both of shallow self-confidence and of cowardly fears, so that we may know that without Thee, we can do nothing, but that, in Thee, all things are possible through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

This is the prayer your Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron have uppermost in their minds to the members of Trinity Chapter as they start this New Year.

Once again we want to say, welcome at the start of this new year, and mention that on January 4 will be our stated meeting. Then on January 18, will be one of the highlights of the year. At this meeting, the chapter will entertain the Past Matrons and Past Patrons. A banquet will be served on the mezzanine at 6:30. Following the dinner, the regular meeting will be held in the Colonial Room.

The Past Matrons and Past Patrons will fill the stations during the ceremony of initiation. Those who will take an active part in the work are as follows: W.M., Marjorie Simmers; W.P., Lavern Amstutz; A.M., Dorothy White; A.P., Albert White; Secy.; Mark Sherwin; Treas., Neil Glock; Cond., Jeanice Kemp; Assoc. Cond., Lillian Poiry; Chaplain, Wanda Rippe; Marshal, Edith Sherwin; Organist, Jerry Boltz; Adah, Willodean Todd; Ruth, Carman Utterback; Esther, Gertrude Dickey; Martha, Florence Amstutz; Electa, Doris Thiebolt; Warder, Eugenia Wood; Sentinel, Edson Dickey; Prompter, Tom Kemp.

The Decorating committee should be complimented for their unique and colorful decorations, both on the banquet tables and in the chapter room. Also, the Social committee for the delicious dinners and after-chapter refreshments that have been served to us this year.

On February 1, the chapter has its election of officers. This is another important date to remember, so won't you please plan to attend this meeting and cast your ballot for the officers of your choice for the coming year.

Another date to remember is January 25, when a party will be given by the appointive officers in honor of our Worthy Matron, Louise Wilkerson, and our Worthy Patron, Don Niles. The members of all their committees of the past year unite with the officers to pay tribute to the W.M. and W.P. This makes another high-light of the year, so plan to attend this meeting to be held on the mezzanine floor at 7:30 p.m. January Calendar:

Sewing & Decorating: Jan. 2, 7:30 p.m. — will meet with Winifred Shoemaker, 822½ Nuttman. Blanch Watson assisting.

To those who are ill, we wish a speedy recovery; and to those in sorrow, we extend our deepest sympathy. To the new grandparents, our very hearty congratulations.

MASONS NEED MORAL COURAGE

By P. C. Somerville

Moral courage is the element most needed in the world today, and we need it among Masons. It is the great lesson inculcated in the life of the Master Builder. The duties and obligations of Masonry are plain, but the reason that they are not exemplified before the world is that men lack courage. We hear a great deal said about this being a great Masonic age. It is if we mean ritualistic perfection; splitting Masonic legal hairs, and decorating ourselves with costly insignia. Too many of us practice Masonry with our mouths and exemplify it only in our minds. But if we mean that Masonry which manifests itself in conduct and makes the best use of opportunity, then let it be said that it is sadly needed at the present time. It is Masonry born of moral courage that the world needs today. Peter was valiant in the garden of Gethsemane, yet Peter was cowed by a single question at the High Priest's Palace. There are lots of Masons just like Peter. They come into our Lodges, assume our obligations, and then fail in their practice of them before the world because they lack the moral courage to stand foursquare for man, for the nation, for God.

December and Christmas have passed away

Time for the New Year to have its say;

May our prophecies happily all come true

Filling our hearts with friendship anew.

We've travelled all about the State together,

In the warmth of summer and the winter weather,

Visiting the other Courts, watching them grow

And bringing back knowledge for all to know,

Let's begin this year at the very start,

To attend our meetings and take a full part;

Obtaining new members and teaching them how

To uphold our standard by service and vows.

May success crown our efforts all thru the year,

Filling our hearts with gladness and good cheer;

May we never go backward but rather ahead,

Not believing in failures but successes instead.

The monthly meeting of the Officers will be held Monday evening Jan. 21st at the home of H. L. Lucy Shedron 4809 Calumet. We have been having good times at these meetings and this one should be no exception.

The Ways and Means did fairly well with the rummage sale and The Shraks demonstration proved a great success. Many thanks to all who responded for help. This Committee is planning to have a card party in the Fort Wayne Bank Bldg., 1825 McKinzie Ave. Jan. 31st at 7:30 p.m. Donations will be accepted and prizes will be both attendance and table. And if you're having a nice time you might be served a snack. Will see you there.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to each and every person who attended my installation on Dec. 22. I realize how difficult it was to come since it was so close to Christmas which makes me appreciate even more.

The newly installed officers are as follows: Carol

Botteron, Honored Queen; Sharon Erler, Senior Princess; Pat Jett, Junior Princess; Laura Foulks, Guide; Carole Weesner, Marshall; Susan Exner, Chaplain; Sally Troyer, Treasurer; Rita McCoy, Recorder; Linda Gordon, Musician; Sandy Burelison, Librarian; Karen Kelly, First Messenger; Susan Keith, Second Messenger; Candy Clevenger, Third Messenger; Patty Kelly, Fourth Messenger; Susan Mowery, Fifth Messenger; Aletha White, Senior Custodian; Marsha Kemp, Junior Custodian; Nancy McCague, Inner Guard; and Diana Timmons, Outer Guard.

The newly installed protem officers, which is an idea we gained from Grand Council, are as follows: Melinda Biebersen, Treasurer; Sandy Urhausen, Recorder; Jane Morris, Librarian; Pat Hite, First Messenger; Janet Steward, Second Messenger; Margie Ungerer, Third Messenger; Cathy Carman, Fourth Messenger; Diana Warner, Fifth Messenger; Nancy Page, Sr. Custodian; Kay Mendenhall, Jr. Custodian; Liz Koepke, Inner Guard; and Jane Bleeke, Outer Guard.

We also installed the following choir members: Patti Parker, soloist; Linda Batchelder; Ginger Brown; Cheryl Buckhardt; Bonnie Bunch; Karen Burelison; Marsha Erman; Barbara Flickinger; Sandy Franzman; Cindy George; Judy Hutchinson; Vicki Jones; Sharon Lentz; Pam Marshall; Barbara Middleton; Diana Norris; Vicki Perrin; Linda Roop; Donna Smith; Judy Smith; Sherrie Strauser; Bev Warner; and Patti Werling.

I would also like to thank the Past Honored Queens who acted as my installing officers. They were: Judy English, Installing Officer; Nancy Tennant, Installing Guide; Patti Marshall, Installing Marshall; Roxanne Weesner, Installing Chaplain; Jean Day, Installing Recorder; Diane Simmers, Installing Senior Custodian; Ellen Stanbery, Installing Junior Custodian; and Mrs. Helen Parker, Installing Musician. Thanks to all of those who worked to make the installation one of the most wonderful events of my life.

Our first meeting, January 2, consisted of an officers' protem officers', choir, and parents' potluck; and officers and choir practice; and the regular meeting.

Thanks to all the girls who gave so willingly of their time to make our Job's Daughter -- DeMolay White Christmas Formal a success. The theme "Silver Enchantment" added a lot to the dance.

Girls, don't forget to remind your mothers about Mother's Club, the second Monday night of each month. Call Mrs. Ralph Weesner, H-76881, president, for time and place.

Our next meeting will be January 16, it will be a regular meeting at 7:30 p.m., and February 6, will be an initiation.

Hope to see many girls and parents on the sidelines at the meeting this term. Happy New Year to you all.

"To the Worthy President, Officers and chairman of 1962 we would like to say -- Thank you for the hours of hard work which was represented during the past year and may 1963 bring each of you Health, Happiness and Prosperity. To each member I wish to say Thank you for everything. The following verse expresses my New Year's wish to you --

In Trust Our Strength Standing with folded wings of mystery,

The New Year waits to greet us-you and me.

Her arms are full of gifts, her feet are shod

All fitly for rough roads or velvety sod;

Her eyes are steady with belief in God.

Her voice falls sweetly as a vesper bell

Where trust and hope all lesser notes dispel;

Scarce knowing why, we feel that all is well.

She smiles a little ere she turns away,

Breathing a promise for each coming day;

And we pause a little while to pray

Last month we held our election of officer's meeting. The newly elected officers are: Paul Boergert, Master Councilor; Matt Cornacchio, Senior Councilor; and Tom Errington, Junior Councilor. I should like to congratulate these new officers and wish them the best of luck.

The election of officers means my term is about up and the installation of officers means it is over and I become a Past Master Councilor.

The installation will be Jan. 5. We hope to have a good turn out to encourage the new officers.

I want to thank my corps of officers for the much needed help, they gave to me. On the whole I had a very good group of officers. They aided the chapter in their attendance, ritualism, and conduct. Thank you again.

I also would have been lost without the help of my advisors. Mr. Tucker, the ritualistic advisor, has helped me since my first meeting four years ago. "Tuck" has been a great help in coaching me towards becoming a better speaker. I owe him a great deal but all I can say is THANKS. I should also like to thank our chapter Dad, Dad Herrick. He is a very busy man but still finds time for DeMolay. I appreciated his help. Without men like Tuck or Dad, DeMolay would not be possible.

Last month, December 1, I went with Dad Herrick to South Bend for a banquet. The purpose of this banquet was to honor DeMolay. Master Councilors and chapter Dads were there from all over the state. It was a wonderful night and the speaker was great. He was the Mayor of Kansas City, Mo., and I believe everyone enjoyed his ability to speak. The man next to me was moved to tears by the serious part of his talk. And we were all moved to laughter tears by the amusing parts of his speech. He was truly capable of honoring DeMolay. I also realized that DeMolay would not exist without the backing from the Scottish Rite bodies.

I owe a great deal to the Mother's Circle, too. They did one thing that is especially important to a DeMolay -- refreshments. They also helped us by taking care of our robes, ties, altar clothes, and many other things. I offer a special thanks to each of you.

Our Christmas formal last month and I want to thank the decoration committee and Scottish Rite and the other people who helped to make it a success.

This is my last article I will soon be a P.M.C. whenever possible I will to aid DeMolay.

SUCCESSFUL RETIREMENT

Peace Corps has just announced that it will release some 6,000 overseas volunteers during the next few months, and that up to half of that number could be selected from men and men now planning to retire during that period. Those selected should have special abilities in one of the following occupational groups:

1. Teachers -- on elementary, secondary and university levels.

2. Health Workers -- doctors, dentists, nurses, laboratory technicians, etc.

3. Skilled Technicians -- auto & diesel mechanics, painters & builders, electricians, farmers, radio & mechanics, road & bridge builders, etc.

4. Other Professionals -- engineers -- all kinds; construction & loan organizations, lawyers, geologists, forestry planners, social workers, etc.

These posts are rated being almost ideal places. Successful Retirement, that they permit retiree to vs from a field where retiree's skill may be utilized, they offer foreign travel, acquaintance with new cultures, new friendships, new interests, and financial return that supplements the usual pension allowance. (In many posts knowledge of Spanish will be helpful but not necessary.)

U.S. citizens possessing skill or special ability in one of the above fields, and desiring to retire to one of the above posts for two years should request a copy of the brochure "Older Volunteer in the Peace Corps" and Questionnaire form, from Peace Corps, Senior Manager Recruitment, Washington, D.C.

Since two months are usually required to process application, an early letter to Peace Corps indicating interest, your skill field, the country to which you would prefer assignment, desirable.

LIFE WORTH LIVING

There is a life that is worth living now as it is. It is worth living in the form of these days, and that is the home life, the useful life, the unselfish life, cleansed by devotion to an ideal.

There is a battle worth fighting now as it was worth fighting then, and that is the battle for justice and equality; to make our cities safer; our states free in fact as well as in name; to break the rings that strangle liberty, and to keep them broken to cleanse, so far as in our power lies, the fountains of our national life from political, commercial, and social corruption; to teach our sons and daughters, by precept and example, the honor of serving such a country as America. That is worth living, the finest manhood and womanhood.

PAST MASTERS MEET TO ELECT OFFICERS

The Past Masters Association of Northeastern Indiana had its annual meeting at 4 p.m. Dec. 28 in the Masonic Temple Registration of members began at 3 p.m.

Summit City Lodge 170 was the host lodge and Worshipful Master H. Murray Petty presided at the dinner which was served at 6:15 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting was to initiate and instruct newly elected worshipful masters of the Masonic lodges of the district. Also there was election of officers.

Present officers include Lester E. Smith of Harlan, president; Robert Marshall of Fort Wayne, senior vice president; Rolla O. Durbin of New Haven, junior vice president; W. Arthur Rodemeyer of Fort Wayne, Secretary; and Leon B. Williams of Fort Wayne, treasurer.

Members of the executive committee includes James C. Farrar, B. J. Sterling, C. McIntosh and William Karbach, all of Fort Wayne; Harry Wann of Harlan; and Glen Myers of Leo and E. Earhart of Ossian.

THE LESSER LIGHTS

The mediaeval Lodge was a frame structure erected close to a church in process of building. It had three main windows — in the east, the west and the south. There were none in the north because the Lodge was always built on the southern side of the church, and close to it for the advantage of light and warmth of a southern aspect. These windows were termed the "three great lights." In an early ritual these windows were termed "fixed lights," supposed to be in every room where Lodge is held, their uses being to light the men to, at, and from their work.

At the three windows were seated the Master and Wardens; the Fellowcrafts and their appropriate stations and the Apprentices were placed in the north, as they required less light than the more skillful and advanced Fellowcrafts. This same early ritual places the junior Entered Apprentice in the North, his business being to keep all cowans and eavesdroppers, because the narrow space between the Lodge and the church would form a convenient hiding place.

Work was performed during daylight. When brethren met for social or business at night candle light became necessary. The officers retained their usual positions and before each was placed a candle. These candles are now termed "Three Lights."

When Lodges came to be held in taverns the three windows disappeared, but the candles were retained.

As the year, 1963, begins we find ourselves on the threshold of a year that will be filled with many exciting events.

Fortunately our lodge is located in a very rapidly growing community. This affords us an excellent opportunity to grow and to make masonry a part of the moral fiber of the community. I am sure that all the brothers are proud to share in the enthusiasm of Free Masonry when they occasionally review their masonic lectures and contemplate the principles set forth. Many of the brothers find that the best way to get the most out of masonry is to practice it both in and out of the lodge. Also, many of the brothers find that it is a lot of fun to participate in the craftwork on the master masons degree. All who are interested need only to attend the meetings to find that their help is both needed and welcome.

During the latter part of January the officers will have a meeting to plan and publish a calendar of events for the coming year. We will, also, have a monthly notice in the local newspaper to keep the brothers informed of the current activities. We hope that the more informed the brothers are, the more active they will be.

In closing, I would like to extend the thoughts, the feeling and the concern of all the members of our lodge, along with a note of "get well soon" to brothers Ray Girardot, LaMar Girardot, and Lloyd Beard.

Brethren, as I write this article installation of officers is in the future, but let me take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of you on behalf of the officers and myself for allowing us the privilege of serving you, the lodge, and Freemasonry. In our own small way, by the grace of God and the help of the brethren, we will again have a prosperous year ahead as in the past — rich in fellowship by the teaching to the Three Great Lights of Masonry.

I am looking forward with enthusiasm and pride to be able to sit in the East with the dignity and respect due the office to which I have been elected as your Worshipful Master for 1963. The task that lies ahead in the ensuing year will not be an easy one knowing I will follow a Worshipful Master who has done such a commendable job as our past Master, Maynard Campbell.

I would also like to take this opportunity to introduce a most wonderful corps of officers which I will have the privilege of working with this year: Senior Warden, Russell Ramer; Junior Warden, Eugene Martin; Treasurer, Floyd Gause; Secretary, John Lare; Senior Deacon, Melvin Kuhn; Junior Deacon, Rodney Lansaw; Chaplain, Gerald Runyan; Senior Steward, Earl Riley; Junior Steward, Roy Peters; Tyler, Charles Farmer; Trustee, Maynard Campbell. I would also like to express my thanks to Brothers Floyd Gause and John Lare, who in the past years have done a very commendable job. Thank you.

Brethren, let each and everyone of us make a New Year's resolution to support our lodge and officers with our presence at each and every meeting since the lodge and Freemasonry is only as strong as the support you give it. I am looking forward to seeing you at our next stated meeting.

I would like to wish each brother and his family a happy and prosperous New Year.

The year seems to have come quickly to a close, and by the time you read this, my year as Master of Harlan Lodge #296 will have ended.

It has been a seemingly short year and I would like to thank all my officers for their complete cooperation. I would like to also thank the loyal members who come, for without them we would have no lodge.

This has been a good year in many ways, but also a sorrowful year, in that we lost four good brothers, two of these being 50 year members and one being the Treasurer of our lodge for several years. We also regret not having any new members come into lodge this year.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all the new Masters and their officers a very happy and successful year, and hope they will have God as their guiding light for the good of the lodge.

Happy New Year!

DO YOU KNOW?

Insurance figures show that the average span of life is only 60 years. If you are 30, you have 30 years left. ... You'll sleep half of that time.

That leaves only 15 years ... You'll work a third of each day.

That leaves only 10 years ... You'll be sick about a month a year.

That leaves only 8 years ... Barring accidents, you haven't so long to live — really. Just Sunday and evenings — So, to best these fleeting moments your lodge regularly.

New Kind of Love

THERE are three ways of knowing what a thing is. First is by looking the word up in the dictionary, or to have some one tell us about it. Second comes the knowing which comes by looking at the thing itself.

Best way of all is to have it, so to speak, as part of yourself. For instance, take "strength." Any dictionary will tell you what strength is, in carefully chosen words. You could then tell someone else what strength means, only your telling would be just a matter of remembering the right words. A better way would be harder to forget. Suppose you nearly drowned at a bathing beach, and a lifeguard rescued you. Then you would know what strength is, and you would always remember it, even if you forgot what the dictionary said. The best way of all is to grow strong yourself. Then even if you lost your memory entirely, you would know what strength is.

"Is your heart true to my heart?"

All this is specially true of the much-talked-about thing called, in our language, Love. The Bible has much to say about it. But let no reader of the Bible think that because he has read about it, even on these inspired pages, he now knows love. Every writer of the Bible would agree that to know love truly, we have to be loved, and to love. Nevertheless, the words the Bible writers use are not unimportant. They give us a clue to how we may recognize love, genuine love, from imitations. The Apostle John gives us a rather horrible example of what hate is, and expects us to understand that love is its opposite. Love is NOT like what Cain the murderer felt for his brother Abel. Why did he murder him? John asks. Because his own deed was evil and his brother's righteous in other words, because he was bad and his brother good. But comes from lack of unity, comes from unity of spirit.

Saint John is fond of explaining a thing by naming its opposite. Love, we have seen, is the opposite of hate. It is also the opposite of death. Most people would off-hand that the opposite of life is death. John would warn them without love is death. Not that means remaining in death — yet, love may lead to death — ally, and it must lead to death (marked counterfeits) to death of life. How would you like to shut up for hours on end after day, with subnormal children who can hardly even cannot hold a pencil, cannot move like normal children. Most of us would think that a perfectly horrible existence; but it is a little lady some seventy years of age, who does just that because she loves children. That, and if you think, well, in an old lady, she can do that, a young woman, no, — if you think that, you evidently have not a young woman in this world. Members, one of the young women be ever met, finds her happiness in helping these helpless children. There more than one way to lay one's life.

Not in talk but in truth

Saint John is called the Apostle of Love, but he has no exclusive right to that honorable title. One can read what Paul says in 1 Corinthians 13 for example. Peter in 1 Peter 3:8, 9, or Lord Himself in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5), to mention only a few of the places warding careful study) who seeing that all agree on this, is real when it becomes an act, something more than word. In fact, John contrasts "in word or speech" with love and truth. "As we were talking about strength, so with love. We know it a little from reading or hearing about it. We know better when some one loves us. We know it best of all, not when we become eloquent about it when what we do every day, we way habitually move and act, the way we live, we love so plainly no one can miss it. And now if someone comes to this is too high for us. We freely confess: This kind of love is so rare as to be a new surprise every time we find it. But we do; for it is the sign of the times.

REST AND REFLECT

As you travel the road of life, keep going always doing your best, but take the advice of one who knows: Look back once in a while and pause for rest and reflection. Gather your thoughts together and as you plan your steps ahead also remember to examine the goal you've set for yourself. Had I but rested along the way and reviewed the reasons for my hasty, headlong pursuit of wealth, fame and mere appearances, I might have been spared the lonely emptiness that is now my constant companion and my reward. But the road has been long, the hour is late, and it is too far to retrace my steps and take a different path, so I leave to youth this moral legacy:

You will reach your goal with time to spare and to enjoy if you but rest and reflect along the way. — James R. Mitchell, 33.

DO YOU VISIT
A SICK MEMBER

Do you ever realize what a kindly act it is to visit a sick brother? All day long he lies helpless upon his bed, brooding over his condition.

He seems cut off from all activities of life, he is apart from the world. His universe is bounded by the walls of his sick room. The very things that keep him interested in life are kept from him.

The day is a thousand hours long, a thousand grey, slow dragging hours, filled with sombre thoughts and perhaps pain. Footsteps and voices pass and tarry not.
The voices sound distant, they speak of things he no longer knows. It seems to him that they are the voices of those he once called friends, but they do not stop for a friendly word with him.
He is forgotten. The hours seem ever so long and gloomier. "How sad it is," he thinks, "that as soon as I get out of sight my friends have forgotten my existence.
Why should I live in a selfish world where no man thinks of another? In these lonely hours I learn the hollow emptiness of man's professions of friendship."

And then, just as his thoughts have the lowest level of grayness, the door opens, a ray of light flashes upon him, a burst of sweetest music strikes his ears, your smile envelops him, an old friend remembered.

MASONS OF FORT WAYNE - LOOK TO THE FUTURE - FOR OUR YOUTH SAVE, USE THE OLD SCOTTISH RITE CATHEDRAL BUILDING

Masons are builders. Let us build for the future — of our nation and of our Fraternity. "A boy is the only thing God can use to make a man. Let Us help him all we can." Never before in the history of our nation have we had greater need for developing every conceivable mental, moral and leadership trait within our youth. The Order of DeMolay offers to youth those principles through a development program in depth which leads to "self discovery" for good boys to become better men, masons and leaders.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev, speaking in East Berlin on January 14, 1963 said "The free world, the American Capitalistic system is nearly dead. It is disrupted and de-cayed. It cannot last much longer. All we need do now is to wait and soon the United States will be ours."

Shake ourselves awake.
Fight for our Freedom through our Fraternity. The greatest opportunity of our Masonic Life in Fort Wayne now lies within our grasp.
The Scottish Rite is willing to let us have the old building at a most reasonable figure, if we act Now and for such a purpose. "A De-Molay Youth Center." Its attached to our present Temple.
Its already there. Lets not lose this chance to "Build For The Future." Build for the "Blue Lodge." There is no better way than thru De-Molay.

Yes, other organizations meeting in our temple also have need and could make good use of the expanded facilities. Fort Wayne can be justly proud of all present Masonic facilities. Adequate temple facilities for the lodges, we have, if they were alone, but we need the other bodies and this complicates planning for many meetings and social events. A beautiful and adequate Scottish Rite we will soon experience and a very fine Shrine Temple.
Yes we have all these and they are the envy of much of our state and country in this respect. But, what good are all these fine facilities, if in the future we don't have the membership to use them. So looking to the future lets take advantage of the opportunity to obtain a beautiful building and have a complete picture from teen-age to death through Masonic Channels.

Vision and courage, money and hard work it takes. Masons with vision and courage have provided what we presently have, lets not sit down now, but keep building. "De-Molay Youth Center" in Fort Wayne, with our other facilities would make us the envy of the nation. How proud we could be, to be one of the first to make such plans and arrangements.

I leave it up to you, but consider it carefully. I have been looking for a Millionaire to offer DeMolay a million to purchase the building, and set up a trust fund, the revenue from which would take care of the maintenance and operations. I am still looking, but surely if I don't find such a possibility, the Masons of Fort Wayne won't let this opportunity slip by. Individuals, business men, companies, organizations and perhaps you know of a foundation grant, where we could do the same thing. Maybe not a million, but sufficient to set-up a trust fund for future operations. It doesn't all need to be done over night, but the building will soon be gone unless we act now. Do you know anyone who will help set up such a fund for such a good purpose. How about YOU.
Together we can do anything and I am sure we will have God's help. Lets not destroy our opportunity by letting the building go to outside interests. Our youth are more important than the money involved. Its really an investment in youth — perhaps — even the very life of the Masonic Fraternity.

Stated Meeting

First Wednesday

Herschel D. Bolyard W.M.

4801 Lillie St. H-9448

George F. Gable Recorder

442 W. Wildwood Ave. H-4727

We were saddened this month by the passing of two of our Maumee brothers. Perry Emrich died January 5 and Russell Mattix was killed in an accident January 10. To the families of both of the departed we offer our most sincere sympathy and pray to the Grand Architect to strengthen them during this time of sorrow.

We would like to welcome into our membership Brother Robert Jeffries and Brother David Peebles who were our candidates in January, they will be an asset to our lodge.

I would like to thank the Past Masters for an outstanding job at our installation, Brother Bud Jornod and Brother Richard English and Shirley Scholer.

Brother William Lower is still in the Lutheran Hospital and if some of the brethren will stop to see him, he is always looking for someone to talk Lodge. Brother John Clevenger is recuperating at home and can have visitors.

We won't have any work in February but we are expecting a large class in March and will need all the help we can get from the brethren.

It would appear that many of our brethren have misrepresented "Freemason" to mean free from attending lodge, free from helping the master, free from fulfilling the obligations voluntarily assumed, free from taking part in the work and free from giving any effort of time toward the welfare of the lodge.

Masonry my brethren is not free, its rights, lights and benefits can only be purchased with your time and effort. Let us make it a point this year, not to wait until we have a free evening before we attend lodge, but sacrifice just a few of our other pleasures to support our great Fraternity in which we claim to have so much pride.

Remember, anyone can

Lodge activities in January have given this year an excellent beginning and the next two months hold promise of increased activity and fellowship.

Summit City Lodge was honored with an invitation to present the MM Degree at Amity Lodge in Huntington, raising Brother Larry Ulrich, Past State Master Councilor of DeMolay. Although given short notice of the visitation; the Fellowship Club, under the direction of PM Wolverton, brought credit to the Lodge with a fine performance.

On Saturday, March 2nd, you will have an opportunity to see this Fellowship Club perform at an unusual hour. A special MM Degree will be held at 9:00 AM followed by the annual Bean Feast at 12:00 Noon. Coffee and Donuts will be served at 8:00 A.M. Tickets (50c) are available from the Fellowship Club.

Since the Blue Lodge Guest Nite is held on Friday, Feb. 8th, all degree work will be moved ahead one week as noted below:

Feb. 15th — EA
Feb. 22nd — FC open at 7:00.

Mar. 2nd — MM 9:00 A.M.
Bean Feast 12:00 Noon.

Congratulations to Robert Porter and Rev. Stanford Kruse for their recognition in governmental and civic affairs.

Our wishes go out to John D. Carson for complete recovery from his injuries. Sincerest thoughts are extended to the family of Brother Fred C. Stone, a fifty-year member and the father of our Junior Warden. His was a long and fruitful Masonic life.

We rush today so we can race tomorrow and many responsibilities we once assumed we now delegate to others. Community charity is now conducted by organizations, associations, and committees; but Masonic Charity cannot be so handled. A Brother's need may be as great as a smile or as long as a mile. It will last only for the present or it may persist. Regardless of its extent, a Mason is obliged to practice his Masonic Charity — personally.

... if there is any good thing I can do to my fellow beings, let me do it now. I shall pass this way but once." — Gannet

ENTERTAINMENT: Senior Warden Forrest Fennell, chairman, Wayne Coker, Glenn Goshorn, Ronald Coil, Orval Haver, Cles Platt, and Kenneth Rayl.

I would like to welcome into Wayne Lodge our two new brothers of the month of December, Brothers James L. Godschalk and William C.

Kerley. Walter Kerley, brother of William, took Senior Deacons station on three degrees and did a job that his son can be proud of. Brother William Kerley, grandfather, William C. Kerley from Roswell Lee Lodge, Springfield, Massachusetts, was present at all three degrees. We had four Father's bringing their sons' petitions to Wayne Lodge last year to be raised to the Sublime degree of a Master Mason.

We had one candidate the month of January and have one to vote on in February. Our officers are doing a fine job with their degree work and lectures. Our fellowship team is shaping up well, but we always have room for any of our brothers that would like to join us. Master Mason night. We are planning on traveling each this spring and also next fall. We always have a lot of fun and good fellowship on the trips and lots of good experiences. So if you would like to join us on our travels, just let us know of your wishes. We are badly in need of a brother to take over as President of our fellow craft team. The ground work has all been done, and I will give the lecture that excepts, all the brethren. I can. This would be a great way to serve your lodge and improve yourself in Masonry. If anyone is interested, please contact me at the earliest date. We are planning on installing every Master Mason in the kitchen. We have good cook now and our fellowcraft will serve and clean afterwards. If you are interested in this part of the team, let our Junior Warden, Dale know.

News from the sick brethren is that Ray Bailey home from the hospital is recovering nicely, but he has to take it easy. Past Master Walter Shady and brother Raymond Crim are off the sick list and back to work. Past Master J. Karbach was laid up with bad back for a week or two but is back to work again.

Our next visitation to Veterans Hospital will be Monday night, Feb. 4, 1967 at 7:30 p.m. Brother Kenneth Rayl, your chairman, would like to see another good turnout for this worthy cause.

I would like to extend sympathy and all the brethren of Wayne Lodge to the family and friends of our brothers Henry Stein and Commander H. Hamilton who passed on to their eternal rest place in the month of December. Brother Hamilton was 25 year member and lived in Joppla Lodge 530 F & A.M. that city. Brother Stein

THREE RIVERS LODGE No. 733 F. & A. M.
Stated Meeting Second Tuesday

Thomas M. Franklin — W.M.
2006 E. State Blvd. — T-34010
Lewis K. Heston — Secretary
1712 S. Anthony — K-2418

Brothers: The month of February finds us well into the work of your lodge for the year 1963. Although the months of February and March were known to the Indians as lean and hungry months, your lodge is neither lean nor hungry. I am happy to say. We have had petitions presented for degree work and the lodge will be blessed with worthy candidates for affiliation so plan to attend your lodge and enjoy the participation in degree work which is one of the rewards of our Masonic affiliation.

Allow me to remind you of our Masonic Education Committee, headed by its very efficient chairman Past Master Albert R. Dennis, which will present its usual very interesting and informative programs at our stated meetings. You have not been at these programs, you have missed one of the high points of your Masonic life.

Brothers, it is with deep regret that I must report the following event. On January one of our worthy brothers Harry C. Jacobson, passed to the Supreme Lodge above. Brother Jacobson was a charter member of Three Rivers Lodge and our deepest sympathy is extended to the family of our Brother. We are pleased, at this time, to welcome into the lodge our newest member Brother Richard Uhrick who was raised to the Sublime degree on December 4. Brother Dick is the son of Brother Lindley M. Uhrick who has been a Three Rivers member since 1950. We would also like to welcome Brother Ben T. Brothers who has become affiliated with us by transfer from French Lick Lodge and Brother Norman Huffine who was transferred from Evansville Lodge to Three Rivers Lodge.

Brothers, mark the date of March 16 on your calendar and plan to attend as this is our annual Square Dance and Smorgasbord when we act as host to the Corinthian Club. We will have a delightful evening which I am sure will be enjoyed by one and all.

Another important duty of your lodge is to participate in the Veterans Hospital Visitation program so mark the dates on your calendar and plan to be with us for an evening of Masonic Fellowship. All of the dates are on Monday evenings, March 11, April 29, and June 17. See you at the Vets Hospital and meet with you in lodge.

Now that all your officers are installed, we can take a backward look with appreciation to Past Masters Clayton Herrick, Chas. Fuchshuber and Harold Whonsetler for a fine job well done; and a forward look with great anticipation. By the time this article has been read, we should have added two more members to Sol D. Bayless in January. One by transfer, Brother Herschel Smith from Goshen, and another Brother Robert Reckemeyer by initiation.

During this month of February, we are hoping to have degree work for at least two more future Master Masons. My Brothers, the scythe of time is still cutting heavily into our membership. We lost 31 by death in 1962 and in the first 8 days of January, we lost 3 more members. One of them, Brother Clarence Stroup, a very faithful member, will certainly be missed. Brother Clarence helped us in so many ways, we could not begin to count them. Our heart felt sympathy goes out to the families of our departed brothers.

Here is a list of the committees for 1963.

Charity or Relief — Max Poorman, Jim Timmons and Harold Houser.

Masonic Home Committee — Del Proctor (Chairman), Mel Ehrman, Eril Steward, Howard Anderson and Max Poorman.

Auditing Committee — Clarence Kreischer (Chairman), Sol London, Karl E. Reid Jr., and Melvin D. Warner.

Entertainment Committee — Harold Houser (Chairman), Rex Lamm, Irvin Whiteman, Charles Canfield, Robert Squires, Don Anderson, Glenn R. Bickel and Harold Whonsetler.

Publicity Committee — James Timmons (Chairman), Harold Houser, and Irvin Whiteman.

Proficiency Committee — All officers, Howard Anderson and Charles Fuchshuber.

Funeral Assistance Committee — William Butz, Eril Steward, Clayton Herrick and Kenneth McGraw.

Fellow Craft Committee — Robert Squires, Dale Doehrmann, Wm. Butz, Robert Holmberg and Charles Fuchshuber.

Cheer Committee — Master and Wardens, Eril Steward, Wm. Butz, Kenneth McGraw, Melvin Westbrook, Kenneth G. Marti, Clarence Kreischer and Charles Fuchshuber.

Vets Hospital Visitation and Calling Committee — Ed VanHorn & Harold Whonsetler (Co-Chairmen), Don Munro, Bob Warner Irvin Whiteman, Mel Warner, Robert Holmberg, Fred Knapp, Lloyd Whelan, Phil Holman, Harold Berkeisher, John Pawlish, Fred Benton, Redmon Munro, Morris O. Erickson, Mel V. Horn, Robert Squires, Gerald Dial, Claude Reynolds and any other member that would like to help on this committee.

Saturday, Jan. 12 your Master, Warden and Secretary, attended the 145th anniversary of the founding of Grand Lodge at the Murat Temple in Indianapolis. The meeting was very educational and helpful. The Grand Lodge explained the Rules and Regulations and many of the duties required of your officers. I know, I speak for the Secretary, Wardens and myself in thanking Sol D. Bayless for the privilege of representing them in Grand Lodge.

Be sure and put these dates down on your calendar of events, for Sol D. Bayless this coming year.

and Square Dance.

May 4 — Ladies Night!
Oct. 12 — Fish Fry!
Nov. 25 — Past Masters Night!

Brothers, don't forget your voluntary contribution to our Masonic Home when you pay your dues. This is very worth while and the home needs every dollar it can gather to maintain the excellent job it is doing, in caring for its members. Be sure and let your officers know of any illness or death in the Lodge, so they may be of some help to its members. A few words in closing for us all to think about.

Is someone mighty grateful for a deed you did today? Or, were you selfish pure and simple, as you rushed along your way? Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast, that you helped a single brother of the many that you passed? Did you waste the day or use it; Was it well or poorly spent, Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent? As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

Stated Meetings Second Monday

Guy I. Mausteller — W.M.

Franklin I. Bryan — Secretary
3652 Plymouth — T-0851

Having completed our first stated meeting of the new year, I first wish to express my appreciation on the fine attendance. We are making every effort to steadily increase our attendance at stated meetings as well as at our degree work. After our January 14 meeting we enjoyed a few minutes of fellowship in the kitchen, with refreshments of cookies and coffee, served by Brothers Brase and Patton. These few minutes after meetings are very helpful, as it gives us an opportunity to relax and become better acquainted with our South Gate Brothers and also our visiting Brothers.

We are always happy to see our Past Masters and were honored by the presence of Past Masters Robert Marshall and Douglas Baugh at our January 14 meeting.

We have received several invitations for our Fellow Craft Club to visit area Lodges. We are making progress in reorganizing this group, but we still need your help. Anyone wishing to participate in our work, please call Brother Gardenour at E-79352. Don't be backward Brothers, pick up the phone and surprise old Bob by telling him you want to help.

Your Lodge will be at labor each Monday evening for the next few months, so lets plan to attend.

If you haven't already circled March 9 on your calendar, do so immediately. This is the night of our big square dance. Dinner will be served promptly at 6:30, followed by a square dance, with Bob Taylor as caller.

I would like to take a minute now to talk to the ladies. On February 11, which is our regular stated meeting night, we have a program which will be of interest to you as well as your husband. We are asking you ladies to bring your husbands to Lodge. While we are conducting our regular business meeting, we are asking the Ladies to occupy the social room and become acquainted with each other. After the meeting you will be conducted to another part of the building where you will hear several talks on Masonry which will be of great interest to all who are present. These short talks will be given by two Brothers who are well versed in all the phases of Masonry which you ladies should know or should I say, the things your husband should be able to tell you. We feel that this is one way we can bring a closer relationship between the husband, wife and your Lodge, of which he is a member and a vital part of. We would like to take this opportunity to invite Master Masons and wives from our neighboring Lodges to visit with us. I am sure you will not regret it. We plan to keep the talks short but to the point. If you have any questions, I am sure these Brothers can answer them to your satisfaction. We look forward to meeting all of you Feb. 11.

Sometimes in our daily schedules, we have been asked by non-Masons such questions as; "What is Freemasonry?" What do we tell this person or what dare we tell him? There are many definitions, but a short definition could be something like this: Freemasonry is a fraternal organization, religious in Character, based on the principle of the Fatherhood of God and which does a charitable work in the community and among its members, and through its teachings and ceremonials seeks to make good men better and thereby make the world a better place to live in. Masonry is not a religion. You can explain that Masons do not look upon their Lodge as a religion or a church. Masons are affiliated with the Church of their choice and worship God on Sundays when each Mason attends his own church. Freemasonry is one of the great organizations of the world and a steadying influence in a faltering world. Non-Masons usually seek membership because of the high opinion he has of the Craft as a result of the upright conduct of Masons he knows and meets. Very little effort need be exercised for all of us to become better men and Masons. To our sick Brethren we wish a speedy recovery and ask that you notify the Lodge of any illness among our members. Support your lodge by regular attendance.

Brethren:

This being my first communication to you since becoming your master, I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks for the honor of serving as your Worshipful Master.

Also at this time, I will introduce the rest of the officers for the coming year. Walter Hertzog, Senior Warden; Bennett Noel as Junior Warden; Ray Hupp, Treasurer; Dorl C. Feasel, Secretary; Stuart Trainer, Senior Deacon; Richard Haines, Junior Deacon; Roger Jones, Senior Steward; Bill Winans, Junior Steward; John Conahan, Chaplain; and Leon Jones, Tyler.

During January, we again celebrated the raising of another brother to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason.

Also we will be busy with degree work during the month of February. With the E.A. Degree on February 13, F.C. Degree on February 20, and Master Mason Degree on February 27. Also on M.M. night, we will have our usual dinner at the Lodge at 6:30 p.m. Please plan to attend and enjoy a good meal and some very wonderful fellowship with a wonderful group of men, your Brother Masons.

I will also remind all you Brethren, that our stated meetings are the 1st Wednesday night of each month, at 8:00 p.m. I would like to see each and every one of you attend these meetings and take part in the business affairs of your Lodge.

Your officers are in the process of planning some very nice social affairs for you and your wives. Watch the S. & C. for information about these.

I would like to remind you if you can't attend Lodge every work night, reserve at least the 1st and 4th Wednesday nights of each month for Masonry. Because as I said before the 1st Wednesday is Stated Meeting, and the 4th is M.M. night. During the months that we don't have any candidates, we will have a dinner and social program at the Lodge. These social evenings have worked out very well in the past and all the Brothers in attendance have enjoyed them very much.

As of this writing, Brother Robert Hey was confined to Luther an Hospital and Brother Paul Huth was recuperating at home. If any of you Brethren know of anyone who is sick, please contact Brother John Conahan at S-2213, or your Worshipful Master at S-4309.

Brethren, I hope to see you all in Lodge.

Winter is definitely here, and I know how easy it is to be in close to the fire and watching television, after a hard day at the office, but may I urge you not to abandon your attendance.

Friday January 4th we had our Annual Officer Committee meeting. This we held at Hall's East End. All committees were represented. We have much to do this year and are planning an extensive educational program, under the direction of our junior warden, James Peters. I hope you can plan on spending an evening or two with us each month.

On February 25th Brothers Artemas Higgs and Charles R. Zeddis, will be celebrating their fiftieth anniversary as a Master Mason. Brother Higgs will receive his Fiftieth award of Gold Feb. 26th. Presentation will be made by our Past Grand Master, Orvis A. Dellinger. Brother Charles Zeddis, resides at Lade Worth, Florida, and he will receive his 10 year award as soon as arrangements are complete.

By the time you read this our Blue Lodge Guest Night may possibly be past, but I feel sure in advance that we have set a milestone in Masonry and many thanks to all the Brethren, who helped make this night a great success.

Just a reminder, your 1963 dues are due and after March 1st there is a two dollar delinquent fee.

Education is underway. During February, although we have no candidates, we will be busy, on Feb. 12th we will have an interesting program on Abraham Lincoln, preceded by an hour of Fellowship around the festive board. On Feb. 19th, another program will be based on our eminent Brother, George Washington. On Feb. 26th, we again will enjoy fellowship around the table. This time with our ladies. This will be followed by a 50 year presentation, winding up the evening with a film on Indiana, "This Land of Ours" and "Your Indiana Parks."

Brother Russell Aronson is recuperating at the Bluffton Clinic. Brothers convalescing at home are Donald Stone-man, Dave Maloley, Carlyle Roosevelt. You will be kept informed of all coming events, please keep us informed of all shut-ins and sick. Remember love is a great healer and we are all Brothers in Home.

Kindness

You will be kind, if you know love,
And have a loving heart.
For love and kindness are so close

They can't be told apart.
You will be kind if you know hope,
Because by hope we live,
And from our hope, both trust and faith

Are treasurers that we give You will be kind, if you know Him,
For, His example taught
The greatest kindness to Mankind
That peace and joy have brought.

Friendship is like a tree which grows and grows Whose roots are fed by Heavens gentle rain.

And every drop of friendly rain that goes

Into its roots renews its life again.

And no heart is too small to hold a place.

So friends this thought

The meeting place of friends is in the heart.

The month of February brings many activities in our chapter. Feb. 1 is election of officers. Feb. 15 we honor our Star Pals and members who affiliated with our chapter. Feb. 19 is the end of year party for Program, 6:30 party for the Choir, place to be announced later. Feb. 25, end of the year party for the Officers, 6:30 p.m. at the Colonial Restaurant, Elizabeth Smith, chairman. This will conclude their year of social relationship with their present corps of officers. On Mar. 1 an impressive Memorial Ceremony is being planned in memory of our deceased members.

A lovely party was given on Jan. 25 on the mezzanine by the present appointive officers honoring the Worthy Matron, Louise Wilkerson, and the Worthy Patron, Donald Niles. This party was attended by the officers and members of the various committees that functioned this year under their guidance.

The chairmen and co-chairmen of all various groups are to be commended on the work they did along with all the members of the chapter to make it a successful one and a fitting climax to another fine year for Trinity Chapter.

gram, a lunch of gingerbread with topping was served.

The Officers monthly meeting will be held with H.L.
Nellie Moore on Monday evening Feb. 4th at 8:00 p.m.

Illness in the Court has dwindled rapidly and no new ones added. H.L. Esther and S.K. Ben Brothers are still under the weather and a few of our members have colds.
The husband of H.L. Margaret Hall fell and injured his foot, but is better and able to go back to work. I hear that S.K. Alex Brettelle is not feeling up to par but hope all the sick will soon be able to be out again.

Remember Advance night on Feb. 27th, come out and root for your Officers for the next year. The Officers can't get along without your help and it makes a better meeting when there are sideliners to swell the meetings.

On March 11th, the Ways

Since the Holidays are over and we are beginning a New Year, the Royal Matron Frances Adams and Royal Patron Ned Biddle wishes for all a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Let us make three resolutions,

That are simple ones to write.

Let us try our best to mend

our way
And start the New Year right.

First let us speak but kindly words,
And send forth a thought of cheer
Be ever pleasant and never grumble;
Through out the coming year.

There is another we should make
And practice it all the while
Be ever cheerful and forget to frown,
And always wear a smile.
Whenever you meet the friends you know
Never greet them with a sneer,
But clasp their hands and wish them well Throughout the coming year.

The last one is the best of all,
For in principle it is great and grand Resolve to do some kindly deed
And to lend a helping hand.

Remember well your resolution
To speak comforting words
of cheer,
To do kind deeds in time of need
Through the coming year.
Officers will meet with H.L. and S.K. Robert McClure
Jan. 14th.

Past Matrons will meet with H.L. Mary Ellen Sible
Jan. 15th.

Jan. 16 is our regular meeting. We will honor the charter members with a Birthday Party. This being our 22nd birthday.

Jan. 17 program committee will meet.

Social and Decorating Committee will meet at the home of Lucile Shanabarger Jan.
28th.

Cheer Committee to meet Feb. 11th at the home of Catherine Schell.

Ways and Means to meet

FORT WAYNE
ASSEMBLY No. 139
SOCIAL ORDER OF THE BEAUCHEANT Stated Convocation
1st and 3rd
Tuesdays

Mrs. George Adams _____ W.P.
3225 S. Webster St. — H-48561

Mrs. Robert Brecount _____ Recorder
4206 Avondale — H-5675

Mrs. Walter Kerley _____ Pub. Ch.
801 Laddie Dr. — T-0146

Hi Folks — Here it is well into 1963 — our new corps of officers are officially installed and that was truly a special affair. We were honored to have it a joint installation with our Sir Knights. It had its hectic moments of early preparation but it was well organized and right on time and on schedule. Then while we changed into our party clothes, the men had to scramble to arrange for their installation and we were their guests.

The Installing Officers were: Mrs. Myron Millhorn, President; Mrs. Don Thrasher, Chaplain; Mrs. Harold
Martin, Marshall; Mrs. Grey
Wagner, Assistant Marshall;
Mrs. James Todd, Color Bearer; Mrs. Clara Vance, Standard Bearer; Mrs. Harold Utterback, Director of Music;
Mrs. Vance Knight, passed out the programs.

We were fortunate in having a Mrs. John Lester at the Installation. She is the National Appointed Supreme Registrar. Mrs. Adams also introduced the Presiding President, Mrs. Carl Shroyer and Mr. Shroyer.

After this double installation ceremony, we adjourned to the dining room for a bit of social time. The tea table was beautiful in its simplicity — adorned with a huge white candle with the Emblem of the Knight's Templar on it.
Mrs. John Kayser acted as hostess. The other tables had little frothy white trees on them with wee rose buds and red streamers added a touch of festive color.

Our Worthy President, Mrs.
George Adams wishes to thank all of her officers and all those who helped to make this such an outstanding installation, and to thank the soloist, Mrs. William Wood, who sang so beautifully, "I'll Never Walk Alone." She also promises us a very interesting year and hopes that all of you will make a special effort to come to all of the meetings.

Mrs. George Adams has chosen a very lovely prayer for the beginning of 1963.

Dear Heavenly Father, accept our thanks for the great gift of time. As we look forward to another year of service together, let it be with humility and gratitude to thee for giving us the hours of our days. So may we use them to thy glory as we serve within our homes, churches, and communities lending Christian influence to the world. Amen.

Our Motto "Friendship and Harmony" and now from Matthew 6:33 "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Three of our members are in hospital at this writing of the report. Mrs. Louis Koch and Mrs. Walter Hayes in Parkview, and Mrs. Carter Palmer in Lutheran. We extend our sympathy to Mrs.
Earl Lyman in the death of her husband and to Mrs. Nella Putman in the death of her mother.

Just one little thought and one little memo. To you who do not have an active part — take a minute and call Mrs.
George Adams, H-48561 — and tell her you'd like to help.
The busiest ones are the happiest ones and if you get into something, you'll really have fun! The Memo — circle the date February 25th — the fourth Monday — 'tis sewing night!

Masonry is not in business for profit. Freemasonry cannot properly be used by anyone as an aid in securing business, or to gain the confidence of others for the furtherance of selfish aims or for pecuniary benefits. To use fraternal kinship to advance one's private interests is unethical and unMasonic.
The offender in such matters is deserving of most severe criticism, and is not fit to be known by the title of Master Mason.

Hi, Jobbies!

I want to wish everyone a very Happy Valentine's Day.

During our second meeting,
January 16, we installed Janice Morton as Musician since Linda Gordon our present Musician is moving out of town very soon. We also installed Sandy Urhausen as protom Treasurer, and additional council members. I would like to thank Ellen Stanberry for protom for me, and Diane Simmers for protom for our Senior Princess, Sharon Erler. Both Sharon and I were unable to attend the meeting, because of North Side's Senior Banquet. After the regular meeting, refreshments were served.

On January 17 the officers met for an all-day decorating party at my house. At that time we made the decorations for the Inspection and Mom and Dad's Night. We accomplished much, thanks to all those present.

Our third meeting and first initiation was our Inspection by Mrs. Cordelia Cook, the Grand Guardian of Inda-na. We had a very delicious banquet at 6:00 p.m. which consisted of swiss steak and all the trimmings. Our meeting started at 7:30 p.m., immediately after the formal banquet. We initiated 24 girls and my officers did a wonderful job. Mrs. Cook is a lovely person and we did enjoy her visit so much.

The dining room carried out my theme of music and also Valentine's Day. The backdrop consisted of a large music staff surrounded by the words "Let Music and Harmony Prevail." On the two head tables were heart trees, with the same theme carried down the side tables. Red crepe paper down the center of each table with tiny red hearts scattered along the crepe paper. In the East in the Bethel room we had placed Mrs. Cook's motto "Make Life Worth Living."

I have appointed a sick committee chairman, Karen Burelison. Her address is 2118 Cass and her phone number is A-19555. If anyone hears of a Job's Daughter or a member of her family who is ill, please call either Karen or me.

Our next meeting, February 20, will be Past Queen's, Past Guardian's and Past Associate Guardian's Night.
During this meeting we will honor the past officers that are present, and I hope there will be many of them on the sidelines. Immediately following the meeting there will be a reception on the mezzanine to honor the Grand Bethel representative to the state of Utah, Miss Diane Simmers.

Our first meeting in March will be a protom's night. The protoms will do the entire meeting, while the regular officers take the protoms' places in the choir. Immediately before the March 6 meeting at 7:30 p.m., there will be a chili supper from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m. I would like to see a lot of people at this supper, so girls get busy and sell a lot of tickets.

At each meeting we will give anyone, who has had a birthday between the last meeting and the present meeting, an opportunity to give to our birthday bank. The money from the birthday bank will go to buy needed equipment for our Bethel.

See all of you at the next meeting!

Mother's Club is the second Monday night of each month.
Call Mrs. Della Weesner,
4025 Westbury Drive, H-76881, for time and place.

First, I would like to thank all of the people who attended our installation of officers on Jan. 5. I give special thanks to our installing officers, who did such a wonderful job. They were: Mr. Tucker, head installing officer;
Mr. Spencer, installing Senior Councilor; Mr. Ehrman, installing Junior Councilor,
Mr. Herrick, installing marshall; Jim Tennant, installing Senior Deacon, and Mr. Fisher, installing pianist.

The elected officers that were installed are Paul Boer-gert, Master Councilor; Matt Cornacchione, Senior Councilor; and Tom Errington, Junior Councilor. The appointed officers that were installed are Dave Borden, treasurer;
Dave Fiandt, scribe; Mike Kelly, senior deacon; Steve Poiry, Junior deacon; Mar
Johnson, senior steward; Jim Long, junior steward; Larry Bushkill, Chaplain; Steve Ka-bish, sentinel; Dave Miller, standard bearer; Tom Rogers, almoner; Dick McVay, marshall; and Bob Quick, orator.

The newly appointed preceptors are Phil Baker, 1st;
Jim Coe, 2nd; Allen Dunham, 3rd; Don Johnson, 4th; Jack Smith, 5th; Scott Branstrator, 6th; and Rick Meeks, 7th.

We hope that all of these boys will do everything that they need to do to have a very successful term as officers. Everyone must do a good job or we will find someone that will to replace them.

I would like to congratulate Nancy Robinson of South Side who was elected Chapter Sweetheart on Dec. 9th at our elections. She was crowned at the DeMolay-Job's Daughters Christmas formal dance "Silver Enchantment" on Dec. 28.

At our installation, Mr.
Tucker, our ritualistic advisor, presented Junior Past Master Councilor Jim Tennant and myself with a chalenge. Since Jim and I are both Representative DeMolays, the highest self-achieved award that a DeMolay can earn, he urged us to start active interest in the Representative DeMolay program will hold meetings, and DeMolays are invited to attend. Jim and I will elucidate all about the program, answer any questions you have about it, and give as much help as we can filling out the questionnaire.

Announcements of meetings will be made at stated Chapter Meetings.

Our first meeting, or initiation night, was held on January 9th. It was a very able meeting as we had al visiting chapters. We had as visitors Dick Wes-on our State Scribe, and Hefley, Past State Master Councilor. At this meeting, we had to give up Traveling Gavel or "Hammer." This was very us for having the most that knew the obligation the state convocate last mer in Indianapolis. It taken away from us by burn, who had at least 5 who knew the obligations, only way that we can back is by going to the ter that has it with at 5 boys that know the obligations. I hope that we able to do this something the future.

Our first initiation will place on Feb. 13 and one is urged to attend.
have another stated meet-on the 27th of Feb. G those petitions so we can pass our quota by a deal. Remember, "You get out of DeMolay what put into it."

E. A. RECOGNIZED

There has been some cussion as to when a pe-becomes a Freemason, but er it is when he has rec-the E. A. Degree, or when it is when he has rec-the M. M. Degree. In Eng-whence came our Freesonry, the Entered App-tice is a Freemason. Foling the ceremony of his tiation, the Entered App-tice gets the seat of at the festal board on right of the Worshipful ter and as a rule, he has social toast. Never again he have the same hon-paid him, not even when receives the Master M.
Degree. The night he is an Entered Apprentice more correctly, when he made a Freemason, is HIS night.

These words by Booker T.
Washington come to mind as I write this article.

The York Rite bodies have made them the great task to prepare for York Rite Festival Days on Sat., Apr. 20, the Chapter degrees; on Sun., Apr. 20, for the Coun-

the Commandery orders.
Visitations have been sent to the Chapters, Councils and Commanderies within a radius of 50 miles from Fort

On Saturday, February 9, 1963 at 1:30 p.m. we will give the Royal Arch Degree to approximately 10 candidates. Why not arrange to be with us on that day and give the new companions a hearty Welcome into our Chapter.

If there is a Blue Lodge brother whom you have often thought of asking to join Thomas R. Marshall Chapter, now is the time to suggest that he sign a petition. It will not only give him an opportunity to make many new friends, but he will also get the satisfaction of being a member of one of the most interesting branches of the Masonic Order.

Due to the enthusiastic manner in which some of our members are bringing in petitions, 1963 promises to be a very active year for this Chapter.

Dinner is still being served on Stated Meeting nights.
Come down and enjoy the fellowship.

The combined installation of the Fort Wayne Commandery No. 4 and the Fort Wayne Assembly No. 139 Social Order Of The Beau-ceant was held in the Commandery room on January 5th. We must now progress at a very fast pace with the business at hand. "The Sweetheart Ball" of the Commandery Drill and Band is to be held February 16th. The buffet dinner will begin the dance at 8:00 p.m. The music of the Technicians will continue from 9:00 p.m. until 11:30 p.m.

The committees for the dance are as follows: General Chairman: Commander Phillip McCague; Decoration

Chairman: S. K. Thomas
Houser; Food Chairman: S.K.
Harry Haller; P.C.; Publicity:
S.K. Dr. Ivan Planck; Tickets: S.K. Harold Hamrick; Grand Marshall: S.K. James

S.K. Bernard Smith. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Drill Corps and Band, at the Temple cigar stand or by calling Harold Hamrick H-03405 or Philip McCague E-5751.

The Drill Corps elected new officers on January 8th. The officers are: President: S.K.
James Whitehurst; Vice
Pres. S.K. Ralph Weesner
P.C. Secretary: S.K. Roger Shafer, Treas.: S.K. Harry

A New point system went into effect on January 1st.
Each Sir Knight by attending and participating in all of the functions of the Commandery and the Drill Corps can accumulate points towards a part of his uniform or equipment. Come to the next stated meeting for the particulars. This is a good way to keep your uniform in first class shape and help your Commandery at the same time. Drill Corps stated meeting is the first Tuesday of each month.

Don't forget to attend our monthly stated meetings on the third Thursday of each month. We also have a very appetizing meal preceding the meeting at 6:15 p.m.

LIFE WORTH LIVINIG

There is a life that is worth living now as it was worth living in the former days, and that is the honest life, the useful life, the unselfish life, cleansed by devotion to an ideal.

There is a battle worth fighting now as it was worth fighting then, and that is the battle for justice and equality; to make our cities and our states free in fact as well as in name; to break the rings that strangle liberty, and to keep them broken; to cleanse, so far as in our power lies, the fountains of our national life from political, commercial, and social corruption; to teach our sons and daughters, by precept and example, the honor of serving such a country as America.

"As we go through life, there isn't time to stop and fret about each petty ill or wrong that comes our way, whether they be real or imaginary. There are many more important things for us to do. Kind acts towards those with whom we daily come in contact will more than offset the petty disturbances folks put in our way."

Officers for the year 1963 were installed New Year's Day. Officers for this year are: Minor H. Stowe, Worshipful Master; Earl D. Smith, Senior Warden; Joseph W. Clark, Junior Warden; Max E. King, Treasurer; Harvey A. Ault, Secretary; Charles E. McGee, Senior Deacon; William Howard, Jr., Junior Deacon; John H. Osborn, Chaplain; James Mahnen-smith, Senior Steward; Darel VanMeter, Junior Steward; Duane Miller, Tyler.

Officers for the Installation Ceremonies were Earnest Earhart, Installing Officer; Sam Richey, Marshall; and Joseph Roman, Chaplain. A supper of oyster stew and chili was served by our fine Eats Committee, Ray Fryback, Elwin Mahnensmith, and Alfred Slaughter.

A New Year is upon us. New officers have taken their stations. May we in the New Year continue to unite in the many joys of brotherly love and friendship, while furthering our knowledge in Masonry.

What were you looking for when you knocked on the door seeking admission into our Lodge of Freemasonry. Only you can answer this question. I often ask myself this question when I look at the empty seats on the side lines. I don't think you found what Masonry stands for or all these seats would not be empty. The only way you will find is to seek and seek is to get interested, and when you get interested you will find the true meaning of Masonry. When we stop attending Lodge and start looking for excuses why we can't attend, we lose sight of the goal we were seeking when we first knocked on the door. Brethren let each one of us make a special effort to attend our Lodge, get interested in its functions and enjoy the fellowship and Brotherly love that awaits us. It is yours, won't you come and meet with us and be a part of this fellowship, and truly make Masonry a part of our Community. It will be a better place to live because you have helped to make it so. Lets up first things first, your God your Country, your Neighbor. When we do this the seats on the side lines won't be empty and we will have found what we were seeking.

Brethren:

The year of 1963 has started off with considerable activity. The annual oyster supper and installation of the 1963 officers was very well attended.

The Entered Apprentice Degree was exemplified on two candidates on January 10. The exemplification was very well handled by the new officers and was very well attended by the Lodge.

The officers have planned several social events for the year of 1963 which will include the brethren and their families.

Attendance has been very good. Let us strive to improve on this good record and gain the full benefits of our grand institution.

May the full blessings of Heaven fall on us and all regular Masons.

The Brothers of Olive Branch have completed another year and have elected new officers for 1963.

The officers are willing to do their best to make this a very educational and inspiring year.

I would like to congratulate our Master of last year, Brother Wm. Jesse, and his officers for an excellent year of instructions.

Olive Branch is over a century old and has never had a hundred members at one time. One can readily see we must, as a small group, attend as often as possible.

We have some young and entergetic officers that need the support of the body to help make 1963 a success. I, as Master of your Lodge, am stressing attendance. Bring with you a Brother to our next meeting. See if you don't have a good evening of fellowship. If you leave without an up - lifted feeling, please let the officers know. Remind him of his faults, give him good and wholesome instructions.

Please come to our next meeting Feb. 14, 7:30 and meet our officers. They are: Earl Hamrick, W. M., Gayl Sheets, S. W., Jack Lybarger, J. W., Russel Neireiter, Treasurer; Lloyd Brown, Sect.; Clarence Lybarger, S. D.; Wilber Bell, J. D.; Mervil

Smith, S. S.; Garland Keister, J. S.; Donald Chaffin, Chaplain; Frank Harkless, Tyler; Mervil Smith, Trustee.

Don't forget, in April we will have our Century plus 4 meeting. We plan to have something special each meeting.

Don't miss them.

The Open Lodge of Installation held on January 1, 1963 was well attended by Masons, their families, and friends. It was a pleasure to meet and associate with all the guests during refreshments after the meeting. This was the first opportunity for many of those present to attend at a time when the lodge was convened for Masonic activities.

It was not only a special occasion for our guests, but also for those of us participating in the ceremonies. It was easy to see that the officers assumed their stations with a little more pride and with renewed conviction of their masonic responsibilities. However, none enjoyed this installation more than I, as I was deeply moved when my mother presented to me the gavel used by my father, Raymond Towles, when he presided as Master of Home Lodge No. 342 of Fort Wayne in 1939.

On Wednesday, January 2, 1963, PM Rolla Durbin was elected and installed as Treasurer. PM Ray Girardot who had been elected to the office this year was unable to accept because of recent illness. Ray, however, is coming along nicely and is receiving visitors.

Brother Lloyd Beard who was once up to the Junior Deacon's station is now in Parkview Hospital and is also receiving visitors. To both of these brothers we extend our best wishes for a quick and complete recovery.

In closing may I echo this thought expressed by Henry Ward Beecher, "All higher motives, ideals, conceptions, sentiments in a man are of no account if they do not come forward to strengthen him for the better discharge of the duties which devolve upon him in the ordinary affairs of life."

FREEMASONRY IN RUSSIA

Freemasonry was introduced into Russia early in the eighteenth century.

There was an English provincial Grand Master for Russia in 1731 and the first Lodge is supposed to have been established there in 1740. Masonry prospered in Russia under Catherine the Great from about 1762 to about 1794 and again under Alexander I from 1801 to 1822.

Tolstio has much to say about Freemasonry in his great story, "War and Peace" and describes a Masonic lodge.

Eahly in the present century there were several lodges in Paris conferring the ionic ritual in the Russian Language. At present masonry is under the ban in Russia. —Murat.

Helping God

Bible Materials Mark 6:1-56.
Devotional Reading: II Corinthians 12:14 through 3:3.

DOUBTLESS God could have made a universe where He did not need help of any kind. Whatever He wanted to do, would be done, and by Him alone. Perhaps, for anything we know to the contrary He has exactly that kind of universe running somewhere at this moment. But not this one. For His own reasons, and for our great good, God constructed this universe in such a way that if God does not get help in doing things, they will not be done. Not that God requires help in everything. If He had any help in creating this universe in the first place, we cannot imagine who could have been His assistant or His blueprint man. God had all the blueprints of the universe in His mind from before the beginning. But—once begun, while God still reserves the right to act at His own discretion without help of any one, the universe—or our part of it at least—does not run itself.

Helping the Ignorant

Let it be repeated: this is for our good. It is a wonderful privilege to share in anything God does. It is a marvelous act on His part that He should let any one of us be responsible even for a tiny part of the vast realm of God. But how can we know what God's work is? How do we know when we are helping Him? There is one thing of which we may be sure: God is always working against evil. He is opposed to evil in every form. So when the Son of God lived and toiled in Galilee, He too was battling against evil wherever He found it. One of the forms of evil is ignorance, error. Not knowing, or thinking that one's thoughts are true when they are not,—this is dangerous. So one of the great activities of Jesus was teaching, and he did not try to teach all alone. He trusted certain fishermen to send them out two by two to teach people He would never long enough to see. And in Jesus, the disciples were helped.

Helping the hungry

Another form of evil is pain, this has many forms, as we know. When first chloroform was used to help women in childbirth, many preachers protested. It was not right, they said, to try to do child-bearing bearable. But mothers know better now. All of us are aware that much pain in the world cannot be cured. We have there are limits to what can be done. But when a Christian sees a hungry child or a suffering man or woman, he dare not turn to himself, as our ancestors may have said, "Too bad, but that's the way it is, and we must live with it." And hunger and pain are sent by God, we need not try to do anything to stop it. On the contrary, Christians are more alert now, they used to be, to the claims of the suffering and the hungry homeless. Every person you help, in fact, is a living invitation from God, to be His help in doing good to pass in the

... a real world

Sometimes we long for a world to live in. What we think, is a sort of fairy world. In the old stories, perhaps you read when you were young, you remember there was a Fairy Godmother. When she arrived, she took over, you did not sit back, watch her wave her magic wand, and what she conjured up out of moonlight and spider webs. It doesn't God do like that? It's complaint. He doesn't do like that because He is real and we are make-believe fairy. He doesn't do like that because He wants children, not dolls; sons and daughters, not robots. He doesn't do that because He wanted a verse in which He would be helped. On the hills of Galilee Jesus fed the great multitude of bread. No one then knew how He did it; but they knew how He had grown from Jesus to the bread of the disciples. If Jesus did what they could do, He did not do what they could do. God is like that. All over the world the battle goes on against evil, comfort against health against disease, against falsehood, wisdom against folly. It's God's fight; are we in it?

HISTORY OF THE SQUARE

Pliny says that Theodorus, a Greek of Samos, invented the square and level, but the square figure is seen in the represented designs of the Tower of Babel, one of the earliest important known structures. This city of Babylon was a perfect square, and the bricks used in its building and walls were square; so probably were those in Babel. To form small squares correctly and to introduce them in endless combination into buildings, it needed a guiding instrument of some kind. So the square, as a constructive tool came into use.

Among the ruins of Babylon, Ninevah, and Petra, it is said to have been found represented. There are pictures and sculptures from the ruins of Thebes, in Egypt, showing the square in the hands of the artisan. Evidences of its use are also to be seen in ruins in India, which are thought by some to antedate those found in Egypt. Among the ruins of the Aztecs, or people before them, in Peru and Brazil, it has also been found; and though tools of stone and flint, such as axes, hatchets, hammers, etc., were doubtless the first used by primitive man in these ruins that date back before history the square is found, and specimens may be found in the British Museum.

The square was regarded by the ancients as a symbol of completeness. Simondes speaks of a man square as to his hands, feet, and mind. Aristotle used a similar figure. — Oregon Freemason.

THREE RIVERS LODGE TO HAVE SMORGASBORD AND SQUARE DANCE

Brethren:

Again in February we had the pleasure of raising three new brothers to the sublime degree of Master Mason. We welcome Brothers Marshall Lee, Thomas Gross, and Edwin Teeters. We wish these new brothers a long and fruitful Masonic career.

There will not be any degree work during the month of March. However, on the 27th of March, which would be our normal Master Mason night, we will have a dinner and some light entertainment. As before, these evenings are open to non-Masons. So, if you have a friend, bring him along and enjoy a fine evening of Masonic fellowship.

At the February stated meeting, Brothers William Herman and Vernon Foulks were appointed to organize a Fellowcraft Club. The primary purpose of this Club is to handle the second section of the Master Mason Degree. As all Master Masons know, this is a phase of the work that makes a lasting impression on every new Brother. So, if any of you Brothers would like to become more active in the work, please call either Bill Herman or Vern Foulks.

If anyone knows of any sick Brothers, please contact Brother John Conahan at S-2213, or your Worshipful Master at S-4309.

On February 8, the Fort Wayne Lodges' along with Waynedale and New Haven Lodges, hosted the first Annual Blue Lodge Guest Night. I am sure that everyone in attendance enjoyed a very fine evening. We hope very much that this will become an annual event.

I want to call your attention to the two plaques now displayed on the wall of our social room. One is a listing of the seventeen Brothers who initiated the request for dispensation for our Lodge.

The other is a list of Charter members for our Lodge.

Soon to be displayed will be a short history of the founding of our Lodge. We give a great vote of thanks to Brother Donald Barnett for his time and effort in preparing these plaques.

Well brethren another month has rolled around and Maumee Lodge has completed another milestone. We did not have any candidates in February, but we will have a class of four in March and will need plenty of help as Lodge will open early.

Our Blue Lodge guest night was really a big success and the brethren who were not there missed an enjoyable evening. Our thanks goes to the Shrine for the Little Pote's Symphony and the Masquer's who went all out to entertain us, also our thanks to the Scottish Rite for donating their services.

We wish to thank Brother William Hanes, our ticket chairman and all the brethren for a good job in getting the tickets to our Brethren and guests.

We will have our Charter Member and Past Master banquet on May 29, so mark this on your calendar as we would like to have a large turnout for this special occasion.

We have had a very bad winter for a lot of our members to come to Lodge but with most of it over "I hope" will be looking for a lot of new faces to come to Lodge as the weather gets better.

Our hospital visitation is Monday, March 4, lets have a good turnout for this worthy cause. Let us support our chairman, Fred Peters, Sr., who has done an excellent job with so few Brethren present.

Among the working tools of a Freemason, the plumb and square have a particular significance in their teaching of Morality.

There is no need for any man to be mystified by these simple emblems. Their meaning lies upon the surface, clear and plain to anyone in our Fraternity. The plumb is just a tool which suggests to us that there is an "up and down" in human experience. It helps us to remember that there are always those who stand above us in achievement and character and that there is also one who stands above all in goodness and sincerity. It also suggests uprightness or rectitude of life. Therefore, to use the plumb means that we should ever strive, in our daily life, to emulate the example of these men, living in such a manner as to take our own measure by their standards.

Brethren:

This article was written after our Blue Lodge Guest Night, which was held Feb. 8th for the approximate 700 which attended. I'm sure you will agree with me that it was an evening well worth remembering, and again I would like to express my sincere thanks to all who assisted in making this night a success.

January 17th our fellowcraft team held their first dinner meeting, after which Brothers James Farrar and Elmer Barcus were appointed as chairman for two fellowcraft teams this year with Brother Sam Maslob as recorder. Although we have no candidates for the month of March, we intend to do some traveling. Come get behind Jim or Elmer and travel with us.

We were saddened during the month of January with the deaths of Brothers Noah K. Smith and Lloyd E. Godfrey. To their families we extend our deepest sympathy.

Brother James T. Peters is doing an excellent job as our Masonic Education Program Chairman, and as we have no candidates for this month, we are by no means dark. Masonic Education films are being ordered and programs arranged for our regular meetings, preceded by an hour of fellowship around the table board March 12, March 26. Come and bring brother with you.

Hospital Visitation will be March 18 at 7:30 at Veterans Hospital. Come and forth your hand to raise spirits and hopes of our hospitalized veterans.

In closing I would like to use this little poem on "We Are You?"

Some members keep to Masonry strong,
While others join and belong;Some dig right in, to serve with pride,
Some go along just for ride.

Some Brothers do share, while some lie back just don't care.

On meeting nights always show, While there those who never go.

Some always pay their dues ahead, Some get behind months instead,

Some do their best, to build, some make;

Some never give, but ways take.

Some lag behind, some things go;

Some never help our sorry grow.

Some drag, some pull, don't some do.

Consider Now — Which these are you.

and Forrest Finnell, our Senior Warden, has some entertainment lined up for us. He also is looking forward to receiving your reservation.

I would like to thank the visitors and the brothers who braved the below zero weather on Master Mason degree on our fine candidate William N. Coonrod. I would like to welcome Bill Wayne Lodge and hope to see him in lodge often. We were well paid for coming out in the cold weather by a fine meal of beef and noodles prepared by our excellent cook Ella Stabler. Remember brothers, we eat every Master Mason night. We will be looking for you this month.

It has been suggested that we have a golf stag this summer for our members and friends. If you are interested, please get in touch with Harrell Garrison E-1723, Forrest Finnell K-2616 or Bob Witcher T-31755. More about this later.

We had a fair turn out last month at the Veterans' Hospital and Kenny Ryal is looking forward to seeing more of March 25, 1963.

It is the wishes of Grand Lodge that we have a Mason Education Committee and at this committee function. Our January officers meeting, we had four very qualified brothers volunteer for this job. One of these brothers will give a 10 to 15 minute talk every stated meeting night starting in March. Things that every Mason should know about his lodge. The chairman of this committee is Past Master Fred Goshorn, assisted by Past Master Joe McDowell; chaplain, Jim Waldron and brother Glenn Goshorn.

Brethren, don't forget to pay your dues for 1963, as time is running out. When paying your dues, please do not forget the dollar or more for your voluntary contribution to your Masonic Home. You brethren that have paid your dues, it is not too late to send in an extra dollar or more and get your donors seal for your dues card. To those who have donated and have these seals, we thank you.

A report from our sick call that Roy Bailey is coming along fine and getting out a little in this cold weather. Hazel Webster has left the Lutheran Hospital and is on his way to his Florida home to rest up before going back to work. Al Hoffman is still at Parkview at this writing and would like to have visitors. Frank Baptist is home and getting along fine after his stay in St. Joe Hospital. Glen Scott of Syracuse, Indiana entered Elkhart Hospital this month for an operation.

My brothers, as the days and months of 1963 keep rolling by, I wonder how many of us exemplify true Masonry; not just in the lodge, but more—especially in the conduct of our daily tasks. Remember always that Masonry is judged by the world at large, and by the conduct of the members of our Fraternity. Let any Mason make the slightest misstep and the whole Fraternity is judged to be guilty. Remember then my Brethren, to employ our Masonic teachings every day, that the honor, glory, and reputation of the institution may be firmly established and the world at large convinced of its good efforts.

In Masonry we are taught that your brother can not be your enemy. Even though sometimes things may occur that will seem to pull you apart and the weeds of Malice and hatred may try to take root in your heart, the cement of Masonry is indestructible, for it is made of true brotherly love.

If you do not have this kind of love in your heart there is something definitely wrong with you, and you should proceed to enlighten yourself as to the real fundamentals of true Masonry. No man can be a good Mason and hold malice and hatred in his heart. May we all as good Masons endeavor to do unto others, as we would have them do unto us. I would like to give to you an excellent definition that I found of Masonry.

Freemasonry, in its broadest and most comprehensive sense, is a system of morality and social ethics, a primitive religion and a philosophy of life, all of simple and fundamental character, and would like to have visiitarianism, and through treating life as a practical experiment, subordinates the material to the spiritual. It is a religion without a creed, being of no sect but finding truth in all. It is moral but not self righteous. It demands sanity rather than sanctity. It is tolerant but not supine. It seeks truth but does not define truth. It urges its members to think but does not tell them what to think. It despises ignorance but does not condemn the ignorant. It fosters education but proposes no curriculum. It espouses political liberty and the dignity of man but has no platform or propaganda. It believes in the nobility and the usefulness of life. It is moderate, universal and so liberal as to permit each individual to form and express and Hospital. At the time of what Freemasonry is or ought to be, and invites him to improve it if he can.

This past month we had degree work for Brothers Robert J. Bartusch and Cameron B. Sneering. Also we had a very good response in our visitation to the Veterans Hospital at the time of this writing, Brother Elmer J. Werling is in Parkview Hospital where he will be for sometime, with a broken hip. May we remember him and all those who are unable to attend lodge in our prayers. Please notify your officers if you know of any sickness and we hope to see you all in Lodge real soon. Future event — Ladies Night — May 4th.

Enthusiasm has been created by the activities of the first two months of this year and attendance is excellent, the fellowship the finest. These are the two features which make a Lodge function a joyful experience. From all indications we are to be presented with a number of petitions in the months ahead and our plans are for more activities.

Three fine events will be held for your pleasure during March — The Bean Feast, The 10 year Reunion, and The Annual Ladies Nite Banquet. Each event will create additional satisfaction for all Brothers and are designed to encourage you to share a moment with us.

The Bean Feast on Saturday Morning, March 2nd, will begin with a Coffee and Donut "Wake-up" Hour at 8:00 A.M. followed by the MM Degree at 9:00 A.M. and the Bean Feast at Noon. Tickets are 50 cents and we assure you of a pleasant experience watching the Fellowship Team perform at this unusual hour.

On March 22nd, the 1953 Officers will present the MM Degree and Lectures. Over 50 Brothers were raised 10 years ago and each is being invited to return for what is sure to be a most enjoyable evening. Lodge will open early in the afternoon with the 1953 Officers assuming their Stations after a special 6:30 Dinner.

The Ladies Nite Banquet has become one of the finest Masonic Social events — an evening that Brothers and their Ladies may spend in an atmosphere of hospitality and humor. On March 29th, Writer and Humorist "Bish" Thompson will travel to Fort Wayne to be our Guest Speaker. Brother Thompson is known for laughing his audience off their chairs and also sending them away thinking. Tickets ($1.25 per person) are available from the Officers and at the Candy Counter.
